IDAHO HOLDS W. S. C. COUGARS TO LOW SCORE IN BIG GAME

COACH KELLEY'S TEAM PUTS UP GAME FIGHT BUT IS FINALLY BEATEN BY SEVEN POINT MARGIN IN ANNUAL GRIDIRON CONTEST BETWEEN UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO AND RIVALS.

IDAHO STILL FIGHTS

LOCAL TEAM ONLY OVERCOME BY SUPERIOR WEIGHT AND GREAT EXPERIENCE.

CONTEST IS BEST IN YEARS

Said by Old Timers To Be Best Scrap Ever Staged On McClean Field.

Idaho still fights and fights hard. This was proven when Idaho held W. S. C. to a 14 to 7 score last Friday in what was said to be the finest football game ever staged between those two schools. Our rivals presented a stronger lineup, but Idaho with a fighting team and good support from the stands, showed the Cougars that Idaho still lives.

Coach Kelley had nothing to say after the game except that he was satisfied with the spirit and fight the fellows displayed.

Referee Varnell, who is said to be the ablest authority on sports in the West, stated that this team was the best he had ever known Idaho to have.

Idaho's lone touchdown came within three minutes of play, when Sax the midget quarterback of W. S. C., attempted to hurl a forward pass which Breshears broke up, the ball flying high into the air. Jimmy Neal caught the ball and sprinted for the goal line with a guard of three Idaho men around him.

W. S. C. Wins Toss.

W. S. C. won the toss and chose to defend the south goal, with Idaho kicking off. The kickoff at 3:18 p. m. was performed by Irving who boosted the pigskin to the ten yard line, Sax, W. S. C. quarter back, catching it and returning the ball 25 yards. Line bucks by Morgan and Gillis netted nine yards. Sax, trying to circle right end, slipped in the mud and was downed after net gain of only four yards. On the next play W. S. C. was offside and they were penalized five yards.

Neal Score.

Sax next attempted to forward pass, but agile Huck Breshears went thru the opposing line and blocked it, the ball flying high into the air. Jimmy Neal saw his opportunity, caught the ball and raced for Idaho's lone touchdown through a field of men trying to stop him. Irving kicked goal and the score was 7 to 0 in Idaho's favor. H. Hanley kicked off for the Cougars for 32 yards. Perrine recovered it and carried it a distance of five yards. Irving again boosted the ball for fifty five yards, of which Sax returned five.

The next play the ball remained stationary as both teams were offside. Sax made six yards around right end and Gillis made four yards giving W. S. C. first downs. Sax again tried right guard but this time was only able to get two yards. Gillis tried the line and made three yards there. An attempted pass failed and Huck Breshears was on him before he could raise the pill into the air. Moran attempted a punt which Babe Brown rushed and recovered on the 40 yard line.

Idaho Penalized.

Babe Brown started the fireworks for Idaho by going around end for three yards, Idaho was penalized fifteen yards for holding. Breshears made two yards through the line and once again Brown made two yards through the line. Irving was forced to punt again, getting fifty yards on this kick.

Gillis Gains. Gillis found a hole through center and gained four yards. Sax went around left end for four yards, and Davis squirmed through right guard for two yards. On this play Idaho was offside and suffered a penalty of five yards, giving W. S. C. her first

PAJAMA PARADERS SHOOK CITY STREETS

Half Mile Of Peppful Stades Occupy Main Dreg, Burn Big Fire, And Dance At Egans.

Passionate pajamas, blaring horns, exposed B. V. D.'s, and great gobs of enthusiasm were the outstanding features of the annual pajama parade and bonfire, held each year on the eve of the W. S. C. football game, which took over the city of Moscow for a period of several hours last Thursday night. It was estimated that 900 students participated in the demonstrations.

Gathering at the campus steps, the nocturnally garbed he-studes commenced to assemble shortly after 7:00 o'clock. Singly, and in groups, in miniature serpentine and in waiting quartettes, the numbers of the peppful crowd were increased, until by 7:30 the male members of the student body present at the rendezvous, completely pajamed, numbered in the neighborhood of 400.

With the band blaring out the tune "Oh Let Us Sing of Idaho," the crew got into sinuous motions toward the business section. Lock step in single file was the formation, and "Idaho Fights" the favorite chant.

