W.S.C. WINS 2ND THE IDAHO-WHITMAN TRACK MEET

Idaho Nosed Out in the 9th--Williams Pitches Excellent Game

After playing eight innings of absolutely perfect ball, outclassing W. S. C. in every branch of the game and with a lead of two runs, Idaho lost out in the ninth by a series of misplays which were almost excusable.

The first man up for W. S. C. in the ninth lined a safe drive to center field which took a bad bound and got by Johnson who was coming up fast and might have thrown the runner out at first. Instead the ball rolled far out to the lake and before it was recovered, the runner was safe on third.

Here a piece of head work might have saved the game, but only strategy such is seldom seen outside of major league ball and not to be expected from college teams. Had Idaho completely ignored the runner on third, allowing him to score at will, and concentrated their efforts on retiring the following batters, the game would probably have gone to Idaho. As it was, Barrett's momentary hesitation, Curtis drawn in for the man at the plate and Slack's throw to first, which was therefore uncovered, followed and gave W. S. C. the runs which brought defeat instead of a deserved victory to Idaho.

The boys deserve nothing but praise for the game they played, not an error being registered until the ninth and only two hits secured off Williams. Barrett once knocked down a palpable hit and retired the runner by a beautiful throw.

Lundstrom, Slack and Curtis fielded their positions in big league style and Elmer Williams was there with the stick getting three safe hits, to the discomfiture of W. S. C. fans who had dubbed him "Obadiah."

The score follows:

	R.	H.	E.
Idaho.....	2	6	3.
W. S. C.	3	2	4.

Two-base hits Curtis and Hansen.

STUDENT ASSEMBLY.

The monthly student assembly occurred last Wednesday. The hour was taken up by an A. S. U. I. meeting. President Magee called the meeting to order but after the reading of the minutes of the last meeting he turned the chair over to Mr. Matthews. The report of the labor day committee was then made by Mr. Thomas. He reported that next Thursday has been set for labor day. The lumber has been ordered and will be delivered by that time. Mr. Dutton has kindly consented to lend the necessary tools. Mr. Thomas cautioned all students to keep a close watch on the tools and to see that they are not misused.

The next business brought up was the matter of the amendments to the latter part of the A. S. U. I. constitution which were proposed last year but which have never yet been submitted to the student body. They were read and will probably be voted on at the election of student officers.

Nominations for A. S. U. I. officers were then opened. There were not Idaho Wins Annual Meet from Whitman College--Relay Deciding Event. Score 64 to 58.

Last Saturday Idaho won the annual meet with Whitman College. Idaho has never lost a dual meet to the missionaries, but was defeated twice in the triangular. The day was almost ideal save for a slight breeze which blew down the straightaway. The track, however, was slow as it was not solid but covered with a half inch of dust.

The first event the 100 yard dash, promised to be close as Martin and Montgomery both had records of 9 4-5 seconds. But owing to the slow track and breeze Martin won in the disappointing time of 10 1-5.

The 220 yard dash was also won by Martin in 22 2-5 seconds, which was slow also.

The 880 was a pretty event won by Cox of Whitman. He established a Whitman record beating his own record by two-fifths of a second. Denning for Idaho ran the best half he has ever run and finished a close second.

The shot out was won by Frazier as was also the hammer throw. In the latter event Idaho took all three places.

Price ran a good mile. The time was not remarkable as he did not want to throw his team mates out too much at the beginning of the race.

Strohecker had no trouble in winning the high jump. In the pole vault he tied Foster for first at eleven feet. Too much credit cannot be given to "Stroh" for his work in this event. The Whitman coach said "That man many aspirants for these honors. The only competition will be for the office of Vice President and for the Debate Council. The nominations were as follows: President, Paul Savidge; vice president, Henry Smith, Warren Shepherd; secretary, Miss Foley, treasurer, Stokesberry; debate council, Ira Tweedy, B. E. Davis, Rowe deserved to win because of his grit."

Montgomery had no trouble in winning the 220-yard hurdles, and surprised every one by taking the 120-yard hurdles. This was the first time he had ever run in this event.

The only disappointing feature of the day occurred when Driscoll failed to hear the starter say "set" in this event and was left on the mark. He would have had no trouble in winning, as he run the hurdles consistently in less time than they were run in. It looked for a while as if this would cause Idaho to lose the meet.

The relay was the most exciting event of the day. Up to this time the meet stood 59 to 58 in Idaho's favor. Thus the relay decided the meet. McInturff was the first man for Idaho and came in a few feet behind. Denning, the second man came in with a few yards to spare, while Jessup the third man finished barely behind his opponent, Cap't Montgomery ran the last lap against Cap't Martin and ran down the first two twenty, coming in far in the lead and winning the meet for Idaho.

