

Undergrads To Select Officers On Thursday

Polls to be Open in Room 217 of Administration Building From 10 o'clock in Morning Until 3 in Afternoon—Interest Shows Increase as Finals Approach

TALKS SET FOR ASSEMBLY

Nominees to Address Meeting Wednesday in Interest of Candidacies

(By FRANCIS ARMSTRONG.)

Thursday, May 3, the final election for the student body offices will be held. The field of candidates having been cut down to two for each office, the student elect Thursday the A.S.U.I. officers for the coming year, 1923-1924.

Speeches by the candidates will be made in the A.S.U.I. assembly Wednesday morning. With the narrowing down of the field in the primary election held last Thursday the race has become keen. The twenty-four speeches to be given in the Wednesday assembly are expected to be most interesting.

The election is most important since a large measure of the control of the university activities has been placed in the hands of the students. It is expected that a record vote will be cast in the finals.

Polls in Room 217.

All university students have been urged to cast their ballots at the election in order that the vote may be representative of the entire university. The arrangements for the voting, which are in the hands of Lynn Hersey, president of the A.S.U.I., will be the same as those of the previous election. The polls will be in room 217 of the Administration building, to be open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

The candidates for the office of president of the A.S.U.I. are Talbot Jennings and Abe Goff. The president is entrusted largely with the general control of the different departments of student activity.

The vice president assists the president in his administration and acts in the capacity of member of the executive board. Laurence A. "Judge" Wallace and Glen R. Wilkinson are running for the vice-presidency.

Men for Treasurer.

The candidates for treasurer are Walter Casebolt and George Gahan. Under the new A.S.U.I. constitution, the funds are withdrawn from the treasury for the carrying on of student activity in accordance with budgets presented at the beginning of the college year. The secretary keeps the records of the proceedings of the organization and carries on the necessary A.S.U.I. correspondence. The two candidates for this office are Pauline Pence and Agnes Cox. Both the treasurer and secretary are members of the executive board.

The business manager of The Argonaut gets the advertising, handles the circulation, and is in charge of the entire financial part of the paper. Winton "Teek" Arnold and Fred "Scoop" Taylor are the candidates.

Debate Managership.

The business manager of debate has charge of the financing and arrangements for intercollegiate debate. He handles the details of all

FINAL A.S.U.I. ELECTION TO BE HELD THURSDAY

The polls of the final A.S.U.I. election will be open from 10 o'clock in the morning until 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Voting will take place in room 217 of the Administration building Thursday, May 3. There should be a record breaking number of votes cast. Members of the present executive board will be in charge of the election. Results will be published complete in Friday's issue of The Argonaut.

PRESCOTT IS FINALIST

Finals in Tennis Tournament Awaits Outcome of Herrington-Goldstone Match.

Two more matches are to be played before the university men's tennis tournament is finished. Dan Prescott, manager of tennis, has entered the finals by virtue of winning from Preuss in two straight sets in the semi-finals 6-2, 6-2. Prescott will play the winner of the Goldstone-Herrington match for the university championship. The playing off the Goldstone-Herrington match will likely be postponed for a few days owing to an infected hand that "Abie" Goldstone is having trouble with.

Prescott has had to meet some of the best tennis material in the university in going into the finals. He defeated "Ken" Hunter in the third round 11-9, 6-1, and in the semi-finals put Preuss out of the running. Preuss entered the semi-finals by virtue of a win over Funk 6-4, 6-4. Herrington went into the semi-finals by defeating R. Johnson 6-0, 6-1.

R.O.T.C. MEN DRILL FOR BIG INSPECTION

INSPECTING OFFICERS TRYOUT REGIMENT FOR RATING

Thursday Morning and Friday Afternoon Devoted to Preparation for Big Event Wednesday

In preparation for the annual spring inspection, which is to be held Wednesday, May 2, the university R. O. T. C. regiment drilled all Thursday morning, and Friday afternoon. The inspection will be made by Major R. W. Kingman and H. T. Bull, with the object in view of determining whether or not the Idaho unit will receive a distinguished rating. This is the first time that the Idaho cadets have ever been inspected for such an honor.

