MILITARY BALL A BIG SUCCESS

The Dance Well Attended. Was First Dance Of The Year In The Gymnasium.

The eighth annual Military ball was held at the gymnasium last Friday night. The affair was a success in every respect.

The big floor was crowded with dancers from the grand march till the wee small hours of the morning and the crowd seemed to enjoy itself thoroughly. Many out of town guests were in attendance. A pleasing feature of the evening was the beauty and originality of the decorations.

The grand march was led by Lieut. T. E. Cathro, commandant of the cadet battalion, and Mrs. Cathro, and was a brilliant spectacle. The cadet band rendered the music for the march.

The hall was a veritable bower of evergreens. The running track was screened with firs and the big beams overhead had been covered with the small trees. An immense American flag hung over the center of the floor. The west end of the Gym had the appearance of a military camp. Tents had been pitched, one fitted out as "head-quarters" and stacked rifles lent a martial air to the scene. A cannon gracefully draped with the national colors stood in one corner. The orchestra occupied a position along one side of the Gym and was screened from view by evergreens.

The dance programs for the evening were dainty and unique. The outer cover was adorned by a miniature flag and the cards were in keeping with the spirit of the evening. The "military special" was a feature of the ball. The dance was limited to men in uniform and members of "The Legion of Honor," which is composed of officers and past officers of the battalion of cadets.

The music was of the highest order, the eight piece orchestra was led by Prof. E. Hellner Collens, furnishing the best music at any college function yet held this year. Punch and wafers were served to the dancers.

The patronesses were, Mrs. Jas. A. MacLean, Mrs. M. E. Lewis, Mrs. T. E. Cathro and Miss Pearl French. In the receiving line, besides the patronesses, were Lieut. Cathro and Cadet Major O'Donnell.

The dance was the best attended of any formal society event of the college year and was one of the most enjoyable. Nearly one hun-

The men at the Theta Mu house have had a very interesting course in the "Social Significance of the Teachings of Jesus," under the leadership of Dr. Steinman. Last Sunday morning, with 19 men present, the course was brought to a successful finish.

Twenty-seven students, twenty-three of whom are girls, have registered for Prof. Frevert's course in ice cream making.

ORCHESTRA GOES TO POTLATCH

Very Successful Concert Given to Big House—Members Enjoy Trip.

The first out-of-town trip for the orchestra this year was made to Potlatch last Saturday, where a concert was given in the Potlatch auditorium to a very large house. Many compliments from enthusiastic admirers in the audience were showered upon the orchestra and the soloists, Mr. Collens' beautiful solos being especially appreciated.

After the concert sixteen members of the orchestra visited the big mill of the Potlatch Lumber Company, spending two hours prying into the mysteries of lumber manufacturing and listening to the explanations of the guides. The latter were no less personages than Fred Lukins '08, and A. P. Beckner '11 who are members of the Potlatch High School faculty.

The orchestra returned Sunday morning after a three hour stop-over in Palouse where they took in the town.

Professor Collens expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the trip, and is busy arranging for more engagements for the near future. All members of the orchestra report a fine time and are anxious for another repetition shortly.

Acy—"Gosh, but it was wet over there in Potlatch."

Quinby—"Yes, but did you notice that even the cops over there haven't yet recovered from the rain."

Cadet Colonel McWhorter of W. S. C. and Lieutenant Strauss of the Washington Militia attended the Military Ball Friday evening.

dred couples were there. The "Military" has in the past years been the big society event of the season on the campus and this year the function was no exception to the rule.

Y. W. C. A. Banquet.

Thursday evening, Feb. 15th, occurred the Second Annual Banquet of the Y. W. C. A. at Ridenbaugh Hall. Miss Elizabeth Fox, the Northwest Secretary, was present and also the Cabinet from the W. S. C. Association.

A delightful time is reported by all. The banquet closed with toasts from some of the members of the Association, from the advisory board and from the visitors.

ENGLISH CLUB IN "AS YOU LIKE IT"

Cast To Interpret Shakespeare Chosen In General Try-Out Monday and Tuesday.

