RIVAL CLASSES ALL OPTIMISTIC FOR VICTORY IN STUNTS

Madden Sums Up Tonights' Events as "Bigger and Better Than Ever"

IDEAS ARE ORIGINAL Stage Set for Presentation, Very Best Talent Represented

"Optimism", is the keynote expressed by chairmen of the stunt fests to be held tonight in the university auditorium. Each class head and stunt committee is sure that it will walk off with all honors in the annual class entertainments. Tom Madden, general chairman of the stunt fest, summarized the coming event as "bigger and better than ever."

"Originality of ideas, remarkable initiative, progressive conscientiousness, manifested by all classes, has proven their worthiness. The result is to be a bigger and better stunt for Idaho," said Madden.

Hosea Evans and Vernon Johnson managers of the senior stunt, were more than confident over their prospects of coping the prizes tonight.

"We're not saying anything. We meet all comers." This was the terse statement of Johnson.

"We promise to win, but are silent about what we have in store for an appreciative audience," said Evans. "After winning the prize for two years straight, we will do it again."

Junior Need Money "Of course the juniors will win the prize. We need the money!" Thus spoke Sid Yager, in charge of the third year men's activities for tonight. "We have the best song ever written. There is no question about the victory. In our cast of twelve performers, the best talent of Idaho is represented. It is truly exceptional. Of course we will win."

McCall Is Positive "Brick" McCall, sophomore class proxy, is positive that the frosh persecutors will carry away all honors in the annual battle of inter-class wit. The sophomore zoo has been raided to meet the requirements of originality, according to McCall, and red hot numbers that smoke with variety are to be offered in sacrifice to the judges.

"We have graceful dancers, clever stunts, beautiful women, flaming music, all of which will make our stunt a success of successes," McCall stated. "The winning of the best of the campus, selected from our zoo, the class and the state."

Rest to Judges "Our chances are rested to the fairness of the judges. It is settled in my mind that the sophomores will reap the crop of glory tonight."

Avery Peterson, general chairman of the sophomore stunts, expressed the same optimism as McCall.

Freshmen Have Vandeville All the soothing and satisfying qualities of a Chesterfield will be found in the freshmen interpretation of a stuntfest, according to Estelle Pickereil, frosh stunt director. Miss Pickereil is the only co-ed manager of class stunts selected this year.

"Our stunt will please everyone," said Miss Pickereil. Out of the great body of the freshman class, we have tried to select the best talent. Our selection will win for the frosh. Our program includes a musical revue of highest merit, a song written by Paul Kitto, Clair Gail and Lambert Cannon.

48 Take Part Forty-eight university students will participate in the stuntfest. The roster of the groups that will mix deeds with words tonight, follows:

Capt.—Tom Madden; Lieutenants—Blaine Stubblefield, Kneeland Parker, Avery Peterson, Estelle Pickereil.

DATES ARE SET FOR VARSITY TENNIS

The first varsity tennis match of the 1926 season will be played Saturday, May 15, in an inter-collegiate match with Whitman college at Moscow. There will be men's singles and doubles, and women's singles and doubles. Beardsley Merrill, tournament champion of last year, will play and should have a good chance of winning his games.

The other players will not be picked until Saturday morning. The match will be played on the courts back of the Ad building.

There are now three good courts at Ridenbaugh hall which have been finished in the last few days, and are in playing condition.

Green Dinks Doffed For Year Thursday

Without fuss or ceremony but with deepest thanksgiving in all hearts, frosh men doffed their green dinks for the season Thursday noon after the completion of the campus cleanup. In order to do the thing up brown and follow a time honored custom the offensive headgears are supposed to be consigned to oblivion in a ceremonial bonfire.

This custom has not been followed at Idaho for several years, the removed first year men being satisfied to lose them forever without formality. The men of '26 had a longer shot at them than the preceding class as they lost the Hulme fight with the sophs last fall and had to look foolish in the abbreviated sky pieces until Christmas instead of Thanksgiving.

NO ORATORS ANNOUNCED

Names of contestants and their written orations for the Northwest Oratorical contest to be held here May 22, will be in the hands of the judges on May 15, according to Professor William Michael, coach of debate and oratory.

"SPURS" EXTEND BIDS TO 22 FROSH WOMEN

Twenty-two girls were pledged to "Spurs", sophomore honorary, Thursday morning at 7 o'clock at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house. "Spurs" was formed on the Idaho campus a year ago and pledge girls at the end of their freshman year.

KESTER, KENNEDY NAMED BY BOARD

Appointments for the Senior Athletic and "Gem" Managers Postponed

Appointment of Hartley P. Kester of Lewiston as circulation manager of The Argonaut and Archie Kennedy as circulation manager of the Blue Bucket was made by the executive board Wednesday night. Kester has had experience in the circulation department of the Lewiston Tribune and Kennedy has been assisting on the business staff of the Bucket this year.

No appointment was made for assistant business manager of the Gem of the Mountains as the first ballot resulted in a tie vote between two applicants and their choice was deferred until next week.

Delay Athletic Appointments Other appointments ratified by the board were Paul Atwood for manager of the Pep band, Gene Beebe for leader of the Pep band, and Edmund T. Becher for manager of debate.

