CO-EDUCATION IS UPHOLD BY UPHAM IN OPEN LETTER

Writes Article Defending System Following Recent Criticism

MUCH PROPAGANDA

Students Today Know More About Selves and Life, Says Prexy

President A. H. Upham of the University of Idaho came to the defense of co-education in an answer to a recent article written by W. O. Cross, graduate of the University of Illinois this spring. Co-education, according to Dr. Upham, is a "fine, wholesome system and he opposes Mr. Cross' remarks in regard to the matter." Dr. Upham's reply was written following a request from the Brooklyn Daily Eagle, Brooklyn, N. Y. for his opinion on Mr. Cross' remarks.

"My experience is that co-education is a fine, wholesome system and that any defects which may be ascribed to it are no more than would appear in the ordinary social relations of the sexes or indeed than did appear in many and older college communities in which there were separate colleges for men and for women comparatively near each other," Dr. Upham said in his reply. "All this ready talk regarding the extravagant and immoral practices of college life today appears to me highly exaggerated," he continued.

"Part of this talk no doubt represents the honest worries of a great many sincere people who have somehow forgotten the experiences and surroundings of their own youth. Much of it, I am sure, is given publicly because of the supposed new value which attaches itself to the pranks and indiscretions of college students. Some of it I feel reasonably sure is deliberately emphasized as propaganda for certain opinions bearing on the liquor question. There are more students in our colleges and universities today than ever before, and they know more about themselves and about life than young people at their own age did in previous generations; but as a student of literature, I find that ever so often in the past the public through essays and correspondence has given expression to this same idea that youth is not what it once was and must certainly be headed straight for perdition. May I call attention to the following question which might have been drawn by Mr. Cross himself, if he had been sufficiently charitable.

"It is strange to see the folly that possesses the young people of this age, and the liberties they take to themselves. I have the charity to believe they appear very much worse than they are." These sentences are drawn from a private letter written by Miss Dorothy Osborne to her sweetheart, Sir William Temple, February 12, 1654," Dr. Upham remarks.

"Last fall I had the opportunity of three months of travel and observation in western Europe, during which I took occasion to visit a number of the universities. There are such serious hard-working students in all those institutions. Incidentally there are just such students in all our American colleges and universities; but just as truly there is a very considerable number of young men in all the universities I visited who place a good time, considerably above the love of learning, and seem to find plenty of facilities for enjoying themselves to the limit.

CHORAL SOCIETY TO BE ORGANIZED

New Music Group to Include Mediocre Students In Voice

A choral society of at least 200 voices is being selected by Professor E. O. Bangs, head of the music department, as a new musical organization on the campus, he announced Thursday. Though this is the first society on the Idaho campus, it is not unusual, as nearly all universities have a choral organization consisting of from 100 to 300 voices.

Membership is intended primarily for the average student of music interested in voice. It provides an opportunity for students of mediocre ability to obtain experience and training in chorus work. Among the more important numbers to be prepared for concert appearance will be Mendelssohn's "Elijah."

All students interested are urged to interview Professor Bangs, the requirements for membership being slight. The society will meet once a week for one hour from seven to eight o'clock in the evenings. Credit will be given. It is announced that the first meeting will be held Wednesday evening, October 6 promptly at seven o'clock in the auditorium.

STUDENTS ATTENTION
Students who have changed their addresses since they registered in the university are required to fill out the changed address blanks in the registrar's office. This must be done at once.

VANDAL GRID CAPTAIN

Tom "Body" Owings, two-year football letterman, who was appointed by Coach Charles Erb as captain of the 1926 Vandal football team, Owings is one of the hardest hitting backfield men out and is developing into an efficient punter.

APPOINTS OWINGS IDAHO GRID CHIEF

Red-haired Fullback Named By Coach Erb to Lead Vandal Squad

"Body" Owings, red-haired fullback, will captain the Vandal football team during the 1926 season. Owings was appointed by Coach Charles Erb after consultation with members of the squad and after receiving their unanimous approval.

The plan of electing a captain will likely be revived next season. Erb had planned to reinstate the custom this fall, but with a practically new team on his hands and with the appointment system well established, he decided to postpone the action.