Price and Frazier were the only new men who won their I. Denning lacked but three fourths of a point to win his. Montgomery took 17 1/2 points, Martin 15, Frazier 10.

AN EXCELLENT MUSICAL PROGRAM

Something That Will Interest Everyone, Especially University Students.

Perhaps the most important musical program ever given in Moscow will be that rendered next Friday evening, May 14, at the Episcopal church by St. Mark's Choral Society.

This society consisting of twenty-five or thirty members has appeared twice before this year and won for itself a reputation for fine work that will stand it in good stead for generous patronage next Friday. On this occasion the society will give two exquisite cantatas.

The first of these, "The Crucifixion", by Stainer, is so widely and well known as to need little comment. The story is that of the agony and crucifixion of the Savior, concluding with the death upon the cross. The music as befits the theme, is infinitely melodious, sad and appealing. There are two splendid choruses, The Processional to Calvary and the Appeal of the Crucified. There are also some very fine solos the most important of which will be sung by Mr. Eldridge and Mr. Axtell.

The second cantata is new, having been produced in New York with great success, for the first time, this last Easter season. "It is called "The Lord of Light and Love" and was written by J. Edwards. In tone, theme, and treatment it forms a perfect contrast to "The Crucifixion." The story relates the joy and triumph of the risen Lord. The opening chorus is one of the most effective ever written. The concluding chorus has volume, melody, and splendid climax. The special numbers are a mixed quartet, a duet by Mrs. Hodgins and Miss Kiefer, and a soprano solo by Miss Sonna, who directs the program.

Carey's orchestra of five pieces, and the organ played by Miss Stockron will accompany in both cantatas. This fact will ensure the beauty and harmony of the productions. Every voice in the chorus is a well-trained one, and the practices have been so numerous as to make the singers fully familiar with the music, which is in reality very difficult.

It is certain that never before in Moscow has any musical organization attempted music of such high character. It is the object of the society to give the audience a program that will please even critical ears. No one can afford to miss the rendition of these two beautiful cantatas.

The choral society will wear vestments, and the program will open with a processional hymn, the handsome new processional cross being carried by Gerald Hodgins. A special platform in four tiers has been erected for choir and orchestra so that the audience may have every advantage in seeing and hearing the choir.

The personnel of St. Mark's Choral Society is as follows: Sopranos—Mrs. Roland Hodgins, Mrs. Wm. Aspray, Mrs. Andrew Smith; Mrs. G. Ryan, Miss Redway, Miss McGregor, Miss Sonna. Altos—Mrs. Wm. Manspeaker, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Phil Soulen, Mrs.

THE ENCAMPMENT AT SEATTLE.

Last fall when Lieutenant Smith first mentioned the trip to Seattle, the cadets were very enthusiastic. They were practically all in favor of going and most of them wrote very urgent letters to their representatives and senators. These men heeded, what they must have considered the earnest pleading of boys who they knew were struggling for an education. The bill appropriating two thousand dollars to take the cadets to the A. Y. P. exposition, was passed and for a while we all rejoiced. The time for the trip had not been decided upon, however, and when the faculty, looking joyously forward to an audience at Commencement, announced that the boys would start to Seattle on June 17, immediately after the Commencement exercises, there was a murmur of discontent. The cry went up that the encampment would interfere with summer work. Some of the cadets would miss a year's school on account of the delay. This cry became so loud that there was talk of not having the proposed trip. The cadet officers reported to the Commandant that the boys felt that they were being imposed upon by being held a week for Commencement. The Commandant could not change Commencement so the officers waited on President MacLean and explained the situation to him. He in turn called a special meeting of the faculty to which he invited a committee of the battalion. This committee presented the case as they understood it and the faculty finally agreed to change the entire schedule of Commencement and allow the cadets to leave on the tenth instead of the seventeenth of June, on the condition only that seventy-five per cent of the cadets would signify their willingness to go by depositing the necessary six dollars for expenses before June first.

The students have asked for a great deal. They asked for a state appropriation in order that they might have a ten days encampment and a chance to see the A. Y. P. exposition. It was granted. They put up a good campaign and were successful. They asked to be dismissed a week early and that was granted. They have received all that they have asked for and much more than they could reasonably have expected. Yet they are not satisfied. Many say that they will be unable to go.

