VANDALS WILL BATTLE U. OREGON WEDNESDAY

Idaho to Face Hard Game With Webfooters Here This Week

Oregon and Washington universities both play the University of Idaho Vandals this week in conference basketball contests on the Vandal's home court. Oregon will start the ball rolling Wednesday night in the first Pacific Coast conference game on her circuit tour, which began Monday. Because of Oregon's phenomenal success during the past ten days, Coach David MacMillan is anticipating a bitter struggle when Idaho backs up against the Lemon-Yellow aggregation of basket stars.

OREGON WEAKENED

Oregon will be somewhat weakened when she meets Idaho, however, by the loss of Harold Chapman, star forward, whose injuries from football last fall are said to have returned. Idaho, on the other hand, is not in too good condition herself, and has played erratic ball during the past two weeks. The team worked in splendid harmony last Friday when it trounced Washington State college 38 to 23 at Pullman, and then went to pieces the following night here in a return game, which the Cougars walked away with palms down, 38 to 19.

Fitzke, center, who was Idaho's most consistent point gainer during the first of the season, has during the past ten days, taken a decided slump, and was replaced by Neal Nelson at center in the final game with W. S. C. Saturday.

IDAHO PERSONNEL

Of the Vandals who have shown up this season to best advantage have been Penwell at forward, Nelson and Telford at guard, with Stivers, taking Reamer's place at forward, coming rapidly to the fore as a heady, fast forward. Whether Nelson will open at center against Oregon Wednesday, is problematic, for he would be far

Kioty Bill Continues Campus Explorations

Dear Ma,
Well ma, I finally registered and am sure getting acquainted as I am still wearing my rattlesnake belt and boots and most of the koeds smile when they see me and most of them know who I am but I don't pay no attention to none of them. Only one I give a stick of gum when we was waiting to register but she never chewed it but put it in her divinity box and I ask her if she would like to go for a ride in the old chalmers, she said yes would I take some more koeds which were standing there smiling so I nver turned them down but took them all. I went to some of my classes which I had a hard time finding out where they was. The professors said they isn't no text books for most of the classes but they are going to get some from New York as soon as they can but they is one in the library which the library girls says is lost. Well ma how is old Salmon bar, he sure and feed old speed ball. Next time I will tell you about the hood I took with me to the book of Job which is in the bible.
Your affectionate Kioty.

IDAHO WINS GAME ON W. S. C. FLOOR

Vandals Trounce Cougars in First of Series 38 to 23

University of Idaho basketballers won easily from the Washington State Cougars on their home floor at Pullman Friday night, 38 to 23. It was a bitter pill for the Cougars to take but the Vandals rammed it right down their throats and made 'em enjoy it. The Cougars acquired an eight point lead early in the game but the Vandals got to work and passed the W. S. C. men before the first part of the half was over. After that the game was easy with the Vandals leading at the end of the half, 18 to 16. In the second half Coach MacMillan's men played rings around their opponents and salted the game away once and for all.

FITZKE HIGH POINT MAN

Fitzke, Idaho's star center, played a brilliant game in making a total of 11 points while Guy Penwell at forward proved to be too slippery to catch and he amassed a total of 10 points for Idaho. "Skippy" Stivers, "Nellie" Nelson and Captain Telford all showed to advantage and Cougar fans were treated to an exhibition of how basketball should be played.

Bill Mulligan of Spokane and "Buck" Hunter of Moscow worked the game and the same system of officiating will probably be used tonight.

Idaho's substantial licking to W. S. C. is most encouraging when Idaho followers are looking forward to the games here next week with Oregon on Wednesday and Washington Saturday.

STUNT COMMITTEES NAMED SECOND SEMESTER CONTEST

Second semester committees were appointed last week by three of the classes at the University of Idaho, in preparation for the annual song and stunt contest, as follows:

- SENIORS
Stunt committee, Talbot Jennings of Moscow, chairman, Florence Graves of Sandpoint, and Louis Boas of Boise; song committee, Irene Starr of Boise, chairman, Ruby Gates of Boise, Francis Sheneberger of Twin Falls.
- JUNIORS
Stunt committee, Paul Harlan of Jackson, Tenn., chairman, Helen Grim of Nampa, Carl Feldman of Boise; song committee, Louisa Martin of Moscow, chairman, Ray Allumbaugh of Boise, Eric Leithe of Coeur d'Alene.
- SOPHOMORES
Stunt committee, Blaine Stubblefield of Clarkston, Wash., chairman, H. D. Swim, Emil Stroebek, of Twin Falls, and Gordon Hockaday of Rupert; song committee, Martel Archibald of Boise, chairman, Helen Wood of Kellogg, and Helene Haller of St. Maries.