Owings is a senior two-letter man in football. He is one of the most popular players on the squad, and this year he is showing more speed and drive than he displayed at any time during his two previous seasons of competition. Both on offense and defense, Owings is a tower of strength, and he is the only man on the team who is certain of a steady first string berth.

In addition to the spectacular plunging and tackling achievements Owings is developing, under Coach Erb's tutelage, into a powerful and reliable punter. He shows promise of becoming one of the best kickers an Idaho team has ever had.

TO RUN SPECIAL FOR SEATTLE GAME

Must Guarantee 125 Passengers to Get Train; Leave October 15

A student special train will be run to Seattle for the Idaho-University of Washington game October 16, according to present plans, provided at least 125 persons will sign up to make the trip. At the meeting of the academic council Wednesday the running of a special to Seattle was authorized. A committee to arrange for the train was appointed Thursday by Harry Baughman, student body president.

According to information received from the railroad officials a train can be run provided 125 passengers are guaranteed. The round trip railroad fare will be $14.50 without pullman, it was announced. Tourist berths may be secured for $2.25 for a lower while standard pullman berths are $4.50 for lowers and $3.75 for uppers.

The present plan is that the special will leave Moscow Friday evening, October 15, at 7:30 o'clock and will arrive in Seattle Saturday morning about 10 o'clock. According to a ruling of the academic council the train must leave Seattle on the return trip not later than 12 midnight, October 16. This will get the train in Moscow shortly after noon.

The ruling of the academic council is to the effect that students will be permitted to make the trip but they must take their cuts for classes missed. Miss Permeal French, dean of women, was authorized to see that the train was properly chaperoned. All girls making the trip must first obtain written permissions from their parent and these must be presented to Dean French before they will be given permission from the university to make the trip.

The committee appointed by Mr. Baughman includes George Austin, chairman, John McMurray, Paul Atwood, John Taylor, James Burnett, Ruth White, and Erma Scholtz. This committee will obtain the names of all students from the various group houses and dormitories who plan on making the trip. For students living in town a blank will be posted on the bulletin board on which they will put their names. As soon as 125 students have signified that they will make the trip the special will be assured.

YEARLING ELEVEN LINES UP AGAINST LEWIS AND CLARK

Vandal Frosh Will Play Curtain Raiser Tomorrow At 12:30

GOOD RESERVE SQUAD Former All State High School Stars Included In Lineup

One of the most formidable football eleven that ever represented an Idaho-freshman class will take the field tomorrow afternoon against the Lewis and Clark high school team of Spokane. The frosh game, which is to begin at 12:30 o'clock, will provide a curtain raiser to the varsity-Montana State clash.

Three performers in the lineup announced by Coach "Syb" Klefner, were members of the all-state team of 1925, and, in addition, there is Bill Kershnik, base of the varsity in practice scrimmages, who would have been unanimous choice for fullback two years ago if an all-state selection had been made. Most of the remaining first string players were given at least honorable mention on last year's "all" selections.

Lineup Tentative
There is still some doubt about the occupancy of six positions, according to Coach Klefner's announcement, but five players are sure of a place in the starting lineup. The five are Kershnik, Ted Jensen, former Firch and all-state star; Christianson, all state end last year; Diehl, Filer, brother of Chuck Diehl; and Billy Frazier, star of the 1925 Moscow high school team.

The combination picked by Coach Klefner follows: ends, Christianson, Diehl, and Kirkpatrick or Berg; guards, Orlandini or Jouno, and Sumpter or Kinney; center, Christians or Frahm; quarterback, Frazier; fullback, Kershnik; halfbacks, Jensen, and Ault or Nelman.

The frosh mentor also has a large and talented amount of reserve material to fall back upon. This competition has been keen in the yearling squad as it has been among the varsity candidates. Among the substitutes who may get into the game tomorrow are Uit, Morley, Ault, Forester, Barret, Gruenthal, Norby, Riley, and Callendar.

Injuries will keep Price and Croy, two players slated for first team positions, out of the game Saturday.