What will the members of the legislature think of the University and especially of the cadets if, after all, there is no trip to Seattle and the money appropriated has to go back to the state? Will it place them in a mood to grant favors to the University in the future? We think not. We believe that, first, the proposed encampment is a chance in a lifetime and will, in reality, be worth more to the average student than a semester in college. In this opinion we are sustained by many of the seniors and juniors who have announced their intention of going as privates. In the second place, we believe that, after all that has been done, it is the duty of every cadet to go. They have done well so far, i. e. they have asked for everything they could think of and it has been granted. Now it is up to them to do something and will they make good? Are they true to Idaho and do they know what honor means? We expect an encampment at Seattle and at least ninety per cent of the cadets to go. We have confidence in the University battalion.

SOPHOMORE NUMBER

The next issue of the Argonaut, May 19, will be entirely in the hands of the engineer's division of the Sophomore class in English composition; and the next issue, May 26, will be edited solely by the B. A.'s division of the same class. These issues will be devoted to their respective departments here in the University and will probably be twice the size of the regular paper. Besides showing what these classes can do, they are expected to be important in advertising the University. Everyone should order extra copies and order them early. Mr. James Gwinn was the almost unanimous choice of the engineers for editor-in-chief and Mr. Loren Brown was appointed associate editor.

Idaho's New Coach.

The appointment of Mr. John S. Grogan as athletic coach in the University has just been announced. Owing to the fact that Mr. Middleton was unable to continue his services in the department of athletics this new appointment is made, and Mr. Grogan will be in charge of three departments of athletics. The new coach is a graduate of Knox College and from about 1900 to 1904 was a member of the Knox football and baseball teams when the football team was at its best, defeating all the secondary teams of the Middle West and holding such teams as Nebraska, Wisconsin and Chicago to almost even scores. For several years Mr. Grogan has had complete charge of athletics in the North Dakota College of Agriculture, Fargo, and under his direction the athletic teams of that institution have defeated all college teams in Minnesota and North Dakota, with the exception of the University of Minnesota. Thus Mr. Grogan comes with five years experience in coaching football and with experience in teaching basket ball and baseball. For two years his teams have held the championship of North Dakota in football and baseball. He is recommended as a man of excellent moral character and popular with the students, faculty and general public, and enthusiastic in his work. He thoroughly understands all the various branches of college athletics. Idaho should have bright chances for the 1909-1910 season with the new coach in charge.

Notice.

On account of the military inspection, the regular exercises of the University will be suspended at 10:20, Wednesday, May 12th.

On account of Labor Day, the regular exercises of the University will be suspended for Thursday, May 13th.

Prof. Philip Soulen who has been visiting schools in Northern and Eastern Idaho returned to Moscow last Monday.

We learn that Merrill A. Yothers, '07, has been re-elected to the instructing staff at the Michigan Agricultural College at an increase in his pay roll. Idaho grads are making good everywhere.

H. P. Eggan has just entered his new studio, which has been enlarged making it one of the largest and most convenient in the Northwest. He is especially equipped to do the highest quality of work on commencement orders.

The Y. W. C. A. meeting last Thursday was led in an interesting manner by Miss Florence Shinn. The subject, "Is a Christian Life Worth What It Costs?" was illustrated by the lives of two of the greatest women of America, Fanny Crosby and Frances Willard, sketches of whose lives were given.

The Alumni rally planned for this year is working out very nicely. All committees are organized and at work. A letter of invitation has been mailed to each member, and the largest rally in the history of the institution is anticipated. Those in charge of arrangements are very enthusiastic over the results obtained so far.

Seniors to Picnic.

At the meeting of the Senior class on Friday afternoon it was decided definitely and finally to have a picnic. Petition having been duly made to the faculty for permission to leave German and Latin and Roofs and Bridges in slumber one day, and said plea having been granted, the class unanimously decided to go off to the mountains on Friday. The White Cross Mining district was chosen as the best available place to frolic because the vicinity thereabouts will permit of track meets, base ball games, etc.

The class took a decided stand in favor of holding this event as a really '09 picnic. No outside classes will be represented. Heretofore it has been customary for classes, in order to make their ranks complete, to invite members of the lower classes. Inasmuch as this is to be the last real gathering of the '09 class it was thought advisable to make this limitation.

Mrs. James A. MacLean and Prexie, Junior will act as chaperones.

"First Senior Dinner at U. of I.

The first Senior dinner was given May 6th in Dom. Sci. Department at 1:30 by Lillian Clarke and Lotta Manspeaker.

The Luncheon was worked out according to a dietary standard by Prof. Atwater. Each girl was allowed $1.50 to cover expenses including food and laundrying of linen but not flowers and place cards.

The menu was as follows:

- Fruit Cocktail
- Chicken in Aspic Jelly
- Puff Potatoes in Ramekins
- Buttered Asparagus
- Hot Rolls
- Radishes
- Tomato Salad Ponisetta Style
- Wafers
- Cream Fruit Loaf
- Cafe Noir

The color scheme was carried out very prettily in pink and white. A highly polished table was used, with linen doilies. The centerpiece was a large bouquet of pink carnations. The dining room was darkened and lighted by candles with pink shades. The color scheme was carried out in the menu by the use of different garnishings.