Reaching Main street, a crowd of towns folk were found awaiting the scene. The formation was changed to pairs, and the lock step mode of progression varied by forming in pairs and skipping from one side of the street to the other.

At the corner of Fourth the co-eds, who had been prosecuting their annual raid of the fraternity houses, met the male delegation, increasing the length of the single line to over a half mile, and straightway the line proceeded to wind itself around the traffic guide at the corner, with the band in the center, and blast the neighboring window with a thunderous succession of yells and songs.

Proceeding to the next corner, another halt was called, and the riotous

A. E. F. CLUB PLANS ACTIVE YEAR

At First Meeting Hunt Is Elected President. Plan Memorial Assembly.

Election of officers for the coming year, and the formulating of plans for activities during the remaining months of school which include memorial services to be held on armistice day, a banquet, a dance, and a picnic, occupied the time at the first meeting of the A. E. F. Club, held in Morrill Hall Wednesday evening.

The memorial assembly will be held in connection with the University on the morning of November 11. Speakers and a definite program will be announced later. The club announces that a popular speaker will be secured.

On the evening of armistice day, at six o'clock, in guild hall, a banquet for A. E. F. men in attendance at the University will be held. The annual armistice day dance will take place in the gymnasium on the evening of November eleventh at 8:00 o'clock, being under the joint auspices of the Veteran's Vocational Club and the A. E. F. Club.

Hunt Elected President.

Officers elected at the meeting were: E. E. Hunt, president; Greek Wells, vice president; "Bones" Jennings, secretary; and Keith Horning, treasurer.

Prof. Chenoweth, who saw service overseas as chaplain, was elected honorary member and faculty advisor.

Why Jackie!

Speaking of homecoming, you should have heard Jack Richmond trying his damndest to get the girls to let them run a Homecoming Tea after the big game.

"Only instead of tea," said Jack, "Let's have cider and make it hard."

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained at dinner Saturday evening for Mrs. Sweeney, Joe Sweeney and Mr. and Mrs. Hunt of St. Marie's, Idaho, who motored to Moscow to see the game Friday.

WING ON ADD BUILDING NEARS COMPECTION

Will Be Occupied Within Ten Days According to Information Received By Faculty.

The south wing of the administration building, on which work was commenced some two years ago, is rapidly nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.

When interviewed Monday evening, Mr. Parson's, executive secretary, stated that the finishing touches to the building were now being added. The plasterers have finished their work and the carpenters are placing the wood work. It is expected that the wing will be occupied within ten days.

Library equipment, consisting of a large number of steel stacks will not be obtainable until July first, owing to the shortage of all steel products. The contract for the supplying of these racks has been let at a figure totaling twenty thousand dollars. The new racks will displace the present equipment. The entire library will be fully equipped by the beginning of the next Fall term of school.

Definite arrangements for the distribution of space in the new wing have not as yet been decided. It is generally understood, however, that the third floor will be utilized by the department of botany and school of education.

The second floor will probably be temporarily occupied by the English department. This floor contains a number of modern offices and two large class rooms, one of which is extra large and will seat two hundred students.

The first floor, which will eventually house the library, will be utilized for the present by various classes.

It is the plan of the committee in charge of assignment of class rooms and offices to devote some of the space now occupied by the library, to the law school, and this change will be made as soon as the library can be moved to the new quarters.

CADET BAND SHOWS STEADY IMPROVEMENT

Scarcity of Men In Reed Section Worrys Director. Too Many In the Bass Section.

It is said that the Cadet military band at the present time gives promise of being a better band in many respects than any of the organizations for several years; while at the same time several glaring defects are coming to light which will keep the band from being as well balanced as it should be.

Thirty nine men are reporting regularly for practice and have, so far, spent all their time on the easy rhythm of marches. The greatest handicap with which director Berndt Nielson has had to contend is the lack of reed instruments. So far, but two clarinets and two saxophones have been uncovered, which leaves a noticeable vacancy in the harmony.

