Denecke, Hunter and Almquist Play in Northwest Tennis Tourney this Afternoon.

Idaho is represented in the Northwest Conference Tennis Tournament at Pullman today by the team of Bill Denecke, and Ken Hunter in the doubles and Art Almquist in the singles. The doubles team won its way to the tournament by defeating all the other teams entered in the school matches and Almquist has made a strong showing the entire season in singles. All the men play smashing heady games that win matches and Idaho tennis fans are looking forward to wins today.

ARE THE STUDENTS SATISFIED The most unfortunate point about the crude vituperation which appeared the first part of this week, excepting that it came out at all, is live? that it was published under the name of the University Argonaut, the student organ of opinion. Both the Law School and the A. S. U. I. have expressed condemnation of the sentiment of Tuesday's issue, and the Argonaut, as an institution, is with them staff is responsible for that insult to the student body insofar as it permitted the certain individuals to take charge of an issue of this paper.

The Bench and Bar Association shows a manly spirit in its attempt to shield the few individuals who published the Law Argonaut. However, altho the entire university is fairly sure of the identity of one or two of the responsible men, there is some doubt about one or two more, and it is furthermore doubtful if the men who did not have the courage to print be waving a little red flag and have their names as editors of the Law Argonaut, and who are willing to accept the protection of the Bench and Bar Association, deserve to be handled with gloves.

thru whose organ the undesirable material was issued. The association refused to publish the resolution in the Argonaut.

In the second place, the students know that the entire law school was not, in reality responsible for the sheet, and they are speculating as to the authorship. Innocent individuals are thus brought under suspicion.

The Argonaut has fairly accurate information as to the authorship of each of the articles appearing in the that nothing was accomplished. Tuesday issue and we believe that it should be made public. However, we infernal order of "Pool Hounds" was believe that the writers of the articles which have been criticised are real men and that they will see that they are not accepting a protection which they do not deserve, and which has played pool in town for the last brings blame on other students who five years. are innocent. If they believe what they wrote they should not be afraid to assert their authorship; if they do not, they should acknowledge their error in publishing it as student opin-

We do not believe that the issue will be satisfactorily healed until the Bench and Bar Association recognizes that the reputation of the student body was affected, as well as that of the faculty and administration, and acts accordingly; and until the men who are really responsible come out from under the covering which has been offered them and make a statement which will clear innocent individuals of blame.

THE CAMPUS ROOMER

"SUE US! WE AINT GOT NOTHING."

Was the motto of the putrid sheet recently forced on the unassuming public by "Three members" of the Foot Rest and Bar association. Every inch of the filthy edition except the lines from the Rubaiyat and the picture of the editor of the yellow sheet shows that they "SURE AIN'T GOT NOTHING,"neither brains, tact, or any kind of judgment. "THE LAW SCHOOL COMES BACK

AND LEAVES AGAIN!" these would have been very fitting words for the front page. It is certainly a good thing that they realize their situation because in the minds of every man and woman (not the Law school but the perpetrators) are so low on this campus that they won't be half way back if they would struggle from now until Doomsday.

The Slimy Trio is a very appropriate name for the wonders that can sit up all night and can scribble off the bunk that they presented to the public, but not one of these have ever had two lessons in succession. If they would have had any idea of law they would have known that many of their foul remarks were nothing but plain libel. They could be stuck in the pen for life; but why let 'em

"LAW HONOR SYSTEM"-Bunk! Their honor system is a correct reason why none of the Slimy Trio flunk. Figure it out for yourself. It is actually ludicrus to hear or read the remarks of their "night shirt advertisement," one of those guys that goes around with his head at "parade whole-hearted altho the regular rest" on his chest and is continually juggling somebody else's cigarettes.

It is certainly too bad that the whole law school has to suffer humiliation for the wrongs of several of their members. It is hoped that the readers of the sheet will not blame the whole bunch, and it is also sincerely hoped that none of the copies ever got outside of this institution.

One of the members of the Slimy Trio recently made a speech on What can we do for our Alma Mater? This same member has sure done a lot for her all right, and if he kept on doing as much we would soon all him for our teacher. It would be a case of big I and little You.

Why Go to "Idaho"

The choice of a university or college to be attended should be based upon four principal requirements: 1st, a high purpose and broad field of work; 2d, a competent faculty; 3d, a sufficient equipment; 4th, a student body of high ideals. The University of Idaho fully satisfies these require-

1. Purpose and Field—

Its purpose is to serve the people of Idaho in developing and training students; in advancing the entire State educational system of which it is a part; in assisting toward the solution of economic and social problems; in furnishing expert knowledge in Agriculture, Engineering, Forestry, Mining, Home Economics, Law, and Educational matters not only to students in residence but also to all who desire it throughout the State.

