FRESHMEN PREPARE SPIT AND FIRE FOR ROASTED COUGAR

Scarcity of Combustible Material Follows Onslaught First Year Men; "Biggest Ever," Say Green Caps

"A bigger and better bonfire than ever," cried Idaho's freshmen and they scurried away to their task. Now there is the greatest scarcity of combustible materials since the Chicago fire, from the appearance of the huge pile of material that has been erected at the fair grounds in preparation for the annual roasting of the cougar tonight.

Men in the class were excused from all classes Thursday afternoon to aid in the erection of the bonfire that is to light Idaho rosters in the annual pajama parade tonight. Four huge trucks were employed in the gathering of the fuel, the fresh announce. Three large poles, erected in the form of a standing triangle, form the base for the Washington pyre and many gallons of oil have been donated by Moscow business men and others for use on the fire.

Center of Revelry

The bonfire always forms the center of a weirdly gala night here and this year with more students than ever before and with optimism running high on the campus, the celebration promises to surpass all previous ones in brilliance. The festivities will open with the annual serpentine through fraternity houses, and the business district by the university girls and the annual pajama parade staged by university men. The two groups will meet downtown and proceed together to the bonfire where the spectacular rally is held. Prominent faculty members and students, old grads, and others will make short talks and songs, yells and all varieties of noise will be in order. The parade to the fairground where the main observance is held is to be headed by the Idaho Pep band.

FOUR SOPHOMORE MANAGERS NAMED

Leon Weeks, Dean Arnold, Fred Krause and Ole Morris Get Posts

Appointment of four sophomore athletic managers was announced Wednesday by Don McCrea, under graduate athletic manager. These are Leon Weeks, Dean Arnold, Fred Krause and Ole Morris. Mr. Weeks and Mr. Arnold will have charge of the varsity and frosh football equipment, respectively, while Mr. Krause will take care of the guarding and Mr. Morris the varsity equipment room.

Many are turning out daily for work connected with the selection of the new managers. Some of them have been repairing tennis courts and keeping the track in shape, while others have been chasing stray footballs and doing guard duty during practice. The direction of this work has been in the hands of the soph managers. By the end of the football season permanent managers will be announced. They will be chosen from the following list of candidates: Vernon Sogard, Charles Heltman, Don Lindsey, Dorsal Hack, George McDonald, Irving Smith, Harvey Davis, Bud Davis, Bruce Hague, Richard Crane and Hugo Grumbaum.

CO-EDS ARE SENT HOME; DRESSES DEEMED TOO SHORT

Walla Walla, Oct. 14.—Three young women who refused to comply with the new regulation at the Adventist College at Walla Walla, which says that dresses must not be more than 12 inches from the floor, were sent home from school yesterday to lengthen their dresses. The new regulation also asks the students "refrain from novels and movies."

Dress Microscopes In K. K. K. Nightcaps

The zoology department has taken up long warm nighties for the new microscopes. These nighties resemble small pillow slips and are flannel lined. Due to the complexity of the anatomical structure of the microscope, scientific investigators have had difficulty in determining whether these articles of apparel are nighties or nightcaps, but for the sake of propriety they have decided in favor of the nighties.

Previous reports stated that these robes de nuit were K. K. K. uniforms, but recent investigations have disclosed that these mystic letters appearing on many of the nighties stand for "Kant Ketch Kold!"

The nighties are made with the straight line effect, and the department plans on adding simple embroidery trimming later. Plans are also being made for obtaining a woolen bathrobe for Oscar, the zoology skeleton.

SPOKESMAN-REVIEW LAUDS ART EXHIBIT

Paintings Which Come to University Next Wednesday Receive Praise

Under the heading, "Public Appreciates Art Exhibit," the Spokesman-Review comments, editorially, very favorably upon the showing of the famous 40-piece collection of paintings which will appear on the Idaho campus Wednesday, October 21.

This $50,000 exhibition of the masterpieces of some of the best contemporary American artists will be hung in the Pi Sigma Rho house for a ten-day showing to all university students and Moscow townspeople who are interested in the "finer things" of art. "The cultural value of good paintings is not open to argument," says the Spokesman-Review editorial. "Not only is there mental exhilaration in seeing and studying works of art, but there is a lasting improvement in tastes which is reflected in many civic activities."

