MEMORIAL DAY

Wednesday is Memorial Day. It is not a holiday—it is a day when every loyal American should honor the soldier dead. It has always been a significant day, but battle scars fade and are forgotten, and to the present generation it was but a passing thought until the World War.

But now thousands of American soldiers lie dead in France, soldiers whom we knew, and who were, and are close to us—friends and brothers. And the day has taken on a new meaning. It has been brought nearer, and its significance has become more vital.

To University of Idaho students the day should have a double significance. The University of Idaho had a larger percentage of students enlisted in the Spanish-American war than any other educational institution in the United States, and a similar record was made by Idaho men in the relative number of commissioned officers during the World War. These are records of which we may well be proud.

And we are more proud of those who gave their lives, those men for whom we sorrow. No tribute is adequate, and no tribute is fitting but an English woman, Winifred Letts, has perhaps approached the tribute to the college-soldier when she simply told the story of the Oxford men "who went abroad to die."

"God rest you happy gentlemen,
Who laid your good lives down;
Who took the khaki and the gun
Instead of cap and gown;
God bring you to a fairer place
Than even Oxford town."

IN RECOGNITION OF SERVICE

Idaho students will be pleased to hear of the action of the Colorado School of Mines in its conferring of the degree of doctor of science upon Dean Thomson for "distinguished service in education and science." The undergraduate takes a personal pride in the honor conferred upon the Idaho dean.

The mining students of Idaho—all of them since the very first year of the school of mines, so ably builded by Dean Thomson, up to the present day "Muckers"—will not congratulate Dean Thomson but the Colorado School of Mines faculty for their ability to recognize service of the highest type.

Dean Thomson is not only an educator that turns out from his school men ready to grasp and solve the most difficult of problems but his service to the mining industry of Idaho and the western states has been invaluable. Dean Thomson has tied up the mining industry of Idaho to the University of Idaho and the mining men are probably more grateful than the graduate who finds himself in demand because he received his training at the Idaho school of mines.

MORE POWER TO YOU HUSKIES

Idaho will watch with interest the invasion of the University of Washington ball team into eastern territory. And may the Huskies slaughter the easterners. Idaho knows that Washington has a great ball team—Washington has forced Idaho to bite diamond dust.

Washington's victories in the east will be Idaho's victories. We will do our best to trim you but we didn't trim you in baseball—at least in three of the games this season and we hope for the best in the fourth. But on your eastern trip Idaho is all behind you.

The FORUM

Moscow, Idaho, May 23, 1923.

Editor of the Argonaut,

Dear Sir: In your editorial on the proposed W. A. A. amendment appearing in the issue of May 22, you have the following: "There is no excuse for the discourteous and entirely uncalled for remark of one of the speakers on the amendment at the last A. S. U. I. meeting."

I presume you have reference to my reference to the "Hobo Club" at Montana. I did not use this either to be discourteous or funny. My point was that almost anybody could attain a letter by persistent effort without any reference to the excellency of the candidate. A true award should be based on competition and not on faithful attendance at practices.

If any other construction has been placed on what I said I have been misunderstood and I am very sorry. I desire this medium to apologize to the women of Idaho.

I trust you will give this room in an early publication of the Argonaut. Sincerely, Kenneth H. Hunter

KAPPA SIG BALL NINE WINS OUTDOOR LEAGUE

The Kappa Sigma baseball nine won the intra-mural baseball championship Wednesday afternoon on McLean field by defeating the Phi Delta Theta outfit, 5 to 4 in a seven inning game. Both outfits proved about on a par until the last inning when a rally by the Kappa Sigs broke the four up tie that had existed. An elaborate 14 inch loving cup presented by the Wright and Ditson Sporting Goods company will be awarded to the campus champs.

Both Tolman, Kappa Sig moundman, and Telford, Phi Delt hurdler, were in good form, keeping the hits scattered and passing few men. However erratic fielding and a slight weakening by Telford in the seventh gave the Kappa Sigs an opening. Patch grounded into the infield and got to first on an error, he stole second and went third on a pass ball. "Bunny" Moore batting for Provost as a pinch hitter was passed by Telford, and Mc-

IDAHO ANNOUNCES NEW RECORD-BREAKING COW

HOLSTEIN-FRIESLAN ASSOCIATION REPORT ON MARK

Animal Now Recognized as Best College-Owned in Her Class—Exceeds 1000 Pound of Milk.

