STRONG LINEUP TO FACE STATE TEAM

Opportunity, Unparalleled in Two College Generations, Awaits Idaho Football Team in W. S. C. Classic on Rogers Field, Pullman, Friday Afternoon.

ANNOUNCE OPENING LINEUP

Mathews Names Men To Start Against the Cougar Eleven

(By LOUIS A. BOAS)

Idaho's big opportunity for which two college generations have waited has arrived this year, in the opinions of students and alumni followers of Coast conference football, and indications point to an Idaho victory over the Washington State Cougar Friday afternoon on Roger's field, Pullman, as they have never before during the past ten years.

Not since 1913 have the Silver and Gold colors floated victorious over the Crimson and Grey, and for years they hung listless before Cougar avalanches during which Idaho failed to even score.

During the athletic history of the two rival institutions, Idaho has won but seven contests, lost 17, and tied four. The results of 25 football classics between the two traditional rivals are given below.

REDUCED STUDENT RATE OBTAINED FOR CONTEST

The Union Pacific will run a special train to and from the annual Idaho-W. S. C. game Friday afternoon, October 19. The train leaves the O. W. R. & N. depot at 1 o'clock and returns to Moscow at 5:30. The train has been arranged for and will be in charge of P. J. Nixdorff of Spokane, traveling agent of the Union Pacific.

The complete schedule is: leave Moscow, 1:00 p. m.; arrive Pullman, 1:30 p. m.; leave Pullman, 5:00 p. m.; arrive Moscow, 5:30 p. m.

The train will stop at the foot of the W. S. C. campus and start again after the game from the same place. Round trip tickets at 70 cents must be purchased prior to boarding the train.

The Pep band will be on the train. There will be ample accommodations for the expected crowd of 1500 students and 1000 Moscow people and high school students. The train will be run on schedule and students have been urged to be on time for their own good.

FROSH COMMITTEES NAMED FOR BONFIRE

ACTIVE WORK ON BIG BLAZE BEGUN TODAY

Carefully Planned System of Guarding Worked Out By First Year Men

The frosh have perfected their organization for building their monstrous bonfire, and their scouts are ready to guard the campus with all their zeal. This afternoon they began gathering inflammable substances to put to use on their fire Thursday night at the pep rally preceding the W. S. C. game. To-night they will begin standing watch to prevent opposing colleges from painting names on prominent university buildings or otherwise displaying their playfulness.

"Chick" Sinsel has been appointed as chairman of the bonfire committee by Walter Tucker, president of the freshman class. Norman Nelson, Pat Flynn and Clyde Morse have been named as the other members on the committee.

LIEUTENANTS NAMED

As a general committee, one member has been appointed from each house on the campus to look after the men in his group who will take part in the freshmen proceedings.

By Wilcox has been appointed from Beta Theta Pi, Jenkins from Phi Delta Theta, Frank Neil from Kappa Sigma, Charles Diehl from Sigma Nu, Milles from the Elwetias, Hansen from S. A. E., Paterson from Phi Gamma Delta, Glenn Jones from Kappa Delta, Clark Cram from Phi Alpha Psi, Thornton Dobb from Lindley hall.

DEWEY NAMED CHAIRMAN

Con Dewey has been named chairman of the guard committee, to be assisted by Claud Bollard and Clark Heiss. They will be in charge of placing the campus guards from today until Thursday. Guard duty will extend two hours for each relief from six to-night. About one hundred men will be needed for each group or shift, according to Tucker.

Excitement reigns supreme among the freshmen over the big conflict, and careful and tender guarding will be afforded the "I" tanks on both sides of town, as well as the administration building and the gymnasium.

RALLY IN BLEACHERS FOR LODGE DELEGATES

OPEN PRACTICE FOR I. O. O. F. DELEGATES WEDNESDAY

Serpentine From Ad Building At 3:30 Will Begin Demonstration For Visitors

At four o'clock Wednesday a huge pep meeting for the Odd Fellows, who are holding a state convention here 500 strong, will be given on the bleachers of the athletic field by all the students of the university.

Arrangements have been made by the officials to excuse all classes for the afternoon at three o'clock in order to give everyone a chance to attend.

CONVENTION THIS WEEK

The Odd Fellows, who started their annual state convention here Monday, are gathered from all parts of the state, coming in on the Idaho special from the south and eastern parts Sunday. The convention will last until Thursday, and possibly longer. Efforts are being made to have them stay over long enough to see the game between Idaho and W. S. C. on Friday at Pullman.

