HOOP LETTERMEN REPORT FOR EARLY SEASON PRACTICE

Eight Veterans Will Form Nucleus for 1926 Basketball Squad

LOSE ONLY TWO MEN

Conditioning and Floor Work Will Be Diet for First Weeks

Varsity basketball practice has started and a big squad of candidates, including four letter-men, is starting the season's grind under Coach David MacMillan. Eight letter men will be available as a nucleus for the 1926 Vandal quintet when the football year is over. Pre-season prospects, consequently, are rosy.

Only two men have been lost from the 1924-1925 squad—Penwell, forward, and Greene, guard. To balance this loss Coach MacMillan will have tried veterans in Remer, Nedros, Miles, and Canine, forwards; Erickson and Nelson, centers; Lamphere and Fields, guards; A host of last year's freshmen hoopsters including Bier, Dawald, Kyle and Chaney, and later Canine and Jacoby, are also turning out.

Routine conditioning and floor work is to be the diet of the squad for the first few weeks. No games are scheduled until the regular 10 day barnstorming tour during the Christmas holidays.

The Idaho conference schedule comprises 13 games, including a two-weeks' road trip during which the Vandals play every team in the Northwest conference. Home games listed are with Montana, Oregon, Gonzaga, Washington, O. A. C., Whitman, and W. S. C.

FRATS DISCUSS PLEDGING PLAN

Inter-fraternity Council Considers Possible Solution to Present System

Possibility of the adoption at Idaho of the deferred pledging system in use at many universities was discussed at the inter-fraternity council meeting Tuesday night at the S. A. E. house. It was voted that information as to the systems in use at other universities would be obtained with the object of evolving a plan that will fit the needs of Idaho. It was suggested by the council that cars which have no home of their own should not be parked for the winter in front of the respective owner's houses. This is in line with requests made by university authorities that cars not in actual use should be kept off the streets as much as possible.

GIRLS' VOLLEYBALL SEASON IS STARTED

The interclass girl's volleyball tournament opens next week with the following schedule:

- Monday, Nov. 23, Frosh vs. Juniors
- Tuesday, Nov. 24, Sophomores vs. Seniors
- Monday, Nov. 30, Seniors vs. Frosh
- Tuesday, Dec. 1, Juniors vs. Sophomores
- Wednesday, Dec. 2, Juniors vs. Seniors
- Thursday, Dec. 3, Sophomores vs. Frosh

This tournament will not be an elimination contest but the winner will be determined by the team which wins the majority of the games played. The girls are working hard and wish that some rooters will come out and support them.

The teams which have been chosen are: Frosh: Ruth Eldridge, Captain; Norma Geddes, Helen Dalton, Mae Tronson, Margie Green, and Zola Geddes, Bernice Kendall, substitutes. Seniors: Hazel Roe, Captain; Sibyl Felt, Dorothy Manning, Freda Howard, Evelyn Backus, Josie Hansen, and Helen Austin, Jean Emery, substitutes.

LANGE IS NAMED WEAVER SUCCESSOR

Arkansas Commercial Architect Given Place on Idaho Faculty

David C. Lange, who is at present practicing his profession in Little Rock, Ark., as University architect, has been named university architect succeeding Rudolph Weaver, it was announced from the office of President A. H. Upham. Mr. Weaver resigned last summer to accept headship of the department of architecture of the University of Florida.

The new University staff member who will take over the duties created when an expansion program was initiated with the construction of Science Hall, has had wide experience both in commercial and in instructional work. He received his bachelor of science degree in architecture from the University of Pennsylvania in 1911 and was granted a masters degree by the same institution two years later. During the intervening year, 1912, he studied in the Privot Atelier, New York City, while working for a firm of architects.

Since receiving his master's degree Mr. Lange has been employed by New York, Philadelphia, and Baltimore architects on various important projects. He has had several years of practical building experience and is the architect of numerous buildings in New Jersey. His drawing for the women's dormitory of the University of South Carolina was awarded first place in a contest in 1923. He is at present employed by the Associated Architects of Little Rock in designing a $1,000,000 high school.

