

WHO SAYS THE VANDALS CAN'T PLAY BASKETBALL?

THE UNIVERSITY ARGONAUT

VOLUME XXVI

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO, MOSCOW, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1925

1925

Today, 10 Years Ago

Idaho's first Conference basketball battle staged on her home floor showed that, strengthened by Martinson, the Silver and Gold quintet was really about as speedy as any team in the Northwest and O. A. C. was walloped to the tune of 18 to 13. Martinson, Gray and Keane were the stellar lights among "Pink's" men and King starred for the proteges of old Doc Stewart. In a curtain raiser the fast Moscow high school five, coached by Jim Lockhart, trimmed a short ag. team 16 to 4.

The thirty five persons who attended the meeting of resident alumni at Ridenbaugh hall last evening all displayed the keenest interest in their Alma Mater and a strong desire to improve the basis on which their alumni association now operates. C. E. Favre was chosen president, H. H. Orland, vice president, and Mabel Price, secretary. The committee which will entertain the alumni commencement week is composed of Earl David Edna Dewey, and J. G. Griffith.

Save your whiskers for the Idaho Barber Shop, Gibford Bros. props.—adv.

"Hec" Edmondson, Herbert Martinson, and Aden Hyde went to Pullman the other day to see the W. S. C. O. A. C. basketball game. "Hec" refereed the contest.

At the university assembly this morning, President Brannon gave an exposition of the material elements that compose the university. He was followed by two quartets composed of Misses Cox and Pitcairn and Messrs Storer and Humphries, who rendered two sacred songs.

Harvey Slack, ex '12, and captain of Idaho's basketball team of '10, spent the week visiting college. He was a guest of the Kappa Sigma house.

Saturday night at Hodgins hall Phi Delta Theta gave a delightful, informal dance to break the grey monotony of that after-exams feeling, which is so prevalent, but besides that everybody had a good time which is vastly more important. Altho a good many people kept up the new dances, it is interesting to note that they are already beginning to go the way of all fads.

"Pink's" fast and scrappy basketball team tangled with the Whitman five twice during the week, and, although forced to hasten a trifle, they slipped both games into the old won column, 26-18, and 27-25.

Major Geo. H. Chrisman, the first commandant at University of Idaho writes from Fort Niagara, New York, where he is stationed with his regiment, that it is his intention to move the family back to Moscow. He has been ordered to Panama with his regiment. Major Chrisman, then, a Lieutenant came to the university as its first commandant and remained here until the Spanish-American war broke out when he was ordered to Cuba.

The University of Pennsylvania authorities, it is claimed, will substitute a football committee for the one-man system of coach next year, which is causing a great deal of comment in the east.

1360 ENROLLED HERE MONDAY, TUESDAY

Second Semester Registration Greatest Yet; More Expected

More than 1360 students enrolled at the University of Idaho in the two days registration for the second semester, according to figures from the bursar's office which also announced that at least two hundred more are expected to register.

This number does not include some four or five hundred students who will enroll later for agricultural and forestry short courses and for summer school. Definite figures of total enrollment and for comparison and percentage increase, will be compiled soon, it was announced.

IDAHO MARKSMEN TO COMPETE FOR CORPS AREA TITLE

Two Teams Will Be Entered
In Contest, Which Opens
Wednesday — National Match Slated Later in the Spring.

Rifle teams from Reserve Officers Training corps in the Ninth corps area, embracing schools in the west, will compete in their annual championship match, February 11 and closing February 25. The Idaho teams, of which there are two, will shoot on their own 50-foot range here and the results will be forwarded to the area headquarters at San Francisco and the scores tabulated. Fifteen men will be entered on each of the Idaho teams, the scores of the 10 highest men to count. A first and a second team will be entered by the University of Idaho corps. A small bore gun will be used.

The five highest teams in the corps area will be entered in the match for the national championship contest, to be held sometime in April according to Claudius L. Lloyd, assistant professor of military science and tactics.

Two teams, with the following men have been chosen from the Idaho corps:

"ALMA MATER" IS NEW IDAHO HYMN

Must Be Instantly Accepted
by Students and Take Hold of Them

University of Idaho students at a recent assembly were given another song which might be used as an alma mater hymn. Although countless songs have been written by students and alumni, none has been accepted and the student body has clung to "Ny Idaho", which is truly a spirit song, sun to waltz time.

