

ENGLISH CLUB GIVES PLAYS FRIDAY NIGHT

To Present "Pipe of Peace" and "Best Man" at Opening Meeting in Y. M. C. A. Hut

PERFORMANCE AFTER GAME

Many New Members of the Casts—All Take Their Parts Well.

The Y. M. C. A. hut will be initiated into university life Friday night with the presentation of two plays by the English Club. "The Best Man" and "The Pipe of Peace" are the two selections to be given as the first dramatic offering of the year. The performance, which will be held immediately after the Oregon game, is open to the public and is free.

"The Best Man" was staged Monday evening for the entertainment of the extension workers, and met with a warm reception. "The Pipe of Peace" is being produced here for the first time Friday night. Both are one-act comedies.

Something new in the line of stage setting will be offered. Modern symbolism will be the effect. A great deal of care has been taken to carry out the color scheme for the setting of the two plays.

With one exception, all members of the casts are making their first bow to an Idaho audience. However, they were chosen from a field of over thirty candidates, and according to the coaches, will display little of the amateurishness sometimes associated with college dramatics.

The casts are as follows:

"The Pipe of Peace."
Joe Terrill.....Abe Goff
Gladys Terrill.....Jeanette Sholes
Molly.....Georgia Oylear

"The Best Man."
Richard Ford.....Ralph Davis
George Bradley.....Wilfred Newman
Marion Gibson.....Nathalie Tecklenburg
Margaret Gibson.....Mary McKenna

Dr. G. M. Miller and Mr. Bridge are coaching the performances. The plays will start at 8:30, immediately after the basketball game. Admission is free.

RICHMOND TO EDIT GEM OF MOUNTAINS

Prominent Senior Chosen Head of Editorial Staff by Executive Board—O. H. Chief Manager

Preston R. Richmond, '19, has been named managing editor of the Gem of the Mountains by the executive board of the A. S. U. I. Angelina Burns, '19, will be the assistant managing editor. The selections were made in accordance with the authority delegated to the board at the student body meeting Monday night after the Richard Ott, '19, was appointed chairman of the business committee. Clarence Taylor, '19, Dean Wilson, '21, William Langroise, '21, and Clarence Hibbard, '21 are his associates. W. S. C. game.

Eleven weeks are all that remain in which to get out the annual. The printer will be allowed twenty days for his work, so that it is hoped to have the book in the hands of the student body June 7th. Further staff appointments will be made as fast as an organization is determined.

The executive board has also appointed a committee to codify the amendments to the A. S. U. I. constitution. As soon as this is done, the constitution will be republished in handbook form and distributed among the students.

AG. CLUB ORGANIZES

Christ New President—Plans for Annual Agricultural Day Discussed By Faculty.

The first meeting of the Agricultural Club was held Wednesday night. The following officers were elected: Henry Christ, president; William Dencke, vice president; Oliver Campbell, secretary and Ralph Rowell, treasurer.

The meeting was represented by a large attendance. Interesting talks were rendered by Professors Hickman Bonnett and Vincent on the possibilities of the club and Agricultural Day.

EXTRA!

The University of Oregon basketball team defeated Washington State College last night 38-28. Oregon now stands second in the conference.

SANDELIUS LEADS SENIORS

Prominent Debator New President of Class of '19

At a class meeting held Thursday afternoon the Seniors unanimously elected Walter Sandelius of Moscow, president of the class for the remainder of the year. Upon a motion by Richard Ott the other officers will continue in their present capacity owing to the unsettled condition of last quarter. They are Anne Glindemann, vice-president; Esther Thomas, secretary; and Annette McCallie, treasurer. Sandelius has been prominent during his college course particularly upon the debate platform. He is debate manager this year; and also secretary of the Associated Students.

Canes and cow-boy lids were endorsed as the distinguishing apparel of the class.

The matter of a suitable class memorial was discussed and necessary committees will soon be appointed.

To every 20 men of the unit will be issued: 1 marker; 1 sighting bar, complete; 1 target "A"; 1 target "B".

DISCUSS EXTENSION WORK

Leaders in This Field Give Interesting Assembly Lecture—Large Numbers of Workers.

The work of the off-campus university, the extension service, was briefly discussed at the assembly, Wednesday morning, February 19. The speakers were F. L. Williams, assistant county agent leader; W. T. McCall, state club leader; Amy Kelly, state home demonstration leader, and L. W. Fluharty, director of extension, who are here attending the first after-the-war meeting of the group.