In decided contrast to the situation in the reed section is the unusual strength shown in the bass and alto quarters, which have, hitherto, been the most difficult places to fill in amateur bands. A goodly number of baritones are in evidence and will round out last year's deficiency in that section. Cornets and snare drums still continue in popularity and the problem of disposing of the small army of the latter still remains unsolved.

"If the men will continue to turn out and work, there is no reason why we should not have a good brass band this year," said director Cornelison. "A larger clarinet section would greatly improve the band, but the general situation is good."

Sigma Alpha Epsilon entertained with an informal house dance Saturday night. The guest were: Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Wodsdalek, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gray, Misses Swanson, Morgan, Patch, Hoyt, Kendrick, Myer, Brown, Stroebel, Lang, Byrns, Wheeler, McGee, DuBois, Christen, Bethel Collins, Rose, Cooper, Penwell, Fricke and Johnston.

FROSH GRIDSTERS LICK LEWISTON

Yearlings Annex Heavy End of 18-0 Score In Initial Battle Friday.

As a curtain raiser for the W. S. C.-Idaho game the Frosh administered an eighteen to zero defeat to the Lewiston High School. Straight football was used throughout the game and resulted for all the scores except one, when Wicks recovering a punt, sprinted to the goal line sixty yards away.

The game opened at 2:15, with Kinneson kicking off for the freshmen booting the ball fifty yards. The Idaho first year men finally got the ball and they proceeded to take it down the field, Kinneson being responsible for the greater portion of the yardage. Bucklin carried the ball over the line with a line buck eight minutes after the start of the game. Kelly the midget end of the Lewiston team made a very beautiful twenty yard run on a pass. After seasawing back and forth with honors even the quarter ended with the ball in Lewiston's possession.

Kinneson again kicked off and this time he sent the ball over the goal, the ball being returned to the twenty yard line. Kinneson and Wicks made first downs and the freshman were held, Kinneson punting forty five yards out of danger.

On a few fake plays Nelson carried the ball for considerable yardage each time. With the ball on the four yard line, Kinneson with a line buck through center sent the ball over making the score twelve to nothing in favor of the freshman as neither time was Kinneson able to place the ball between the uprights when trying for the extra point. Kinneson kicked off getting good yardage and the half ended.

Lewiston seemed to get more life in the second half as Seaborg, the plunging fullback kept pecking holes through the line getting good yardage every time. Cash was forced to punt, doing it as though the game depended on that single kick as he sent the ball spiralling fully fifty five yards. Kinneson made two eight yard gains and following a few plays he was forced to punt. Lewiston, unable to pierce the freshman line punted back, the ball landing in the arms of Wicks on the forty yard line, who ran the remaining sixty yards for the final touchdown. Kinneson again failed to kick goal.

The final few minutes both teams let with a barrage of forward passes, neither team gaining any yardage from them, although each side intercepted one. The game ended with the ball in the possession of Lewiston with the score 18 to 0 against them.

The lineup was as follows:

IDAHO STUNT SPECTACULAR

Clever Effect Worked Out On Bleachers With Gold and Silver Cards. Song Pleases.

Winning in two points, tying in one, and losing one point to W. S. C., the Harvard Club prize, presented to the school showing superior sportsmanship and entertainment at the W. S. C.-Idaho game, was awarded by the judges of the contest to the University of Idaho after what was universally accepted to be the finest season of rooting by the supporters of both teams that the Idaho bleachers have seen.

The contest, which extends the entire period of the game, opened with the arrival of the W. S. C. special at 2:20. Idaho was seated in the section reserved in the bleachers for Idaho rooters when the main W. S. C. crowd arrived. The south half of the bleachers, which had been reserved as much as possible for the Washington supporters, was soon filled, and the legions from over the line overflowed onto the bank adjacent.

The time preceding the game was filled with cheering and singing by both schools. As the teams filed onto the field, the clamor became uproars. "Never before have I seen such enthusiasm," was the exclamation of one person who has seen every W. S. C.-Idaho game for the past six years.

The rooting throughout the game was continuous, well organized, and forceful. Both schools showed remarkable discipline and courtesy in their rooting section. At no time was either section completely silent.

