LIBRARIAN RESIGNS

Margaret McCallie Leaves after Seven Years of Efficient Service at the U.

Will Take a Course in the Columbia School of Expression at Chicago—A Popular Librarian.

It has become public that Miss Margaret McCallie has tendered her resignation and will leave the University next week. From here Miss McCallie will go to Chicago where she will enter the Columbia School of Expression from which she will graduate next August. Miss McCallie has exceptional talent as a reader and has rendered her services frequently at the student entertainments both by giving readings and by training the students. Miss McCallie has been connected with the University a longer period of time than any other person. She entered as a senior preparatory student on October 3, 1892, the day the college opened. In 1898 she graduated with the degree of A. B. During her college course Miss McCallie took a prominent part in literary organizations and other student activities. She was captain of the famous "Company Q," composed entirely of girls and drilled to an astonishing state of proficiency. After graduation Miss McCallie spent one year tutoring in the English department at the University. In 1899 she was chosen librarian for the University and has held the position until the present time and if she so desired could hold it for time immemorial.

To the alumni Miss McCallie is known as "Maggie," to the present senior and junior she is known as Margaret, to the present lower classmen she is known as Miss McCallie; to us all she is known as a true friend, she has ever been accommodating and considerate and has worked faithfully in the interests of the university. She is universally popular among the faculty and students and it is with a feeling of deep regret we bid her good bye.

The best wishes of her many friends go with her as she takes up her favorite study. The utmost confidence in Miss McCallie's ability along these lines is had by all who have had her efforts and all predict a successful future for her before and after graduation.

Miss McCallie will be accompanied by Zella Perkins, '03, who will do post graduate chemistry work in the university of Chicago, and by Miss Francis Savage of Pullman, who will also enter the Columbia school of expression.

Miss Perkins and Miss Savage have both resigned their positions as teachers in the Colfax high school.

Senior Doings.

The Senior class met Friday to consider ways and means of liquidating the deficit incurred in the publication of the 1906 "Gem of the Mountains." All collections had not yet been made and no definite report could yet be obtained, consequently the matter was postponed to Monday.

It is known that the direct resulting from the enterprise amounts to something like two hundred dollars. Two hundred and twenty-five dollars were borrowed last spring. This note becomes due in about two weeks. To meet this debt there is but a small sum now available.

The boys of the class will soon appear in Sombreros and corduroys. These they may be compelled to pawn in order to meet the Annual deficit.

PREPS. ENTER FOOTBALL.

At Football Mass Meeting They Accept Two Challenges and Elect Captain and Manager.

The boys of the Preparatory Department met Thursday morning in the Auditorium to consider two challenges for football games. One was from the Lewiston Normal and the other from the Preparatory Department of Washington State College. Both were accepted. The meeting next proceeded to the election of a captain for the Prep. team, with the result that Armstrong captured the place. H. Wadsworth was chosen manager. Practice will be begun at once. The dates of the games are not yet decided upon, but it is safe to predict that by the time they roll around the Preps. will have ready an aggregation worthy of the school.

Military Department Notes.

The following is a list of the non-commissioned officers as thus far announced: Co. A.—First Sgt., Barto; Second Sgt., Smith; Third St. Magee. Co. B.—First Sgt., Deane; Second Sgt., Fogle; Third Sgt., Trumbull; Fourth Sgt., Sollibakke. Co. C.—First Sgt., Hogue; Second Sgt., Wadsworth; Third Sgt., Price; Fourth Sgt., Ladd; Fifth Sgt., Perkins. As the companies are divided, there are 25 men in Co. A., 24 in Co. B. and 27 in Co. C. There are 20 men in the band. The band has not yet made its appearance on the drill ground, but this is owing to the fact that they have had very little time for practice, and that the companies themselves have not yet got down to steady work. The awkward are being gradually rounded into shape and as soon as they are able to take their places in the companies, the battalion will be ready for the old routine, in which the band will as usual participate.

R. W. Overman, '04, principal of the Genesee High School was a Moscow visitor Saturday.

LAI D TO REST

J. E. Humphrey, '07, Paid the Last Respects by His Fellow Students.

Services Held at the First Baptist Church—Cadet Battalion Escorts Remains to Resting Place.

J. Edgar Humphrey, whose death was recorded in last week's Argonaut, was buried on Wednesday. No assembly was held in the morning. Classes meeting at 11:15 were held at the assembly hour and the first afternoon classes were held at 11:15. All other afternoon classes were dismissed in order that all University students might be given the opportunity of attending Mr. Humphrey's funeral.

The battalion was formed soon after one o'clock and marched to the Humphrey residence on West Sixth St. From there it accompanied the hearse to the Baptist church where the funeral took place at 2 o'clock. Besides the battalion of cadets, the Junior class, of which the deceased was a member, was present at the funeral in a body. Many members of the faculty were also in evidence.

A quartet composed of Prof. Eldridge, Pauline Jensen, May Campbell and C. O. Oakes furnished the music. After the opening song and prayer by the Rev. Black, Professor Morley spoke in behalf of the faculty. In a manner that plainly showed his deep feeling, Prof. Morley told of the excellent class room work of Mr. Humphrey and of the many other ways in which he endeared himself to all his teachers. Professor Morley also voiced the regret of the Young Men's Christian Association which lost in the deceased one of its hardest workers.

