TOURNEY PLANS NOW COMPLETED

WILL BE BEST TOURNAMENT IN THE HISTORY OF EVENT, SAYS BLEAMASTER

ANNOUNCES PROGRAM

Different Houses on Campus Will Entertain Teams During Their Stay in Moscow

Plans for the State Basketball tourney, to be held at the University March 18 and 19, are now completed, according to an announcement issued by the dignitaries in charge of the affair.

"I look for the best tournament in the history of the event," said W. C. Bleamaster yesterday. "There is no doubt that the brand of interscholastic basketball played this year will be better than that usually shown in such contests. In general there is a tendency toward playing a much faster and cleaner game. The teams this year are truly representative, having won the championships of their respective districts in duly authorized tournaments. Every team will be strong, and every game should be a hair-raiser."

Mr. Bleamaster has kept closely in touch with the high school basketball situation in the state this year.

Handsome Trophies Awarded

The winner of the tournament will receive a handsome silver shield set on a mahogany back, on which will be engraved the names of the members of the team and the date. This is being donated by Gainford Mix. The prize for the runners up, donated by the Star-Mirror, is a handsome loving cup. The team showing the best sportsmanship and presenting the best appearance on the floor will receive another cup, donated by the A. S. U. I.

The Program

In general the program will be as follows:

Thursday, 2:30 P. M., Elimination contests.

Thursday, 7:30 P. M., Semi finals.

Friday, 10:30 A. M., Tour of the campus.

Friday, 2:30 P. M., Exhibition game, Varsity vs. Frosh and exhibition by the department of Physical Education.

Friday, 7:30 P. M., Championship game.

After the game there will be a general get-together and "smokeless smoker," in charge of the "I" club, during which the trophies will be presented.

The Officials

The judges selected to pick the All-State team and the winners of the trophies are: Professor Livingston, Professor Lewis, Dean Angell, Captain "Prex" Lindley, "Squinty" Hunter and A. J. Priest.

DOPE EXPERTS UNABLE TO FORTELL WINNERS

EVERY TEAM COMING TO THE TOURNAMENT WILL BE STRONG—STYLES DIFFER

STUDENTS MUST BUY TICKETS

Some Small Matters of Finance Must Yet be Cleared—Entertainment Good.

"A study of the dope available on the teams scheduled to take part in the state basketball tourney," says a campus dope expert, "only shows how futile it is to even try to guess as to who will be the probable winner of the conference."

"One of the biggest obstacles in the way of pointing out the team that may possibly grab the shield is the differing types of ball played by the teams in the various parts of the state. What would be a winning team in one section where a certain style of ball was used, might show up poorly when playing against a quintette passing the ball in a strange manner."

Aberdeen and Driggs Puzzle.

Two of the hardest knots in the dops tangle seem to be Aberdeen and Driggs, from the southeastern part of the state. They play a very fast type of ball in that section, but rarely mix with teams out of their own section. Even when the comparative scores are considered one does not know more about them than he did at first.

Twin Falls Knocks Gooding.

Twin Falls and Gooding scrapped over the leathern sphere for some time, Twin Falls at last coming out as the winner of the tournament in that section. It is known that the Gooding team is strong. The Twin aggregation, therefore, is expected to show up strong.

Bohler's Boise Boys Fast.

Boise, always possessing a good team, is holding up her record in fine shape this year. She has a number of the men from her strong team of last year on this season's squad. Bohler, a former all-northwestern collegiate star is the Boise coach.

Culdesac is Strong.

Culdesac comes up from the central part of the state with a strong crew of ringers. She defeated Lewiston high by a larger score than Moscow. Although defeated once by Nez Perce, it is explained that the victory was due to a fluke, and that Culdesac outplayed the others.

Coeur d'Alene and Wallace.

Both Coeur d'Alene and Wallace come from the northern part of the state with high hopes and fast teams. The teams are practically tied as far as dope goes, with a possible inclination in favor of Coeur d'Alene.

"Every team coming is fast. Every game will be good. The only way to find out who will carry off the shield will be to attend the conference in person," concluded our dopster.

Buy Tickets Now.

"The students should realize the necessity for continuing to buy season tickets to the tournament," he continued. "Those in charge are counting on the financial support of the students to clear up some matters yet remaining unattended to. Tickets are on sale at every house on the campus and in the halls of the ad building."

SHYMMISTS TAXED TO FINANCE ATHLETICS

A 25 Cent Tax on Dancers and $1 A Head For A. S. U. I. Planned To Finance Athletics

At a meeting of representatives from every group on the campus, held in room 307 of the administration building last Friday, plans of action were resolved upon to obtain funds to finance spring athletics.

Two means of obtaining revenue were proposed. The first, to tax 25 cents a couple. The second, to all attendants at all-college dances bring before the A. S. U. I. a resolution authorizing the assessment of a one dollar tax on each member of the A. S. U. I.

"By these means we could realize approximately $980," announced "Bunt" Breshears, who is leading the movement. "If we can garner in this amount, the athletic advisory board gives us assurance that we will certainly have spring athletics, including baseball."

"Baseball will cost about $1730," he continued, and the amount remaining of the budget is barely half that amount. In deciding on the plans of action that we did, we felt assured that every student would be behind the movements. A committee to draw up the resolution to present to the A. S. U. I. will be appointed early in the week."

The Laywers, at their "Bench and Bar" informal initiated the dancing tax movement.