The name of the author of the last song presented has been withheld by E. Orlo Bangs, head of the music department and director of the men's glee club.

"The fact that a song has been written as an alma mater hymn doesn't make it one," President A. H. Upham has said. "To be truly an alma mater hymn, the song must be accepted instantly by the student body; it must take hold of them." And "My Idaho", although filling the requirement that it must grip the student, isn't an alma mater hymn.

The words to "Alma Mater", the last song introduced follow: (In E-dah-ho) the accent is on "dah")
Land of the past, E-dah-ho—
Canyon and crag and plain—
The voice that spoke
Thru thy council-smoke
Shall never be heard again.
The mother spirit of learning
Broods o'er the white man's line,
We worship, we worship before thee,
O Idaho, Mother of mines!
Land of our dreams, E-dah-ho—
Forest and shaft and field—
Millions shall reap,
Where the red hosts sleep.
What fruitful earth shall yield,
Thy sons go forth to the harvest,
Strong as the wind-blown pine,
For thine is love they cherish,
O Idaho, Mother of mine!
Homeland of men, E-dah-ho—
Plowland and herd and hearth—
Where folk shall quest,
For the prize of rest,
From ends of the restless earth,
Each in his generation
Shall turn to thee for a sign—
The blessing of Alma Mater,
O Idaho, Mother of mine!

The University of Pennsylvania authorities, it is claimed, will substitute a football committee for the one-man system of coach next year, which is causing a great deal of comment in the east.

George L. Oliver, head of the religious work bureau, has announced he can aid students in obtaining summer work. Mr. Oliver stated that all students who desire this work should see him at the "U" hut.

STATE CONSTITUTION HAD TO BE AMENDED, HELD 20 YEARS AGO

Brief Prepared Then Maintains No Part of University Can be Moved Merely
By Vote of Legislature

Moscow, as the home of the University of Idaho, is naturally deeply interested in the progress of the bill introduced in the Idaho senate by Senator Newcomb of Bannock county, the purpose of which is to remove the college of agriculture from the university, and to make the Idaho Technical Institute at Pocatello, the Idaho College of Agriculture and Mechanics. In this connection a document of more than passing interest has been resurrected in a brief or "Memoranda on University Charter," as it is captioned, submitted on February 2, 1905 by Judge J. H. Forney of this city, well known pioneer attorney of Idaho, to the board of regents, C. L. Heltman president, in connection with the movement at that time to dismember the university by taking away the school of mines and locating it at Hailey, then a more or less promising mining district in south Idaho.

The memorandum was prepared by Judge Forney at the request of the board of regents and while it dealt at the time with the school of mines, applies equally to any of the several colleges comprising the university. At the time the brief was prepared there had been no supreme court decision on the issue involved, but since then three decisions have been

Lindley Hall defeated Tau Kappa Iota and the Phi Gamma Delta five forfeited to Phi Delta Theta. The Phi Gamma Delta aggregation is still holding undisputed right to the cellar championship, while Tau Kappa Iota dropped into a tie with the Elwtas for the next to the cellar title in the "A" league.

BOOKS OF ENGLISH CLUB ARE MISSING

Five books have disappeared from the English Club book shelf. The club will greatly appreciate the act if any one finding one of them among his or her belongings will return it to the book shelf or to Dr. Miller's office. The books missing are: "Mr. and Mrs. Haddock Abroad," "Dismissing Disobedience," "Told by an Indian," "Passage to India," and "The White Monkey."

FIFTY ANSWER FIRST CALL FOR TRACK ASPIRANTS

Distance Candidates Plentiful But Other Divisions
Lack Material; Heavy
Schedule Arranged for Conference Competition

Fifty men answered Coach R. L. (Matty) Mathews' first call for track candidates Monday afternoon. This number includes men who will try for positions both on the varsity and freshman squads. The men were put through some light runs across the campus under the direction of Lewis Williams, veteran distance man, as their first workout. Mr. Williams will be in charge of practice until Mr. Mathews can turn his attention from basketball.

"There should be at least 100 men out for the various positions on the squad," said Mr. Williams in a statement last night. "There are many positions for which there will be little competition if no more men turn out. We are rather fortunate in the distance, but the middle distances, sprints and field events will suffer. It is Mr. Mathews' desire that any man who has had any track experience in high school report for a tryout.

