A GREAT MEETING IDAHO DEFEATS WASHINGTON PREPS 11; L. S. N. 0

Students Hold Gigantic Mass Meetings Preparatory to the Big Game.

Marvelous Exhibition of College Spirit—Gems from the Inspiring and Eloquent Speeches.

The Assembly hour last week was turned into a student mass meeting for the purpose of arousing the spirit and enthusiasm of the students before the Washington game. The meeting was inspiring and enthusiasm ran amuck. Each player in turn was called upon to say a few words about the prospects of winning and as each took his seat nine raps rang out in perfect unison. Larson was the first called and said, "My man will either get me or I will get him." Rogers voiced the same sentiments. Snow said, "I would rather face Washington than face this crowd." Captain Middleton was next called and in a few well chosen words told of the strength of the team. Said he, "We are fifty per cent stronger as a result of this meeting. It is the best manifestation of spirit I have seen since entering Idaho. The value of the college song or a college yell just before the kick-off can not be overestimated. Each man will hit the line with twice the determination that he otherwise would have done."

Billy Thomas said, "I will do my best, but don't yell for me before the kick-off; it makes me too nervous." Henry Smith, king of the preps, scored a hit when he said, "I think we can and will can Washington." Armie is responsible for the statement, "I will do my best; I believe we will win." Nick expressed his determination to play until exhausted.

Keyes said that he would save his wind until Monday. Charlie Smith said that Washington was lucky yet Idaho was a fighter and would win if determination and student support counted for anything. Oakes said, "My position is end. They always call on me when the speech making material is all used up. However, I wish to say that I am ready to do my best. I will finish my speech Monday."

These brief statements are only extracts from the inspiring addresses of the players. Each is a gem and they all may be summed in five words, "Idaho will do her best."

The new songs and yells were practiced. Members of the faculty talked until the assemblage was wrought almost into a frenzy. If we only could have met Washington then! The prize song, written by Guy Holman,

The Strong Aggregation of Clam Diggers Who Crossed the Cascades, Coming From Puget Sound, Confident of Success, Are Sent Back by the Gem State Hosts to the Tune of 8 to 0.

SUPERIOR TEAM WORK AND GENERALSHIP WINS THE GAME

Alumni and Football Enthusiasts From All Points within a Radius of 200 Miles, in Moscow to See What Proved to Be the Hardest Fought Contest Yet Held in the Inland Empire—Idaho's Captain Kicks Two Difficult Goals From the Field.

"We have met the enemy and they are ours" rings through the streets of Moscow. The strong aggregation of "Clam Diggers" from Puget Sound went down to defeat before the hosts of the Gem State. While the game was a close, hard fought contest throughout, there was no mistake as to which was the better team. Idaho alone could make consistent gains. Washington made her yardage only a few times and never was certain of gains.

Long runs were few and far between. Small's 20 yard run through tackle, Larson's, and Middleton's quarterback runs of 8, were the only long runs. It was a game for hard line bucking with steady and consistent gains without sensational plays. There were two strong teams pitted against each other and the conflict was necessarily fierce. In weight Washington had the better, but the game was better handled by their opponents. Team work and generalship on Idaho's part was superior.

Middleton certainly is a general of the first rank. He ever has his presence of mind and always uses the best judgment in directing plays. The work of Middleton and Thomas cannot be overestimated. But one man cannot be praised above another. The entire team, without exception, played to the entire satisfaction of their supporters. Every one was in every play and the entire team worked like a piece of machinery, each part operating under the guidance of mental power.

The enthusiasm of the citizens and students has never before been equalled at Moscow. People from all points within a radius of 200 miles came to see the game. Alumni, friends of the university and football enthusiasts from all points assembled on the side lines.

At 2:30 the teams gathered on the field and ran through a short signal practice, after which the sound of the Referee's whistle started the pigskin in motion.

The distance the ball was carried was not very large. The total aggregating about 310 yards. Of this Idaho got 240 and Washington 70.

First Half.