HUNTER IS ELECTED VANDAL'S NEW CAPTAIN

Hunter Started on Second Term at Annual "I Wetting"—Outlook is Bright

"Squinty" Hunter will lead the Vandals next season, according to the outcome of a vote taken at the annual basketball "I Wetting," held in "The Fern" last Wednesday evening.

It will be remembered that it was Hunter who guided the Idaho quintette thru their successful 1918-19 season. The ringers who will play on next year's squad are confident that in the future "Squinty" will lead as efficiently as he has done in the past.

Award "I's."

Those receiving "I's" and consequently contributing to the evenings' refreshments, were Fox, Perrine and Cozier.

Lindley, the passing captain, and Hunter, the new, also "bought."

Outlook is Bright.

According to present indications, all of the 1920 squad but Lindley will be back on the floor next year. These strengthened by some of the fast men in this year's Frosh team, make the basketball outlook for next year far from gloomy.

TRIPLE DEBATE IS SCHEDULED APRIL 16

Idaho, Montana, and Utah Will Harangue On Same Question Early In April

With A. J. Priest and Charles Darling upholding the negative against the University of Utah at Salt Lake, and with Wm. Briscoe and Wm. Carpenter supporting the affirmative against the University of Montana at Moscow, the subject, "Resolved, that the federal government should adopt legislation to provide for the compulsory arbitration of labor disputes, constitutionality conceded," will be debated April 16th.

"This debate should be interesting inasmuch as it brings together three natural rivals," says Professor Chenoweth, who is in charge of the debating team "and in addition it deals with a subject of immediate interest."

"Since Utah suggested this question," says A. J. Priest, "her debaters will undoubtedly be primed for it. We expect to encounter strong opposition."

HIGH SCHOOL GRADS TO BOOST HOME TEAM

Organized Rooting Will Add Pep to Tourney Games—Teams Here Today

The alumni of the various high schools sending teams to the tournament are asked to organize rooting squads and relearn the old high school yells, the scheme being to insure an organized bunch of rooters on the sidelines for every team.

"There is a possibility that there are no students in the University from Driggs," said Blea today. "If that is true, it will be up to some unattached students to recruit a squad of volunteers to root for them. We do not want to see any team play with the rooting all on one side."

If there are not sufficient persons from any one of the schools to make an efficient bunch of rooters, students from neighboring territory who are not represented by high schools may be drafted.

Teams Here Today.

Twin Falls, Boise, Aberdeen and Driggs are expected on the five o'clock train this afternoon, Tuesday. They will be met at the station by representatives of the houses entertaining them and taken to the gym to be registered.

All eight of the teams are expected to be on the campus by Wednesday evening.

EDUCATION DEPT. SHOWS INCREASE

Unable to Supply Demands For Teachers, Says Soule—Salaries Increase

The department of education has a larger enrollment this year than it has had in the history of the University, according to Professor Ph. Soule.

At present there are 149 individual students enrolled. Calls for high school instructors come in daily and must be refused due to the decrease in this department of the two previous years. Friday four calls came from one place, Monday two from one high school and three or four from other schools. The salaries offered are from $135 to $150 for college graduates. The public schools are beginning to respond with an encouraging increase.

At present there are four superintendents in Idaho who receive $3,500; one who receives $3,850 and two recently appointed in smaller schools who receive $3,800.

Professor Soule stated that with the increasing enrollment in education the proportion between the demand and the candidates for positions are more related and the outlook for solving the great demand for teachers is appearing much brighter.

LORADO TAFT SPEAKS TO COLLEGE AUDIENCE

DELIVERS TWO ADDRESSES DURING HIS VISIT UPON HOME TOWN BEAUTIFUL

ADVOCATES COMMUNITY CLUB

Noted Artist Interested in Making Attractive the Small Town Thru Civic Pride

Lorado Taft, famous artist, sculptor, and lecturer, spoke upon two occasions at the University during the past week, the first Tuesday evening at the Y. hut, and then again Wednesday morning in assembly at the auditorium. The lecture given by Mr. Taft Tuesday evening was heard by only a very scant audience. Wednesday's talk, however, upon "Making the home town beautiful," was attended not only by a large student delegation, but by a goodly number of townfolk as well.

Mr. Taft, altho claiming Chicago as his home town, nevertheless is greatly interested in all small "home towns" and in particular the little town of Oregon, Illinois. It is in this little town of only a few thousand inhabitants that Mr. Taft has been for several years carrying out some of his ideas upon making "The home town beautiful." It has been here that he has watched the change transformed this little community from a slow, backward village to a live town of interested, boosting people, practically as a result of a spirit of pride in the old home town.

The Artistic Remembered.

In developing his talk upon making the small town stand for something, Mr. Taft said in part: "We as a people do not look back and think very much about those great hordes of people who swept over the world at various periods of history, and then vanished as they came, leaving us nothing by which we have advanced ourselves. But it is to those little countries of Greece and Palestine, countries smaller than many of your counties that we still look to and admire. It is to them that we are grateful; they left us something which has advanced civilization; they loved the beautiful.

The Ideal Home Town.

