IDAHO-GONZAGA GAME WILL BE IN MOSCOW

MOSCOW BUSINESS MEN MAKE UP ATHLETIC DEFICIT

Date Changed To November 2 To Avoid Conflict With Oregon-W. S. C. GAME

A decision which fixes Friday, November 2, as the day for the Idaho-Gonzaga football game which will be played on MacLean field at Moscow is announced as the result of a meeting of Moscow and Spokane business men with officials of Gonzaga university.

The game was originally scheduled for Saturday, November 3, but, in order to avoid conflict with the W. S. C.-Oregon game, which will be played in Pullman on that date, Idaho authorities arranged with Gonzaga for the change in dates. This will enable hundreds of people from northern Idaho to see both games and, presumably, assures a large crowd on both days.

COLLEGE SPIRIT

"There is something more than mere finances in keeping the game at Moscow," said President Upham in making the announcement, "and that is college spirit. We owe this game to the University of Idaho undergraduates who want to see the Gonzaga-Idaho game played on the home field. The students have paid for their student body tickets expecting to be able to see the Gonzaga game on the home field. The larger proportion of the students could not see the game if played in Spokane. The athletic department owes the game to the Idaho students and to the country adjacent to Moscow."

INVITATION TO SPOKANE

Members of the Chamber of Commerce passed unanimously an invitation to Spokane business men to attend the game at Moscow. The invitation urges that all Spokane business men attend the game with the Gonzaga university student body in special trains, in addition to the automobile caravans expected. Ample seat reservations will be made for the crowd from Spokane.

Efforts are now being made to change the game from Saturday, November 3, or November 2. The change to Friday is deemed necessary on account of the Oregon-Washington State college game at Pullman on November 3. Moscow's Chamber of Commerce appointed committees this noon to arrange for suitable publicity for the game.

CARAVANS TO ADVERTISE

Automobile caravans will be sent out to all of the towns of the Moscow and Lewiston sections and to Spokane. A special committee was appointed to visit Spokane, and special committees will also visit Lewiston, Colfax, Genesee, Uniontown, Pullman and all towns in the Inland Empire adjacent to Moscow.

Plans are now being made to send the Idaho Pep band with the Moscow automobile caravan in advertising the big Gonzaga-Idaho football classic, looked upon by football authorities as the best football game of the season. Both teams are evenly matched and with the keen but friendly rivalry existing between the two universities the greatest game of the season is eagerly looked forward to and a record-breaking crowd is expected.

MOSCOW PEOPLE RESPOND

Public-spirited Moscow business men responded with usual promptness in making the financial path of the Vandals easier. Competition in Pacific Coast conference circles is not an easy matter and participation

MATINEE DANCE
Play by play reports of the Idaho-Oregon game will be received by telegraph Saturday and will be read at a matinee dance to be held in the gymnasium. An admission charge of twenty-five cents will be made to cover the cost of the orchestra. The dance will begin at 2:30 Saturday afternoon, and will continue until the last report is in.

HEATING PLANT BOASTS BRAND NEW SMOKESTACK

The heating plant is the proud father of a new smoke stack as well as several boiler additions. The incessant attack of the riveter has stopped, enabling the classes in the north end of the Administration building to continue in peace. Also, the students may sleep very comfortably in their one o'clock classes.

The completion of this smoke stack enables the heating plant to furnish the additional heat required by Forney hall. Heretofore the heating plant has been running night and day trying to catch up with its work, but in vain. The class rooms as well as the dormitories may now rest assured of warm weather during the winter. So girls throw away your hot bricks and turn on the radiators.

EXTENSION WORKERS SPEAK AT ASSEMBLY

Members of Agricultural Meeting Held This Week Tell of Accomplishments

"I have come to believe in an aristocracy. Not one of birth, but one which every educated individual should feel because of his achievements," said E. R. Bennett, state horticulturist in addressing the Wednesday morning assembly.

"Do not confine this feeling of distinction with snobbishness, but an educated man owes himself a feeling of pride."

Miss Amy Kelly, state home economics demonstration leader, who leaves soon to take a similar position with the University of Kansas, said, "Young people of Idaho let me leave with you this fact unmingled with sentiment. Around the home centers everything; the state and the nation. Happy, properly conducted homes is the key to world happiness; successful homes can only be where they are intelligently conducted."