Boys Win Union Pacific Scholarships

Two more boys of southeastern Idaho have won scholarships offered by the Union Pacific railroad system for excellence in club work. Cy Young, the son of Stillman Young of Twin Groves in Fremont county, was the best club boy in that county, and Roy Christiansen of Downey won the scholarship for Bannock county.

STIPEND IS $75

Each of these scholarships carries a stipend of $75, plus railroad fare to and from the University of Idaho. A similar award is made each year in each Idaho county traversed by the Union Pacific lines. The winners study agriculture either in the short course or the regular four-year course offered at the university.

WOMAN SMOKERS

Governor Morgan of West Virginia says that "if I could stop cigarette smoking in West Virginia I would consider it the greatest thing I could do for my state." His remark is called forth by the recent news of the suicide of a socially prominent Benton girl who committed suicide because of a nervous breakdown, attributed by her father to smoking.

U. OF I. ENROLLMENT IS 1755; 1450 IN ACTUAL RESIDENCE

"Attendance at the University of Idaho since the opening of the last summer school has been 1755, the largest by about 150 in the history of the school," said A. H. Upham, president of the institution, who is spending the week-end in Boise, according to an interview in the Statesman. President Upham is attending farmers' institutes in southern Idaho. Next week he will go to Arco, Rexburg and Shelly.

"Of the 1755 enrolled," he continued, "1450 are actually in residence. Two hundred represent summer school enrollments and the remainder are in the extension courses. The enrollment for the second semester, while not yet compiled is estimated at 1850.

"In the last five years the school has grown 1000 students, an increase of 200 students every year.

DISCUSSES SCIENCE HALL

"We expect to open bids the middle of March for the new science hall, which will be erected on the campus north of the administration building, and facing it, between the administration hall and Morrill hall, where the hospital now stands. The new hall is provided for by a three-eighths-mill levy, assessed by the last legislature.

"This building will be so constructed that it may be made merely the central unit of the science group, which eventually will be needed. The plan is to use it largely for chemistry, with such other sciences as can be accommodated in addition.

"Our biggest problem is to provide for students working their way through school of whom there are an astonishing number."

IDAHO WRESTLERS MEET OREGON SQUAD FRIDAY

"Babe" Brown's Grapplers Ready For Visitors After Second Victory

University of Idaho wrestlers meet the University of Oregon grapplers here Friday evening, February 15, in the second conference wrestling tournament of the season for the Vandals. The University of Idaho team has shown considerable improvement during the past fortnight, and with additional work this week, should be in good condition to win from the Lemon-Yellow crew.

WIN DESPITE HANDICAP

Idaho recently defeated Washington State college at wrestling at Pullman, with Frank Kinnison, in the welter-weight division, out of the meet because of inability to make the required weight. The University of Oregon grapplers, on the other hand, were swamped by O. A. C. at almost the same time, so that indications are that Idaho should have little difficulty in taking Friday's tournament.

VESSER, BITNER STRONG

Vesser will enter for Idaho in the light-heavyweight class and will be the best bet for the Idahoans, while Bitner will undoubtedly enter in the lightweight division. Kinnison, if able to make the weight requirements, will represent Idaho in the middleweight class; otherwise Disney will probably be entered in the welter-weight division.

The squad is under the tutelage of Coach James A. Brown, holder of the Pacific Coast amateur heavyweight title and for three years a star football and wrestling man at the university.