In addition to his activity in the commercial field Mr. Lange has taught architecture and acted as assistant college architect in Texas, South Carolina, and Washington. He has also found time to write a text book on Shades and Shadows.

Thirty-five students are now enrolled in the University department of architecture, the figure representing an increase of approximately 10 per cent over the enrollment last year. Since the department was established three years ago it has been advanced from an initial roster of 14 students. Courses offered include architectural design, free hand drawing, architectural history, architectural construction, elements of beauty, water color drawing, shades and shadows, and perspective work.

Fred T. Hannaford and Olaf Fjeld, instructors, are now conducting the work of the department.

COLLEGE EDUCATION VALUED AT $72,000

Seventy-two thousand dollars is the value attached to a college education by a report made public by Dean Everett W. Lord, of Boston University. The estimate is based on the study of the earning capacity of a college graduate. The cash value of a high school education is placed at $33,000.

The report gives the average maximum yearly income of the untrained man as $1200; that of the high school graduate as $2200, and that of the college graduate as $6000.

WRITER CRIES FAME OF FITZKE TO SKIES

Former Idaho Grid Star Will Pay Alma Mater Visit About December 15

Bob Fitzke, former Idaho star grid man, who has been creating some stir in eastern athletic circles, will visit Moscow about December 15, he has notified friends on the campus. This will be shortly after he plays his last game of professional football for the season under the colors of the Yellow Jacket club of Frankford, Penn.

Bob is a whiz, in the eyes of Dr. Paul M. Shelley, of Frankford, who extolled the merits of the Idaho grad in a signed article which appeared recently in a Frankford paper.

"The other day the writer had occasion to visit the home of the Yellow Jacket players," wrote Doctor Shelley. "Here he met Bob Fitzke, better known in the west as 'Smiling Bob,' the name given him in his college days because of his ever-present smile—a grin that won't wipe off.

Radiates Pep
"This wonderful athlete, who won All-Pacific coast conference honors as a halfback, while attending the University of Idaho fairly radiates pep and his smile has won the hearts of his team mates and the fans of Frankford.

"People think of football players as a cold-blooded lot, but such is not the case. The smiling Bob has a sentimental side of his sunny disposition, as doubtless many of the fair sex could tell you. In fact, the writer

PRIZES OFFERED FOR AG ESSAYS

Western Ag Schools to Compete for Awards in Animal Essays

Students of animal husbandry in the College of Agriculture of the University of Idaho and in the agricultural colleges west of the Mississippi are being offered cash prizes by the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation, for the best essays on "The Most Valuable Live Stock Lesson I Ever Learned," according to an announcement by Samuel R. Graud, director of the Foundation. The first prize is $50; second, $25; third and fourth, $10 each; and fifth, $5. The winning essays will be published in the "Stock Show News," which is issued daily by the Foundation, during the American Royal Live Stock Show at Kansas City.

The essays are to be confined to 300 words, and must bear a postmark of not later than November 1. The judges will be the general manager of the American Royal, the editor of the "Stock Show News," and the director of the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation. The object of the contest is to bring out, in an interesting way, the live stock lessons value, and to discover just where the animal husbandry student gets his real live stock training. Ideas will count for more than literary style or appearance.

Professors of animal husbandry, in the various colleges, are co-operating with the Foundation in bringing the contest to the attention of the students. Manuscripts should be addressed to Samuel R. Graud, Director, Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation, Kansas City, Missouri.

PEP BAND GIVES RADIO PROGRAM

Bandsmen Play for Dances At Boise; Give Programs Enroute

The Idaho pep band will broadcast a popular and classical program tonight from the Boise high school station, KFAU, as part of an extensive schedule through southern Idaho towns. Prof. David Nyvall who is accompanying the band, has worked up some symphony orchestra effects with only 21 pieces which have been highly praised, and tonight's concert will be heard in several states.