The English Club try-out for parts in "As You Like It," planned for production in the spring, occurred Monday and Tuesday afternoons. The judges were Professors Moore, Hulme and Tull. The number of students trying for parts was surprisingly large in consideration of the fact that it was the first general try-out ever held for an English Club play. The response on the part of the students on this initial call was such that it seems likely that the system will be followed in the case of all subsequent productions. The English department is convinced that it is the only effective plan by which the best talent can be secured for the plays. The only difficulty encountered in this particular trial was that of finding a suitable Orlando. Mr. Lehman, who has had considerable experience in Shakespearean plays, has been asked to take this part and has graciously consented to do so.

"We were really surprised at the showing made by the students under the rather trying circumstances of the try-out," said Dr. Moore. "They rendered their lines in the bare recitation room with only the three judges as audience. Yet the average of interpretation and delivery was pleasingly high. In fact we discovered so much new talent that we have decided to present another play some time in March. We shall produce "As You Like It" in May, and if the weather conditions are right we shall give it on the campus. Work on the other play, "The Kleptomaniac," a brilliant little comedy by Margaret Cameron, will begin at once."

The students chosen for parts in "As You Like It" are: Helen Denecke, Charlotte Tuttle, Lois Rowley, Irene Tosney, Mark Anderson, Roy Johnson-Theron Warren, A. L. Johnson, Fay Robinson, Ellsworth Davis, Oliver Nisbet, Ezra Fjelsted, Ernest Beckman.

Those selected for the cast of "The Kleptomaniac" are: Charlotte Tuttle, Helen Chase, Marguerite Allen, Mary Cozier, Gladys Nankervis, Laura Whitwell, and Clara Query.

BASKETBALL SEASON CLOSES

O. A. C. Defeats Idaho 30 to 11. Game Interesting Though Rough At Times.

In probably what was the poorest game played on the gym floor this year, Idaho again went down to defeat, before the mediocre O. A. C. team by a score of 30 to 11.

The game was uninteresting except for a few spurts when the two teams got real rough with each other, and when O. A. C. was dissatisfied with the decisions of the referee. The visitors started off well, Cates getting three field throws and Cooper two in the first half, while Loux made two field goals for Idaho and three throws on fouls. In the second half Cooper made four baskets for O. A. C., while Kinnison was making one for Idaho.

The spirit displayed by the O. A. C. team was of a childish nature. The Idaho rooters were also guilty of poor spirit. Many personal remarks were made against the visitors. Probably the less said about the details of the game, the better.

Following is the way the teams lined up:

O. A. C.—Walker and Cooper, forwards; Cate, center; McFarland

There has been talk about the campus for the last week, that there will be no interscholastic meet held under the auspices of the university this year. Of course, financial reasons will be the cause of the meet being called off, if it is.

The first interscholastic was held in the spring of 1910 and was a distinct success. High schools in the northern part of the state were invited to send teams and the arrangements were in charge of a faculty committee. The meet paid for itself and there was a small sum on the credit side of the ledger. Last spring, those in charge became more ambitious and a number of schools in the southern section of the state were invited to participate. Expenses were heavy and there was a loss.

The board of regents has been asked to finance these affairs, but has not seen fit to give them its support.

Shall it come to pass that these meets, which are of inestimable benefit to the university, be given up just because the powers that be, cannot see the direct return from each dollar expended?

It is safe to say that the two interscholastic meets held thus far have done more to advertise the institution and attract students here than any other one thing in the history of the school. It may seem to some that every cent spent is money wasted, but that is far from the truth. In a young and growing state, such as Idaho, the university cannot advertise too much.

The older eastern colleges attract many Idaho students and we cannot afford to lose one more than can be helped.

We must have the interscholastics. We cannot afford to discontinue them. They are valuable. Boost for the idea every time you hear it mentioned and mention it yourself once in a while.

A STUDENT.

O, Ye Shakespearians.