PHI DELTA CONVENTION HERE THIS WEEK-END

Seven Delegates Expected to Attend Kappa Province Gathering

The annual convention of Kappa province of Phi Delta Theta convenes in Moscow Friday and Saturday under the auspices of the Idaho chapter of the fraternity. Delegates from the seven colleges and universities composing the province which include the Universities of Washington, Oregon, Montana, and Idaho, and the Oregon Agricultural college, Washington State college, and Whitman, are expected to arrive Friday noon. Professor C. A. Isaacs of W. S. C. president of the province, will preside. Representatives from the two petitioning institutions, University of Wyoming and Montana Agricultural college, will also be present.

The convention officially opens Friday afternoon and will continue Saturday morning and afternoon. Entertainment for the visiting delegates, president and petitioning representatives, includes a big smoker Friday evening, the Washington basketball game Saturday, and closes with an informal house party after the game. The university campus, buildings and other points of interest will also be explained and shown to the guests of Idaho Alpha.

W. S. C. DROPS BLOCKS ON VANDALS SATURDAY

Idaho Administered Defeat On Home Floor To Tune Of 38 to 19

Idaho's Vandals were off form Saturday night while the Cougars were on and with all the luck in the world, the Cougars won, 38 to 19. The game did not count on the conference standing of the two teams. W. S. C. jumped into a lead early in the game and maintained the leadership throughout. W. S. C. men made baskets from all angles, from the center of the floor, and several times W. S. C. men shot over their heads and made baskets. Idaho's shots for baskets wavered around the edge and wobbled out time after time.

W.S.C. LEADS THROUGHOUT

As a result of the game Idaho and W. S. C. stand even up on basketball for 1924 with two wins each.

Nollan was the individual star of the game and high point man with eight field baskets.

The Vandals fought desperately to close the gap during the second half but the Cougars would shoot as soon as the ball was passed and the W. S. C. score mounted up faster than the Vandals could make the points. The first half ended 18 to 6 in favor of the Cougars.

THE LINEUPS

"Skippy" Stivers with all the fight in the world, was Idaho's individual star. He was high point man for Idaho with three field baskets, and he made life miserable for the larger and heavier Cougar guards.

FRESHMEN TAKE DEFEAT FROM MOSCOW H. S. TEAM

Superior Passing By Opponents Leads To Victory Over Yearlings

Moscow high school basketball players took the University of Idaho freshmen into camp Friday afternoon in the high school gymnasium, 30 to 18. Moscow held the score lead most of the game. Coach Comrada's players passed nicely and made good on their chances for field baskets. Woody, Roise and Drury are outstanding for Moscow, while Nedros showed best for the freshmen.

The Moscow lineup included Roise and Estes as forwards, Drury at center and Woody and Thompson as guards. The frosh lineup was made up of Nedros and Miles as forwards, Martin at center, and Pearson and Green as guards. Pearson was ruled out of the game on four personal fouls. Kurath of the high school faculty was the referee.

CURTAIN TO PRESENT FAMOUS "DOVER ROAD"

Dramatic Fraternity Will Give Two Presentations of Milne's Comedy

"The Curtain," the honorary dramatic society of the University, will give two performances of A. M. Milne's comedy, "The Dover Road" on Tuesday, February 12, at the Guild hall and Tuesday, February 14, at the U. hut. The play will be read, but all the action will be carried out as in a regular production. This method of presenting some of today's romantic successes is the same that was used about three years ago when a series of plays was given by the dramatic club.

In his comedy, "The Dover Road" Mr. Milne has captured two couples who are trying to leave England, and has given them a week of each other's company before they complete the elopement. The author is no sentimentalist. He is no harsh moralist. "Stop," he says with a smile. "Take a look up and down the track, listen; and then if you are sure of yourself, go on." He gives this advice with the aid of the mysterious Mr. Latimer.

LATIMER WISE CHARACTER

Mr. Latimer has a decided advantage over most people who try to point out the possible discomforts of the primrose path. He is rich, very rich, so rich that he can have his way about almost everything. Beside the Dover Road he has built a house, and into it he draws those couples

FROSH WRESTLERS LOSE MATCH TO W. S. C. SQUAD

Pullman Yearlings Score 36 To 32 For Idaho In Match Saturday

Losing by the close score of 36 to 32 the Idaho Freshman wrestling squad put up some tough competition against the W. S. C. freshmen on the latter's floor, Saturday afternoon. The local boys were out classed in all but one weight, but considering that no one of them has had any previous wrestling experience and that they were up against men of several years high school and other experience, they performed very creditably according to Coach "Babe" Brown. He further states that the chief purpose of the freshman meet was to give experience to the yearlings.

