NEW PRESIDENT ARRIVES WEDNESDAY

GONZAGA IRISHMEN FALL BEFORE IDAHO HUSKIES 10 TO 0 AT SPOKANE SATURDAY

IN LAST GAME OF SEASON IDAHO DEFEATS SPOKANE AGGREGATION BY ONE FIELD GOAL. STATISTICS SHOW TEAMS TO BE WELL MATCHED, GONZAGA SHOWS SUPERIOR YARDAGE GAINS.

In the final game of the season, Idaho's fighting football team upheld the confidence of their coach and many supporters and added another scalp to their record by defeating Gonzaga University 10 to 0 in a contest staged at the Spokane fair grounds last Saturday.

Idaho was slow in getting started and Gonzaga almost scored before the yellow men woke up. In the second period, Idaho opened up and with Whitcomb, Irving and the two Breshears carrying the ball down the field, Idaho was soon within striking distance of Gonzaga's goal. A forward pass, Irving to Whitcomb, placed the ball on Gonzaga's 5 yard line. Irving carried it over and kicked goal.

The second half opened with the teams fighting in the middle of the field. The ball seesawed back and forth most of the third quarter. Idaho lacking the punch to carry it over whenever an opportunity presented, and Gonzaga being stopped whenever she became dangerous. In the fourth quarter Idaho failed to gain against the Gonzaga line and Irving punted. McIsaacs of Gonzaga got away for a 35 yard run on a completed pass, and after three attempts Gonzaga put the ball over the line. McIsaacs kicked goal and the score was tied.

Idaho came back with the same old fight, and opened up the spread formation using passes right back at the team which was much famed for its own passing, and advanced the ball to Gonzaga's 35 yard line. Irving booted the ball between the goal-posts for a perfect field goal and Idaho was back in the lead again. Only 3 minutes remained to play and Idaho successfully stopped the frenzied attempts of the Gonzaga players to score before time was up.

Irving played in the stellar role for Idaho again, ably assisted by Whitcomb and the two Breshears. "Babe" Brown and "Pat" Perrine also showed the fighting Irishmen that they were in the game from whistle to whistle, and did not have to retire to the sidelines for aid, trick or no trick.

This game brings the average of Kelly's men up to 4 wins and only 2 defeats. The congratulations of the whole state go out to Coach Kelly and the men composing his splendid team.

Feasting and dancing and general merry-making reigned on the campus during the past holidays. On Thanksgiving day about thirty couples enjoyed a most elaborate many course dinner at the Sigma Nu house. Dancing proved the delightful diversion of the evening. On Saturday at the Kappa Sigma house, amid confetti and fancy lights the men of the crescent and the star entertained with one of the most enjoyable house parties ever held at Idaho.

Last week witnessed the last football game in the Northwest this season, unless W. S. C. goes to Los Angeles Christmas Day to play the University of Southern California. Many men have taken off their old sweaty, dirty, and ragged football togs for the last time. Steers of Oregon, Gillis of W. S. C., Abel and Faulk of Washington, Dahlberg of Montana, Garver of Whitman, and our own Plastino have made their last appearance as northwest conference players.

Dartmouth Defeats U. of W.
Washington was defeated by Dartmouth 28 to 7, at Seattle in the game played Thanksgiving Day. This game resulted as critics expected and did not lower the football standing of the West in the least. Dartmouth, with a team which had decisively defeated Cornell, (Dobie's pets), was playing against the poorest team in the conference and was held to a low score.

Nebraska Loses to W. S. C.
Washington State defeated Nebraska at Lincoln 21 to 20. Playing against a heavier team and in a different climate, the Cougars fought an up hill game and came out on the top of the heap at the final whistle. This victory should further impress the eastern critics that the West plays good enough and that we really have some men who might possibly be good enough for the famous All-American team, as picked by Walter Camp and others.

Whitman defeated Willamette at Salem 7 to 0 in about that many inches of mud. This rounds out a very successful season for Whitman.

Idaho Beats Gonzaga
Idaho defeated Gonzaga at Spokane 10 to 0. This victory gives Idaho one of the best seasons which we have had in years. Starting the season with an unfortunate schedule, meeting W. S. C. and Oregon in our first two games, the wearers of the yellow fought, and fought hard. But they

What promises to be the cleverest all-college stag smoker ever staged will be given by the Muckers Club this Friday night in Eggan's Hall. After combing the campus for the most talented performers on the wrestling mat and in the boxing ring only the cream has been chosen to appear before the audience.