The bandsmen left Wednesday morning by auto for Boise where they play for the Idaho-O. A. C. game Saturday. Short programs were given at Walla Walla, Pendleton, Baker, Welsler, Fayette, Ontario, Caldwell and Nampa. Tonight, following the broadcasting program, the pep band orchestra will play for a dance at the Mosque. Music was furnished by the band at a Rotary club banquet this afternoon.

An alumni dance, to be held at the Elks' temple tomorrow night is to be furnished music by the pep orchestra. The trip has been made possible for the band through the cooperation of alumni in the southern part of the state, who have arranged with Manager Reem for the various appearances of the Idaho musicians.

"Briok" Elrod, yell king, Gilbert Larsen and Martel Archibald accompanied the band and will have charge of various concessions which have been granted for selling programs, "I" caps and hot dogs at the game.

ENGLISH STUDENTS FOUND DEFICIENT

High Schools Organizing Special Classes for Backward Pupils

Many high schools are organizing special classes for students deficient in the fundamentals of English as a result of the uniform entrance test in English this fall for the second time, to all new students at the university.

Failure to pass this test places the student in a sub-freshman class where he receives instruction in spelling, punctuation, grammar and usage. Of the 678 students, from 92 high schools and preparatory schools, who took this examination, 192 were placed in the sub-freshman groups. The figure is 12 per cent higher than that of last year, but this increase is attributed to raised standards.

The average percentage of errors made by students taking the test was virtually the same each year, being 22.6 in 1924 and 23.4 in 1925. Last year 39 out of a possible 115 errors were allowed and this year 44 was the limit out of a field of 160 chances.

"It is hoped that the publication of these results will tend to have increased emphasis placed on the fundamentals of English in high schools and decrease the enrollment in the sub-freshman classes at the university," says Dr. G. M. Miller, head of the department of English. The test was held in accordance with a recently established policy of the Inland Empire Council of Teachers of English of which Dr. Miller is president.

SEVEN FORENSIC MEETS SCHEDULED

Debate Season Includes Contests With California, W. S. C. and Gonzaga

Seven varsity debates and the annual Northwest Oratorical contest are included in the University of Idaho forensic schedule for this season, Prof. William Michael, debate coach, announces. Idaho men and women debaters will take part in three triangular, two dual and two single debates.

The Northwest oratorical contest, which was held at the University of Washington last year, will be staged at Idaho next spring.

The annual women's dual debate with Washington State college on December 4 opens the forensic season this year. The question to be debated concerns the Japanese Exclusion act. Two teams of three women each will participate. Members of the affirmative team which debates at Moscow are: Dorothy Darling, Boise; Marjorie Albertson, Blackfoot; and Maurita Miller, Moscow. Members of the negative team which goes to Pullman are: Marjorie Stimpson, Moscow; Helen Milliken, Nampa, and Jean Collette, Burley. The debate will be decided by audience vote. An Idaho-Gonzaga single debate at Spokane on January 15 is the first men's contest scheduled. The question: Resolved, that it is more consistent with the economic welfare of the whole country that the Commerce act be amended so that the Interstate Commerce commission shall not have the power to permit railroads to charge more for shorter hauls than for longer ones.

Members of the team which will go to Spokane are: Herbert Wunderlich, St. Maries; Edmund Becher, Twin Falls and J. L. Simmons, Burley. This will be a judged debate.

The Idaho-University of California debate at Boise is scheduled for January 23. It is to be a single debate on some phase of the eugenics question. A two-man team composed of Warren Montgomery and Frank Wyman, both of Boise, will represent Idaho. It will be decided by judges, Elias Filipiwoic liethan

The annual Washington-Oregon-Idaho triangular debate is tentatively announced for February 23. The question concerns the army-navy-air service problem. It is: Resolved, that the program of national defense should be administered under one department head with subdivisions for the army, navy and air service. Oregon will debate the Idaho affirmative team at Moscow and the Idaho negative team will go to Seattle. The affirmative team will be composed of Benjamin Mahoney, Albion; and J. L. Simmons, Burley. The negative team members are Edwin Rule, Spokane; and Warren Montgomery, Boise. It will be a judged debate.

