BASEBALL SEASON CLOSES WITH THREE DEFEATS

W. S. C. Takes Final Games. Four of Idaho's Players Will Graduate.

In the most exciting game of the year Washington State College yesterday took the final game of the season from Idaho by a score of 3 2. Robinson was on the mound for the locals and allowed but four hits. Patton and Rheinart did the twirling for W. S. C., yielding five hits. Idaho got four boots, while the visitors are given five. Unfortunately one of the visiting delegation was allowed to umpire, and the Idaho fans left the grounds with a bad taste in their mouths. A bunch of bad decisions in important places spoiled what would otherwise have been a perfectly satisfactory game.

Idaho's two runs came in the last half of the fifth. With one down Lundstrum drew a pass, advanced to second on Robinson's sacrifice, and scored on Dippel's hit. Dippel scored Idaho's only other run on Patton's error.

W. S. C. started scoring in the first inning. Case got a base on balls, stole second and scored on an error. Casad is credited with the two remaining scores of the game. In the third he drove out a two-bagger and scored on an error. In the fifth inning he got free transportation to first and scored the winning run on sacrifice hits.

In each of the last three innings Idaho got men as far as second but was unable to complete the circuit.

LOSE TWO OTHER GAMES

Idaho played W. S. C. at Pullman last Friday and here the following day, losing both games by large scores. Friday's game only went seven innings. In that time Schwitzer held Idaho with-

SHAKESPEAR ON THE CAMPUS

Sophomore Literature Class Acts Two Scenes From Twelfth Night.

Monday afternoon Dr. Moore's class in English literature gave two scenes from Shakespeare's great play, "Twelfth Night." The performance was a part of the regular class work of the semester. The actors were selected by competition from those of the class who had learned the lines and acted them in the recitation room.

Neither costumes nor scenery were used. The scenes were given on the campus near Lutz Hall, where the trees and bushes afford a good background with openings for entrances. The scenes were Commencement Calendar Complete--- Sophomores Will Present Annual Commencement Week Play.

The calendar for commencement week has been completed and is printed on cards, ready for distribution. It opens with the graduating exercises of the Preparatory school on Saturday night in the M. E. church. The following Sunday morning the Baccalaureate sermon will be preached in the same place by Rev. Arthur J. Sullens of Boise.

It has been the custom for the senior class to present their annual play during commencement week. The expenses of the play have been paid in the past by the Board of Regents and no admission has been charged. But this year not only will admission be charged and the management left in the hands of the class presenting the play, but as the senior class gave its play some time ago, the commencement week play will be staged by the sophomore class. This arrangement is more satisfactory than for the graduating class on account of the great number of functions the seniors will have on their program for the week. The sophomores will present "A Night Off" Monday afternoon at 2:30 in Eggan's Hall.

The annual University concert will be given in the M. E. church Monday evening at 8:30. Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 the Convocation will meet in the Armory and will be addressed by Miles F. Reed, who graduated from Idaho in 1901 and is now principal of the Academy of Idaho at Pocatello. Following this the alumni banquet will take place at Ridenbaugh Hall at 8:00 p. m.

The commencement exercises will be in the Armory at 10:30 a. m., Wednesday. The address will be by Hon. Jas. H. Hawley, governor of Idaho. The University Convocation will meet in executive session in the Administration building at 3:00 p. m. of the same day. Commencement week will end with the president's reception, which will be in Ridenbaugh Hall, Wednesday evening, June 14th at 8:30.

ANNUAL COMMENCEMENT PLAY

Sophomore Class Will Present "A Night Off" Monday Afternoon in Eggan's Hall.

It has been customary for the Senior class to give an annual play during commencement week. This play was a part of the regular commencement program. Until several years ago the Board of Regents have paid the expenses of this performance. But this year the seniors gave their play earlier in the year. The new plan is an advantage, because it frees the graduating class from the necessary work of preparing the play during the commencement season when they are very busy without it.