Mr. Fluharty briefly discussed the extension service, stating that it was divided into the following sections: Boys' and Girls' club work, county agent work, home demonstration work, and specialists in live stock, dairying, pure seed, soil and road control. There are approximately 76 workers in the extension department which carries on organized work in 34 counties.

Mr. Williams, Miss Kelly and Mr. McCall also gave brief outlines of their work, telling its purposes and results.

To Speak at Lewis and Clark.

President E. H. Lindley will deliver the baccalaureate address for the graduating class of Lewis and Clark high school in Spokane on March 9. "A Perpetual Discovery of America" is to be the subject of Dr. Lindley's address.

VANDALS DEVASTATE ANCIENT HOOP RIVALS

A Thousand Fans Go Wild As Idaho Scals Washington State College 44-24

PULLMAN TAKES EARLY LEAD

Holds Six Point Margin for Ten Minutes—Game Clean and Fast—No "Rough-stuff"

Idaho clinched her hold on the northwest conference dope sheet by shoving a 4 to 24 knockout to Washington State College, her most feared rival last Monday in the local gymnasium. Both teams exhibited a brand of basket ball that took the crowded benches off their feet with its lightning speed. The game was free from the rough stuff that often pops up when the two rivals face each other.

Teamwork a Feature. Featuring for Idaho was the team work of the whole quintet, the clock-like action of the Campbell-Moe-Hunter combination, and the excellent work of Romig and Lindley, guards, who were shoved harder than in any previous game.

McIvor Smothered. For W. S. C. Rocky and Hollman starred, McIvor not showing up to best advantage in this game. The team exhibited a good style of playing, but could not handle the ball as well as the Idahoans.

Bohlerites Take Lead. The game started with Pullman going strong with a rush of 6 points before Idaho scored. Shots by Hunter, Moe and Campbell quickly turned the standing and during the rest of the game the Muscovites were never in danger. The score at the end of the first half was 24-7 in their favor.

The next game with Pullman will be played Monday night.

The lineup:
Idaho (44) W. S. C. (24)
CampbellC..... Hollman
HunterF..... Rocky
MoeF..... McIvor
LindleyG..... Burgess
RomigG..... Kotula

Field goals—Hunter 7, Moe 5, Campbell 4, Romig, Rocky 3, Hollman 3, Burgess 2.

Free throws—Hunter 10 out of 15; Hollman 3 out of 4; McIvor 3 out of 14.

Two points awarded W. S. C., Referee—Borleske of Whitman.

SNOW STORM CAUSES DAMAGE

Clock in Ad. Building Suffers—Also Miss French.

Girls of Ridenbaugh Hall are remarkable sound slumberers declares Dean Permeal French, who complains that she has worn out nearly all the tin pans and large spoons in the establishment endeavoring to wake up her charges.

The heavy snow storm of about a week ago grounded a transformer in the city which caused the burning out of the wiring and controlling relays in the university clock in the lower hall of the Ad. building, and also the bell-ringing system in Ridenbaugh Hall.

The wood work of the clock itself was blackened and parts of it were charred.

The failure of the bell service in the ladies dormitory puts a great task upon Dean French who not only has many sleepy maidens to arouse in time for breakfast, but is entertaining visitors to the extension work conference.

LEWIS AND CLARK VS. FRESHMEN

Meet in Idaho Gym Tomorrow Afternoon—High School Lads Have Good Record.

Lewis and Clark high school of Spokane will battle the Idaho freshmen next Friday afternoon in the gym. The Spokane hoopers come with a reputation, having defeated their rivals, North Central high school in two games.

The university freshmen, though out of practice, have an exceptionally good lineup, and with the star material shown in the intramural league, a strong team should be played against the high school youngsters.

Fox, Thompson and Miller, all members of last year's all-state high school five, will probably appear in the frosh lineup. But in Whitcomb, Kerin, Scott and other inter-fraternity lights, Coach Bleamaster will have an abundance of material from which to make his final selection.

WHITMAN DEFEATED BY VANDAL GANG

Idaho Scores Two Easy Victories—Second String Men Given Chance.

The Vandals scalped the Missionaries in two snappy games, 45 to 16, and 59 to 23, last Friday and Saturday at Moscow, ending the four game series. The Moscowites were never in danger, but the Walla Walla men were there with a continual fight and gained nothing but admiration from the crowds.