Competition will be especially keen in the distance, according to the number of men out Monday night for those divisions. Williams, who has participated in three years of cross-country running, is one of the most

ALBERT SPAULDING WILL PLAY HERE

San Carlos Opera Company
Will Present Famous Violinist on February 27

Albert Spaulding, America's foremost violinist, will play in Moscow at the university auditorium on the evening of February the twenty-seventh. He is the greatest single artist the university has ever had on its artist course, and if Moscow and university people fully realize his art, there will be a greater crush at his concert than there was at the San Carlo opera performance recently. No other American musician is better known the world over than Spaulding.

For instance he has played 36 times with the New York Symphony and is scheduled for four more appearances this season, making forty in all. He has appeared as soloist with the Chicago Symphony nineteen times, Boston 9, Philadelphia five, Detroit four, Minneapolis four, St. Louis six, Cincinnati seven, San Francisco six, Los Angeles four, the New York Philharmonic six besides scattered appearances with other lesser orchestras. With the exception, before noted of the New York Symphony record, these do not include his engagements this present season, nor do the following list of concert appearances include forty-five recital appearances already booked for this season.

Mr. Spaulding has made 74 appearances in New York, 24 in Boston, 7 in Philadelphia, 5 in Baltimore, 4 in Washington, 5 in Pittsburgh, 10 in Detroit, 9 in Cincinnati, 7 in Cleveland, 7 in St. Louis, 5 in Dallas, 11 in Havana, 9 in San Francisco, 6 in Los Angeles, 4 in Kansas City, 9 in New Haven, and 8 in Buffalo.

Abroad Mr. Spaulding has appeared with all the leading orchestras.

W. A. A. ANNOUNCES SCHEDULE

The schedule of practice hours for the Women's Intra-Mural basketball team has been set. Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 8 o'clock has been set aside for Kappa Alpha Theta, Forney Hall, Alpha Chi Omega, Pi Beta Phi, and Deleph Teth Gimmel. From 7 to 8 o'clock on Tuesdays and Thursdays has been assigned to the Kappa Kappa Gamma, Ridenbaugh Hall, Delta Gamma, Pi Sigma Rho, and Gamma Phi Beta.

SPANISH CLUB TO MEET

The Spanish club will meet at 7:30 tonight at the "U" Hut. A lecture, illustrated by colored slides, on Spain will be given by Mrs. M. L. Sargent.

CO-ED ATHLETES PLEDGE THIRTEEN

Sixty Girls Turn Out for Women's Basketball Practice Monday

Thirteen freshmen women were pledged by the Women's Athletic association last night. They are Evelyn Backus, Dorothy Manning, Harriet Hines, Grace Hagen, Corrine Clare, Ella Mae Farmin, Grace Hunter, Mary Frances Updyke, Mabel Griffith, and Margaret McConnell. They will be initiated in a week.

Tonight was the first night of the basketball turnout and 60 girls reported for practice. Those that turned out tonight and the ones who will report tomorrow night will constitute the largest turnout of all time," said Evangeline Bennet, president of the association.

IDAHO MEN DEBATE WASHINGTON HERE IN VARSITY MEET

First Triangular Is Slated
Here Thursday Night—
Oregon, Washington and Idaho

The Varsity debate team will meet the team of the University of Washington, Thursday night February 12 at 8:15 o'clock, in the university auditorium. Idaho will uphold the affirmative of the question, Resolved: That congress should have the power by a two thirds vote to overrule decisions of the supreme court declaring acts of congress unconstitutional.

This will be the first annual men's triangle, including University of Washington, University of Oregon, and Idaho. Warren Montgomery and Francis McKee will uphold the affirmative for Idaho against the University of Washington here, J. L. Roberts and Francis Wyman will compose Idaho's negative team meeting the University of Oregon at Eugene. Washington's affirmative team will meet Oregon's negative team at Seattle.

Dr. A. H. Upham will officiate as chairman. The judges will be, M. L. Daggy, professor of speech education at W. S. C.; E. D. Lewis, professor of English at Lewiston State normal; and C. H. Woody, professor of American History at W. S. C.

Students will be admitted upon presentation of their A. S. U. I. tickets. Townspeople and high school students will be charged twenty five cents admission.