Joshua Jensen made a short address in behalf of the Junior class.

The Rev. Black took for the text of his sermon a verse of 17th Psalm which was suggested by a statement of Mr. Humphrey shortly before he was taken ill, that he was not satisfied with his achievement in Christian work. The Rev. Black said that could he have had his wish he would leave the funeral sermon for some one else to deliver and seat himself with the chief mourners. He dwelt at considerable length upon the many desirable conditions surrounding Mr. Humphrey in school, church and home, and then emphasized thereby his disinterested attitude in expressing dissatisfaction at his Christian attainments. The speaker continued in praise of Mr. Humphrey as a worker in every activity of the church. He closed with remarks concerning the ambition which accompanied the deceased in all his actions—that of becoming a foreign missionary.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, the Almighty God in his divine wisdom has seen best to take from us our beloved friend and classmate, J. Edgar Humphrey, and

Whereas, in his death our class has lost one of its most brilliant members, and each one of us a friend and counselor that never can be replaced, be it,

Resolved, That we offer to the bereaved family our sincere sympathy, with the hope that the love of Christ which our departed brother bore in his heart may comfort them in their sorrow; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the afflicted family, that a copy be printed in the University Argonaut, that a copy be printed in the Moscow Evening Journal, and that a copy be attached to the records of our class.

W. W. Goble,

J. L. Adkison '04, Principal of the Russell School, went to Grangeville with the second team but wore the Grangeville colors.

SECOND TEAM WINS

Grangeville Gets Small End of a 11 to 0 Game, Played on the Grangeville Gridiron.

Idaho's Team Is Better at all Stages but Is Penalized Frequently—Notes on "The Trip."

The game at Grangeville, Saturday, Oct. 14, resulted in a score of 11 to 0 in favor of the second team. Line up as follows:

Grangeville kicks to Idaho. Ball advanced 15 yards. Idaho makes yardage several times but finally loses ball to Grangeville. Grangeville loses ball on downs. M. A. C. crossed the mountains and recrossed, carrying back two defeats. Although she lost the games in the Inland Empire she won the deepest respect from those with whom she met. A more gentlemanly and congenial bunch of boys never congregated to the number of sixteen. On the field, in the town, at the University, in victory or defeat they were ever the same, gentlemanly and courteous. Too high praise for the conduct of the team and their coach while on their visit to the Palouse cannot be given. Such a team is a credit to any institution. It is to be hoped that the game last Monday is only the introduction which will lead to the establishment of permanent relations with M. A. C.

It is with regret and pleasure that we announce the resignation of the Librarian, Margaret B. McCallie, '98. Regret—because the University and students lose a faithful friend and an efficient worker. Pleasure—because Miss McCallie is to resume the training which means her successful entering into a field which is her natural choice.

The Argonaut predicts a successful future for Miss McCallie in the field of elocution and dramatic reading. She severs her actual connection with the University but that love which she has for her Alma Mater and the mutual friendship which has grown between her and the students will continue inseparable. May success ever accompany the efforts of our former Librarian is the wish of the Argonaut.

Less than four weeks until the W. S. C. Idaho football game and still there is very little data for forecasting the result. Both teams have played the same two other teams with similar results. Idaho played the Lewiston High School, with the score 42 to 2 in favor of the University. W. S. C. beat the Lewiston High School a few days later by a score of 51 to 0. Last Monday Idaho won from M. A. C. by a score of 50 to 0. W. S. C. on Wednesday beat M. A. C.'s team by a score of 32 to 0.

These games were played under varying conditions. In the L. H. S.-U. I. game, the Varsity team comprised about half second team men; the W. S. C.-L. H. S. game was a first team game. The M. A. C.-U. I. game was of 50 minutes duration; the M. A. C.-W. S. C. game 35 minutes. M. A. C. played Idaho when they were in the pink of condition, but were not yet recovered from the effects of the scrimmage when they met W. S. C. To compensate in a measure for this, Coach Harbaugh played against W. S. C.

The varying conditions under which the games were played considered, the only conclusion one can reach is that the W. S. C.-U. I. game will be a close, hard fought contest. The intervening time will require the most faithful work on the part of the football squad, and a helping encouragement from the student body. Every one in the institution must lend support in one way or another.

It is also interesting at this time to note the other intercollegiate games on the Pacific coast. Willamette held Stanford down to a 12 to 0 score and played California a 0 to 0 game. Oregon also played California, a game without a score. W. S. C.'s record in Oregon will now be watched with interest.

The elective system recently adopted by the faculty is in use this semester for the first time and with the most satisfactory results. A graduate of a four years' course high school is considered old and matured enough to know definitely what special course of study he desires to take as will assist him in the business which he proposes to undertake after leaving school. A student can now take, with his adviser's consent, any study he desires. There is a provision that he must take between twenty and forty hours in his major study during his four years' course. The exact number is determined by his adviser. Under the new system only one hundred and twenty semester hours are required for graduation, whereas under the old regime one hundred and forty were necessary.