In both games Coach Bleamaster used some of his abundant supply of second string men to help round out the lineup.

Hunter and Moe starred in the Whitman games. Carter, a substitute stationary guard, played his first Varsity game well.

Garver Shines. For Whitman, Garver was the only bright light of the quintet, although Clerin proved more accurate on the basket end. The big center was in the game all the time.

Lineup and summary:
Idaho (45) Whitman (16)
CampbellC..... Garver
HunterF..... Clerin
MoeF..... Cutler
LindleyG..... Wilson
RomigG..... Gensel

Substitutions—Perrine for Campbell; Cornelison for Moe; Cozier for Hunter; Brigham for Romig; Carter for Lindley; Blakely for Clerin; Wiley for Cutler.

Field goals—Hunter 10; Moe 5; Campbell, Brigham, Garver 4; Clerin. Free throws—Hunter 9 out of 12; Clerin, 6 out of 9.

Referee—Hinderman.

Second Game.

Idaho (59) Whitman (23)
CampbellC..... Garver
HunterF..... Clerin
MoeF..... Cutler
RomigG..... Wilson
CarterG..... Gensel

Substitutions—Brigham for Romig; Perrine for Campbell; Cozier for Moe; Brigham for Hunter; Cornelison for Romig; Wiley for Cutler.

Field goals—Moe 12, Hunter 10, Perrine 3, Campbell 5, Clerin 6, Garver 3.

Free throws—Hunter, 5 out of 7; Clerin, 5 out of 9.

EXTENSIONISTS ENTERTAINED

See Idaho-W. S. C. Game—Social Time at Y. M. C. A.—English Club Presents Play.

The first social event of the Extension Conference was the reception accorded extension workers and other visitors by the faculty of the University on Monday evening, at the new Y. M. C. A. building on the campus.

Prior to the reception the extension workers were guests at the W. S. C. Idaho basketball game, where they saw the Idaho team in action and witnessed their victory.

After passing through a short reception line, the visitors were formally welcomed by President Lindley, and a brief response was made by Director Fluharty. Vocal solos were rendered by Bernadine Adair and Mrs. Collier.

The English Club presented one of the two-act plays which are to be given Friday night in the Y. M. C. A. building. Though Dean Thomson announced in his introductory speech that it was merely a dress rehearsal, the play was exceedingly well given, and lacked that amateurishness which so often characterizes college productions.

IDAHO AND OREGON BATTLE TONIGHT

Web-Footers Strong Contenders For Northwest and Pacific Coast Championship.

VANDALS IN GOOD SHAPE

Game Called at 7:15—Freshman-Lewis and Clark Squabble In Afternoon.

The University of Oregon basketball team, fresh from double-header victories over the University of Washington and Oregon Agricultural College, goes on the mat with the varsity tonight. One of the hardest battles ever fought in the Idaho gymnasium is expected, as by winning the lone Oregon-Idaho contest, the Web-footers can bismirch the Gem State claim to the championship, even though the latter team finishes higher in the percentage column.

If Oregon wreaks revenge on Washington State College tonight, and trims the Vandals in tomorrow's fracas, she will have a strong claim to northwest and Pacific coast honors.

Durno Fast.

The Idaho men escaped from injury in the W. S. C. battle, and are primed for another such round. The Oregonians are relying largely upon the basket-locating ability of Durno, a speedy forward. Herman Lind, their rangy center, has been picked as a star also in recent games. The guards are new men, but were able to hold Doc Bohler's shooters to a lower score than any other of the coast forward-chasers.

The game tonight will be called promptly at 7:15 in order to permit the production of the two English Club plays in the Y. M. C. A. hut later in the evening. The Freshmen-Lewis and Clark scrap, which was originally marked for a curtain raiser, will be played in the afternoon.

Demand Rooters' Caps.

The vigilance committee has issued an edict demanding that rooters caps be worn to the Oregon game and all ensuing basket ball games. The penalty for failure will be the same as for violations of the no-date ultimatum.

Plans are also under way for a special train to Pullman Monday for the second W. S. C.-Idaho battle. A large per cent of the howling host has signified a desire to witness the game, which may clinch for Idaho the championship of the northwest.

NOTED SOCIOLOGIST LECTURES TO GIRLS

Explains Y. M. C. A. War Work and Discusses Various Vital Social Questions.