A men's dual debate with Washington State college will be held some time late in February, Professor Michael states. Members of the team representing Idaho will include Emmett Kinney, Nampa; Arthur Peavey, Twin Falls; Benjamin Mahoney, Albion; Edwin Rule, Spokane; George Freese, Ritzville, Wash., and A. H. Reading, Rupert.

Idaho Men Rest In Capital City For Gruelling Contest

Two Weeks of Practice Renovates Half Broken Machine; Injured Men Are Back In Shape

(Special to Argonaut)

Boise, Nov. 20.—Twenty-seven fighting Idaho Vandals are resting in Boise tonight for their last conference battle tomorrow against the orange and black Beavers of the Oregon Agricultural College. The Aggies are also in camp and Boise is throbbing with excitement on the eve of its annual college game.

It is a different Idaho team than the one which went down to three successive defeats in as many weeks. Team moral is at the highest pitch since the beginning of the season and a "do or die" spirit is charging the atmosphere.

Two weeks of practice and rest has renovated the half-broken Vandal machine. Every injured man is back in shape and the team is at full strength for the first time in many weeks. The team went through a light workout on Public School field this afternoon to iron out train cramps and showed snap and dash in its formation work which bodes evil for the Aggies.

Respect Aggies
The Vandals have a wholesome respect, but no fear, for the powerful Beaver team. The Aggies want to win the game because it puts them in a position to battle U. S. C. for second place in the coast conference. This avowed purpose of using the Vandals as a mere stepping stone to higher ambitions has put the Idaho men more than ever in a fighting mood. And the Vandals are still ruffled by the Gonzaga, Southern California and Montana defeats.

Idaho probably will start its heaviest and most experienced lineup against O. A. C. Vic Cameron and Giff Davison at half; "Sody" Owings at fullback; Ed Powers or Reget at quarter. This backfield will trade punches with the famous horsemen of the Beavers, Schulmerich and Red Denman, halves, Snider, fullback, and Edwards, quarter.

Fans Expectant
Boise fans expect the game to be a smashing, spectacular, offensive battle. O. A. C. has a tremendous line attack led by the plunging Schulmerich and also a versatile aerial offensive. Idaho has showed potential power in both modes of assault, momentarily stopping the Trojans with a passing attack and tearing through Montana with a running attack.

The Vandals board the train immediately after the game for Omaha, Nebraska, where they play Creighton on Thanksgiving day. They will have completed a 3,700 mile trip when they return to Moscow the following week.

Officials for the Idaho-O. A. C. game will be Bill Mulligan, (Spokane), referee; Bartlett, (Oregon), umpire; Bobby Morris (Seattle), head linesman.

BUSINESS FRATERNITY HEARS SPOKANE MAN

Alpha Kappa Phi, honorary business fraternity, entertained its pledges with a banquet at the Blue Bucket Tuesday evening. The banquet was followed by an address by Orno Dale Strong, editor of "The New West Trade Journal" of Spokane. Mr. Strong's talk on "The Obligation to Produce" aroused a great deal of interest among those who heard it. A general discussion on business conditions and topics of general interest followed.

Formal pledges for Beardsley Harold, and Leroy Long, (Idaho) were made.

The Blue Bucket

The Blue Bucket, the student literary publication of the university, has appeared on the campus and is receiving well deserved praise from every quarter. Critics agree that it is the best issue of the magazine that has ever been printed and that the Blue Bucket compares favorably with any other collegiate publication of its kind in the west. It represents the efforts of a small group of Idaho students who have labored mightily and courageously to produce a literary work that would please the great group of undergraduates and still be valuable as a medium for esthetic expression. The Blue Bucket is coming into better days. Its life has been a hectic one—originating under adverse conditions and battling up against almost inconceivable obstacles. The Blue Bucket's progress is indicative of Idaho's growth in size and in cultural comprehension.