Idaho chose the east goal and Washington kicked off to the one yard line. Small ran the ball back to the 25 yard line.

Small was sent through the line for 4 yards and again for 20 yards through right tackle. Armstrong lost two yards then Idaho punted. Washington returned the pigskin about 15 yards.

Here Washington had a series of fumbles that returned the ball to Idaho. Twice they tried to pass the ball but each time it went wide of its mark. Idaho got the spheroid on the second fumble and sent Smith through for 2½ yards, then Larson for the yardage. Small carried 1, 2 and 1. The "Clam Diggers" here got the ball but again fumbled. Tilley made 2 yards and then Washington punted.

Rogers went through for 2, Armstrong over the line for 4 yards making the yardage. Small carried 2½, Armstrong 2 and again 2 yards. Idaho was penalized five yards for holding in the line. Idaho then fumbled but recovered the ball with gain enough to make first down. Larson took the ball through for 1 yard, Small for 3½ and Armstrong for 1. Larson then went through right tackle for 7 yards. The next try was a failure. Smith gained 1 yard. Middleton tried for a place kick but a bad pass prevented a fair try and the attempt was a failure.

Washington kicked out from their 25 yard line and Rogers caught the ball in the center of the field. Armstrong went through for 2½ and Smith carried for 2 yards. Then Idaho punted to Washington's 5 yard line where she was downed. After one try which culminated in a fumble Idaho got the ball.

Small went through for 2 yards but the referee thought there was too much holding, consequently set Idaho back 15 yards. Middleton made a quarter back run which netted 8 yards and then tried the second place kick which was successful. The ball sailed through the air and cleared the goal like an air ship. Idaho's hosts were jubilant. Score 4 to 0.

Here Washington made a change in her line up. Windsor, quarter, went out, Cole taking his place.

Idaho received the kick off. Smith fumbled but Thomas fell on the ball. Larson was sent through for 3½ yards and Armstrong 2. Smith carried 2, Rogers 2½, Small 3, Larson 2, Smith 2, Small 2½, and again 5, Rogers 4½.

Idaho lost the ball to Washington. Washington tried a quarter back run but the interference could not keep the way clear and Smith made a flying tackle, nailing Cole for a down without gain. Time was called before the players could recover from the fray. Score 4 to 0.

Second Half.

Idaho kicked off to Washington. Tilley caught the ball on the 10 yard line and ran it back to the 30 yard line. McDonald went through for 3 yards then Washington fumbled. Idaho was penalized 5 yards for off-side. Washington again fumbled but gained a yard on the recovery of the ball. Tilley went through for 2 yards, McDonald 2, Palmer tried for no gain, Cole tried another quarter run with only 1 yard gain, then Washington punted to Small who ran in 5 yards.

Armstrong went through for 4 yards, Smith 1, Armstrong 1 and 1½, Smith 2½, Armstrong 2, Smith 2½ and 4, Rogers 3, Small 3. Idaho was then penalized 5 yards for a forward pass.

Small punted across the side line and Washington again tried her abilities at carrying the ball. Palmer went through for 4½ yards. McDonald was thrown back for a loss of 1½ yards, then gained ½ yard. Idaho sent Armstrong through for 4 yards and Small for 1½ then she fumbled.

Armstrong broke through and threw Palmer back for no gain. McDonald went through for 4 yards, Palmer 1½, Pullen 2, McDonald 3, Pullen 1½, McDonald made 4 yards and a delayed pass then lost 1. McDonald made 4 then failed to make yardage.

Smith, for Idaho, went through for 4½. Washington was penalized 5 yards for hitting. Smith carried 4, Larson 1, Smith 4, Small 1, Smith 3½, Armstrong 2½, Larson 9, Armstrong 4, Smith 2, Armstrong 4, Smith 6, Armstrong 2, Smith 4, Armstrong 1½, Smith no gain. Then came Middleton and Thomas with their little stunt that was the whole game as far as score is concerned. It was a duplicate of the other place kick and made the score 8 to 0.