The main interest in the contest centered around the stunts given by each school between halves. The visiting school acted first. Bearing their heads, the entire W. S. C. section reverently sang their school anthem. Immediately following, a W. S. C. pennant was raised on a staff erected for that purpose. Under this the "Cougar" mascot, mounted in state in a motor truck, and surrounded by its uniformed guards, was paraded, while a chorus of men, garbed as Indians, sang "Fight, Cougar, Fight," the entire W. S. C. delegation joining in the chorus.

The Idaho stunt was carried on entirely in the bleachers. Before the game, the women of the student body had been seated in the center of the Idaho section in the form of a gigantic "I". The men filled in around them. Each one in the section was provided with a card measuring 18 by 24 inches, on one side, and silver on the other. At a command from the yell king, the women seated in the "I" turned the silver side of their cards outward, holding them vertically under their chins. The men raised their cards with the gold side to the field, thus giving the effect of a great silver "I" with a gold border. At a second command, the cards disappeared, to reappear at a third command to form a gold "I" with a silver border. The change was made several times, while a movie camera filmed the effect.

Following the "I" stunt, the rows on the bleachers turned their cards to alternate gold and silver. While the section, led by the band, sang "Cheer for Old Idaho," the different colored cards were waived in opposite directions in time with the music. The effect of the scheme from the opposite side of the field was said to be most impressive.

As a prize, a handsome gold and mohogany shield was presented to the school. The trophy is now in the engraver's hands, and will soon be on display in the trophy case.

"THE DOPE"

The Argonaut is in the receipt of Vol. I No. 1 of "The Dope," a more or less Bolshevistic output of a few individuals of W. S. C. We were informed Friday by some of the "dope slingers" that this sheet was designed to carry an impartial news story of the game as quickly as possible to all the members of the two schools.

As an impartial sheet, this paper is strictly in keeping with the most partisan political papers of the day, which gleefully call Harding, Cox, Wilson and Coolidge, muck-rakers, calamity howlers, autocrats, and blots on civilization. We would suggest that the editors of the aforesaid sheet apply to some political manager for the official position of chief mud slinger.

Quoting verbatim from "The Dope" we have this interesting bit of libel on the quality and sterling character of our local business men: "No programs were printed. Evidently the Moscow merchants don't back up the student enterprises with advertising as well as the Pullman merchants. Let's spend our money at home." In regard to this the Argonaut will state that the people of Moscow have given the most sterling and substantial support to Idaho football this year that has ever been given to any football team anywhere. Indeed, if it had not been for their wonderful assistance in the last Spring, it is doubtful if Idaho would have sent a team onto the gridiron this fall.

Lack of space makes it impossible to point out all the rare compliments handed to Idaho by this "impartial" sheet. But one feature is so glaring that we are compelled to give it mention. After giving Gus Welch and Doc Bohler, W. S. C. coaches, prominent writeups, we find that the editor of the "impartial" rag placing under the cut of Coach Kelley the following caption: "Coach Kelley, imported by Idaho for the sole purpose of beating W. S. C. He learned the game at the U. of Illinois." Such fairness and impartiality in the columns of a rival college's man's paper, fills us to overflowing with gratitude.

That any W. S. C. student should flatter himself to the point of believing that Idaho would import a coach for the sole purpose of beating her is astonishing. And in the event that such was the case, an ordinary sense of tact should compel one to keep to himself any such conceited ideas. Idaho did not "import" Kelley for the sole purpose of beating W. S. C. or any other school. Idaho brought Kelley from the East to put out a football team. The Argonaut leaves it to any fair minded student of W. S. C. to deny the fact that Kelley did put out a real team, and rests assured that no such denial will be forthcoming. The only reason that Kelley's eleven was beaten Friday was because opposing it was a better, more experienced machine. In directing any jibes at Coach Kelley, our tactless friend has struck one of Idaho's tender spots. The Argonaut wishes to let the world know that every student and teacher of this university resents it, and resents it most keenly. Let it be understood, however, that this article does not impugn the motives of the student body, or student policy of W. S. C. "The Dope" was simply an advertising, money making scheme, put out by a few narrow minded individuals of the college.

HUN TACTICS DISAPPEARING

The old, grizzled, veteran students, who have been riding the trails of the University Campus for the last four or five or six years, are impressed by the change in student attitude since the good old days.