Thursday morning companies were formed at 8 o'clock, and the morning was spent in close and extended order, bayonet drill, and physical training. Friday afternoon three tactical problems, one of advance, one of attack, and one in regard to outposts, were worked out and solved by cadet officers.

Work on Light Mortar

First year advanced course men have been working the past two weeks on the light mortar, the machine gun, and the one pounder, and the second year advanced course men have been doing work in tactics.

It is expected that the inspection will be unusually thorough and careful this year, due to the fact that Idaho is being examined with the possibility of receiving the honor rating.

Other Colleges Examined

The inspectors have already examined the units at Oregon, O. A. C., and Washington. The W. S. C. regiment will be inspected May 1, and the inspecting officers come here from Pullman for the local inspection May 2.

Majors Kingman and Bull will go to Washington, D. C., from Moscow. The results of the inspection of all units will be recorded at Washington. The war department will then announce the list of distinguished colleges. With the increased number of institutions entering the competition it is becoming very difficult to rate this honor. Idaho's unit is considered strong and the distinguished service rating may be won.

Irene Canfield from Pullman was a week end guest of Omega Phi Alpha.

IDAHO TRACK STARS READY FOR COUGARS

TRYOUT MEET ENCOURAGES VANDAL FOLLOWERS.

Dual Contest With W.S.C. at Pullman Friday Afternoon to be First of Season.

(By ED FUNK.)

The University of Idaho track team, which will face the Washington State college squad Friday afternoon, at Pullman, in the first meet of the season, has, according to the latest dope uncovered in the tryout meet held on MacLean field last Saturday, developed into a stronger aggregation than that which represented the Silver and Gold last year. In view of the dreary outlook earlier in the season the results of the various events Saturday were most encouraging.

The varsity squad has been making rapid strides in training during the past three weeks. Coach Mathews has, however, held the men to their routine work for the most part, striving to develop form, and depending on speed to follow in the natural course of events. It was not until the tryout meet Saturday that the men were allowed to extend themselves in competition, and to disclose what really could be expected of the squad.

Time is Withheld.

Time in many of the events was withheld, though it is apparent that the results were by no means encouraging. No announcements were made as to the time hung up in the dashes, the quarter mile or the half mile.

Captain Penwell jogged off the mile in 4 minutes and 42 seconds Saturday, according to the official results, having no competition whatever to add incentive to the race. This is a most promising early season record, and points to the fact that in competition Penwell may be expected to step out for record breaking time.

IDAHO'S STAR GRAPPLER TAKES TWO FAST FALLS.

Two Boxing Events End in Draw—Terry Wins Battle Royal at "I" Club Smoker.

(By JOHN ZUVER)

"Babe" Brown, undefeated intercollegiate heavy-weight wrestling champion, won from L. C. Smith, northwest amateur light heavyweight champion of the Elks' club, Spokane, in two straight falls in the headliner of the "I" club smoker held Friday evening at the University gym. In the preliminary boxing card of the athletic show, "Vic" Cameron and "Ahme" Kearns, both of the university fought to a draw in a three round go, and Dan Jones, S.A.A.C., Spokane, and "Judd" McCormack, American Legion, Spokane, also went three rounds to a draw. "Chick" Terry won the battle royal. About 200 attended the event, including a small representation of dates bunched together in one corner of the ring side.

Brown, in probably his last performance before a university crowd, displayed a knowledge of the wrestling game, which coupled with his strength and speed, gave him little trouble in disposing of the Spokane flash in two rapid falls. Only once during the match was the "bambino" in danger. Smith applying a double scissors that came near to making the Idaho star pat the mat.

Brown is Aggressor.

Brown took the aggressive from the start and worked over Smith continually. The first fall was administered by a scissors and arm lock in four minutes and 17 seconds of wrestling. The second fall was secured in the short order of three minutes and 56 seconds by the use of a headlock and bar hold.