The third Idaho cow in two months' time to exceed 1000 pounds of butter has been reported by the advanced registry department of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America. All three of these cows have been bred and developed by the University of Idaho and indicate the high standard of the Holstein herd which has been developed by the university.

The new leader is Idaho Segis Colantha. Her official record is 23,341.6 pounds of milk and 829.13 pounds of butterfat, equivalent to 1036.41 pounds of butter, starting test at the age of 3 years, 8 months, and 14 days.

By this production record Idaho Segis Colantha becomes the highest record cow for her age owned by a state institution in the United States, displacing California Agnes Colantha, owned by the University of California, who has held the first place for some time with 19,409.6 pounds of milk and 689.9 pounds of butterfat.

Idaho Segis Colantha, also has the distinction of having the second butterfat record in Idaho, and the third largest milk record, being exceeded by only two other members of the University of Idaho herd. She now holds the state record for senior three-year-olds.

This cow was sired by King Segis Matador Walker, who has 11 tested daughters, including two with records of over 1000 pounds of butter and three with over 20,000 pounds of milk, all under mature age. King Segis Matador Walker was sired by the great Matador Segis Walker and out of a cow that was 100 percent the same blood as Segis Pieterje Prospect.

The dam of Idaho Segis Colantha was Alaska Youkon Colantha, one of the foundation cows of the university Holstein herd. She is 14 years of age and still producing. She has three tested daughters, five yearly record granddaughters, and two tested great granddaughters.

with three hits and a base on balls. Walby, Liston and Barrett brought the runs across.

Fox in the eighth and ninth inning kept the visitors from a single hit. Marineau allowed 10 hits in six innings while the visitors got three safeties from Fox's delivery.

Idaho Counts Four

Idaho's big inning with the stick was the sixth. Stivers proclaimed the hitting bee by a long drive to center field that went however for the first out. But Klefner connected safely and went to third on Cobby's long two-base smack. Fitzke scored both men with his long single and in turn went to second on a single by Harry Edward. Fitzke scored on Lawson's pretty two base drive and Guirnela scored Edwards from third with his single. Lawson went out at home for the third out when caught trying to score on Guirnela's safe blow.

Washington's fielding feature was the making of a double play by Welts who picked up a grounder, tagged the man coming from second base, and threw to first in time to catch the batter. The double out nipped in the bud the possibility of an Idaho comeback in that Edwards had opened the inning by hitting safely.

Fitzke will probably work against the Huskies Tuesday afternoon and it is the general belief of the campus that Washington, though unwilling, might split even with Idaho on the home series.

In the eighth inning the visitors made two runs on Zimmerman's homer. Sorsby reached first on Klefner's error and he scored just ahead of Zimmerman when Zimmerman poked out his home run.

Klefner made Idaho's tenth run in the eighth with his long and hard hit home run.

CADET REGIMENT TO PARADE MEMORIAL DAY

The statue occupies a commanding position in the cemetery, and stands 13 feet high.

J. M. O'Gorman will be the principal speaker at the exercises to be held in the afternoon at the city park when both the Doughboy monument, erected in honor of the men who gave their lives in their country's service, and the victory arch, erected by citizens of Moscow, on suggestion of Mrs. Warren Truitt, head of the city park board, and through the chamber of commerce and a number of individual persons interested in the matter in honor of all Latah county men who served in the war.

Parade at 1:30

All ex-service men, together with the University of Idaho R.O.T.C. regiment, will march in parade through the city streets, beginning at 1:30 o'clock. The line of march will commence at the university campus, and will continue on down University avenue to Main street, and thence up Third street to the city park. The parade will be led by Col. E. R. Chrisman, commandant of the university cadet regiment and Commander Eugene Nagele of the Moscow post of the American Legion.

The program at the park will be short, the monument to be dedicated first, and then the arch, which stands at the southwest entrance to the park. Homer Canfield, pioneer resident of Latah county, and father of the memorial bill through which the Doughboy statue was made available, in a telegram to the American Legion received here this afternoon, announced that he would be in Moscow tomorrow, and would give a short talk at the unveiling of the monument.