JUNIOR CLASS WOULD EXCLUDE FRESHMEN

Many Would Allow First Year Students to Attend Annual Prom

There will be a meeting of the junior class in room 113, Science Hall, Thursday evening at 7 o'clock, for the purpose of electing officers for this semester and for the reconsideration of a rule, made at the last meeting, excluding all freshmen from the Junior prom.

The Junior prom has, in the past, been an all-college affair. It is the ambition of each succeeding class to make its prom more successful than before.

A statement issued Tuesday says: "At the last junior meeting a resolution was adopted which excluded all first year students, men and women. This is obviously unfair to men who wish to go with freshman girls. There is also some reason in the argument that it is unfair to permit freshman girls to attend the prom and exclude first year men. It appears, however, that most schools exclude first year men only. The limitation of ticket sales is neither successful nor desirable, since it places upper classmen in competition with freshmen for possession of tickets."

"A possible solution lies in the strict observance of two traditions: first, the Junior prom is formal and those not dressed accordingly should not be admitted; second, no freshman may appear in evening clothes."

Y. M. C. A. MEETING THURSDAY

The weekly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. has been changed to Thursday night, February 12, at 7 o'clock. This will be an open forum meeting and everyone is invited.

VANDALS CAGERS TRIM HUSKIES, REPORTS STATE

Idaho Hoopmen Defeat University of Washington
Aggregation, 31 to 30,
After Extra Period Is Played

It took an extra five-minute period for the Idaho Vandals to defeat the University of Washington quintet, 31 to 30, at Seattle last night, according to meager reports received here. With this victory, the Vandals upset all dope pots mixed immediately after their 24 to 22 defeat at the hands of Whitman college Saturday night.

From the nature of the score, it must have been a successful free throw that broke the tie and won for Idaho, although the name of the Vandal making the toss was not available near midnight last night.

BOLIVIAN GIVES TALK

Mr. Pena, a native of Bolivia gave a lecture on South America at the last meeting of the Cosmopolitan club, Saturday evening.

Plans were made at the meeting to cooperate with the Cosmopolitan club at Washington state college, according to Mr. Reynolds, president of the club.

OREGON MATMEN DEFEAT VANDALS

Lemon Yellow Grapplers
Take Four Out of Five
Contests at Eugene

University of Idaho matmen took one out of five matches with the university of Oregon grapplers last Saturday and emerged on small end of a 42 to 12 score in their first conference match of the season. The contests were held at Eugene. But one fall was registered during the afternoon, and that when S. D. Wingard Oregon, threw Ray Powers, Idaho, in the 138 pound division.

Idaho matmen were unable to show even the speed they have shown this year in practice tilts and it seemed easy for the Lemon Yellow grapplers to subdue them. The Vandals were wrestling under a handicap of low altitude, they said and they were unable to "get up a sweat" which is necessary to work at the highest efficiency. More than 500 persons, including many co-eds, turned out to the bouts.

Bitner Only Veteran

Bitner wrestling in the 128-pound division was the only Vandal who had wrestled before on the varsity—and that was with Ford, Oregon, who threw him Saturday. Bitner had little difficulty in pinning Ford's shoulders to the mat in the match last year.

The Vandals have the following matches lined up for the remainder of the season: Washington State College here next Saturday, Washington State College at Pullman, February 21 and the University of Washington at Moscow, February 28. Efforts are being made to schedule another non-conference meet in Moscow for some date following the close of the Pacific coast conference season. Negotiations are under way also to get another match with the University of Oregon matmen when they come north to meet the Washington State College team late this month.

One Royal Road

There is no royal road to the development of true creative art, and years of arduous painstaking work by Mr. Cushman and his classes may production stand evidence to this. To select types and then to put out their individual dramatic aptitudes is indeed difficult. But it comes increasingly so when the types exist in the persons of college students, most of whom never intend to do professional acting and, consequently, are not interested in development of their own dramatic aptitudes, however natural they be.

In spite of this, however, Mr. Cushman has worked up, mainly through the "little theatre" idea and its specialization on one-act productions, a type of dramatic art that has become as vital to Idaho campus life as it is distinct from other phases of the English curricula. Out of this play production has developed a number of remarkably talented people, all of whom are proud of Idaho and all mindful of her welfare.

They're real stuff, these plays of Cushman's dramatic classes; and any Idaho student would do well to see them whenever possible.

