WASHINGTON VS. OREGON

Championship of Northwest Is Decided on Denny Field.

By Jack Hensley.

University of Washington, Seattle, Nov. 26.—Coach Gilmour Dobie can have anything he wants at University of Washington. His team has won the football championship of the Northwest. In a bitterly fought game Dobie's pupils defeated the University of Oregon on Denny field yesterday afternoon. The score was 20 to 6.

The field was fast and hard, permitting the use of new football, and it was by the use of the forward pass that two of Washington's touchdowns were brought about. Rain fell until noon, but at 2 o'clock, when the game was called, the sun came out and shone throughout the contest. More than 7000 persons saw the game.

Oregon kicked off. Washington was unable to advance the ball through the line, and Eakins was forced to kick. Nor could Oregon gain consistently, and the game developed into a kicking duel between Clarke and Eakins, the latter having all the better of the duel. Many of the Washington punter's kicks went 70 yards.

After 10 minutes of play Mattson received a forward pass, which he carried to Oregon's 4-yard line. Mucklestone went through the line for the first touchdown. Eakins kicked goal. Eight minutes later an onside kick put the ball on Washington's 3-yard line. Two bucks failed to gain an inch. Oregon made ready to try a forward pass, but the ends were covered. Latourette saw an opening and carried the ball across for Oregon's only score.

A great kicking duel followed, in which Washington gained yards on every exchange of punts. The ball was gradually worked well into the visitors' territory. A forward pass, Coyle to Mattson, put the ball on Oregon's 5-yard line. Another one to Grimm took it over for the home team's second touchdown. Eakins missed goal.

Latourette dropped a punt, which Washington recovered on Oregon's 40-yard line. On a forward pass Mattson carried the ball to the 23-yard line. Eakins stepped back and drop-kicked the pigskin over the bar. The half ended with the score 14 to 6.

In the second session the visitors fought harder than ever, but

All Collegians.

The Varsity left for Boise last Tuesday, where they met the strong "All Collegians" of that city. The game was won by the Varsity by a score of 21 to 0, after 50 minutes of the fiercest football ever seen in that vicinity. The "All Collegians" outplayed the Varsity in the first half, the score being 0 to 0. They gained far more ground and were a stone wall on defense. Waterbury at full, Stein at center, Pauls at guard, and Donovan at tackle, tearing up the Varsity for good gains.

Between halves the men were lectured severely and Perkins was taken out and Curtis substituted at quarter. This one change caused the tide to turn, and the way Curtis mixed his plays and ran his team would remind one of the days when Middleton was the Napoleon of the Varsity. Not only did he direct his team well, but he made two of the touchdowns, being on the receiving end of two forward passes, one from Lundstrom, the other from Thornton.

Old war horse "Jimmie" Thornton was in every play, both on offense and defense, and made many long runs for the Varsity. The line played together and aided the back by opening up good holes and in running interference. The All Collegians' line put up a strong defense, however, and if it were not for the ability of the Varsity to use the forward pass, it is doubtful if the Varsity would have made more than two touchdowns. Dorsett, Lundstrom and Jewell played hard, consistent ball throughout, and with Curtis and Jimmie were the stars for the Varsity.

Stein and Pauls showed they still knew the game, and played as if life depended on it. Ragan at quarter proved a fine general for the All Collegians, and he also ran back punts well. Bogge and Slaughter also played strong defensive games for the All Collegians.

The day was not ideal for the sport, but about 1200 faithful followers of the great college pastime were on hand to cheer both teams.

The teams were guests of the All Collegians at a dance in the Natatorium in the evening, and all left Boise feeling delighted with the royal treatment accorded them by the All Collegians and the citizens of Boise.

Varsity Defeats Idaho College.

On Saturday, Nov. 27, after resting one day, the Varsity journeyed to Caldwell from Boise and took Idaho College into camp to the tune of 24 to 0.

It was a hotly contested game from start to finish, and was anybody's game during the first half and about the first five minutes of the second half.

The first half closed with the score of 6 to 0 in favor of the Varsity. The score was the result of a doublepass, forward pass, from Lundstrom to Edmondson, the same play that proved the downfall of the Boise team. In this half the southern team played brilliantly, and showed they were well coached and were capable of playing both the new and old style football. They got off their plays in more rapid succession than any team that the Varsity has met, barring none. They made many first downs, McCormick being the star.