Several persons who have seen the exhibit in Spokane and were enthusiastically impressed by the intrinsic value as well as the visual effect of the beautiful paintings.

A preliminary display of several of the paintings will be made in assembly Wednesday, when students will be further informed of their real greatness.

HONORARY CLUB FRATERNITY ELECTS

The following were chosen: Eula Bryant, Orofino, president; David Fales, Gooding, vice-president; Milo Davis, Twin Falls, secretary; Margaret Dickinson, Hagerman, treasurer.

Any student who has done work in the national 4H organization is a candidate for membership in Mu Beta Beta. Sound moral character and recognized scholastic standing are the only other requirements.

ACADEMIC COUNCIL NAMES FOUR MEN TO TRY FOR AWARD

Wallace Brown, Edmund Becker, Francis Eldridge, Harold Wyman to Compete for Scholarship

The four students who will represent the University of Idaho in this year's Rhodes scholarship competition were selected at a meeting of the academic council here Wednesday evening. The candidates, who were chosen from a field of 13 applicants, are: Wallace Cable Brown, Lewiston; Edmund Becker, Twin Falls; Francis Eldridge, Moscow; and Harold Wyman, Colfax, Wash.

The Idaho Rhodes scholar is to be selected on December 12. Examination of candidates probably will be held early in December although no announcement as to date or place of meeting has been made by McKean F. Morrow of Boise, chairman of the Idaho committee. Sessions in the past have been held in Spokane, Moscow, and Boise.

Gooding College Eligible

Gooding college and the College of Idaho are also eligible to enter students.

Becker and Eldridge are juniors. Brown is a senior, and Wyman is a 1925 graduate. The latter is now teaching at Mead, Washington. While a student he was active in debating and was a member of Alpha society, scholarship organization. He was a candidate for the Rhodes scholarship two years ago.

Becker, who is majoring in economics is prominent in debate. He was a member of the team last year and is again taking a leading part this fall. Eldridge is majoring in political science. At present he is junior class president, and he is active in campus Y. M. C. A. work. He has made an excellent scholastic record.

Brown, who has majored in English, has been prominent in literary and journalistic circles on the campus. He was editor of the Argonaut, student newspaper, last year and this year he is president of the English club. He is a member of Silver Lance, a senior men's honorary society.

Four points are taken into consideration in awarding the Rhodes scholarship. They are: scholastic record, participation in university activities, interest in athletic sports, and general character.

INTERCLASS SCRAPS ARE PROHIBITED AT HAMLIN

Hamlin University has placed a ban on interclass scraps. Any person who commits an act of physical violence is to be sent home immediately.

STUDENT SOLDIERS TO HAVE MORE ROOM

Increased facilities in the handling of military equipment have been provided for by the extensive improvements that have been made this fall in the military department. Lewis Court, adjacent to the gymnasium, has been completely remodeled and now contains room for indoor drilling, an indoor rifle range, and store rooms for rifles and general equipment. Clothing will be stored in the basement of the gym, as has been done during recent years.

The court will provide perfect facilities for the storing of rifles, general equipment and all equipment not issued to members of the corps. A new system of lighting has been installed, and the building will be heated by the university heating plant. Some new field pieces have arrived, and instruction will be given in the use of these later in the semester. Most of the equipment of the corps is new this year, and is valued at about $17,000.

FACULTY TENNIS STARS PLAN TOURNAMENTS

Dr. M. A. Larson was elected president and I. N. Carter secretary of the Faculty Tennis club at a meeting, held last Wednesday. Tentative plans were made for a tennis tournament this fall and another next spring. The fall tournament will depend largely on the weather and the conditions of the courts.

TURNER SELECTS COMMITTEES FOR HOMECOMING GAME

Selected Groups Have First Meeting Sunday to Start Work for University's Big Day

Committees for Homecoming, October 30, have been appointed and meetings have been called, it was announced by Ted Turner, general chairman.

The following committees were named following a meeting of the chairman with the Moscow chamber of commerce and the Alumni association.

Housing: John McMurray, chairman; James Burnette, Ethel Povey, Allen McDaniel, Walter Garret, Harry Baughman, Editha Barton, Frank Williamson and Helen Campbell. This committee will meet at 9:30, Sunday morning at the Blue Bucket. The chairman has requested members to be present.