"In the case of our own American towns, it is not the money but the life a community provides by which we judge its wealth. When a man decides to make himself a home, he does not go to the large town which has become famous for some particular product not conducive to the best in men, but he turns to the small town which offers the most pleasing surroundings for a home. In Oregon, Illinois, the artists of Chicago have established an artists summer camp, where every year we artists go to have a quiet vacation. It was here that the spirit of making the home town beautiful first got hold of me. The artists there made a large statue of an Indian, upon the hill side, and which became known by the name of Black Hawk. Gradually the citizens of the place began to take an interest themselves in the little village. In a small way a community house was started there. A small, neat little house was taken, remodeled, and fixed up so that everyone could use it. Picnics, family reunions, young folks' dances, and large parties were held

U. TEACHERS TO GET RAISE

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE UNANIMOUS IN ENDORSEMENT OF PLANS FOR INCREASE

ADVISE MORE EQUIPMENT

Committee Approves Plan of Local Men to Build Dormitory and Apartment House.

Salary increases averaging about 10 per cent to become effective April 1, were granted members of the University faculty at a meeting of the University executive board held last week.

"All the members of the committee were unanimous in expressing the belief that steps must be taken to present the needs for more adequate compensation for members of the University's instructional and operating staffs to the forthcoming legislature," announced President Ernest H. Lindley today. "I am sure that the people of the state wish our salary scale raised until it is at least commensurate with those of other institutions in the west."

Improvements Considered.

The committee considered a number of proposals for buildings and other improvements on the University projects. In view of the University's 70 per cent increase in enrollment and the consequent need for enlarged study, classroom and laboratory facilities, it is believed that these projects will be acted upon at an early meeting of the board of regents.

Unanimous approval was given plans which have been made by Moscow business men to build a large boys' dormitory and a modern apartment house before the opening of the fall semester. The projected apartment house will be available both for members of the faculty and for families coming to Moscow to avail themselves of University advantages.

GO-EDS TAKE STEPS TO GOVERN SELVES

Nominations Are Made For Governing Council—Miss French Approves.

The Women's League have begun active work to establish Self-Government among the girls at Idaho. At a meeting Wednesday nominations were made for the governing council.

This council will be composed of one Freshman, one Sophomore, two Juniors, two Seniors and the President of the Women's League. The council when organized will have power to make all rules governing the girls of the University and will present them for acceptance to the Women's League. The nominations by classes are as follows: Seniors—Mary McKenna, Eula Badger, Manilla Reed and Margaret Byrns; Juniors—La Vern Borrell, Leta Sabin and Cora Salter; Sophomores—Pauline Rieke, Verna Wilkinson and Maple Sweeney; Freshmen—Grace Vogelson, Mary Shurtz and Faith Newton.

At a previous meeting the league adopted the Honor System as a part of the Self Government. Later the committee, appointed to draw up the constitution, decided the Honor System must be taken up through the A. S. U. I. and not by the girls alone.

Dean French is very anxious to secure Self Government at Idaho and will vest a great part of her authority in the girls and their council.

Miss French entertained at dinner Thursday evening in honor of Miss Ida Tarbell. President Lindley, Professor and Mrs. Lewis, Dean and Mrs. Cockerill, Professor and Mrs. Trimble and Dean and Mrs. Thomson were dinner guests of Miss French. After dinner the girls of the dormitory informally met Miss Tarbell. They found Miss Tarbell very delightful and charming, and she talked to them at length upon the splendid characters of the French women in gaining recognition at the peace conference.

WOW! ANOTHER DOLLAR.

The American dollar is aptly characterized as "furtive," and its characterization is daily becoming more apt. If some one doubts, let him but remember that there has lately been a plan recommended whereby one more shekel may be induced to spring from his wallet.

The means adopted to secure the wherewithal to carry through the spring athletics is a worthy plan working for a worthy cause. Idaho has never yet failed to have the spring activities under discussion. The lack of a few mere dollars should not prohibit it this year.

The shortage in the athletic budget is not due to the extravagance or mismanagement of any one. It has come about naturally, due to the universal high prices working against the constant registration fee. If the fee were to be raised in proportion to the increase in the expenses of carrying on athletics during the last several years, it would cost us close to a month's board to get a chance to go to college.

The plan of assessing each member of the student body one dollar is both fair and practical. These days a dollar has about the same value that a quarter had five years ago. One can't even throw a decent date with one silver wheel these times. Therefore the donation of one dollar by each of us will hurt no one, and will help the school a lot.

VOTE for the resolution, then COME THROUGH with the dollar.

WHERE DO YOU COME FROM?

Are you an alumnus of Couer d'Alene, Wallace, Culedeasac, Boise, Twin Falls, Aberdeen or Diggs High School? If you are, you can contribute in a very great measure to the success of the coming state tourney. Have a hand of welcome and a jocund word ever ready for any member of your old high school team that you may meet. Whether you know him personally or not, he will appreciate the fact that you still remember your old school.

Follow out the athletic department's suggestion and organize all the alumni of your high school into a rooting squad. Your school will have that much better chances of taking the tournament if they hear the old high school yells on the side lines. You know yourself how much rooting helps.

Pull down that old high school pennant from the wall and take it over to the gym to be used in decorating the lobby. Your team will appreciate seeing it's own pennant there.

Most of all, in every way possible let your team know that you are back of it. It will need your boost.

AN ABLE WORKER

Overcoming many obstacles, among which were personal ridicule, discouraging adverse criticism, financial difficulties, and an uphill pull against an undesirable reputation which the organization bore before his made for itself, Edwin Orlo Bangs has this year produced a men's glee club of which the school is proud, and which surely is a compliment to the ability and industry of its director.