SPLendid IDAHO SPIRIT

The splendid spirit of the University of Idaho and of the west in general received high praise from Miss Madge Reese, of the United States department of agriculture.

Mr. Chenoux, representative of the Union Pacific R. R., in a few closing remarks assured the student body of the sincere spirit of the Union Pacific system toward the promotion of agriculture by special emphasis on the scholarship award which the president of the system is offering.

GIRLS SING

Short speeches by leaders of agricultural extension work and the initial appearance of the girls' glee club were the features of the assembly.

Dean E. J. Iddings of the college of agriculture and director of the extension department, had charge of the extension division program.

FROSH-THIRD TEAM GAME ON SATURDAY

VANDAL BABES GOING IN GOOD SHAPE

Will Probably Pick Lineup For Game With Montana Cubs After Saturday Mixup

The Idaho freshmen football squad will play a regular game with the third string varsity men Saturday afternoon as part of their work in preparation for the game with the University of Montana freshmen at Missoula, November 2.

Coach MacMillan and his assistants will have their hands full in getting the babes in shape to bring back the bacon from the Missoula game. The 1923 Montana cubs are rated very strong, having defeated the Montana College frosh 61-0.

"The fighting Vandals" applies very well to this year's frosh team as was shown in the Gonzaga game when several Gonzaga men were taken

WILL ELECT MANAGER OF MEN'S GLEE CLUB

MANAGER ELECTED LAST YEAR WILL NOT RETURN

Immediate Action Necessary to Arrange for Plans of Annual Spring Tour

A manager for the men's glee club will be elected at the next meeting of the A. S. U. I. to fill the vacancy left when Van Peterson, elected manager last year, failed to return to school this fall. Due to the necessity for immediate work on arrangements, an election must be held immediately, according to officials of the A. S. U. I.

The manager of the glee club is responsible for making engagements and finding accommodations for the club on the annual tour which will be held a little later. A. S. U. I. funds are appropriated each year for the financing of the trip, and these funds are handled by the manager.

PLAN TOUR

Last year the tour was imminently successful in the opinion of the northwest musical critics, and the present tour must be planned in the very near future.

The executive board of the A. S. U. I. will nominate three men for this position from those who have been members of the Glee club for at least one year. From these nominees the students will elect a manager.

CLUB REHEARSING

The glee club is already rehearsing selections in the program which will be given on the trip, according to Mr. Bangs. With the addition of J. Stanton McLaughlin as a first tenor and Eric Leithe as an accompanist, the glee club cast is filled.

The annual tour this year is being planned for the last part of February.

FRIENDSHIP SPECIAL FOR ARMISTICE GAME

LONG TRAIN TO HAUL STUDENTS TO BOISE FRACAS

Special Pleasure Car Will Be Hooked On In Which Passengers Can Dance

When the whistle shrieks the signal for departure of the "Friendship Special" on Nov. 8, a hilarious and anxious crowd will be excitedly milling around the long string of cars at the O. W. R. R. & N. depot. Over 600 students, alumni, and other football fans intend to board this special train for the Armistice Day game between O. A. C. and the U. of I. at Boise.

A special car which has been sought for several years is being put on this time in which the travelers will be able to enjoy little dancing parties on the way down.

This is the third special train that the Union Pacific company has made up for this annual event. The train officials feeling the enthusiasm of the occasion are striving to arrange a train with all possible comforts. It will consist of one steel-dynamo baggage car, one steel coach, six single drawing-room standard sleepers, two diners, and one composite observation car, making a total of eleven cars. One car will be occupied by the team and will be cut off at Boise and sent straight thru with the squad on the rest of the southern trip.

FARE IS LOW

A low rate fare is being striven for by officials of the Special. Nothing certain has as yet been decided upon, but it may possibly be near the rate obtained last year, fare and a half, amounting to about $22.51 for the round trip. Sleeper accommodations will be about $5.63 for a lower and $1.50 for an upper berth. These cut rates will enable many students to make the trip who could not otherwise go.

This game is proving to be one of the big attractions of the season. Sport followers are predicting the hardest opposition ever met on the Boise field.