Brown-Horning Grapple
Olympic candidate will perform. J. A. "Babe" Brown, who defeated everybody in his weight up to the semi-finals in the olympic tryouts at New York last summer, will grapple on the mat with Fred Horning, who has in the past startled his audiences by showing skill and strength which has placed him as Brown's strongest opponent. In addition to the above bout, Wes Philippi, a member of last year's varsity wrestling team, will be seen in action with Jack Musser, a freshman of varsity caliber.

A. E. F. Talent in Action
Ex-Capt. Homer Hudleson, who received his training under the famous Willie Richie, and who was considered among the best of the A. E. F. boxers in France will oppose Amond Kern also an A. E. Limited space prohibits giving the details of all the acts but local placards on the campus will reveal all the secrets so get your tickets early and be assured of a place because every he-man in college will be there and the capacity is limited.

G. EVANS ELECTED FOOTBALL CAPTAIN

B. BROWN, A. BRESHEARS, H. BRESHEARS AND J. NEAL CHRISTENED WEARERS OF THE "I"

PRIEST OBTAINS NEW LID

Venerable Headpiece Is Ceremoniously Burned In Street—Gonzaga Manager Replaces.

Grover Evans of American Falls, was elected captain of the football team of the University of Idaho Monday evening at the annual "I wetting." Evans is a player of long experience with the silver and gold, and during the season just closed, has stood out at all times in his playing at the position of left end.

The election was held at the Palace of Sweets Monday evening, when, according to custom, the "I" men of the squad for this year assembled to drink on those in their number who have just acquired the right to wear the letter. These were, Babe Brown, Huck Breshears, Beany Breshears, and Jim Neal. The bill was also shared by the retiring captain Felix Plastino, Captain elect Evans, Coach Kelley, who has completed his first season as an Idaho football coach, and graduate manager, A. J. Priest.

All told, there are thirteen men entitled to wear the football "I" through this season's record. These men are Retiring Captain Plastino, Captain-Elect Evans, Irving, Perrine, Glander, Nagel, F. Brown, Gowen, Whitcomb, J. Brown, Huck and Beany Breshears, and James Neal. These men participated in the election and wetting.

A special touch was added the affair by a solemn ceremony held in the middle of Main street immediately thereafter. The much abused hat of Graduate Manager Priest was burned unto ashes with much pomp and ceremony. But a new piece of headgear is already the property of the bereaved. It is a gift—the gift of the manager of the Gonzaga football team, who presented it to Mr. Priest as a token of the latter's ability to pick the winning team in a football game.

CALIFORNIA TO PLAY OHIO

FANS LOOK FORWARD TO BARE GAME AT PASADENA ON NEW YEAR'S DAY

BEARS BEST IN WEST

Buckeye Eleven Holds Honors Of East In Gridiron Battles—Title Is Undisputed.

The University of California has been chosen to go against Ohio State to represent the West in the great East and West football contest of the year. President Thompson has wired the acceptance upon the part of Ohio State to play in Pasadena on New Year's Day and the Western Conference has sanctioned the game.

As Dopesters See It.
California is the only team in the West with an undisputed title, and has defeated the best teams in the West. The Bears are one of the best teams that the West has even produced and it is felt that they will turn back any team from the East and uphold western supremacy. Ohio State, on the other hand, is the only team in the East with an undisputed title. Harvard and Princeton tied. The Navy was defeated during the early part of the season. Notre Dame decisively defeated the Army and then Notre Dame was defeated by Indiana, who was tied for third in the Big-Ten Conference. From the above comparison it can be seen that Ohio State will come west with the best record of any team that has represented the East in the last few years.

Will Be Stiff Contest.
When "Hoge" Workman, Ohio State's great quarter-back; Capt. Huffman, stellar tackle; and "Pete" Stinchcomb, the flashy halfback who has successfully filled the shoes of "Chick" Harley, the All-American half, this season; get going, the Bears may find the Buckeye rather a hard nut to crack. Sprott, Toomey, and Erb will find it hard plugging against the Buckeye forwards, quite different from those of Oregon and Stanford. And the Buckeye backs will find the going much harder against the Bears than they have found it against Illinois, Wisconsin, and Chicago.