EXPLAIN ARTISTS COURSE PROGRAM

Auditorium Packed for Student Body Assembly Wednesday Morning

More than 500 students signed for Artists course tickets at the assembly Wednesday morning, while many others are expected to apply before the end of the buying period which ends Friday. Sale on tickets for faculty members and townspeople is being held at Hodgins on the same days.

The plans and descriptions of the course were given to the students at assembly by Dean F. A. Thomson, Dean Permeal French, and Dean R. M. Davis of the public events committee.

The last part of the assembly was devoted to a pep rally in preparation for the yell fest which was held Wednesday afternoon on MacLean field. Coach Charley Erb and John McMurray, newly elected yell king, made short talks. It was announced that the freshmen will hold their first rally of the year Friday evening preceding the Montana State game.

Harry Baughman, president of the associated students, explained the newly adopted managerial plan and issued a call for all junior and sophomore managers to report to Gall Mix before Saturday.

TOTAL ENROLMENT FOR PRESENT YEAR IS 2200 STUDENTS

College of Letters and Science Has Heaviest Enrollment

111 CORRESPONDENCE Residence Registration At Present Totals 1737 Students

By the end of the first week of instruction for the fall semester, the University of Idaho has enrolled a total of nearly 2200 students, according to figures just given out by the registrar's office. About 1750 of the students are now in residence in the regular college courses leading to a degree. Three hundred were enrolled in the university summer school sessions at Moscow and Boise, and the remainder are students in correspondence and special music courses, it was announced.

Students are still registering daily in the various colleges of the university. The short courses in agriculture will not open until October 27. Present figures indicated a registration of over 2000 for the present year in college classes and a total enrollment for the year of over 2600 students. The college of letters and science leads with a total enrollment of 643 students.

Following is the segregation of the enrollment at the colleges of the university.

College of letters and science, 25 graduate students; 85 seniors; 123 juniors, 181 sophomores; 218 freshmen; five unclassified for a total of 643 students. College of agriculture, one graduate; 15 seniors; 16 juniors; 29 sophomores; 35 freshmen, for a total of 96. College of engineering, one graduate; 20 seniors; 37 juniors; 52 sophomores; 57 freshmen; one unclassified for a total of 168. College of law, 13 seniors; 11 juniors; seven sophomores; two unclassified for a total of 33.

School of business, 29 seniors; 61 juniors; 101 sophomores; 142 freshmen for a total of 333. This gives a total of 1737 students.

Under special music courses are 28 students. A total of 111 students are taking work by correspondence, while in the summer school session at Moscow there were 217 students enrolled and 89 at Boise. This gives a grand total of 2180 students enrolled.

DEAN FRENCH TO CONVENTION

Will Represent University at Women's Conclave at Halley

Miss Permeal J. French, dean of women at the University of Idaho, will attend the Idaho State Federation of Clubs convention to be held at Halley, Idaho, October 5, 6 and 7. It has been announced from the president's office, Dean French will represent the university at the convention. Miss French plans to leave Moscow Tuesday and will return October 16. Besides attending the conclave at Halley, Dean French is scheduled to make several addresses while in south Idaho.

Following the Halley convention, Dean French will go to Gooding where she is scheduled to address the Gooding Woman's club October 12. The following day, Wednesday, October 13, Miss French will give a talk at the noon luncheon of the Rotary club at Nampa. Dean French will then return to Moscow.

VANDALS WILL OPEN FOOTBALL SEASON SATURDAY AGAINST MONTANA STATE

Vandal Varsity Squad Will Line Up Against Aggressive Bobcat Aggregation Tomorrow on MacLean Field In First Game Under New Coach

The Vandal grid team will open its Pacific Coast conference schedule against the Montana State Bobcats on MacLean field tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Idaho fans will see for the first time the performance of the Vandals under Coach Charley Erb's tutelage. At 12:30 o'clock the Baby Vandals will lineup for their first game against the Lewis and Clark high school eleven.