President Upham has invited the Odd Fellows to attend the meeting of rosters in order that they can see something of the spirit which the student body shows, and something of the spirit which has raised Idaho so high among western universities.

FULL PEP PROGRAM

Yells, songs and a general pep rally will be the program. For the last time before the W. S. C. game, the football practice will be open, and will be witnessed by the members of the convention and the student body.

Ted Turner, yell king, has requested every student to be present at the rally, which will start from in front of the Administration building at 3:30 with a serpentine to the athletic field.

"This is our golden opportunity to show a group of men from every part of Idaho just what kind of a student spirit we have at Idaho, and to let them go back home feeling that the institution of the state is a live wire organization, producing real men and women for the state," said Mr. Turner.

NORTH DIDN'T WANT UNIVERSITY--BADLEY

AGED SENATOR PROPOSED BILL FOR UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO

Placed in Moscow as Means of Keeping State Together When Division Was Threatened

"No sir, the north didn't want the university here. They fought it tooth and nail. Some of the senators went out gunning for the proposition, and they could sure fight when they went. But we forced it on them, to hold the state together," B. L. Badley, the same "Bad" Badley, the scrapping senator who years ago introduced the bill in the legislature to put the University of Idaho in the north, scratched his chin reflectively and his eyes danced like a boy's despite his 72 years.

"Uncle John Hailey had been authorized to divide the state, and he was going to do it. We tried to stop him, but he cut it up, and the bill went to the national legislature, and was passed by both houses and then went to the president. But there it lay until it was automatically killed by the pocket veto.

MOSCOW-BOISE TRAIN TO CARRY 200 FANS

THIRD ANNUAL ARMISTICE DAY TRIP PLANNED

Two Hundred Football Enthusiasts Expected From North Idaho At O. A. C. Game

The third "friendship special" train, taking north Idaho football enthusiasts to Boise for the Armistice day game between the University of Idaho and Oregon Agricultural college, will leave Moscow at 3:30 on the afternoon of Thursday, Nov. 8, over the O. W. R. & N., arriving in Boise at 9:30 Friday morning. The game will be played Saturday, Nov. 10, and the train returning will start at 11 on the morning of the 11th reaching Moscow at 5:15 a. m., Monday, Nov. 12.

Pullman sleeper accommodations for 200 fans will be provided, in addition to a special Pullman for the team. There will be also a day coach and a composite observation car, which with the six sleepers, baggage car and diner will make up an all-street train of 10 cars.

MANY GROUPS INTERESTED

Members of the Moscow Chamber of Commerce, university alumni, former students and present members of the student body will cooperate in making up a trainload of boosters for the trip south.

Rates have been announced by P. J. Nixdorff of Spokane, traveling freight and passenger agent, as follows: round trip, Moscow to Boise and return, $22.54; Pullman lower, round trip, $11.51; upper berth, $9.20. LARGER NUMBER EXPECTED

Last year 143 persons took the trip. Business men so far as possible arranged to take necessary trips at that time of the year, as the special afforded them a through train to the south without change. Much emphasis was placed also on the "friendship special" idea, the belief being expressed that the excursion had contributed much toward better acquaintance between north and south Idaho.

The special car for the team will be taken from the train at Boise and routed to Palo Alto and Los Angeles for the games with Stanford and the University of Southern California.

VANDALL TEAM DOWNS BRUIN BY BIG SCORE

MONTANA TAKEN INTO CAMP FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Mathews' Squad Has Little Difficulty Crossing Goal Line In Second Battle

The Vandals tamed the Bruins Friday afternoon and in the taming displayed a stone-wall defense against a heavier team by 15 pounds offensive or scoring power as evidenced by a total of 40 points on six touchdowns and four conversions, and a pretty exhibition of eleven co-ordinated, business-like individuals working as a co-ordinated whole.

And with the Washington State college game but one week away the Montana contest caused one to say with utmost satisfaction "Yea, verily the time has and must come."

In winning from Montana, Idaho players observed the opening of the 1923 Northwest conference schedule with a victory.

VANDALS OUTPLAY BRUINS

The Vandals outplayed the Bruins. The test of the Montana game demonstrated that the gridiron representatives of the silver and gold can meet and defeat a heavier team. While Montana was making three first downs from scrimmage Idaho

BONFIRE AND PARADE COME THURSDAY EVE

CO-EDS TO SERPENTINE THROUGH GROUP HOUSES

Pajama Parade To Begin From Campus Steps At 7:00 In Evening

The biggest rally of the year, age old in its significance, will break out Thursday night with enthusiasm keyed to top pitch and a wonderful chance for victory looming in the conflict with W. S. C. Friday.

