MUCKER'S HARD BOILED BUST FRIDAY NIGHT

LONG POSTPONED "BUNK-HOUSE" BUST TO BE THROWN AT LAST

WATCH OUT FOR THE MULE

Boys Are Advised to Tie Up With Date Quick—Great Doin's Foretold.

The long deferred bar-room struggle which was twice postponed by as many flu bans is to take place at last on next Friday night in the old "diggins" which so many people call the gym.

Civilized Toga Taboo.

Let it hereby be known that if you are not a true Westerner and quite capable of being cast with "hard-boiled" society, you should be a money-eyed man for it will cost you many additional grains of the glittering element if you see fit to not appear.

"Hard as —! Flint!"

Also known, that said Muckers do not need the money and while we give no "pictures" with our programme we do hand out a cash prize to the best looking "49'er". Therefore come "tuff" you Varsity gents and take home the "hi-grade" that made Milwaukee famous.

Hoover To Be Present.

"Herb" Hoover, the original hi-brow mucker and more or less, a food engineer will be present in person at that time and will deliver a lecture on "Why Young Birds Go South" or "Watch the Mule".

Let it be repeated that not only ghosts walk in a mining camp on pay night. If you don't understand this "Watch the Mule".

DR. W. F. FOSTER TO SPEAK ON WEDNESDAY

Dr. W. F. Foster, until recently president of Reed's college of Portland, Oregon, will speak Wednesday morning at general assembly upon the subject "The Spirit of the New West." Dr. Foster is one of the countries most prominent educators and brings to the college students a message of interest to everyone.

Concludes "Americanization" Talks.

President E. H. Lindley delivered the concluding address to the series on "Americanization," which was the major topic in the Collegiate Alumnae association's program this year. President Lindley spoke on "American Standards."

CAMPUS TO SEE TRACK TOURNEY NEXT MONTH

Fast High School Teams to Compete For State Honors During the Early Part of May

The annual state interscholastic track meet will be held on May 13 and 14, according to an announcement issued recently by T. D. Matthews, graduate manager of athletics.

The plan to be followed in selecting the teams to come to Moscow to take part in the meet will be similar to that used in the basketball eliminations. Local tourneys will be held in various districts throughout the state, and the teams winning will come here to compete for the state championship.

Two meets will be held in the south, one in Pocatello, for the southeastern district, and the other in Boise, for the southwestern district. Both teams are reported as showing excellent prospects for taking the high places in their respective localities.

In the panhandle district Coeur d'Alene, Wallace and Lewiston are all developing speedy runners and husky contestants in the weights. The dope swings slightly in favor of the city of the twin rivers.

The dopsters who have been watching the development of the high school track prospects throughout the state announce that they expect to see many records of long standing smashed in the coming meet.

Plans are well under way for the entertainment of the visiting teams and the management of the event. Definite announcement will be made later.

PROF. ERICKSON ATTENDS COUNTY CONFERENCE AT ILO

Professor F. Erickson attended a session of the Lewis county teachers at Ilo, March 26. He reported a live discussion on topics of interest to the teachers. Among Idaho graduates attending were Thelma Beck, '19, who is teaching in the Reubens high school; Jack Richmond, '19, in the high school of Nez Perce and elected as superintendent for the Nez Perce schools for next year, and L. G. Wade, who is the principal at Ilo. Another Idaho student was Paul J. Martin, whom, although not in the teaching profession, Professor Erickson accidentally met and enjoyed a pleasant visit with.

Saturday Professor Erickson attended a trustees' meeting at Nez Perce.

To Take Charge at Nez Perce.

Ruth Scott, a senior in the home economics department, has been elected for next year to take charge of the home economics department of the Nez Perce high school.

LIVELY ALUMNI CLUB AT COEUR D'ALENE

Dean Cockerill and Miss Katherine Jensen of University Faculty Speak Before Northern Group

Alumni organizations thruout the state are showing great activity. Tuesday evening, March 29, Dean Cockerill and Miss Katherine Jensen spoke before the Coeur d'Alene Alumni association. Mr. Harold Purdy acted as chairman of the evening.

There are sixty enrolled in the organization with about twenty two active members. In speaking of the evening Miss Jensen stated her surprise at the large number present and the great enthusiasm manifested. Thursday and Friday of this week Miss Jensen, Dean Cockerill and Professor Lewis will visit other alumni organizations.

Hilga Anderson, '19, of the home economics department, is already planning a banquet at Sandpoint where either Dean Cockerill or Professor Lewis will speak. St. Maries will also be visited.