Dr. A. H. Upham, the University of Idaho's new president, will arrive on the campus Wednesday morning, according to an announcement issued by Executive Secretary Parsons this morning. A program extending over the remainder of the week has been arranged for his reception.
Dr. Upham comes to Moscow from Boise, where he has been in conference with state commissioner of education E. A. Bryan since he arrived from his home in Ohio. He will be accompanied by Mr. Bryan, who will introduce the new prey to his new location.

Dr. Upham will make his first appearance before Moscow people when he appears at the chamber of commerce luncheon, tendered in his honor Wednesday noon.

Wednesday afternoon, at four o'clock, the new president will be introduced to his faculty, at a special meeting of that body.

The student body will assemble at eleven o'clock on Thursday morning to greet Dr. Upham. Classes scheduled for this hour will meet at eleven o'clock Wednesday. The program for the assembly is announced in another part of the paper.

Friday evening the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will tender a reception in honor of President Upham in the Elks' temple. The affair will be informal. Townspeople, faculty, and seniors are invited to meet the new university head. It is asked that it be announced that the attendance of seniors only from the student body is requested.

Saturday evening, in Ridenbaugh Hall, the entire university will be given an opportunity to meet Dr. Upham at an all-college reception. The time set for the commencement of the affair is 8:00 o'clock.

Good Seats Go Rapidly—Students Are Urged to Purchase Flat Rate Tickets For Two Concerts.

Ticket sales are progressing rapidly for the Lhevinne concert, scheduled for the University on Friday evening, December 10, and it is reported that desirable seats are rapidly being taken. The price for admission is 75 cents.

Students are urged, when purchasing tickets, to take advantage of the offer of a flat rate of $1.25 for the Lhevinne concert and the Mae Peterson recital, according to announcements issued by the committee on public events. The tax will be 75 cents for the Lhevinne recital, and $1.25 for the Peterson, it is announced. Thus, it is pointed out, the students will buy his admission to both concerts for the price of one by purchasing now.

had been beaten by these two so many times that they simply could not go in and beat W. S. C. and Oregon off hand as it is believed they are now capable of doing. Since then they have won every game and our only wish is that the season might be prolonged and the first two games played over again.

The Beta house was the scene of a house dance Friday evening. The guests were: The Misses Simmons, Newman, Eagleson, Baird, F. Richardson, Lester, Gates, Benoit, Martin, Hunt, Woods, Barnhart, Patterson, Wheeler, Davis, Beiswinger, I. Sanger, and Mr. Port Arthur. The chaperons were Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Beir and Mrs. Lenore Scott.

THE NEW PRESIDENT
With the arrival of Dr. Upham to fill the big chair in the shining, green carpeted room, Idaho will be entering on a new epoch, in which she will be led by a young man, full of energy, who has many times demonstrated his superlative ability as an executive. However, he will be only human, and human limits will be imposed upon his accomplishments. He alone, cannot do great things for Idaho, any more than Poch alone could have won the war. He will need the support of many, and far from the least of these will be the students with whom he must deal each day.

There is not a doubt but that Dr. Upham, in coming to Idaho, will find the student body back of him in his every move. Idaho students are loyal, and anything that tends toward the building up of their school receives their ardent support. They are convinced that Dr. Upham will "do things" for Idaho.

The assembly Thursday morning will see one of the most unanimous turnouts of the student body that the staid walls of the auditorium have ever enclosed. To the one in whose honor the conclave will be called this will be a dramatic manifestation of the good will that the student hold for him.

That next year will be a golden one for the University no one can gainsay. Headed by a young and forceful president, backed by a loyal and capable faculty, and peopled with an enthusiastic student body, nothing will be able to halt the march of Idaho to a bigger and more glorious usefulness.

POE'S DAY PAST
In Poe's day as a college student, certain things were expected of the college man, and Poe was not to disappoint the expectations of the critical public. Not so long ago, much the same thing was tolerated in college students of our own generation. But today, the college man is expected to be more normal since the old manner of selection of college men has been discarded. The schoolmaster no longer picks the most apt student for college, nor is the rich man's son any longer the only educated ornament in the community. The possibility is almost equal for the laborer's son today, and with the improvement in that respect has come an advancement in what is expected of the college man. Financial standing has lost its prestige here to the dispar of snobbishness and cast distinction, and other traits of the same class equally objectionable must be banished from our role.—Rocky Mt. Collegian.