In the first match, the feather-weight division, Powers of Idaho lost to Whitacker of W. S. C., by two decisions. Powers avoided a fall only by exceptional gameness and pluck in both rounds.

FORFEIT MATCH

In the 135 pound class, W. S. C. failed to enter a man, forfeiting the match to Bolkow of Idaho. Walker, a two year letterman at the Stadium high school at Tacoma, won two decisions over Stoffel of Idaho in the 145 pound class, showing some of the best wrestling of the meet.

Edelbulte, Idaho 158 pounder, won two falls from Smith, the first in four minutes and the second in one minute and forty seconds, although he was conceding his man five pounds. He is a very good prospect for the varsity middle weight next year.

The two big boys, Burroughs of Idaho, and Horner of W. S. C., went two close rounds, the W. S. C. man being given the decision on aggressiveness.

The final score was counted on a basis of six points for a decision and eight for a fall, making the score 36 to 32.

BEAUTY CONTEST FOLDERS MUST BE IN BY FEBRUARY 14

Announcement has been made by Peter Paul Drus, editor of the "Gem", that all girls who intend to fill out one of the folders of the beauty contest that is being held by the staff this year, will have until February 14 to turn these in.

Attention is again called to the fact that every girl's picture will be sent in regardless of whether she fills out a folder or not, and that the turning in of the special pictures will give a decided advantage to the one that does it.

IDAHO WRESTLERS WIN MEET FROM W. S. C.

Take Their First Conference Meet by a Score of 40-36

Idaho wrestling Vandals won their first conference meet with Washington State college mat squad last Friday night at Pullman by a score of 40 to 36 points. Out of the five matches scheduled, Idaho took three, two on decisions and one by straight falls. Although every match was closely contested, Idaho had a slight edge on the W. S. C. grapplers through greater experience of her men. Each match went to the winner of two out of three seven-minute periods.

VESSER WINS TWO

Johnny Vesser of Coeur d'Alene, veteran Idaho grappler, won two straight decisions in the heavyweight class from Waldorf of W. S. C. Dwight Disney of Rupert lost a hard-fought bout with Bohlke of W. S. C. in the 155-pound class by a decision and a fall. Roy Patchen of Coeur d'Alene, welterweight, lost to Dunbar of W. S. C. by a decision and a fall. Errol Hillman of Rexburg, 135-pounder, went three periods with Allen of Washington State, winning the first by decision, losing the second by a fall and winning the last by decision on a foul. William Bitner of Kellogg, Vandal lightweight, won his match handily by two straight falls from Hendric of W. S. C., a 128-pounder.

SUMMARY

The complete summary of events follows:

125 pounds—Bittner, Idaho, threw Keller, W. S. C. Time, 3:45. Bout No. 2—Bittner threw Keller; 3:35.

135 pounds—Bout 1, Hillman won decision over Allen, W. S. C. Bout No. 2, Allen, W. S. C. threw Hillman, Idaho, 3:43. Bout 3, Hillman won decision over Allen.

145 pounds—Bout 1, Dunbar, W. S. C., won decision over Patchen. Bout No. 2, Dunbar, W. S. C., won decision over Patchen.

158 pounds—Bout 1, Bolke, W. S. C., threw Pinzey, Idaho, 3:52. Bout 2, Bolke, W. S. C., threw Kinzey, Idaho, 1:11.

175 pounds—Bout 1, Vesser, Idaho, won decision over Waldorf, W. S. C. Bout 2, Vesser, Idaho, won decision over Waldorf, W. S. C.

Referee, Donaldson of Spokane. Coach "Babe" Brown is starting immediately to prepare his men for their second conference meet with the University of Oregon wrestlers at Moscow, February 15.