In the dim, hazy past, a game with Pullman was considered a fizzle, no matter what the score, unless no less than a dozen students and spectators were laid out with broken heads, black eyes and other more or less important injuries to the person. First fights, in which as many as several hundred commingled, with often disastrous results, were quite the proper thing. It was thought to be a matter of good school spirit to lay out as many rooters as possible and carry back to your rooms, half a dozen of the festive head pieces, known as rooster caps.

The old order has passed, and with it comes a new attitude, the attitude of gentlemen, and a spirit that is infinitely better than the old. There has been no lessening of spirit and rivalry. We still feel the old yearning "to win or drop, trying, our danger still rises when we think of a tangle with the aggregation from over the line. But with that feeling, there is the new spirit of courtesy and mutual respect, equally present in both schools, that marks a new era in collegiate life, the era of clean, clear cut rivalry. And to the few old timers her who have lived through both periods, the new attitude is mar more effective, far more pleasing and certainly more becoming to people dignified with the name of college men and women.

"GET INTO LINE"

The last week made a complete devastation of the many resolutions we had made relative to consistent effort along scholastic lines. The student who could devote himself to study and other prosa requirements of school life while yell rallies, parades, fires, THE GREAT GAME, the athletic ball and the aftermath of fire-side discussion are things of present, vital interest, would be too saintly for long sojourn at Idaho.

But the game, and its incident activities and excitement are past. We have had two days for recuperation of mind and body. From now on till Christmas, the greatest event in the average student's life should be his school work. That should occupy the spot light, and be accorded the stellar role. Let's play the part hard.

STUDENT SPIRIT

The students of Idaho are to be complimented upon their sportsman-like attitude at the Pullman game. The W. S. C. Dope Sheet to the contrary, notwithstanding, Idaho's rooters showed a wonderful spirit of courtesy and respect to the Pullman players and rooters throughout the entire game.

And this attitude was not manifested at the game alone, but all through

AVOID THAT COLD We mend the Rips And patch the Holes Build up the Heels And save your Soles MOSCOW SHOE REPAIRING SHOP Opposite postoffice on 3rd St. Work guaranteed the past week. During the yell rallies and pep meetings, there has been an unusually good attendance, and a remarkable showing of co-operation and discipline, the results of which were shown by the outcome of the Harvard contest. Idaho's yelling and singing carried a remarkable snap and clearness, which had a great deal to do with the winning of the contest.

"SHAVINGS" By Keen Kutter

We offer a good big bet at odds of two to one that if the co-eds had to buy cigars when they announce their engagement, that the number of the aforesaid affairs made known to the tudent world would show a high rate of mortality.

Say, did you ever try to get an interview with the executive secretary, or the dean of the faculty, when you were in a hurry to get dope for a story for the Argonaut?

A co-ed at Pullman who had long been in the habit of using the First Savings Bank as a depository for her spare change was robbed on the street last Saturday. We always did say that all bank should be under a competent inspector.

On of the features of home coming week on the Campus is the grand rush of the local merchants to collect overdue accounts from the returning students.

Dusty Miller, exponent of Beau Brummel garb for students and authority on Who's Who and What, was treated to a free shave in the Law School parlors last week. Believing that Duty's soap strainer did not harmonize with his green sky-piece, a committee of forty men waited on him and removed the verdent turf from his main kisser.

One of the outstanding features of the Athletic Scrimmage in the gym Friday evening were the numerous party dresses of the co-eds, which were patterned after the garments worn by our grandmothers: fashioned with high necks and full sleeves. We did see one such garment, however.

The hay heavers from over the line are not taking any chances on their last remaining predatory animal of the species Cougar. Once upon a time they had two of them, but one became lonesome and strayed over to Idaho in the dark of the moon one night, and has never returned. The remaining pussy looks forlorn and lonely but due to one hundred feet of halter chain, it is probably destined to spend the rest of its days in captivity.

Under the new regime, obtaining a date for a house party is more difficult than it was to obtain a passport into Germany during the war.

Revenue officers are reported to be operating in the vicinity of the Campus. It is rumored that the Kappa Sigs purchased a cake of yeast last Monday, without first making affidavit as to its intended use. Also at the Phi Delt house government officials found several caps from Bevo bottles, and it is said that this remarkable find has occasioned the greatest excitement in Washington, D. C.

