SECOND ANNUAL INTER-CLASS MEET

Sophomores Take First Honors Freshmen Close Second New Records.

As a result of the second annual indoor inter-class meet, the Sophomores come out with highest honors scoring 36½ points. The Freshmen were a close second, however, making 33 points.

Several new records were made. Montgomery ran the 25-yd dash in 3 seconds, lowering by one-fifth of a second the record made by Williams last year. He also made a record of 8 feet 6¼ inches in the high kick.

Essberg made records in the high and long dives of 5 feet 6 inches and 13 feet 3 inches respectively, while Strohecker made 5 feet 2 inches in the high jump—two inches better than Smith of last year. This, however, was made after the meet so that it does not count as a permanent record.

The 440, 880 and mile were run inside for the first time so that the time in these events stand as records. Jessup won the 440 in 57:2, Denning the 880 in 2:16 and Price the mile in 5:01 4-5. These are all quite remarkable when you take into consideration the fact that the men have been training but two or three weeks, the hard floor, and the fact that the track was only 86 yards long or twenty and a fraction laps to the mile. Every one is greatly encouraged by the outcome of the meet. Although most of the track team will be composed of new men, they will make a good account of themselves.

Jessup made the most points of any individual man, taking 14 in all. Montgomery made 13 1-2, and Essberg and Anderson made 10 points each.

The following is a summary of the meet:

25 yd. Dash—1, Montgomery, S.; 2, Jessup, F.; 3, McKy, Prep. Time, 3 seconds.

440 yd. Dash—1, Jessup, F.; 2, Strohecker, S.; 3, Fluharty, J. Time, 57:4.

880 yd. Dash—1, Denning, Prep.; 2, Beckner, S. Time, 2:16.

Mile Run—1, Price, S.; 2, Edmundson, S.; 3, Wight, F. Time, 5:1 4-5.

Shot Put—1, Frazier, F.; 2, Montgomery, S.; 3, Bashor, F.

Standing High Jump—Harris and Anderson, Preps. Tied for first. Height, 4 ft. 1 in.

Running High Jump—1, Driscoll, J.; 2, Strohecker, S.; 3, Savidge, S. Height, 5 ft. 1 in.

Rope Climb—1, Jessup, F.; 2, Wadsworth, J.; 3, Fluharty, J. Time, 7 4-5 seconds.

High Dive—1, Essberg, F.; 2, Price, S.; 3, Boyeson, Prep. 5 ft. 6 in.

Long Dive—1, Essberg, F.; 2, Boyeson, Prep.; 3, Price, S. 13 ft. 3 in.

High Kick—1, Montgomery, S.; 2, Anderson, Prep.; 3, Driscoll, J. 8 ft. 6¼ in.

FOURTH TRIANGULAR DEBATES

Washington Wins Two Victories, Idaho One, Idaho Still Three Points in the Lead.

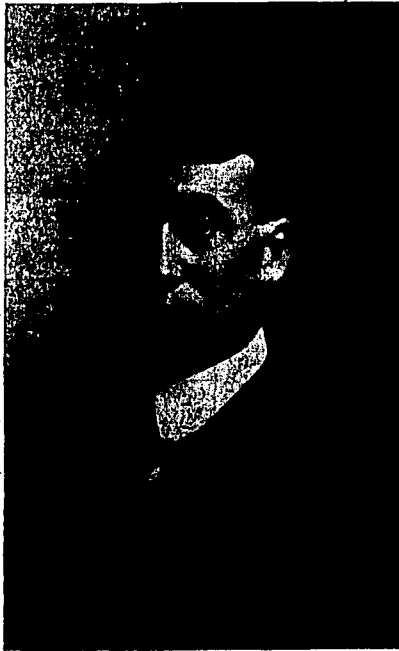

The results of the fourth series of debates in the Triangular Debate League show that Idaho is still in the lead. Thus far Idaho has won 19 points, Washington 16, and Oregon 13. The vote of each judge counts as one point, as does each debate that is won.

Of the three debates this year, Washington won two and Idaho one, while Oregon lost both debates in which she participated. Oregon and Washington debated at Eugene, Idaho and Washington at Seattle, and Idaho and Oregon at Moscow.

The question debated in all three of the contests was "Resolved, That, waiving constitutionality, the federal government should impose a progressive income tax upon all incomes above a certain specified amount." Each institution defended the affirmative of the proposition at home and the negative away.

At Seattle the University of Washington was represented by Kenneth Durham, Glenn Hoover and Rex Roudebush, while the Idaho debaters were Ira Tweedy, Jewett Matthews and Robert Jones. The judges were Judge Hiram H. Hadley, of Seattle, Judge J. L. Stiles, of Tacoma, who voted for Washington; and Hon. Walter McClure, of Seattle, who voted for Idaho.