IDAHO TO ELECT RHODES SCHOLAR

Special Faculty Committee Appointed by President Upham

Idaho is entitled to send another Rhodes scholar to Oxford, and it is desirable that as many candidates as possible be considered by the faculty committee which in turn recommends four nominees to the state committee on selection.

Dr. A. H. Upham has appointed a special committee to report to the academic council with recommendations on the several candidates. This committee consists of Dean Gale, Chairman; Dean Angell; Professors G. M. Miller, C. E. Johnston, and R. E. Neidig. All students wishing to be considered as candidates or desiring information as to requirements for candidature should report immediately to Dean Dale, but in no event later than Wednesday, October 6.

The Rhodes scholarship carries an annual stipend of approximately $1900 for a term of three years, entitling a student to study at Oxford during his period of tenure. A candidate must be a resident of the state from which he is appointed, or must have received the major part of his education there; must be unmarried; must be a citizen of the United States; must have passed his nineteenth birthday, but not his twenty-fifth, on October first of the year in which he takes up residence (1927); must have completed at least his sophomore year; and according to terms of the Rhodes' will, must be distinguished "by (1) literary and scholastic attainments, (2) fondness for, and success in, manly outdoor sports, (3) qualities of manhood, truth courage, unselfishness and fellowship, and (4) moral force of character and of instincts to lead and take an interest in his school-mates."

This is a very great opportunity and one that no student should overlook according to Dean Dale. The scope and range of study available at Oxford is so wide and so extended that students registered in every college or school of the University of Idaho should be interested.

"CO-ED WALK OUT" STAGED THURSDAY

Freshman Girls Made Acquainted With Women Activities

Women of the Idaho campus established a new tradition Thursday night, with the "Co-ed Walk Out". They meet at Forney Hall at five o'clock and then hiked about a mile and a half out on the Spokane highway where a big bonfire was built and a picnic lunch of hot dogs and buns was served.

The "Walk Out", Dean French explained was for the purpose of getting the freshman girls acquainted with the women on the campus and to familiarize them with the various school activities. This is to be an annual affair in charge of the women's organizations. Improvements can be made from year to year to meet the conditions of the campus. Mildred Perry, chairman of the big sisters, introduced Josephine Keane, senior women's representative of the executive board of A. S. U. I., Alma Baker, president of the A. W. S., Bernice Suppiger, president of the Panhellenic council, Ruth white president of the Mortar board, and Virginia Lucille, representative of the Spurs. Lucille Bamber played a Violin solo and Mildred Axtel gave an Indian dance. After the program the girls sang Idaho songs and practiced yells.

FATHER DIES; EDITOR HOME

Floyd Lansdon and Brother Left Wednesday for Boise

Floyd Lansdon, editor of The Argonaut, and William Lansdon, were called to Boise Wednesday morning upon receiving word of the death of their father, Henry Lansdon. Mr. Lansdon died from injuries received when the auto which he was driving fell 150 feet over an embankment into the north fork of the Payette river near Banks. Both brothers will return to the university probably the middle of next week.

On the eve of the 1926 season opening, which will mark the first appearance of an Idaho eleven under his regime, Head Coach Charley Erb made public a tentative lineup, giving Idaho fans their first authoritative information of the probable makeup of their team.

In four cases there is still considerable doubt as to which candidate will respond to the referee's whistle at the first kickoff. Seven players, however, seem almost certain to take the field against the Bobcats at the opening game.

The raising of the curtain on the 1926 season will disclose a heavy Vandal backfield, composed of Captain "Body" Owings, fullback, Frank Powers, quarterback, Darwin Burgher, halfback, and either "Red" Jacoby or Sammy Perrins at the other half. Owings and Powers both weigh well over 170 pounds and Burgher tips the scales at 193 pounds. Jacoby and Perrins, the ponies of this backfield, weigh 163 and 148 pounds respectively.

The switching of "Chuck" Diehl, last years star tackle, to end, has helped Erb solve the problem which the wing positions presented. On the other end, any one of three men may start the game. They are Canine, Moore and O'Brien, the former a letter man.