On Writing Home

Students of a certain eastern university have launched a campaign to stimulate the undergraduates to write home to their parents. The sponsors of this movement, following the example of many worthy organizations, have had a week set aside, named, and dedicated to their purpose. "Write a Letter Home Week" is envolving the attention of the college student in much the same way that "Canned Food Week" and "Old Ironsides Week" attracts the attention of other branches of our great American society. Why couldn't we have such a "week" at Idaho but extend it to cover the entire scholastic year?

Those at home are anxious to hear from you and they are eager to get news about the university. The misconceptions about college life that are encountered away from the campus are due merely to lack of information. It is the duty of every Idaho student to broadcast the right kind of propoganda about the university; to become an efficient publicity man for a greater Idaho.

When you write home it is well to remember to make some mention about the long hours that were spent in preparation for that French lesson and the times that you stayed home with Unity, Coherence, and Emphasis when the rest of the gang were at the show. These items concerning hard work and self sacrifice are generally omitted from the letter home to give place for the account of the social happenings and the more pleasant events of the day.

Give the folks at home a true picture of college life at Idaho. Make it clear to them that scholastic achievement is first and that the social activities are secondary. Make some mention of the Moscow churches and the student religious organizations, both of which receive enthusiastic support from the student body. Paint for them a true picture of Idaho, their university, and make them proud of it, and its achievements, as we are.

WHY STUDENTS LEAVE COLLEGE

Reasons for University Failures Are Given

One out of every three. Only thirty five per cent of those annually admitted to college ever achieve the goal of a degree.

Outside circumstances interfere in many cases, but university officials say that one-third of all casualties are simply of Johnny's having fluked out. Extra-curricular activities more than all other things are blamed.

Dr. John Grier Hibben, president of Princeton University, says moving pictures, possession of automobiles too great indulgence in outside activities and over-generosity of parents are the outstanding causes contributing to the failure of undergraduates.

A Willamette University professor says ten per cent of all freshmen are mentally unfit and should never enter the classroom. "Formerly," he says, "only bright-minded pupils came to college; now forty per cent of the high school graduates enter. Too many come not to grasp knowledge, but because a college education is considered a social necessity."

"Too little sleep, too much play, not enough study, too much leisure, fast eating and diversified thinking are factors that devitalize students and are responsible for the delinquent groups in every university," is the conclusion reached by Professor Edward of Northwestern university. Many failures occur because students have no adequate conception of how to study. One educator says the failure to guide and direct study is the weak point in our whole educational machine. Activities nowadays leave so little time for studious pursuits, that it is important for the student to learn to use to the greatest advantage whatever time he does save for the less-popular, but necessary side of college life.

When it's Thanksgiving—and the teams are drawn up for battle on the gridiron—when the first touchdown goes over and the grandstands rock with frenzy—have a Camel!

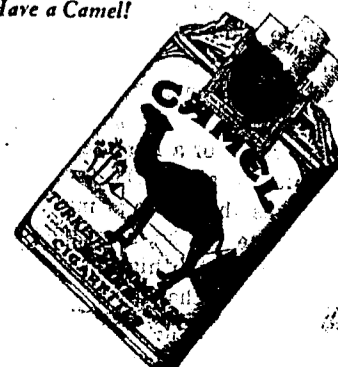

WHEN the rival bands are playing to make your blood tingle. And the cheers and answering songs sweep back and forth between the opposing thousands of rooters. When, following that tense hush, a swift player darts out from the flashing formations on the gridiron and races across the goal for the first touchdown—oh, man, or superman, when the taste of joy is too keen to endure—have a Camel!

For Camel is the boon companion of your joys. Roam as far as you will from the prosaic things of every day, Camel will be the truest smoke friend you ever had. Not a tired taste, not a cigarette after-taste, not a regret in a million Camels! Just full and fragrant-smoke contentment, just added zest in living.

So when your own college's team tears through for its first smashing goal this Thanksgiving Day—when life seems fullest of the frenzy of happiness—joyfully apply the fire and taste the smoke that's loved by millions.

Have a Camel!