Ever tireless in his struggle to better the school musically, he has brought us Murphy, Braslau, and Grainger, yet to come; he has instigated and incubated the organization of the Music Club; he has produced two excellent glee clubs; and now he is launching the production of an opera.

To say it in less words, the school is better because Mr. Bangs has been with it. His work is appreciated. The A. S. U. I. takes this formal way of informing him through it's official publication, of it's appreciation.

GLEE SLUB CONCERT FRIDAY SUCCESSFUL

AN APPRECIATIVE UNIVERSITY AUDIENCE ATTENDS ANNUAL CONCERT

BEST GLEE CLUB SINCE 1914

Dramatics, Classics, Comedy and Ragtime Included in Popular Program—Credit to Bangs

"The best show of it's kind since '14," was the classification given the Men's Glee Club concert, presented in the auditorium on Friday evening, by a campus critic, who boasted of having heard every concert since that time. The club sang before a large and enthusiastic audience. Calls for encores were repeatedly made, to which the club responded liberally.

A new Idaho song, "Let Us Sing of Idaho," introduced by the club in their first group, was enthusiastically received by the audience, which was made up largely of University students. As an encore to the first group the club sang "The Hen and the Carp" a comedy chorus.

Russell Scott Pleases. Russell Scott, baritone, followed with two solos. Mr. Scott has one of the richest baritones that the University has yet produced. His voice makes up in quality and intonation what it lacks in power. His solos were well chosen to conform with the character of his voice.

Club's "Heavies" Good. "Prince Rupert's Men," a dramatic men's chorus, was appreciatively received by the University audience, as it was by other audiences over the state. It is a complement to the training of the club that it is able to present the heavier compositions as effectively as the lighter ones.

In answer to the urgent calls of the audience after "Prince Rupert's Men," the eight of the club returned to the stage and sang "Khaki Sammy," a parody on the familiar student song, "Johnny Schmoker." It was sung with clever comic pantomime, and proved to be one of the most popular numbers on the program.

Prof. Dickinson Appreciated. Prof. Dickinson played Handel's third Sonata for violin with his usual interpretation. Friday evening was the first time that that composition had been heard on the campus. Numerous statements were heard, made in appreciation of the fact that there was on the campus a musician of the ability of Mr. Dickinson who could so aptly acquaint the university with even a few of the masterpieces from the great mass of violin music.

Quartette Fools Audience. A male quartette, composed of Prof. Bangs, Roscoe Jones, Russell Scott and Titue LeClair, worked the audience up to an emotional climax and then dropped it suddenly into a storm of laughter, when the four singers, who had been intoning sentimental phrases about "My Bess," told the audience in the end of the ditty that Bess had a tail and gave ten quarts of milk a day. As an encore the quartette sang a farcical selection that dealt with a monkey who kissed a baboon's sister so fervently that he raised a blister on the the sister.

"The Laughing Song," by Abt was realistically intoned by the entire club. It was followed by the ever popular "Rosarie."

Kimmel Reads. Rex Kimmel read "The Test," a dramatic story of the northland by Rex Beach. Mr. Kimmel has a voice well adapted to elocution, and he used it very effectively Friday night. As a reader, Mr. Kimmel was one of the big factors in the success of the club on the recent southern trip.

Tecklenberg Brilliant Soloist. Miss Nathalie Tecklenberg did some brilliant coloratura work in her interpretation of "Villanelle," by Del Acqua. Miss Tecklenberg's charming stage presence combines with her exceptional voice to capture every audience she appears before. "Villanelle" was well adapted to her voice.

Group is Interesting. A widely differentiated group followed. The first selection was an innovation—the simple tune of "Annie Laurie" played on the violin by Mr. Dickinson, while the entire club, humming, supplied a sympathetic musical background.

In striking contrast to the naivete of the first number was a group of popular songs sung in the most modern style by a "Jazz" quartette consisting of Ed. Foran, Roscoe Jones Leslie Moe and Titus LeClair.

As the third number of the group Miss Tecklenberg sang the popular "Castles in the Air," accompanied by the club and Miss Wegman. Miss Tecklenberg's clear soprano stood out pleasingly against the darker quality of the men's voices.

The group ended with a medley of popular tunes sung by the club.

With the exception of the last number, this entire group was sung with the club seated and the stage darkened. During the quieter numbers the effect was impressively sympathetic.

Wegman's Accompanying Appreciated.

Miss Wegman played a vivacious Mendelssohn Scherzo in "E" minor. Her interpretation charmed the audience. Aside from her solo work Miss Wegman offered an invaluable contribution to the success of the club during it's entire season in her accompanying, say the members of the organization. At all times sympathetic, and seeking only to supply a fitting background, she at the same time plays with a force and steadiness that many times carried both club and soloists over what would have been serious breaks.

Jones In Clever Skit. Altho omitted from the printed programs through an error, what proved to be one of the most successful numbers of the evening was Jones and Gipson Stalker, in which Jones did some clever impersonating as an unsophisticated country lass.

Two New Idaho Songs. "Swing Along," a chorus in the negro style, and "Sunlit Winds Upon the Mountains," by Haydn, formed the closing group of the program. The latter was the second of the two new Idaho songs offered the school by the club this year. The melody is a sonorous, dignified aria from one of Haydn's oratorios, adapted to words pertaining to "Idaho, our Alma Mater."

Credit Due Bangs. Many persons have expressed the sentiment that much credit is due Prof. Bangs for overcoming the obstacles that he did and producing a club of the quality of this one.