Lyle Stark, diminutive Hercules, is slated to play guard and either Bill Gartin, star linesman of last year, or Maurice Brimhall, recruit from the Idaho Tech., will start at the other guard berth. Carl Hutchinson, 227 pound tackle will team up with either Kenneth Dean or Con Dewey. "Bud" Blass, 1925 reserve player, is scheduled to start at center, although it is possible that Erb may select Johnny Bauer at the last minute.

The Montana State game is scheduled to start at 2:00 o'clock. The Vandal freshmen play a curtain raiser contest with Lewis and Clark high school just preceding the main go.

19 MEN MAKE UP IDAHO PEP BAND

Fourteen of Those Selected Were Members Last Year

Paul Atwood, manager of the pep band for the coming year, issued the first official announcement of those who have been chosen members this year. Of the 19 men in the band 14 are last year's material, making the outlook bright for a successful season this year.

There still remains an opening for two more trombone players. All those interested are asked to get in touch with Mr. Atwood. Trumpet players are: Milton Neunemaker, Ross Wood, and Maurice Nelson; clarinets, Eugene Beebe, student leader, Paul Atwood, Sammy Hutchins, Russell Hanford; trombones, Roy Bollinger and Ted Butler; altos, George Benson, Ryal Lewis, and McConnell; baritone, Hoyt Stevenson and Johannessen; base, Neal Jones; drums, John Taylor and Charles Terhume.

Open or Closed

Tomorrow the Idaho Vandals play their first game of the 1926 season. It might be well to recall to mind what happened at the first game last year. The College of Idaho played the Vandals a close game, and as a result, the student body seemed to take the victory as more or less of a defeat. Everywhere the students talked of the speed and flash of the Caldwell team, never mentioning the deliberate consistent fighting of the Idaho squad.

There is such a thing as breaking down the moral of a football team, and the students do that very thing, when they talk about the team as they did last year. Idaho's football team is one of the best mediums through which the university is advertised over the state and Pacific coast. Her coaches and men are working constantly, giving the best they have to produce a winning team. However, win or lose, these men deserve to be given full credit for their efforts.

Remember tomorrow is the first game, and no matter what the outcome, the student body, as a unit, can do much to keep the spirit of the team running high until the end of the season. Keep your personal opinions to yourself, they may not be considered of much value when compared with those of men who know. Always remember that the team is doing its best at all times, and if you can't say something favorable, the wisest policy is to keep still. As H. L. Menkin would say, "Tis better to keep your mouth shut and be considered a fool, than to open it and remove all doubt."

Rhodes Scholarship

Idaho is again placed on the list as one of the thirty-two states of the union to appoint a Rhodes scholar this year to enter Oxford university, England, in October, 1927. This is one of the biggest opportunities presented to the American students and every male student of the University of Idaho should be intensely interested. For the purpose of naming candidates from the university, President Upham has appointed a committee.

In the past Idaho has sent students to Oxford who have brought much recognition to the university. Philip Buck, Idaho Rhodes scholar who returned this year from Oxford, was graduated with highest honors. This fall, Harold C. Wyman, graduate of Idaho in 1925, will enter Oxford as Idaho's Rhodes scholar.

It is necessary that students considering candidacy for the scholarship co-operate to the fullest extent with the committee appointed in order that the recommendations may be made to the academic council by October 16. The applications must be sent to the state secretary at Boise before October 23.

Eligibility for the candidacy calls for the student being a male citizen of the United States and also that he must have at least completed his sophomore year. Other conditions are provided for in the Rhodes will. Idaho will send its best representative to Oxford and this will be done with the co-operation of the students.

DEBATE TRYOUTS TO BE HELD OCTOBER 7

Varsity and Frosh Teams to Be Selected By Coach

First tryouts for varsity and freshman man's debate squads will be held the afternoon and evening of Thursday, October 7, it has been announced by Professor Davidson, coach of debate. With the advice of a group of judges, Coach Davidson will select a squad of twelve varsity debaters and a squad of six or eight freshmen. Only sophomores and upperclassmen are eligible for varsity teams.

Two debates are scheduled to take place before Christmas and the varsity squad will work with Prof. Davidson in preparing for these engagements following the selections. The first debate is with the University of Southern California on or about November 4 and the two teams will debate Montana and British Columbia in a triangular meet a week before Christmas vacation. According to present arrangements Idaho will travel to Vancouver.