In the semi-windup, "Vic" Cameron and "Ahme" Kearns went three rounds to a draw in an exhibition bout that exhibited every form of

Boise Episcopal Dean Baccalaureate Speaker

Paul Roberts of St. Michael's Cathedral to Preach Graduation Sermon June 10—Professor S. Meany Selected to Deliver Annual Commencement Address.

CO-EDS SELECT STAFF

Betty Mount is to be Editor of Annual Women's Edition of The University Argonaut.

The staff for the Co-ed edition of The Argonaut has been completed, according to the editor, Betty Mount. The co-eds will take over one of the May issues of the paper. The personnel for the issue will be: Editor-in-chief, Betty Mount; assistant editor, Dorothy Cline; business manager, Ruth Hawkins; sports, Margaret Blackinger; humor, Ruby Gates; society, Jewell Coon; women's athletics, Gene Cruzen; organizations, Beryl Wright; dramatics, Helen Madden; alumni, Ruth Hove; exchange, Grace Morgan. Special features in the way of cuts and type are being planned for the issue. This is the second year that the co-eds have put out an issue of The Argonaut. The paper will be the regular four-page edition.

BOTH ARE PROMINENT MEN

Governor C. C. Moore to Attend Ceremonies and Consents to Give Address

Dean Paul Roberts of St. Michael's cathedral of Boise will preach the baccalaureate sermon and Prof. Edmond S. Meany, head of the history department of the University of Washington, will deliver the commencement address to the University of Idaho's class of 165 graduates at commencement exercises this spring. This announcement is made from the office of President A. H. Upham.

Dean Roberts is one of Idaho's most prominent churchmen and is active in church affairs in the northwest, while Professor Meany is an authority on early day history and an adopted member of three north-west Indian tribes. Both are excellent speakers and the appearance of Professor Meany will be significant in connection with the presentation of the big pageant depicting early Idaho history.

Governor To Attend.

Governor C. C. Moore has accepted the invitation of President Upham to be present at commencement this year and will probably deliver a short talk at the commencement exercises.

Professor Meany, who has been at the University of Washington for many years, is regarded as the "keeper of tradition" of that institution. In 1900 he was adopted by Chief Joseph into the Nez Perces, north Idaho's famous tribe, as "Mothat Wultz," which means "Three Knives." In 1903 he was taken into the Vancouver tribe as "Clokpolomiski," meaning "The Sun Warming in the Morning," and in 1907 no less a personage than the famous Chief Red Cloud of the Sioux tribe gave him the name of his son "Wahinke Numpa," or "Two Arrows."

Commencement June 11.

This year's commencement program has been changed somewhat from programs of former years and baccalaureate Sunday will be June 10 with the commencement exercises the following day, instead of Wednesday as has been the practice.

The commencement week program commences with a recital by the department of music Friday, June 8, while the following day is devoted largely to alumni activities, with the big historical pageant coming in the evening. Sunday morning Dean Roberts will give the baccalaureate sermon and in the afternoon the R.O. T.C. military band will give its annual concert.

Dedicate Forney Hall.

Monday, June 11, will be the big day on the program, for besides the commencement exercises proper it will witness the dedication of the Mary E. Forney hall, new dormitory for women, which is now being completed. The academic procession, it is planned, will start at Ridenbaugh hall and go to Mary E. Forney hall for short dedicatory exercises before proceeding to the auditorium for the commencement exercises. The afternoon will be devoted to social events

ONE HUNDRED MORE ARE WANTED FOR PAGEANT

At least 100 more students are wanted to try out for parts in the Pageant. Dr. G. M. Miller of the English department has asked that students sign up for tryouts which will be held the rest of the week. So far about 40 candidates for parts have been heard. The pieces printed in Friday's issue of The Argonaut will be used for testing the candidates.

VANDAL BALL PLAYERS LOSE FIRST CONTEST

O. A. C. HITTERS CONNECT FOR 13 SAFE BLOWS.

Final Score 13 to 2—Second Game Tuesday Afternoon and Comeback is Expected.

(By ED FUNK.)

The Vandal diamond squad dropped the first game played on the home field to O.A.C., Monday afternoon, with a score of 13 to 2. The outcome of the game was contrary to all calculations, Idaho having won two straight games from the Oregon Aggies while on the recent Coast trip, the scores standing 15 to 5 in the first game and 11 to 8 in the second.