As a means of securing for her timorous "Shakespearians" the advantage of "a little less modesty and a little more conceit," Dr. Moore has introduced into her Sophomore English class the practice of dramatic reading. Every student in the class will be required at some time during the year to appear before the assembled multitude of Shakespear admirers in an interpretation of a memorized selection from that play that is being studied. Grades will be given on general principles. The first show comes off tomorrow.

GRADUATE MGR. EXPLAINS ACTION

Liabilities Against Athletic Association too Great to Permit Greater Drafts.

To the Editor of the Argonaut:

Below you will find a list of liabilities against the Athletic Association and a few remarks concerning the same. There were two other bills besides the ones listed below, but in each case the merchants told the writer that they had given up all hope of the bills ever being paid and had torn them up a year or more ago:

LIABILITEIS.
Note at First Nat'l Bank	$915 00
Note at First Trust Co.	100 00
To Dr. Hatfield	41 00
To Hagau & Cushing	92
To the Idaho Post	1 25
To David & Ely Co.	119 30
To Collins & Orland	24 20
To Hodgins Drug Store	176 26
To Sherfey's Book Store	40 00
Total	$1417 93

The above summation does not include the liabilities of the present basket ball season, which, due to the lack of interest taken in the game by the faculty and students, will amount to nearly $200.

Several of the above bills have been running since 1908 and very little effort has ever been made to clear them up. The finances have been run so loosely and the financial standing has become so bad that it is almost impossible to obtain credit in the name of the Athletic Association. The banks have long ago refused to recognize a note on the Athletic Board, and last spring the writer was forced to carry on basket ball and track athletics with money taken from his own pocket. In view of these conditions it is not to be wondered at that the town people refuse to patronize student athletic events.

Instead of being backed by the student body in his attempt to wipe out this debt, the manager has been censured on every hand for keeping down expenses and trying to put the Athletic Association on a substantial footing. His refusal to sign a requisition for sweaters for the football team has caused considerable comment and ill feeling.

As a matter of fact, the writer is very much in favor of giving a sweater to an athlete when he first wins his letter, but at the present time the association is certainly in no shape to make any wholesale donation of that kind and he will sign no requisition calling for such an expenditure out of the athletic funds until the financial condition of the Athletic Association has been vastly improved. The student body has no right to unnecessarily increase the liabilities of an already overburdened branch of its organization when the funds for such an expenditure can and should be obtained elsewhere.

The A. S. U. I. constitution provides for a Miscellaneous Fund to meet special demands. If the student body insists on certain legislations they should also get into the habit of making appropriations to cover the same and one way of doing it in this case would be to vote the money from the above mentioned fund.

But as before stated, in view of the large indebtedness of the Athletic Board, the manager can not allow such an expenditure from the athletic funds at the present time.

Graduate Manager.

Shinn-Fluharty.

The following notice appeared in the Morning Union of Walla Walla, Washington of February 21: The marriage of Miss Florence Shinn of Mattoon, Illinois to Mr. Lee W. Fluharty of this city was solemnized last evening at the home of Byron Hunter, 209 North Madison street, Rev. J. D. Armistead officiating. Only immediate friends were present, there being about twenty invitations issued.

The house was beautifully decorated with palms, ferns and cut flowers. A wedding bell of pink and white hyacinths hung in the archway where the ceremony took place. The bride wore white liberty silk and carried a shower of hyacinths, carnations and sweet peas. Music was furnished by Miss Lee, instructor of music in the Walla Walla schools, and Miss Ireland of Whitman College. The color scheme of pink and white was followed in serving the refreshments after the ceremony.

The groom is a graduate of the University of Idaho and a member of the Theta Mu Epsilon fraternity there. He is now an assistant Agriculturist in the U. S. Department of Agriculture and is associated with Bryon Hunter in this work in Washington, Oregon and Idaho.

Miss Shinn was for three years a student of the University of Illinois and a member of the Alpha Omicron Pi sorority. She was also a member of the Alethenai literary society and other prominent student organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. Fluharty will make their future home in Walla Walla.

Prof. Temple will leave for Idaho Falls this week to lecture before the State Agronomy Association on Pure Seed Laws.