Night shirts and pajamas are being dragged out of their moth balls, red torches are being prepared out of mysterious chemicals, and the campus is getting ready to blow the roof off the sky with a bonfire and rally that will be heard from Pullman to U. S. C. The young freshmen, toiling faithfully, have collected everything burnable from cigarette butts to telephone poles, and the flame will go shooting up during the snappy program.

CO-EDS TO PERFORM

But the co-eds! Brothers, hold your seats. At fifteen minutes to six p. m. they will gather at Forney hall arrayed in white sweaters and "I" caps and form a long serpentine to twist its way through all the group houses on the campus and interrupt with "On Old Idaho" the gentle gurgling of soup and pleasant swishing of mashed potatoes.

Miss Demerice Ebbly, who is girls' yell queen or duchess, has announced that there will be no primary rehearsal. Then, as a matter of fact, they will probably have something so peppy in store that they will outshine the men like an American salesman passing up a hindu merchant.

GATHER AT 7:00 P. M.

Dressed in their night shirts, pajamas and "I" caps, the men will gather at the campus steps at seven sharp, and a long serpentine will commence down town to Fourth and Main where it will meet the feminine contingent coming from the last group house.

With the big parade serpentine, singing, and yelling, they will go through the hotel and movie houses and finally to the fair grounds, where the fire will be waiting to shoot smoke up with Orion and the big dipper.

"Yea, verily, the time has come!"

Not since the historic year of 1913 has an Idaho eleven emerged victorious in a regular college game with the Cougars but next Friday at Pullman another knot will have been tied in the Cougar's tail while Matty's Vandals, standard bearers of the Silver and the Gold, will be carried in triumph from the field.

PROPHCY REALIZED

"Eight long years have we waited, but behold the time has come and on Friday, the Nineteenth day of October, the prophcy in all its satisfying fullness will be realized."

All activity on the Idaho campus is focused, centered and concentrated on the annual classic. Idaho must and will win. Fifteen hundred strong the students of Idaho, ably assisted by 1000 Moscow people and Idaho citizens, will live and fight the game with the Vandals of 1923.

SPECIAL TO BIG GAME ON O. W. LEAVES 1 P. M.

Idaho undergraduates must present A. S. U. I. tickets in purchasing W. S. C. game tickets and at the gate at Roger's field. Tickets are to cost $1, the same price paid by W. S. C. students last year when the game was at Idaho. The A. S. U. I. tickets must be presented when the tickets are purchased and also at the gate.

Fifteen hundred tickets will be placed on sale in the Ad building from Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock to Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Students must purchase tickets here as tickets will not be obtainable at Pullman. The north side of the field, 1500 seats, has been reserved for Idaho undergrads. The team will be in front and the Pep band with the Idaho crowd.

Faculty season tickets will not admit on student rates. Faculty members will be charged four bits more or a sum total of $1.50. Eight hundred general admission tickets are on sale at Jerry's starting Wednesday. These tickets admit to the south side of the field and to any vacant seats on the north side after the students have been seated.

KICKS

If something is wrong with The Argonaut, say so. It belongs to you as much as it does to anyone else. But it doesn't improve the paper to tell everyone but the editor about it. If something's wrong, tell him. If you're right, he'll fix it up, and if you're wrong, he'll tell you about it.

FOOTBALL

Idaho football prospects have soared within the past two or three days, and nothing can be talked of on the campus but the coming game. That is as it should be. We can't talk it up too much. The morale of the student body is the morale of the team. So let's get heart and soul into the game, and for the next four days do nothing but eat, sleep and talk football.

BE THERE!

Why is it necessary for the "I" club to say that everyone must turn out for the pep rallies? And why is it that even then some students take a particular delight in dodging such gatherings? Has Idaho spirit become a thing of the past?

At the rally two weeks ago the crowd was far from being even a third of the student body. That isn't encouraging to the team, and it isn't encouraging to the yell leaders.

There is another rally Wednesday afternoon. Every student who is not working should be on hand. It is imperative. Five hundred people, representatives of the I. O. O. F. and the Rebekahs will be there to see the university student body, 1200 strong, in action. These visitors come from all parts of the state, and they will tell the folks back home their impressions of the university.