The contest was an interesting but a one-sided one. Idaho had much the better of the struggle all the way through. The first Washington speaker devoted most of his time to depicting three evils in the present system of federal taxation. Then, in the last two minutes of his speech he asserted that a federal income tax would cure the evils.

The first Idaho debater at once disclosed a plan for the cure of the evils. He then proceeded to batter down the affirmative case. Not one single piece of this evidence was touched in any way by the affirmative men.

So unexpected was the assault of the negative that the second affirmative speaker dropped his set speech and devoted all his time to mere assertion. Much of this assertion related to minor details and much was wholly warranted by fact. The speaker with the alternative tax proposition the negative. All this time the progressive income tax slumbered.

It was not a difficult matter for the next Idaho man to point out defects in the preceding speech. In doing that, the assault upon the income tax was continued.

The last speaker for the affirmative was compelled to pay some attention to the practicability of the income tax. This he did by claiming, with the minimum of proof, that stoppage-at-the-source can be used in this country. A chart full of stubborn statistics on this point confronted him, and he proceeded to argue these facts out of existence with a few airy assertions.

The third negative speech was packed full of argument against the income tax. In every particular it was supported by the highest authority.

In the final rebuttal speech the affirmative leader again indulged in a lot of unsupported assertion. And so the debate came to a close.

Many of the Washington students were outspoken in saying that the debate should have been awarded to Idaho, and among these were several of Washington's former debaters. Professor Hulme, on his return from Seattle, said: "I was proud of our boys. If the debate were to be fought over again I would not have a single sentence of their speeches changed. I know that our boys would not care to change places with the debaters who were awarded the decision."

The debaters and the coach report and exceedingly pleasant trip, and cordial treatment at the hands of the Washington students.

The Idaho-Oregon contest, held at Moscow resulted in a two to one victory for Idaho. John Rock of Idaho opened the debate by a clear well de-

OLD GUARD ORGANIZES.

Third and Fourth Year Men Form Artillery Detachment for Seattle Trip.

Last Saturday afternoon the men of the Junior and Senior classes met in the armory for the purpose of organizing a detachment of light artillery to accompany the battalion on its trip to the Seattle exposition in June. The commandant has already written to the war department asking for two pieces of modern artillery. If these are not granted it is probable that two of the older models of cannon similar to the two breech loading guns which the battalion formerly used, will be sent.

This part of the service is considered the most desirable form of drill in the regular service and it is expected that the old guard will enjoy the new line of service. Cannon pulled by horses will be an innovation at Idaho and will be no slight addition to the battalion of infantry.

Fully twenty men reported for duty last Saturday and more will probably join in the near future. No regular drills will be held until the cannon arrive, after which time drills will be held about twice a week. A distinctive uniform of olive drab shirts and trousers will probably be adopted with the optional use of blouses.

Officers as follows were elected: Commanding officer with rank of a lieutenant, Warren Sheppard; sergeants, Clyde Chaffins, Leigh Savidge; gunners, Arthur Thomas, Rollin Smith; caisson corporals, Bert George, Ernest Griner.

Matinee Musical.

The matinee given on Friday the 26th inst. by some of the students of the music department drew an audience that taxed the seating capacity of Liszt Hall. The young ladies participating went through the ordeal with good grace.

The Schubert Scherzo and the Godard Waltz was made very interesting by Gladys Nankervis whose natural ease of manner disguises any nervousness she may feel.

The Spanish Caprice "La Morena" by Chaminade, played by Minnie Kiefer, showed careful study.

Vera Gray had both hands full with Pape's "Brook" and Jungmann's "La Harpe" but easily pleased her audience by her rendition of them.

In the song "I Wonder if Ever the Rose" by Slater, Jessie Samms showed much improvement in voice quality and a pleasing ease of delivery.

Anna Kulhank was much in sympathy with the Scharwenka Polish Dance which she played very cleverly.

Lucile Robards closed the program with Moszkowski's Valse in A flat and Bendel's "Ideal d'Amour." In the first she showed a little nervousness but the beautiful theme of Bendel was played with much feeling and style.

The next two months will be a busy period for the department as quite a number of programs are in preparation.

Professor Moore is missing classes this week on account of a severe attack of La Grippe. Miss Sonna is conducting "Her Own Way" rehearsals during her absence.

DEBATE SUPPORT

Only forty dollars were taken in at the door last Thursday evening when the Triangular Debate took place in the M. E. Church. Of this amount about two-thirds came from students and faculty, showing that less than sixty University people supported the biggest debate of the year.