Unveiling Ceremony

The unveiling will be done by three overseas men, a soldier, sailor, and a marine. The unveiling ceremony will be conducted according to the American Legion manual of ceremonies, with Commander Eugene Nagele presiding officer. After the unveiling of the statue, Mrs. Blanch Schoonover will read Lincoln's Gettysburg address. Prof. C. W. Chenoweth will act as chaplain during the services.

Work of placing the statue on the marble base in the center of the park was begun today, and is to be finished tomorrow. It was said by Commander Nagele this afternoon. The monument has been in Moscow for several months past, and has been standing in its case on the Latah county courthouse lawn.

WASHINGTON PLAYERS TO REPRESENT WEST

TWO YEAR CHAMPIONS TO PLAY EASTERN TEAMS

Mathews Coached Pennant Winners Last Season—Idaho Wishes Huskies All Success on Tour

University of Washington ball players, league leaders in two conferences, will journey from Moscow to Missoula, Mont. for a series with the University of Montana and then on for a series of games with the best college teams of the east including the University of North Dakota, Penn State, Boston College at Boston, Mass., the University of Michigan, and Iowa State.

Washington's ball team is to represent the Pacific coast and Northwest conferences in that the Huskies are now leading both leagues this season and were champions last season. The University of Idaho students with the Huskies the best of luck and are looking to them to show the easterners just what a good brand of ball looks like.

Washington has by far and away the best college ball team in the two conferences. This year's nine is made up practically of men who have been playing together for three teams. Two years ago the Huskies finished in second place and last season they grabbed the pennants in both conferences. This season the championship has been won by the Washington team.

Coach R. L. Mathews, head of the Idaho athletic department, was coach of the Washington ball team last season. In going through a championship season his team lost but three games out of 32 played. But three new men are on the team this season.

Fourteen men are being carried by Coach "Tubby" Graves and two of these men will be dropped from the eastern trip after the Montana series.

Edwards Gets Homer

Nor was the party over. Charley Lawson connected for his second successive single. Brooks was called off the mound and "Hunk" Latham came in from right field to do the honors for Oregon. He pitched a couple of balls and then Harry Edwards, the first man to face him, banged out the second homer of the inning.

Idaho added one more to the collection of runs in the third inning. Klefner again smashed out a two base drive and went to third on a passed ball. He came across the rubber when Cobby drove a long and high fly to right field.

Fox Called to Mound

The game progressed along nicely until the seventh inning when Oregon began to connect with Golden's offerings. Baldwin hit safely and went to second on an error. Latham scored him with a three base hit and Latham was in turn scored when Collins cracked out his second three base hit of the game. The three sack hitting was not over for Brooks connected for a three-ply swat scoring Collins. Svareude drew a base on balls and Ross singled, scoring Collins.

At this stage of the inning Fox was called in from center field to the mound and Hillman took Fox's place in center field. Sorsby, the first man to face Fox, knocked a fly to Edwards for the third out.

Idaho's Twelfth Run

Idaho made the twelfth run in the eighth inning. Edwards connected for a three base hit and scored when "Flip" Guirnela singled safely. Fox kept the Oregonians guessing in the remaining eighth and ninth innings. Oregon players were retired in one-two-three order in the eighth and in the ninth Al walked the first man up but struck out the next two and the third out was made on an easy

EIGHT TRACK TEAMS IN CONFERENCE MEET

A. S. U. I. TICKETS AND DOLLAR ADMIT IDAHO STUDENTS

Annual Dual Classic at Pullman Saturday Afternoon—Twelve Vandal Stars to be Entered

University of Idaho students will be admitted to the Pacific Coast and Northwest intercollegiate conference track meet, on Rogers field of Washington State college at Pullman Saturday June 2, for one dollar upon presentation of A. S. U. I. tickets, according to announcement made from the Idaho athletic department offices Monday.

Preliminary events may be run off Friday afternoon and the final events will start promptly at 1:30 Saturday afternoon. A large crowd is expected from the University of Idaho. Provision for the Idaho students was made by Coach Mathews and J. Fred "Doc" Bohler, Washington State athletic director.

