IDAHO VICTORIOUS

Wins All Contests on Southern Idaho Trip.

The Basket ball team is home from a Christmas trip to Southern Idaho where they ably defended Idaho's colors against all comers. The team from the College of Idaho was decisively beaten at Caldwell by a score of 41 to 21, December 27th. The following night a fast aggregation known as the Cadwell Allstars including several players of prominence such as Westcott, Kyle and Whisman were beaten in a rough but fast game 31 to 25.

December 29th Idaho went to Emmett to play the fast Emmett Tigers, a bunch who have not been beaten in years except by Angeles speedy Athletic Club team last year. The game was a furious one, with odds against Idaho at all times, owing to a slippery floor, small and very crowded hall and officials not of the best. There were 400 spectators and but one rooter for Idaho, Capt. Stokesberry whose home is at Emmett. Idaho won the game 31 to 20 after contesting every inch throughout the 40 minutes of play. The last game was played in Boise against the fast high school team there before a large and enthusiastic crowd a great many of whom were Idaho University students and friends. Idaho won 23 to 9. Only 5 men made this trip besides Coach Grogan and Manager Walker and they deserve the greatest praise for completing a series of games presenting the difficulties of slippery floors, undersized halls, partisan crowds, etc., without suffering a single defeat. It certainly speaks well for the staying power and grit of the men and this spirit and gameness coupled with the ability and speed shown on the Boise trip is going to win the N.W. championship for Idaho this year. Montgomery at center had it on every man he met both at shooting baskets and floor work. His dribbling is wonderful and he will easily make an all Northwest man this year. Hockett is a scrappy little forward, accurate in basket shooting and has out played much bigger men than himself. Curtis is a "phenom". He made a total of 24 baskets in 4 games, 11 in the first game alone and seems to be able to shoot from any angle or position. His guarding is wonderfully clean and yet effective. Loux is big and will make a corking good guard. His blocking is also good.

TONEY T. CROOKS

Popular Graduate of Class of 1909 Receives Rhodes Scholarship

At a recent meeting of the faculty, Toney T. Crooks was elected recipient of the Rhodes Scholarship at Oxford University.

Crooks finished the preparatory department of the University of Idaho in 1905 and received his B. A. degree in 1909. While here he was an excellent student, having passed the qualifying examination for this scholarship in his sophomore year; a leader in religious work, being identified with the Y. M. C. A. as secretary, chairman of committees, and president in his senior year; and a leader among the students, being president of the Junior class, a captain of cadets, and editor of the Argonaut. He came up to every expectation in the filling of these offices, doing his work with a characteristic thoroughness which is seldom excelled. He could lead a Y. M. C. A. meeting, conduct guard mounting or write an editorial with the same quiet unassuming earnestness. He took charge of the Argonaut with practically no experience in that kind of work and made a better paper than it had ever been before and better than it probably will be for several years. We do not attribute this to any superior skill, although he possessed skill, but to hard persistent effort. He has been an instructor in the Mace High School since graduation. Toney has the good-will and admiration of every member of the faculty and of every student of the University. We think that he is the best man that could have been secured for the scholarship and believe that he will reflect honor upon the University of Idaho. He is a member of the Theta Mu Epsilon fraternity. Paul Durrie, '12 who passed the examination this year and will be eligible at the next appointment withdrew from the candidacy in favor of Mr. Crooks who would have passed the age limit next year.

Cupid at Work.

During the holidays a number of former Idaho students were married.

On December 22nd Harry Smith '05 was married to Miss Hannah Johnson of Moscow. The wedding ceremony took place at the home of the brides parents. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will make their home in Manila, Phillipine Island, where Mr. Smith has a position as Civil Engineer.

On December 24th a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Hustes in Spokane Wash., when Mr. Clarence Wickstrom, '07 and Miss Marie Frolich Hustes were married. Mr. Wickstrom is a member of the Phi Delta Theta Fraternity, and was a very popular student in the University. His many friends wish him much happiness.

PREPS. WIN GLORY

Tate and McWilliams Star in North Idaho.

During the holidays the Preparatory basketball team made a very successful tour of the Inland country. A schedule of five games was played and the Preparatory team was victorious in four of them.

