IDAHO PREPARES TO NAB HARVARD CLUB ROOTING PRIZE

ENTERPRISE WHOSE INITIATING WAS HINDERED LAST YEAR BY RAIN WILL BE STARTED AT TIME OF W. S. C. GAME ON IDAHO FIELD. PRIZE IS CUP.

PLANS ARE BEING MADE

WILL BE ANNOUNCED AT CAMPUS HOUR NEXT WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

REGULATIONS ARE ANNOUNCED

Rules Drawn Up By Committees From The Two Schools Last Year Hold This Fall.

That the University of Idaho should not only go out for, but should win the prize offered by the Harvard Club of Spokane for the best rooting at the annual game between W. S. C. and Idaho was the consensus of the expressed opinions of the leaders of both faculty and student body when approached on the subject by an Argonaut representative.

It will be remembered that last year preparations were made for entering the contest at the game to be played on the Pullman field. On account of a heavy rain, however, which prevented the majority of the Idaho rooters from reaching the scene of action, the contest was called off. The contest scheduled for October 15, therefore will be the initial one for this prize.

According to the conditions laid down by the Harvard Club, a school must win the cup three years in succession before the cup is the permanent property of that school.

Yell King, Stalker, who has the direction of the Idaho stunt in charge, announces that plans are being formulated, and will be announced at the first observance of Campus Hour tomorrow afternoon.

According to a communication received yesterday from David M. Hartz, president of the student body at Washington State College, the same rules governing the contest will hold this year that were drawn up by representative committees from the two schools last fall.

These rules, as they now stand, are:

SONGS.

Article I.

Judges to be selected by representatives of the students of the two schools in a joint meeting, each committee to select a list of 25 members, out of this double list 5 judges to be selected, 3 to act as judges and 2 as alternates.

Article II.

The contest is to start 45 minutes before the opening of the game, and the singing is to last 20 minutes. Each school in turn is to sing ten minutes; each school is to sing such music as it likes.

Article III.

The visiting school may have the preference of singing first. If it does not prefer to do so then the order of procedure should be determined by the song leaders.

CHEERING.

Article I.

The cheering is to begin twenty minutes before the game and to last until the end of the game.

Article II.

Cheering is to be judged by the general "pep" and the courteous attitude of each school.

STUNTS.

Article I.

The Stunt contest is to come off between halves; it is to take place on the football field (which should be divided in two parts for that purpose) and is not to last longer than twelve minutes.

AWARD OF PRIZE.

Article I.

As soon after the game as the judges can agree the prize should be awarded to the winning school which is to keep it for one year. The school winning it two times out of three may keep it permanently.

Points to Be Taken Into Consideration By The Judges.

Article I.

In making their award the judges shall take into consideration (1) the sportsmanship of the student bodies (2) the quality of the singing (3) the originality and cleverness of the stunt (4) the enthusiasm of the cheering.

SYMPHONY TICKETS

Tickets for the concert of the Minneapolis Symphony Orchestra may be obtained in the main hall of the Ad building beginning Tuesday noon at 1:00 o'clock. Prices are $1.00 and $1.50.

RAIN CRIMPS VARSITY HOPES

BAD WEATHER PREVENTS PROPER WORKOUTS OF ASPIRANTS TO FIRST SQUAD

DEVELOP NEW PUNTERS

Nagle and Evans Return To Campus Saturday—Will Fill Old Positions.

Although daily workouts of aspirants to the varsity squad are continuing in spite of bad weather, neither coach or players are optimistic of a successful outcome of the football game scheduled with W. S. C. for October 15, according to announcements issued from football headquarters Saturday.

Practices of the last several days have been featured by the merry embroglio between Ralph "Bunt" Breashears, varsity captain in 1919, and his younger brother Howard for the regular job at quarterback. "Bunt" has an edge in the matter of collegiate football experience, but Howard is decidedly the faster of the two. Each has directed the varsity capably both in scrimmage and in signal drill.

Coach Keley has been devoting considerable attention to the development of a punter. Neil Irving of Rupert, veteran halfback and Leroy Thompson of Moscow, a rangy candidate for one of the guard positions, are considered good possibilities. Each gets his kicks off quickly and each has been attaining quite substantial distance.

The tackling dummy continues to be abused consistently. Every man on the squad has been required to crash into the padded swinging figure a definite number of times each afternoon.

Following is the way in which a campus doper has the proposition sized up: Between rain, mud, and men not returning who should be back, Idaho's prospects for a winning football team grow slimmer every day. Altho this year's team is devoid of the usual injuries, lack of a suitable practicing field makes a fitting workout impossible.