Into the making of this one cigarette goes all of the ability of the world's largest organization of expert tobacco men. Nothing is too good for Camels. The choicest Turkish and domestic tobaccos. The most skillful blenders. The most scientific package. No other cigarette made is like Camels. No finer cigarette can be made. Camels are the overwhelming choice of experienced smokers.

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.

Eight hundred guests were present at the formal house warming of Pi Sigma Rho, Friday evening, November 13, honoring Mrs. Wallace Scales, her house mother.

The reception rooms were made colorful by large baskets of pink roses and chrysanthemums. Fall colorings predominated in the dining room where tea was served buffet fashion from two charmingly appointed tea tables. The entire house was opened to inspection, from the large and well equipped basement to the second floor study rooms and the third floor which comprises additional study rooms and comfortable sleeping quarters.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Wallace Scales, Mrs. Louise Bloomquist, Dean and Mrs. Robert McNair Davis, Professor and Mrs. James J. Gill, Mrs. Rhea Softe, Miss Frances Sullivan and Miss Lephah Decker.

Mrs. Robert Elder and Mrs. Eugene Ware of Coeur d'Alene, Mrs. M. M. Gamwell, Mrs. F. B. Lane, Mrs. R. B. Word, Mrs. George Lamphere, and Mrs. David MacMillan presided at the tea tables.

Forney hall was the scene of a fire-side given by Phi Upsilon Omicron, the honorary Home Economics fraternity, last Monday evening. Miss Kathryn Jensen, Miss Adah Lewis and Mildred Waters gave short talks on the purpose and standards of the fraternity. Josephine Numbers gave two clever readings and Ethel Lafferty, accompanied by Helen Blackinger, entertained with popular songs.

The guests were Miss Kathryn Jensen, Miss Adah Lewis, Miss Grace Zudreole, Miss Ada Johnson, Miss Dorothy Ellis and the Misses Florence Brachear, Elizabeth Brown, Lola Call, Bessie Clare, Janet Craig, Elizabeth Kennedy, Marion Dumrill, Kathryn Johnston, Alice Kelly, Louise Riddle, Mildred Timkey, Virginia Vance, Irah Ruenke, Marion White, Adeline Ames, Mildred Clayville, Lillian Diethelm, Margaret Elder, Verlee Elder, Dorothy Trabert, Geneva Handy, Alice Harding, Alwilda Langdon, Margaret McWreath, Catherine Samuel, Doris Snow, Ruth Spyras, Julia Utz, Esther Williams, Ellen Healy, and Marion Pickering.

Forney Hall dinner guests for Sunday, the fifteenth were Miss Myra Moody, Mrs. Williams, and Mrs. Lewis.

Wednesday dinner guests were Miss Lewis, Miss Johnson, Mrs. Sargent, Mrs. McCoy, Miss McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Snoddy, Mr. and Mrs. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Rollefson, Miss Summison, Mr. Bill Cranston, Margaret McConnell, Miss Conan, Allegra Eckles, and Margaret Dickinson.

Wednesday dinner guests of Pi Sigma Rho were: Herbert Wunderlich, Milton Zeener, Eddie Paulson, John Remsburg, Dwight Disney, Bob Bouse, Eugene Dohle, Herbert Karlberg, and Ralph Erickson. Miss Rae Olson was a Tuesday dinner guest of Pi Sigma Rho.

The pledges of Alpha Chi Omega entertained the members with a formal dinner at the Blue Bucket Inn Saturday November 14. The color scheme of yellow and white was effectively carried out in the table decoration. Clever favors were given each member.

Following the dinner Marguerite Ames and Gertrude Gould entertained with a Rag Doll dance and Mary Murphy gave a vocal number. The entire group of pledges sang an original Alpha Chi song.

does not hesitate to say that he believes Bob has just as great a capacity for love as for athletics; and there is a rumor that he has a whirlwind of affection for "one" west of the Mississippi river. Surely the Yellow Jacket will not consider it a breach of contract for Bob to play the game of love as well as football.

Is Still Single
"He is single and only 25; why shouldn't he be in love? Perhaps that is why he is such an enthusiastic player."