CAMPUS ROMANCE ENDS IN MATRIMONY
Mabel Sweeney and Walter Smith Are United at Home of Bride in St. Maries.

Marriage was the disastrous termination of another college romance on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day when Miss Mabel Marie Sweeney of St. Maries became the bride of Walter Shoup Smith of Twin Falls. The two became acquainted in the U. of I. which institution both attended last year.

The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride at St. Maries. Artistic floral decorations made the home attractive, and an elaborate dinner was served after the ceremony. Miss Agnes Sweeney was the maid of honor and J. G. Meeker of Moscow, a classmate of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

Both the contracting parties are well known on the Idaho campus. The bride was a popular member of Kappa Kappa Gamma, and the groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Addison T. Smith of Twin Falls, is a member of Phi Beta Theta. Many university friends were present at the wedding, among them being: Miss Evadna Roberts of Nampa, Miss Lucie Davis of Boise, Miss Marguerite Friedman of Moscow, Lynn Beauchamp of Twin Falls and John G. Meeker of Moscow. The couple left after the wedding for Washington, D. C., where they will spend their honeymoon. At its conclusion, they will be at home in Twin Falls.

SOUTH IDAHO WANTS MEN'S GLEE CLUB

Singing Organization Now Numbers Twenty Voices—Try Novel Plan Of Training.

Much enthusiasm is being shown in the southern part of the state over the prospective trip of the Idaho men's glee club, springing to a statement made today by Professor E. O. Bangs, who recently returned from Boise, where he attended the annual session of the state music teachers association.

"I met many superintendents of city schools during my stay in Boise," said Mr. Bangs, "and all were anxious that the glee club should visit their towns. When I made the statement that it might be necessary to pass by this year some of the towns in which the club appeared last winter, without exception the superintendents of those places remonstrated strongly."

Club Is Enlarged.
The number of voices on the men's glee club, now preparing for the statewide concert tour, has been increased to twenty, four more than last year. The roster at present includes the following:

First tenors: Gerlough, '21; A. Brigham, '22; Kerr, '24; Foran, '21; Bangs, conductor.

Second tenors: A. Graf, '22; Veatch, '22; C. Westover, '22; B. Cornellison.

Try Novel Plan.
Not all of the men taking the training with the club at present will make the trips, according to director Bangs. The travelling personnel of the organization will not be announced until shortly before the time for departure. This plan of training the singers is novel at Idaho, according to those who have been acquainted with the training of the men's glee clubs here in years past.

"This puts a spirit of good humored competition into the work of the boys that the club has heretofore lacked," stated the director recently. "All apply themselves better and as a result the club is progressing much faster than it has ever before during my stay here."

DRAMA CLUB PRESENTED "PASSERS BY" LAST WEEK

Local People Fill Parts Of Play Dealing With Relations Of Aristocracy To Democracy.

(By Harriet Ensign)
Those partial to drama were given a chance to witness an interesting entertainment put on by the Drama Club, at the Guild Hall on the evening of Tuesday, November 23d. "Passers By," by C. Haddon Chambers, was staged at that time.

The parts were uniformly well sustained. Mr. Cushman was effective in the role of the agreeable Peter Waverton; Mr. Kirkham as Nighty did some of his best work, while Mr. Candee, as Burns, got well into the spirit of the simple fellow he portrayed. Miss Dingle was both appealing and strong as Margaret Summers, while Miss Johnston was all fairness and strength as Beatrice Dainton. Miss Ensign had a disagreeable type to present in Lady Hurley but she did the dramatist's bidding and made her "horrid." Finally Richard Thompson was Little Peter and he was a "darling."

SOCIAL & PERSONAL

Saturday the Kappa Sigmas entertained at their annual all day House party. Arriving early in the morning some of the girls started preparations for the dinner of the day, while the rest of the guests came at noon. Every one fell to with a will and in a surprisingly short time Class A rations were mustered for a personnel of ninety-six people. Dancing was temporarily suspended at three o'clock and dinner was served. One large room was made into a miniature Monte Carlo for those who enjoyed indulgence in games of chance and there was music at all times for those who cared not for the high price of shoe leather. Early in the evening a dramatic episode portraying the courage of ye olden days, was staged by some of the under class-men. Dancing then continued until eleven o'clock.