Idaho Enters 12 Men

Idaho will enter 12 men in the conference meet and the prospects are bright for a reasonable showing by the Idaho athletes. Keith will be entered in the 100 yard dash. Casebolt is expected to be a strong contender for first place in the 440 yard dash and Powers is expected to make his opponents step in the 440 yard dash and the 220 yard low hurdles.

Sowder is to be an entrant in the 880 yard run and Captain Guy Penwell is looked upon to place and possibly win the mile run. Lawrence Quinn is Idaho's entry in the shot put and discus throw. George Walker is to be Idaho's pole vaulter. Nichol is an Idaho entry in the discus throw event and Brady is Idaho's lone entry in the two-mile.

Relay Team Is Strong

Idaho's relay team is looked upon as a favorite to place in the mile relay event with Hasbrouck, Hillman, Pollard and Casebolt making up the team. Idaho's star two-miler, Lewis Williams, has not recovered from the effects of a pulled tendon. The loss of Williams is a severe blow in that the plucky little Idaho two-miler was looked upon as one of the most formidable men in his event in the conference.

With the national field and track championship team in action, and competition from the eight largest institutions of the Pacific Coast and Northwest, many records are expected to be broken when the State College of Washington acts as host to the athletes of the two big conferences, Northwest and Pacific Coast.

The records of the Northwest conference are, except for the 220 yd. hurdles, shot put, discus and the high and broad jumps, far better than those of the Pacific Coast, but both should establish new high marks.

National Championship Team

The University of California for two years has held the national championship and the University of Oregon is holder of the largest number of records in both conferences—120 yard high hurdles, shot put, javelin and broad jump in the Northwest, and in the Pacific Coast the javelin and mile, with Northwest ties in high jump and 100 yard dash for first.

The University of Washington is a close second in the matter of records to her credit. Washington has the Northwest record in discus, 440-yd. and mile, and Pacific Coast record in shot put and discus, tied for first in high jump and 220 yard low hurdles in the Northwest conference, and for 100 yard dash in Pacific Coast.

Washington State College ranks third in number of records held, with the Northwest 220 yard dash, pole vault, and mile relay, and Pacific Coast pole vault, as well as tying first place in Northwest 220 yard hurdles and 100 yard dash.

Stanford is next with coast records in 120 yard high hurdles, 220 yard low hurdles, 220 yard dash and high jump; and a tie in 100 yard dash. California has the Pacific Coast records in 440 yard run, mile relay and broad jump. Idaho holds records for both conferences in the two mile and ties the Northwest 100 yard dash. As yet the University of Montana has not been able to smash any conference records.

MEN'S TAILOR

Silver Lance Selects Traditional Honor Men

With the pledging of Fred Crandall, Abe Goff, Talbot Jennings, Charles Preuss and Walter Casebolt, the Silver Lance established a new Idaho tradition in the method of "tapping" the men selected to the senior mens honorary fraternity.

Driving around to the various places where the students were at work on the campus day projects, members of the fraternity picked up the ones selected, drove them to the "I" bench, sacred to the seniors, and told them of their election. In the future pledges will always be made on campus day, and in this manner.

Silver Lance is a very select honorary group of the small number of men who have stood high in scholarship, and who have been active in college activities.

The present members are Lynn Hersey, Robert M. Cummins, Robert Holbrook, Phil Buck, William S. Briscoe, Robert Lee, Greek Wells, and Rex Kimmell.

GEM OF THE MOUNTAINS TO BE DELIVERED SOON

The Gem of the Mountains, Idaho's year-book, will be ready for delivery shortly after June 1. The sales committee will distribute the copies to the students from a huge table in the main hall of the Administration building. Glen Wilkenson, manager, will devote an entire day to the appointment and sale of the publication.

Due to a staff regulation, students' names and organization insignia will not be stamped on the covers as in preceding years. This new regulation will eliminate any difference in cost, and every copy will be sold for $4.50.

Only a limited number of books were printed, and for this reason, all those who subscribed during the advanced sale campaign will be given first attention. Very few extra copies will be obtainable, and as a consequence they will be in great demand by those students who did not subscribe earlier in the year.