So every undergraduate should help form that impression. If you are going to live on the Idaho campus, be an Idaho student. What the university needs is boosters, not loafers, and students, not mere hangers-on.

SOCIETY

Phi Delta Theta entertained with an informal house dance Friday evening. The guests were: Misses H. Stone, M. Collins, Wood, Taggart, Palsley, Kutnewsky, Tschurgi, Boyer, Jones, Drake, Long, Batterton, C. Collins, Shaw, Helm, McMasters, Beardsley, Barnett, Cox, Maloney, Rach, Bennett, McArthur, Featherstone, Sparks, Penwell, Barnhart, Good, Jenness, Dunn, Selby, F. Stone, A. Cox, Blackinger, Dayton, Mount, O'Conner, Hankinson, Hausen, McKenna. Mrs. Jennings and Mrs. Everly, Mr. and Mrs. Homer David, Mr. and Mrs. E. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gail, and Benny Comrada.

The football season seems to have its effect on even the social functions of the campus. After our victory over Montana on Saturday, the Senior Ruff, an all college dance, was held in the gymnasium. The game with W. S. C. next Friday is being looked forward to with great interest and the Athletic Ball, which always follows the annual game will be one of the big social events of the year.

The Kappa Kappa Gammas entertained their pledges with a dance Saturday evening. The party was held at the Armubster residence and the decorations were in the sorority colors. A five piece orchestra furnished the music for the evening. Those invited were the Messrs. F. Marchesi, D. Sutherland, A. Ficke, H. Messenger, R. Dresser, L. Helphrey, K. Ackerman, B. Moore, M. Blair, G. Gahan, S. Taylor, T. Turner, Jr., T. T. Turner, Sr., P. Johnson, L. Provost, G. Walker, F. Crandal, C. King, E. Lethe, J. Wagner, B. Guernsey, P. Eaton, K. Anderson, E. Gowanlock, R. Fields, M. Jackson, C. Murray, G. Elrod, W. McRae, W. Griffin, G. Platt, W. Galloway, W. Huddleson, and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart.

Kappa Sigma entertained with an informal dance Friday. The guest lists included: Misses O. Hunt, M. Johnson, M. McNichols, D. Darling, E. Cooper, H. Honnold, M. Eichner, K. Dwyer, F. DuPoint, G. Shepard, G. Jacobson, F. Walker, H. Grinnin, C. DeWitt, H. Stanton, E. Sake, E. Bollinger, P. Panghorn, B. Suppinger, M. Mathieu, H. Ramsey, E. T. Thompson, V. House, M. Fox, and the Messrs. D. Cline, P. Barto and D. Thompson of Lewiston.

The Alpha Deltas entertained at an informal house dance Friday evening. Mrs. Katherine Griffin chaperoned the party and a fireside followed the dance. The guests were Messrs. Hausen, B. Kuhns, Nilson, R.

Royce, G. Black, Potter, Rooks, Kennedy, Wickward, R. Moore, Selley, Sandback, Smolak, MacMillan, and Christie, of Montana.

On a mere basis of comparative showings, and on opinions given by leading sporting writers and critics in the northwest, advanced after carefully collecting first hand information, Idaho this year is quoted to leash the Cougar, harmless and helpless, with the thongs of the Gem State Vandals.

Not that it won't be a contest which will warm the hearts of Idaho supporters not that it won't be a battle during every single minute which the two teams face each other, not that the Washington State men won't battle, but Idaho this year will place a team on the field better equipped with football ingenuity, better trained, and possessing more determination to conquer than they have possessed in years.

WILL UNCOCK PLAYS

The Idaho squad during the past week has been going through the most rigid training of the season in preparation for Friday's big game. Idaho has been keeping her plays under cover so far this season, and nothing outside the realm of straight football has been yet indulged in. Friday's game will now see the Vandal machine uncock some of its new plays which have been developed to a high state of efficiency, as those privileged to witness some of the practices will vouchsafe.

The Cougars most glaring weakness seems to be in their defense, their line appears unweildy, unable to jump at the snap of the ball, while in contrast the spring with which the Vandal linesmen charge, and their aggressive work have been the marvel of sporting critics who have watched them in action. That Idaho will be outweighed is certain, the Cougars averaging around 175 pounds to about 168 for the locals.

ALL MEN IN CONDITION

Idaho during the past two weeks suffered serious setbacks because of injuries to first string players, but by the graces of providence practically every man will be in condition to enter Friday's game fully recovered and ready to play the game of his career.