Five Book Shelf Books

Five books have disappeared from the English club book shelf. Does this mean that five students or faculty-members or both have carelessly neglected to return them? We sincerely hope so; for it would only be unheard of that anyone should take so literally the idea of book-alism.

The Goddess Learning

Learning does not come in a hurry. She cannot be won by force. She is a jealous goddess and does not bestow her blessings upon those who run after false idols. She does not sit all day in the market place waiting about quick returns. She has rarely received the plaudits of the crowd. Learning has a quiet and simple beauty all her own which grows with the years. And this is the habitation of learning!

Our jazz bands, our saxophone orchestras, our whirling giddy parties, our "husts," our proms, our hops, our moving pictures . . . all these and many other things gather into a noisy rushing rabble and banish learning. They may have, they do have, their proper place but just as they occupy an unduly large place in student interest. The emphasis is false. No student, at least few students, find it possible to put things in their proper places and to find themselves content constantly with the finest and best and rarest things of life. Ident Burton, The University of Michigan.

Idaho-Washington-Oregon Triangle

The debates Washington here Thursday in the university auditorium is the first men's triangular. The teams will debate to a decision. The question is a current and an interesting one. Debate, varied intra-mural, is becoming more and more popular . . . don't count down on this one. Thursday evening at eight-fifteen o'clock.

Basketball Vandals

Basketball takes its place along side horse racing and marriage when it comes to predicting with anything like certainty the outcome of its Idaho's Vandals must have demonstrated a bit of the finest ball to snatch victory from the burning coals of defeat in the ton game last night.

Effort is there, latently perhaps, but nevertheless there; and it is experience, time, and adequate support to bring it out. Don't expect support; winning or losing, the Vandals are Idaho's team; they are never licked . . . beaten, yes, but never licked.

Student Opinion

There is ever a thing so opposite to the principles of proper guidance as to say: "Was there ever more?" Was prohibition of any successful principle for and moral development in women? Hypocrisy, does it consist in believing, or in professing; that one does not believe in to conform willingly to regulations, when one conforms to them nor agrees in principles. It is impossible to press the moral mischief, if it is that mental lying in society. Why do we use representatives of the say that you may qualify the above population of this state, to suit yourself but remember "if you throw a stick into a pig-pen, and a pig is heard to squeal, then that is the pig you hit."

As an example, consider the rules extending even over the days between the semesters. In a town where the students outnumber, at least ten times, the people of their own age, can there be much more harm in permitting them to attend a public dance just off the campus than one held in a hall down in the city of Moscow? In both there would be a large majority of students and people associated with the students every day.

The benefits of a University education are for the few, not for the many. Many attend but few are justified by their time and money as far as education is concerned. Even the many could be taught to a certain extent a feeling of self-reliance and honor which would kill this state of mind and action which is so aptly described by Mental Lying. Our present state of affairs consists of rules, prohibitions, suspicions, with the natural companions dogmatism, selfishness, hypocrisy, narrowness, jealousy and dishonesty. I think we should give the students a chance to develop. Since we do not control them all their lives, we can keep them from entering the Hades of social intemperance; but, we could aid in developing the possible few and in strengthening the many, by offering them a guidance into the Heaven of broad and noble manhood and womanhood. Instead, we arouse the extreme, naturally aroused by prohibition in even those possible noble few, thus weakening them.

I have written the above while looking for "weeds." I could write another, seeing some "flowers." If you fall utterly to agree with anything of the above, and declare that such actions are in the very small minority, then you are fooling yourself, and perhaps helping cultivate the habit in the minds of others; then, you are one of us.

—F. M. T.

Then the definition of fussing was necessary. Webster says a fusser is one who makes ado about trifles. Dean Skogg says he never saw any one making ado over trifles. He added that long years ago when there were bears on the campus some of the profs might have been fussed.

Not until we see some one making a cruel ado with a poor helpless trifle will we believe there are fussers at Idaho.

Somebody must have fed the blue bucket some glands because it has certainly been rejuvenated. Its previous high moral one is succumbing to the modern trend but the publication is gaining in popularity on the campus. The Azure Pall may even compete with College Humor in time.

"Doe" Church says it is surprising how many boys are sleeping in classes so early in the semester. Spring fever is running ahead of schedule this year.

LATEST NEWS OF THE WORLD OF FASHION CONDENSED FOR QUICK READING
FEBRUARY 10, 1925

Don't abandon your diet and exercise! The spring silhouette is still uncompromisingly slim and straight—barely recognizing a waistline!