Dr. Margaret D. N. Nordfeldt, a representative of the Y. W. C. A., is delivering a series of lectures on social education to the women students of the university.

Dr. Nordfeldt's introductory talk given Monday evening was an explanation of what the government had done for the soldiers and sailors, by the establishment of the five mile zone, the providing of the right sort of recreation, and by giving them social education. This was followed by a short discussion of the biological approach of sex. Tuesday evening her subject was the physical side of sex; Wednesday the emotional side and Thursday it is to be the social side.

Dr. Nordfeldt is a graduate of Vassar and had a medical practice in New York for several years. She also taught psychology and hygiene in the city high schools.

After her marriage Dr. Nordfeldt traveled and lived abroad for some time. Upon returning to the United States her work was mainly in the charity department of New York City. For awhile she had the care of girls in a New Jersey airplane factory.

About a year ago Dr. Nordfeldt took up the work with the war department commission on training camp activities, social hygiene division section on women's work. At the time of Dr. Nordfeldt's entrance into this work, but four women were employed in that section. The section has grown rapidly and now contains one hundred and fifty women who are devoting a part if not all of their time to social education.

Lyle M. Colburn on account of a long illness has left the University for his home in Sterling, Idaho. He will return next fall to continue his studies.

Entered at the postoffice at Moscow, Idaho, as Second Class Mail Matter.

A student forum for the University of Idaho has been suggested by A. L. Evans, professor of law.

At a meeting of the committee of Current Events-Professor Evans said that such an organization will be the forum where the students and faculty can openly discuss the vital questions of the day. Students interested in political, economical and social problems will be eligible to membership.

The purpose of Student Forum is to combine the varied interest of the clubs with limited membership and to give an opportunity to both the faculty and students for free discussion of the questions of the day. The students' opinions are requested concerning this organization.

IDAHO TEACHERS IN DEMAND

Education Department Unable to Supply All Calls.

The influx of requests for teachers is keeping the recommendation committee busy. Prof. Ph. Soulen, the acting chairman, calls attention to the fact that—

All candidates are required to secure cards in the Education Office, to be filled out with necessary information.

The types of teachers' certificates should be thoroughly understood, he adds. Provisional certificates are intended for under-graduates, and not for graduates. They are valid for two years only and are not renewable. Applicants must be of Sophomore standing and have had 10 credit hours in Education.

State certificates are for graduates who have had 16 credit hours in Education and are valid for 8 years.

A specialist's certificate is valid only for the special subject mentioned therein and can not be used by teachers in several subjects.

Possible demand for teachers can be inferred from the fact that during the three preceding weeks the University has received repeated calls for teachers which it is unable to supply, says Prof. Soulen. At present there are six requests for next year teachers, offering salaries varying from $75 to $225 per month.

WANT NEW IDAHO SONGS

Music Department Will Furnish Aids For Words Written by Idaho Students.

"Get busy and write some new Idaho songs" said Professor E. O. Bangs at the musical assembly last Wednesday.

"There are at present 21 gold stars in the University service flag and a song should be written to commemorate the University men who have given their lives in the war. In fact the service flag alone should give rise to many inspirations.

Professor Bangs said, "It seems to me that with the number of students enrolled here, many fine songs could be written about college traditions and the spirit of Old Idaho."

The music department has agreed to set to music any suitable songs which are submitted and it is hoped that this generous offer will meet with many responses.

NEW BACTERIOLOGY MAN ASSUMES DUTIES AT "U"

W. V. Halverson of Spanish Forks, Utah, has been appointed assistant in bacteriology for the experiment station work and to assist in the manufacture of culture for legumes, large quantities of which are sent out from the experiment station during the spring months.

Mr. Halverson is a graduate of the Utah Agricultural College, has a master's degree from Iowa State College, and with the exception of his thesis has completed the work for his doctor's degree in bacteriology from Iowa.

THE SHORT STORY WEAKLY!

Published by the M. T. Doam Pugnistic Company.

THE DANCE REVUE

All things considered equal, and every point being taken into consideration, we should use to remark that the Sophomore Frolic had the edge on the Senior Ruff in all ways but in about half of the honors. In saying this we do not wish to praise the Sophomores; nor the Seniors, but the Seniors had much better music, programs, punch and everything else, that is, they were as good as those at the Sophomore dance. However the fact remains, in comparing the two struggles, the editorial staff of this paper must give the Sophomores the greater credit, because of their preponderance of numbers. Nevertheless we wish to compliment the Seniors in putting it over the Sophomores by reason of their greater brain power and psychological advantage.