The Sophomores will give the annual play this year. They have chosen a comedy in four acts, entitled "A Night Off" by Austin Daly. There will be only one performance and it will be in the afternoon. It will be in Eggan's Hall next Monday at 2:30.

The following is the cast of

SENIOR WINS DAVID CUP

Kettenbach Is Tennis Champion in the Men's Singles—Final Sets Are Hard Fought.

Late Thursday afternoon the final match of the men's tennis tournament was played off and Alfred D. Kettenbach, '11, became the first winner of the new David tennis cup. This cup was offered by Homer and Earl David, both graduates of the University, and it is now in the trophy case in Mr. Van der Veer's office. It is to be kept with other Idaho trophies and the names of the winners each year will be engraved upon it.

The tournament was long and interesting, and was hard fought from start to finish. A week ago the players had been sifted down to Hoobler, '12, (law), and Kettenbach. This final match was especially hotly contested. Kettenbach gave Hoobler a handicap. Every other game he gave him fifteen points and Hoobler made him play to hold his ground.

The first set was won by Kettenbach by 7 to 5. Hoobler took the second set, easily winning it 6 to 1. He got

ANNUAL SENIOR-FACULTY BASEBALL GAME

Date not Definitely Arranged—Will Probably be Played on Next Saturday.

The annual senior-faculty baseball game was scheduled for this afternoon at 4:30 but it was decided yesterday that it would have to be postponed. The most probable date in view at the present is next Saturday, June 10th, but it is not definitely arranged. The game is to be played, however.

This is an annual affair. The commencement season never passes without the crossing of bats between the faculty and the highest college class. Sometimes one side is winner and sometimes the other, but this year there should be little chance for the scholarly members of the faculty. The class of 1911 has four members of the Varsity first team and they will do much toward making the game a shut-out for the pros.

The line-ups are not yet determined and even when they are, there will doubtless be many changes made as the game progresses. It is not unlikely that practically every member of each team will take a trial at almost every position on the field before the close of the contest.

The line-up of the senior team will probably be as follows:

Pitcher	Bender Williams
Catcher	Fritz Lundstrum
1st base	Estel Hunter
2nd base	J. M. Crom
3rd base	Kettenbach
left field	Loux
center field	F. L. Sower
right field	Jas. B. Hays
short stop	Strohecker

The faculty will use Larsen and either Axtell or Delury for battery.

TENNIS IS VERY POPULAR.

Prominent Freshman Wins Ladies Singles—Ladies' Doubles and Faculty Singles Completed Yesterday.

More tennis has been played at Idaho this year than ever before. The four courts on the campus have been kept busy all spring and the court in Lewis Hall has been in use all the time, whether the weather was good or bad. Next winter, the stage which is at present in the hall, will be removed and there will be more room for the game. Many players will practice all thru the winter. The ladies singles tournament was completed the latter part of last week. Miss Elizabeth Hays is the winner of the new cup offered by her mother, Mrs. Gert-

MORE REFORM NEEDED.

The semester reports of the A. S. U. I. departments show comparatively large deficits. The athletic department is of course farthest behind, but the unfortunate fact is that the athletic deficit seems to be increasing rather than diminishing. Perhaps it is true that we want no more reformers but if things continue to go on as they are at present, somebody will be more than bankrupt.

The Argonaut has come out about even financially. The management has done well, for we were penalized by the executive board and were compelled to forfeit 15 per cent of our funds in the A. S. U. I. treasury. The debate council also suffered this penalty and as a result closes the season with a debt of something over $30.00.

We are not yet convinced that these penalties were justly imposed. Both departments complied perfectly with the provisions of the constitution.

But aside from this past question there should be some material reform in the future. The new administration faces a serious problem and something must be done to get rid of these heavy debts.

We hope to be able to publish the departmental reports next week and after the readers of the Argonaut have examined them we believe they will agree that REFORM is badly needed. And they are the ones who are responsible, they must take the necessary action. What do YOU think about it?