OREGON SPECIAL

It is rumored that a special train may be made up to carry the stud-

SUCCESSFUL SEASON PROMISED DEBATING

EXTEMPORE CONTEST AT EUGENE NEXT MONTH

Long Lists of Conquests Attached to Past Years of Idaho Debating

"Idaho has before her the brightest and the most promising debate season that the university has ever seen," says Errol Hillman, manager of debate, in announcing the coming try-outs for the Extempore contest which will be held at Eugene, Oregon, some time next month. Idaho has a record in debate which is to be envied and with the wealth of material that has already shown up Coach Michael is expected to turn out teams that will more than win their share of forensic glory. The first debate will be held in connection with the annual meeting of the Pacific coast forensic league and the subject for the contest will be "Criminal Syndicalism Laws" with a cash prize for the winning team.

IDAHO SUCCESSFUL

Idaho has always turned out successful debating teams as seen from the record of achievements of the past. Between the years of 1898 and 1913 Idaho met Whitman College ten times and won six of the contests. Since 1913 Idaho has engaged in approximately 26 debates and has won 19 of them. In that period of time she has won from such institutions as Oregon Agriculture College, the University of Southern California, Washington State College, the University of Washington, and the University of Utah.

In speaking of the big opportunities offered to Idaho students Mr.

SATURDAY TO SEE BIG COAST GAMES

RESULTS OF PRIME IMPORTANCE TO VANDAL HOPES

Sport Writers Watch U. S. C.-Stanford Game for Line On Idaho's Conference Rivals

Idaho football fans will be given an opportunity for sizing up a number of the football teams the Vandals are scheduled to play within a few weeks, when Pacific Coast football teams enter the second lap in the conference pennant race Saturday. Results of two of the games will be of prime importance to Vandal hopes, and will scarcely be overshadowed by the Idaho-Oregon game to be played at Eugene.

Perhaps the game which will hold the center of the stage locally will be the U. S. C.-Stanford tussle at Los Angeles, which Stanford is now being picked to take after the sudden turn of affairs last Saturday when the Southern California Trojans were given a 22 to 0 drubbing at the hands of the Washington Huskies.

The game will be the first conference clash for the Palo Alto team, concerning which little information has been circulated. Both these teams are on the Idaho schedule, Stanford first at Palo Alto, November 17, and the Trojans the week following in the big Thanksgiving classic at Los Angeles.

O. A. C. will take a rest this week, which will probably be greatly needed before her big home game of the season next week with the University of Washington. The Aggies have been putting in some hard licks the past ten days, and although their team is not being rated any too high this year, she will put a team into the field which may be able to spring some surprises on the conference.

Gonzaga will journey to Missoula for a grapple with the Montana Bruins, which should be a choice morsel for the Bulldogs. Montana can hardly expect to fare better than she did against Idaho, and the game should be a forerunner of the present strength of the Gonzaga eleven, which is all primed for the game with Idaho, here, a week from today.

The game which attracts the great-

REDHEADS LOSE COURAGE FAIL TO ORGANIZE CLUB

How come the redheads renign on us? They were billed to hold a meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a red-headed club. Such an organization would not only be unique, it would be ultra exclusive.

What was lacking? Didn't the flame headed species possess the proper amount of initiative and energy? Or is the red hair mounted on the wrong kind of superstructure?

In other colleges the red heads have formed these kinds of clubs, which have been marvelously successful, as well as distinctly attractive. A club of this kind could be the most exclusive on the campus. What a sight to see a bunch of these fiery topped individuals, at their annual ball, dancing the red special—none but redheads. That would be something not seen everyday.

FACULTY PEOPLE HOSTS FOR EXTENSION GUESTS

Two Hundred and Fifty Guests Entertained At Ridenbaugh Hall Tuesday Evening

More than 260 people attended the University of Idaho faculty party given the members of the extension division Tuesday night at Ridenbaugh hall. The party was the most successful event ever put on by the faculty and was looked upon as the big social event of the season. Something was going on every minute of the time.

Mrs. Bonnie Blanche Schoonover was in charge of the banquet, put on by the Faculty Woman's club, and Prof. Virgil R. D. Kirkham, representing the University club, was in charge of the program of events.

A five course dinner was served with solos given between courses by Miss Bernadine Adair, accompanied by Miss Isabel Clarke, a violin solo by Prof. Carl Claus, accompanied by Mrs. Florence Sharpe, a baritone solo by William M. Michaels, accompanied by Stanley McLaughlin, and a piano solo by Frank Mitten.