Left out of this retrograde has been the Junior Prom—that ecclesiastical haunt of mirth-makers—but it need not be mentioned. The few hours spent there slid blissfully away as the punch did from our borrowed white shirt front. And also as did the one and one half brass earrings. As a grand finale, all classes must be given much praise for the wonderful condition of the floor at both of the three light fantasies. Many social lights would have surely slipped, much to the degradation of their modesty, if the floor had not resembled sandpaper so much in its adhering qualities.

This revue has been given, purposely before the Freshman Glee was thrown, by reason of the fact that the Frosh intend to slip it over on the upper classmen so badly that the editor could not truthfully compare the dances without mortifying the upper classmen.

Advice to Girls.

If you have blond hair, do not throw ink.

If a man cuts a date with you, thank him for being so considerate.

You can cuss just as good as a man—all you need is a little practice—the words come instinctively.

During these windy days, a slight covering of sugar on the shoes will attract—er—that is, it will be becoming to modesty.

Ode (Owed) to a Debt

That you, bill, can never be paid

Is a fact which I oft regret,

For you must wait till my fortunes made

I sure feel sorry for you—debt.

'Tis once a month that you come to me

With a passionate plea, I know—

But you'll run on anon, till gold is free

And I push lilies up through the snow.

And debt, though you may strive long and hard

To sever a part of my poke

You'll get your reward—when I'm under the sword,

For I am—and always will be—dead broke.

A Present Day Goblin Story.

Old Initiation's come to our house to stay—

To take the joy out of our life

An' chase our peace away.

Old brooms an' mats our smiles efface—

We're dragged out any time—

We press old clothes—we shine old shoes.

We bow around an' talk in rhyme.

An' when we eat our supper

We eat in crazy ways.

Dry bread crumbs—crackers—our dessert.

For grumbling one sure pays

No man you'll talk to if you know what you're about

Cause an upper classmen'll catch you—if you don't watch out.

Initiation week on the campus has at least done some good. Maybe they pinned in some embryo poets.

We think the Vigilance Committee is certainly on the job—who wouldn't?

But we have not decided in our own minds just exactly which branch of service they are attempting to imitate.

From the speed, accuracy and efficiency of this organization we would judge they were striving to run competition to aerial service.

We agree they are almost on a par with this branch on their rapidity of ascent to higher regions, but in a more worldly sense of view they may be likened to an old maid's gossip party.

One of the group sights a brave laddie who has the nerve to mount the steps to the balcony of the gym and exchange words with a fair damsel.

Immediately this scout with the far-seeing eyes signals the rest of his co-workers and all heads are gathered together for a final exchange of gossip.

Suddenly the party breaks and with pattering steps, paddles in hand the members start on their deadly mission with conquering glances to the audience.

Surely we do not intend to crab about the — of the vigilance committee. Without doubt it is the most efficient and deadly organization on the campus for taking proper and quick action, but we do wish they would gossip somewhat longer before taking action—they might arrive at more—er—tactful reconnaissance parties.

PLANT PATHOLOGIST ARRIVES

Mr. Chas. W. Hungerford Will Investigate Control of Idaho Plant Diseases.

Mr. Charles W. Hungerford has just arrived to take up his work as plant pathologist of the Idaho Experiment Station. He has been engaged for several years in field investigations in pathology for the office of Cereal Investigation of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Mr. Hungerford is a man of considerable experience and excellent training, having taken graduate work at the University of Wisconsin.

After a preliminary survey of the plant disease situation of the state, Mr. Hungerford will be engaged in investigation of the control of those plant diseases of economic importance to the agriculture of Idaho.

LUMBERMEN PLAN DANCE

Stage Annual "Hoe-Down" March 1st—Good Clothes Are Forbidden—Prize For Worst-Dressed Couple.

"White collars barred, and high-tops and flannel shirts preferred," is the advice of Edwin Rettig, general chairman, regarding the annual Timber Beasts' Hoe Down, to be given Saturday, March 1st.

Tickets will be sold to no one who does not meet the minimum dress requirements for the traditional "rough-neck" ball. A prize is to be awarded to the couple attired in the most uncouth, timberbeastlike costume.

The following committees are now working on the dance:

General chairman, Rettig; decorations, Cossitt, Chamberlain; refreshments, Torsen; program, Patrie, Lemon; music, Brown, Edwards; chaperones, Rettig.