In the melee Thomas was kicked in the head and put out of the game. Magee went in to left end for the remainder of the game.

Game Slow and Uninteresting with the Preps Fumbling Frequently—Ira Gwinn the Star.

The Prep team played their first game at the ball park last Saturday before a small and not very enthusiastic crowd. The Lewiston Normal team was the victim. The Preps fumbled frequently. The game was characterized by frequent wrangling over rudimentary points.

Lewiston won the toss and chose the east goal and Edmundson kicked off. Lewiston could not gain and punted. The preps, by steady, consistent gains, carried the ball down the field for a touchdown. Edmundson kicked goal. Idaho kicked off again but immediately carried it over for a touchdown. Time was called with the ball in Lewiston's possession.

In the second half neither side could score although the Preps made two touch backs. Fumbles were frequent. In this half Horton made a beautiful 25 yard run and Solibakke frequently made gains of 10 yards.

For the preps, Horton, Edmundson, Solibakke and Perkins played the best game. Captain Stevens and Ira Guinn were the stars of the Lewiston team.

Many prominent attorneys and business men from distant parts of the state were present at the game today. On account of delay in court work Judge Beatty adjourned court thus giving many Idaho admirers an opportunity to witness the contest.

The ranks of Idaho rooters at the big game today were swelled by the addition of about one hundred from the W. S. O. For the first time since time began has such an occurrence taken place. The W. S. O. students are very angry at Washington for not meeting them and seem to place the blame all upon Washington. Whether that be true or not is not known. However, it is evident that the W. S. O. rooters are anxious to get a dig at Washington.

The Athletic Board in publishing "Idaho Songs and Yells" has inaugurated something which we hope will be continued every year. This little collection will aid greatly at the various contests.

To the Associate belongs the credit of publishing this issue. The lines in this column were contributed by the Editor. Let the criticism for any faults fall upon the Editor; the praise for any virtues go to the Associate.

The energy displayed by Professor B. E. Janes upon assuming the duties of head of the Department of Mining has been characteristic of his work in other lines. He has been active in awakening an enthusiastic feeling among the students since coming to Idaho. These efforts have culminated in a successful result. To Professor Jones much credit should be given for the Idaho spirit developed during the past month.

The poster announcing the game with Washington was rather severe in appearance. The tone of the announcement should not be considered a criterion of Idaho's feeling for Washington for the best of relations exist between the two institutions. The poster was evidently made to attract attention and draw a crowd to the game.

However, such strenuous announcements may create the wrong impression upon those not acquainted with inter-collegiate relations. It might, therefore, be better to make less antagonistic announcements.

The determination of some of our professors and students that we should have a book of college songs has borne good fruit. By scanning the volume recently published by the A. S. U. I., we find eight college songs, each typical of a particular sentiment, and each with a definite purpose. In this little volume there appear stirring battle songs, notes of triumph for the victors, and notes of condolence for the vanquished. Each has an original and expressive style. The yells are all spirited and catchy. The volume is nicely bound and nicely printed. The makeup of the volume is excellent. Besides being useful as song books they are neat as souvenirs and every student should be proud of the production. It is the first attempt and, considering the limited time, a very commendable one.

A word of praise is due the student body for the manifest college spirit. From the testimony of all who have been at the University a number of years, the college enthusiasm shown at the last two student rallies, surpasses any seen here before. Others have remarked that the college spirit now shown is equal to and surpasses that of other institutions. Such feeling upon the part of the students furnishes a motive force to the participants in the inter-collegiate contests that will carry Idaho to victory. Such feeling binds all closer and closer together and deepens the love of every student for his Alma Mater and strengthens his interest in all her contests. Such spirit as that shown by the University of Idaho further tends to deny the allegation that state institutions do not have the love and support of their students and alumni. May such rallies as the past two be frequent, and may the spirit now manifest endure.

FROLIC POSTPONED.

Sophomores Give Nov. 3 to the Athletic Ball and Set the Frolic for Some Time in February.