Mr. Kirkham was master of ceremonies. During the intermission between the banquet and the starting of the dancing, a get-together was held. The music was furnished by the Collegiate Serenaders, crack campus orchestra, with novelty and specialty numbers by Al Marineau and Doy McKinley featuring. At 10:30 two interpretive dances were given by Mrs. William M. Michaels.

The dancing continued until after 11:30. For those who did not care to dance cards were enjoyed on the mezzanine floor. The rooms of Ridenbaugh hall were attractively decorated in Halloween colors and Halloween favors were given out.

Clever Extravaganza Comedy Plot Centered Around Modern Grandma And Her Follies

A modern grandmother that leads her family thru fire and water in New York society and at the seashore is to be the subject of the fourth annual Pep band show which is to given November 2.

"Granny," written by J. Stanton McLaughlin of the English department, promises to be a real treat in the way of a musical comedy. His work along this line has become well known to university students and everything to which his name is attached is likely to be a mirth producing bit of humor.

IDAHO MEETS OREGON WITH HOPES BRIGHT

SECOND CONFERENCE TILT OFFERS BIG OPPORTUNITY

Vandal Lineup Virtually the Same As That Which Met W. S. C. Last Friday

With the entire student body, faculty, and a good crowd of Moscow people massed around the O. W. R. and N. station platform, the Idaho Vandals were cheered on their way to Oregon at 5:30 Thursday afternoon. Coach R. L. Mathews took 21 players on the trip. The outcome of the game to be played Saturday afternoon on Oregon's home field, will have considerable importance in the standing of northern division teams of the Pacific Coast conference.

Idaho's crashing into the win column against W. S. C. continues to be a source of joy on the university campus and prospects that Oregon will be the next victim of the Vandal attack are reasonably bright. The hardest of games is expected, however. Both teams are undefeated and the Oregon team has a well rounded, capably fast and aggressively-scrappy aggregation this season.

IDAHO OUT TO WIN

The first Idaho-Oregon game played in Portland in 1901, ended in a scoreless tie. In 1921 the Vandals and the Webfooters battled again to a tie but all other contests have been won by Oregon. Last year Idaho was beaten, 3 to 0, through Chapman's kick from placement. In 1921 Idaho's premier backfield man, "Gus" Irving, made more yardage from scrimmage than the entire Oregon team but still Oregon managed to tie the score.

Ready capitalization of all breaks has been a feature of Oregon play in Idaho games during the past. Vandal supporters believe that this year Idaho will break into the win column against Oregon although one of the hardest games on the Idaho schedule is expected.

LINEUP SAME

The Idaho lineup which is expected to take the field against Oregon tomorrow is probably that which won for the Cougars last Friday. It will read something like this: Nelson and Vesser at end; Hausen and Quinn at tackle; Bucklin and Tapper guards, and Kline center. Stivers will again call signals for Idaho, with Davis and Fitzke as halfbacks, and Kinnison as fullback.

The men to take the trip are as follows:

Kleffner, end or halfback; Kinnison, fullback; Vesser, end or halfback; W. L. "Fat" Stephens, guard; Kline, center; Hausen, tackle; Quinn, tackle; Stivers, quarter; Tapper, guard; Fitzke, halfback; Goff, center or guard; Bucklin, guard; Ray Stephens, center or guard; Cameron halfback; Marker, tackle; Davidson, quarter; Huefner, end; Nelson, end; Davis, halfback; Reed, guard; Disney, halfback.

Coach R. L. Mathews, Don McCrae, assistant manager of athletics, and O. A. Fitzgerald, newspaper man detailed to send back the play by play returns, accompanied the team. Several Moscow people are planning on driving to the game. Albert Knudson, graduate manager of athletics, is staying in Moscow to complete arrangements for the handling of the crowd of 10,000 people expected at the Gonzaga-Idaho game here November 2 or 3.

Oregon is expected to put essentially the same team into the field against the Vandals that gave the Whitman Missionaries a trimming last week at Pendleton, 19 to 0, and which was reviewed in Tuesday's Argonaut. Some minor changes may be made, but Coach Shy Huntington seems to have found a winning combination which, barring accidents, will see the major portion of the work for Oregon this season.