A cold wind made it very disagreeable for the players, the hectic weather being in a large measure responsible for the frequent errors made by each team. The O.A.C. hitters had the best of the battle all the way, garnering thirteen hits during the game, as against the Vandals five. Woodward, who pitched the entire game for the visitors, was master of the situation all the way, fanning thirteen men, and holding the Vandal hitters to easy fly balls which fell safe in the hands of the outfielders for the most part. Snow who delivered for Idaho fanned nine men, but he was touched for 13 safe blows.

Visitors Lead Game.

The visitors took the lead in the first inning, when Snow allowed two hits, and three bases on balls, which brought in three runs. Idaho in her half was able to garner but one hit, but managed to convert one run.

In spite of the one sided score the Vandals had but five errors chalked against them, as against the visitors' six. Most of these came at critical moment, however, when the Aggies were able to turn them to the best advantage.

O.A.C. batted her way into the lead, and held her place by the same method. Rippey made four hits and Noonan three. Idaho, on the other hand, was able to do nothing at all to Woodward's delivery.

Vandals' Off Day.

Idaho must be given credit for an off day, which accounted for the poor showing. Snow was not pitching his usual brand of ball. Costly errors at crucial moments brought in flocks of runs for O.A.C. The fact that the day was cold and windy held the rooting section down to a handful, robbing the team of its usual support from the student body. The Idaho machine on the whole was

PRIVILEGE AND DUTY

It is your privilege, and more than privilege, it is your duty to vote at the annual election of officers of the A. S. U. I. Thursday. Are you going to put qualified men and women in office? If you don't, it is your fault. Your vote should be the intelligent vote. Are you going to vote for the best man, the man best qualified, the man best able to handle important work?

Throw friendship over board. Look at things from a university standpoint. This election is the most important election at which you will have an opportunity to exercise your right of student citizenship. You are electing your leaders. Your friend may be your friend but a better man may be his opponent. Don't let friendship stand in the way of your better judgment. As live men and women, vote; and as intelligent men and women, vote intelligently.

We hear every now and again—sometimes it gets to be an old story—but it runs something like this:

"In the north we have our waving fields of grain, in the south our vast irrigated farms, our untold mineral wealth, our wonderful timber resources, our state of opportunity, and here, at the university, we have our leader factory. You young people are going out to be leaders of your communities, your counties, your state, your nation and the world."

It sounds just lovely, but is it true? Somehow, we have our doubts, particularly when only 565 votes were cast at a primary election to name final candidates for important student offices.

ALUMNI HOMECOMING

Idaho welcomes home again her loyal sons and daughters. There is every reason to believe that many alumni will return for class reunions Alumni day, June 9. Alumni are already making plans to visit the university. Alumni know the cordiality with which they will be received by the faculty and the undergraduates. Nothing will be too good for the graduates of the university.

Alumni are doing a great deal for the university. Bill Jones, who graduated in '03, is just as enthusiastic as Bill Jones, '23. In Bill Jones, '03, the university has a devoted friend. He sends the high school graduates where they ought to go. He thrills with the Idaho athletic victories. He is ready at all times to help university interests with his time or his money. His success in life and his standing in the community are tributes to himself and the university.

Alumni will find the campus just as much their own in June, 1923, as it was in their undergraduate days.

THE NEW GYMNASIUM

The new gymnasium plans of the alumni of the University of Idaho are splendid.

The most serious problem of the university is the lack of proper gymnasium facilities. The alumni plans will solve that problem.

The erection of the new gymnasium as a memorial to the Idaho men who gave their lives in the service is entirely fitting and proper. We cannot but feel that they, who gave their lives, would desire such a memorial.

The alumni plans simply go to show that Idaho men and women are loyal as undergraduates and more loyal as graduates.

A HOMECOMING

Monday the Idaho undergraduates showed the cheapest kind of poor sportsmanship and poor college spirit. All during the game they razed their own players, and when they left in the middle of the game they walked through the outfield and jeered at the team that was trying to uphold the honor of Idaho.