Frosh Outplay Varsity. The first scrimmage was held the other night and the usual rain storm made McLaen field impossible, so the scrimmage was held on the campus. The frosh walk thru the varsity almost at will, much to the discouragement of the onlookers. In the short scrimmage it was almost impossible to pick out any possibilities for the varsity, altho some very creditable work was done both in the backfield and in the line.

When Coach Keley was approached about the practice he said, "Why do you come to me? Didn't see the practice, did you? If you saw the scrimmage that ought to speak for itself."

He was very much discouraged about the practice, but has not given up hoping that the rainy weather will give place to a few clear days in order that some heavier practice may be given to the men.

CAMPUS HOUR TO BE OBSERVED WEDNESDAY

ENTIRE STUDENT BODY MEETS AT "T" BENCH AT 4:00 O'CLOCK

BIG ATTENDANCE IS VITAL

Campus Hour Will Offer Only Chance To Rehearse for Harvard Contest

Wednesday, September 29, at 4:00 p. m. the entire student body will gather around the "T" bench in front of the Ad Building to begin the weekly observance of "Campus Hour." The custom will continue throughout the football season. The older students will remember "Campus Hour" as a period given over every Wednesday afternoon to the rehearsal of yells and the practicing of school songs.

"Being the only time that the entire student body is able to get together for such a purpose, the attendance at the weekly "Campus Hour" will in a large measure determine the success of our rooting during the coming year," said Yell King Stalker today. "Also," he continued, "if we are to work up an effective stunt for the Harvard Contest, it must be done at "Campus Hour." It is therefore of paramount importance that everyone be present."

Those who have the hour in charge announce that a band, and other noise makers, will be there to aid the vocal efforts of the assemblage.

The vigilance committee will be on hand to extend a warm welcome to any slackers.

ATTRACTIVE PROGRAM WEDNESDAY MORNING

Rev. Knepper, Of Spokane Will Speak At Second General Assembly—Other Attractions.

The second all-university assembly of the year will be held in the auditorium on Wednesday, September second, at 11:00 o'clock. Dean Francis Thomson, chairman of the committee on public events, reports that the program to be presented is one that will interest every serious student in the University.

Wednesday will see the first appearance of the men's glee club before the University this year. Prof. Bangs, director, has announced that the voices are in remarkably fine condition, and the ensemble singing very good, when it is considered that three months have elapsed since the boys last sang together.

The address of the morning will be delivered by Rev. George W. Knepper, of Spokane. He will talk on a theme of special interest to college students, it is said.

In speaking of Rev. Knepper, Dean Thomson said, "Rev. Knepper is one of the most powerful and convincing speakers in the northwest. He is thoroughly familiar with the problems and ideals of the college students, and knows how to put his ideas across in a way that is attractive to them. This, added to his most attractive personality, will make his address well worth listening to."

Wednesday morning Mrs. Florence Sharp, who came to the University this year as instructor of piano, will make her first appearance before the University as a whole. Mrs. Sharp is reputed to be a most talented concert player.

The presence of everyone is desired Wednesday morning.

ANOTHER FORMER IDAHO TEACHER COMMITS HERSELF

Elsie C. Ziese, Art Instructor here 18-19 and Clarence G. Miles, Assistant Professor of Law 17-19 were married the fifteenth of this month in Bellingham, Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Miles will make their future home in Bethany, Nebraska.

HARRISON C. DALE TO HEAD ECONOMICS DEPT.

VALUABLE MAN SECURED FROM UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING LAW DEPARTMENT

ENDORSED BY DEAN HULME

Considered One of Significant Figures On Wyoming Faculty—Will Report Oct. 6.

Harrison C. Dale, professor of political science and director of the law school at the University of Wyoming, has been appointed head of the University of Idaho department of commerce and economics to succeed Prof. Howard T. Lewis, according to an announcement made by the authority of Commissioner F. A. Bryan.

Professor Dale did most of the work for his advanced degree at Harvard, where he studied under Prof. Frederick Turner, who is considered the nation's greatest authority on the influence of the west in American history. Hulme Endorses Dale.

"Professor Dale is a man of most attractive personality," today declared Dean E. M. Hulme of the university college of letters and science, who has known the new appointee for many years. "He has to an unusual degree the happy faculty of maintaining fine standards of scholarship and at the same time winning and keeping the support of his students."