Football at the University of Kansas, Lawrence, cleared $11,491 this year.

A SPECIAL EDITION.

We are planning to publish a special edition next week. As we go to press, definite arrangements have not been made. It is possible that we will not be able to carry out our present plans, but if we are, the commencement number will appear Wednesday morning, with a cover design printed in two colors. We want to have the University colors in real silver and gold, not white and yellow, which are generally used to represent silver and gold.

The edition, if published, will be made much larger than usual. It will probably contain fourteen pages and some excellent cuts will be used. The literary department of the paper has not been given much room, principally on account of financial limitations, but the commencement number will be a literary number and will contain some excellent short stories and poems. We hope to close the year with a very attractive issue.

New Debate Council Organized.

The members of the newly elected debate council met yesterday and organized. The old council went out of office last Monday. The officers elected are as follows:

President, Chester Minden, '14.
Vice Pres., Chas. Horning, '14.
Secretary, B. E. Davis, '13.
Executive Board representative, Ralph B. Foster, '13.

President MacLean at Lewiston.

President MacLean went to Lewiston yesterday to address the graduating class of the Lewiston State Normal.

The commencement exercises are held this morning at 10:00 a. m. President MacLean will return this afternoon.

Prof. C. C. Rice may hold down first base for a part of the time—at least. Dean Eldridge can cover all the ground between second and third bases, and the law faculty will come in for their share of the game, tho it is not known where they will star. Their team will miss the support of Coach Griffith who has gone east and will not be on hand for this important engagement.

The game will be free and will be one of the most entertaining exhibitions of the entire season. When the date is arranged notice will be posted on the bulletin board in the Ad. building. All the baseball fans and real sports will be there.

JUDGE FLENNER DRAWS LARGE AUDIENCE

Y. M. C. A. Hall Was Crowded
And Many Had To Stand
—Special Music.

Judge J. D. Flenner of Boise gave his "Evening with Riley" in the Y. M. C. A. Hall of the Administration building of the University Wednesday evening and charmed his audience with his wonderfully sympathetic interpretation of the Hoosier poet. On account of the multiplicity of the college functions during the past week and the fact that some heavy exams were scheduled for Thursday, the audience was not large. However, it thoroughly appreciated the Judge and gave him hearty applause after every number.

After a number or two by the college orchestra under the direction of Prof. E. Hellier-Collens, President MacLean introduced Mr. Flenner as one of the most consistent friends of the University has ever had ever since its very inception. Judge Flenner has been identified with the educational interests of the state for the past thirty years and has spoken and written for the University since the time it existed merely on paper.

Mr. Flenner began his readings with "Knee Deep in June" and immediately captured his audience. From then on the people laughed at the whimsical humor and almost cried at the moving pathos of Riley under the masterly interpretation of the reader. There is a heart-quality, a sudden transition from the sunny humor to touching sadness, almost a simultaneous expression of both in Riley that Mr. Flenner caught and interpreted remarkably well. His voice is very effective and he caught the Hoosier dialect without the exaggeration with which a great many readers give it. His reading was marked by a reverse that did justice to Riley. The most effective piece was "The Old Man and Jim," in which he had the assistance of Misses Rudisell and Curtis in a duet, and the college orchestra playing a medley of national airs. One of the funniest bits was some verses about a man that for past misdemeanors made himself walk behind a wagon moving on a hot dusty road, muttering "Walk, you son-of-a-gun, walk! "The Hills of Somerset," the ever popular "When the Frost is on the Punkin" and many other typical Riley pieces received hearty applause.

There was a free natural atmosphere about the entertainment that was very interesting. Judge Flenner's ease of manner, humorous interpolations between, the charm of the poetry, the responsiveness, made a delightful evening. After the conclusion of the recital the audience gave nine ruls for the Judge and sang "My Idaho."

Mining Department Gets Fine Machine.