Decoration: Everett Erickson, chairman; Mildred Weston, Jesse Buchanan, Kerube Steensland, Mac Hardwick, and Elizabeth Mount. This committee will meet Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Blue Bucket.

Poster: Gus Bjork, chairman; Walter Cranston, Pat Howerton, Buster Brown, Stephen Stockdale, and Gall Mix. This committee will meet at 10:30 Sunday morning at the Blue Bucket.

Publicity: This committee will be handled by the Press club with Wallace Brown acting chairman. Information: Paul Atwood, chairman; Herbert Karlberg, Virginia Angell, Helen Wood, Mary Williamson, Margaret Fox, Bernice Suppiger, Virginia Whittier, Le Roy Freeman, A. E. Neighbor. This committee will meet at the Phi Delta house Monday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Appeals have been made to Moscow citizens to assist the housing committee with its problem. Rooms available in the city, together with those which will be offered by the various houses, it is thought, will be adequate to care for the large crowd. The South Idaho special will have sleepers which will accommodate its passengers.

A clearing house for rooms will be maintained down town, and this work will be facilitated by the Boy Scouts, who have offered to direct all visitors to any place.

"This is in line with the service we are going to show our visitors," said Mr. Turner. "Courtesy will be the watchword in our work."

To add to the entertainment, the Associated Engineers have offered to put on a burlesque stunt during halves of the game and it is quite probable that the stunt used at the W. S. C. game will be repeated at this time.

FRESHMEN PLAN HOMECOMING FIRE

The freshmen will sponsor a bonfire for old grads and visitors who will be in Moscow during Homecoming. It has been announced by Ted Turner, chairman of a general committee in charge of arrangements. The fire will be built from material scraped together for the purpose and from left-over material from the bonfire tonight.

"Although bonfires traditionally are on a competitive basis, that is, each class attempts to make a larger blaze than the preceding class, the competitive phase of the Homecoming fire will be subordinated," Mr. Turner remarked.

"The freshmen have generously accepted the responsibility of building the fire and they need the cooperation of the entire student body in making it one of the largest fires in Idaho history. The Homecoming game between Idaho and the University of Southern California is history itself, as never before has a California football team played on MacLean field. Everybody should take up the spirit of the occasion and, at least, give the freshmen moral support."

Frats Must Pay Taxes.

Fifteen fraternity houses of the University of Chicago must either pay their 1924 and 1925 taxes or be put up for auction at a tax sale according to a warning by the judge.

Only Slickers Slick Apparel for Winter

Slickers in all the smart colors are decreed for both Eds and Coeds by the Autumn mode. The chic materials are olecloth, rubberized linoleum and oiled paper. The slicker adheres strictly to the dictates of fashion with its straight tailored lines and high collar.

The transparent oil silk slicker is especially charming for girls, but it is not practical for every day wear because of the great temptation is afforded to pickpockets. A slick model popular in collegiate circles is the Holsum slicker of rubberized bread wrappers, with collar of contrasting velvet. They are especially adapted for warm weather wear because of their distinctive odor of burning rubber.

ARCHIBALD NAMED SENIOR PRESIDENT

Four Candidates Unopposed at Polls; Senior Ruff Plans Discussed

Martel Archibald of Boise was elected Senior class president for the ensuing semester at a meeting of the class held Wednesday night in the Science hall. Mr. Archibald was unopposed in his race as were the other officers elected at the same meeting, and the secretary was instructed to cast a unanimous ballot for the candidate for each office. Other officers named are Marie Eiler of Payette, vice-president; Ella Hove, of Moscow, secretary and Allen McDaniels of Moscow, treasurer.

Following the election plans for the Senior Ruff were discussed and President Archibald announced that committees to serve the class in making this annual social function a success would soon be named.

IDAHO PEP MIXED AT OUTDOOR ASSEMBLY

The pep rally assembly, held Thursday morning at 10 o'clock on MacLean field, was spent practicing the stunt for the U. of I.-W. S. C. game at Pullman Saturday.

The girls' gymnasium classes, the Spurs and Intercollegiate Knights under the leadership of Miss Florence Cowan, instructor in gymnastics and George "Brick" Elrod, yell king.

Miss Josephine Keane, yell queen, was introduced by Mr. Elrod.

