THE VARSITY CADETS ARE COMPLIMENTED

U. S. Inspector Gives Good Report of Battalion. Band Especially Mentioned.

The following is an extract copy of the report made by Captain Julius A. Penn, General Staff, U. S. Army, of his inspection of the Battalion of Cadets of the University of Idaho, on May 16, 1908, and is published for the information of the Battalion:

The inspector arrived at Moscow about 9 p. m., May 15, 1908. At 9.20 a. m., May 16, 1908, the cadet band and 3-company battalion of the University of Idaho was formed for review, and the inspector, accompanied by Dr. James A. McLean, President of the University, and by Lieutenant A. W. Smith, Professor of Military Science and Tactics, reviewed and inspected the battalion.

Dress and general appearance, very good. Alignments, very good. Music good, but cadence, slow.

Cadet Major Jewett Matthews commanded the battalion. Cadets were in khaki caps, blouses, trousers and leggings. Cadet officers, olive drab.

March past, two companies very good, one good. The battalion staff and non-commissioned staff failed to execute Eyes Right, as did several cadet officers, especially in the third company.

Battalion Review and Inspection.—Dr. McLean presented to the cadet officers, on behalf of the Governor of Idaho, commissions in the National Guard of Idaho, corresponding to their rank.

Uniforms, khaki, showed some wear, but were generally clean and well fitted.

Rifles, Krag, with few exceptions, in excellent condition.

Position of the soldier, good, except a number in each company including some officers who were careless about having "heels together".

A few were observed gazing about in ranks, the position of the piece at the order was not always well taken. Set-up, with a few exceptions was very good.

Band, dress and general appearance, very good. Instruments, private, good. Set-up, fairly good.

Battalion drill, close order, cadet-major Mathews commanding, very good.

Manual of arms by companies A and C, very good, B, good.

Close order drill by companies, very good.

Extended order by companies, very good.

Dress parade was then given in a satisfactory manner, cadet captain commanding. The march past was with

IDAHO LOSES GAME TO OREGON

27 to 21 Story of Saturday's Contest—Kicking and Flukes Won for Web-footers—Spectacular Playing

In a game that is pronounced by football critics as one of the most spectacular ever seen on a football field in the West, the University of Idaho was, on last Saturday, defeated by the University of Oregon, 21 to 27.

The score of the game gives no idea of its worth. It was at times the fiercest in Idaho's football history. At other times the work of both teams was ragged and far below par.

The work of the Oregon team was far from satisfactory from an all around standpoint. Their team was composed of two men, "Dud" Clark and Fred Moullen.

These two men stand head and shoulders above the other football men of the Northwest. Clark is easily the premier punter in this country and Fred Moullen with his stub foot sends the cold chills up your spine when he is called back to place kick. Seven times Saturday the Idaho rooters were affected with cold chills and four times he booted the ball squarely between the posts for 16 points. Kiltz of Oregon made one touchdown from a forward pass and Clark made the other from a fumble by Idaho. Clark kicked goal.

Idaho's story is different. A touchdown was made in the first two minutes of play on a fumble by Oregon. The Idaho team played better football in every department of the game with the exception of kicking. The team bucked Oregon's line, went around her ends, went over them, under them and thru them for a total yardage of 347 yards as against no yardage made by the Oregon team. Oregon during the entire 70 minutes did not make ten yards in three attempts. Our line was a stone wall. They were unable to go around the end, but on an exchange of punts they could gradually work the ball down the field and the redoubtable Moullen would drop the ball between the goal posts.

Small is not up to his usual form yet this year, tho he made heady use of the different plays and kept Oregon guessing as to what was coming next. Savidge played his old time game and Oregon gave up trying to run ends. Montgomery only once failed to boot the ball within at least five yards of Oregon's goal on the kick off. His only fault is his inability to tackle hard and sure. He would be as good a man as Idaho has if he could tackle.

Jewell at center was playing a good game. Time and again he tackled the Oregon backs behind the line. Stokesberry and Pauls at guard were invincible, and with Elton and Smith at tackle formed a stone wall that Oregon could not negotiate. Elton played a game that was wonderful. He was in every play and watched the ball like a hawk.

"Chick" Johnson, at half, played a great game. He did good work running back punts and carried the ball well. The heavy Oregon men battered him up and he was forced to retire. Lundstrom took his place. He made a costly fumble but redeemed himself by carrying the ball 50 yards for a touchdown and always making yardage.

Thornton played full back and showed up well. He is a consistent ground gainer and fast on his feet. On the whole, the work of the entire team was exceptional and no one man can be praised above another.