The second half opened by the Varsity kicking off to Idaho College. A kicking duel followed, in which McCormick outshone the Varsity kickers. His punts were the highest and longest that have been made against the Varsity this year. For a time it seemed as if it spelled defeat for the Varsity.

Curtis saw it was a losing game, so he resorted to scrimmage work. He opened up a series of delayed passes, line bucking, sweeping runs and forward passes that bewildered the Idaho College men, and soon had the ball over the coveted goal line for a second touchdown, and Thornton kicked goal. Edmondson, Curtis and Thornton made most of the gains, being on the receiving end of forward passes from Lundstrom and Thornton.

The Varsity received the kick-off and again used the same versatile attack and made another beautiful march of 90 yards for a third touchdown, and Thornton again kicked goal.

Again the Varsity received the kick-off and again Curtis showed the southerners how the game should be played, and kept them bewildered by the versatility of his attack, and soon again the Varsity had planted the ball behind the goal posts, and Thornton kicked his fourth goal.

The ball was on the Idaho College 5-yard line at the close of each half and in the possession of the Varsity. A couple of touchdowns were lost by fumbles, but the score was satisfactory.

The game was fast and cleanly played from start to finish. An unfortunate feature was the accident to Dorsett, the big tackle, who had his right shoulder severely injured, and had to be removed from the game, Bennett taking his place. He was a tower of strength while in the game, and his carrying of the ball was one of the features.

Stein, who had replaced Hitt, played a star game at end, and Cook also played strongly.

Thornton was again guilty of making several long runs, and had the happy faculty of being in every play. Had the team been run with the generalship Curtis showed in this game and the Boise game, the season would have been much more successful. His defensive work was the fiercest exhibited by a Varsity man this year. He was the real star of both games, with Thornton a close second.

Hilman, Lundstrom, Curtis and Thornton played as one man, and were ably assisted by the line men.

Hilman made many of the gains on delayed passes, while Lundstrom shot the forward pass with excellent accuracy. Jewell Stokesbury and Hayes seemed to get into the plays as never before. In fact, the team played together as they never did before, and their showing is a grand climax to an unsuccessful beginning.

Coach Grogan gives Curtis credit for the team's showing, as he seemed to have at last realized the possibilities of plays.

This was Captain Stokesbury's last game, and all rejoice with him in the victories gained. In your struggles through life you want to remember that our slogan

A Correction.

In last week's article regarding new uniforms, we seem to have impressed some people with the idea that we thought the new plan to be a failure. Our opinion, however, is quite to the contrary. Although the goods received are not up to the standard of the samples, they are nevertheless a great improvement over the bargains to be had before this year. This year blue uniforms, including the caps, can be bought for $15.00. Of this $1.00 goes to the merchant here for measuring and handling the uniforms and the other $14.00 goes to the wholesale house with which the bargain is made. Formerly these uniforms cost from $18.00 to $22.00, and were often of a very inferior grade.

We hope to see the plan made better, but as it now stands, it is a means of saving every cadet from $4.00 to $6.00; it insures a better grade of uniforms and they are all alike.

On Line of Southern Pacific.

A little over a week ago there appeared in the halls of the new administration building 10 pictures which have caused no little comment among the students. These are views from Colorado, California and Utah, and they are good views. Still, there are beautiful places in Idaho, and we think that 10 pictures might be secured of places in our own state that would eclipse the beauty of those mentioned.

We cannot understand how the note, "On Line Southern Pacific," which is on every picture frame in gilt letters, adds anything to their beauty. There is no branch of the Southern Pacific in Idaho.

We do not know who placed these pictures on the walls of our new building. We are thoroughly convinced, however, that they should not remain there. Ten pictures, and Idaho entirely overlooked! The Southern Pacific advertisement on every one of them. We trust that we may be able to announce the removal of these views in our next issue.

In mentioning prospective basketball players for the coming season, we neglected to name B. E. Scilley, who is showing up exceptionally well. He is almost sure to make the team.

Whitman News Letter.

By J. Howard Shibert, Correspondent at Whitman College.