This system is in vogue in most of the larger colleges of our land, and has always worked well. We are sure it will do so here.—Oregon Weekly.

The above is characteristic of the manner in which the elective system is received at those institutions which have adopted it. This system is in vogue in many of the institutions of the country and is giving excellent satisfaction to both students and faculty. To give a student of reasonably mature reason absolute freedom, tempered with advice, in the choice of subjects for study is the highest function of collegiate educational institutions.

There are numerous instances within our own circle of vision in which such liberty is essential to the best interests of the student. For instance, there are at present at the University, B. A. students who own mineral prospects in the state. It is essential to the welfare and education of those students that they should be permitted to select certain courses in mining and manual training. Such training is necessary in the development of their prospects. Last year there were engineering students who desired some courses in the literary departments. In almost every such case as may arise there is no detriment to the students course by the permission of free election, and in almost every case such election is highly beneficial to the student. With the proper advice and guidance in the choice of courses there could result no harm from a free elective system in higher education.

The prizes offered for a football song have furnished an incentive for the exercise of the dormant talent which has long been smothered. Several songs have already been handed in and several other students have signified their intention to make an effort. The result will be that we will have a good assortment from which to pick a good, rollicking, noisy song.

SECOND TEAM WINS

Hunter's chicken sandwiches at Potlatch. The evening, however, was more eventful, as it was occupied by a twenty mile drive from Stites to Grangeville. Most of the boys walked to the top of the hill, about five miles. Doc Magee's efforts to climb a tree with a team and top buggy was something to be remembered. Stein (Soph) had some trouble securing a bootblack to shine his shoes for the dance, but after some persuasion secured the services of Coffin (Freshie) who did a good job despite his inexperience. The evening after the game the boys were entertained at a dance, given in their honor, by the maidens of Grangeville.

Going Away Party

Flora and Edna Moore gave a "going away" party in honor of Margaret McCallie at their home, Saturday evening. The party was a surprise to the guest of honor, but proved to be pleasant.

Miss McCallie was again surprised during the party by having a shower of large paper bundles hurled at her. Upon investigation these bundles were found to contain dainty and beautiful presents such as are useful in travelling. Each bundle also contained a pensketched card with the design of a suit case and the honor-guest's initials thereon.

Rosa Forney played several selections on the piano and Miss McCallie gave several readings.

Those present were: Misses McCallie '98 Keener '04 Booth, '05, Jenkins, '03, Forney, '01, Forney, '04, Moore, '04, Moore and Bush, first registrar of the University; Mesdames Griffith, '03, Reed, ex-'01 and Shields.

Local Overflow.

Miss Gwendolyn Black, formerly a member of the '08 class, left on Sunday for New York City, where she is to study art, and especially illustrating. Miss Black did considerable work on the '06 Annual and has in other ways given evidence of the ability which she will now more fully develop.

Mrs. Dexter White, nee Porter, spent a few hours visiting at Ridenbaugh Hall last Tuesday. Mrs. White was, until the present school year, the instructor of domestic science at this institution, consequently she was smothered with friendly feelings and wishes by her dormitory friends.

Miss Grace Van Wyncarden of the Sophomore class, was taken to her home in Caldwell by the Friday morning train, Lieut. Steunenberg accompanying her. Miss Van Wyncarden's illness developed into typhoid fever and it was thought best that she be taken home where it would be possible to care for her in the best possible manner.

R. Y. Lyman, a member of the '07 class last year, made a short visit in Moscow and at the University last week. During the summer he has been working on a government survey in Montana. Mr. Lyman was undecided as to his immediate future, but rather expects to spend the winter with his parents at Huron, S. Dakota. Next fall he will return to Idaho to finish the mineral course at the University.

Tony Crooks has been appointed Recording Secy. of the Y. M. C. A. in the place of Geo. H. Curtis, who did not return to school this year. Mr. Crooks is also in charge of developing the work of the Employment Bureau which is conducted by the Y. M. C. A. This Bureau will make an effort to obtain a full list of jobs available for students and also a list of all students who desire to work out of school hours in order to help pay expenses. When the plan is in good working order it will be an invaluable feature of the Association's work.

ing groups on either side. Later the stairs were turned into a "chute the chutes." A grand march was enjoyed in which all four-footed members of the dormitory participated while Mrs. Young acted as orchestra. At the close of the performance the young ladies served in a body as reception committee to Friday evening callers, welcoming them with joyous songs.

Literary Societies.

WEBSTERIANS.

By a strange paradox the Websters met and did not meet. Last week they convened, elected officers and started work for the semester. Last meeting it was discovered that the meetings thus far had been unconstitutional since no quorum had been present. Consequently the assemblage of students decided that the Websterian Literary Society had not yet met.

By means of a unique method in parliamentary proceedings the assemblage convened in a formal manner and it is assured that the Websterian Literary Society will be in operation again next week.

Election of officers will occur Saturday evening, October 21. At that time also, also, there will be a regular program rendered.