The Club will at once go to work on the opera "Pinafore," which will be presented in the spring.

CAMPUS WILL SEE Y.M.C.A. CANDY STORE

Store in Y. Hut And Booth In Gym During Tourney—Store Permanent.

A store in the Y hut, and a booth in the Gym to sell confections and soft drinks, will be maintained during the tournament by the Y. M. C. A.

There are plans being made to make the store in the Y building a permanent fixture on the campus. The proceeds of the two establishments will go to benefit the Y. M. C. A.

"PERPLEXING HUSBAND" DRAMA LEAGUE PLAY

Another of Popular Productions By Local Talent to be Given in Guild Hall

"The Perplexing Husband," a smart English comedy which served John Drew as a vehicle a few years ago, will be presented by the drama league tonight at Guild Hall. It is a farcical treatment of women suffrage; women predominate in the cast and keep the men in their place. What their place really is will be divulged in the play to those who stay for the last act.

The drama league is grateful to the Moscow citizens and business men who have lent their aid in past performances, and are now coming forward with their help for "The Perplexed Husband." One of the larger clothing houses will furnish costumes for the play, and in every way help the members to give the very best results possible. Extra seats will be provided so that everyone will be comfortably seated, as the Guild hall was not adequate for the crowd which turned out for the last of the Drama League's plays, "The Truth," given two weeks ago.

VOCATIONAL CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS

Standish Now Commands Federal Students—Club Expresses Its Appreciation

D. D. Standish has been elected commander of the Veterans' Vocational Club, the University's organization of students receiving federal training. Other officers chosen for the second semester are: W. C. McEachern, vice commander; Ralph S. Bristol, adjutant; Glenn E. Blackledge, assistant adjutant; Edward H. Briney, sergeant at arms.

F. G. Miller, dean of the school of forestry, was selected as faculty advisor to the club. Constitution and by-laws were adopted.

The Veterans' Vocational Club was recently organized, its membership consisting of veterans who were disabled in the service and are now being rehabilitated by the government.

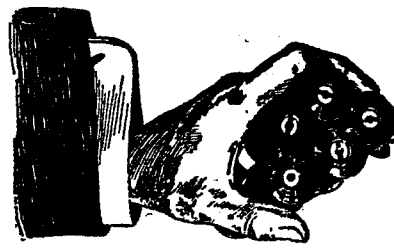

Club rooms have been established through the co-operation of the Red Cross and Moscow Chamber of Commerce, Mrs. E. C. Boom and Mr. Orcutt, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

"It has only been through the kindly assistance of the Red Cross and Chamber of Commerce that our comfortable club rooms have been established," said Commander Standish. "We are deeply indebted to those two organizations and particularly to Mrs. E. C. Boom of the Red Cross, Mr. Orcutt of the Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Huffman of Moscow."

Professor George Morey Miller, head of the English department, who has been ill with influenza for several weeks suffered another setback Saturday, which though not considered serious, will confine him to his home for an indefinite time. With the exception of George Morey, Jr., who is still in bed, the other members of Professor Miller's family, who were ill, progressed rapidly and are now recovered.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Society is gradually getting into full swing on our campus since the lifting of the flu ban. Many delightful affairs are scheduled for the near future, including the Military ball, the paramount social event of the week, the Engineers dance and the Sophomore Frolic.

The Bench and Bar informal given by the lawyers was one of the most successful dances of the season. The music was especially good, and the punch excellent, tho of a doubtful color.

Prosecuting Attorney Priest should be highly commended upon his very successful and able prosecution of Mr. Breshears in regard to his dancing without observation of the six inch rule.

It is our opinion that Percy O'Brien should take up clock repairing, for he shows more ability along this line than any other. Among the features of the evening were several evening dresses and the pre-legals, who were very much in evidence.

The Associated Foresters held their fourth annual banquet Wednesday, March 10. The out of town guests were Arlie D. Decker, '13, and Donald Yates, '17, of the Potlatch Lumber Company, and Major F. A. Fenn of the U. S. Forest Service.

Major Fenn was the main speaker of the evening. His talk was devoted to the recreational features of our national forests. He was connected with this work for several years and had an opportunity of seeing our national forests develop into the nation's playground.

President Lindley spoke of the importance of the forests in Idaho. "Lumbering is one of Idaho's chief industries," he said. He commented on the growth and development of the School of Forestry at the University.

"The Logged Off Land Problem," was spoken of by Mr. Yates. The lumber companies are disposing of their logged off land for agricultural pursuits. "Many inducements are being offered to bring in settlers who will build up a permanent agriculture district in these logged over areas."

H. W. Staples spoke of the aeroplane patrol in the forest service. H. W. May, representing the Ranger course showed the place that the short course in forestry capably handles.

There were nearly half a hundred present at the banquet. It is the largest number that has ever been present at such a gathering and represents very well the increase in the Forestry School enrollment.

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained Sunday at dinner for Al Kinney, Walter Smith, Harold Simon, Jean Hart, Joe Whitcomb, George Pierson, Porte Arthur, Ralph Brashears of Phi Delta Theta and Lynn Beauchamp of Twin Falls.

The living picture tableaux has been planned for April 16. Any organization which has not, as yet, been represented, may see Miss Palmer about it.

Delta Gamma held their annual Founder's Day banquet Saturday evening at the Guild hall. Places were laid for forty-eight guests.

Wednesday Chi Delta Phi entertained at dinner for Mrs. Gifford.