KNIGHTS TO SELL CAPS, PROGRAMS

Erickson in Charge of Souvenir Programs; Knights to Entertain Visiting Team

Official programs for the Idaho-U. S. C. Homecoming game will be printed and sold by the Intercollegiate Knights who have started active work toward the preparation of a souvenir type program, according to E. R. Erickson, Honorable Duke. Erickson will have personal charge of the make-up and plans to include several features such as cuts of the coaches and players, names and jersey numbers of both teams, a brief sketch of past games between the two schools and other material suitable for a souvenir of the biggest game in Idaho's history.

The Knights are making plans to handle the crowd which is expected to set a new attendance record for an Idaho football game. In addition to selling programs and "I" caps and ushering, the Knights are arranging a program of entertainment for the visiting grid men.

Hamlin university has placed a ban on inter-class scraps. Any person who commits an act of physical violence is to be sent home immediately.

WILL RON SPECIAL TRAIN TO IDAHO-GONZAGA GAME

The special train to Spokane for the Gonzaga-Idaho game will leave the Inland station at 8:30 a. m., Saturday, October 24. The fare will be three dollars round trip. A train will leave Spokane for Moscow at 6 o'clock and at 11:30.

VANDALS PRIMED FOR ANNUAL GRID CLASSIC WITH W.S.C.

"We Will Win," is Terse Comment of "Matty" Mathews; Injured Players All Back in Uniform

The football teams of the University of Idaho and Washington State College clash in their 29th annual grid classic tomorrow afternoon at Roger's field, Pullman. Heartened by their victory over Oregon and with the team in the best shape of the season the Vandals are confident of the outcome of the game.

"We will win," is the terse prediction of Coach R. L. Mathews.

A few light warming-up drills to night finished the Vandals' preparation for the Cougars, and they look in the pink of condition. Every man who has been crippled is back in suit and the squad is at its full battle strength. Hugh Hughes, fullback, was the final injured man to report and a week of work has put him into shape for play.

Coach Mathews has been taking no chances on having any of his men injured before the game and no scrimmage has been held during the week. Long hours of signal practice, perfecting every play in the Vandal's bag of tricks, has been the routine. The team has been showing more dash and snap in its workouts than at any time during the season and has been going through its formation work with smoothness and power.

Lineup Withheld

The starting lineup will not be announced until a few moments before the team takes the field at Pullman. Three teams, with a few reserves, will comprise the Vandal invading squad. The line, with one or two changes, will be the same one which held Oregon at Eugene last week. Any of the three varsity backfield combinations may start.

STUDENT FIGHTS BEETLE PLAGUE

60,000 Bugs Eradicated by Wayne Adams During Summer

Destruction of almost 60,000 Colorado potato beetles was accomplished at a cost per destroyed beetle of about seven and six-tenths mills by Wayne Bever, university student, this summer. Bever, who was employed jointly by the extension division, the state department of agriculture, and Adams county to work under the supervision of Extension Entomologist F. E. Whitehead, estimates in his report that he rid the Weiser valley potato region in Adams county of 57,655 beetles. The total expense necessary to support the work was $438.40.

The purpose of the project, which will be continued next summer, is to prevent, at least for some time, the spread of the beetles to the main south Idaho potato raising section which as yet has never been infested. Bever patrolled the valley which included 14 fields at intervals of three or four days, destroying by hand as many of the pests as possible and then spraying. This was carried on continuously from May 25 to September 12. He estimates that he eliminated 8,848 larvae, 1077 adults, and 47,730 eggs.

The effectiveness of this effort, of course, cannot be determined until next spring. It is hoped that eradication may result although chances are against attainment of this goal. Even reduction of the rate of speed, however, will be a valuable work. Should the infestation be kept within the limits of the valley for a mere two or three years the investment will pay big returns.

The south Idaho region is now the most important growing section of the United States which is entirely free from the bugs. This is the first (Continued on page three)

SOCIETY

The most outstanding event for the coming week end will be the Athletic ball, the first formal of the year. This, though always a popular function, promises to be even more so this year, for everyone expects to be enthused over the outcome on the game with W. S. C.

It would seem that the various groups are getting a good start on their yearly rounds of entertainment as judged by the numerous dinner guests during the past week.