The first game was played with the fast team of the Garfield high school. The contest was exciting throughout and not until the whistle blew did the spectators know which team would be victorious.

The final score of 16 to 15 in favor of the Preparatory team shows a hard earned victory and both teams are to be congratulated on their work. The Preparatory team was greatly handicapped in the loss of Tate who was unable to be with the team on this occasion. Manager Favre entered the game as guard and McWilliams played forward in Tate's place.

On Christmas day the Preparatory team met the high school five of Coeur d'Alene. The score of 24 to 17 shows a well earned victory for Captain McWilliams' men. The Coeur d'Alene men did not do as well as was expected. This is undoubtedly due to the fact that all the players are foot ball men and after their hard season on the grid-iron they were a little slow in beginning their basketball practice.

RECEPTION BY BOISE U. OF I. CLUB

Full of Enthusiasm for University—Governor Brady G greets Faculty and Students.

The reception given by the University of Idaho Club of Boise to the faculty and students of the University, and the teachers and graduating class of the Boise High School, Thursday evening of last week, was a pleasing success. A large party representing almost every class graduated from the University—from the first class of 1896, represented by Mr. Adair, the first man that received a diploma from the institution to the class of 1912—enjoyed the meeting with the high school students, reunions among themselves, the refreshments, and the dancing. Breach's Orchestra furnished good music; the basket ball team, Clifford Edmondson, James Montgomery, Vestal Hockett, Rex Curtis and Ernest Loux, led Idaho yells; and a real enthusiasm for the University was apparent.

The President of the University of Idaho Club, Miss Marie Cuddy, Mrs. Hays, Miss French, President MacLean, and Governor Brady, composed the receiving line. Among the faculty members were President MacLean, Professors Soulen, Elliott, Frandson, Wicks, and Tull. Students present were Misses Clithero, Woods, Redway, Wicks, MacFarland, Annett, Stolle, Gibb and Messrs Hays, Stein, Redeker, Kroeger, Perkins, Watts. Many students who are well known at the University attended. Mary Gibb, Lela Tracy, Martha Hansen, Olive Hall, Mary Wilson, Mrs. Oppenheimer, formerly Miss Susie Thomas, Howard Stein, "Reg" Leonard, Arthur Thomas, Arthur Pauls, Alfred Wicher, and George Wyman.

DEBATE.

From "The Evergreen" of Washington State College we clip the following paragraph:

"The department of oratory and debate has in Prof. F. O. Kreager an earnest worker. We cannot say too much of his ability as a debater while a student of this college and too, he comes highly recommended from Olympia, where his record of victorious teams speaks for itself."

Many of us are wondering when Idaho will have a man exclusively for work in public speaking. At present we have only the assistance of a man whose work in history is more than sufficient to keep him busy. This is the fourth year that Idaho has been without a single debate society. In this respect we are certainly unique. Oregon has a man who gives his entire time to debate and oratory and so has Washington. Yet we are asked to meet these colleges in debate. Another paragraph from "The Evergreen" gives some details of their debate societies. They have two men's societies with a combined membership of seventy eight. And a woman's society with forty members. But here is the paragraph itself:

"It is gratifying to note the increased interest in debating at W. S. C. Early in the year all of the debating societies had applications for membership limits. At present the two college men's societies the "Washington" and "Websterian", number forty and thirty-eight, respectively. The college girls' society the "Columbina," also includes forty aspirants after debating fame."

Does not the condition at Idaho stand revealed in the light of these facts? And is it not a disgraceful condition? What we want to know is: How long will it be before this sorry condition is done away with?

The Daily Princetonian makes the assertion that "Chapel attendance has lowered religious services to the level of class room exercises."

THE OLD OLD STORY!

Ho! Why doest thou shiver and shake, Gaffer Grey?

And why does thy nose look so blue?—Thomas Holcroft.

The same question put to Gaffer Grey might be addressed to almost any student of the University who happens to have classes on the east side of the administration building.