"GEM" STAFF IMPROVES THE VACATION WEEK

Vacation week has been a busy one for the Gem of the Mountains staff. Every day a large and energetic force has been at work in the Y building. Some substantial accomplishments have been effected on the book, and the staff is hopeful of accomplishing that unheard of thing, a "Gem" out on time.

This reminds us that there will probably be a wild, last minute rush for the photographers this week. Also that there will be many a student prominent in fraternity and social life on the campus, who will rave and cuss because his or her picture was not in the annual. It is unfortunate, and deeply regretted by the staff, that the time for taking pictures is so limited. If it were only 18 months to have the pictures taken instead of six, every one would have time to have their mugs recorded, (only they wouldn't). As long as there are dances every week, and picture shows to attend, we can never expect the fair visages of all university incumbents.

BEHRE AND STAPLES VISIT LUMBER CAMPS

Potlatch Lumber Company Wants Co-Operation of Idaho Foresters

Prof. Behre and "Toughie" Staples spent the vacation week in the camps of the Potlatch Lumber company in field work in Logging Engineering.

The Potlatch Lumber company has very kindly extended an invitation to the School of Forestry to visit their plant and camps and carry the work into the field of their operations at any time. Staples and Bohre spent several days studying the logging methods used in the different camps. They worked out some practical problems in the location of logging railroads and collected some data for the study of form factors and growth of white pine in this vicinity.

HOFFMAN ADDRESSES ASSOCIATED FORESTERS

Tells That Demand For Paper Pulp Exceeds Supply—Schmitz Visits West.

J. N. Hoffman addressed a special meeting of the associated foresters Tuesday afternoon before vacation. Mr. Hoffman is the western superintendent of forestry with headquarters at Portland.

He pointed out the widespread interest in forestry at the present time. Special emphasis was laid on the increased demand for wood pulp for making paper. "The present paper consumption is greater than the production. If something is not done soon we will be probably be facing a paper famine." Mr. Hoffman was scheduled to visit many other colleges. He spoke in Pullman on the day following his visit here.

Dr. Schmitz Visits West.

Dr. Schmitz of the School of Forestry spent the vacation in Spokane and Seattle. Incidentally he called on several lumbermen and foresters in both places.

Miss Schell Leaves for East.

Prof. Mabel H. Schell, head of the department of romance languages, left shortly before the spring vacation for her home in Cincinnati, where she was called by the sickness of her mother. The courses which Miss Schell conducted have been divided among the remaining instructors of the department. Mrs. J. H. Macintire, of Moscow, will instruct several beginning classes in French for the rest of the year.

FORESTERS LOCAL NOW HOLDS CHARTER

Phi Alpha Beta Has Been Granted Charter by Xi Sigma Pi Large National

Phi Alpha Beta, local professional forester's fraternity has been granted a charter by Xi Sigma Pi, the national forestry fraternity.

Installation will be held Wednesday evening. Mr. Arthur Bevans of the Alpha chapter of the University of Washington will conduct the installation.

The new chapter will be known as the Epsilon chapter of Xi Sigma Pi. The charter members of the new organization are H. W. Staples, P. H. Gerrard, J. P. Drissen, F. M. Gossett and Carthon Patrie.

Dr. Henry Schmitz of the faculty is a member of the Alpha chapter of this fraternity, and Dean Miller is a member of the Yale chapter.

WESTERN MINING JOURNAL RECOGNIZES IDAHO CONFERENCE

The Mining and Scientific Press, of San Francisco, the oldest technical mining magazine in the country, devoted two pages of its issue of March 27th to the recent flotation conference held at the Idaho School of Mines. The conclusions and chief discussions were enumerated. The miners consider this recognition of the work done here a compliment worthy of note.

NORTH DAKOTA DEEPLY FEELS LOSS OF MISS JENSEN TO IDAHO

The Polytechnic Society in behalf of the Dakota Agricultural College recently adopted a resolution of appreciation of the work of Miss Katherine Jensen at that institution. A part of the resolution follows:

"The departure of Miss Jensen from the College makes itself especially felt, for here she served her native state, and an institution whose paths had been trodden by intimate friends and by members of the family circle. She therefore was in a position to render intensely loyal and an extremely valuable service, which she did. Moreover, this service was in no sense of a provincial nature for she had garnered knowledge from some of our great centers of learning and had gained wisdom by her labor in neighboring institutions."