A. W. U. I. sponsored a rally for freshmen girls at McLean field Monday night, October 12. Short talks were given by Dean Permeal French and by representatives from the various women's organizations. About thirty of the girls attended the W. A. A. picnic given Saturday, October 10. They were transported in trucks to Dean Eldridge's cabin on Moscow mountain from which the girls hiked to the top of the surrounding Palouse hills. After building a huge fire, they toasted weiners and buns until darkness drove them homeward.

Lift the telephone receiver and say: "Telegram."

That is all it is necessary to do to send a telegram, cablegram or radiogram, according to the announcement of C. E. Johnson, Commercial Manager of the Interstate Utilities Company at Moscow.

"The Postal Telegraph Cable Company and our company have entered an agreement for the interchange of telegrams, said Mr. Johnson. "We are ready to give 24 hour telegraph service every day in the year. The rates for telegrams handled by the telephone company will be exactly the same as rates now in effect here for telegraph service.

"Of course, if people desire to come to the telephone office we will be very glad to accept their written messages, but we believe that telegraph users will find that dictating messages to experienced telephone operators will be a great convenience."

The Postal Telegraph Cable Company, known also as the Mackay system, is the world's greatest system of telegraphs and cables, according to Mr. Johnston. The lines of this company touch every continent on the globe and extend through every state in the United States. The Postal Telegraph Cable company also has an exclusive agreement with the Canadian Pacific Railway Telegraphs reaching most cities and towns in Canada.

ALUMNI RESPOND TO IDAHO SPIRIT

Former Student of University Still Feels Influence of Alma Mater

Idaho spirit, in the finest sense of the word, is displayed in the following letter, written by a member of the Alumni who is now a student at the Louisville Medical school:

"It is rather curious, and at the same time nice, the way Idaho students seem to meet up in distant places, and stick together after they get there. When I decided to come to the University of Louisville Medical school last spring, I hadn't the slightest idea that I would ever see a student from Idaho, this far away from the old Alma Mater. But, along in the summer I got a letter from Claude Kerns asking if I was going to be here this year and saying that he would be here.

Well, to make a long story short, I met him in Pocatello this fall and we came back together. We are now rooming together. But, the most remarkable of all, when we got here we found Jeff Stone, who got his masters' degree in zoology last year at Idaho, working in the Pathology laboratory of the city hospital. Working right alongside of him was Dwight Kuhns of the class of '24. They were living in the Intern's quarters in the hospital and they are still there. Both of them get their room and board out of their respective jobs and Stone works at the Medical school building from seven until eight each night in the week.

Kerns and I live just one block from the Medical building, which is right in the heart of the town. Then one block to the other side of us is the city hospital. (Only they don't call them blocks here. They call them squares and don't know what you mean if you ask how many blocks.)

"As far as the school is concerned we are catching up. The four of us from Idaho got together and are now working as two pairs of partners on the same 'stiff.' While we work we hash over all the old political fights at Idaho, revive all the scandal, and talk over things generally. These Kentucky boys here don't quite get the 'idea.' They don't see why we should hang together just because we happened to come from the same school, and when we tell them about school spirit they are entirely lost. That is one thing they don't have very much of back here.

"Just now we are all coming to the realization of how much Idaho meant to us and how much it still means to us. Gone are the pep rallies, the assemblies to sleep through, the class and fraternity dances, the class fights and the Friday and Saturday evening 'bullfests', beside the old fireplace. Even the Argonaut, which used to seem a bit dead at times, now is a God-send twice a week."

HOME ECONOMICS COURSE POPULAR

Recent Survey by State Supervisor Shows Increased Enrollment in Domestic Art

Enrollment in home economics in nine high school departments recently visited by Miss Dorothy Ellis, state supervisor, has increased on an average of about 10 per cent, Miss Ellis reports.

The supervisor reports that more emphasis now is being placed on general home making instruction rather than on merely cooking and sewing.

Six of the nine high school departments visited are being directed by Miss Ellis. The graduates and schools follow: Lorette Meskel, '25, Gooding; Annie Morris, '24, McCammon; Marie Feldhausen, '25, Malad; Muriel Tuttle, '24, Ashton; Alyce Cameron, '25, Sandpoint; Velma Hamilton, Other high schools visited were at Soda Springs, Coeur d'Alene, and Midway, rural high school between Lewisville and Menan.