The Mining Department of the University received last week a very fine rock drill which was donated by the manufactures, Holman Brothers, of Camborne, England. The drill won the highest award for general efficiency at the Transvaal South African Government stoppe drill contest, which covered a period of about twelve months. There were German, British and American competitors entered in this contest and the judges awarded a cash prize of $12,000 to the Holman drill.

It is also of interest to note that the University of Idaho is the first mining school in the world to receive one of these drills. It was donated to the department by Messrs. Holman Bros, and was sent here from England.

Idaho Still On Top

Idahoans work wonders wherever they go. C. H. Lingenfelter of Boise went to the University of Oregon and secured a grade in the study of economics that has caused the envy of all his school mates. The following is an extract from an article in the Oregon Emerald of May 31st;

"All records in the Economics Department have been broken. C. H. Lingenfelter, Jr. has received a '100' is a Seager quiz. o o o "Think of it! After the greatest minds of Portland, the Williamette Valley, Southern Oregon and indeed the whole state, had labored and perspired for years only to be cut off with mere '50's', '76's' and '92's', a pugnacious blonde economist out of the sage brush and alkali of our sister state non-chantly carries off the palm. Well may he exclaim with Longfellow's hero, Eureka! The aforesaid grade has created a furor in scholastic and academic circles, and it is reported that the American Quarterly will publish the paper in full. Since this performance the Dorm dropped the name of "Ling, the fire eater", and with one accord has bestowed upon him the title of "The Sage of Boise."

The semester reports of the A. S. U. I. departments of athletics, debate, and the Argonaut were presented to the new executive committee Monday and are now before the auditing committee. We had hoped to be able to publish them this week, but the committee is not yet thru with them.

A fine picture has been secured for the department of history. It is a reproduction of a recent painting representing feudal times. There are four scenes, which belong together and tell the story of the life of a young knight. The picture is framed in dark oak, a narrow partition separating the different scenes. It was placed in Prof. Hulme's recitation room this week.

THE PREP COMMENCEMENT

A New Plan to be Tried—Class Will Present "Merely Mary Ann" Twice Tomorrow.

Prep commencement this year includes a rather extensive program. The exercises will commence with the class play, "Merely Mary Ann," by Israel Zangwill. This is the first time that a play has ever been attempted at Commencement time, and the venture is proving most successful. There will be two performances, afternoon and evening of Thursday, June 8. To cover the expenses of the staging a nominal admission fee will be charged, 25 cents for the matinee, and 25 and 50 cents for the evening. Reserved seats for the evening performance are on sale, and are going very rapidly. The college orchestra will furnish the music.

As an additional attraction for the matinee the annual inter class declamatory contest will be held. Each class will be represented in this contest and the winner will become the custodian for one year of the faculty silver cup. The declamations will be given between acts of the play. Miss Lulu Curtis will represent the A class, Carl Melugin the B, Miss Lillian Carithers the C, Carl Manring the D class.

The regular graduating exercises will be held at the Methodist church Saturday night. The plan for this also is new in prep commencements here, for the principal feature of the exercises will be the address to the class by the Rev. Jonathan Watson. Dr. MacLean will present the diplomas. There will be special music. All students and friends of the department are cordially invited to be present at all these exercises.

Faculty Athletic Committee Makes Report.

The faculty committee on student athletics made a striking report last week. They find several defects in the system of student management, which are censured strongly. To obtain stricter auditing of accounts and more definite responsibility, they have recommended that the duties of the graduate manager be specifically defined and that all expenditures of funds, either from gate receipts or from the student treasury, for athletics be made only with the written consent of the graduate manager. It is thought that this plan will check too free expenditures.

The report has been before the faculty and is undergoing some slight changes. We were not able to get it for publication this week. But, if an issue of the Argonaut is published next week, and we hope it will be possible, we will try to print it then.

out a hit or run. Robinson allowed seven hits which, with six errors, gave W. S. C. ten runs.