Miss Jensen was connected with the Dakota Agricultural College for several years, thus making her departure felt more deeply.

BIG MINING CONCERN FAVORS IDAHO GRADS

Anaconda Mining Company Prefers Men Who Earn Their Own Education.

In a recent letter received by Dean Thomson of the School of Mines, from the great Anaconda Copper Mining company in Montana, regarding vacancies in their testing departments, this interesting statement is made by Mr. Frederick Laist, the general manager: "We would be inclined to give preference to students who have been working their way." This shows that the big executives of the country believe that the men and women who support themselves while going thru college have certain advantages when they graduate.

Dean Thomson also received a letter from E. A. Narnard, testing engineer for the Anaconda Copper Mining company, which is the largest concern of its kind in the world. Mr. Narnard in his letter offers to take two of the Idaho School of Mines graduates each year starting them in at first college salary and advancing them as rapidly as they prove their ability.

Dr. Kidwell Resigns.

No successor has yet been named to take the place of Dr. W. R. Kidwell, assistant professor of veterinary science, whose resignation took effect on April first. Dr. Kidwell has taken a position as deputy state veterinarian under Dr. J. D. Adams, who is director of animal husbandry in the state department of agriculture.

IDAHO TO GET TWO RHODE SCHOLARSHIPS

Announcement of Granting of Two Scholarships Received With List Of Requirements

The Rhodes scholarship memorandum for 1920 has been received by the University. Two scholarships are assigned to each state. A scholarship is $300 (which amount cannot be translated into dollars on account of the present condition of the rate of exchange) and is tenable for three years subject to the continued approval of the college at Oxford of which the scholar is a member. The scholarship being tenable for three years, there will be one year out of every three in which there will be no election.

Under the present arrangement sixty-four scholars are to be selected in 1920. The scholarships were suspended during the war but Idaho was given a scholarship in 1919 and will be given another in 1920. Due to present conditions it is also announced that $300 is insufficient to carry a scholar through his year at Oxford and it will be necessary to supplement this by about $50 additional.

To be eligible for a Rhodes scholarship a candidate must

1. Be a citizen of the United States with at least five years domicile and unmarried.
2. By the first of October of the year in which is elected have passed his 19th and not have passed his 25th birthday.
3. By the first of October of the year for which he is elected have completed at least his sophomore year at some recognized degree-granting university or college of the United States.

For each state there will be a committee of selection in whose hands the nominations will rest.

All prospective candidates are advised to make application.

Institutions with an enrollment of less than 1000 students may have two candidates. In states where elections are to be made in 1920 and 1921 institutions may be represented by twice the number of candidates that would be allowed were only one appointment to be made. Institutions should select their representatives on the basis of the qualities which will be considered by the state committee in making the final selection. They are:

1. Qualities of manhood, force of character and leadership.

2. Literary and scholastic ability and attainments.

3. Physical vigor, as shown by interest in outdoor sports or in other ways.

Applications are to be made not later than August 14th and this necessitates the designation of the candidates prior to the close of the college year.

Every candidate for a scholarship will be required to furnish to the secretary of the Idaho committee information regarding age, a birth certificate if possible; a written statement from the college president regarding his selection; a record certificate by the registrar, regarding the courses pursued and scholarship; a statement by the candidate of his general activities at college and his proposed line of study at Oxford; references to six or more responsible persons, three of whom are professors under whom he has studied.

Any further inquiries should be addressed to Mr. McKen F. Morrow, Boise, Idaho.

DEBATORS SAW WOOD FOR TRIANGULAR MIX

Slippery Talkers Taking on Form for Montana-Utah Scrap Scheduled For April 16.

The debaters who are to lock horns in a verbal battle with Montana and Utah on April 16, are rapidly getting their material in shape for the event. At most any time of the day or night these aspirants to a Daniel Webster's fame may be seen occupying a whole table in the library. Usually they appear busy—maybe they are. If at any time you steer around a corner suddenly to see some one violently talking to no one, don't get unduly alarmed. The man is in all probability sane, and is only practicing his masterful speech.

William Briscoe, who was to have debated here, unfortunately was forced to drop out because of poor health. His place has been taken by Harold Guyer of Burley. Guyer is a high school debater won quite a record for himself in the southern part of the state, and will make his first University appearance in the Montana-Utah clash.

Of the four men to take active part in the debates, three: A. J. Priest, Charles Darling and William Carpenter, are letter men of considerable experience.