A regular announcement column will be run hereafter in the Argonaut. Clubs, organizations, and other groups desiring to make announcements should type them, and leave the copy in the Argonaut boxes in the Ad building or the U. hut. This is the only way that notices will be accepted for publication.

THESE EXAMS

At last the terrifying period of inquisition is past. The six weeks exams will be concluded Saturday. The slate is again wiped clean, but next week will begin the inevitable chalking up of marks and what will they be: red or white?

Will the demoralizing temptation to rest on the oars and float with the tide, result in the proverbial piling up of low grades and unexcused cuts until it is almost too late to make them up? Truly, Procrastination; thy name is Student; and the way of the transgressor is hard.

Control that impulse and answer this; why not bear down a little harder these next few weeks, and save that eye-strain, midnight oil, and nervous prostration for a more appropriate time in the years to come?

"THE YANNIGANS"

"The Yannigans", the varsity third string, will play the frosh Saturday afternoon. The men making up this team are deserving of support. They work just as hard, train just as hard, and have the interests of the university as much at heart as do the men who will meet Oregon this week-end. They are as much a part of the Idaho team as the first string, and as such they should be supported. Prove to them Saturday that you appreciate their efforts.

STAFF APPOINTMENTS

Argonaut staff appointments for the present year are announced in this issue. With the Argonaut on a twice a week basis, it is absolutely necessary that efficiency be secured, and a staff picked earlier in the year, before abilities could be judged, would not have assured this efficiency.

It has been the intention of the editor and associate to pick the best person available for each position. Some mistakes may have been made; if they have been, time will tell.

No appointments are permanent. The tenure of office of each staff member will depend upon his ability and his interest in the work. And there is always room for advancement. For a person showing interest and ability there is always room higher up.

THANK YOU, MOSCOW!

With usual alacrity and promptness in meeting a crisis in University of Idaho affairs, Moscow business men, unsolicited, have contributed $1500 to make up the deficit caused by poor attendance at the two home games. Such generosity and evidence of the continuing public-spirit-ness of Moscow business men cause students and the entire state to again say "There's no place like Moscow."

Moscow business men, the forwards of the Idaho machine, have opened the holes—smothered opponents—and the Vandals will continue to smash through to success both on the football field and on the field of finance.

SOCIETY

Campus males will be dateless Saturday evening, for nearly all girls will attend the Co-ed-Prom, the only dance of the year where men are excluded. This promises to be a gala affair because of the great variety of costumes which will be worn. The gymnasium will be decorated in Halloween motifs and cider and doughnuts will be served. The Phi Delta orchestra will furnish the music and according to the enthusiasm of the co-eds, the dance should be a great success.

Dinner Guests

Delta Gamma: Pres. and Mrs. A. H. Upham, Dean and Mrs. Weaver, and Mr. and Mrs. Burton L. French, Dean and Mrs. Messenger, Mr. and Mrs. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart.

Alpha Delta: Mrs. A. G. Gallop and daughter Dorothy.

Sigma Nu: Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Casebolt, of Genesee.

Kappa Alpha Theta: Dr. and Mrs. Von Ende and Dr. and Mrs. Kostalek.

Pi Beta Phi: Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Irish and Mr. H. Erickson of Coeur d'Alene, Tom Graham, John Burroughs and Pete Hoyt.

Mrs. Lucy Beardsmore is visiting her daughter Vivienne at the Pi Beta Phi house this week.

Pi Beta Phi announces the engagement of Mary Anderson to Leigh Dunbar of Boise.

Week-end guests of Delta Gamma were Goldie and Rhoda Felton of Lewiston, Mrs. Ostrander of Twin Falls, Nora Madsen of Coeur d'Alene, Clara Jones of Lapwai, and Nadine Sims of Spokane.

Mrs. Wheeler of Millwood, Wash., and Mrs. Shaw of Orofino visited their daughters the Misses Helen Wheeler and Lillian Shaw at the Delta Gamma house last week.

Mrs. L. A. Gleeson, Pi Beta Phi house mother, has returned from an extended visit in the east.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The ladies of the faculty and all faculty wives are invited to Forney Hall Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock to hear Dr. Edith Hale Swift.
Mrs. Blomquist.

EMPIRE GOES TO EUGENE

They can't leave Empire behind. The great game has started on his first trip with the football squad, and when the team goes on the field at Eugene the Vandal mascot will be leading them and parading proudly in his blanket.