Frank Kinnison, who suffered injuries two weeks ago, went through the Montana game unscathed, his first real scrimmage of the year, and will be ready to play his position as Vandal fullback should Coach Mathews call upon him, as is a forgone conclusion.

"Skip" Stivers, brilliant Idaho quarterback, who was held from last week's game because of injuries is also back in uniform and will open the game as general of the football machine. Kieffner, who sustained body injuries previous to the College of Idaho clash has rounded into the pink of condition, and will undoubtedly see all kinds of action against the Cougars.

ANNOUNCES LINEUP

Coach Mathews last evening gave to the press a tentative lineup to start the big contest, which is given herewith as that most likely to face

Stivers will take the field as quarterback, with Davis left halfback and Fitzke as a running mate at right half. Either Kinnison or Vessler will start at fullback, with the possibilities being strongly in favor of Kinnison.

For W. S. C. no tentative lineup could be obtained at this time. However, Coach Exendine will have a number of good men to put against the Idaho eleven when it takes the field. It is probable that after their showing against Gonzaga Saturday, in which Gonzaga administered to Washington State its most stinging defeat in years, that he will do some shifting of players. Men who have been doing work for him so far are as follows:

COUGAR MATERIAL

Johnson at end, a recruit from last year's freshman squad, seems assured of his berth, and will undoubtedly start the game, as will Marker at fullback, another yearling last year. Hickey, who it will be remembered played a wonderful game against Idaho on MacLean field last year, is picked to start at left half, with Zaeffel at quarter.

It was largely because of the consistent line plunging of these two men last year that Idaho bit the dust, falling back time and again before their powerful onslaughts. Both men will bear watching Friday.

Hjertoos, tackle, and Brown, guard, are both reliable men. Wetzel, guard, has had experience, as has Burkes who seems likely to play center for the Cougar aggregation.

ROLL UP HEAVY SCORES

To date, Idaho has rolled up 123 points against her two opponents this fall, while W. S. C. has scored 23, 19 against Pacific University, and 14 against Gonzaga. This should not be taken as indicative of the relative strengths of the two teams, for while Idaho was playing mediocre teams, W. S. C. was bucking one of the most dangerous elevens bidding for Northwest honors.

GUARD CAMPUS HEALTH BY HOUSE COMMITTEES

Organization Formed to Combat Chance of Disease Epidemic

An organization to perfect the health and sanitation problems on the campus has been perfected by the faculty health committee. Dr. Gibbs is presiding as chairman. Three members from each organization were represented at the meeting. A captain and lieutenant were appointed for each house to look after and take care of any cases of illness before they develop into anything serious, since there will be no house to house inspection this year.

Miss Andrews gave a talk explaining the duties of the committees and means of carrying them out. She wished to impress the necessity of the cooperation of the students in this work. The total capacity of the infirmary is fifteen, which makes it impossible to curb an epidemic in case one should start. More care and aid in carrying out the present infirmary rules was also urged.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Mrs. Blomquist, the assistant dean of women, will be in the dean of women's office at the Ad building from 10 to 12 every morning, and at her residence at Forney hall from 1 to 3 every afternoon.

Persons wishing to see her regarding special permission dates, dates for dances, chaperones, etc., will call at the hours specified.

Mrs. Blomquist will take full charge during the absence of Miss French.

HONORARY ENGINEERS' GROUP ANNOUNCES FIVE NEW PLEDGES

Sigma Tau, honorary fraternity in the college of engineering, has announced pledges for this year. The group was formed three years ago as a local, and two years ago they received a national chapter of Sigma Tau.

The pledges are Arvil Anderson, Louis Brossard, Paul Ballif and Roy Shoults, juniors in the college of engineering, and Fritz McGonigle, junior in the school of mines.

FORMER ARGONAUT EDITOR HERE FOR W. S. C. GAME

C. H. Swanstrom, '21, former editor of the Argonaut, and well known among Idaho alumni, is a guest at the Elweta's house this week. Mr. Swanstrom is engaged in law practice at Cashmere, Wash. He expects to remain here until after the W. S. C. football game.

FORESTERS CHARWARI MR. AND MRS. WATSON

The Associated foresters recently gave a charwari at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Watson, who were married in Salt Lake City on September 5. The determined foresters produced an incessant roar and clamor for a considerable time, before Mr. Watson ceded them a decisive victory.