FARM TRACTOR COURSE ATTRACTING STUDENTS

Practical Class Offered in Handling And Repairing Gas Motors

With the largest attendance in the history of the school, the 1924 two-weeks tractor course offered by the agricultural engineering department of the University of Idaho college of agriculture closed last week. The two-weeks instruction course, in addition to attracting more than 40 students, has been the most successful ever offered by the department. Farmers, tractor owners, operators, and prospective tractor owners have been in daily attendance.

All work has been essentially practical and the course has been designed to acquaint farmers and other persons interested in a working knowledge of tractor operation and repair.

GRAY IN CHARGE

Prof. R. B. Gray, head of the agricultural engineering department, has been in charge. His daily illustrated lectures have been a big feature of the course. During the first week the course opened with instruction in stationary gas engine work and related subjects such as soldering, belt lacing, and babbiting.

During the second week Professor Gray lectured on tractors, tractor operation and repair. Factory experts from the companies making the standard makes of tractors were present to supervise the tearing down and re-assembling of tractors by the students themselves.

This course is offered annually by the university in line with its policy to be of service to the agricultural interests of the state.

CO-ED DEBATERS ARE PRAISED BY ALUMNUS

Miss Irene Collier Attends
Debate in Seattle Last Thursday

Praise for the Idaho co-eds who upheld Idaho debating honors at the University of Washington Thursday night was offered in a letter received from Miss Irene Collier, a student at Idaho last year. Iva Silva and Constance Taylor were the girls who represented the university in Seattle.

The letter follows:
Editor of The Argonaut:
Last night I attended the debate, and never wanted anything so badly in my life as to have Idaho win—maybe if I hadn't wished it so hard they would have won.

Anyway, the girls did wonderfully, and the only way that I can figure that the judges decided for the affirmatives is that each one said to himself, "Both the others will undoubtedly vote for the negative, so I'd better give one vote to the affirmative." In my opinion—and of course I'm not prejudiced—Idaho's team was far better.

And this is what Mr. Herbsman, one of the judges, told Miss Silva. I heard him tell her that she was by far the best speaker of the four, and that she had a good head, and knew how to use her mind. He said she thought along a straight groove and got someplace at the end. Think of that coming from the mouth of a former U. of W. professor! Isn't that a compliment? And he also said that Constance Taylor was a splendid speaker.

I tried all day yesterday to find out who was on the team, but didn't succeed until about seven last night. It's a shame that we didn't know so the girls could have seen something of the Campus. I tried to persuade them to stay over today, but couldn't do it. The next time that a debate team is sent over, see that they are allowed to stay an extra day. Will you?

As you can see by the letter head, I'm spending my time in the office of the dean of men, and am enjoying my work, though I often wish I were back at school again.

Tell everybody "hello" for me, and tell them all that Constance and Miss Silva did mighty good work last night.

Sincerely,
IRENE COLLIER

VANDALS WILL BATTLE U. OREGON WEDNESDAY

more valuable at his old position at guard, while Fitzke, with his height even though not playing up to form, would stand a better chance against the lanky Latham for Oregon at tip-off position.

OREGON CRISIS
Coach MacMillan is not giving much thought just at present to the Washington clash Saturday, for with the rapid rise of Oregon to the leading place in conference tabulations, the game here Wednesday looms as a conference crisis for Idaho.

IDAHO FALLS MAN TO COACH UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Joe Maddock Named Head Football Mentor Succeeding "Shy" Hamilton

John H. Maddock, an assistant to "Burr" Ho" Yost of Michigan in 1920 and 1921, was named coach of football at the University of Oregon at a meeting of the executive council of the associated students here tonight. He will succeed Charles Huntington, who resigned the position here December 4, after serving six years.

Maddock began his athletic career at the University of Michigan in 1902, and in 1903 was named by Walter Camp as a member of the All-Western football team.

COACH AT UTAH
Yost and others at this time named him as an All-American tackle. Previous to his service with Yost in 1920-21, Maddock was coach at Utah for six years, and during this time turned out championship teams in football, basketball and track. He is now a business man at Idaho Falls, Idaho, and for the last two years has been coaching the Idaho Falls high school gratuitously.

Virgil D. Earl, director of athletics, recommended Maddock to the student council, following an extended scouting trip through the east. No terms of contract or the amount of salary were given out tonight.