For night and day, in every way, skirts are getting shorter and shorter.

Nowhere is the simplicity of the mode more apparent than in sports wear. Fashion has whittled away all but the essentials.

If the simple one-piece frock is smart, the two-piece frock is doubly so. In satins and prints as well as sports fabrics.

First the smart woman invaded man's office and politics. Now she has invaded his wardrobe—and copies his sports shirts, his double-breasted coat—his immaculately tailored suits, and his haircut!

We almost forgot to report that she has adopted his discarded suspenders on her latest skirt—the jumper!

What is there about the choker that has so enslaved Dame Fashion? She intends to wear no other jewelry this season.

The straight line is still as straight as it ever was—geometrically—but Fashion, being a woman, has inserted flares and pleats for grace and comfort.

Scarfs still wind their colorful selves around smart throats.

The smartest springtime ensembles will have gaily printed linings and collars, matching their blouses.

The long tight fitting sleeve now has a rival in the graceful peasant sleeve that shirrs tightly at the wrist.

There are two smart coats for Spring. The very mannish, double-breasted affair, and the not-quite-so-new, but much more feminine, wrap-around. The collar of the former is velvet, and notched. Of the latter, a slim standing affair, or a smart scarf.

Tub-silk returns again, more popular than ever in exquisitely blended Roman stripes, plaids, and pastel tones.

While patent leather remains the most universally popular shoe leather, kid skin is fast coming to the fore. And in such delightful-sounding names as caramel, oak leaf, red ash, chow and rosewood.

Fashiongrams are published every month—watch for them.

SOCIETY

An interesting time it is, indeed, the time of registration, of new classes, of initiations and initiation banquets. A time when students come to classes heavy-eyed, when they do not linger in the halls but dash away to unknown places and unknown tasks.

There is, also, for the girls, new rushing to be done, rushing parties to be given.

It is a time of work, of hurry, of readjustment to new classes and surroundings, especially for the students who appear for the first time in Idaho's corridors.

At the end of the rushing parties Sunday, the new pledges moved into their new homes. The pledges of Delta Gamma are the Misses Josephine Johnson of Lewiston, Elinor McDonald of Wallace and Mary Patricia Burke of Spokane. several promising rooks have turned out for the yearling squad. Cleaver, from Caldwell high school, has reported and will begin work for the mile. Cleaver showed a burst of speed in the mile last year and closed the season with the state interscholastic record fastened to his belt. His work last night showed him to be in good trim now and is apt to lower existing records this year. Mitchell, from Parma high school, who was something of a sensation in interscholastic competition last year in the sprints and hurdles, is out. He copped the state records for the high and low hurdles last year in the state meet here. Kyle, who promises to be an all-around man, is out for the pole vault. He did some good work for the Caldwell high school track team last year and since coming to the university last fall has made his letter in football and is going strong for a letter in basketball. Kyle, from Kootenai, is a candidate for the high jump. Kyle also is a basketball man.

Grid Star Expected.

Harry Reget, fleet footed and celebrated quarterback on the 1924 Vandal football team, has said he will be in his sophomore year. Another possibility who has said he will turn out is Schraeder, who comes here with a reputation in the sprinting division.

The Vandals have a particularly heavy schedule this year, with six conference meets lined up. They will meet Gonzaga and Whitman college early in the season in the annual triangular meet. Washington State college and Gonzaga in another triangular, and two dual meets with Montana and Washington State college. In addition there will be the regular Northwest conference meet at Corvallis and the annual relay carnival at Seattle. In this last competition, relay teams and pentathlon men from the conference will be chosen. There will be a number of medley relay on this bill.

The film will be taken to the University of Washington from here where it will be shown to the student body.

H. S. SENIORS TO ENTER COLLEGE

More Than Half State Graduates Plan University Careers

Reports from 2338 seniors in 101 Idaho high schools reveal that more than half of this year's graduates hope to attend some university or college. The number with such expectations is 1117. There are 384 who plan to attend normal school, 335 who look forward to a vocational education, and 442 who make no statement as to plans.

Except for the larger number of students reporting, these figures are quite similar to statistics assembled by the University department of publication in former years. In 1921 there were 1423 students reporting, of whom 47 per cent planned on a college education; in 1922, of 1792, 60 percent planned on a college education; 1923, 2158, 57 per cent. In 1924 2300 students reported from 100 high schools, but the information relative to their plans was incomplete.