GAME IN DETAIL

Idaho kicked off to Oregon's one yard line and Clark returned twenty yards. Clark punted on the first down and Idaho returned 15 yards. Small tried a forward pass but failed and Oregon recovered the ball. Clark again punted, Idaho made first down twice, fumbled and Oregon got the ball. Oregon attempted a forward pass but fumbled and Thornton secured the ball and ran fifty yards for a touchdown. Small kicked goal. Score 6 to 0. Oregon kicked off to Idaho and "Chic" returned 25 yards. Small tried a forward pass but failed and Oregon held for downs, and was in turn held and forced to punt. "Chic" returned the ball 40 yards where it alternated from Oregon to Idaho in Idaho's territory for the most part, Clark usually kicking on the first down. Moullen tried a place kick from the forty yard line but the ball was fumbled and Elton recovered it. Idaho fumbled and Oregon got the ball on the 35 yard line, Mullen being called upon for a place kick made good and the score stood 6 to 4. The balance of the half was spent in a kicking duel with the honors slightly in Clark's favor, tho Small showed up well.

In the second half a costly fumble by Idaho coupled with three penalties, gave Oregon the ball 35 yards from Idaho's goal and Moullen again dropped the ball over for his second place kick. Score 8 to 6 in favor of Oregon.

Oregon kicked off to Idaho, Idaho returned 20 yards. Two forward passes netted 35 yards and line bucking put the ball on the 30 yard line. Small tried a place kick and made good. Score 10 to 8 in favor of Idaho.

Oregon kicked off to Idaho who returned 15 yards, and "Herc" and Elton carried the ball half the length of the field in four downs. Idaho fumbled and Oregon regained the ball and Moullen kicked another goal from the field. Score 12 to 10 in favor of Oregon.

During the balance of the half Oregon added another place kick and two fluke touchdowns to their side of the score. Clark kicked goal making Ore-

HALLOWEEN PARTY AT DORMITORY

Ridenbaugh Hall Girls Entertain Gentlemen Friends in Novel Way.

The eve of All Saint's Day was celebrated with grand Festivities at the Dormitory. The dining room and reception halls were darkened except for wierd, grinning jack o'-lanterns that glared at the assembled group from every corner. Apples hanging from strings in doorways and arches added to the spirit of Halloween, as well as afforded amusement to those who cared to "bite". Fires burning in the grates threw their fantastic shadows over ghostly walls.

The invited guests were met by two white forms who nodded mysteriously and pointed to a ladder which led to the porch of the second story. There they were met by Miss French who seated them in the dimly lighted reception room to await their hostesses. When all had assembled a cow-bell's hollow ring sounded, and spectral forms appeared from all sides. They retired to the lower hall where they awaited in deathly silence the young men who, each holding a mirror, descended the stairs backwards, anxiously gazing into the glass for a glimpse of his intended who became his partner for the grand march. The remainder of the evening was spent in games and dancing. Light refreshments of punch, candy and popcorn helped to increase the jolly time.

Promptly at half past eleven the party broke up, after having spent one of the most enjoyable evenings of the year.

Faculty Entertain

Misses Sylvia and Grace Smith entertained at a Halloween party Saturday evening. The house was appropriately decorated with pumpkins, black cats, witches, owls, jack-o'-lanterns etc. Light from numerous candles reassured timid spirits who ventured in through the window. Ghosts, witches, clowns, and monks all had their fortunes told, tried their fate and indulged in Halloween amusements until the merriment reached its height with the unmasking of hostesses and guests.

The consumption of delicious refreshments convinced all that their friends were not ghosts but were very human even though the "Cremation of Mike Magee" had given much pleasure.

The striking of the clock at midnight caused a scattering of ghosts, all of whom had thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

WHITMAN NEXT SATURDAY

Extra Coaches and Special Rate Rooters Wanted.

On Friday morning the team will leave for Walla Walla, where the game with Whitman College takes place on Saturday afternoon. Special coaches have been engaged and a fare of $5.80 for the round trip secured, making the whole trip cost about $12 per man.

This should secure a good crowd of rooters to go along and support the team.

Graham's hair cuts are always the latest, try one.

NO STUDENT can do good college work and spend all his evenings on the street, at ten cent theaters or in midnight carousals. Only a few months will show where he "don't" stand.

THE SUPPORT of a team consists in making every member feel that the student body is behind him whether winning or losing. This effect is not always brought about by the loudest yelling, seldom by spectacular demonstrations and never by caustic personal remarks from the bleachers. It may often be effectively gained by a simple hand shake, an encouraging word, or a carrying off of the field after a hard game. Let us show our team by personal touch that we are supporting them.

 too slow a cadence. Guard mounting was given satisfactorily.