The Sophs have been holding meetings with remarkable frequency of late. Two epoch-making meetings in one week is, with them, nothing out of the ordinary. One of the longest sessions they have held began at 4:40 on Monday afternoon of last week. The date set for the Sophomore Frolic, November 3, was given up in favor of the Athletic Ball. There ensued a long, spirited discussion of the comparative merits of all other available dates. The final action of the class was to postpone the Frolic until sometime in February. The committee which had been appointed to investigate the question of caps and sweaters turned in its final report. The cap adopted is a red and black combination somewhat less brilliant than last year's cardinal domes. Later on sweaters will probably be ordered. The orders for the caps are being taken as fast as possible.

Another meeting was held on Thursday afternoon especially to consider the Freshman challenge to a football game. The '09 challenge demanded that the game be played on Saturday, October 28. The Prep game with Lewiston Normal made this impossible. The challenge was accepted with the provision that the date and other particulars be agreed upon by the managers of the two teams.

Condition Examinations were held on Saturday. A great slaughter of O's is reported.

Professor Jones went to Portland, Saturday, to meet his family who are coming to Moscow.

Carol Foster, the Idaho Rhodes scholar, received second place in the examinations for qualification.

Mr. K. C. Bowers, manager of the W. S. C. track team, was at the Varsity last Monday conferring with the Idaho management.

The prize was awarded to Guy Holman for the best football song. Professors Eldridge, Morley, and Peters were the judges.

O. N. McArthur, ex-manager of the University of Oregon football team, predicts that Idaho will have no trouble in defeating Washington, or the W. S. C.

A meeting of the Deutsche Gesellschaft is announced for Tuesday afternoon. It is for the purpose of electing officers and inaugurating this year's work.

Some of the Varsity students took advantage of the opportunity to see "When Knighthood Was in Flower" at Pullman, on Oct. 25. A special rate was made by the Northern Pacific.

Jack McLeod captain of Idaho's team in 1902, drove over from Pullman, Friday, to shake hands with his many friends at the Varsity. Jack is the captain and star of the Montana University team this year.

Henry Lancaster and wife, of Mullan, spent last week in Moscow. Mr. Lancaster graduated from the mining department in 1902. He was in Moscow attending the federal court and is the representative of Greenough Bros.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting on Sunday was led by Bennett Williams. The usual routine was varied by a song from the Association quartette, which has been recently organized and which promises to become a very efficient organization.

A meeting of Freshmen interested in debating was called last week for the purpose of beginning arrangements for the second annual Freshman Soph. debate. It seems that no Freshmen were interested enough to attend and nothing has yet been done toward holding the inter-class debate.

An effort is being made to revive the Girls' Glee Club. It is to be hoped that it will prove successful, since the need of such organizations in the University is very great. Miss Senna has taken charge of the matter. One try-out for voices has been held at which about eleven girls were selected. All those wishing to try for a place be sure and consult Miss Senna this week. The personnel will be selected shortly.

DEBATE COUNCIL NOTES.

Ridenbaugh Prize Transferred to Montana Debate—Debate Relations with Whitman and Utah Receive Attention.

A meeting of the Council was held on Friday for the consideration of various matters demanding attention. It was decided to hold the Watkins Oratorical Contest on the first Friday of March. This was done chiefly because of the fact that several important debates occur later, which would conflict with the Oratorical contest were it not placed early in March. Guy Holman was appointed manager of the Utah debate. The Ridenbaugh prize, granted to the person winning first place in the Pullman debate, was transferred to the Montana debate. The question presented itself as to whether the same person should be allowed to win the prize twice, but final decision on it was postponed. It was decided to hold the choice of sides for the Montana try-out on Monday, and to hold the try-out on Saturday, November 4.

A letter received from Montana in which the U. of M. debaters objected to the wording of the question submitted by Idaho was read. The original reading of the question was "Resolved, that, aside from the question of constitutionality, a general income tax should be adopted as a part of our Federal system of taxation." Montana desires the clause "aside from the question of constitutionality" eliminated. The Idaho manager has written them, acceding to the proposition, on condition that no argument on the unconstitutionality of the tax shall be advanced.