FORESTERS ISSUE THEIR SECOND NEWS LETTER

The second forestry news letter of the year was issued on April first. The letter contains the activities of the forestry school for this semester up to date. The news letter is sent to alumni, other forestry colleges of the Northwest, and to the high schools of the state. It has proven a very important advertising medium for the University as well as the School of Forestry. The committee composed of Edward T. Nero, Fred B. Chamberlain, Robert Leitch and Professor C. E. Behr, deserve credit for this edition.

Lelia Tilley, '07, is now in Boise. Her address is 623 Hays street.

PROF. SOULEN AGAIN ON N. W. ASSOCIATION

Northwest Association of High Schools And Colleges Re-elect Idaho Man as Secretary.

At the recent Inland Empire Teachers' meeting the Northwest Association of High Schools and Colleges elected Superintendent Jenkins of Portland, president, and re-elected Professor Ph. Soulen as secretary of the organization. This association will soon be affiliated with the North-Central and the Southern Associations whose chief purpose, like that of the North-West Association, is the maintenance of unified standards of accrediting for Secondary and High Schools have been accredited by this association and several others are awaiting action by the accrediting committee on their application.

SPOKANE CONVENTION DRAWS MANY TEACHERS

THOUSANDS ATTEND INLAND EMPIRE DURING VACATION WEEK

PROMINENT IDAHOANS SPEAK

President Lindley, Dean Eldridge, and Many Others Give Talks—Alumni Banquet Held.

For many university people spring vacation received a new interpretation. It proved to be one of the busiest weeks of the year. The largest gathering of teachers in the Northwest took possession of Spokane last week, and for three days every phase of school work from country school teacherages to university policies was given ample consideration. Americanization with a post-war interpretation was the key note of the great convention. While teacher shortage and teachers' salaries cropped up in nearly every discussion and the economic phase of education lacked no champions, a deep strong current of idealism pervaded both general and sectional meetings.

Idaho contributed a conspicuous share to the success of the great convention. An exceptionally large number of school men and women represented all parts of the state. Commissioner E. A. Bryan, President E. H. Lindley, Deans J. G. Eldridge, Iddings, Cockerill and French, State Superintendent Miss Redfield, Professors Lewis, H. B. Reed, Ph. Soulen, Wodsealek, Trimble, Miss Katherine Jensen, and a large group from the extension division were on the program. Superintendents galore and teachers by the thousand to say nothing of book men and teachers agency representatives found the meeting a great opportunity for the transacting of business which thru the ordinary channel of correspondence would have required months of time.

Fifty Idaho graduates and teachers found time Thursday evening to sandwich in a delightful banquet at the Davenport. Dr. Carrol Smith acted as toastmaster. Commissioner Bryan, President Lindley, Dean Eldridge, Miss Jensen, Professor Trimble and Mary McKenna responded.

In speaking of the meeting, one of the faculty participants said: "If I were to express myself in the language of the Campus Freshman, I should say that 'That Inland Empire Teachers' association sure was some meetin'!"

MANY AMENDMENTS TO COME BEFORE A.S.U.I.

New Amendment to be Introduced As Regards Athletic Letters Only To Those Who Train

A special meeting of the A. S. U. I. will be called Wednesday at four o'clock to discuss and vote on the three proposed amendments to the constitution, as introduced at previous meetings of the student body. A new amendment, concerning the awarding of letters to athletes will be read for the first time.

The amendments to be voted on are: 1. An amendment authorizing the awarding of "I" pins to the members of the University stock judging teas. 2. An amendment changing the regulations under which the annual song contest is conducted, and, 3, an amendment to the recent amendment passed regarding eligibility for positions on the staff of the Argonaut.

The new amendment to be read would provide that before an athlete may win a letter he must have the recommendation of his coach, or some other duly authorized judge, and furnish evidence of the fact that he has faithfully kept up his training throughout the entire season of his particular sport.

Prof. Lewis Speaks at Pullman. Prof. H. T. Lewis, head of the Economics department, spoke on the topic, "Should Prices Come Down," at the community forum at Pullman last Sunday evening. The topic at this time is one of widespread interest to everyone and was well received by the Pullman people.

"IS" FOR AGS?

During the avalanche of proposed amendments to the A. S. U. I. constitution the week prior to vacation, one amendment was given its first reading which provides that the University Stock Judging teams be rewarded with a gold "I." That part of the proposed addition to the constitution will meet with little opposition; most of us will agree that the Ag men who have upheld Idaho tradition by winning repeated victories in judging contests should be given some official recognition by the student body. But—this amendment would pay for these letters by appropriating one per cent of the allotted nine per cent comprising the debate fund.