SEND INVITATIONS FOR BASKET TOURNEY

Many Teams Expected for High School Hoop-Fest on March 13-14.

The athletic department is now directing its efforts toward the Second Annual High School Basket Ball tournament which is to be held here March 13th and 14th. Letters of invitation have been sent to the various schools of the state.

A committee consisting of students has been appointed to help in making arrangements for the week of entertainment for the high school students that will be here. This committee will work with Coach Bleamaster. It will handle the advertising of the games, and the entertainment of the competing teams. Just what method will be used in distributing the teams among the fraternity house of the campus is not known. Coach Bleamaster has as yet not voiced his opinion but it is probable that the teams will be drawn by lot.

About twelve or fifteen teams are expected to be in competition for the cup. Those that have been heard from in the southern part of the state are Blackfoot, Sugar City, Boise, Weiser, and American Falls. In the northern schools, Nez Perce, Lewiston, Moscow and Coeur d'Alene seem to be holding a good standing.

Three teams from south Idaho will be selected for entry into the state meet, with a payment of part of the travelling expenses. The winning outfit in the southeastern section, near Blackfoot, will receive $150 in expense money. The south central victor will be advanced $125, and the representative from the Boise district will receive $100. All north Idaho entries will pay their own travelling expenses, but will be provided with room and board while in Moscow.

Cup for Best-lookers. In addition to the prize to be given to the state champions, a cup will be awarded to the team making the best appearance. Well-proportioned physical development, smoothness of playing, and niftiness of uniform, are among the factors which will enter into the selection of this team. The winner of the meet will not be eligible for the second prize.

Five medals will be given as emblems of honor to the men making the all-state selection. A ticket campaign will be launched next week. The season books will sell for $1.00. The sale of books will continue until every student in the university is provided with one.

FORESTRY CLUB HOLDS INTERESTING MEETING

The Forestry Club was addressed last Monday evening by Professor F. W. Gail, of the Department of Botany. His subject was "The Relation of Ecology to Forestry," and he illustrated his lecture by a large number of excellent slides.

Paul H. Gerard, a former student of Forestry, also addressed the club briefly. Mr. Gerard has been in the spruce production division of the U.S. army, stationed in Washington and Oregon and has acquired a wide acquaintance with the forests of the Pacific coast. His brief talk was both interesting and instructive.

MEN'S GLEE CLUB PLANS TOUR

New President and Manager Prepare For Active Work Under Direction of Prof. Bangs.

The Glee Club has elected for this season two officers whom they hope to use as an executive force under the leadership of Professor Bangs. A trip of four or five appearances is under consideration. Titus Leclair was chosen president of the organization and Ralph Davis manager. At present there are fourteen members in the club, making the possibilities of a tour seem much more plausible. Manager Davis is now attempting to arrange a trip through the northern part of the state. Before going on this trip the club will probably stage a concert before the student body.

Professor Bangs has but a few of the choice male voices of the school in the club, but feels that the work that they are to undertake will be worth while.

Professor Bangs says: "We should not neglect to share with 'jazz' while it lives and we are going to have some of that too. It is what we want when we get too blue to find our own smiles."

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB MEETS

Plans Launched for Annual Co-Ed Prom to Be Held Friday, February 28.

The regular meeting of the Home Economics Club was held in the Home Economics rooms February 13 at seven o'clock.

Cora Mae Jones gave a very interesting discussion of the purpose of the Upsilon Omicron, the Home Economics honorary fraternity and urged home economics students not to fall below the high standard set by former graduates of the department.

The club will hold its regular meetings on the first Wednesday of each month at seven p. m., for the remainder of the year.

The Co-ed Prom, so popular in the past, will be given by the Home Economics club February 28 in the gymnasium.

Committees in charge of the Prom are: Esther E. Thomas, general chairman; Pearl Morgan, advertisement; Pearl Snyder, Helga Anderson, Esther E. Thomas, finance; Cora Mae Jones, Patroness; Frances Wiley, Cora Salter, Gladys Clarke, stunts; Effie Swanson, Sarah Nettleton, Sylvia Pechance, eats; Ruth Scott, Ruth York, programs; Manilla Reed, Gertrude Sabin, music.

Let Us Not Forget HIM

Our First American!

If we, as a nation, live up to the high ideals established for us by George Washington, we need never blush for our country's standing in the world.