W. B. Patty, an expert demonstrator, will present to the students of the University and citizens of Moscow the wonders of the wireless telegraph, liquid air and radium at Eggan's Hall, Feb. 28.

Since radium is worth $5,000,000 per pound, Mr. Patty does not carry very many hundred pounds, but he does carry several hundred dollars worth in small tubes, sufficient to show the wonderful properties of this most wonderful substance.

Mr. Patty was in Moscow several years ago and is indorsed strongly by all who heard him. Don't forget the date, Feb. 28. Tickets at Hodgin's or Mr. Davis, 50 cts.

New Instructor In Forestry.

Mr. Irwin W. Cook, forest assistant in the Salmon National Forest, been has appointed Assistant Professor in the School of Forestry. After graduating from Washburn College, Topeka, Mr. Cook specialized in Forestry at the University of Michigan. He comes highly recommended by his former instructors and by Supervisor Ryan of the Salmon National Forest, where he has had charge of reconnaissance work, timber sales and grazing.

Professor Cook fills the vacancy caused by the resignation of H. A. Wadsworth, who has accepted a commission as Second Lieutenant in the U. S. Army. Lieutenant Wadsworth was Cadet Major when a student at the University of Idaho and for the last three years has been First Lieutenant and Adjutant in the Idaho National Guard.

February 24, 1912.

The regular session of the Victor Price Debaters was held on the evening of February 24, in Science hall. Not a few men braved the cold air of this second winter and defied the solicitations of Somnus, assembling to learn whether or not the cities of Idaho should adopt the commission form of government. Messrs. Felsted and Foster argued for the adoption of this system, while Barr, Leeper and Dotson proved to the judges that the commission government under the present state laws is not a step in advance of the old system. After the debate Mr. Lucas gave the Irish "Shamus O'Brian."

Next came the question, "Resolved that the A. S. U. I. fee should be made large enough to include a ticket to all athletic events." This is a question which Idaho will face in the near future. We will have the merits and demerits of the proposition thrashed out at the meeting held at 8:00 p. m. on March 9, at the Dormitory. All who, for any reason are interested, are very earnestly requested to be there.

LAST WEEK'S ABOUT THE CAMPUS.

On Tuesday evening Gamma Phi Beta entertained at an enjoyable dinner party in honor of Kate Skillern who left the next day for her home in Boise. Those invited were Messrs McGregor, Phillips, Denning, Farris, Lewis and Case.

Phi Delta Theta entertained at dinner, Tuesday evening, the Mandolin quintet composed of Mr. Tull, Jack Wheeler, Fred Rebord, Raymond Gillespie and Teddy Watts.

At the Prep election held last week, Carl Melugin was elected King; Alta Taylor, Queen; Howard Holiday, Secretary; Calvin Smith, Treasurer; Argonaut Reporter, Marjory Zumbhof; Don David, Yell Leader.

Mr. and Mrs. "Pink" Griffith and Mr. Larson were guests of Kappa Sigma at dinner Sunday.

Fritz Lundstrom '11 has been visiting at the Kappa Sigma House this week.

Miss Beth Soulen was hostess at a jolly little supper party Sunday evening. The guests were Misses Tosney, Ellis, Lois Rowley, Grace Bolger, Whitwell, Butler, Means, and McConnell, and Messrs. David, P. Perkins, Fawcett, Burns, Helfrich, Phillips, Wheeler, Rowell, W. C. Perkins, and McGregor.

Lieutenant Cathro made a trip to Coeur d'Alene for the purpose of completing arrangements for the encampment which will be held at that city this year.

L. G. Wilkins, who is in Moscow on business, is visiting at the Zeta Delta House.

Hallard Foester '13 has been confined to his rooms with sickness for the last few days.

Dr. Steinman was a guest at dinner at the Zeta Delta House Sunday.

Zeta Delta entertained Kappa Sigma at a smoker Saturday night. Everybody attended "The Rivals" before the smoker.

Mr. Smith, Chief Engineering of the I. & W. N. Railroad, accompanied by his wife, was in Moscow the first part of the week visiting his nephews C. L. and G. I. Downing.