"I knew him first at the Utah Agricultural College, where he inaugurated and carried on very successfully the extension work of that institution. From Logan he went to Washington University at St. Louis and then to the University of Wyoming, where he has served for the past several years."

"Professor Dale has made himself one of the significant figures on the Wyoming faculty, having demonstrated his ability as an instructor, public and administrator. When the Wyoming law school was organized two years ago he was at once made its director."

"At present time he is on a year's leave of absence from the university, his services having been obtained by Governor Carey, for whom he is preparing a report on the state's financial situation which will embody proposals for changing the state's system of taxation. He has proven so valuable that the governor wired asking that he be allowed to keep Professor Dale until the end of November, saying that his services were almost indispensable, but the university was unable to grant the request because of our own pressing need."

Professor Dale is expected to report in Moscow about October 6.

WEAVER WILL EDIT COMING YEAR BOOK

Is Elected to Fill Vacancy Caused By Non-return of Editor.

Elect Jackson.

Oscar R. Weaver was elected to the position of editor of the "Gem of the Mountains," the annual publication of the Junior class, at a meeting of that class held late in the week.

Weaver was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Maurice Johnson, of Spokane, who was not able to return to school this year. Jackson was elected before the adjournment of school last spring.

Although declining to make any definite announcements for publication, those in charge of the issuing of the annual have made it known that plans are rapidly being formulated, and that it is their intention to make the year book for this term the best that the school has yet seen.

It is reported that a new system of financing the project is under consideration, which, if adopted, will approximately double the available moneys for the publication of the volume.

Weaver expects to make announcements soon of the appointments to the subordinate positions on the "Gem" staff.

FROSH TANGLE HERE SATURDAY

FIRST GRIDIRON BATTLE ON HOME FIELD TO BE WITH NORTH CENTRAL

FROSH SHOW UP VARSITY

Coach McMillan Deplores Lack of Interest on Part of First Year Huskies In Frosh Football.

Punk! The old familiar song of the pig skin will resound next week at McLaen Field when the Freshman gridiron warriors do combat with the North Central High School of Spokane on Saturday, October 2. The "Frosh" squad has an advantage of two weeks practice on the visiting team, as N. C. H. S. has had a bare week of workout.

With approximately 30 men out each night the squad is fast rounding into the "pink of condition," and Saturday should see the team "rarin' to go." Some very promising talent has shown up in the last week, most noticeable of whom is Coby at end, who shows lots of speed and fight. Another is Mohler, who is fast learning the rudiments which a tackler must know. Kinnison, with his trusty right boot, is still showing up well as a punter.

The squad has dropped off considerably in the past week and Coach McMillan's crying need is more of the husky men whom he has noticed on the campus.

"Probably the first year men do not realize the importance of Freshman football," stated McMillan Saturday. "If they stopped and considered that everything must have a base from which it may grow they would realize that football in the first year is the nucleus from which Varsity football gets its growth. A man who has played Freshman football has three chances to one for making the Varsity team in his Sophomore year compared to the man who neglected football in his first year. He becomes acquainted with the style of play, his ability is shown in the preceding year, and he is better fitted to play as he has a one year's jump on the fellow who thought it too much bother or just didn't have enough of the old spirit of Idaho to get out and at least try."

THRILLING FICTION

She sat by the open fire, she did, pursuing with a sublime countenance the closely packed lines of a letter, which she had enclosed in the pages of a novel. An interested sister approached, and this is the conversation that ensued:

"Have you been reading any good fiction lately, Gladys?" Gladys raised her head languorously, and with a voice that trembled with rapture, replied, "Yes, I just received a most wonderful letter from Fred."

MCMULLAIN VISITS CAMPUS

George T. McMullain was a campus visitor Friday. Mr. McMullain was formerly a student in forestry. He has a little work to make up and stated that he would probably complete his requirements for a degree shortly.

FORESTERS HOLD MEETING

The first meeting of the Associated Foresters was held Monday. An excellent program is in prospect for the year with many splendid speakers from alumni, lumbermen and foresters.

STUDENT DEPREDACTIONS.

The City of Moscow reports that during the Freshman-Sophomore riot every available nozzle was taken from the hose houses of the town, and other depredations committed that would have seriously endangered the business section of the town, should any fire have broken out.

It is probable that as long as there are Freshmen and Sophomores in the same school there will be rough and tumble, catch-'em-and-duck-'em scraps between the two classes. The Argonaut firmly believes that all the civilized contests that may be thought up will not serve entirely to do away with the nocturnal combats.

However, the Argonaut even more firmly believes that the midnight forays can and must be carried on without accompanying acts that endanger the lives and property of others.