YOST RECOMMENDS MADDOCK
Yost of Michigan highly recommended Maddock to Virgil Earl, and said of him, "Maddock is one of the greatest tackles that I have ever known. I consider him an excellent football coach with fine enthusiasm and personality."

In addition to being a star football player, the new coach was at one time champion wrestler of Michigan and was prominent in track and other athletics.

It is not known when he will assume his duties at the University of Oregon, but he is expected to report for spring football practice.

PRINTED NOTES FOR STUDENTS

Following close upon the agitation recently made by members of the University faculty against the sale and use of printed notes before the mid-year examinations comes the announcement of the organization of a publishing company in New York for the purpose of printing and distributing broadcast printed notes of lecture courses on various academic subjects given by prominent college lecturers in the East.

Virginia Valli With Star Cast

Millions of people have read and loved Frances Hodgson Burnett's novel, "A Lady of Quality," and now they have the opportunity of seeing their beloved classic on the screen, at the Kenworthy Theatre, next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

As a Universal super jewel, the highest form of photoplay which is produced by the Universal Pictures corporation, averaging one a year, "A Lady of Quality," is, of course, an elaborate production.

The star is Virginia Valli, portraying the winsome heroine, Countess of Dunstonwolde, (nee Corinda Wildaire). Her personal characteristics of beauty and manner contribute a charming sincerity to her portrayal. To many she will represent the ideal type the author had in mind.

This is Miss Valli's first starring appearance under the long term contract which she signed with the Universal Pictures Corporation, following her highly commended work in "The Storm." This production was directed by Hobart Henley, whose production, such as "The Flirt," and "The Flame of Life," have been leading Universal attractions.

The cast supporting Miss Valli includes such well known film favorites as Milton Sills, Earle Foxe, Willard Louis, Aileen Manning, Bert Roach, Leo White, Patterson Dial, Dorothea Wolbert, and Florence Gibson. Sills is the romantic masculine figure and Foxe plays Sir John Oxen.

There is historical interest in the story in the portrayal of the period of the "Good Queen Anne" a conspicuous figure in the annals of England, who was known as the sovereign with a motherly heart. Miss Mannings was cast for this from old woodcuts, being a near-perfect likeness.

ENROLL 2,168 AT W. S. C.

W. S. C. (P.I.N.S.) —By the end of the second registration day there were 2,168 students enrolled at the State College of Washington for the second semester's work. During the ensuing week or ten days there are usually 50 to 100 "stragglers" enrolled. The new schedules include 851 classes in 531 different courses in the 47 departments of instruction.

FRESH TO GOVERN SELVES

University of Nevada, (P. I. N. S.) —Freshmen at the University have decided to take over their own government in the future rather than leave it to the sophomores. They will themselves enforce all traditions and deal with all infractions of rules by members of their body.

DOING HIS DUTY

"Ticket, sir," said an inspector at a railway terminus in the city to a gentleman who, having been a season-ticket holder for some time, believed his face was so well known that there was no need for him to show his ticket. "My face is my ticket," replied the gentleman, a little annoyed.

"Indeed!" said the inspector, rolling back his wristband and displaying a most powerful fist, "Well, my orders are to punch all tickets passing on to this platform."

ROGER BACON

English philosopher and man of science. Studied at Oxford and the University of Paris. Wrote the Opus Majus, Opus Minus, Opus Tertium, and many other treatises.

For this he was sent to prison

Roger Bacon may not have invented gunpowder, as has been claimed by some biographers of the famous Franciscan friar, but he exploded some of the outstanding errors of thirteenth century thought. Because of his advanced teachings, Bacon spent many years of his life in prison.

In an age of abstract speculation he boldly asserted the mathematical basis of all the sciences. But even mathematical calculation, he showed, must be verified by experiment, which discovers truths that speculation could never reach.

In the Research Laboratories of the General Electric Company, Bacon's principles are followed in every experimental investigation. The gas-filled electric lamp and the electron tube were worked out on paper, but it was experimental verification of the underlying mathematical theory that made electric illumination, radio broadcasting and X-rays what they are today.

More than a million dollars a year is devoted to research by the General Electric Company in order that the giant—electricity—may be made more and more useful to mankind.