We are ashamed to publish these facts. Yet we feel the matter should not pass unnoticed. Debating is an important phase of college life as any branch of athletics and should receive as full support from the student body. In the first place, the poor attendance was a direct insult to the men who contested. They had put in weeks of hard work on the question and were given only fifteen minutes for public exhibition as a compensation for their effort. The student body should have shown their appreciation of this work by a full attendance. Again these debates deal with live questions with which students should be conversant. The teams have made full study of all available material which they present in the most clear and concise manner possible. The educational value should not be overlooked. Then, loyalty to the institution should be another incentive to attendance. When the championship of three states is swung in suspense on one evening, we feel that Idaho students should be present to pull our way.

Now some may say that the debate came on a study night and that we could not afford to lose an evening at the books. Well, some people do study hard but what about those individuals who attended the ten cent theatres on that night? We have some little respect for an honest "dig."

but we cannot force ourselves to the proper appreciation of a student whose mental machinery turns with the regularity of a moving picture reel. We do not object to a moving picture show under ordinary circumstances. If one's intellect demands that the cheaper novels be diluted and presented to him in picture form, we suppose he cannot justly be censured. But he can at least try to remedy this defect, and we think a time when a northwest championship is at stake, is a good time to begin.

Association Notes.

"Choosing Friends" was the topic for discussion at Y. M. C. A. last Sunday afternoon. After some opening remarks by Mr. Campbell, the leader, and detailed talks by Messrs. Price and Hunting, the meeting was thrown open for general discussion. Some new and interesting views were presented.

Mrs. Eldridge gave a very interesting and helpful talk at the last meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Etiquette. She spoke of the etiquette of the table, on the street and in the dormitory; of our social obligations and the attitude of young ladies toward their gentlemen friends. A short social time followed the service and delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Grant was a graduate of the University in 1903 and has since been teaching in the Seattle schools until last year when she was married to Mr. McIlvane. The sudden death comes as a shock to her many Moscow friends.

Junior Meeting.

There was a large attendance at the '10 class meeting last Wednesday, and what was most gratifying there were nearly as many girls as boys.

A great many live topics were discussed and considerable business transacted. The principal work of the meeting, however, was the election of officers. Clyde Chaffins was the unanimous choice for president, Hannah Keyes for vice-president, and Paul Savidge for secretary. There was a tie for the office of treasurer, Herbert Wadsworth and Mary Belle Meldrum each working hard for that position. The president cast the deciding vote in favor of Miss Meldrum. There was also a tie for the monitorship of the class. This office has lately come into prominence here and as a result of this there were two anxious candidates. Vernon Leonard showed evidence of great ability but Frank Stewart, who held the office last semester, was chosen on account of the excellent faculty which he has of forgetting to bring his roll book to assembly.

On account of our increased responsibilities it was deemed necessary to choose a sergeant-at-arms and Vernon Leonard was elected to that position.

Base Ball Prizes.

The following business men have agreed to contribute prizes for the baseball team:

David & Ely, for the best fielding average for the season.

Graham, one month's barber work for the best base runner.

Shenley, for the best batting average.

Besides this Haynes & Carter and Hodgins have each agreed to give some small prize each game for the long hits such as two baggers, three baggers and home runs. This puts a little more interest in the season for the players.

livered speech in which he showed the necessity of an income to remedy the present evils of taxation. L. Leon Ray of Oregon followed and after a slight attempt at rebuttal, admitted that there were evils in the present system, but contended that the progressive income tax would not remedy them. His delivery was easy and his enunciation particularly clear. He warmed up to the subject in a manner in perfect keeping with the natural orator. Rowe Holman continued the affirmative case by showing that the progressive income tax was sound in principle and just to every one. His rebuttal work was clever and pointed. Clemens closed the affirmative case by showing that the progressive income tax has worked and therefore is practical. C. W. Robinson closed the negative case with some good rebuttal work in which he advanced the progressive inheritance tax as the negative's alternative. He has a keen mind and is a debater of great promise. His speech was the only one in which the affirmative case was seriously hit. Only five minutes remained for Clemens to gather up the remains and place the income tax on a sound footing. This was done in an able and telling manner. After pointing out some amusing inconsistencies in the negative's case, he met squarely the inheritance tax and showed that it was not advisable if it were possible of imposition.

The judges were: Prof. H. L. Talkington of the Lewiston Normal, Atty. A. H. Oversmith of Troy, and Atty. H. R. Smith of Moscow. Professor Soulen was chairman.

The Mandolin Club, Miss Caldwell, and a Ladies' Quartette gave pleasing musical selections.