Miss Ensign and Miss Jensen were dinner guests at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house Thursday evening.

Friday Dona Eggan was a dinner guest of the Chi Delta Phi.

The Home Economics Department has been trying a new experiment. Several of the girls in this department are having real teaching experience in the Moscow High School.

"The position approved by the best dancing masters and accepted by the best people will be the position at the University of Idaho. In this style of dancing many of the new steps will be eliminated. The waltz, fox trot, one step, without undue variations, will always be enjoyed around here."

Clara Wiperman ex-'17, of Idaho Falls, will arrive in Moscow Tuesday or Wednesday. Miss Wiperman is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and will be in the city several days, having come to attend the wedding of two of her sorority sisters, Gertrude and Nita Miller.

Mrs. Tess Keane Hickman entertained Thursday evening at her home for Mabel Sweeney, Mary Finegan and Pauline Rieck of Kappa Kappa Gamma, Walter Smith and Ralph Brashears of Phi Delta Theta and Dr. Gibbs of the bacteriology department.

Beta Theta Pi entertained the Misses Ruth Blomquist, Kathryn McCormack, Nathalie Tecklenberg, Henrietta Peasley, Octavia Gowen Muriel Atkins, and Mrs. Brown, all of Delta Gamma, at dinner.

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained at dinner Monday evening for Frances Fields, Frances Jones, Clara Jones, Carolyn Logan, Eleanor Fletcher, Lillian Collins and Doris Tipton of Delta Gamma.

Gladys Putnam and Marjorie Albert of Kappa Kappa Gamma were guests of Kappa Alpha Theta in Pullman for the Varsity ball Friday evening.

Major Fenn, in charge of lands of district No. 1, United States forest service, was a luncheon guest at the Beta Theta Pi house Thursday noon.

Phi Alpha Delta announces the initiation of Henry Felton, Albert Graf, John McGowen, Harry Hartwell, Lloyd Hibner, Wilson, Hosier and McEachern.

The Misses Erma Taves and Eloise Brant of Kappa Alpha Theta and W. S. C., and the Misses Ethel Taves and Ray of Spokane, were week end guests of Chi Delta Phi.

Gladys Channel, Pauline Rieck and Cora Salter of Kappa Kappa Gamma were guests of Zeta Phi sorority in Pullman Friday, attending the Varsity ball.

Miss Kathryn McCormack, Lewiston; Ruth Chapman, Colfax; Mrs. S. Morrison, Steptoe; Gladys Jones, Spokane, were week-end guests of Delta Gamma.

Major Fenn addressed the school of forestry Thursday with an able and instructive address on the "National Programme for Forestry."

The Advisory Board of the Y. W. C. A. gave a silver tea on Wednesday at the home of Margaret Byrns. Many town ladies and students were there.

Idaho Alpha and Washington Beta chapters of Sigma Alpha Epsilon celebrated Founders' Day by a joint banquet at Pullman last Saturday.

Sunday Chi Delta Phi entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Kitch, Mr. Cook of Pullman and Mrs. Whitley.

Misses Mercedes Jones, Florence Hoffman, Hallie DeCamp, and Helen Frantz were dinner guests at the Sigma Nu house Sunday.

Kathryn Stanford, Albertine Benoit and Thelma McGee spent the week end in Lewiston.

Gladys See and Marit Hummel were dinner guests of Delta Gamma Tuesday.

Ward Wyman of Kappa Sigma was a Friday noon dinner guest at the Beta house.

Florence Allebaugh and Freda Soulen attended the Varsity Ball at Pullman Friday.

Marion Taylor of Eugene, Oregon, was a Friday dinner guest of Gamma Phi Beta.

H. H. Hardy of Salt Lake City, Utah, was a luncheon guest at the Gamma Phi Beta house Monday.

Messrs. Davis, Goulard, Morgan and Sacks were guests of Kappa Sigma Saturday from Pullman.

Delta Gamma announces the engagement of Ruth Kutnewsky to Fred Murphey, Jr.

Miss Jensen was a dinner guest of Delta Gamma Wednesday.

Jim Newton of Wallace was a week end guest of Kappa Sigma.

Pitman Atwood spent the week end in Spokane.

John McGowan attended the "Varsity" ball in Pullman Friday night.

C. E. Coe of Oakesdale visited with Kappa Sigma Saturday.

Mrs. Hadley, nee Pearl Snyder, is now registered in college.

Bernadine Moser visited in Palouse over the week end.

Grover Evans and Boyd Cornelison spent the week end in Spokane.

Greek Wells was a dinner guest of Kappa Sigma Wednesday.

Fred Murphy diner at the A. K. E. house Wednesday evening.

Paul Rowell returned from Lewiston last week.

A. R. Johnson was a dinner guest of Alpha Kappa Epsilon Sunday.

FOUR NORTHERN CLUBS IN FIELD

KELLOGG, SANDPOINT, COEUR D'ALENE AND ST. MARIES PLANE ORGANIZATIONS

Sandpoint, St. Maries, Coeur d'Alene and Kellogg, in the very near future are expected to enter the ranks of those cities which possess vigorous and active University of Idaho clubs, according to an announcement made this morning by W. B. Kjosness, president of the alumni association.

"Unusual interest is being displayed in Sandpoint," declared Mr. Kjosness. "W. B. Dunkel is acting as chairman of a committee which is planning a thorough membership campaign prior to an organization meeting which will take the form of a banquet to be held under the direction of Miss Helga Anderson, a recent University graduate who is head of the Sandpoint high school home economics department. All of the college people in Sandpoint will be admitted to membership in the club, the prospective personnel of the organization having been estimated at 75.