This action is necessary, the sponsors of the plan claim, because of the fact that this is the only fund which has surplus money enough from which to draw.

The debate fund is, however, far from being an open cash drawer from which other activities may turn to for whatever money they need. It is in fact so depleted already that when Idaho debaters went to Vancouver to meet the University of British Columbia a short time ago, the members taking the trip were asked to contribute toward paying their own expenses because of the lack of sufficient funds to pay for the journey. If this new amendment is passed, it means that debate in the college for future years will be handicapped by a shortage of money already acute.

It is certainly anything but wise to provide for one activity at the serious injury to another equally if not more important. If we are to present the stock judging teams with gold letters, then let us use some sane method of defraying the extra expense other than voting away one ninth of the already hard pressed debate fund.

BETTER ATHLETICS

A rather tactless, but timely, article, published in the last issue of this paper, has started something, which, when it is finished, will have done much of good for the school.

Because of the sentiment stirred up in some of the student circles by the reference to a lamentable incident in the athletic life of the school, an amendment has been proposed, which, it is hoped, will go far toward guarding against such happenings in the future.

The amendment, as it will be read before the student body in the Wednesday meeting, provides, in substance, that any athlete, before he may obtain his letter, must have the recommendation of his coach, or some other competent judge, and must furnish evidence of the fact that he has faithfully kept up his training throughout the entire season of his particular branch, as well as meeting the present requirements for a letter.

This proposal is altogether sane and just. The happy results of such a ruling are apparent on the face of it. This amendment directly tends to raise the standards of training. Even approaching the individual ability of the athletes in importance in producing a winning team comes the steady, hard, consistent training of the members of that team. Therefore the better training will produce better athletic teams, which is a thing that we all desire.

Whatever may be your attitude on this proposition, think it over, and come prepared to express your views at the A. S. U. I. meeting.

THE OLD GUARD.

The ban that was placed on the old guard for a few years past marked the passing of one of the best campus traditions. The activities of this notorious institution were perhaps carried a trifle too far on one occasion, but the blame of that particular incident was due more to certain men in charge, rather than on the custom itself.

With the cessation of world hostilities, we should have a revival of this tradition. In yesteryear days when this tradition flourished without faculty disapproval, it was one of the most memorable events of the college year. Fifty or a hundred men, dressed in the most ludicrous costumes, military and otherwise, going through maneuvers which would baffle a recruit drill master, was an event which not only called out all the students but the town people as well. While all the stunts pulled by the old guard were pseudo military, yet it was done in a spirit of pure fun, and was in no wise a reflection on the military department of the university or of the government.

On the occasion mentioned, when the ban was placed on the Old Guard, the members of the Company carried away by their general exuberance, indulged in various musical attempts, which if correctly rendered, would be recognized by a few of the more patriotic citizens, as national anthems. If the Old Guard parades this year, as it should do by all means, care should be taken that the "band" does not attempt these songs, and that the maneuvers do not interfere with the actual inspection carried on by the government officials.

A few of these fun provoking traditions add more spirit to school life than a dozen regularly endorsed traditions.

The students of the University seem to be prone to accept these dictates without question, or without hope or effort at revival. It has been rumored that the popular Stunt Day activities are to meet with faculty disapproval this year. It is up to the students to say whether or not these finest traditions of the school shall be lost, because some member of the institution had some of his corns trodden on in the past. If a faculty member is "Right," he will not be stepped on by the activities of Stunt Day, and if he is not "right," he should be reminded of his short comings. It does us all good to be shown up once in a while, especially if done in the spirit of Stunt Day.

Let's keep Stunt Day and revive The Old Guard.

VETERANS TO DANCE
The Veterans' Vocational Club will give an all-college dance in the university gymnasium, April 17. The admission price is to be one dollar plus the baseball tax of twenty-five cents. From advance plans the struggle is to be the best of the year and advice to the effect that dates should be secured is freely dispensed with by club members. Members of the dance committee are: D. D. Standish, chairman; Glenn E. Blackledge, C. W. McCachern, Ralph Bristol, and Edward H. Briney.

BOISE ALUMNI OPEN CAMPAIGN

START DRIVE FOR PURPOSE OF PREVENTING ALIENATION OF IDAHO STUDENTS

Teachers in Idaho high schools no longer will send prospective students, particularly athletes of promise, to institutions outside the state if Boise alumni prove successful in a campaign they have just launched. This is the message brought from south Idaho by President A. W. B. Kjosness of the alumni association, who has just returned to Moscow after a swing through the southern part of the state.