His was the "Common Sense lifted to the level of genius."

At the close of the Revolution, he faced what many of the peoples of Europe are facing today—chaos. Out of it he evolved, by the gift of leadership and devotion to his ideals, a democracy which is today serving as a model for the world.

HE DID THIS, not by scintillating brilliance of intellect, not by the iron hand of militarism, but by the CONFIDENCE he inspired in his men. They knew that no matter what happened, no matter what the odds, he would never do anything mean, low or dishonorable.

That's certainly something worth striving for—the confidence of one's fellow beings.

UNDEFEATED VANDALS LEAD CONFERENCE

Idaho Basket Men Still on Top—Oregon Most Dangerous Contender—Crucial Game Tomorrow

* Northwest Conference Standings *
	Won	Lost	Pct.
* Idaho	7	0	1.000
* W. S. C.	7	4	.636
* Oregon	5	3	.625
* Whitman	2	5	.285
* O. A. C.	3	8	.273
* Wash.	2	6	.250

With an unbroken string of seven victories to her credit, Idaho continues to be the best bet in the Northwest Conference. The three victories during the past week gives the Vandals a two-game lead over W. S. C. the runner-up, and it will take four beatings to even the count.

Upsets in dope were experienced in both the west side and east side games last week. Whitman, after losing a 34 to 33 heart-beater Wednesday night at Pullman, came back with a punch Thursday and evened the series in an overtime game, 44-40.

Reardon Boosts O. A. C. O. A. C. with the return of "Butts" Reardon, surprised the University of Washington, but dropped a couple to Oregon at Corvallis this week.

Crucial Games This Week. There victories give Oregon the edge on the coast, but her championship aspirations are apt to be rudely jolted this week when she meets W. S. C. twice at Pullman and the Vandals Friday night at Moscow. The Web-footers have only one contest with Idaho, giving the followers of the game a single chance to see the coast's best in action.

If Oregon beats W. S. C. in both games, she will go into second place and the game here Friday will be a battle between the conference leaders. Under these conditions, a victory for the Vandals means the best in the west and all that goes with it.

A. K. E. AND BETAS TIED

Betas Defeat Sigma Nus By Large Score—Zeta Chi's and Phi Deltas Also Victorious.

The progress of the two leading teams in the intramural basket ball meet continues unchecked. Beta Theta Pi and Alpha Kappa Epsilon still lead the column, but a break will occur next Wednesday when the two outfits meet in what may be the championship struggle.

The Betas has little trouble with the Sigma Nus, defeating them by a 27 to 9 score. The Zeta Chi shooters found less opposition in their game with the S. P. A. aggregation, the final count being 29-7. The Phi Deltas continued to register in the win column when they downed the Barb team 25-17. This was by far the most interesting contest of the week, the non-fraternity men fighting throughout, while the Phi Deltas, with Whitcomb out of the lineup, had difficulty with their team work.

FIRST MEETING ENGLISH CLUB

Mr. R. D. Jameson Talks on Younger Poets at First Social Gathering of Year.

The first social meeting of the English club held Feb. 12 was very well attended. The main feature of the evening was a very interesting discussion of some of the younger poets and their work by Mr. R. D. Jameson. At the close of the evening refreshments were served by members of the senior class who belong to the club.

The English Club meetings are held once a month on Wednesday evenings. An informal program is provided, after which there is a social hour.

The English Club promotes all student activities connected with the English department. English majors are members ex-officio. Other students may gain entrance by making a cast for a play, a debating team, or the Argonaut or annual staff. Stage and property management in connection with any English Club production is another lane to membership.

FACULTY WOMEN ENTERTAIN

Welcome University Girls at Valentine Tea Friday, Feb. 14th.

One of the most enjoyable of University social events this year was the Faculty Womens' Tea Friday afternoon, February 14 to welcome the girls of the University. Members of the Faculty Womens' Club greeted the University girls and served tea from four until six o'clock.

Women Well Received. In accordance with the spirit of the day the decorations were hearts and more hearts in addition to banks of cut flowers and ferns. The gracious hospitality of the Faculty Womens' Club, as well as the delicious cakes and tea its members served, provided a happy hour and new friends for all who attended.

EX-FORESTER BOMBED WITH U. S. AIR FORCES

Lieutenant William Schofield, '16, Forestry, Saw Action Against Germans—Returns to States.