The guests were Miss Maynard, Mrs. Manspeaker, Mrs. Burton L. French, Mrs. Rubedew, Miss Caldwell, Mrs. Miracle, Misses Manspeaker and Clarke were the hostesses. The luncheon was prepared by Senior Cookery class, and served by Misses Charlotte Tuttle and Bess Lee.

A sample of the dietary worked out from the above menu is as follows:

News of the Battalion.

Although the weather has not been most conducive, work on the two hundred and three hundred yard target ranges has been started. No startling scores have been made although Lieutenant Smith set the proper example, as commanding officer, by scoring 43 out of a possible 50 at two hundred yards. Indoor work will not be taken up again this spring.

Captain Harris of the general staff, will inspect the Battalion today and if the boys drill anything like they have been drilling, he will certainly be favorably impressed with Idaho. The cadets put up a splendid appearance. Almost all have good uniforms and they execute the maneuvers like regulars. We think they will easily carry off the honors at Seattle.

Captain Mitchel of W. S. C. is trying to arrange for a rifle contest at American Lake at which the different colleges of the Northwest may compete for the National championship instead of going to Seagirt. He is strongly supported by all the interested institutions.

"Service After Education" was the topic under discussion at the regular meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association last Sunday afternoon. The place of the learned man in society was first pointed out, after which the various callings were taken up. The general sentiment of the meeting was that any work which is honorable and tends to aid mankind is worthy of a Christian man whether digging in the ditch or teaching in a college. And, farther, every man when he has once chosen his profession, should guard it against deterioration and should give his best service towards upbuilding it.

New Rules Adopted.

That for the delay in registration of any matriculated student beyond the regular registration period a fee of $2 be charged.

That for any special examination due to any cause except sickness a fee of $1 be charged but that the maximum charge to any student for the irregular examinations in any one semester shall be $3. This does not include the regular condition examination.

That this fee be added to the maintenance fund.

In support of this action it may be stated that the following universities make charges for delayed registration: Minnesota and Iowa charge 25 cents per day for each days delay, Illinois and Wisconsin charge $1, California $2, Nebraska $3 and Michigan and Harvard $5 for any delay.

The Senior Play.

Unless some decided change occurs immediately in the character of the rehearsals of the Senior play, the College Widow will not prove to be the great drawing card of Commencement week, as the class hoped to make it. Miss Moore who has entire charge of the presentation, reports that progress is extremely slow and the indifference of some participants very discouraging. So far the most conscientious work and the best interpretations of parts have been contributed by Miss Dewey, Mr. Matthews and Mr. Strobahn, Miss Curtis and Mr. George have also been faithful in attempting to interpret their parts. Miss Coram, Mr. Fuller, Mr. Gerlough, and Mr. Peebler have caught the spirit of their roles and have earnestly tried to present them well, but at present they have only imperfectly interpreted them. Among those who have up to this time shown no success in getting hold of lines or of interpretation are Mr. Pauls, Mr. Vance, Mr. Magee, Mr. Johnson, and Miss Kiefer. Miss Kiefer, Mr. Magee, and Mr. Johnson have been conspicuously guilty in absenting themselves from their rehearsals.

It is felt that every member of the cast should have pride enough in the class play to make every effort, sacrifices, if need be, in order to insure the success of an undertaking that is as herculean as it is commendable.

The English Department is held responsible for the adequate presentation of the drama, and it does not wish to meet with failure on account of the indifference and faults of members of the cast.

The U. of U. Chronicle this week has devoted over half of their front page to a write up of their famous coach who has decided to leave Utah for Nebraska. Among other inducements the salary offered by Nebraska is just three times that paid by Utah. As a last resort the Mormons are trying to induce Mrs. Maddock to refuse to live in Nebraska.

The students of Washington are advocating the raising of the registration fee for the first semester from $3 to $5. This fee to secure for the students the Daily Wave and admission to all A. S. U. W. athletic activities including football, track, regattas, and also debates and oratorical contests.

Milling Material.

A carload of tailings containing about two per cent of lead, and two tons of a very grade of galena ore from the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mine, were recently put into the ore bins in the metallurgy building. A Callows settling tank is being installed, and the mill will be in full operation for one or more days before June.

Preps Defeat Lewiston.

The Preparatory students of the University defeated the Lewiston High School at base ball last Wednesday by a score of 7 to 6. It was a good game, interesting from start to finish. Robinson of Idaho is establishing an enviable record as a pitcher.