Pullman again won in Saturday's game, the score being 12-2. W. S. C.'s eight hits and Idaho's twelve errors tell the story. Lundstrum was in the box for Idaho, while Schwitzer again pitched for the visitors. In the game Wheeler is credited with the only unassisted double play made on Idaho field this year. Most of Idaho's errors were made by men playing out of their regular positions.

SEASON'S AVERAGES.

In considering the averages for the past season the reader should not form the opinion of a man's playing ability entirely on the record compiled at the end of the season. It must be remembered that there has been no regular scorer this season and, as no two men judge errors and hits alike, what has been a hit one day has been called only a batted ball the next. In the fielding averages the same uncertainty exists. Fielding averages have also been cut down by men playing out of their regular positions, which is necessarily one of the handicaps which must be borne by a small squad of baseball men.

Crom wins the medal for the best batter on the team, beating Kettenbach, his nearest rival, by .041. It will be noted that these two best batters on the Idaho team played together on the Lewiston Normal team which cleaned up everything five years ago. They played their last baseball for Idaho yesterday as did Williams and Lundstrum. In these four men Idaho is losing some baseball players whose places will be hard to fill.

BATTING AVERAGES.

The averages are:

	AB	Hits	Avg.
Crom	55	17	.309
Kettenbach	56	14	.250
Williams	51	11	.216
Barrett	41	9	.195
Wheeler	43	7	.163
E. Perkins	51	8	.157
Lundstrum	52	8	.154
F. Robinson	15	2	.133
Hillman	54	5	.093
Dippel	33	2	.067
C. Robinson	29	1	.035

FIELDING AVERAGES.

	Games	Average
F. Robinson	4	1.000
Williams	14	.974
E. Perkins	14	.937
Kettenbach	15	.921
Lundstrum	15	.888
Hillman	15	.864
Wheeler	11	.837
C. Robinson	9	.813
Crom	15	.810
Barrett	11	.790

rude Hay, secretary of the Board of Regents. The cup was brought to the campus yesterday. It is a beauty and is on exhibition in the trophy case in Coach Vander Veers' office, where it will be kept. The names of the winners will be engraved on it annually.

A large number of the girls have been learning to play the game this year, but only five entered the contest for the cup.

The final sets in the faculty singles was played yesterday afternoon. The faculty championship lay between Prof. H. L. Axtell and Coach C. H. Vander Veer. Prof. Axtell gave Mr. Vander Veer a handicap of fifteen in and fifteen out. The match was lively and very interesting. Prof. Axtell played a steady and strong game. He is cool and fast and kept Mr. Vander Veer moving. The coach, however, did some active work on his side of the net and kept the match going at a rapid pace. Prof. Axtell however won three sets of the four played. He now boasts the proud title of champion of the faculty. Vander Veer says he is a "classy" player.

Later in the afternoon the final set in the ladies doubles was decided. Misses Annett and Hays won from Misses Sieler and Winnifred Brown, by the scores of 6-4 and 6-love. They played a very steady and pretty game and showed remarkable precision and judgment. They are both very "heady" players.

The men's doubles are not yet finished. The championship now lies between teams composed of Kettenbach and Leuschel and Webster and Ellis. The final match will be played this week.

Lundstrum to Go to Detroit.

Fritz Lundstrum, the popular senior athlete, will go to Detroit to play with the Detroit American League baseball team as soon as commencement is over. He was signed up last year by a representative of the team.

Fritz has been active in all branches of athletics at Idaho. He has represented the Varsity on its teams in basketball, baseball, football and track. He deserves special recognition as an athlete.

Don Henley Successful.

Don Henley, a member of the fourth-year Preparatory class, who was some time ago recommended by Bursar Jenkins for appointment from Idaho as a cadet at Westpoint, has successfully passed all examinations and has left school to go to the military academy. A telegram from Senator Heyburn states that the principal has failed and that Henley will receive the appointment as alternate.

a good start and Kettenbach let him go for the rest of the set. But the senior took the third set by the score of 6 to 4.