Lieut. William Schofield, '16, Forestry, has returned to the United States after a year of active service with the American aviation forces in France.

The following article concerning his experiences appears in The "Chinook" (Montana) Opinion, his home paper:

"Lieut. Schofield went to the first officers training camp at Presidio in 1917 and was transferred to the aviation branch. After completing the work in the ground school at Berkeley, he was sent across to France and received his training in flying at the big air schools the Americans established. A number of French and American flyers of experience trained them. It was while at the training camp that Schofield made the acquaintance of Quentin Roosevelt, who was also in training there. Schofield finished the chace course, or course in the use of the single seated fighting machines, but was assigned to the bombing work when he was sent out to the front.

"For five weeks he was in active service on the Verdun sector, engaged in day bombing work as pilot. In large two seater bombing machines they made trips across the lines to bomb troop movements or supply trains. The patrols would report any troop formations or supply trains and a group of bombers would go out to shoot them up and to break up the movement and to weaken the morale of the troops. A group of fighters would go over them to protect them. Flying at 15,000 feet Schofield said that the anti-aircraft guns did not bother them much, but on one trip out the boche fighting planes got thru their guarding planes and attacked them and they had to beat it for their camp as the bombers could not successfully fight the fast fighting planes. They carried 20-pound bombs on these day trips.

"The armistice, however, stopped the lieutenant from going on one of the big trips of the war. He was sent with a number of pilots and observers to England to get a number of the big Handley-Page night bombing machines for the American air service. These are immense planes that carry a crew of 20 men, 16 machine guns, a small cannon and 30,000 lbs. of bombs. They were to fly the big machines back to France and then were to go on a trip to Berlin. If the Germans had not signed the armistice the American air service had a Berlin raid all planned. On Nov. 15th they would have taken the machines back to France and then starting from the St. Mihiel front, three American squadrons were to leave at night for Berlin, bomb that city and return by the next morning. The armistice stopped that plan and Lieut. Schofield, instead of returning to his camp in France was sent home.

"While flying on the Verdun front, Schofield knew Eddie Rickenbacher, the American ace, who went over as Pershing's chaffeur and became a leading American fighter.

"Schofield had only one accident to himself in his career. He got into one smash up while training that resulted in a couple of weeks in the hospital. He says that he smashed three machines in his career while training. If the war had continued he was to have been in the night bombing work, which is used in bombing depots, important buildings, hangars and enemy towns.

"In the bombing work Schofield was a pilot, that is drove the plane. His observer, worked the bombs and kept track of the hits. The bombs are hung on the under side of the wings and are released by a mechanical device. In case of the Handley-Page machines an elaborate frame carries the big bombs.

"The fliers coming home are being offered places in the air postal service, and he could have had a place. The pay, however, he did not consider attractive enough for such strenuous service."

FIVE DOLLAR RATE BILL INTERESTS STUDENTS

Of interest to university and high school students all over the state is the bill now before the legislature providing for a $5 blanket rate for railroad passage to and from the various state institutions. The measure is fostered by the federation of women's clubs of Idaho. It provides that the state shall pay the difference between five dollars and the student's fare from his home to a state school and back. Such a bill has been adopted in Montana and last year cost the state less than $7,000.

GRADS ATTEND CONFERENCE

Meeting of Extension Workers Calls Members from Various Parts of State.

Many Idaho graduates are attending the extension workers' conference, which is being held in Moscow this week.

The work of these people lies entirely in the field of agriculture and home economics, but each one is employed in a different capacity. Some are county agents, others farm superintendents.

In the home economics department the work of the members of the extension department is along the line of demonstration and experimental research. These workers, who are stationed in all parts of the state, are nevertheless considered as members of the University faculty. Following are graduates who are at the University attend the conference: Lee W. Fluharty, '10, director of the state extension department; Herbert Beier, '15 and his wife, Dorothy Addie Beier, '18; Robert Leth, '15; Frank Lafrenz, '15; Carl Eklof, '16; Roy Groniger, '17; Charlotte Lewis, '17; Dorothy Taylor, '15; Weidel Kjosness, '13; Ray Cammack, '15, and Paul Wenger, ex-'16.

McAllister Back.

Among the visitors attending the conference is Mr. C. M. McAllister, field agent of the Union Stock Yards of North Portland, Oregon, who is well known to many members of the Agricultural College force, since he has attended the various farmers' week programs held at the University in past years.