"Bob Fitzke is a name to conjure with west of the Mississippi. While comparatively little has been known of this athlete here in the east, his football playing with local gridiron representatives has been arousing the curiosity. Where did he come from? Who is he?"

"In the west, that question could be answered by any scholboy. He was considered the best all-around athlete in the west. Not only proficient at football, but he was good enough to make the All-Pacific coast conference which also has on its roster as "Buck" Mueller, Ernie Nevers, Don Nichols, Al Fox, "Skip" Stivers; but he was also a basketball star. His ability was such that while playing with the Welser, Idaho, club, the same club with which Walter Johnson started and later made the Washington American league team. The smiling Bob was likewise signed by Tris Speaker of the Cleveland Indians, farmed out to the Penn-New York league and helped it battle neck and neck with the York club for the pennant.

Plays Basketball
"He played center on one of the greatest professional basketball teams in the United States, the Denver Tigers, which traveled throughout the west and is known wherever basketball is played."

"He won his letter in track, not being able to devote much time to it because of baseball, but good enough to step off the diamond in a track suit and win events for his Alma Mater. As a swimmer he was a whiz and was noted especially as an aquaplane performer."

"The east has its all-around athletes, but the west has Fitzke."

DAVIDS'

COMPARES 1925, 1922 EUROPE

Mrs. Sargent Tells of Changed Conditions in Assembly Talk

"The Europe of 1925" was the subject of the talk given in assembly Wednesday morning by Mrs. M. L. Sargent of the foreign language department. Mrs. Sargent visited Europe last summer and, in contrasting the Europe of 1925 to the one of 1922, brought out many interesting details and experiences of her trip.

"Europe as I found it last summer was an entirely different one from the Europe of 1922," Mrs. Sargent began. "Its people have practically come back to normal and an entirely different attitude toward America is noticeable. In England this attitude has changed for the worse and a general depression among the people is evident. France, on the other hand, is in a period of action and gaiety, an aftermath of the war. Everywhere are evidences of a great change. The dirty huts of the peasants are being replaced by long rows of clean houses and the highways are being extensively repaired."

Mrs. Sargent continued by explaining some of the changes in Italy and Germany. According to her, the attitude toward America in these countries is one of exceptional good feeling. Recounting some of the experiences of her party, she told of a formal audience with the Pope and a days visit with Anton Lang of Passon Play fame. While in England the party attended the American ambassador's garden party, a very singular distinction.

"As a result of my visit, Mrs. Sargent concluded, 'I feel that a new era for Europe is coming, an era which will be characterized by some kind of understanding and good will. A compact of mutual relationship is unconsciously forming at the present time, which, am sure, speaks well for the good feeling of all of Europe.'"

Concluding the program, the Sigma Tau scholarship medal was presented to Stephen Biore by Richard Beam, president of the honorary engineering fraternity. It is customary to present this medal each year to the sophomore who in his freshman year attained the highest scholastic average in the college of engineering or the school of mines. Mr. Biore attained an average of 5.946 in his freshman year.

Nicknames Puzzle Learned Professor

The fact that many girls possess boyish nicknames and an equal number of boys are nicknamed with girl's names has given rise to a theory recently advanced by Dr. Bartinius Dumkoph, a scientist who is pursuing, but has not yet caught up with, his studies at the university of Idaho.

Dr. Dumkoph points out the prevalence of the nicknames Bobbie, Frankie, Jimmy, and Jack among coeds, and the nicknames Pansy, Rosy, Posy and Daisy, possessed by some members of the stronger sex. He states that the girls derive their boyish nicknames from diminutives of their own proper names or, because they prefer masculine names, and not because of tomboy tendencies. The reverse is true for the opposite sex. Dr. Dumkoph asserts. Their names are often the names of flowers and are appropriate for them because of their wistful and flower-like countenances.