"The Boise University of Idaho club, which has been operating successfully for some time, is expected to take the lead in much of the alumni activity in southern Idaho," said Mr. Kjosness. "Members of the club were more than exercised over the report that teachers in Idaho high schools have been influencing students to attend institutions in other states. Claude Gibson, '01, was named chairman of a committee which will investigate this matter thoroughly with a view of remedying whatever evils exist."

Constitution Adopted. At Boise Mr. Kjosness met with Bennett Williams, '08, president of the University club and 12 of the organization's more active workers. The model constitution and by-laws proposed by the alumni association were adopted unanimously by this group.

Peter D. Bryden, '08, was elected temporary chairman and Marian Barnes, '20, temporary secretary of the organization formed at Nampa. The model constitution and by-laws received approval, but permanent officers will not be elected until after a membership drive has been completed.

Enthusiasm at Idaho Falls. Unusual enthusiasm was displayed by alumni and former students who took part in an organization meeting held in Idaho Falls. Paul Peterson, '15, was elected temporary chairman of the club formed and Verna Johansen, '19, was named temporary secretary.

Particularly active among the Pocatello alumni with whom President Kjosness met are Isaac McDougall, '15, Vergil Samms, '14, Norman B. Adkinson, '07 and Harry McDougall, '17. The Pocatello organization is already taking steps for the carrying forward of the "Greater Idaho" program.

"The southern Idaho alumni are certainly displaying splendid spirit," Mr. Kjosness declared today. "They will contribute more than their share of enthusiasm and financial support. Those of us who actually are on the campus must hold up our end by seeing to it that Idaho athletic teams receive the proper sort of inspired backing from the student body."

As the Argonaut goes to press, an account of the alumni banquet held in Spokane Thursday night promised by one of those in attendance has not been received. This detailed story, with a list of those present, will be published the coming week.

H. W. Foester, '13, is assistant manager of the Tigre Mining company at Sonora, Mexico. His mail should be addressed via Douglas, Ariz.

Hal Tilley is now in charge of the high school band and orchestra at Walla Walla, Wn., while his brother Homer is living in Tacoma. Both are former university athletes.

"Everything seems to be ripe just now for a revival of interest in the university and we want to see if we cannot head off these high school students from going to other institutions," writes J. W. Gwinn, '11, from Kellogg, where he has been active in the organization of a vigorous university club.

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

One of the prettiest all-college dances of the year was the "Injun-ers" informal given Saturday before vacation. Evergreens, flowers and butterflies converted the Gym into a forest, where in the shelter of a wigwam two dusky little Indian maids served cider throughout the evening to the dancers. In one corner of the room hidden by evergreens, the University orchestra played.

Marie Hummel and W. Bullock held the winning numbers in the prize waltz and were awarded the pictures. The Injuner idea was carried out in the programs, unique affairs with a real Injun on the cover.

Patrons and Patronesses for the dance were Dean and Mrs. Little, Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre and Dean rFench.

The juniors of Sigma Nu entertained in honor of the seniors at a formal dinner and dance, held in the Sigma Nu house on the evening of April 26. The invite guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Ward Gano, Dean and Mrs. Francis A. Thomson, Mr. John Dickinson, and the Misses Mary Ball, Muriel Atkins, Gladys Hastie, Fleeta Brennan, Agnes Sweeney, Clara Wippenman, Frances Wiley, Doris Tipton, Alice Bessee, Ernestine Brown, Helen Oakley, Helen Frantz, Madge Williams, Ferral Richardson, Fay Morris, and Helen Wegman.

Mrs. W. C. Langroise and Miss Norma Langroise were Sunday dinner guests of Kappa Sigma.

Alpha Kappa Epsilon gave a dancing party Friday before school closed. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wod-sadelek, Misses Woods, Tipton, M. Armbruster, Pringle, F. Armbruster, Hardman, Paterka, Channel, Robbins, Friedman, Gano, Rolando, Hankinson, Baker, Hunt, Faris, Spielberg and Penwell.

The left-overs at the Kappa Sigma House entertained their lady friends at a inner party Friday evening. The dinner was followed by an enjoyable evening at the American Legion dance. The guests were V. Wilkinson, G. Pringle, N. Langroise, D. Tipton, F. Fields, E. Woods, P. Thomas, E. Rose, E. Collins, E. Speil-berg, G. Channel, and Mrs. Lang-roise.