Walla Walla, Nov. 27.—Whitman's line men are in a very sore condition, resulting from the fierce charges of W. S. C.'s backfield on Thanksgiving day, when the Aggies won the annual football contest by a score of 23 to 6. In the first half of the game the Pullman men seemed to gain at will, and 20 points were run up. The last half they had to be satisfied with a place kick by DeWitt, while Whitman scored a touchdown and a goal after a 90 yard run by Borleske. Whitman's captain played his usual fast game, and he was ably assisted. Cox gave a wonderful exhibition of tackling. For Pullman Fishback made consistent yardage when drawn back from guard position. Galbraith also carried the ball well. The officials were: Referee, Varnell, Spokane; umpire, Payne, Colfax; field judge, Bertley, Wisconsin; linesman, Applegate, Walla Walla. A crowd of 1500 people witnessed the game, which was the roughest ever seen on Ankeny field. Owing to the stubborn fight put up by the light Whitman men, who were outweighed 30 pounds to the man, the injuries were numerous.

Basketball will start at once. Whitman has A. Belt, Barnes and Cushman of last year's team. Cox, Felthouse, McCoy, Johnson, Neill, Neterer and Hawley are possibilities for the other positions. Class games will be played off before Christmas.

The first dance of the season will take place in the Odd Fellows Temple tonight, with the football men as the guests of honor.

There is a great deal of resentment among the Whitman students and their supporters in general over the story that got into the papers concerning Borleske's broken leg. Borleske received merely a "Charley horse" in the practice game, and reporters exaggerated it to a fracture. The students feel that the "fear story" is an injustice in its gross exaggeration.

Save your money for "The Merry Milkmaids" and the opening of the New Crystal Theatre.

The Phi Delta Thetas gave a dinner party on Thanksgiving and had as their guests John Rock, '11, Charles Perkins, '10, Oliver Price, '11, Frank Stewart, '10, George Rember, '11 and Harry Stoner, '13.

Oregon vs. O. A. C.

By W. C. Nicholas.

University of Oregon, Nov. 19.

Four thousand spectators, wild with enthusiasm and keeping up almost a continuous roar of applause, watched the lemon yellow football team overcome their old rivals from the Oregon Agricultural College in a splendid exhibition of the great American game on the local field this afternoon by a score of 12 to 0, representing about the comparative strength of the two elevens.

Honors in the first half were about even, a brilliant dash by the visitors early in the game, in which they almost swept the home boys off their feet, being about equalized by a gradual weakening as the struggle wore on. In the second half Keck, who was playing a star game, was forced to retire, and from then on Oregon had things her own way. Two touchdowns with goals, one on a sensational run by Latourette and the other well earned on straight football, were responsible for the score.

O. A. C. excelled throughout in punting, especially after Keck was replaced by Wolff, the famous fullback and captain of last year's team. Oregon excelled in running punts and making forward passes, and in other particulars neither team had any appreciable advantage. The farmers were gradually worn down by the heavier weight of their opponents and finally could hold them no longer.

Coach Forbes was forced to use almost every man on the squad, 18 in all. Captain Clark put the finishing touches on his bad ankle, and will not be able to play in the championship game next Thursday as a result. Mitchell, the big freshman center, was also severely injured and could not go north with the team. Both coaches were satisfied with the result. Metzgar said his men did all that could be expected of them, and Forbes believes his team would be invincible if all could play Thursday.

University of Oregon, Nov. 21.

Oregon's entire student body is waiting anxiously for next Thursday afternoon, when, for the first time in three years, their football team will go into the final game of the season undefeated, with an even chance for the Northwest intercollegiate championship against the University of Washington.

That this is a great event, probably the greatest athletic event in the history of the university, is appreciated by all. But though the utmost confidence is placed in coach and trainer, grave doubts are entertained as to the outcome, for it was anything but a perfect team that left Saturday for American Lake, where the men are to be quartered. Four of the best men are hopelessly injured, as far as playing this season is concerned, and every one on the squad is more or less bruised. Two star linemen, Giles and Mitchell, did not even make the trip.

It is felt that Friday's grueling game against the Oregon Agricultural College practically ruined Oregon's chances. For though the local team won by a safe score, the victory cost so heavily that it was little better than a defeat; as far as getting the championship is concerned. The score, 12 to 0, fairly represents the comparative strength of the two teams, and if Washington had been played instead of O. A. C. the Varsity boys would doubtless have given a good account of themselves. But now the whole aspect of things has changed. To beat the farmers, Forbes was compelled to use every man on his squad, regardless of injuries, and as a result several temporary cripples were made permanent. After the game Hayward positively stated that Captain Clarke was out of it for the rest of the season. Walker, the big freshman fullback, is also considered down and out for this year, making the fourth man that has been incapacitated at this critical time.