WASHINGTON CLUB TO THROW PARTY

Will Be Given at Pi Beta Phi House After Christmas

The Washington club will hold its annual party shortly after Christmas according to plans made at the last meeting held at the Pi Phi house November 17. Gladys Richardson was appointed chairman of the committee with Mandel Wein, Vivian Kidwell, Walter Dorsey, Don Axtell and Rex Brainard assisting in arranging for the party.

A committee of Edgar Slate, Elmer Myrene, Gladys Risting and Francis Houser was chosen to plan a program for each club meeting.

The attendance is increasing at each club meeting and every Washington student is urged to join. The next meeting will be held December 9, at the A. T. O. house.

"PERFECT DATE" IS DEFINED BY CO-EDS

A snappy line of nonsense is the first prerequisite of the "perfect date," according to girls at Western Reserve, recently questioned.

It was specified that he must think well of ladies in general and one lady in particular; should be somewhat religious; have an entertaining "line," an inexhaustible fund of both sense and nonsense appropriate to the occasion; must neglect neither himself nor the girl in his choice of subjects of conversation; must be capable of convincing "sweet nothings" on short notice; should use healthy amount of expressive slang; wear eloquent ties; never chew gum in public; must be all around man athletically; must never "crash the gate" at dances; should frown upon "necking"; should date up on Sunday and become a success in his life work.

Prof. Lewis A. Harding, formerly of the English faculty at the University of Idaho, is now head of the work in public speaking at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

In a recent letter he asked to be remembered to his faculty and student friends here.

CRANE ADDRESSES ASSOCIATED MINERS

Idaho Graduate Speaks to Group on Geological Development

E. P. Crane, formerly of Beaverville, B. C., and one of the operators of the famous Bell mine in the Beaverville district, gave an interesting and instructive talk to the Associated Miners Tuesday evening.

The geology of this area with its intense faulting and its association with the Columbia lava flow were discussed. Mr. Crane discussed the remarkable development of the property which is one of the most phenomenal producers of high grade silver ore in recent years.

He created much enthusiasm among those present and gave some worthwhile advice gleaned from his wide experience.

Mr. Crane is a graduate of the W. S. C. School of Mines of 1912 under Dean Francis A. Thomson. He was Superintendent of the British Columbia Copper Co. Mines for a number of years. Afterwards he was superintendent for the Canada Copper Corporation.

Professor Serves Ice.

Professors are usually regarded as hard-hearted, but one had been found at Ohio State University who possesses the qualities necessary to be popular. A professor there, after giving a final examination during the hot summer quarter, served ice cream and wafers to his brain-wearied and finger-cramped students.

College women at Berkeley believe thoroughly in women's rights. They have requested a special rooting section at the football games and are planning a big pep rally before the homecoming game.

Investigations in schooling expenses indicate that it costs the Ohio State university students on an average, $66 a year to attend college.

Fashion Hints

Fashion predicts the vogue of the cretonne shirt for the coming season. This fact has not yet become prevalent on the campus, but has achieved great popularity elsewhere. The cretonne shirt is a boon to the youth with the stylish stout figure, having an even more slenderizing effect than wide horizontal stripes. There is no necessity for a laundry bill if one possesses a cretonne shirt, and the brilliant colors are also becoming prevalent on the campus and cream complexions of college men. It gives a colorful note when worn with a tuxedo, and when not being worn it may be draped over the laundry bag and used for a sofa pillow. With window curtains to match it makes an attractive ensemble for the college man's den.

Y. M. C. A. GROUP WILL MAKE LEWISTON TRIP

Saturday the deputation team of the Y. M. C. A. and the Y. W. C. A. goes to Lewiston on its first trip, according to a statement by George Oliver today.

In the afternoon the members of the team go on a hike with the young people, and in the evening there is a joint party of all the churches. The team will speak Sunday afternoon to the boys and girls at the M. E. church and at the evening services.

Last year three teams were sent out by the Y. M. C. A. This year both organizations will be represented on the teams.

Members of the team who will make the trip are Ray Currie, chairman, George Waters, Delfin Raynaldo, Mildred Perry, Margaret McConnell, Rose Pruess, and Mr. and Mrs. George L. Oliver.