CHOOSE JUNIOR A. S. U. I. OFFICER

Jess Buchanan Nominee for Executive Board Post

A junior class men's representative on the executive board of the A. S. U. I. will be chosen at a general student election Wednesday afternoon, it has been announced by Emil H. Strobeck, president of the student body. The failure of "Brick" McKee, elected last year as representative from the junior class, to return to school this year made a vacancy on the board. The place the election will be held will be announced later.

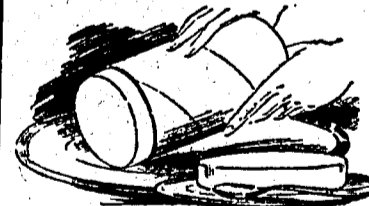

Jess Buchanan is the only person nominated, but under the Australian ballot system, the name of any eligible man can be written in at the polls. Nominations have been closed, but it is expected that there will be several more candidates' names indicated at election time.

Will Play in Spokane for All College Dances; Lake City Also on Itinerary

Final arrangements have been completed for the appearance of the University of Idaho Pep Band at the Idaho-Gonzaga football game at Spokane, October 24. Spokane has been particularly anxious that the band make the trip there, and has arranged a full program of activities.

The schedule arranged by Clifford Reem, manager, calls for the departure of the band at 4 o'clock Thursday evening and the arrival of the organization in Spokane late in the evening. The Pep Band orchestra will then go to Coeur d'Alene and play a short theatre engagement. Friday the band will take part in the rally planned by Gonzaga at Spokane and in the evening the orchestra will be featured at an all-college dance to be held in the Gardens. The orchestra will also play an engagement at the same place Saturday night. The organization will be back in Moscow sometime Sunday afternoon.

The orchestra, consisting of 10 pieces, will make its initial appearance at the formal athletic ball in the gym Saturday night.

Tonight the orchestra will play for a dance at the gym, immediately following the rally. A small admission charge will be made.

Why You Need This Guide

"It is safe to say that failure to guide and direct study is the weak point in the whole educational machine." Prof. G. M. Whipple, U. of Michigan. "The successful men in college do not seem to be very happy. Most of them, especially the athletes are overworked." Prof. H. S. Canby, Yale. "Misdirected labor, though honest and well intentioned may lead to naught. Among the most important things for the student to learn is how to study. Without knowledge of this labor may be largely in vain." Prof. G. F. Swain, M.I.T. "To students who have never learnt 'How to Study,' work is very often a chastisement, a flagellation, and an insuperable obstacle to contentment." Prof. A. Iglio, Harvard.

"HOW TO STUDY" will show you how to avoid all misdirected effort. Get a good start and make this year a highly successful one by sending for this hand-book and guide NOW.

The Wrecking Crew

Harken to the words of an ancient poet who wrote in the middle of the fifth century:

"For ten years the Vandals have been making a terrible slaughter among us. Castles built upon the rocks, villages situated upon the highest mountains, even cities surrounded by rivers, have not been able to protect their inhabitants against the fury of these invaders."

Neither the fury of the Vandals nor the fear they strike in the hearts of their enemies has diminished during the course of fifteen long centuries. Defense walls of beef and ivory, the skill and strategy of a season's coaching will not protect the Cougar eleven from a stinging defeat when the Idaho and Washington State College football teams meet next Saturday afternoon.

$50,000 for Professors

"Education, like everything else in America, has become a victim of our worship of mere size," says an article which recently appeared in the Forum.

"While teachers fight off starvation," the author continues, "and all but the mediocre are drawn into commercial pursuits, over two billion dollars are poured into buildings and equipment."
 The author cited the example of a professor of psychology in an eastern university who left his professorship to accept an advertising position in New York. His work changed from scientific research to writing advertisements for tooth paste, but his salary jumped from $5,000 to $25,000 per year.

A professor should receive a salary around $50,000, according to the writer, but he should be a leader in his particular field. Worth thinking about isn't it?

Vandal Boosters

At Saturday's game the student should remember that the men who are in the field are not the only ones who have an opportunity to do something for Idaho. The Vandal booster in the bleachers can bring credit or discredit to the university just as well as the Vandal who is entered in an athletic contest.