It was also reported that several students of the University were alleged to have been seen in a condition last Saturday which would indicate that they had smelled once too often of a pop bottle. Students are

HIGH SCHOOL GAME DRAWS LARGE UNIVERSITY CROWD Lewis and Clark-Moscow High Schools Entertain Varsity Fans With Brilliant Football

A large number of university students witnessed the Moscow-Lewis and Clark high school football game at the fair grounds Saturday, in which the Spokane aggregation carried home the pork with the odds standing 20 to 7 after a fast, hard battle.

For a high school contest, the game was especially brilliant and fast. Stivers, of Moscow, was easily the star of the fray and electrified the crowd with his charging through the line.

Although Lewis and Clark was much the heavier team, Moscow was the aggressor for the greater part of the game and the latter team won the approbation of the fans by their game-ness and hard fighting.

Lewis and Clark walked away with the heavy end of a twenty to seven

Governor D. W. Davis Visits University

Expresses Sincere Admiration of the Consistent Growth of the School.

Governor D. W. Davis, who was in the city last week, visited the University to inspect a portion of the institution. Governor Davis takes an active interest in the University and stated that he feels highly pleased with the progress made by the school in the last two years which have elapsed since his last visit here.

There has been considerable discussion among the faculty lately relative to the possibility of faculty salary warrants being discounted by the local banks, due to shortage of funds in the state treasury at the present time. In an interview with an Argonaut representative upon this subject Gov. Davis made the following statement:

"State warrants are now being registered as has been customary during the last two or three months of each year; owing to the fact that these warrants bear six per cent interest, they are not an attractive investment to the banks, as the general rate of interest throughout the country is much higher than that born by the warrants.

Prior to this year, the banks and insurance companies and other financial institutions have been anxious to procure state warrants as fast as issued.

General economic conditions are having their effect on the market for agricultural products, and farm produce has taken a sharp decline within the last weeks, and farmers are holding their crops and the bankers are utilizing all their surplus in assisting farmers to hold their crops for better markets; and it has been the general opinion of bankers throughout the country that little or no money should be invested in such paper as the state warrants.

Mr. Fralick, Commissioner of Commerce and Industry of Idaho, has been in Moscow and made arrangements with the local banks by which the salary warrants of the University will be held in par."

The information that all warrants will be cashed at par will be highly gratifying to the faculty who have been having a difficult time in meeting the cost of living on their full salary.

University President Writes Greeting

Expresses Keen Anticipation For Commencement of Actual Work Here.

The following letter was received by Dean of the faculty, Eldridge, from Dr. A. H. Upham, president elect of the University is indicative of the type of man that is to head Idaho's greatest educational institution, and will doubtless be of interest to all Idaho students:

Miami University,
Oxford, Ohio,
October 11, 1920.

Dear Doctor Eldridge:
University of Idaho,
Moscow, Idaho.

May I express through you to the faculty of the University of Idaho the deep appreciation I feel upon receipt of their message of loyalty and good will. During my short visit to the campus late in the summer I was greatly impressed with the general appearance of thoroughness and effective organization all about the University, and the few members of the faculty it was my privilege to meet appealed to me as representative of the finest kind of academic spirit. Your messages of greeting, following so close upon my appointment, have confirmed every favorable first impression and have made me very eager to enter upon the work with you at the earliest possible opportunity.

It only anticipates what I hope to say to all of you later to assure you at this time that I come to Idaho with only one idea before me—to be of the best service possible to the institution and the state. While not a stranger to the West, I am very much a stranger to the particular interests and problems now most immediate in the state. I am anxious however to sit at the feet of those of you who have been studying these things, and acquaint myself as rapidly as possible with your impressions and departmental ambitions. I pledge you my unceasing co-operation in all that seems to be for the best interest of the University and for the public good.

Obligations entered into here some time ago make it impossible for me to report for duty in Idaho before December 1. From that time on I shall use every endeavor to make up for lost time in getting a grasp of the situation. In the meantime I hope each and every one on the staff will feel free to communicate with me here on any matter that needs more immediate attention.

Thanking you most heartily for your prompt and cordial greetings, I am
Very truly yours,
A. H. Upham.