The newly married couple spent their honeymoon in an extended tour, from Salt Lake City to Moscow, by way of the Yellowstone National park, returning in time to take up their faculty work.

Mrs. Watson is assistant instructor in botany, and was known on the campus last year as Miss Alice M. Johnson. Mr. Watson is instructor in forestry.

was making thirteen. The 18-yard line was the closest that the Montana team came to the Idaho goal line while six times the Vandals crossed the Montana line and most of the play was in the territory of the visitors.

"Smilin' Bob" Fitzke continued to show his stuff against Montana as he did against the College of Idaho. His sensational open field tactics, his clever dodging and ducking, his elusiveness and his power were all features of an entirely satisfactory afternoon. Fitzke was the individual ground gainer of the afternoon, thanks to his own ability but more particularly to the work of his teammates.

LINESMEN HIT HARD
The fast-charging, hard-hitting, heady and scrappy Vandal forwards made the heavier Bruin linesmen ineffectual while the power, drive and zip of the backfield men were things delightful to behold. Idaho enthusiasts enthused and had ample license therefore.

An interesting sidelight is to be found in the fact that Idaho players after the game were soaked in perspiration—they had worked hard—while many of the Montana men had dry sweaters after the game. The relative condition of the two teams could be found in the number of times out called for Montana while Idaho men played the game through. Coach Mathews sent out a trained team, made up of men in good physical condition. Idaho athletes train and violations of training rules under Mathews are unknown.

IDAHO DROP-KICK FAILS
Scrimmage started from Montana's 20-yard line with Montana carrying the pigskin. A line smash failed of success and Montana fumbled on the next play. Huefner recovered the ball and two Idaho bucks failed to gain materially. Davis carried the ball for a five yard gain, and Fitzke fell back for a drop-kick. The kick failed by inches.

Idaho's first touchdown came as the result of a Montana fumble. After an exchange of punts in which Montana was bested Montana fumbled and Bucklin recovered for Idaho on the 37-yard line. Successive gains by Davis, Kinnison, Vesser and Fitzke and Idaho was on the one-yard line with four downs to go. Kinnison crashed over for the first touchdown. Fitzke place-kicked for the point after touchdown with Davis holding the FIRST PLAY COUNTER ball.

The first long run of the game was made by Fitzke who circled Montana's right side for 26 yards. A 15-yard penalty put the Idaho team back but the end of the quarter found the Vandals on Montana's 25-yard line.

The second quarter was opened with a bang. Fitzke, on the first play, twisted his way 25 yards to a touchdown. He failed on an attempted place-kick after the touchdown. After Idaho had obtained the ball on a punt in midfield a march of straight football carried the ball to the 14-yard mark and from this point Fitzke again dodged and ducked around for the third touchdown and place-kicked Idaho into another point.

KINNISON MAKES TOUCHDOWN

After the following kick-off Montana failed to gain and the ball changed hands on a punt. Montana was penalized 15 yards and Idaho gained, including Kinnison's 15-yard run, until play was within the five-yard zone and Kinnison on detail to go across, crossed the line for the fourth touchdown. Fitzke place-kicked Idaho into the point after touchdown. An exchange of punts followed with play in Montana territory and the half ended with Idaho holding the long end of a 27 to 0 score. In the first half Idaho made nine first downs while Montana made but one.

Early in the third quarter, Idaho linesmen were directly responsible for a touchdown. Plummer of Montana attempted a punt from the 20-yard line. Three Vandal linesmen crashed through with Tapper blocking the punt. The ball bounced behind Montana's goal line and Huefner fell on it for an Idaho touchdown. Fitzke place-kicked for the conversion after touchdown with Davis holding the ball.

FITZKE CROSSES GOAL

Idaho's sixth touchdown came in the middle of the fourth quarter. From midfield the Vandals made yardage down the field to the one-yard line and Fitzke took the pigskin over the line. Fitzke failed on the place-kick that followed. Coach Mathews sent in Goff for Kline, Reed for Bucklin and Ray Stephens for Tapper. Montana carried the ball into Idaho territory but a fumble recovered by Idaho stopped further progression. Fitzke punted to the middle of the field and Coach Mathews sent in "Skippy" Silvers for Kinnison. Fitzke caught a Montana pass and on two plays carried the ball for 43 yards. Davidson was sent in for Davis and the game ended after Fitzke's unsuccessful attempt to drop-kick from the 15-yard line.