The proposition made by Idaho to Whitman to hold a double debate this year has been rejected by Whitman and the Whitman Debate Council has also voted down the proposition that the debate be held in Moscow this year. Idaho desires this because of the fact that all of her debates are away from home.

Miss Senna Entertains

A pretty little party was given by Miss Senna at the home of Dr. Carithers, last Thursday evening. The party was given in honor of Dr. Moore, the newly elected Professor of English. About twenty invited guests were present and included members of the faculty and friends of the hostess. The evening was spent a whist.

The house was beautifully decorated, red roses being used in profusion. The candelabrum effects were all of red. An orchestra stationed in an alcove rendered sweet music during the entire evening, mingling slow dreamy waltzes with music of life and spirit. Dainty refreshments were served later in the evening. The party was one of the most important social successes of the season.

Reception.

In the evening there was held at Ridenbaugh a reception in honor of the visiting team. To this reception the members of both teams, coaches and officials were invited.

Each of the players told how he did it; the spectators how it happened; the coaches theorized how each player should have done it and how it should have happened. The girls of course did their share of the commenting.

College songs were sung and everything possible done to cheer the spirits of the vanquished and elate the victors.

Last but not least of the events was the serving of refreshments by the Dorm girls.

ATHLETIC BALL.

Annual Dance to Be Given in the Armory Next Friday Evening.

The Sophomore class have relinquished their claim upon the Armory for Friday evening, Nov. 8, and the Athletic Board have decided to give the annual athletic ball on this date. This dance has always been one of the social events of the season. Following so closely upon the Washington game this dance will give us an opportunity to celebrate our victory.

The athletic management is under heavy financial strain this year and it is hoped that the Armory will be filled next Friday evening. It is always embarrassing to eliminate a deficit by subscription and for this reason the athletic is given. Each one can help indirectly. The dancing will start promptly at eight o'clock. The music will be furnished by the Moscow Band Orchestra under the leadership of Professor Austin. The price of admission will be $1.50.

MONROE'S LECTURE.

California Graduate Gives Interesting and Instructive Talk to the Mining Students.

The mining students enjoyed a rare treat last Monday when O. D. Monroe, a graduate of the University of California, lectured to them on the "Oraville Gold District." Mr. Monroe was a classmate of Professor Janes and graduated in 1898. The speaker was thoroughly conversant with his subject and the lecture was thoroughly practical.

The speaker first described the Oraville district and the general geological structure thereof. He gave reasons for the deposit and described its stratification at some length. He next took up the subject of dredges. By graphic representations he showed the plans of the first dredge and then modifications that had been made. He gave statistics about the cost of building, manning and repairing the dredge. He took up in detail the working of the tumblers and diggers.

The methods used to save the gold was the final subject that Mr. Monroe discussed and he showed the evolution of these methods since dredges were first built.

It was regretted by all that only a limited time of one hour was available for this extensive subject. However, they gained a great many practical suggestions from the speaker.

was tried and proved to be a fitting song for the occasions.

After an hour of excitement and pleasure the meeting was adjourned and four hundred animated voices joined in on "Roll it into Washington" as they passed to their respective classes. Friday's Meeting.

dose. The meeting Friday showed that the spirit of the students had not slacked and that they were right behind the team. President Montandon, in an eloquent address, bubbling over with wit and humor, laid the matter of admission before the students. He said in part, "Manager Horton has devised two expedients for the coming game. The first expedient was to sell tickets to business men at two dollars each. That one tasted fine. The second expedient is that the students will be charged an admission of one dollar in order to cover the heavy guarantee. That one does not taste so good." He then explained the necessity of this cause. "Nine rahs for expedient No. 2" some one proposed, and with a mighty shout the students showed their approval of the manager's action. Thus ended the second meeting which brought forth the fact that Idaho realizes as never before the importance of concerted action.