That is worse than lacking support, worse than having the crowd lay down on them as they did. On the coast our players found the crowds turning out and fighting with the teams till the last inning, and then they came home to this.

On the evening of the 28th, after the chores was done the Sigma Nu residence took on the appearance of Si Perkins' farm. Old Sig and Nu were hitched onto the nu hay rack, and were off down the road, to call for the different farm lassies at the group houses. After a rough and stormy ride they arrived at the Sigma Nu ranch, where the big dance was started off with "Turkey in the Straw." The fowls, animals, and the smoky lanterns contributed greatly to the inside barn effect. The good jazz, along with the other features assured everyone of a real good time at a typical barn dance.

ALL-STATE TRACK MEET SET FOR MAY 11 AND 12

The annual state interscholastic track and field meet will be held on MacLean field May 11 and 12, according to plans decided upon by the Idaho state interscholastic association and announced through the athletic department of the university.

According to the scheme of districting followed for basketball, there are four districts in the southern part of the state and two in the northern. MacLean field is being put in good shape for the meet.

The Men's Glee club makes an extended tour each year, and the engagements for the organization and the accommodations for the members are made by the business manager, for which position Van Peterson and Ray Allumbaugh are running.

The Pep band, which furnishes the music for most of the athletic contests, and which fills engagements in other parts of the state, furnishes a great deal of work for the manager. Doy McKinley and Uhlla Powell are the candidates who will run for the office in Thursday's elections.

The manager of the Gem of the Mountains handles the great amount of technical details which arises in the publishing of the university year book. Candidates for this position are Merle Drake and Leo Fleming.

Girls' Athletics is a newly created department, but it is already functioning efficiently in the handling of all the branches of girls' athletics. The candidates for the office of manager of girls' athletics are Carol Bristol and Maude Carland.

Louisa Martin is the unopposed candidate for the manager of the Girls' Glee club for 1923-1924. It is also one of the departments recently created by the provisions of the reconstituted A.S.U.I. constitution.

Miss Rowlands Unopposed. Jean Rowlands is also unopposed for the honorary office of Miss Idaho, who will take the place of the May Queen. She will represent the state in the Historical Pageant which the University of Idaho is presenting commencement week.

There are two candidates, Dorothy Parsons and Charlotte Broadwater, for the position of Maid of Honor to Miss Idaho. For Page to Miss Idaho, the candidates are Mildred Specht and Kathryn Hahn.

Wallace Brown is unopposed for associate editor of The Argonaut for the coming year. He automatically becomes editor of The Argonaut for the year following or for 1924-1925.

Turner Is Yell King.

Ted Turner is the only candidate for yell king. The editorship of the Gem of the Mountains is one of the important offices to be filled. The two nominees are Peter Drus and Floyd Marchesi.

Seven men are to be elected to fill positions on the athletic board, and there are eight candidates. Those who were nominated and whose names will appear on the ticket are Sylvester "Syb" Klefner, Fred "Lefty" Marneau, Harold Telford, Frank Kinnison, Vernon "Skippy" Stivers, Louis Williams, Maurice "Dusty" Kline, and Guy Penwell.

O.A.C. on the other hand played in the best of luck throughout the game. Whereas the Idaho stickers filed out to the fielders, or died on bases when hits were made, the Aggie batters would carelessly slap the ball for safe singles just where the Vandal fielders could not possibly be. The Idaho hits were scattered, so as to be largely unavailing, while the O.A.C. hitters had theirs more luckily grouped, enabling them to score most of their men who reached first.

"Skip" Makes Great Grab.

"Skippy" Stivers was the unquestioned Idaho hero of the afternoon with two of the prettiest and most miraculous catches ever seen. His feature grabs of the hardest kind of chances furnished the fielding bright lights of the game. In addition "Skip" poked out two pretty hits, one of which he stretched into a run by virtue of an error in O.A.C.'s out-garden.