Dr. Cornwall Active. "Dr. Delos E. Cornwall, '03, ever a decidedly zealous alumnus, is temporary chairman of the St. Maries club. He is also planning an active membership campaign which will be followed by a permanent organization meeting. Miss Vera Gray, '11, is temporary club secretary at St. Maries.

"Herbert H. Beir, '15, Harold S. Purdy, '17, and Miss Frances Bailey, '18, comprise a Coeur d'Alene organization committee now actively at work. The Coeur d'Alene organization meeting also will be held in the very near future. Kellogg Prospects Good. "Jim Gwinn, '11, has undertaken the task of organizing alumni and former students in Kellogg, where Athletic Tax on dancing is the best we've heard in a long time. We've paid a war tax on tooth paste and movies, and never murmured. But an Athletic Tax on dancing! Of course, we've realized of late that dancing was tending to become athletic, in fact, that it answered fairly well the description of certain reducing (pardon us) exercises that appear in highly reputable magazines and are described as "exercising all portions of the body." We had that, tho, that since the last two dances, it was becoming less so. Noticeably since the Dean's restrictions. But no—a twobit Athletic Tax on all dances. Poor Dean! Ah well—perhaps we think the privileges concurring from the tax are worth the extra quarter.

Hereafter at dances, those paying the extra Athletic Tax will wear a small white emblem, this signifying that they are entitled to dance, quo ante bellum." All others will be forced to respect the dance regulations laid down recently. Committees will enforce this new ruling. Get your white tags early. Avoid the rush.

prospects for a strong club are unusually good.

If arrangements already made tentatively are carried into execution, President Ernest H. Lindley, Miss Katharine Jensen, head of the university home economics department and Dean O. P. Cockerill of the law school will deliver addresses at each of the four organization meetings scheduled. Plans also are being made for holding a large alumni gathering in Spokane.

From Wibaux, Montana, come the alumni dues of Gertrude Walker, '17. After May 21, Miss Walker's home address will be Park River, S. D.

THE BIG WEEK IS HERE

Stop and think! This is going to be some rare old week on our campus for we are to see six high-school teams, all winners of their respective districts, tangle in as many games for the State Championship. These games will be seasoned by peppy varsity exhibits on the side which will bring into play both the Vandal and Frosh fives, "Limber" Sampson's tumbling crew; the aesthetic dancers; "Babe's" mat exhibitors, and "Al's" pugger of the padded fist game.

Til this sport starts next Thursday at 1:30 p. m., will cost you one buck and will take up your intense interest just as readily as it will consume that lonely cart-wheel.

Check your hats in the shower room and place your "Star" or "Camel" bets with Charles Gerlough at the score board on the rounded rounded second floor.

IN DEEP THOUGHT

The powers of the basket ball world are spending this week in deep thought. They are picking an All-Star team from the Inter Mural conference. So far they have all agreed on "Butch" Nagle for a guard position.

The editor would like to wager a package of Camels that no one can name the other four to agree with the critics higher up. Namely because they can not agree among themselves.

Watch the dope for the slicker five.

SIGMA NUS WIN CAMPUS CHAMPIONSHIP

Sigma Nus 10, Betas 5.

In a game which closely resembled football last Thursday afternoon the Sigma Nus clinched the inter mural cup by doubling the score on their runners-up.

It was a hotly contested struggle from the first with football characteristics in the play, but with a resultant baseball score. A feature of the game which paralleled its roughness was the remarkable lack of field goals, there being only four hooped in the entire game.

	Forward	Center	Guard	Guard
Hunter	Spangler
Glanderman	Irving
Graf	Carlson
Dart	Johanessen
Nagle	Veatch

The summary: Sigma Nu scoring, field goals—Graf 1, Nagle 1; free throws—Graf 4 out of 4, Hunter 2 out of 2.

Betas scoring, field goals—Irving 1, Carlson 1; free throws—Irving 1. Referee, "Buck" Hunter.

CHEER UP DISTANCE MEN

Pretty soft for you after all.

In 1832 Mensen Ernst ran 1625 miles in 14 days, and by so doing averaged 125 miles a day. No boy, he didn't have a cindered highway either as he had to swim 13 rivers while making this record for man or beast from Paris to Moscow.

Two miles isn't far after all. Hey Bo?

PHI DELTS 7, SIGMA NUS 11

The last semi-final heat was run off last Tuesday afternoon when the Sigma Nu five earned the right to meet the Beta quintette for the inter mural honors in the final game.

This Sigma Nu victory was in strict opposition to old man dope for about a week before this, encounter the Phi Delt's defeated this, now champion team, by a wide margin.

The games particular slickers were, Whitcomb for the Phi Delt's and Graf for the winning five.

	Forward	Center	Guard	Guard
Hunter	Whitcomb
Glanderman	Kerin
Graf	Glogow
Nagle	Thompson
Dart	Breshears

The summary: Sigma Nu scoring, field goals—Graf 4; free throws, Graf 3. Phi Delt's scoring, field goals—Whitcomb 2, Glasgow 1; free throws—Kerin 1.

TWO SPEEDY RING AND MAT CONTESTS

Forest vs. Asmusen.