AGRICULTURE GRADS TO TAKE GOOD JOBS

NINE SENIORS RECEIVE OFFERS FROM HIGH SCHOOLS

Several Men to Teach Classes and Take Charge of Athletics—To Handle Smith-Hughes Work

Benefits derived from the University of Idaho college of agriculture are shown again in the number from this spring's graduating class who have already been selected for important teaching positions throughout the northwest. Of the class of 14 graduates, nine have already received offers, and in most cases accepted, for teaching positions at salaries somewhat above the average of students coming directly from college.

J. A. Giteau, supervisor of vocational education for the state of Washington; H. M. Skidmore, federal supervisor for the 11 western states; and William Kerr, Idaho supervisor, recently visited the University of Idaho to confer with graduates who desired to do Smith-Hughes agricultural teaching in high schools. They were so well pleased with the possibilities of the Idaho graduates that they immediately made arrangements for their appointments.

To Coach Athletics

Several of the agricultural graduates this spring possess the very desirable combination of agricultural and athletic ability.

J. Fred Cline of Moscow will teach Smith-Hughes agriculture at Bureka, Mont.; Oswald Thompson of Moscow will teach Smith-Hughes agriculture and will coach athletics at Leavenworth, Wash.; George Tucker of Notus will teach Smith-Hughes agriculture at Filer; Herbert Glindeman of Coeur d'Alene will teach Smith-Hughes agriculture at Pasco, Wash.; Howard Hechtner of Lapwai will teach Smith-Hughes agriculture at Manhattan, Mont.; Harry Edwards of Moscow will also probably accept one of the offers as Smith-Hughes instructor and athletic coach at some northwest high school; while Wendell Palmer of Malad and Fred Horning of Hermiston, Ore., will probably accept Smith-Hughes positions in Idaho. Naomi Chapman of Asotin, Wash., the first girl student to be graduated in agriculture in the history of the university will also probably accept a place as instructor in science and agriculture.

PIANO RECITAL CLOSES UNIVERSITY VESPER SERVICES

Fred Sommers, sophomore student, Sunday afternoon delighted a good sized audience of music lovers in a piano recital at the University auditorium in the last of this year's Sunday vesper services.

Mr. Sommers program was well arranged, and his technique excellent. Several difficult numbers were played, and all found a responsive appreciation.

The program is as follows:

1. Sonata Eroica.....MacDowell
2. Gavotte.....Gluck-Brahms
3. Schergo in E Minor.....Mendelssohn
4. The Eagle.....MacDowell
5. Romanze in D Flat.....Libelius
6. XII Hungarian Rhapsody.....Liszt

Montana University Honors Idaho Girl

Missoula, Mont., May 26—(Special) Miss Alice Hankinson of Moscow, Idaho, a senior in the school of journalism, was elected and crowned "Queen of the Junior Prom" at the dance held in the university gymnasium last Friday night. The queen is elected each year by a popular ballot of the student body.

Miss Hankinson has been very prominent in campus activities and student affairs, and during her attendance at the university has shown marked talent in dramatic presentation. Her last appearance in a student production was as the "Molusc" in the play of that name presented during the interscholastic track meet several weeks ago, and credited by local, and state newspapers as being the best university production of the past two years. The play made a state-wide tour as a result of the popularity it achieved at its local presentation.

Miss Hankinson is a member of Alpha Chi Omega, social, and Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalism, fraternities, Mortar Board, senior women's organization, the Masquers, dramatic club, and the Press club. She will be graduated in June.

Miss Hankinson is a former University of Idaho student.

DUAL MEET WITH W.S.C. CANCELLED FOR SEASON

The dual track and field meet between the University of Idaho and Washington State college varsity and first year track teams, scheduled for Saturday afternoon, was called off on account of rain and the resultant wet track and field. The varsity meet has been called off entirely but the freshman meet will be held Thursday afternoon on McLean field starting about 3:30.

Both the Idaho varsity and frosh track men bowed before the prowess of the W. S. C. track stars in a dual meet at Pullman early in the season. Idaho has been weak this season in field event men and strong only in the mile, two mile run, 880 yard run and 440 yard dash.

Idaho's track team will enter the Pacific coast intercollegiate track and field meet at Pullman Saturday afternoon and because of the all-conference meet the dual contest was called off in order to allow the athletes of both colleges to get in the best of shape.

University of California, (P.I.P.A.)—Scabard and Blade, national military honor society, was installed on the campus recently by Col. A. S. Burket, California chief.