Ripsey was the meanest welder of the bludgeon in the game with four singles in six times at bat. The longest hits of the game were two three-baggers, made by Riddings and Sullivan. Lawson was the premier Idaho hitter with a clean single and a nice double to center field. The latter hit he stretched from a single to a double by clever base running.

Second Games Tuesday.

Taking the games as a whole, it was simply a matter of a team which was playing its best meeting a team which was playing its worst, with the usual outcome. With a little more luck, coupled with the baseball ability which the team does possess, the second game Tuesday will be an entirely different story. It is certain that the score Monday did not bespeak the relative ability of the two teams, considering the scores at which Idaho beat the Aggies in the two previous games.

The Aggies will remain in Moscow until Friday, making their headquarters here for two games coming up with Washington State college at Pullman.

IDAHO TRACK STARS READY FOR COUGARS

(Continued From Page One.) good work in the two mile run. Both men may be expected to put up a strong fight for places Friday. In the distance runs Idaho has an excellent chance to ring up points.

Half Miles Strong. Penwell, Hillman, and Sowder appear to be able to take care of the half mile race very creditably. Time on this race was not announced Saturday, but from this trio a capable representation can be picked.

In the quarter mile Keith, Casebolt, Pollard and Hasbrook lead the field. Each of these men shows promise, and the quartet will probably compose the Vandal mile relay team.

Keith, Casebolt and Powers are all stepping the hundred and two twenty yard dashes in good shape. Keith shows the most promise, winning easily in the tryouts. Idaho should at least take seconds and thirds, with a possible first in these events.

Weak in Field Events.

It is in the field events that the Vandal squad shows its greatest weakness. Quinn, Melick and Fox are all out for the shot, and are tossing it consistently in the neighborhood of thirty-eight feet. While this showing will not assure Idaho a place in the conference meet, still a great deal of encouragement may be gained from the fact that the W. S. C. weight men have not as yet equalled this mark.

Quinn is also showing progress in the discus throw, the outlook in that event also appearing brighter from the fact that from all preseason reports the Cougar squad is notably weak in this respect. Melick is setting up good marks with the javelin, and may be expected to bring in points.

Two Highjumpers.

Leland and Russel are showing best in the high jump. Cobley will run the high hurdles, while Powers is showing a world of speed over the low hurdles.

While Idaho has not as yet shown herself to have a squad of conference championship calibre, still in view of the discouraging early season outlook things are gaining a most rosy hue. It is certain that W. S. C. will have no walkaway Friday, and in all probability Idaho will put up a close fight for first honors in the meet.

Little can be learned of the real strength of the Washington State college squad. While the strength of the Crimson and Gray is not to be underestimated, rumor has it that prospects there are not all that might be hoped for. Since the graduation of Jenne, all-Pacific Coast pole vaulter, W.S.C. has had no formidable representative in that event.

From all that can be learned the Vandal vaulters have an excellent chance of taking their share of points in the meet.

Pullman Huskies Few.

The Pullmanites are also notably weak in the weights, discus and javelin, having no experienced men whatsoever to rely on.

Petticord, of W.S.C., has been showing exceptional form in the hurdles this spring, according to all reports, and will give Powers and Cobley good cause to worry in these events. There are several experienced sprinters and middle distance men in the enemy camp also, and Idaho cannot hope to gain many points in these events.

In the distances, however, the Vandals seem to have all the best of it, and it is here that they should make their strongest showing.

Considering the entire situation it seems that the events Friday should be about evenly divided between the colleges, and a close, hard fought meet may be expected.

ring work but boxing. Both men displayed vast knowledge of shadow boxing, and played tag for the first two rounds. Having felt each other out, the third and final round started off with action. Both men seemed in excellent condition at the start of the final round, and the round soon developed into a slugging contest that brought the crowd nearly into hysterics from laughter.

No Ring Is Hindrance.

Dan Jones and Judd McCormack, two clever Spokane boys, went three rounds to a draw. Failure to have a ring roped retarded the action of both men, but they furnished an excellent exhibition of foot work and guarding. Few of their advances were followed up, due to the ring not being roped in.