Bob Cozier, Latham Moore, "Nellie" Ryan and "Long" Green marked Emp mourning with tears in his eyes as near as dogs can have tears in their eyes, because he had been left behind by the team, so they bundled him into their car and he was gone.

When the fighting boys from Idaho go onto the field they will be surprised to see him, but glad, too. Since he has been mascotting them, they haven't lost a single game.

LITTLE MEN NOW POPULAR WITH THE FAIR CO-EDS

"Hello, is this Jimmie Taylor? Well, this is Mary Jones, say Jimmie, will you let me wear that dress suit you wore to the Athletic ball Friday night, I'm going to the Co-ed prom. O-h-h, it wasn't yours, pardon me, you rented it, well then may I borrow it?"

row that sailor suit of yours, the dress one, I simply must get something, I'm masking as a Russian count and must wear a uniform or a full dress."

And on, and on, and on.

The telephone service to the men's dormitories and fraternity houses has been entirely monopolized this week by eager "males-to-be" on Saturday night, when the girls all refuse dates to their regulars and borrow their secret amours.

But little the men care, for they derive pleasure from the evening's festivity in a secret manner. That there will be a good attendance of those who will be spectators only is evidenced by the fact that all ladders not under lock and key have been taken from the new houses under construction on the campus.

ROMANCE A LA BELL SYSTEM

Midnight, and the phone rang in a certain sorority.

"Hello, is Mary there?"
"Why, just a moment and I'll see-- and there ensued an eloquent pause. Then,

"Yes, but she's gone to bed." For a moment he hesitated.

"Well, say, how do you press a silk shirt?"

"Press a silk shirt?"

"Yes, I tried to press one and I burned the collar all off."

"Well, you take a warm iron, but say, did you want Mary to do it?"

"No, oh no. I don't want to bother you, but--"

"--- yes, and then you take lemons and rub them on the scorched places."

"Oh, I see. Thanks, awfully, you see, it was a borrowed shirt I got for the dance."

"Tell me who it is and maybe--" but central, the all powerful God of the talk had cut out the connection, so he shivered and went to bed.

EXTENSION CONFERENCE ENDS MEETING SATURDAY

Today and Saturday Include Summary and Formulation of New Program

Members of the University of Idaho extension staff will conclude their conference, which has been in session at the university during this week, Saturday afternoon. The conference has assembled all members of the extension division under Director E. J. Iddings, sessions being held every morning and afternoon of the week.

At the Monday morning session the chair was taken by W. B. Kjosness, with general discussion on the methods of organizing extension programs. Monday afternoon at the men's session Claude Wakeland talked on weevil control and the entomological program for 1924 was outlined. "Clothing" was the subject for discussion in the women's session. Monday evening meetings of committees and sub-divisions were held. STUDY PLANT DISEASES

E. R. Bennett was chairman of the Tuesday meeting with addresses given by Prof. H. C. Dale, E. F. Mason, and Prof. William Mitchell. Discussion of plant disease problems and horticultural practices was held Tuesday afternoon for the men's division, under Prof. C. W. Hungerford. The junior home economics program was the field of discussion for the women.

Talks and discussions by Prof. L. W. Graves and E. F. Mason, with the outlining of the crops program by the county agents, was the business for Wednesday morning, with E. F. Rinehart as chairman. In the men's session of the afternoon the livestock program was outlined while the women of the extension service discussed nutrition and upholstery.

ELKS "AT HOME"

Wednesday evening the Elk's club of Moscow held an "at home" for non-resident staff members.

Thursday morning's program included an address by Miss Madge Reese, representative of the United States department of agriculture and an entertainment by university students who were formerly Idaho boys' and girls' club members. The afternoon program included discussions in separate divisions with sub-division committee meetings in the evening. Pren Moore was chairman for the session.

Friday and Saturday sessions were planned to include general summary discussions and the formulation of a state extension program. The conference will adjourn Saturday afternoon at 3:00.

ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD GIVES TEAM SENDOFF

Students and Pep Band Rally For Football Squad Leaving For Eugene

The Vandal football team, which meets Oregon next Saturday, was sent speeding on its way after one of the peppiest, most enthusiastic rallies ever staged for a departing team. The pep band was there with its usual tuneful syncopation and dance provoking music. Turner drew the yells out of the assembled students in a manner good to behold. Everyone was all "hopped" up, wishing the team Godspeed and good luck, when it tangled with the strong Webfoot crew Saturday afternoon.