The invited guests were: the Misses Channel, Cox, Robbins, Felton Konald, Tabor, McGee, Stalker, Morris, Thatcher, M. Collins, Greene, L. Pacific coast sword ferns furnished a beautiful setting in the spacious parlor, while a solid lattice work, in the fraternity colors, covered the ceiling of the dining room.

One of the most delightful parties of the past week-end was staged at the Penwell home. Thirteen couples were entertained from 11 A. M. to 11 P. M. Thursday. The guests were Misses Long Hoalst, Swanson, Miller, Patch, Kendrick, Collins, Rose, Bartlett, Johnston, Schott, Eggan, Messrs. Colborn, Eaton, Preuss, Peterson, C. ANOTHER EPIDEMIC
HITS IDAHO CAMPUS

"Have you been vaccinated?" No, not against small pox, but against that other epidemic that seems to be gaining such headway on the campus. What? You hadn't heard about it? Why three couples have been stricken almost under your nose—and almost no hope of recovery is held in any of the cases.

Now don't you really think the health authorities should do something about it? They vaccinated for small pox, now why not for this new malady that's exacting such a toll. Why just look at the houses that have it. There's Marion Tipton, a Delta Gamma, and Tommy Mathews of Kappa Sigma—and then our old friend Smith, who is the Phi Delta representative, and Mabel Sweeney, who stays with the Kappas. "Oh the Delta Gammas love it and the Kappas aren't above it" etc. And then too, there are others besides those I've mentioned.

The epidemic seems to come every year at just about this time. Last year it was in a milder form. Looking over the files, we see such announcements as "Gamma Phi Beta announces the engagement of ——— to ——— of Beta Theta Pi. That form, however, was not particularly serious, and recoveries were frequent, but when it returned this year, the epidemic had new strength and seems to stay with its victims till they die.

Even the faculty is not exempt. Mr. Collins became the bridegroom of some unknown, who's name is a mystery to us in its original but will be Mrs. Collins in the future if rumor is correct.

As we go to press word comes that those desiring protection may receive a preventive inoculation by applying to Dean Butler. We urge everyone to avail themselves of this opportunity for if the spread of the malady is not checked, the whole school may be wiped out.

MISS BORELL GIVES INTERESTING TALK AT CONFERENCE

At the recent conference of women of Pacific Coast colleges, held at W. S. C. during the past week Miss La Vern Borell of the U. or I. gave an interesting talk on the control of organized activities.

The following report of her talk is taken from the Evergreen, the W. S. C. student paper. "Miss Lavern Borell of the University of Idaho gave the paper on the subject 'How Organized Activities May Be Controlled.' Miss Borell brought up the three points, (1) Faculty Control, (2) Student Control, (3) Combination of Faculty and Student Control.

In speaking of the first system, Miss Borell stated that in using faculty control entirely, the result would be more that of a high school system. Under entire student control the system would be rather immature. Miss Borell pointed out that under a combination of the two a well-balanced system would be obtained. At the University of Idaho regulated control is gained through a Student Affairs Committee.

"One of the problems of a college is the springing up of new organizations to be considered that is, whether or not the social side should be emphasized in order to increase attendance or whether the real purpose of the organization should be brought out," said Miss Borell. She spoke of the advisability of having a faculty member as advisory member of organizations. This brought up the question of what relation there should be between the faculty and the student through organizations. The problem of social functions given by organizations was also pointed out. The question arose, "How should the number of functions to be given by one organization be limited?" Miss Borell also brought up the question of what control patron and patronesses of an organization should exercise. It was also brought out that the old literary societies were dying out in many institutions. Is the reason for this that they are no longer needed?"

Princeton University opened its hundred and seventy-fifth year with a registration of slightly more than two thousand students. Owing to the crowded conditions three men are now occupying the dormitory space formerly occupied by two students.

Princeton University has challenged U. of California to a debate to be held during Christmas vacation. This is the first attempt to engage U. of C. in a debate with an eastern university and it will probably mean that in the future they will be of regular occurrence. —University Daily Kansan.

The question of the debate is, Resolved: that neither of the two demon-