LEGISLATORS TO SEE U. OF I. AG SCHOOL

Ten Members From South Idaho to Be Brought Here

The legislature members from the southern part of the state will be given an opportunity to visit the agriculture school of the university, according to Mark Means, state commissioner of agriculture, who offers to pay the railroad and other expenses of those members. This is being done to enable them to thoroughly investigate the agriculture school before enacting or making any change in the state laws regarding the school.

"There have been many misleading statements made," said Mr. Means, "and this would give first-hand information to people who have not had an opportunity to become acquainted with the crowning education of our state."

COMMITTEE NAMED FOR JUNIOR WEEK

Third Year Students Plan Gala Occasion

Appointment of nine juniors at the University of Idaho to act on a general committee in charge of preparations for "Junior Week," the annual week-end given over to the juniors for their own festivities, has been announced by the president of the junior class.

The committee is composed of Don McCrea, Bert Stone, Robert Quarles, Gordon Hockaday, Blaine Stubblefield, Martel Archibald, Mildred Pierson, Opal Hunt, and Anna Marie Leithe.

"Junior Week" is the big week-end for third-year students at the university. On this occasion they entertain the campus with the "Junior Prom," and it is planned this year to provide several other entertainments, one to be a Junior Fair, and another, some all-college play.

BENDIXEN TO ADDRESS CANADIAN DAIRYMEN

Associate Dairy Professor Goes to Vancouver Sunday

Prof. H. A. Bendixen associate professor of dairy manufacture, left Sunday afternoon for Vancouver, B. C., where he has been asked to speak on the program of the Western Canada Dairy convention, Feb. 10. The convention will continue until Feb. 13. His topic will be "Neutralization and Homogenization of the Ice Cream Mix." In addition to addressing the convention, Prof. Bendixen will serve as judge in the ice cream scoring contest and assist in the ice cream manufacturer's judging competition.

The program during the convention will include addresses from dairymen from all over Canada and leading figures in the industry in the United States.

U. OF C. ADOPTS NEW EXAMINATION SYSTEM

Dr. Barton Uses Same System Here in Psychology

Berkeley, Cal.—A new system of examinations has been adopted by Prof. Warren Brown of the psychology department of the University of California.

This department has used the essay form, requiring the student to write at length on several questions. Dr. Brown did not deem this a fair test and so he formed a combination of tests.

One of the new methods requires the pupil to supply one word to make a sentence complete. In another he must choose among several alternatives. A third consists in giving him a number of statements and asking him to tell of each whether it is true or false.

According to Dr. Brown, this type of test gives the student more choice of questions, because more ground is covered in less time. He says it exposes knowledge of a subject rather than the mere ability to state things.

HIGH MATH HONORS TO U. OF W. PROF.

University of Washington.—Seattle (P. I. N. S.)—The highest honor that can be conferred on a mathematician in this country has been given to Eric Temple Bell, professor of mathematics at the University of Washington.

He was awarded jointly with Professor Lefschetz of Princeton, the Bocher Prize of the American Mathematical Society for 1924, which is given once every five years to the resident of the United States or Canada, who makes in the five year period the most significant contribution to mathematical research. The winner of the prize must be less than 40 years of age at the time of publication of the paper upon which the award is based.

Professor Bell's work appeared in 1921 in the Transactions of the American Mathematical Society and was on "Arithmetical Paraphrases."

Professor Lefschetz who shares the award with Professor Bell this time received the honor on the basis of a paper which previously had received the grand prize of the French Academy of Sciences.

TO PRINT NAMES OF CODE VIOLATORS

Seattle, Wash., P. I. N. S.—Permission to the senior council to publish names of violators of the honor code in the University of Washington Daily was given by the board of control at its meeting last night in Education hall. After much discussion, the board decided that such action would probably aid in making the code more effective.

CAMP COUNTS FOR DRILL AT U. OF W.

Seattle, Wash., P. I. N. S.—Attendance at the annual infantry R. O. T. C. camp will entitle a student to credit for one-quarter's drill, it was announced Monday at R. O. T. C. headquarters.