STATISTICS SHOW SUPERIORITY
The statistical summary shows that Idaho made 13 first downs; Montana made 3. Idaho fumbled three times while Montana fumbled four times. Idaho was penalized seven times for a total of 55 yards and Montana was penalized twice for a total of 30 yards. Idaho completed two forward passes for nine yards while the Bruins made four completed passes.

Two Idaho passes were intercepted and two intercepted; six Montana passes were intercepted and one intercepted.

RANGERS OF UNIVERSITY ORGANIZE NEW CLUB

The Associated rangers of the University of Idaho is the latest organization to make its appearance on the campus. It is formed for the purpose of having an active organization to deal with problems of forest rangers.

L. Baldwin was elected president at the initial meeting the vice-president and treasurer is K. Love, and the secretary is E. S. Bayer. The club is composed of Love, Baldwin, Bayer, W. Chenoweth, V. Kane, and S. Biba.

The forest rangers course is a complete field covered by a one year course given in connection with the regular courses in forestry which have focused the attention of lumbermen all over the west on the University of Idaho.

STUDENT OPINION CO-ED SPIRIT

Listen girls! Don't be afraid to show your Idaho spirit. Don't think that a co-ed can't have as much pep and enthusiasm as a college fellow and still retain the attributes of a lady.

At the Idaho-Montana game a girls' serpentine was suggested by the girls' yell leader. Perhaps half a dozen girls came down from the bleachers and made faltering steps toward the field, only to turn back and seat themselves as if an unparadise sin had been committed. Why is it that the girls don't respond to things of that sort this year? Is it because they are afraid of getting their hair mussed? Grandmother's theory of the necessity for girls to remain sedate and stiff at all times in order to qualify as ladies has long since been exploded.

So come out from under that crust of false propriety and display at the W. S. C. game some real enthusiasm that we know is hidden in your hearts. We still have faith in you so don't disappoint us.

do an Indian dance around the blaze and then the program will commence. All the Vandal team, the coach, and a lot of old grads will be there, and speeches will be made by a number until enthusiasm is keyed up to a high pitch and the pep band will put out a line of blues that would make a cougar swallow his eye tooth. This will be followed by a big yell and song program.

After the demonstration on the fairgrounds, everybody will go to Eggen's hall where the pep band will put on a free dance. But everyone must come in "I" caps, and girls must still wear their sweaters and the men their pajamas.

IS OLD CUSTOM

Idaho's pep rally has been a tradition for years. Nobody knows how it came about. Some people claim that it was originated as a celebration after an out of town game. Palo Alto says that it originated there, but it has become hoary with age at Idaho, and every man and woman in the university participates.

This year, with prospects good for a superlative showing in the coast conference, the rally will probably be boiling over with suppressed and not so suppressed enthusiasm.

PANDAL REGULARS TO TRIM COUGARS

schedule right auspiciously by taming the Bruins, 40 to 0. Idaho undergraduates know that the Vandals will celebrate the opening game on Friday with victory, probably by not so large a score, but by victory.

The team will be in the pink of condition. Coach Mathews has been devoting the practice of the week to preparation for the Cougars. The Vandals will be ready and the students will be ready. Old timers will hang wistfully around newspaper and telegraph offices in all parts of the United States awaiting the news—the good news.

OLD GRAD RETURNS

For eight successive years a well known Idaho graduate has returned to the campus for the W. S. C. game. His faith has carried him long distances each year. For eight years he has departed, broken in pocket book perhaps, but not broken in spirit. Some thoughtful undergraduate sent him a telegram. The operator probably took it for a code message but the graduate will know. The telegram said:

"Yea, verily, the time has come."

The undergraduate did not need to send that telegram to the graduate. He would have come anyway.

JIM LOCKHART'S KICK

In 1913 the famous Jim Lockhart, of ever honored memory, in a desperate, bitter game, drop-kicked Idaho into victory from the 35-yard line but since that time Idaho has met defeat. Last year in the most heart-breaking contest in the annals of football, Washington State college outlucked us. Idaho outfought 'em, outplayed 'em, —we lost by flukes.

Many an Idaho man broke down and cried. There was no shame in the tears. Everybody was proud of the team—Mathews, and the players. It was simply a bitter pill to take. For a whole game the Vandals were masters and still the Cougars won.

A DIFFERENT STORY

But even as the difference of night to day, Idaho men and women will weep with joy and there will undoubtedly be a hot time in the old town that night. Idaho students will need nothing more stimulating than victory. A co-ed said that there should be about 50 dances after the game. Certain it is that the Athletic Ball will be a huge success.