JOE COGAN AWARDED 15 CENTS IN COURT

Assisted By Law School Attorneys,
Joe Puts Up Overwhelming
Defense

Joe Cogan won fifteen cents, and points for the Shamrock and the common people, while the "Law School made good" yesterday and triumphed for the university lawyers. It all happened in the court of the justice of the peace Monday morning. Joe was taking his morning doze in the ten o'clock Economics class when he was called out by "Firpo" and informed that he must appear immediately in court, as he was made the defendant in a suit brought by Dr. Wilk, of Spokane, who sought to recover six dollars alleged to be due and owing for professional services. RETAINS COUNSEL

Cogan rushed to Dean Davis' law class and secured the services of three of the leading embryo lawyers—Winton Arnold, Robert Leitch, and Guy Penwell. Fortified by this legal counsel, Cogan ventured into the court of Justice Max W. Griffith, where his class mates eloquently pled his case. The defense denied that the bill was owing, and further contended that the plaintiff had no legal representative for Max Griffith, not only operates the agency attempting to make the collection but was engaged as attorney for the plaintiff. The defendant's attorneys therefore, proved that, as he was judge, he could not represent the plaintiff. THE VERDICT

Thereupon came the verdict: "It is hereby ordered, adjudged, and decreed that the above entitled action against this defendant be dismissed with prejudice to the plaintiff with costs in the sum of fifteen cents."

All of which for the B. A. students means that once again the Law school triumphs along with Cogan. It is understood that the fee charged by the defendant's attorneys will not be excessive.

He performs his little experiment and after that time if Pussy wants to leave her good husband and three rosy-cheeked children for Tommy, Mr. Latimer does not stand in the way.

CAST WELL SELECTED

"The Dover Road" shows Mr. Latimer during the time that he has caught two runaway couples. Leonard and Anne arrive just a day before Nicholas and Eustana are to leave. The comic situation is that Eustana is the wife of Leonard. A solution happy for all four is reached, but not in a morally rigorous manner.

The cast for the play is as follows:
Dominic Everett Erickson
Leonard J. Stanton McLaughlin
Anne Pearl Sticker
Mr. Latimer John H. Cashman
Eustana Camille McDaniels
Nicholas Talbot Jennings
The staff includes Sidney Yeager, Vivian Kimbraugh, Pauline Peace, and Louisa Martin.

Plan To Extend Use Of Relief Map In State

Plans to popularize and extend the use of relief maps of Idaho in state public schools and higher educational institutions throughout the northwest by offering reproductions of Idaho's official relief map at a very low price, have been announced by Dean Francis A. Thomson, head of the school of mines at the university. The state board of education will be asked to authorize the adoption of a lithographed copy of this map, to be offered at a very low figure, to every grade school and business home in the state.

ORIGINAL MAP

The original official relief map of Idaho was constructed by Prof. D. C. Livingston for the university in 1918 and hangs in the office of the school of mines. It is about 45 by 50 inches in size and shows the state of Idaho on a horizontal scale of 3 miles to the inch and on a vertical scale of 8000 feet to the inch. It shows Idaho as it would appear in a bird's-eye view from an airplane 100 miles in the air.

ENGLISH CLUB SHELF
Beginning Monday, February 11, the hours when the English club shelf of fiction will be accessible in the mornings are as follows: Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, from ten to eleven; and Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday, from eleven to twelve. In the afternoons, the hour will be from one to two, exclusive of Saturday.

A change has also been made in the rate of rental. Hereafter, two cents a day will be the uniform rate on all books. As long as a person has a charge against him, he will not be allowed to take out additional books.

He called a "Taxi" and they rode away "Underneath the Stars" to "Happy Days," and "Home Sweet Home." Ex.

STANFORD STUDENTS TRAVEL 187 MILES DAILY FOR MAIL

Stanford University, (P. I. N. S.)—The Stanford campus travels 187 miles for its mail every 24 hours, with the exception of Saturday and Sunday, according to a recent estimate. Round trips to Uncle Sam's local chapter total 374 miles, a distance equal to the mileage between Palo Alto and Reno, Nevada.