By this time both men were tired and were playing carefully and taking no chances. Hoobler took the next set by the same score that Kettenbach had taken the third, 6 to 4. At the end of the fourth set the players were even. In the final set Hoobler seemed to tire rapidly and lost four successive games, but rallied and brought the games up to 5-all and had one game advantage. It began to look like he would win the set, but Kettenbach came up again and took the final set by 8 to 6, thus winning the tournament.

Kettenbach is a senior and has played basket ball and baseball thruout his entire four years. He was a member of both the Varsity basket ball and baseball teams this year.

The "Sheep Skins" Are Here.

The diplomas for the class of 1911 have come and are being signed. They are handsomely engraved on a fine quality of sheep skin parchment. This year there are more diplomas needed than ever before. This proves that Idaho is steadily growing.

characters:

Prof. Babbitt—Kiefer Denning.
 Marcus Brutus Snap—B. E. Davis.
 Jack Chumley—Leland Case.
 Lord Mulberry, his father—J. D. Davis.
 Harry Damask, Prof. Babbitt's son-in-law, C. E. Watts.
 Prowl—Leland Case.
 Mrs. Babbitt—Winnifred Brown
 Mrs. Damask, her daughter—Geneal Hague.
 Nisbe, another daughter—Mary Kirkwood.
 Susan, a servant—Luella Harvey.

Miss French is coaching the play and the cast is working hard and steadily. The first and second acts are now almost perfect, but the last two still need some rehearsing. But the time will be used to the best advantage and a good performance is assured.

The scene of the play is at Prof. Babbitt's home. The professor has written a play, which is an attempt at Roman tragedy. His wife and daughter, Nisbe, are at the sea shore when Snap comes along with a barnstorming troop and offers to produce the play. Mrs. Babbitt is strongly opposed to theatricals and comes home unexpectedly. There are many comic situations caused by the old man's trying to keep the play secret and at the same time trying to sneak off to attend rehearsals.

The third act comes after Snap and his company have produced Mr. Babbitt's tragedy. It has been a complete failure. But in the last act it comes to light that the audience took the performance as a burlesque on comedy and were delighted.

Jack Chumley, one of Snap's actors, is an old friend of Mr. Damask. Mrs. Damask becomes suspicious of her husband's past life and Chumley tells her of it. He and Chumley tells her that Damask was a "holy terror" when in college, tho the fact is that he was a very meek sort of man. This little situation furnishes a great deal of amusement.

Chumley's father, Lord Mulberry, comes in search of his son and causes some very comical scenes. The numerous mistakes and critical situations thruout the whole story make it a most interesting comedy.

The class hopes to give a bigger play next year. It will probably be a light opera, as there are a number of excellent voices among the members of the class. The profits of the performance are to be used in producing the Junior annual next year. The management is beginning early and is planning a better annual than has yet been published.

both out of door and this arrangement was quite satisfactory.

The following is the cast of characters:

Maria—Miss Mary Kirkwood.
 Alivia—Miss Luella Harvey.
 Viola—Kathryn Smith.
 Servant—Geneal Hague.
 Maevolia—B. E. Davis.
 Sir Toby—J. D. Davis.
 Sir Andrew Ague Cheek—R. B. Foster.

Antonio—"Tex" McClintock.
 Fabian—Matthew Boyeson.
 Officers—Cornwall and Watts.
 Some splendid acting was done and the lines were well memorized. The presentation was highly enjoyed by the crowd that had gathered to see it. It would not have been very clear to one who had not read the play, on account of the lack of stage scenery and costumes, but most of those who attended had studied the play.

Several of the actors will appear next Monday afternoon in the annual commencement play, when the Sophomore class will present "A Night Off" at a matinee performance in Eggan's hall.

Seniors, Attention!