"Chick" Terry won the three dollar merchandise award to the freshman for winning the battle royal. The winner was to be the last man on the mat, any means being used to get opponents out of the ring. Five men entered the event. The S.A.E. quartet was well received with several selections between the matches. Cisco Bullivant, Elks' club, Spokane, refereed the contests.

TIMELY SWATS WIN GAME FOR FIRST YEAR MEN.

Fields Twirls Exceptional Ball for Idaho's Future Varsity—Yearlings Heavy Hitters.

(By JOHN ZUVER)

Timely swats in the opening innings of play gave the University of Idaho freshmen a 9 to 3 victory over Cheney Normal in the opening game of the baseball season here Saturday afternoon. The contest uncovered a great deal of good baseball material, and with a few more weeks of training, the squad undoubtedly will wear off many of the rusty spots that appeared in the Saturday game. The frosh outfit would play air tight ball at times, and later go into a slump. As a whole their showing was above what was expected for the opening contest. Their fielding as a whole was good, and the heavy stick work of the squad came as a surprise.

Two Home Runs.

The work of Fields in the box was exceptional, holding the teachers to five scattered hits, benching eight men, and passing none. Two of the hits registered off him were made by Callahan who clouted out two drives for home runs. Both these circuit drives should have only been good for singles but a bad bounce and misjudged fly put the ball beyond the out gardeners.

The frosh got away to their big lead in the first two frames when bunched hits and erratic pitching by Killgore caused four tallies to be run across in the first inning, and two in the second. Killgore was removed in the seventh, but the frosh opened up again in the eighth frame, driving over three runs on Howell, the new Cheney boxman.

CONCERT IS BIG EVENT

Community Chorus and Idaho Musical Organizations to Present Offering Wednesday

The annual concert of the community chorus, the combined Men's and Women's Glee clubs, and the University of Idaho orchestra to be given Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the university auditorium, is one of the most important musical events of the year.

The program consists of two compositions of the trilogy which made the reputation, while he was yet a student of the English composer, Samuel Coleridge-Taylor. He was twenty-three when the first of them, "Biantha's Wedding Feast," was given at the Royal College in London in 1898. "The Death of Minnehaha" followed the next year. These two will be offered by the community chorus of some 50 voices, townsfolk and students, with orchestral accompaniment.

Cole-ridge Taylor caught the spirit and cadences of Indian tribal melodies and portrayed them with extraordinary felicity. The harmonies, often surprising are always convincing. For has the author of the famous American epic come off badly. Long-fellow's lines are translated into music which properly interprets, without embellishing them. The tenor solo in the Wedding Feast "On Away, Awake, Beloved," will be taken by J. Stanton McLaughlin. The solo parts in the "Death of Minnehaha" are sung by Mrs. H. D. Martin and Mr. McLaughlin. Tickets are 35 cents.

Over 100 women are working for the track and field meet to be held soon at the University of Iowa.

C. to the University of Southern California, University of California at Berkeley, Stanford University, Pomona College, University of Oregon, Oregon Agricultural College, Willamette University at Salem, Ore., University of Idaho, University of Montana, Montana State College, Montana Wesleyan, and the University of Washington.

At the coming meeting organization will be completed and plans made for musical competitions next year, to raise the general standard of glee club work, and to extend the influence of the clubs beyond the campus in a stimulation of community singing.

SONG AND STUNT FEST

Class Presidents Appoint Committees For Annual University Event May 19

Preparations are now under way for the annual song and stunt fest to be held the evening of May 19. Committees have been appointed by the four class presidents, and those students who possess clever ideas and have musical or literary ability are greatly in demand on the campus.

The song and stunt fest, which is now an annual affair, was first held in the spring of 1915, and has since that time become one of the most popular of the Idaho traditions. The University of Idaho has long been noted for its music and some of the best Idaho songs have been brought forth from these yearly fests.

This year's committees for the song and stunt fest are as follows: Freshman—Carl Nelson, Marie Gauer, Millard Heath, Emil Strobeck and James Chapman.

Junior—Peter Drus, Talbot Jennings, Ted Sherman, Ruby Gates and Vaughn Prater.