For the first time, Idaho will have a freshman squad of debaters. The need of one has been felt for a long time, for it will put Idaho up to par with the debate departments of other leading universities, give the freshmen more of a chance to get debating experience, and develop more material for varsity squads. A good schedule for the freshmen is now in the making. It will probably include debates with such schools as Lewiston State normal, Cheney normal, Gooding college, and other smaller universities.

More Interest
Debating will be much more interesting all the way around this year. New or interesting methods will have audience decisions, and will be no less profound questions than heretofore. Further, an entirely new style of debating—one which includes cross questioning by the opposing speakers—will be used. Every effort will be made in arranging the debates to make them as informal and realistic as possible.

Big Schedule
The second semester, Idaho debaters will have an opportunity that they have never had before, namely, of representing Idaho on an extensive trip down the coast. The three debaters who show up best in the first semester's work will be put through very thorough training and sent on a ten day trip as far south as Los Angeles, debating eight or ten such schools as O. A. C., Stanford, Berkeley, U. S. C., U. of C. Southern Branch, Pomona, U. of Nevada, U. of Utah, and other schools. It is therefore advisable that it will be best for all who have debating ambitions to try out for the first semester's work. However, one need not make the squad at the first tryout in order to debate the second semester, for there will be another tryout immediately after Christmas vacation, in which new men, and those who failed to make the squad the first time, will be given another chance.

It is probable, that those who make the squad on October 7 will not need to try out again, but will be eligible for teams throughout the entire year. In the second semester there will be the traditional triangle with Washington and Oregon, in addition to the Southern California trip. Also, if Oxford sends over a team as she is expected to, we will probably debate her again.

The varsity women's debate tryout will be held in about two weeks.

The coat fall didn't spread out like a turkey's tail, the neck didn't fit like it was modeled on a silo, the trousers weren't made for a parachute—in fact it didn't need pruning anywhere. It was perfect. But just then the rising bell rang out, and he knew he had been dreaming.

SCHOOL OF RELIGION ABANDONED AT CAL.

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, Oct. 1.—P. I. P.—In cooperation with the President of the University, the School of Religion as a separate college has been abandoned and is now merged into the University Graduate School. The work required for both graduate and undergraduate degrees in Divinity have been incorporated in a revised schedule. The change was largely brought about by the addition of new courses and increased expenses due to the selection of a high-grade faculty now ranking as among the best in the country.

FOLLY"

In the southwest, Boise is showing unusually early season strength, having taken the small Kuna team into camp 85 to 0. Last year all Basler's proteges could do was to win 4 to 0 on two safeties. Welsar is expected to have another good team and Nampa can always be relied upon to have a strong club. The Bulldogs are under a new coaching system this year, a mentor by the name of Hutton having succeeded Coach Harrington. Caldwell and Parma are unknown quantities so far.

In the south central district there is a large number of good clubs in the making. Twin Falls started its season with a 13 to 0 victory over Shoshone, and this fall may finally come back into the race. Filer lost some good men but can be expected to be a strong contender. Rupert and Burley may also be heard from, although both teams lost valuable men. The real threat in this district, however, seems to be the Gooding eleven, which last year all but copied the south central title. The title scramble in this district will be a horse race from start to finish.

High school squads all over the state have been depleted of good men by graduation and the new eight semester rule, but there is no reason to believe that the Gem state will not produce more and more boys who will be outstanding in athletic prowess. There are a number of stars who did not graduate, and the all-state selections this year should find just as good men as those of a year ago; in fact, with more and better coaching the quality of the material should gradually improve.

FROSH PEP RALLY ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Student Rally Held Wednesday at First Open Practice

The first general rally for the Idaho students was held at MacLean field, Wednesday afternoon at 4 p.m. during open practice of the varsity and freshman squads, John McMurray yell king and his two assistants had charge of the program for the afternoon.

New yells and Idaho songs were sung by more than 500 students from all four classes assembled to watch the gridsters work in the first open practice since the start of the season, September 15.