The principal social event of the week was the delightful party given by Zeta Delta Friday evening in honor of Gamma Phi Beta. The first part of the evening was spent at the fraternity house with music and conversation. Then the party adjourned to the K. P. hall for the remainder of the evening. Here the hours fairly flew by with the aid of dancing. Punch was served throughout the evening and then a lunch consisting of sandwiches, olives and coffee. At a late hour the party reluctantly disbanded, the girls all vouching for the ability of the Zeta Deltas to entertain.

Twin Falls County Association.

On the evening of February 6 the Twin Falls County Association of the U. of I. was organized. Jos. Sudweeks was chosen temporary chairman and a lively discussion followed concerning the value of an organization and the name to be selected. Constitution and by-laws were drafted and adopted. The purposes of the club are two: First—To advertise the University in the section of the state represented; and second, to promote acquaintance and good fellowship among its members. The following permanent officers were elected: President, Roy Commack; vice president, W. L. Snyder; secretary and treasurer, H. S. Youngs; Booster committee, Jos. Sudweeks and C. E. Marner; social committee, R. C. Leth and V. L. Taylor. The motto "Best—Don't Roost" was chosen as the official slogan of the club.

Friday evening last, the association met for social enjoyment and a business meeting. Everyone was bubbling over with enthusiasm. About a dozen lively games were played among them an elephant race, turtle race, sack race, peanut race, cracker race, string chewing and sack fight; and rewards were given to the winners. Refreshments were served in generous quantities, and proved very invigorating after the strenuous sports. During the evening each person told a story of some incident that had happened in connection with the Twin Falls country.

A business meeting followed. The booster committee reported on association stationary and the committee was authorized to confer with the association officers to order enough stationary to supply the members. It was decided to hold a meeting some time during the summer. A committee consisting of G. C. Leth, McAdams, and L. F. Piercy, was appointed to decide on the time and place of this meeting. A lively discussion concerning the method of advertising the University in southern Idaho, and of directing those students this way was held. F. B. Dotson, U. S. Taylor and C. E. Wood were appointed as a committee to secure the names of prospective students and to correspond with them with a view of securing their attendance here. The committee was instructed to co-operate with the publicity bureau of the University, if possible, in their work of advertising.

The Twin Falls Country Association consists of about 20 members, representing Twin Falls, Buhl, Gooding, Burley, Wendell, Kimberly, Filer, Hagarman and Corral. It is now the only organization in the University representing any locality in the state.

AMERICAN STUDENTS AT OXFORD

American Students Fast Making Good In All Lines Of Work. Prominent In Athletics.

Under the provisions of the will of Cecil Rhodes, the South African "empire builder," 179 young men from the United States, Germany and the British colonies are now pursuing their studies at famous old Oxford University. These Rhodes Scholars, as they are known, draw an allowance of $1500 a year for three years. In the United States two scholarships are awarded every three years in each state in the union. Idaho's first Rhodes Scholar, Lawrence Gipson of Caldwell, went to Oxford in 1904. The latest Idaho boy to enjoy the benefits of the Rhodes bequest, Ludwig Gerlough of Boise, took up his residence at Oxford last fall. Other Rhodes Scholars from this state were Carol H. Foster of Wieser, McKeen H. Morrow of Boise, George N. Curtis of Boise, and Toney T. Crooks of Fredonia, Kansas.

President MacLean has just received from the trustees of the Rhodes bequest a statement which contains much interesting information about the Rhodes Scholars and their work. During the academic year 1910-11 there were 176 Rhodes Scholars in residence at Oxford, of whom 89 were from the United States, 77 from the British colonies, and 10 from Germany. They were distributed among the various colleges which comprise Oxford University in groups ranging from 1 to 17. The distribution depends partly upon their own choice and partly upon their merits as judged by the college authorities. Each selected Scholar sends in a list in the order of his preference of the colleges at which he wishes to enter. The authorities of each college then select from the applicants for admission those whose scholastic record and credentials seem to them most satisfactory. The number admitted to any one college is strictly limited.