Senior athletic managers were not picked because the athletic department suggested that this be delayed. There were not enough incoming seniors with sufficient experience and the athletic director and coaches asked time to investigate candidate's abilities more thoroughly before making recommendations.

PLAN ROYAL TIME FOR TRACK SQUADS

Entertainment for the High School Teams to Show College Life

Visiting high school track athletes will be royally entertained tonight and tomorrow in an attempt to show them Idaho university life. The entire track meet including housing, tag sale, entertainment and procuring of officials has been handled by the Blue Key fraternity through its athletic committee composed of Ray Stephens, Hank Canine and Gus Bjork.

Tonight all of the high school men will be the guests of the A. S. U. I. at the annual class stuntfest. Many of the fraternities are holding private smokers after the stuntfest for the trackmen.

Plan Breakfast and Tour The Blue Key will give a breakfast for the prep men Saturday morning at the Blue Bucket inn. After the meal the men will be taken on a tour of the campus, with a thorough inspection of all points of interest.

The frosh and varsity baseball games and the Washington intercollegiate track meet at Pullman will be drawing attractions after the campus trip. Many of the men are expected to go to Lewiston on Saturday night to attend the annual Shrine Circus and industrial celebration now going on there.

Princeton To promote interest in English among freshmen engineering students at Princeton, the class of 1883 left $1000. Interest of each year is given to the freshman engineer who makes the best record in his English work.

ERB IS NAMED GRID COACH

WASHINGTON NINE WALLOPS MONTANA

Washington State college walloped the University of Montana baseball team at Pullman Tuesday by a 18 to 5 score. Montana used four pitchers in a vain attempt to stop the Cougars. W.S.C. scored ten runs in the first inning. This was the first of a two-game series. Idaho plays the Grizzlies here this afternoon and Saturday.

RECORD CROWD SEES ANNUAL CAMPUS DAY PAGEANT PRESENTED

Three Hundred Co-eds Take Part in "Maying" Written by Idaho Girls

CROWN MAY QUEEN

Silver Lance, Mortar Board, Senior Societies, Select Pledges

Before a record-breaking attendance, Idaho co-eds presented the Campus Day pageant, "Maying" yesterday afternoon on the university campus. Three hundred Idaho girls took part in the springtime performance.

Commencing with a procession that included the entire cast, the pageant offered beauty and dignity to another beloved campus tradition. Grace and beauty were expressed in the plot of the pageant, which was written by three Idaho women. The production was directed by Miss Elsie Jacobson, head of women's physical education at the university.

Mirth McArthur Queen With all the pomp and impressiveness of old-time Maying festivals, Miss Mirth McArthur was crowned Queen of the May by Miss Gwendolyn Moser, maid of honor. This distinction is the goal of all co-eds. Miss McArthur was chosen two weeks ago without opposition. Clothed in satin and old lace, bearing a bouquet of pink rosebuds, the Queen was escorted to the Maying throne by the maid of honor.

Dancing is Excellent Aesthetic interpretations of springtime dances by groups developed into dramatic, yet joyous presentation.

Dances of the frost elves, the rain, the butterfly, the bee, the Puritans, the rainbow, the flowers, and the animal act were all excellent interpretations of the spirit of springtime pageantry. The animal dance appealed to the childish whims of the audience, who laughed with appreciation at the antics of the characters.

STUDENT DRIVE UP FOR LAST ASSEMBLY

Varied Program Planned for Pep Meeting Next Wednesday

At the assembly next Wednesday, the last A. S. U. I. assembly of the year, a varied program of talks, music, and readings will be given under the direction of the new student drive committee, according to Ted Turner, chairman. In addition to this pep assembly, faculty members have been and still are making informal talks to the fraternity and sorority houses explaining certain interesting phases of the university of which the students were unfamiliar, in connection with the drive.

The program for next Wednesday will be: music by Brick Elrod's orchestra; readings by Kneeland Parker; a banjo luet; a male quartet; and some short pep talks on the New Student Drive. Mr. Turner asks that every student who possibly can do so, to attend this last A. S. U. I. assembly of this year.

DR. UPHAM SPEAKS TO SENIOR GROUPS

Dr. A. H. Upham left Tuesday evening on a two weeks trip over the northern and southern parts of the state to deliver commencement addresses to graduating seniors of twelve Idaho high schools. He expects to return on Saturday, May 29.

The first address was delivered last night at the Gooding high school and tonight Doctor Upham is addressing the Soda Springs high school. Talks will be given in Boise on Saturday and Sunday evenings, and an address in Caldwell on Sunday morning.

From Boise President Upham goes to Bliss May 17, to address the seniors there, and then to Sugar City on May 18, Dubois May 20, Arco May 21, Moore May 22, and Challis on May 24. Idaho's president will then make a flying trip back into the Panhandle to address the Coeur d'Alene high school on May 26, Bonners Ferry May 27 and Sandpoint on the 28th.

LANSDON TAKES JOB ON IDAHO FALLS POST

Floyd Lansdon, managing editor of The Argonaut, left Wednesday morning for Idaho Falls where he will take the position of telegraph editor on the Idaho Falls Post. Lansdon finished his school work before he left and plans to return to school in the fall.