The annual freshman rally will be held Friday evening on the university campus before the first game of the season. A freshman meeting was held Thursday evening and plans were outlined for the first rally.

President Elmo Thomas appointed a committee to handle all arrangements and the freshman agreed to assemble at 7 o'clock on the campus Friday.

RULING GOVERNS USE AERIAL GAME

Second Incomplete Forward Pass of a Series Brings Five Yard Penalty

Development of forward passing technique to a still higher level may result from the new restriction imposed on the aerial game by the football rules committee, in the opinion of Charley Erb, Idaho grid mentor. The rule, which provides a five yard penalty on the second incomplete pass of a series, will, however, make little difference if any, Erb believes.

"The short, trickier pass over the line will stay in the game," he said recently. "Receivers now will be better trained, and will drop fewer offerings. Nor will the desperate passing barrage, resorted to by losing teams at the last minute, be at all affected. In that state of the game, with the other team ahead on points, the loss of yardage by penalty is nothing."

MEN LEAVE SUNDAY ON FORESTRY TRIP

Twenty-two Students To Study Two Weeks Near Pierce

Twenty-two men, including 18 graduating seniors and four juniors in the forestry school, will leave Sunday morning on a two-week study trip. The men will go to various parts of the Clearwater Timber company near Pierce, Idaho, it was announced. Dean F. G. Miller and other members of the staff of the school of forestry will be in charge of the field trip. The party will return October 16.

All persons graduating from the school of forestry this year are required to make this field trip, Dean Miller said. On this trip various phases of the lumbering industry and problems pertaining to forestry are taken up. A map of several sections of timber area will be made by the students showing the topography, and the amount and size of timber in these areas. A thorough study will be made of logging operations as carried on by the Clearwater Timber company, Dean Miller stated, and data will be gathered for volume and growth studies.

Sample plots for the purpose of making future growth studies will be laid out by the students. The study of the practicability of returning to areas for the second cut will also be taken up during the trip. During the two weeks the men will live in one of the company camps provided for by the Clearwater Timber company.

Men who will make the trip, as announced by Dean Miller, are: seniors, G. W. Pike, Eugene V. Phelps, J. C. Baird, W. Beals, F. C. Borroughs, William Calendar, Floyd Godden, E. G. Greene, Carl A. Gustafson, T. L. Heggie, H. C. Johnston, H. C. Hoffman, W. H. Lansdon, Mark Letrabas, W. M. Salling, J. W. Spose, A. W. Toole and G. V. Williams. Juniors, Robert Davis, Charles A. Gregory, A. B. Hatch, and C. A. Remington.

O.A.C. GRID TEAM MEETS GRIZZLIES

Open Coast Season Saturday at Missoula; Aggies More Experienced

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, Corvallis, Oct. 1.—O. A. C. will open the Pacific coast conference football schedule when the Orange and Black squad meets the University of Montana at Missoula Saturday. Last year the Grizzlies invaded the Oregon State campus and were defeated by the score of 27 to 7.

The team stopped off at Pasco, Wash., Thursday afternoon to remove the train cramps and arrived at Missoula Friday. Coach Paul J. Schissler's men will have a slight advantage in experience over the Montana squad as the Grizzlies have not played a game this season whereas the Orange and Black warriors triumphed over the Multnomah club here Saturday to the tune of 67 to 0.

Montana has been titled one of the dark horses of the conference and Schissler's men are mentioned as the "mystery team" so the outcome of this game will be watched with interest.

The Orange and Black punting will probably be taken care of by either Denman or Jarvis, but Coach Schissler has two or three more booters who can be called on any time. "These are Schullmerich, the 'Iron Horse' fullback, Liebe and Jim Dixon, both linemen. Dixon, who was an all-coast tackle last year, played fullback in his freshman year.

Montana will probably use Bill Kelly, all-coast quarterback, to do the punting for the Grizzlies. The Oregon Staters have lots of respect for this lad Kelly since he paid a visit to the Corvallis institution last year with the Montana team.