The boys on the team know that we who stay at home are with them heart and soul, and will be breathlessly awaiting the returns from the game.

Empire, the big mascot, couldn't go on the train, and when the team pulled out he was there, wishing he could go with them but hiding his grief manfully. He gave vent to a few joyful barks and car-splitting whoops just as the train pulled out.

But he got his chance to go later in a car and will be there with his lionlike booming when the game starts.

Episcopal students: ...Communion services followed by a breakfast will be held next Sunday at 8 o'clock a. m. in the Guild hall. All are cordially invited.

SUCCESSFUL SEASON PROMISED DEBATING

Hillman said further, "I wish that I could impress upon the minds of our students the value of training in debate as an aid in a college career and in after life. Debate is the only major activity on our campus that is open to freshmen and it offers a wonderful chance to first year students with ability."

DEBATERS TO MEET Mr. Michael has announced a meeting for all those interested in debate in room 312 of the Administration building on Monday, October 29th. The list of names already received by Mr. Michael includes five men with previous experience: E. R. Hillman, W. S. Greathouse, Chas. Chandler, Frank Wyman and Robert Reed. Those who are out for the first time are: R. G. Call, R. Reem, W. J. Montgomery, E. J. Miller, George Haddock, R. A. Barnett, Ted Turner, Miss Taylor, Miss Silva, Joe Curtis, C. W. Mount, Bessie Savage, Marion Becher, Clarence Jenks, Edmund Becher,

John Derr, and Donald Anderson.

The tentative schedule which has been arranged so far is as follows: 1. Triangular debate with the University of British Columbia and University of Oregon in January. 2. Dual debate with the University of Southern California in April, 1924. 3. Triangular debate with the University of Montana and the University of Utah, March, 1924. 4. Triangular debate with Whitman College and the University of Washington, for women only, February, 1924. 5. Northwest Oratorical Contests, May, 1924.

FRIENDSHIP SPECIAL FOR ARMISTICE DAY

(Continued from page one) ents from O. A. C. and the University of Oregon to the Boise game. Caravans from eastern Oregon are all ready planning to invade Idaho and parade the streets of the "Banana City." About one thousand Oregonians are expected to witness the downfall of their native athletes. Idaho must maintain superiority on the side lines as well as on the field.

PLENTY OF PEP

Last year about one hundred and fifty students made the trip, and reported a wonderful time and game. Lots of pep and fun on the entire tour made the time pass all too quickly. And, this year with the growing magnitude of interest in the occasion, with a prospect of over four times as many spectators there would seem to be no limit to the extent of pleasure to be derived. (Especially if we win), so "FOLLOW THE FRIENDSHIP!"

At three p. m., Thursday afternoon, Nov. 8, the Special leaves Moscow, arriving in Boise, Nov. 9 at 11:05 a. m. It will leave Boise on Sunday morning, Nov. 11, at 11 a. m., and will arrive in Moscow Monday, Nov. 12, at 5:05 a. m., allowing everyone plenty of time to make eight o'clocks. This will be a "dynamic" trip that should not be missed. "SO FOLLOW THE SPECIAL!"

SATURDAY TO SEE BIG COAST GAMES

(Continued from page 1) est amount of attention will be that between the University of California and Washington State College at Portland, the second conference game for both teams this season. California is being looked upon to win by a fairly large score, but Coach Exendine of the Cougars is bending every effort to make a good showing against the Golden Bears and retrieve as much as possible from last week's loss to Idaho.

Meanwhile Coast conference critics will watch with considerable interest the Idaho-Oregon contest, which should be perhaps the closest and hardest fought game to be played in the northwest this week.

FROSH-THIRD TEAM GAME ON SATURDAY

(Continued from page one.) kled so hard they were rendered "hors de combat" the remainder of the game. Anyone wishing to see the frosh in action before they go to Missoula should see the game Saturday since it will be just as hard fought and interesting as any with foreign teams. The lineup will be about the same as that used for the Gonzaga game with more substitutions being made to give the second string men a chance to show their stuff. This game will determine to a large extent the personnel of the squad which will go to Missoula.