Whosoever took the nozzles, of course did not realize the seriousness of the act at the time they were doing it. They did not think that removing the water squirters would do more harm than hinder the party of the opposition in their ablutional activities.

And that is the reason that there is so much opposition to unsupervised fighting between the two lower classes—the combatants do not stop to think before they act. A college man is supposed to be a thinking man, but woefully numerous are the acts perpetrated by him that point to the contrary.

It is only through the kindness and influence of a prominent University official that serious consequences did not result from the actions of the past week. The underclassmen should take this as a timely warning and see to it that as far as it is in their power an end is put to such things.

In this connection it might be appropriate to say that in building the bonfire for the Pullman rally the Freshmen should see that nothing is destroyed that has not been previously arranged for. The Sophomore class is still heavily in debt because of the promiscuous seeing of inflammables to feed the big blaze of last year.

Talk about your dances. Why the Economics Club dance will be JAZZ from start to finish. Informal parties are our speciality.

ROOK CADETS SHOW INTEREST

Colonel Christman Announces Appointment of Cadet Officers For Year.

Showing unusual interest and desire to learn the new students in the cadet battalion have already completed quite satisfactorily the work in the school of the soldier and squad, which comprises the rudiments of Infantry drill. The cadets will be formed in companies this week and drill carried on under the company officers.

Appoint Cadet Officers.
The following reappointments and appointments have been made in the Battalion of Cadets:

Cadet Captains:
Leon Perrine
Edwin D. Peterson
Alfred A. Kinney
Carl A. Burk
Thurlyn
Cadet First Lieutenants:
Paul T. Rowell
Abe Goff
Herbert W. Thompson
Cadet Second Lieutenants:
G. J. Gill
J. S. Gill
Sigurd L. Sampson

The general plan for officering the battalion has been worked out according to classes. The Captains have been selected from the seniors, the lieutenants from the juniors and the non-commissioned officers will be selected from the sophomores. This leaves the Freshmen a choice between the rear and front rank for the dough-boys of the battalion.

ANNOUNCE NEW METHOD OF ARGONAUT DISTRIBUTION

Papers For All Nonfraternity Students Will Be Named And Filed In Ad Building.

Beginning Tuesday, October 4, the following method of distribution of the Argonaut will be followed:

Papers for all students living in the various chapter homes and dormitories on the campus will be delivered to the houses, as heretofore. Papers for all other students will be filed alphabetically in boxes in the administration building. Each student's name will be on his paper. Students are requested to take the paper with their names on them, and no others.

"We are forced to do this," said manager Hoster this morning, "because of the practice on the part of many of those who had papers delivered to them in their home of taking the papers left in the ad building for the non-fraternity students. It will be readily seen that this not only deprives many students of their paper, but causes unnecessary expense by making it necessary to print extra copies."

"PREX", LINDLEY IS RHODES SCHOLAR

Is Elected To 1920 Scholarship—Will Sail For England Next January.

Earnest K. Lindley, '20, son of Dr. E. H. Lindley, former president of the University of Idaho, has won the Rhodes Scholarship from Idaho for the year 1920, according to a dispatch received from Professor Frank Aydelotte, American secretary to the committee of selection.

On account of the postponement of appointments to the scholarships during the war, two were appointed in Idaho this fall. Edwin D. Ford, Junior, of Weiser, was elected to the scholarship for 1921.

"Prex," as Mr. Lindley was familiarly known to the student body during the three years that he attended the University of Idaho, will take up his residence at Oxford in January of 1921. Ford will follow in October of the same year.

While attending the University, Lindley was active in all branches of student activities. He was for two years editor of the University Argonaut. For three years he was one of the stellar performers on the varsity basketball squad. He was also interested in dramatics and debate. In the spring of 1920 he graduated with the highest honors in his class.

It happens every day—two women go shopping, each to buy a pair of shoes. One pays $8, and simles at her neighbor, who buys in another store and pays $16.

But the $16 shoes—they look almost new today, and are still worn for best. They have held their shape and given their wearer the service that was built into them. That's why they cost $16. But weren't they worth it—in style, in wear, in shoe satisfaction?
The most expensive shoe in all the world are the kind—like the $8 pair—that are not worn but are cast aside because they did not satisfy.
The kind of shoes thot satisfy are the kind that have built this store's reputation—

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Rushing is fast becoming ancient history and campus society is now centered upon hops, receptions and Sunday calling dates. Smiles do not seem to lose their perpetuity on the physiognomies of the pretty co-eds as the result of four strenuous hours of "How do you dos," "Nice weather," "How do you like school," and other typical phrases of conversation that go hand-in-hand with the traditional fraternity and sorority Sunday afternoon get-togethers.