Every member of the University is proud of the New Administration Building. It adds unity to the campus, its exterior and interior are artistic; the rooms are handsomely furnished and suitably equipped. The only fly in the ointment is the fact that in cold weather it is the most unevenly heated building on the campus. About one half of the building is fairly comfortable these days. In the other half the temperature ranges from 50 to 60 degrees during recitation hours. This fact means that every day possibly three hundred students are made extremely uncomfortable and are dangerously exposed to colds through the lack of adequate heating arrangements. The temperature should be 70 degrees in a room in which there is no possibility of physical exercise.

For every evil under the sun, There's a remedy or there's none, If there is one try and find it, If there isn't never mind it.

If there isn't sufficient radiation throughout the buildings more should be added without delay, for there is no reason for assuming that the winter will be light. If the man in charge of the heating plant fails to keep up adequate steam he should be talked to vigorously by the university authorities. If some essential part of the heating system has not been purchased as yet, the falsity of the economy should be recognized and the system completed immediately at any cost.

If there is no remedy for the chill prevailing one half of the administration building, of course there is nothing for us to do but to wrap our cloaks about us, cultivate Spartan fortitude, and endure.

Resolutions.

Whereas, It has pleased the Divine Providence to call to his reward Mr. Ira Smith, the father of our dear friend and instructor, Miss Sylvia Smith, be it resolved, that we the members of the Preparatory Department of the U. of I express our sincere sorrow and extend to her our deepest sympathy, and be it further resolved that these resolutions be copied upon the minutes and printed in the University Argonaut.

Signed, Committee.

THE BOISE U. OF I. CLUB

Miss Ireton, '03, Secretary of Club Explains Work of Organization.

It is now almost five years since the U. of I. Club was first organized in Boise. The alumni and former students—few as they were in Boise at that time—had felt the need of some kind of an organization to keep them in touch with each other, and the University. It was Miss Sonna, who has ever been so enthusiastic in her work for the U. who finally called all together and the club was organized.

The club might be termed the "University Boosters Club" for advertising and boosting has been its main object. The membership is necessarily a variable quantity including as it does every one who has been a student of the University of Idaho, the only requirement being a willingness to "boost"

Working with such a loose organization is some what difficult but the club has managed to do some rather effective work in the way of interesting high school students. After the fire a number of books and magazines were collected and considerable money raised for the University library. The club plans to have at least two social affairs during the holidays when many of the faculty and out of town students are here. Perhaps the most important work of the club has been the keeping of the University spirit alive in the hearts of those who have been "out" a long time and who have drifted far away from the old associations.

NELLIE B. IRETON, '03.

A New Record.

Last Sunday the C. E. & N. train, loaded with a number of Idaho students, is said to have arrived on time. Not only this, which is a record almost unsurpassed in this road's history, but it arrived in Pullman about ten minutes ahead of time. This is the funny part. When the conductor realized what he had done, he went into the station with an air of infinite superiority and placing his feet gently on the desk, prepared to spend a peaceful hour. His hour was evidently very interesting, for when some impatient passenger rapped the bell-ringer and the engineer after due consideration, respectfully answered the signal and shortly afterwards started the train towards Moscow. It was all the surprised conductor could do to catch on to the last coach. This is the reason that the train was on time Sunday. Do not blame the conductor for he could not help it. We have been unable to find out whether he got his back on the train with him or not.

Get your girls and come to the Senior Faculty game at the gym Wednesday January 22. We will be anxious to cheer if some will attend. Admission 25 cents.

Golven-Sinclair Nuptials.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday morning, December 22nd, at the home of Mr. John Sinclair when his daughter, Carlene, was married to Charles Golven, '08. The ceremony was performed by Mr. Morley. After a hearty wedding breakfast the bride and groom left for South Idaho to be gone until February 1st. They will make Moscow their home.

Both Mr. Golven and Mrs. Sinclair are well known students and their many friends extend to them their heartiest congratulations.

Carol and Gertrude Byrne's Entertainment.

Friday evening December 23rd, Carol and Gertrude Byrne gave a most showy entertainment at Earl and Gertrude's.

A very delightful time was spent by all. Late in the evening many refreshments were served.

Besides the guests of honor, the present was Mrs. Kirkwood, Margaret Schick, Annie Gray, Vera Gray, Frances Schick, Lillian Clark, Florence Shinn, Edna Buelow, Linda Rae and Claire Shuckey.

Lois and Arthur, all spent Christmas in town and some with special Johnson.