Triple Number Trees On U. of W. Campus

Three trees are being planted on the University of Washington campus in place of every one which is cut down, according to Frederick Elwell, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

Since last fall fully 400 trees and grounds at the University, who is carrying out a program for reforesting the campus with permanent have been set out by the University nurserymen. Most of these are native to the state, but many rare varieties have been included. Following this program, although not included in this number, a double row of American sycamore trees have been set out along Memorial Way, commemorating the men and women of the University who died in service during the World war.

Michigan U. Plans To Honor Scholars

Will Put Scholarship Honors On Proper Par With Athletic Recognition

Ann Harbor.—Students in the University of Michigan who gain distinction in their studies will be honored by the entire campus, it plans now proposed by the authorities go through to completion. It formerly has been the custom, as at most institutions of higher learning, to honor those who have gained fame on the athletic field but to neglect the students who bring scholastic honor to the university. Under the proposed plan this neglect will no longer be apparent.

It is proposed that there be held annually early in the spring, a special convocation to be called the hon-

Abraham Lincoln

TODAY is celebrated throughout the United States as the birthday anniversary of one of the two greatest Americans,—Abraham Lincoln. As the years go by, his influence, his work, and his memory grow and live on like a perennial flower, which the course of time cannot destroy.

And it is only right that we should pay tribute to the man who carried our republic through the acid test of internal strife to a solidified nation that has advanced to almost unbelievable rank among the world powers of today.

But it should not be only his work and benefit to the nation that we should consider. Abraham Lincoln, the man, also holds a place in our esteem and affection.

Rising from the lowliest place among the country's people to a position of supreme power in a time of the greatest need, he displayed a kindness, a love for humanity, and a justice that can never be forgotten. Long after the political deeds of Lincoln fade and die, the stories of his good deeds, his kindness, and his love will live.

And from his life, the college student may well take an example of education that can never be equalled. His schooling was scant, but, realizing the value of learning in life, he set about to educate himself. And the true value of this self-teaching can be seen in his writings that have been handed down to us. He needed an education, and by perseverance he obtained it. Had he been offered the advantages of a present day university, one may easily conjecture the advantages he might have made of it.

The university undergraduate should consider the value that a man as great as Lincoln placed on education, and, realizing this, he should, as did Lincoln, make the best of his opportunities, that surpass those of Lincoln a thousand fold.

Sportsmanship

IDAHO'S enviable reputation for spirit and sportsmanship has been slowly developed, not so much by her students' reactions to Vandal victories, as by their admirable loyalty to Idaho teams in time of defeat. Such a record has made a lasting impression upon the whole western intercollegiate world.

Any smirch upon this record, any failure to carry on these high traditions so firmly established by our predecessors, is a reflection upon every Idaho student.

It is indeed regrettable that last Saturday night cannot take its place as another example of the wonderful "Idaho spirit." And it is to be regretted that on that occasion Idaho students so forgot themselves that their actions became not worthy of true Idaho men and women.

In comparison to Idaho's name and reputation, one game, one contest, one victory, one defeat means absolutely nothing; and never forget: We are all Idaho students.

Congratulations

THE state of Idaho may well congratulate herself upon the remarkable growth of her university during the past few years. An enrollment of 1850, which five years ago, when the total registration for the year did not total 900, seemed a dream of the remote future, has been accomplished. The university has more than doubled in size during those few short years.

And to President A. H. Upham the state should also offer congratulations. He has worked tirelessly, since he came to Moscow in the latter part of 1920, to raise the university to a position among similar institutions of the west, and he has succeeded,—succeeded beyond the highest expectations of those past days.

And under his guidance, citizens of the state may confidently look forward to an Idaho bigger and better than the one that he has now built up.

Education In Bunk

IN the Union store this morning a student was perusing an apparently valuable document with all the intentness accorded an examination list. He read down one column, started in on another, went slowly through that, and in about twenty minutes turned the page.

On the inside of the sporting section he read carefully everything said by Barney Google, Jack Keefe, and the rest. He spent another half hour on the inside. The front page of the paper, full of news which was affecting the whole nation, lay before him unopened. He turned to the back page and spent another ten minutes on the comics.

Then he departed for his classes, his mind full of a conglomerate of stale sport news and stale jokes.—Daily Palo Alto.