In the afternoon two companies were sent out and formed advance guard in a very good manner. The third company was ordered to take up a position covering the main college buildings, which was done in a very good manner. The first two companies sent out executed satisfactorily an attack on the position of the third company.

Lieut. Smith appears to have executed his duties here in a useful and conscientious manner, and the generally good condition of the situation is evidence of efficient instruction. The cadets have had an encampment on the college grounds which proved highly satisfactory. Considerable instruction in guard duty was given in camp. Instruction in S. A. F. R. and Range firing is to be held before the college year ends.

The President and Faculty appear to give loyal support to the Military Department and the President expressed himself as much in favor of the military work and is keenly appreciative of its benefit.

I am indebted to Dr. McLean and Lieutenant Smith for courteous hospitality.

By order of the Commandant
 Cadet 1st Lieut. & Adjt.
 Battalion of Cadets Adjt.

It is suggested by the commandant that cadets pay particular attention to the various points and criticisms in the report so that they may know better what to prepare for on another occasion.

Letter From Former Prof.

In response to a petition circulated last year requesting the Board of Regents to retain Mr. Tull in the University, Mr. Thomas has received the following letter. Mr. Tull is now taking graduate work in Harvard. He says in part:

Dear Thomas:
 The day I left Moscow, Mr. Lewis gave me the petition, signed by the students, for my return to Idaho, and as your name was first on the list, I am inclined to think you did more than "sign." I can't tell you how much I appreciated your action and that of the students. I didn't expect anything of the sort, for I went in for things because I liked the students and because I liked music and plays, and so when this sign of appreciation came, I thought the more of it. It certainly made me leave Moscow with a deeper feeling of pleasure concerning the past year and a deeper regret that I won't be with you next year.

I wish you would tell all my friends, who signed the petition (Of course, I mean those you happen to meet) how much I appreciated it, and thank them for me.

I am sorry I didn't get to write to you sooner but I have been very busy since I reached home a week ago and am just now getting around to my affairs. Thanking you again for your courtesy and your cooperation in college affairs the past year, I am
 Sincerely,
 Clyde Tull.

Alpha Delta Pi Breakfast

Mrs. Jerome J. Day entertained the Alpha Delta Pi girls at an 11 o'clock breakfast Saturday in honor of Miss Margaret Henderson.

The two round tables were charmingly decorated with great masses of roses. In the center of each, green candles and white roses with the place cards completed the color scheme of Nile green and white, the sorority colors.

- The menu was:
- creme de menthe
  - Oysters on half shell
  - Crantons
  - Roasted squab
  - Mint sherbet
  - Branded peaches
  - French chops
  - French fried potatoes
  - Asparagus
  - Hot rolls
  - Coffee
  - Grape salad
  - Wafers
  - Ice cream in rose moulds
  - Angel food cake
  - Crystal steaks
  - Mints
  - Salted Almonds

This affair was one of the nicest ever given in Moscow. After the breakfast there was music and a pleasant social time. Those present besides the active girls and their pledges were the Misses Rosa Forner, Margaret Henderson, Winifred Collins, Abbie Mix and Mrs. L. F. Henderson.

New furnished rooms, with bath near restaurant. Three suites and single rooms on second floor of Cornwall Block, Ransom F. Warren, box 803, Moscow, Idaho.

A business meeting of the Ridenbaugh Hall girls was held Friday evening at which officers were elected to look after the social affairs for the Dormitory. Ada Thomas was chosen president and Ella Woods, treasurer.

Omitted from last issue—There was much rejoicing in football circles at the birth of a son to coach and Mrs. Middleton last Friday afternoon. It is with great sorrow that we announce the death of the little infant on Saturday night.

In experimenting with ether last Friday, Prof. Von Ende caused an explosion which narrowly escaped serious results. Messrs. Ellis, Ashley, Holmberg and Dodge were slightly injured by flying glass as was the professor. Dr. Kanaga was summoned and quickly dressed the wounds.

A plan for entertaining the football team has been started by the three fraternities. One evening a week the entire first squad is given a "square" at one house while the members of that particular organization are divided between the other two houses. The idea is to foster a more friendly feeling between the members of the team and to give the coaches a chance to be with the men more.

English Club Plans Program

The University English Club is planning to give a play some evening before the Thanksgiving recess. As yet the cast is not complete but will soon be filled and active work commenced. Judging from the past performances of this department, we predict a very successful evening and one which all students will look forward to with the greatest interest.

Biology Club Reorganized

Last Wednesday evening the members of the biology classes met at the home of Prof. Aldrich to reorganize the Biology club of last year. Officers were elected as follows: President, W. K. Gwin; vice president, Orah Howard; secretary and treasurer, Nellie Meyers. After a discussion of several trips the members were royally entertained by Prof. and Mrs. Aldrich.