The statement shows that last year 47 scholars were studying for advanced degrees in Law, Letters, Medicine and Science. Of the 126 studying for the B. A. degree, 14 were taking work in Literae Humaniores; (Philosophy and Classics), 44 in Jurisprudence, 9 in Physiology, 5 in Engineering, 4 in Chemistry, 3 in Geology, 1 in Botany, 1 in Physics, 18 in History, 10 in Theology, 8 in English Literature, 6 in Mathematics and 3 in Modern Languages. 11 were taking special work in Economics, 6 in Forestry, 2 in Anthropology, 1 in Geography, 1 in Rural Economy and 1 was preparing for the Indian Civil Service.

Rhodes Scholars represented Oxford against Cambridge in rowing, rugby, association football, cricket, tennis, track, hockey, lacrosse, cross country running, boxing and water sports. Two American Rhodes Scholars took part in the international track meet last year between Yale-Harvard and Oxford-Cambridge. One of these, a young man from Kansas, in taking the hammer throw won the meet for the British universities, for this was the deciding event of the day.

The following list indicates the lines of work taken up by Rhodes Scholars who had completed their three years at Oxford by 1910:

Education, 84; law, 66; religious work, 19; civil service, (Germany), 13; Medicine, 11; Scientific work, 9; business, 8; journalism, 5; mining and engineering, 5; agriculture, 3; diplomatic service (Germany), 3; diplomatic and consular service (U. S.), 2; Indian civil service, 2; forestry, 2; consular service (British), 1; Colonial service, 1; Army, 1; Secretarial work, 1; miscellaneous and unknown, 10.

Another Message for College Men.

Every one who heard Mr. Hurrey's message, exerting its broadening and uplifting influence on our minds and ideals, will be pleased to hear that the Y. M. C. A. has secured another man with a world vision and a vital message for college students.

This man is Mr. J. C. Robins, now of New York City. He toured the eastern colleges last year and was greatly in demand, being compelled to refuse many invitations to address the students of other colleges. Listen to what Mr. Hurrey says of him.

"The students of the University of Idaho are to be congratulated on having an opportunity to meet and hear Mr. J. C. Robins. A graduate of Brown University, he knows student life and has had an unusual experience in the Philippines. He has a fund of information about these interesting islands and knows how to speak effectively. Everyone should take advantage of such an opportunity of the visit of such a statesman, to get an up to date view of the present world situation."

Mr. Robins will address a joint meeting of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Assembly Hall. His topic will be, "The Flag and the Church in the Philippines." Every member of the faculty and every man and woman at the University is invited to this meeting.

Editor—"Never mind. We have met several times before."

1912 Spring New Suits, Hats and Shoes at Creighton's

The Y. M. C. A. of the University should be congratulated for bringing to Moscow a man like Charles D. Hurrey, and should be urged to bring here other men like him. Mr. Hurrey is of a high type of manhood, and his message is sound and sane. There is nothing aenemic or "goody-goody" about him. He knows college men in all countries; he knows their temptations and good impulses. He understands fully that it is not easy to be good, but he brings the challenge of conflict between good and evil to his hearers and makes them want to conquer; to be clean, strong, vital men. Mr. Hurrey teaches that a man may be refined and vigorous, sympathetic and strong, spiritual and masterful, and he explains his teaching by his own character. In his endeavor to simplify life for students, to show them the real fundamentals of life, and put all things in true perspective, he is doing big, significant work and Idaho is glad he has been here.

Financially Embarrassed Student—"Do you know where I could get anything on this coat?"
Friend—"Sure!"
Financially Embarrassed Student—"Gee, where?"
Friend—"At the boarding house."
—Cornell Widow.

"Did you ever read 'Looking Backward'?"
"Yes, once in an examination, and got canned for it."—Exchange.

"Your answer," said the History Professor, "reminds me of Quebec."

"How's that?" asked the student.

"Because Quebec is founded on such a tall bluff," replied the Professor.—Cornell Widow.

"How are you doing in your studies?"

"Derriere."

"What do you mean?"

"Behind in French."—Williams Purple Cow.