The Argonaut has taken the count. For many months our staunch little organ stood its ground while other papers went down under the hammer blows of faddism. Last Friday a cross word puzzle stared childishly at us from the front page. A foot of space that might have been filled with market quotations, statistics on the growth of world population or an extract from the Congressional Record on tariff rates—any thing of interest—was given over to a picture of a pile of A, B, C, blocks for grown children. Shame on the Argonaut.

When fifteen hundred people saw the cracked-brain, crazycat, crossword puzzle they went to work on it to a man. If they averaged two hours each on the job, at fifty cents an hour, the project cost the community $1500. The result? A melee of far-fetched, twisted, obsolete and meaningless terminology that goes through the brain like a wealthy tourist through a cross-roads town, only stirring up a little dust to settle on the cob webs. We are tired of crossword puzzles. Let's start some other form of distraction for those who find themselves hard to entertain.

OREGON MATMEN DEFEAT

The freshmen squad will meet the Washington State rocks in a contest preliminary to the Idaho-W. S. C. meet here Saturday night and will meet the Cougar yearlings in a second match when the Vandals go to Pullman February 21. These are the only two matches scheduled for the rocks this year.

The result of the contest with the University of Oregon last Saturday follows:

178 pounds—Cartwright, Oregon, defeated "Bud" Bliss Idaho, two decisions out of three.

161 pounds—Edelblute, Idaho, won from Levine, Oregon, two decisions. 141 pounds—R. B. Ross, Idaho, drew with Davis, Oregon, three periods.

128 pounds—Wingard, Oregon, defeated Ray Powers, Idaho, one decision and one fall.

128 pounds—Ford, Oregon defeated Bitner, Idaho, two decisions.

STATE CONSTITUTION AMENDED

rendered, all of which uphold the contention of Judge Forney, as set forth in his memoranda of 20 years ago, and make it certain, those who are giving the subject study believe, that the university cannot be dismembered without an amendment to the constitution.

Below are some of the high points in the brief, which is being reproduced in pamphlet form for distribution in connection with the present movement to move the college of agriculture:

"The Fifteenth Session of the Territorial Legislature, January 30, 1889, Fifteenth Session Laws, page 17, established the University at Moscow. The same act may be found in the new Political Code (1901) at page 285, Sec. 933, among other things, provides as follows:

"The object of the University of Idaho, shall be to provide the means of acquiring a thorough knowledge, of the various branches of learning connected with the scientific, industrial and professional pursuits, and to this end it shall consist of the following colleges or departments, to-wit:

"First. The college or department of arts.

"Second. The college or department of letters.

"Third. The professional or other colleges or departments as may from time to time be added hereto or connected therewith.

"Section 939 reads as follows:

"The college or department of arts shall embrace courses of instruction in mathematical, physical and natural sciences with their application to the industrial arts, such as agriculture, mechanics, engineering, mining and metallurgy, manufactures architecture and commerce and such branches included in the college of letters, as shall be necessary to a proper fitness of the pupils in the scientific and practical courses for their chosen pursuits and as soon as the income of the university will allow, in such order as the wants of the public shall seem to require, the said courses in the sciences and their application to the practical arts shall be expanded into distinct colleges of the university each with its own faculty and appropriate title.

"The constitution of Idaho, Article 9, Sec. 10, reads as follows:

"The location of the University of Idaho, as established by existing laws, is hereby confirmed. All the rights, immunities, franchises and endowments heretofore granted thereto by the Territory of Idaho are hereby perpetuated unto the said university.

The Regents shall have the general supervision of the university, and the control and direction of all the funds of, and appropriations to, the university, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law.

"The Idaho Admission Bill, at Sec. 11, further provides as follows:

"For the support and maintenance of the State University located at Moscow, 50,000 acres."

A number of court decisions from other states are then cited.

Partisans of the university, and others who believe that it is better for a state with less than a half million population to develop and maintain one creditable institution of higher learning, feel that the argument set forth in the brief, and submitted to the members of the legislature in 1905, effectually disposes of any movement to dismember the university and that the only means by which a college of agriculture can be established at any other point in the state would be by the creation of a second college of agriculture.

The extension division of the college of agriculture maintains an office at Boise, and the greater part of the extension work is carried on in south Idaho.

Judge Forney, the author of the brief quoted above, was the first acting president of the University of Idaho, which opened its doors for the first time in October, 1892, with two instructors and 30 students, and which will this year have an enrollment of approximately 2000 students.