Dancing took up the two evenings of the past week-end. Abbreviated frocks and elongated locks were much in evidence at the co-ed prom, we are told by the male porch-climbers who braved wind and rain to witness the affair.

On Saturday evening the Bury-the-Hatchet and upperclassmen parties were much fun and anyone present will no longer question the fact that our student body is increased to some extent this fall.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN SHOW GOOD PHYSICAL CONDITION

During the past week Miss Watson has been carrying on physical examinations for the fresh co-eds and a high average has been made. The girls are said to show unusual ability and strength, with very few exceptions, while the principle weakness is bad posture.

Fully half of the Freshman girls have been examined and most of these signify their intention of taking up women's sports.

The outlook is bright for a snappy athletic season altho at present there is no available field for outdoor sports. Miss Watson expects to organize the gym classes into Hockey teams as soon as the weather will permit. Practice will be held on the football field.

Without any rain we might have a chance so lets pray for a bone dry spell. If everybody gets out to watch practice and give the boys some encouragement there is no reason why we shouldn't give Pullman the raspberry this year. But for the luv o Mike lay off the juice.

SOPHS RAZZ FROSH IN HULME FIGHT

Large Crowd Witnesses Underclassmen Contest Held Saturday Afternoon.

Saturday, October 25th, was an eventful day on the campus, which was the stage for the annual "Frosh" and Sophomore fight, consisting of a lightweight and middleweight wrestling match, a tug of war, "carry a man" relay and the Hulme fight.

The wrestling matches were fast and snappy. Sherman, freshman, lost to Phillippi in the fast time of 45 seconds. The match between Musser, freshman, and Blodgett was more spirited as the men battled two minutes and 25 seconds, but finally Blodgett succumbed to the wily frosh. Cheers from the freshmen of "get that soph by the mustache" probably helped Musser gain his fall.

The next event was the Hulme fight, which the sops won by a score of three to two. With fifteen men on a side, a goal approximately 20 yards in the rear of each team, the object of the contest was to see how many of their opponents each side could carry across their goal, each man counting one point, and the only thing barred was the strangle hold. Doleful looking men each was when the contest was over, with bruised faces and torn clothing. Some fellows were dragged the entire length of the field by their feet with their arms wildly waving trying to catch hold on a measly blade of grass.

The frosh proved too speedy for the sophomores in the relay which consisted of carrying a man the length of the specified track, about twenty yards in length, running back to be carried back himself. The freshmen defeated their opponents by 10 yards. It was announced that the first year men were in the lead by a score of 22 to 13, with the tug of war left as the event to prove the supremacy of

Evans and Nagle Back.

Saturday afternoon saw the return of "Butch" Nagle to the campus, which brings slight cheer to the football hopes. Butch played guard last year and performed very creditably. He is fast and has the necessary weight. Grove Evans returned Saturday night which also serves to strengthen the line. Grove has held his own on end either class.

Three hundred people witnessing the final event made good setting for the settling of the argument for another year. A space of five feet between the first men on the rope gave minimum room for the firehose that played across it. With Kenneth Hunter to play the stream on the unlucky contestants the rope was tightened and in about 30 seconds the frosh began their perilous journey to their cold afternoon shower. Soon the first frosh had his initial taste of the shower and he was pushed back three feet by the terrific pressure of the water, he then took a safer position at the end of the line. Within a few more seconds each first year man took his ducking. Fireman Hunter directed the water upon the last unlucky victims and had not the water been shut off, they would have received the wetting worse. When the final whistle had blown the sophomores were in the lead by a score of 23 to 22.

GERALD GILL IS NEW JUNIOR PREXY

Simons, Rose and Phillippi Also Hold Executive Positions in Same Class

Gerald Gill, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota, was elected president of the Junior Class at a meeting of that body held for the purpose of the election of officers late last week. Gill will serve during the remainder of the present semester.

At the same session Harold Simons, of Cottonwood, was chosen vice president, Ernestine Rose of Salmon, secretary, and Stanley Phillippi, of Boise treasurer.

Steps were also taken at the same meeting toward the arranging of a date for the Junior Prom, the big formal ball given annually by the Junior class. An announcement of the date obtained will be made in the near future.

Let's be rearin' at the Economics Club dance. It's goin' to be some JAZZ function.