In 1913 the Idaho S. A. T. C. team tromped on the W. S. C. eleven but the contests has not been generally recognized as a regular college game.

IDAHO TO WIN

The Cougars are not the favorites to win on Friday. The team that is favored to win and the team that will win is the team representing the University of Idaho. Idaho has won from the College of Idaho 83 to 0, and from the University of Montana 40 to 0. Both scores are highly significant. They stand for the strength, the power, the ability, and the morale of the Idaho Vandals.

Friday is Waterloo day for the Pullmanites. W. S. C.'s sons will not only get excited; there will be weeping and wailing and gnashing of teeth but, rest assured, it won't be in Moscow. No Idaho victory since 1913 is nothing, means nothing, spells nothing. Idaho is out to win and Idaho will win.

OUT TO WIN

"We're here to win
And we will never give in,
We're here to win
And we'll come through with a grin;
Fight right on
Vandals we're behind you
Forever together we'll conquer our foes;

Through all the years
We'll raise our fight cry on high
For victory
We're out to do or to die;
So now let's fight right through
With hearts so true
Fight on old Idaho."

AN INSPIRED SONG

An inspired Idaho song-writer so expressed the spirit and thought and prayer of the Idaho student and the songster was undoubtedly thinking of Friday's game.

Fifteen hundred Idaho undergraduates, 1000 Moscow people, 200 or more graduates at the game and numbers of former students, alumni and Idaho people from Boundary to Bear Lake counties—all will be with the Vandals in an hour of trial, to be sure, an hour of bitter struggle with strong and worthy opponents, but an hour of triumph.

Brown, Cougar guard, who Exendine counts on as one of his strong linemen. He will undoubtedly start in Friday's game.

VICTORY IS OURS

The Vandals will be victorious. Sweet is the thought. The anticipatory joy is lovely. But much sweeter and tastier, more pleasing to all the senses, will be the actual victory.

Idaho must and will win!
"Yea, verily, the time has come!"

COMMITTEE TO NAME FOUR RHODES CANDIDATES

Four candidates for this year's Rhodes scholarship from Idaho will be nominated by the scholarship committee Thursday afternoon. All candidates should file their application in the president's office before that time.

was then simply a political necessity arising from the feeling in the state that was trying to break Idaho up. The university was a good bludgeon, and we held it over them.

"I remember one of the northern members in Boise looking at our $30,000 brick capitol building. He pointed to it and said 'Look at it. I wouldn't give five cents for the whole thing. It doesn't belong to me. I haven't got any interest in it at all.'"

HAD HARD FIGHT

"That shows you the fight we ran up against, and the underlying causes which were back of the placing of the university. Of course, it was merely a political weapon, but we were mighty interested in the university, and it cemented the state solidly together.

"We who helped found it are mighty proud of the way it has turned out. We believe in it, and I have several grandchildren who are receiving the benefit of it now.

"I remember in one legislature they were trying to cut one of the counties up into several counties, and we were afraid that it would weaken the state. It was in the early days, and guns were always ready. We were at the end of the session, but things were lined up to continue the legislature for enough time to defeat the plan. The man behind me leaned forward and said, 'If you make a motion to continue the session, I'll kill you.' I said 'All right, but if you do, make it a good job. Don't bungle and hash me up. I should hate to have a poor job done.' "I made the motion all right, and I'd forgotten all about him until the excitement was all over. But I'd kidded him out of it, and nothing happened.

HAS UNIFIED STATE

"The university held the state of Idaho together when the north didn't want it, and wouldn't have anything to do with it."

Mr. Bradley is still as alert as a young man, and tremendously interested in Idaho's progress. He has seen the state grow from a disorganized territory to its present status, and he has fought for years by every legislative device he could find to keep it from separating. With the other legislators who were with him he has fought to build it up and strengthen it.

HERE FOR CONVENTION

He is now in Moscow for the annual meeting of the Odd Fellows and has been up to look over the university.

The fight was so bitter at the time, he told the Argonaut interviewer, that several of his friends refused to speak to him after the attempt at disintegration had been made and defeated by giving the north an interest in the institutions of the state.

"The motto of the north before we succeeded in uniting things was 'We don't belong to Idaho.'"

Mr. Bradley will be in Moscow for several days and possibly a little longer if the south Idaho special is held over for the football game.