Edwin Rettig, '19, was a campus visitor over vacation. He is on his way from Missoula to Orofino where he will assume his duties as forest engineer in the Clearwater forest.

Messrs. Patten and Asmusen were dinner guests of the Elwetas Thursday.

Ruth Bloomquist, Francis Wiley, Marion Tipton and Edith Dingle visited in Coeur d'Alene during the spring vacation.

On Wednesday of vacation week Alpha Kappa Epsilon entertained at a "Ye Olde Time Country Party." The front rooms were decorated with evergreen with lights of red and blue dropping out of clusters of fir. One room was arranged to represent a small town grocery store and post-office, the dancers drawing cider from the barrel and helping themselves to doughnuts and the cracker box of the grocery stock. A round of draw poker and delivery of accumulated mail were the features of the evening.

The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Vincent and Mrs. Horning, Misses Hankinson, Channel, Robbins, Pringle, Mildred Collins, Margaret Collins, Spielberg, Gardman, Rick, Paterka, Gleason, Rose, H. Thomas, Ellis, Shurtz, Ball, Chrisman, Faris and Sampson.

Eleanor Fletcher, Jean Kendall, Inez Callaway, Clara Jones, Julia Adelmann, Octavia Gowen, Elaine Wheeler, Nadine Sims, and Thora Jackson spent the vacation in Spokane.

Carolyn Logan visited at her home in Boise.

Paul Ellis and Bruce Johnson spent vacation week in Potlatch on business.

Georgia Oylear, Helen Cochran, Margaret Monroe and Irene McKay visited in Lewiston last week.

P. T. Rowell and R. R. Rowell passed the vacation week in Lewiston.

Lorene Tavey has returned from Blackfoot.

Helen Oakley and Lella Lyone spent their vacation in Spokane.

Royal Starr spent the week in Spokane, (and-erer-Colfax).

Henry King spent vacation week in Kellogg, visiting with his uncle, Mr. Handy, superintendent of the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mills.

Cecil Brockman, Charles Goranson, Paul Evans, and Charles Gray spent the week end in Spokane.

Gamma Phi Beta entertained at dinner Wednesday for Clyde Williams, Wayne Barclay, Chester Johnson, Fred Cline, Eas Johannesen, Rex Kimmell, Glenn Blackledge and Roland McNary.

Olive Merritt spent her vacation at her home in Edgemere.

Miss McDonell, province secretary of Delta Gamma, was a guest for the week-end.

Garde Wood departed Monday evening for Lewiston, where he will work in the interests of the Gem of the Mountains.

A Procession of 60,000 Men

You would be quickly convinced of the magnitude of the J. C. Penney Co. purchasing power if all the men who bought Suits from us for one year were to form a procession in this town. The number would be 60,000. Think of it! Doesn't it sound reasonable that buying for cash, that vast number of suits each year, we can do so at very lowest prices. Remember that saving is passed along to you proportionately on each suit you buy here.

To be well dressed is a man's pride and that pride can be gratified with a minimum outlay if you come to our store for your clothing.

In 1919 with 197 stores we sold 60,000 men's Suits. With 100 additional stores in 1920 we expect to sell nearly 100,000 men's Suits.

Remember too, we sell Shoes and women's and children's Ready-to-Wear apparel as well as Dry Goods, at exceedingly low prices. Obviously, this store should be your main source of supply for everything you wear because quality and economy are both here for you.

Why You'll Like This Store

You will find our sales force always eager to serve you. When they make a statement about the merchandise, you can know it is correct. We'll back every statement to the letter.

You'll find a spirit of courtesy here, and an ability to please your wishes.

You'll find

After you buy, if you find you haven't got just what you want—money cheerfully refunded.

Did you ever know that such as National fraternity had an active chapter at the U. of I.?

Well, Mister Athlete, such is the case, but so far all member are only honorary ones and no man as yet has qualified for full membership. Several men have qualified in many of the listed events, but as they must all be in one year, none as yet have gained the right to wear the key of the order.

To become a member the following feats are required for you to conquer:

Full Membership.	Junior Membership.
100-yard dash.....11 3-5 seconds	100-yard dash.....12 seconds
220 lows.....31 seconds	220 lows.....33 seconds
High jump.....5 feet	High jump.....4 feet 6 inches
Broad jump.....17 feet	Broad jump.....16 feet
Shot put.....30 feet	Shot put.....30 feet
Pole vault.....8 feet 6 inches	Pole vault.....7 feet 9 inches
Baseball throw (on fly).....250 feet	Baseball throw (on fly).....200 feet
Football punt (on fly).....120 feet	Football punt (on fly).....90 feet

ALL-CAMPUS BASKET BALL TEAMS

The mythical all-star teams of the intra mural league appears below as selected by the appointed critics namely, A. J. Priest and Charlie Grey.