SHORT COURSES IN AGRICULTURE BEGUN

The enrollment of the University of Idaho was swelled by 26 men by the registration on October 11 and 12 of that number of students in the School of Agriculture. These boys are taking the five months special course calculated to eventually make them successful farmers and rural community leaders. Of the 26, four are listed in the dairy short course, which is of but one year's duration. These men are receiving special training to fit them for work in creameries. The other 22 men are all in the regular three year course.

The enrollment is considerably smaller than last year. Several causes are assigned to this decrease, among them being the late harvest, the high cost of transportation and the unusually high wages now being paid in other industries. The decrease in numbers, however, will in no wise mar the liveness of the course. Although sixteen of the three year men are freshmen, all seem to be fitting themselves into the school life rapidly. Among the new students the state of Montana, Oklahoma and Missouri each have one man registered. Several are enrolled from Washington, and the balance distributed quite evenly over the rest of the state, with a slight majority in favor of the north.

The work under the faculty of the regular school of agriculture. The men are being lined up rapidly, and a stock judging team will be sent to the Interstate Livestock Fair at Lewiston the week of November 7. Student who see new faces should get acquainted with the "hort ags," who until March 10 will remain in our midst.

crew posed for the camera man. Breaking camp for the second time, the Kenworthy, Liberty, and the Moscow Hotel and pool hall were raided in quick succession. During the twine of the line between raids, Mitten's and the Palace of Sweets treated the students to punch.

Following an order from the yelling, the line of march was changed to the direction of the fair grounds, where the gigantic frosh bonfire was in waiting.

The huge pile was in flames when the crowd arrived, and for a time a war dance around the blaze added the fire in warming the chilled underpinnings of the frolicers.

Following a short yell and song fest, short addresses full of punch were delivered by Dean O. P. Cockerill, "Bill" Lee, "Gov" Mix, and Coach Kelley. All prophesied a hard fight by the Idaho team in the coming game, and expressed the most earnest of wishes that it should walk all over the Pulman delegation.

Leaving the dying fire and their tracks in the fair grounds, the bunch adjourned to Egan's Hall where the remaining hours until midnight were whittled away by smearing muddy feet over the maple floor to the music of the university pep band.

Friday morning approximately 900 headaches were reported on the campus.

IDAHO HOLDS W. S. C. COUGERS TO LOW SCORE IN BIG GAME

down. Moran circled right end for four yards and Sax made one yard through left end.

Moran Features.

Moran gained three yards at left tackle, and he next tried a forward pass to Hanley which netted twenty five yards but before Hanley could move, Irving, playing safety, downed him. Moran started around right end and made five yards. Davis went through right tackle for two yards and the ball was resting on the seventeen yard line. Coach Kelley then took "Butch" Nagle out, taking Frank Brown from left tackle and outfitting him at Nagle's position and placing "Heinz" in Brown's place. Sax circled end twice for gains of six and seven yards and placed the ball on the three yard line. The whistle blew for the first quarter with the fat end of the score in Idaho's favor.

On the next play Davis made a yard through center and Sax made the score even on the next play by carrying the ball around end over the chalk line. Sax also kicked goal.

Moran Punt.

On the kickoff Irving planted the ball over goal line and it was returned to the twenty yard line. Gillis hit center for five yards and Moran gained one at left tackle. On the next play, Sax was downed on the spot he received the ball. Moran was forced to punt, getting thirty-two yards, which Irving carried back ten yards, the ball resting on the sixty yard line.

Irving then proceeded to tear off three at right end, four at center and registered four more by the left tackle route, making first down. Irving made three yards with a terrific line plunge through right end and tackle. Brown carried the ball three yards around left end, placing the ball on the thirty-seven yard line. Irving smashed through left tackle for two more yards, and Huck Breshears the spectators to their feet by a pretty eleven yard run circling left end. Irving helped the progress of the on-rushing warriors by a right end run, the ball now on the seventeen yard line. Idaho fumbled and Dunton recovered the ball for W. S. C. on the eighteen yard line. Moran was out for four minutes. Moran attempted to pass to Hanley and failed. Gillis then made six yards and Moran was held to one yard at right tackle. Moran then punted thirty-five yards.