Show that you are a Vandal booster and a loyal Idaho student. This is not done by snatching a crimson and gray rooter cap from some unsuspecting head or by demolishing the bleachers during your moments of emotion, but by ardent and organized cheering, by unqualified support of the team, and by unbiased sportsmanship.

Get behind the Vandals and show Pullman that you are proud of the best team in the conference.

lege of Idaho game, but that has all disappeared. U. S. C. will be the first from California ever to step onto an Idaho gridiron. This is Southern California's only game away from home in nine this year, and the Vandals had to go to Los Angeles three times to get the sunshine boys up here. But Matty's men will give them a rough afternoon, and the sentiment seems to be growing that it will be a licking.

High school football got started with a bang last week, with a number of important games. In the southwest-ern Idaho there appears five fairly strong clubs; Boise, Nampa, Caldwell Wilder and Parma. Parma showed power in trimming Emmett October 3, and this was more clearly shown last week when Emmett beat Welsler 20 to 0. Boise, which has a new coach in Basler, the man who put Lewiston on the map last year, showed very well in beating Parma 4 to 0. Nampa has another strong eleven for it trimmed Wilder 10 to 0, two weeks ago. Caldwell fell in line last week for a victory over the Wilderites, 7 to 0, indicating that Nampa and Caldwell are pretty well on a par.

Down in southeaster Idaho Twin Falls appears to be doing well, having recorded a splendid victory over Oakley, 41 to 0. Rupert and Shoshone battled to a scoreless tie. Albion Normal beat Firth only 12 to 0, while the normal boys trimmed Twin Falls 16 to 0 the week before showing that Firth will be a contender again this season. Pocatello exhibited power against West High of Salt Lake, losing a tough game, 14 to 6. Rich Fox's boys showed great drive in the last minutes of the game and almost made another score.

Scores in the more important contests in the south last week were: Twin Falls, 41, Oakley 0; Rupert, 0, Shoshone 0; Filer 44, Jerome 0; Buhl 13, Wendell 0; Albion Normal 12, Firth 0; West High Salt Lake, 14, Pocatello 6; Boise 4, Parma 0; C. of I. seconds 7, Nampa 0; Caldwell 7, Wilder 0; Payette 13, Fruitland 0; Emmett 20, Weoser 0. Only two important contests were played in the north, Kellogg defeating Sandpoint 19 to 0, and Moscow winning over Coeur d' Alene, 13 to 0. Lewiston

Carte du Jour

Now, Phideas Krinkle, early in his college course, would have no frills, either as regards scholarship and studies, or equipment. Hence, we found him (that is, some one did) buying a pen for $1.37 — today only — and putting the difference between that and the price of a Parker Duofold in books — good books, too, let it be understood. And passing charitably over some profane lapses, he got along with it till graduation, and then some. We're liberal — it would make a mark when you pressed it, frequently. But Krinkle, with this penny-grasping trait, went bankrupt three years after graduation. And he never did amount to much after.

Jack Free, on the other hand, had an eye to quality, beauty, and — oh yes — quality. His second week in college found him with a Parker Duofold. Makes no difference if he did steal it — he knew what sort to steal, and the victim bought another Parker, anyway. Well, to coin a phrase, that was just like Jack, and he graduated and signed his first check with a flourish and a Parker. And, due, it must be admitted in fairness by all, to this belief and insistence on quality at all costs, he went stony broke in two years.

So there really was little advantage in the Parker Duofold over the orphan-pen, except having something decent to write with during the period mentioned.

was idle, but plays Coeur d' Alene this week while Moscow and Kellogg tangle.

SPORTS AT IDAHO by LES ROBINSON.

"We expect to win." That is all Coach Mathews will be quoted as saying in regard to the Washington State game this week. But the Vandal men do admit that his entire football squad emerged from the Oregon game without a scratch and that the men are in good physical and mental trim. Will Idaho get cocky or overconfident now that it has won a big game? We are pleased to note a condition on the Vandal squad that precludes such a possibility. There are about thirty men of almost the same calibre and Mathews himself doesn't know who is going to start. He says he can't tell his first team backs from his seconds. That is a healthy condition. No player is going to get over confident when he knows there are two or three boys on the sideline waiting for him to falter.

The Oregon victory has given the U. S. C.-Idaho game on October 30, a great sendoff. Everyone wants to see the Vandals play. There was a little skepticism following the col-