FIFTEEN JUNIORS AND SENIORS HONORED BY PHI BETA KAPPA

Limited Number Selected to Membership in Honorary Scholastic Frat

TEST IS VERY RIGID

Chapter and Members Will Be Installed at Idaho June 5

Election of 10 seniors and five juniors to Phi Beta Kappa, honorary scholastic fraternity founded in 1776, was announced by Dr. George Morey Miller, president of the incoming local chapter, today. These students, who will be initiated at commencement time in June, will be the first undergraduate members ever to be admitted from the University of Idaho.

Limit Number Elected Seniors elected are Herma Geneva Albertson, Ruth Muriel Aspray, Wallace Cable Brown, Ora Amelia Budge, Leppha Mae Decker, Pauline Howard Mitchell, Ellen Pauline Ostroff, Anna Mildred Pearson, Phoebe Edna Sheldon and Frances Ada Sullivan, with one or two other elections possible if the size of the graduating class permits. Elections are limited to one tenth of the number of the B. A. and B. S. graduates, and do not include graduates from the technical curricula.

Juniors chosen are Carl Jean DuBois, Francis Glover Eldridge, Farnsworth Leroy Jennings, Marjorie Darlene Simpson and Herman Eugene Swanson. Juniors are elected only as a result of extraordinarily high scholarship. Senior elections include recognition of high scholarship and other qualities.

Install Chapter June 5 Phi Beta Kappa will be installed at the University of Idaho on the first day of commencement week, June 5. Dr. Oscar M. Voorhees of New York, secretary of the United Chapters of Phi Beta Kappa, will be the installing officer. He will also give the commencement address, June 7.

Dr. Miller, when seen concerning the announcement of the new undergraduate members of Phi Beta Kappa said, "We regret that the rigid rules of the national society kept down the number of elections in the present senior class. Several other seniors were eligible; but as a new chapter was being compelled to conform absolutely to the rules of the national organization."

Colorado State Teacher's College. Scientific window washing and floor mopping are among the topics that will be taken up in the 10-day course in janitorial to be offered during the summer session.

South Idaho Trip Planned by Pep Band, Says Atwood

"Bigger and Better Music" is the slogan of the Pep band for next year, according to Paul W. Atwood, newly-chosen manager for 1926 and 1927. Atwood was chosen to manage the band by the members and the appointment confirmed by the executive board Wednesday night.

"The Pep band membership will return to school in the fall, practically intact. Only four members will be lost through graduation," said Atwood. Several extensive trips are planned to advertise the university. The south Idaho trip will be made as far as Pocatello.

Says Nyvall Good Director "David Nyvall, pianist, composer and musician of note, will return in the fall to direct the Pep band. The band is fortunate in having such a talented director for next year."

"Much good work has been done in the past two years to build the band up to a high standard. But a higher one may be reached."

FACULTY TENNIS SLOW

The faculty tennis tournament is progressing slowly, the third round having been played off, with three more rounds to play. It is expected that the tournament will be completed in a week, or at most two weeks. Those still in the running are: King, Candee, Ludberg, Fuller, Snyder, Joyce, Fahrenwald and Armstrong.

IDAHO ENTERS NEW ATHLETIC ERA

WITH APPOINTMENT OF WESTERN STAR AS DIRECTOR AND MENTOR

Placement of Each Sport Department Under Single Head Will Develop Greater Competition; Erb Has Brilliant Record

(By "Bud" Alford)

The University of Idaho is entering upon a new athletic era with the announcement Tuesday by President A. H. Upham that the athletic department had been reorganized on a large scale basis with Charles E. Erb, ex-University of California football star as athletic director and football coach. The physical education department has been made a separate organization with David MacMillan as its director.

Permanent coaches have been engaged for all major sports with Erb for football, MacMillan as basketball coach and George W. Philbrook as assistant athletic director and track coach. Professor R. E. Neldig, line coach under R. L. Matthews, has been retained as an assistant football coach.

Has Brilliant Record. Erb comes to Idaho as the choice from a field of more than 100 applicants for the football coaching position and brings with him a brilliant playing and coaching record. Erb was all-Pacific coast quarterback three times and all-American once in his football career at the University of California. He was the guiding genius of the famous Golden Bear "wonder team" of 1923 and played in the memorable New Year's day game with Ohio in 1923. During his three years with California the Bears won every game played except one tied contest.

Erb graduated from the University of California with the class of 1923, majoring in economics. He is a prep graduate of the Manual Arts high school of Los Angeles. He entered the service during the war and played football under "Lone Star" Dietz, when in training camp.

Erb Coached Champion Team After graduating from college he coached the Woodland high school team, winning eight out of 10 games. He also coached the Woodland American Legion team, which won the state championship.

In 1924 he became head coach of football at the University of Nevada, and produced a creditable team in his first year, despite a hard schedule and the limited supply of material for an eleven. His team was light and fast and gave the Vandals a memorable scare in the game which Idaho won 23-0 at Boise. The Nevadans marched four times to within a few inches of the Idaho goal in the last quarter of the game, after the Vandals had them apparently hopelessly beaten.

Erb's contract with the University of Nevada was not renewed in 1925, and he has been in business in California since leaving Nevada.

Introduced to Students. The announcement of Erb's appointment was formally made by President A. H. Upham at an impromptu meeting of athletes and students in the bleachers of MacLean field Tuesday afternoon. Erb made a short talk on his plans for Idaho athletics, and afterwards was introduced to those at the meeting.