CALIFORNIA FROSH GRID SQUAD FAST

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, Oct. 1.—P. I. P.—The usual ballyhoo of having the strongest freshman football squad in the history of the university seems to be more or less well-founded this year. Some of the finest prospects of the state, as well as a few outstanding prospects from the East, completed their registration last week. The dominant fact in the roster of the yearling outfit is the unusually heavy poundage, which should yield a first line squad averaging at least 185 pounds.

Included in the list are Dick Van Vleet of Covina; Johnny Lehnors of Hollywood High, Frank Anthony, ex-captain from Venice High, Francis Tappan, captain of last year's L. A. High, Bill McKee of Springfield, Ohio, Allen De Hoag from Compton; Vernon McClung, all-state wingman from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and George Williams of Bakersfield.

KNIGHTS ELECT ON WEDNESDAY

Fill Vacancies Caused by Men Not Returning; Membership Discussed

Election of officers to fill vacancies caused by students failure to return to school was held Tuesday by the Idaho chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights. Joe Garber was elected royal scribe, Harry Jones, chancellor of the exchequer, and Claire Cluiter, royal recorder. The meeting was presided over by Mac Hardwick, honorable duke.

At the meeting several names were voted upon for membership but the complete list will not be announced for a number of days. Plans were made at the meeting for the handling of the crowds at the varsity and frosh games Saturday.

The installation of a system whereby records of each man in the organization will be kept while he is in college was begun and these will be forwarded to the national headquarters. The knights agreed to work in closer harmony with the student body in caring for visiting teams and gatherings on the campus.

PLANS OUTLINED FOR "GEM" THURS.

Temporary Staff for Year Book to Be Announced Soon

A meeting for all interested candidates for the positions on the "Gem of the Mountains," staff was held Thursday afternoon and tentative plans for the yearbook were drawn up, no staff has been named, according to Leland Chapman, editor.

"The temporary staff will probably be announced next week," Mr. Chapman said, in discussing the plans for the year. "There will be some changes before the end of the semester although most of the positions will be permanent. The post of associate editor who is usually chosen editor the following year will be selected by the 'Gem' board this week, with the selection subject to the approval of the executive board."

Chapman leaves Friday for Seattle where he will outline the plans of the year book with the engravers, the Western Colortype and Engraving company of that city. Contract for printing has not been let yet.

HAMILTON ELECTED SENIOR PRESIDENT

John Hamilton was elected president of the senior class Thursday night at a meeting held in room 310 of the Administration building at 8 o'clock. After his election Mr. Hamilton took charge of the meeting and the following officers were elected: Alma Baker, vice president; Ethel Green, secretary, and Byron Berry, treasurer. Mr. Hamilton will appoint other necessary committees, in the near future, so as to get the general business of the class under way as soon as possible.

It pays to look well — The Idaho Barber Shop.

Snow Halts Football Mentors' Conference

On the first day of the recent cold wave's visit to the northwest, occasional flurries of snow fall in Moscow. During one of these wintry spasms, Charley Erb, Idaho football coach, who is a product of California's warm, sunny southland, was seated in his office conferring with a group of railroad representatives.

Charley happened to glance out of the window; he started as if he had seen a ghost, and leaped to his feet, exclaiming:

"For the love—Look at that! Snowing! September! Gosh!"

The conference was broken up while Charley went to take a look at this real thing.

"Wait a minute, gentlemen," he said. "I've got to call my wife. And I have a young son who's never seen it. He'll be tickled to death."

FOUR SELECTED ON W.A.A. BOARD

Four new members were elected to serve on the Woman's Athletic association executive board at a special meeting called by Rose Freus, president. Members elected to take places left vacant by students returning to school are Margaret Dickenson, Gertrude Gould, Elva Bowdish and Virginia Alley. Elva Reid was chosen hiking manager, Mildred Gilbertson, volley ball manager and Helen Taylor, tennis manager.

W. A. A. has been granted rights to concessions at the university games for this year. Members will sell candy and hot dogs at the game Saturday. Meetings this year are to be held the first Tuesday in each month at 5 o'clock, the first one being next Tuesday, October 5.