Among the stunts to be pulled next Friday afternoon is listed a fistic bout between "Shimmy Punch" Forest of Lewiston and "One Round" Asmusen of Idaho. The former is a 147-pounder while his opponent tilts the beam at 156. Both lads are fistic students of "Al" Kinney and have shown good speedy science in light boxing.

Horning vs. Halling.

The mat exhibit will be a heavy weight event between two good men who will make this their first appearance on their Varsity campus. Horning is a man of considerable reputation as a high-school grappler. Three years ago he won the Interscholastic Pacific Coast championship for his weight while representing Lincoln High of Portland, Oregon.

His opponent is a new man at the game, but we have Coach "Babe's" word for it that he has been showing the stuff and is an aggressive scrappy man.

BASEBALL BUG IS LOOSE

The gym was the scene of a miniature baseball practice last Saturday when a few infield aspirants were picking up the hot ones from the bat as yielded by Coach "Hutch".

Now that it is a cinched fact that we are to partake of the national game this year, you baseball men will keep on your toes for the first call of the diamond.

Hutchinson has not stated when he wants the squad out for regular work outs, but no doubt it will come in the very near future.

Whitman's track men are out in good numbers in answer to the call of their new track coach, George L. Lawrence, former assistant coach at Stanford. It seems that the Walla Walla men will be strong on distance men, but lacking in sprinters. They are intending to send a team to the Seattle relay meet, April 24.

THE AMAZONS SLATED FOR WEDNESDAY 17

Clever Play to Be Presented by Y. M. And Y. W. C. A. After Much Rehearsing

"The Amazons," a farcial romance, will be produced with polished perfection after weeks of rehearsing. Wednesday evening, March 17th, at 8 o'clock in the University auditorium. "Each character will afford ample entertainment—the one purpose of Sir Arthur Pinero's famous drama being to amuse," says Prof. Cushman, who is directing the play.

The play is set in an extensive pre-war English park on a sunshiny September day. Lady Belturbet, who owns the park, has three clever daughters whom she has brought up as boys. They dress like boys, they talk like boys—in fact they think they are boys, until one day they fall in love. Shooting, swimming and other boyish pranks cease to be fun and the one desire is to don petticoats. At the end of the play they are seen in their true guise—three charming young English women, living in an age previous to the war.

Special music has been arranged for the production and the Old English country dance in the third act will prove a novelty.

The costumes of the Ladies Belturbet are attractive—the fishing costumes, the hunting costumes, their gymnasium uniforms, which suit their early masculine characteristics, and the gorgeous gowns and evening frocks which make up their feminine attire.

The cast follows: Barrington, Viscount Litterly, Abe Goff, Galfred, Earl of Tweenways, Mike Thometz; Andre, Count de Grival, Maurice Jackson; Rev. Roger Minchin, Oscar Weaver; Yonatt, Ambrose Johnson; Miriam, Marchioness of Castlejordan, Marion Byrnes; Lady Noeline Belturbet, Faith Newton; Lady Wilhelmina Belturbet, Mary McKenna; Lady Thomasin Belturbet, Helen Johnston; Sergeant Shuter, Margaret Moseley. Tickets will be on sale in the Ad. Building Tuesday and Wednesday. The price of admission is 50c; reserved seats, 65c.

DR. MASON OF SEATTLE TO SPEAK IN SPECIAL ASSEMBLY

Dr. Mason, pastor of the University Congregational church of Seattle, and one of the most noted workers of the northwest will speak in a special assembly this next Friday morning at the University. Dr. Mason is coming here with the Inter-Church World Team of workers which will be in Moscow over the week end.

"It is the plan," said Secretary Macpherson of the Y. M. C. A., "to try and give the students of the college a chance to have private interviews with the various members of the Inter Church World Team over the week end. Some very prominent men and women will be there then and will assist any one who is doubtful of their life work, and try to guide them in making the most out of their lives."

Among the workers who will be here for several days are: Dr. H. H. Bell, assistant national director of the Inter Church World Movement; Dr. McCowan, northwest manager, and Mrs. Bourner, who will meet with the young women of the College during her stay here.

Gamma Phi Beta entertained at dinner Wednesday for Miss Octavia Gowen and the Messrs. William and Justin Gowen.

LORADO TAFT SPEAKS TO COLLEGE AUDIENCE

day that town is mentioned in the tourists maps as having "places of interest," an uncommon thing in the smaller communities.

"I hope to see in a few years every town of the west with a community house of its own. Then the people will enjoy a new life, a new pleasure. Then will we have literally, "The home town beautiful."

The Tuesday Talk.

Tuesday evening Mr. Taft gave an illustrated lecture in the "Y" hut on "The History of American Sculpture." He began by showing the earliest American works and spoke of our inheritance from the Puritans which was very little. Mr. Taft discussed the statuary shown, in a most entertaining way. Some of the statues shown were: "Appeal of the Great Spirit," by Dallin, "End of the Trail," by Frasier, "The Alice Freeman Palmer Memorial," by French and St. Garden's "Lincoln."

Talks to Art Class.

On Wednesday morning he gave another illustrated lecture on "The French Cathedrals," to the Art appreciation class. He showed the exterior and interior, pointed out the details, the doors and windows and discussed the good and bad points.

Is Able Speaker.

Mr. Taft is most entertaining in the presentation of his subject and his own interest and great appreciation of art can not help but pervade and inspire all his hearers. His addresses are not addresses at all but personal chats filled with a richness of humor and a great charm, and more than this with a vital message which can be applied in every day life.