The new coach was formally presented to the student body at Wednesday's general assembly, along with the other new appointees of the athletic department. He was introduced by President Upham as a "Unique Californian, who has not yet said anything about his state's climate."

New Coach Tells Plans Erb made a short speech, saying that he did not expect to develop a team that would uphold all the high standards of Idaho athletics. George W. Philbrook, new assistant director of athletics, was also called to the platform, and he explained his plans for developing track work.

Charles Erb looks anything but a traditional public conception of a coach. He is young, comparatively small in stature, dresses natively and might be easily mistaken for an undergraduate or young professor. He has a different looking individual when on the athletic field in his "shop clothes" however. Erb took a brisk workout with the baseball men Tuesday afternoon, as he is keeping in trim to play semi-pro ball in California. He played college baseball for four years at Berkeley.

Abandon Notre Name System The coming of Erb to Idaho will mean the overthrow of the Notre Dame type of football for that of the late Andy Smith. How strong Erb adheres to the teaching of his former old master remains to be seen. It is highly possible, however, that Vandal football teams in the future will be noted for their criss-crosses, delayed line plays, and a "percentage" style of play which involves much punting when the ball is not within striking distance of the opponent's goal. Erb will not take charge of the team until next fall and will have a busy time teaching the Vandals a new type of play before the opening of the schedule.

SEATTLE IN ROW OVER REGENT ACT

Quo Warranto Proceedings to Determine Legality of Governor's Act

University of Washington, Seattle, May 12—(P. I. P.)—Quo warranto proceedings to determine the legality of Governor Hartley's peremptory dismissal of two University of Washington regents last week have been instituted before the state supreme court.

At the meeting of the regents last week the two new appointees were confirmed as members of the Board by the vice-president, the president, having been one of those dismissed. The only "clash" came over the election of officers when one of the new members was elected president. The "old" regents maintained that the dismissed president was still legally holding the position.

The regents understand that there is no personal fight between the dismissed and newly appointed members, but that the court action was brought to settle for all time the right of the governor to dismiss regents of the University at will.

CHAMPION TYPIST ON NATIONAL TOUR

Albert Tangora, Thrice the Premier Key Pusher, Demonstrates Here

Albert Tangora, thrice world's champion typist, and holder of speed and concentration tests, appeared Wednesday afternoon in Science hall auditorium before a crowd of 350. The champion is on a national demonstration tour.

One of Mr. Tangora's records that gave him the world's championship in an international contest last fall is 147 words per minute for one hour. He has won the coveted title for three consecutive times.

240 Words a Minute Writing at the incredible rate of 240 words per minute on a memorized sentence, Tangora moved his fingers fast enough to strike 12-1-2 keys per second at the demonstration. He made two errors in the memory test. Following copy and writing 200 words per minute, Tangora added a column of figures read to him—and the copy was errorless! The average person must extend himself to read 200 words per minute silently.

Started At Early Age Tangora is 22 years old. He began typing in a business college in 1916. In two months he averaged 42 words per minute and his championship career started. His average practice has been two hours a day.

"I train for contests with all the rigor of an athlete," Mr. Tangora told The Argonaut reporter. "Hiking, gymnastics, diet, sleep, special finger exercises and ruidowns are all essential to building endurance that enables me to stand the strain of a real contest. The energy required to hold such writing speed for an hour is equal to a long sprint."

Asked whether he thought he could increase his present speed, Tangora replied that he could. "It is practice," he said.

Dq Idaho Seniors Lack Ideas?

So far the editor has not received even one communication in reply to the invitation extended to seniors to express their views on pertinent campus subjects through the columns of The Argonaut. Believing that seniors as a group do more constructive thinking than other classes, they were offered this opportunity to tell the world what they had been thinking about for so long that gave them such a worried look. But not one reply. At the University of Oregon a questionnaire was recently given to seniors embodying the questions which were suggested for senior comment by The Argonaut. Much interesting and valuable information was thus secured. Rather than conclude from this unresponsiveness that Idaho seniors don't have ideas, it is more acceptable to believe they are just too busy with other things to give any time to "literary" work.

The University Invests.

A nation-wide hunt for a football coach has been successfully completed with the appointment of Charles E. Erb, Jr., as director of athletics and football coach. Dean Angell and the faculty committee on athletics have chosen wisely. Lamentations of "who can possibly take Matty's place as a coach" have disappeared into thin air.

The faculty choice is a wise one and a daring one. Erb is young and ambitious, the youngest of coast conference coaches, and will introduce a new football system. He will have tough sailing next fall—a mere few days in which to teach men who have played Notre Dame style of ball how to play that of the late Andy Smith. But Erb is young and ambitious—the students and athletes will like him and his teams will fight for him with all of the old Idaho fight. Idaho students will do their part by withholding criticism and giving support until the new system "takes."

We Welcome Charles E. Erb, Jr.

The Argonaut welcomes the coming of Charles E. Erb, and foresees a new "light on the mountains" for Vandal athletics.

A new day has dawned for Idaho athletics with the announcement of the reorganization of the athletic departments on a "big time" basis, with paid coaches of national fame for all sports.

Foundations have been laid which will place Idaho teams on equal footing with the best. Track has been raised to par with the other major sports—and these other sports have been kept to their present high standards. Coaching means much in modern sport development.