The Teams.
First Team.	Second Team.
Whitcomb, Phi Deltas.....Forward	Walker, Barbs
Hughes, A. K. E.....Forward	Kerin, Phi Deltas
Graf, Sigma Nus.....Center	Wiebe, Barbs
Irving, Betas.....Guard	Cady, S. A. E.
Nagle, Sigma Nus.....Guard	S. Phillippi, A. K. E.

Scott and Wright of the Betas, Reynolds of the Kappa Sigs and others who played creditable basket ball in the several games they appeared in could not be considered because they have left college. Th first team picked might make even the varsity move at top speed. Whitcomb and Hughes possess the requisite speed and both shoot accurately. Graf is consistent, aggressive and better than a fair shot and Irving and Nagle would make a wonderful defensive pair. Any six forwards who would enjoy roughing it with Gus and Butch will please raise their right hands.

OREGON BASEBALL MEN PLAY PRACTICE GAMES

Evidently the "Web Footers" are giving us the horse laugh this time. As yet our baseball and track men haven't been on their stamping grounds while our Oregon neighbors seem to be swinging nicely into shape.

SOME COACHES

Fifty-eight coaches answered with applications the S. O. S. calls of Stanford for a new coach for the coming season.

The list includes some of the most prominent athletic coaches from the leading universities and colleges of the United States.

HIGH-SCHOOL MEET

Talk up the State Interscholastic meet, May 13 and 14, in your home letters.

Let's make it a big one this year and the way to do it is to get a large representation. Talk it up all the time and let the old high-school know that they are welcome.

No qualifications are required. Any school having a male student with athletic ability may enter a team.

Spring football practice has just closed at the University of Washington. Allison is reported to have drilled the men heavily on punts and field goals with the intention, it seems, of pulling more aerial plays in his next season's games.

CALIFORNIA 74, ILLINOIS 66

Thus read the dope sheet at the close of a dual meet at Berkeley last Saturday. California seemed strong in the field events while Illinois held down the line light jobs in the middle distances and dashes.

THE OPEN FORUM

To the Editor of the Argonaut:

The communication in the Open Forum of the last issue of the Argonaut touches upon a very important weakness in the athletic situation, and the writer, who signs himself "A Student," is to be commended for the courage with which he attacks the point. The article is unfortunate in that it uses as an example of an Idaho athlete's standard of training an exceptional case in which only one member of the squad was concerned, and, in the second place, that it is published after the season in which the incident occurred is over. Such a case should have been handled at the time.

On the whole the basket ball team this year trained more carefully than during the two preceding years, when the Northwest Championship was won, and probably better than any other Idaho athletic team has trained during that period. However, it is not the purpose of this short article to defend anyone or to argue about the past, but rather to look toward the future.

With the coming of Coach Thomas Kelly all Idahoans expect to see a new era for Idaho athletics. But Kelly, alone, cannot win games, and will not win them without unstinting support from the Idaho student body. Every possible obstacle should be cleared away and one of these is the matter of training so poignantly touched upon by "A Student."

The athlete who breaks training in mid-season does not deserve the letter given to him by his university, as a token of gratitude for honorable services. But he is not to be condemned more than the one who begins to loaf, or has to be pampered and babied, as soon as he has played the minimum amount of time or made the minimum number of points required for an "I". The latter class has been altogether too much in evidence during the last year.

At present the Athletic Board is supposed to award the "I" to men who are eligible because they have met certain minimum requirements called for by the By-Laws of the A. S. U. I., but this "awarding" usually consists of looking over the score-book to see that the required number of halves or innings have been played, with perhaps a little argument now and then when it is doubtful whether a man is three seconds short of a letter or over the mark. This system is a farce.

A letter should not be won until the final whistle of the last game. It should be specifically provided in the by-laws that the man who breaks training or who stops fighting before the season is over shall not receive an "I". No man should have a letter who has not received the recommendation of the coach made after the final game of the season.

Merchant, a weight man, was high point winner.

It was a noticable fact that in this meet between two schools that are listed as "big" the times and distances were in many events beaten and equalled by Idaho men last season.