2. Faculty-

The faculty is made up of eighty-three teachers of thorough training and efficiency attained by years of study and experience. They are deeply interested in the progress of each and all under their instruction. They know the State and its conditions and give their best efforts to its development. In addition there are more than seventy workers in the agricultural extension division and fifteen agricultural county agents.

3. Equipment—

Its equipment is ample. It has a library of over 40,000 volumes, excelent facilities for teaching literature, philosophy, and the social sciences, and well provided laboratories for the natural and applied sciences and for the technologies.

Students-

Its students are earnest, wide-awake, and democratic. A large number of them earn their own way. Its alumni now occupy high positions and will be the future leaders of Idaho in professions, the industrial vocations, and in the building and maintenance of homes.

The six colleges, the central agricultural experiment station and the sub-station of the U.S. Bureau of Mines are located at Moscow; the main agricultural extension office is Boise, and the agricultural sub-stations and demonstration farms at Caldwell, Sandpoint, Moscow, Aberdeen and

All Out for the Athletic. scholastic track meet.

The athletic ball to be held at the "Gym" Saturday night is to be the biggest informal dance of the year, according to the committee in charge. The hall is being decorated in strictly athletic style, which means pennants, 'I" blankets, pillows and a bunch of husky "I" men. These last named will see that everything is there to make it the best dance of the year.

Hitherto the athletic ball has been a formal affair, necessitating an admission price of $1.50. This year, however, the dance is to be informal and the usual price will be charged. According to the committee in charge it will be the biggest dollar's worth of enjoyment ever to be had in the history of this school.

The big features of the evening will be the music, imported from Lewiston. The programs are entirely original and promise to be the most elaborate and clever creations ever designed. They will indeed be a fitting souvenir to hand to your future family in remembrance of their papa's college days.

"Modern" Drama Admirably Presented to University Students.

"The Glittering Gate" and "Helena's Husband," the English Club plays, were presented Monday, May 20 in the university auditorium before an appreciative audience.

The characters in "The Glittering Gate," two dead burglars, were successfully portrayed by Michael Thometz and Garde Wood. The play itself which deals with the hereafter, presented a new type of drama to a university audience.

"Helena's Husband" was a lighter play, dealing with elopement of Helena of Troy. It was well cast and presented to the public some new Florence Allebaugh, who played "Helena," carried the part with superb grace. Philip Buck, as King Menelous, furnished most of the humor of the play, and Oscar Weaver successfully enacted the role of Paris. The character parts of Anilyticus, the librarian, and Isumu, the slave girl, were well interpreted by Jack Jimerson and Clara Kitto.

Engineers Spend Profitable Week in Visiting Spokane Plants.

The Engineers of the University visited various places of interest in Spokane last week, including the Little Falls Power plant, the Long Lake power plant, the Sperry Flour Mill, the paper mill, the cement factory and the municipal water works. While for neither the football or baseball in Spokane they attended the meeting of the Associated Enginers.

The Little Falls plant is equipped with the latest types of switchboards and remote control systems. The Long Lake plant consists of a concrete dam 172 feet high with two complete generator units. This is the highest overflow dam in the world. The Sperry Flour Mill has the latest improvements in milling machinery with special emphasis on cleanliness.

The paper mill, which has an output of about 75 tons of news paper and 25 tons of bond paper, was inspected with interest. The cement his son, Walter Smith, who is a mem- mill has an output of 1000 barrels per

Dean Thompson Helps Work Out Details Of Fire Protection

Deaen F. A. Thomson of the School of Mines returned Wednesday night from a business trip of several days in Spokane and the Coeur d'Alenes. Timber Protection.

At Spokane he attended a conference with the representatives of the Potlatch and Clearwater Timber Protective association to discuss details of the cooperation between these associations, the U.S. geological survey and the state bureau of mines and geology, in the primary triangulation which is to be made this summer on the area lying between the Avery Lolo quadrangle and the Pullman quadrangle which is just beyond the Washington state boundary into Idaho.

This primary triangulation in addition to affording a basis for topographic work, will furnish valuable information for the fire patrol in this the most extensive white pine belt in the world.

Leaving Spokane, Mr. Thomson proceeded to Wallace in company with Ben W. Johnson, the agent for the seven western states of the federal board for vocation education.

Mr. Johnson's trip is for the purpose of inspecting the work of the mines trade school which has recently been moved from Mullan to Burke, being carried on at present in the