More important to the average Vandal or Vandalet will be the reorganization of the physical education department. Intramural sports wherein the many benefit, have been put under a competent paid director, and they will prosper and expand. Organized gymnasium classes will enable muscles which have grown soft and flabby over the study desks to be hardened and kept in trim.

The administration has made a wise investment—an investment in the health of the students and in the university.

The Safety Valve

That the source of trouble between Adam and Eve developed from a green "pair" and not an apple is the more modern version of the biblical parable, inferred Dean Paul Roberts in his speech Wednesday morning at the regular assembly. After he had completed his second talk that evening, some of the few students present asked the humorist and theologian to explain the joke.

"Students are too materialistic," roared J. Stitt Wilson, philosopher, writer, lecturer. "They do not live enough in the third dimension." When periodicals and welfare workers' speeches are full of such expostulations, and advocations for the need of more spiritual things in universities, one starts to wondering what does the student think of in terms of religion.

It has been said that as the student learns, through the course of his college career, he becomes more materialistic, more doubtful as to the truth of the principles of Christianity. Something on the order of agnosticism. But when one looks over the thirty or forty students that turned out to hear Dean Paul Roberts, a keen thinker and competent speaker, who might offer a bit of enlightenment to strengthen one's belief in Christianity, it is evident that students do not even to bother about such a thing. Their thoughts must be in the immediate present. "In our modern times, the race for material and physical advancement, far exceeds the race for spiritual advancement," said Dean Paul Roberts.—George Young.

Kioty Author of Play for Stunt Fest—He is Portrayed by Johnson

Dear Ma,
Well Ma, tonight I am going to be acted in real life by Vernon Johnson which is a friend of mine and he is going to play as if he was me in the stunt fest. The play shows me going back to Wild Cow to see my old sweetheart, but she ain't my sweetheart any more because I got another one and it is a bid mixup but comes out all right. Jack Pine Woods which is really Oly Olson, a friend of mine, is so hard boiled in this show you would think he would bite the neck off from his whiskey bottle. He is my old sweetheart's father.

Well Ma, pretty soon us fellows is going to leave Idaho and we ain't very glad. I always thought I was awful hard but I reckon a couple of man-size tears is going to fall out of my eyes when nobody is looking. So goodbye, Ma, Kioty Bill.

BLU' KEY FRATERNITY GIVEN SUPERVISION OF HANDBOOK
Permission was granted the Blue Key Fraternity to supervise the publication of a student handbook for next fall at the executive board meeting Wednesday night. The Y. M. C. UNPOPULAR OPINION

UNPOPULAR OPINION
Answering the Editor's Questions
What course has been most helpful to you and why? Without reservation I would say that Math "B" (High School Geometry) has been my choice and that any one trying to master English prose will find it very stimulating.

What good do you think your college training has done you? College has made me exactly like several million other individuals in America I recommend college to all young men who hope some day to be Elks or Kiwanis.

Do you think you would have been as well off if you had never gone to college. No; not by any means. I can now read the French phrases in such novels as the Green Hat.

What do you think of compulsory military training? It suits me well. I got out of it in spite of Sgt. Nagele.

What do you think of the attendance rules? I regard them as necessary in order to hold classes.

What changes would you suggest? I would move the school to Pocatello in order that English majors might have an opportunity to study the psychological effect of sage brush perfume on poodle dogs.

What is your opinion on the fraternity versus non-fraternity feeling here? I think every incoming student should be presented with eight dollars worth of gold-bronze jewelry and certificates of membership in all organizations. This would dampen his ardour for abdominal decorations and leave him free to adorn his brain with two or three ideas.

Do you think Idaho has offered what it should have? Hardly. If there is anything Idaho should have I am sure she hasn't got it. The editor must have meant something else.

What additions or changes would you suggest? With little hope that I shall be taken seriously, I suggest the following: Loud speakers for library conversation, a score board for keeping track of engagements, a course in moving picture appreciation, tin crowns for the members of super-intelligent groups, and anaesthetic machines to be installed on each seat for use at general assemblies.

PI Beta Phi Initiates Five.
Pi Beta Phi announces the initiation of Florence Cunningham of Coeur d'Alene, Anne Donston of Boise, Frances Wendle of Sandpoint, Grace Thomas of Ashton, Margaret Gnaedinger of Wallace.

On Saturday night, May 8, Mrs. Robert Whittier, Miss Bernice McCoy, and Mrs. Margaret Sargent, patronesses of Pi Beta Phi, entertained the chapter with a gypsy party at Mrs. Whittier's home. Decorations centered round an iron pot over a gypsy fire. Mrs. Sargent and Miss McCoy, in shadowy mysterious nooks told fortunes with tea leaves. Miss Isabel Clarke played several piano selections; Dr. Thromannhauser told, in a very interesting way, the origin of the gypsies; and Mrs. Michaels gave a number of gypsy dances.

The guests were dressed in keeping with the occasion; and an appropriate supper was served to them as they sat gypsy fashion on the floor.

Week-end guests of Pi Beta Phi were the Misses Dorothy Williams and Dorothy Sanborn of Spokane.

Dinner guests on Sunday were Mrs. H. L. Williams and Mrs. Connerough of Spokane.