Senior—Henrietta Peasley, Lynn Hersey, Vernon Walters, Clayton "Doc" Hoover, Paul Mock, and Virginia McRae.

SHAKESPEARE STUDENTS OBSERVE HIS BIRTHDAY

Monday morning at eight o'clock the curious may have noticed a small gathering of students down near the tennis courts in front of Ridenbaugh hall and mistook the cause for a dog fight or a botany class without their bee hooks. Nothing could be further from the truth. The sole excuse for the young mob was to celebrate the birth of that well known and famous old bard, Bill Shakespeare, in "The Little Theater Under the Willow."

The personnel of the assembled group was that of the class in the study of Shakespeare, comprised of some forty-three majors and minors in English. The affair was well cared for by a committee of Pearl Stalker, Grace Morgan and Nelson Lloyd. The class presented a scene from "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The committee in charge brought forth a huge cake which had been baked to help do honor to the famous old Englishman.

The affair was quite elaborate and well arranged in every detail. This is the first time in four years that the "Little Theater Under the Willow" has been used for this purpose and Dr. Miller of the English department hopes that it is the beginning of a great number of similar events.

IDAHO ALUMNI RETURN FOR CLASS REUNIONS

UNIVERSITY GRADS TO GATHER ON CAMPUS AGAIN.

Particular Attention to Meetings of Seniors of the Years '08, '03, '08, '13, and '18.

Attempt will be made this year to get back as many as possible of the University of Idaho alumni for the commencement exercises, June 9 to 11, at which time 165 degrees will be granted by the institution. Reunion plans are being made by Prof. W. A. Murray, secretary-treasurer of the alumni association. Mr. Murray is communicating with the members of all classes that are to have reunions this year in an effort to have them plan their gatherings for Moscow during the commencement program. The classes that are to gather this year are those of '08, '03, '08, '13, and '18. Particular attention will be given to getting back as many as possible of the members of the class of '08, of which there are now six members. Special invitations are being sent to all alumni and all of the Greek-letter organizations on the campus are co-operating to induce their alumni members to return at that time.

Commencement at the University of Idaho this spring will be unusually significant. The graduating class is nearly twice the size of any previous one and the commencement program will be featured by the big historical pageant, which will depict the important events in the colorful history of the state of Idaho.

Alumni Day June 9

The alumni program, as tentatively outlined, will consist of an alumni lunch June 9 with a possibility of an alumni-faculty baseball game in the afternoon. The historical pageant will take place that evening. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday, June 10, with commencement exercises the next day. Plans are being made by the alumni associations in co-operation with the university to care for all the alumni on the campus. This will be made possible by the completion of Mary E. Forney hall, new dormitory for women, which is now being equipped. Use of the rooms of Forney hall by the alumni will prevent any congestion at the hotels and will keep the visitors in close touch with all events on the campus.

Don't Forget Your Class Re-unions This Coming June

The alumni secretary is still waiting for more of you grads of '03 and '13 to write and tell him you will be here for a re-union this year and he also wishes to call your attention to the fact that this is the year for the classes of '08 and '18 to return to their alma mater for their re-union.

ASSOCIATED ENGINEERS HOLD APRIL GATHERING

The monthly meeting of the Associated Engineers was held Wednesday evening at the U hut. A campaign to bring new men to the meetings was very successful.

After the regular transaction of business, William A. Murray gave an interesting talk on the history of wireless, giving the history from the first outfit invented by Marconi, the father of the wireless, up to the present day radio outfits.

A lecture, accompanied by a set of slides was given by a representative of the Portland Cement company. The slides and lectures were on the use of cement in the construction of houses.

Only three new members have been taken by the fraternity, this year. They are Prof. H. C. Dale, head of the department of business and economics; William Briscoe, and Clara Lowe.

The present membership is fourteen. These men are Prof. L. I. Schoonover, faculty advisor, Prof. H. C. Dale, George Dean, Ade Nelson, Bill Gartin, Walter Casebolt, Eugene Ostrander, Jack Hasfurther, Eugene Zachman, Cecil Nordby, George Gahan, Al Fox, William Briscoe, and Clara Lowe.