Besides these four, Main, Sullivan and McKinley are limping badly and cannot be expected to last more than one half.

In spite of the great expense, several Oregon supporters will make the long trip to Puget Sound to witness the great battle. Several of the fraternities are sending representatives and many others will go independently. The men's dormitory will also send two representatives.

Mace.

Mace, Idaho, Nov. 20.—This evening in the Oakes roller rink at Wallace, Mace High school defeated Wardner High, 22 to 12, in a hotly contested game. Mace surpassed by superior team and individual work. At the end of the first half the score stood 11 to 10 in favor of Wardner, but in the last half Wardner only made one score. The Mace team has improved so much since the last game on Nov. 5 that it does not seem to be the same team at all.

The Mace team had the best support from the sides also, for there were yells and songs, and almost the entire high school turned out to yell them to victory.

There are about 30 pupils in our High school, which was started only three years ago. We have three instructors, all specialists, who are Supt. J. A. Hibbard, Prof. T. T. Crooks, and Miss Annette Adams. Superintendent Hibbard and Professor Crooks act as coaches for the Mace high school basket ball team.

As an encouragement to increase the high school grades, the Leader Store of Burke offered to the pupil making the highest grade, if it should be a girl, a fine silk dress, or if it should be a boy, a new suit. There is a friendly rivalry between the classes as to whom the prize will go.

In athletics the High school is putting out a basket ball team which started the season by defeating the Kellogg High school on Friday, Nov. 5. The game was very exciting, and was not decided until the last minute of play, when Eddie Pascoe, captain of the Mace five, threw a field goal, making the score 18 to 16 in favor of Mace.

This victory was a great encouragement to the Mace team, because they had only won one game last season, while Kellogg did not suffer any defeat. The they were unable to gain with any consistency. The backs made a couple of end runs and line backs for good gains. Coach Forbes of Oregon thought the Washington team was weakening, and sent in several fresh men with the hope of keeping up the good progress his men were making toward the goal. The home players soon fell into their stride again and easily held the Oregonians for downs. The rest of the game was played in the Oregon territory. Washington tried several place kicks, but missed.

In the last few minutes of play Grimm took a forward pass and went across for the final touchdown of the game. Eakins kicked goal. Final score, 20 to 0.

Latourette played a brilliant game in spots. His catching of punts was sure and his running of the team excellent. In running back punts he was not equal to Coyle. Clarke and Dodson played a good game. Main, for Oregon, played well, but Eakins of the local team rather did things to Pinkham.

Grimm, Tegtmeier, Taylor and Mucklestone starred for Washington. Coyle did not perform up to his usual standard. Taylor was in every play, and did especially good work in recovering fumbles. His interference for Coyle in running back punts was high class.

Tegtmeier ran over Kellogg and followed the ball nearly as well as the ends.

The students are mad with joy. Everybody is singing "C-H-A-M-P-I-O-N spells champion." The victory was hilariously celebrated at downtown cafes last night. Monday a huge bonfire and rally will be held on Denny field.

Just to show their appreciation of his services, the students hailed Dobie onto the stage at assembly Wednesday and presented him with a fine gold watch, beautifully engraved. The co-eds presented the players and the second team men with varsity stick pins.

A city paper states that Oregon will protest Eakins and Mucklestone next year. Not much anxiety is felt by the students. The men were protested last year, but the faculty thoroughly investigated their records and declared them eligible to play in their freshman year. Oregon maintains that both men played on the North Dakota team. As the Washington faculty is notoriously strict in regard to eligibility and scholastic standing, it seems a little absurd to hold that the men would be permitted to play if there was any ground for the allegation, especially as the men were kept out of some of the games last year, pending the verdict of the faculty and the opinion of the North Dakota president, to whom the facts were submitted for an official opinion. He held that the men were eligible under conference rules.

Will Talk to Miners.

The first meeting of the Associated Miners of the University of Idaho will be held next Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the lecture room of the metallurgical building. Prof. J. S. DeLury, head of the department of geology and mineralogy, will talk to the association on "Student Days at Toronto." This is not exclusively for miners or members of the association, but is open to all students of the university and townspeople as well, and it is hoped that a large crowd will be present at this opening meeting.