Wednesday dined guests were the Misses Alice Kelley, Demerise Hart, and Janice Myers.

Alpha Tau Omega announces the initiation of David Nyvall, Jr., of the music department.

Beta Chi dinner guests for Wednesday, May 12, were Mrs. Everley, Esther Piercy, Saramae Williams, Christine Kryger, Dorothy Sower, Ethel Larson, Margie Green, Mary Murphy, Norma Geddes, Elmer Swanson.

Alpha Chi Omega announces the engagement of Helen Ruth Pitts, of Boise, to Richard Johnston, Phi Delta Theta, of Schenectady, New York.

Alpha Chi Omega house guests over Campus day were Mrs. MacArthur and Lyllis MacArthur of Coeur d'Alene, Mrs. Sower and Mrs. Larson of Coeur d'Alene, Misses Elizabeth Lambdin and Josephine Kincaid of Lewiston and Adaline Marineau of Coeur d'Alene.

Alpha Chi Omega entertained at a fireside Sunday evening for the following high school seniors: Marion Swartz, Helen Kerr, Mildred Axtell, Lucile Rach, Louise Larson, Helen Woodworth, Margaret Martin and Lasca Miller.

The week-end guests at the Alpha Chi Omega house are: Mrs. D. J. McArthur, Mrs. John Larson, Mrs. C. O. Marineau, Coeur d'Alene; Josephine Kincaid and Elizabeth Lambdin, Lewiston.

Alpha Chi Omega held its second annual banquet in honor of installation of the Idaho chapter, at the Blue Butket Sunday.

Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Upham entertained two hundred and thirty members of the class of 1926 at a buffet supper and dance at the Blue Bucket Tuesday evening. The faculty guests were the deans and their wives and heads of divisions.

Alpha Chi Omega announces the engagement of Helen Pitts and Richard Johnston, Phi Delta Theta.

NEW A.S.U.I. HEADS ACTIVE ON CAMPUS

Baughman, Austin, High in Law School—Other Officers Active

The A. S. U. I. election is over and it brings in review the past history of those chosen officers for the coming year.

The new prexy, Harry Baughman, was junior man representative to the A. S. U. I. executive board this year. A student of the law school and has been quite prominent in the affairs of the university. He has always worked for the good of the school, and has shown that he is a very capable man for the position which the students of the University of Idaho have entrusted to him. As his co-worker, the vice-president, George Austin, has been elected. Mr. Austin is a member of the Stray Greek club, a clerk of the Bench and Bar, and a member and president of Phi Alpha Delta.

The Senior and Junior men representatives are respectively: Arthur Emerson and Edison Morris, Frank W. Click and Beardsley Merrill. Mr. Click and Mr. Morris was on the dramatic staff of the Gem of the Mountains last year. Mr. Click and Mr. Merrill are both quite prominent in campus activity. Mr. Click is a pledge to the Blue Key, president of Scabbard and Blade, and a delegate to the Inter-Fraternity Council. Mr. Merrill is well known in dramatics.

The co-eds elected for offices seem also to be well chosen. Miss Josephine Keane, as Senior women's representative, is a member of the W. A. A. and is vice-president of this organization this year. Alice Ross as Junior women's representative is well known for her Glee club work. Mirth McArthur, as May Queen, was page year before last. Gwendolyn Moser, as Maid of Honor, was in the Pep Band Show last year, and Alice Harding, as page, is a freshman and a member of the Y. W. C. A. and the Home Economics club.

Leland Chapman, as an issue editor of The Argonaut most of this year, seems to be a very capable journalist. He should run true to form in his new job as associate editor of The Gem. Floyd Lanson was

URGES STUDENTS TO CONSIDER GOD

Dean P. Roberts, Assembly Speaker, Links Religion With Education

"Religion is the attempt to take everything into consideration," is the definition given the subject by Dean Paul Roberts, Episcopalian minister from Boise, in his speech to the student assemblage Wednesday morning.

"People should see things in the relationship of what they are doing, to the whole task," he said. "There should be a realization of a big task to be performed by the individual part; little lives make the life of the world and all should do their part to make the world what it ought to be."

Dean Roberts is a keen, logical thinker, and has a clear way of expressing himself. He possesses a hint of humor which he used to a good advantage in holding the attention of the audience. Mr. Roberts urged that the students should give spiritual doctrines more earnest and truthful consideration. "Students come to college not merely to have facts poured into them but to make something out of life. What kind of a person are you going to be as a result of four years of education?" he asked. "Religion and education must go together."

"I do not know what God is like in person," said Dean Roberts, in his speech on theology given Wednesday night in the auditorium. "If we could define God we would destroy him as an infinite power," he continued. "I think of God as my ideal, my idea of perfection. The power of God is all in relationship to the purpose of God. God is trying to make us what we ought to be, and he is having a tough time. He is trying to make the world a brotherhood, a place of love and service. Love is the thing that will win that purpose, and God is love, and Almighty is love."

In speaking of the relationship of Jesus Christ to God, the theologian said that people can get their best vision of God through Christ. He was the perfect expression of God. "There is the relation there as father is, to son," he said.

In his evening address, Mr. Roberts again urged that the students should devote more time to truthful honest thought. "We want a life inspired by love and guided by knowledge," he said. "If this does it come from the universities, where in Heaven's name will it come from?"