Irving Punt.

With the ball on the thirty four yard line Brown made two yards through left tackle and Breshears made three more by the end "subway." Irving made one yard and then let loose with one of his terrific punts which soared for a distance of forty eight yards, landing in the arms of Sax who returned it five yards.

In this struggle Irving was knocked out for a period of five minutes. Gillis carried the ball for a gain of six yards through right tackle and on the next play the Cougar machine was held. A pass failed and W. S. C. was penalized fifteen yards for holding. Moran then punted and the ball put in play on the twenty yard line.

Brown rushed two yards through left tackle and Huck Breshears followed with a gain of twelve yards through right tackle and first downs. Idaho fumbled and "Beany" Breshears recovered the ball, setting it ahead two yards. The half ended with the ball in Idaho's possession on her own thirty yard line. The score stood Idaho seven, W. S. C. seven.

Idaho Substitutes.

Fox was substituted in Gowan's place at left end. Irving kicked off to Moran who fumbled it but returned it to the fifteen yard line. W. S. C. then proceeded to go down the field with Moran as the leadoff man with four yards around left end, Gillis three at center, Davis two at left tackle Gillis three at center, and Moran three and first down at left tackle.

Moran went around right end for three yards, and W. S. C. was penalized five yards for offside. Davis next made six yards around left end, Gillis made three yards through right tackle. Moran tried to hurl a pass to Davis who slipped as he was reaching for the ball. Moran punted fifty five yards to Irving who made only a few yards until Sax downed him.

Irving punted back thirty eight yards, the ball rolling ten more until Sax could fall on it. Jimmy Neal hurt his foot and was out for four minutes but returned full of fight. Gillis made first down on the next play going ten yards. On the next play he failed to make an inch and Moran managed to carry the ball three yards at right tackle.

Once again W. S. C. started on a rampage towards the coveted goal line. Gillis made three gains of two yards at center, five at right tackle, and two more off right tackle. Sax made five around left end and Gillis carried the ball five times in succession for gains of three yards through tackle, two through right tackle and repeated again for first downs at tackle for five yards. The ball was on the one and one half yards line, Gillis made a yard through center placing the ball within arms length of the goal. Another buck by him through center sent the ball over. Sax kicked goal and the score stood fourteen to seven favoring W. S. C.

Hanley kicked off forty five yards to Brown who made a very good return of twenty yards. Beany Breshears made three yards through left end. The barrage began with a run of fifteen yards by Brown through left tackle and Irving same back with a similar gain through right tackle. The third quarter ended with the ball in Idaho's possession on W. S. C.'s forty two yard line.

Gowan was replaced at end again and Schnebley took George's place for W. S. C. Brown made a half yard through left tackle and Breshears was held without gaining. The next play, a forward pass from Irving to "Grove" Evans was the other spectacular feature of the afternoon. The ball was near the ground when it neared Evans but he managed somehow to gather it into his arms and run a few yards. This netted Idaho twenty six yards.

Idaho was on the twelve yard line, within reaching distance of the goal and a much coveted tie which would result for a score. Irving made four yards on two plays bringing Idaho with only eight yards to go for a score. Another play, featuring Huck

DAVIDS'

"The Store of no Regrets"

Breshears, netted two yards. Breshears was out for five minutes but returned to the game. An incomplete forward pass gave W. S. C. the ball.

Sax circled left end for eight yards and Gillis made six more and first downs off left tackle. Moran made five off left tackle and Gillis followed with two off end. Davis was held to no gain, Moran gaining one yard through center and Sax made first down by gaining four through left tackle.

A twenty two yard run by Sax and another thirteen yard sprint by Gillis placed the ball on Idaho's four yard line. Gillis made only one yard by a center rush as the Idaho defense held like a cast iron wall. Two attempts by Moran failed to fatten the W. S. C. side of the score. Idaho took the ball 18 inches from her own goal.

Irving Punted.
Irving's punt seemed to have wings, as it was in the air for a distance of seventy yards and it rolled fifteen more. On the next play Sax gained two at right end and Davis tallied three off right end.

The game ended, one of the most earnestly fought and best played game in the history of the fued between the two institutions.