VANDAL SLUGGERS PLAY WITH MONTANA IN EFFORT TO HOLD MUCH COVETED INTERCOLLEGIATE BALL LEADERSHIP

(By Melvin A. Bliss)

With but six more games on the Vandal schedule, Idaho's varsity baseball team meets Montana this afternoon after the interscholastic track meet in an attempt to remain at the top of the percentage column.

Tomorrow the Vandals clash again with the Grizzlies at 3:00 o'clock. To make the baseball schedule more complete, the Idaho frosh play the W. S. C. yearlings at Pullman Saturday morning at 9:30.

Dope today pointed to a pair of Idaho victories. The Vandals decisively defeated Montana last week in a two-game series at Missoula by 11-2 and 7-4 scores. Coupled with a victory and defeat at Gonzaga, the Montana wins placed Idaho on top of the division heap. MacMillan's pitching staff of Erickson, Fields and Stockdale worked in big league form on last week's trip against the Grizzlies and Bulldogs, and coupled with the heavy slugging of the Vandals, two more victories should be chalked up for Idaho.

Howerton Back in Lineup
With but three teams, Whitman, Washington State college and the College of Idaho, on the varsity schedule, the Vandal pill tossers stand a good chance of remaining well up in the division standings.

Pat Howerton, first string catcher who was injured in the initial game at Missoula, is again back in the lineup. There are no other changes. Saturday's contest will start promptly at 3:00 o'clock.

TOURNEY LAGS IN NET TITLE RACE

Sad Lack of Promptness is Shown by Players;
No Advance

With today set as the last day for all tennis matches preceding the semifinals to be played off in the annual men's tournament, the score sheet shows a sad lack of promptness on the part of the entrants. In some cases the initial round has not been played.

Little advance dope on the outcome of the tourney is available. Beardsley Merrill, last year's champion, was passed into the second round of play by the default of N. Nedros. Out of the other 18 survivors of the initial play, seven drew passes by the default route.

Results of Rounds
Results of the first round are as follows:
H. Bailey defeated I. Smith, (6-3, 6-4).
C. Sievers beat W. Calloway (6-3, 2-6, 6-3).
C. Ross won from Tom Madden by default.
K. Benedict beat M. Muzzy (7-5, 5-7, 6-4).
C. Kincaid defeated L. Mee (6-3, 7-5).
N. Numaker defaulted to R. Ferrandini.
E. Arnett won from L. Spence (4-6, 6-3, 6-2).
H. Hughes defaulted to H. Billings.
W. Hertzka beat W. Hunter (6-1, 6-1).
D. Fales defaulted to E. Morris.
R. Audrieth lost to F. Allen (6-2, 6-3).
C. Gartin won from K. Jones by default.
A. Fowler won from J. Paisley, (6-4, 6-0).
B. Drydale defaulted to J. Cromwell.
H. Canine beat C. Hoff (8-6, 3-6, 6-3).
H. Hall defeated W. Standley (6-1, 6-0).
A. Jensen beat D. MacMahon.
V. Estes defaulted to I. Campbell.
N. Nedros defaulted to B. Merrill.

Arrange Second Round
Schedule for the second round is:
Martman vs. Bailey.
Sievers vs. Ross.
Benedict vs. Kincaid.
Arnett vs. Billings.
Fisher vs. Hertzka.

U.S.C. AND STANFORD EYE TRACK HONORS

LOS ANGELES, May 14—Stanford and the University of Southern California seem destined to battle for the nation's highest track and field honors on many fields this season.

The two teams will both be entered in the Pacific Coast conference meet at Palo Alto on May 15, at the national intercollegiate at Boston May 23 and 24 and at the national collegiate in Chicago June 12. Stanford officials decided last week to send the Cardinal team to the I. C. 4A and the University of Southern California athletic committee voted this week to let the Trojans compete at the Chicago affair.

In the only other meeting of the season, the Trojans came through victors. This was in the dual meet at Palo Alto on April 8. Both teams can muster out all-round aggregations or small squads composed of stars. At Palo Alto the squads will be limited to 14 men. There is no limit at the I.C.A.A.A. but expenses will hold the teams under 18 men. At Chicago, only those men who have placed in extensive intercollegiate meets throughout the season will be permitted to enter.

NOTICE
The baseball game between the Idaho frosh and the W. S. C. frosh, scheduled for Saturday morning at 9:30, will be played at Pullman instead of at Moscow as previously announced.

Frosh Track Squad Ready for Meet With Cougar Cats

After defeating the combined teams of Wallace, Kellogg and Mullan by an overwhelming score, frosh track stars are working out in preparation for their final meet of the season with Washington State college frosh next Saturday, May 22, at Pullman. The varsity track squad meets the State college varsity at the same time.

Rook track men are making good marks, and in some cases topping the varsity. Berger, high school discus star of last year, is heaving the platter around 120 feet consistently. Cook and Norman are making good time in the sprints, and other frosh are showing up well in different events.

No basis of comparison can be obtained with the Cougar Kittens, as they have not competed in any meets so far this season.

FROSH GIRLS WIN IN INTERCLASS BALL

Defeat Sophomores 17-12 to Capture Pennant in Close Series

Frosh co-eds won the championship of the girls' interclass baseball tournament by defeating the sophomores, 17-12, Tuesday. The upperclassmen were eliminated in the first two games of the series, being defeated May 3 by the sophomores, 19-12, and by the freshmen, May 5, by a 28-17 score.

According to Miss Dorothy Manning, manager, more interest was shown this year in girls' baseball than even before. The underclassmen girls especially turned out well, although the upperclassmen showed less interest. 47 girls signed up for baseball this year, while there were 36 entrants last year.

CINDER SQUAD HAS CHANCE WITH W.S.C.

Varsity and Frosh Meet Old Rivals
Next Week

After successfully weathering the storms of a dark season, Idaho's track team, after a brief rest following a meet with the University of Montana, will close the season with a dual meet against Washington State college at Pullman Saturday, May 22. The frosh will take on the Cougar Kittens at the same time.

Washington State college appears to have a slight edge on the Vandals. The Cougars vanquished Oregon Agricultural college last week by a 66-63 score and placed a few points ahead of Idaho in the quadrangular meet at Spokane. Coach Philbrook's men however have shown speed in a number of events and with Pickett cornering the weights, W. S. C. will have plenty of competition.

PREDICT NEW MARK FOR WEIGHT HEAVE

LOS ANGELES, May 17—A new world's record for the 12 pound shot will be registered by Bud Houser, captain of the University of Southern California track and field team this Saturday. Houser tossed the weight 61 feet 13-4 inches a week ago in a practice meet with the Hollywood Athletic club. No A.A.U. officials were present so Houser will give an exhibition at the state prep meet this Saturday under official surveillance. The record is now 57 feet. Harold Silbert, a Trojan ineligible, put the weight 55 feet 5 inches in the Hollywood Athletic club affair. He will also compete this Saturday.

University of Illinois
One hundred and eight students are enrolled in the four year's journalism course at the University of Illinois this semester.

University of Florida
To change the style of dancing and give non-fraternity men a chance to take part in some form of social activity, a cotillion club has been organized.

ATHLETIC CALENDAR
May 14—Interscholastic track and field meet. Baseball: Idaho vs. Montana.
May 15—Baseball: Montana vs. Idaho. Frosh vs. W. S. C. Frosh.
May 21—Intra-mural Swim Meet. Baseball: Idaho vs. College of Idaho.
May 22—Track: Idaho vs. W. S. C. Frosh vs. W. S. C. Frosh.

LEWISTON LADS ARE CHAMP CLAIMANTS

The Lewiston high school boys, Ed White and Verne Bacharach, have claimed the championship of Lewiston valley in tennis doubles. The boys have made an impressive showing this season and have defeated some crack combinations. It is rumored that they would like to meet the University of Idaho doubles team, but probably no official challenge will be made.

Among the pairs defeated by the Lewiston net sharks are Clyde Richards, former University of Idaho champ, and Henry Cook, former Marine Corps champion.

University of Washington, Seattle, May 14—(P. I. P.)—Washington's varsity baseball team will play a series of six games in Korea and Manchuria in addition to the 12 games with Waseda university when they tour the orient next summer according to Darwin Melsnest, graduate manager. The Husky schedule is being arranged by officials of Waseda university, for many years champion of Japan.

HUSKY ROWERS GET NEW BOAT FOR MEET

University of Washington, May 14—(P. I. P.)—When Washington's varsity crew goes on to the waters of the Hudson for the intercollegiate regatta in June, it will be seated in a new shell, "The Salmon King." The new shell was presented to the student body by the Northwest Association of Salmon Packers. The craft was made in the workshop of George Pocock, Washington's famous shell builder, but has not yet been christened.

YEARLING DIAMOND NINE SET FOR ACTION WITH COUGAR BABES

After two weeks of rest, the Idaho Frosh baseball squad goes into action again Saturday against the Cougar Babes. The game will be played at Pullman at 9:30. The contest has been set for the morning, as Washington's interscholastic track meet takes up the afternoon.

The frosh ball squad has dropped only one game throughout the year, and stands a good chance to trim the W. S. C. yearlings. The Vandal Babes lost a game to Lewis and Clark high school at Spokane earlier in the season by a 6-1 score.

Few Lineup Changes
Materially there will be little change in the frosh lineup. O'Brien who has been holding down the third bag, will be placed in the outfield. Rollins will play third base in place of O'Brien. The other men who will probably play are Garber, Lawrence, Ficke, Sheehan, Welo, Cheyne, Bolby, Fisher and Marshall.

ERB IS NAMED NEW IDAHO FOOTBALL COACH

The faculty committee which selected Erb consisted of Dean M. F. Angell, Dean Ivan C. Crawford and Prof. R. E. Neidig. Angell and Neidig were loud in their praise of the new mentor, saying that he had an outstanding reputation among coaches of the Pacific coast conference, and that he was highly recommended by many prominent football officials who had witnessed Erb's teams in action.

Intra-mural Sports Will Grow

Intra-mural and gymnasium sports are expected to grow in popularity under the new physical education department, with David MacMillan in charge. These activities have heretofore been limited because of curtailed funds and facilities for their supervision. No plans for intramural sports have been announced by Coach MacMillan, but they will probably be supervised. No plans for intramural athletic events, starting with the swimming meet next week.
