WEEKEND TRIPS TO CONTAGION AREAS FROWNED UPON

Health Committee Asks Students to Take Safety Measures

DISEASE IS REPORTED

Voluntary Action Asked to Precede Restrictions by Administration

With reports of contagion being issued from many north Idaho towns, students are asked to refrain from making weekend visits to these places. In a statement issued Thursday by Dr. J. W. Barton, chairman of the faculty committee on health, the committee asks that students take reasonable measures for safety of not only themselves, but others on the campus, or administration restrictions will be put into force.

Doctor Barton's statement follows: "Only a few cases of illness have been handled by the health forces of the university this fall. The cases thus handled have been shown to be due to contractions outside of Moscow.

"It is reported with good authority that many of the towns in eastern Washington and northern Idaho are experiencing near epidemic sieges of such diseases as scarlet fever, mumps and spinal meningitis. The weekend visits of students to these towns have accounted for most of our cases of illness thus far. Shall we continue to take the risk of repeating our experience of last year when some students lost their lives by such means? We all answer 'No', of course, but how is this to be accomplished?"

"Either the students should regulate these matters to the point of reasonable safety or it will be necessary for the administration, to establish such restrictions as will attain these results. Let us hope that the latter procedure shall not be found necessary."

HOME ECONOMICS GRADS ARE ACTIVE

Sixteen Who Received Degree Last June Are in Professional Field

Sixteen young women who took the home economics degree at the University of Idaho last June are active in the professional field and in research work and three of them are keeping their own homes, according to a survey completed by Miss Katherine Jensen, director of the home economics curriculum. Fourteen members of the class are engaged in high school teaching, one in extension work in Idaho and the other is doing Purnell research work. Of the 14 teachers, 11 have schools in Idaho and three in Washington.

The following graduates are teaching in Idaho high schools:

- Helen May Austin, Boise, teaching in Gooding high school; Esther Margaret Beattie, Boise, teaching at Soda Springs; Esther Hedvig Edeon, McCammon, teaching at Fruitland; Johannah Bertha Gardner, Boise, teaching at Kellogg; Mary Agatha Raymond, Moscow, teaching at Leadore; Leona Clare Hughes, Roseberry, teaching at Pocatello; Millie Jane McCoy, Meridian, teaching at Burley; Helen Lydia Nettler, Spokane, Wash., teaching at Lapwai; Minnie Winona Stunz, Boise, teaching at Jerome; Mary Elizabeth Williamson, Moscow, teaching at Elk River. The following are teaching in Washington:
- Helen Bede Parsons, Moscow, teaching at Oakesdale; Ardath Marie Scarth, Caldwell, teaching at Spokane; and Mabel Griffith, Burley, teaching at St. John.

BOOK SHELF WILL OPEN MONDAY

Popular Fiction To Be Loaned by English Club

Starting Monday, books comprising this year's English club loan shelf will be available every day between 9 and 10 o'clock in the morning and 2 to 3 o'clock in the afternoon in the main hall next to the library, according to Marjory Simpson, committee chairman. This book shelf, consisting of the best popular fiction, has been maintained by the English club since 1924, and has received increasing patronage each year from both students and faculty. About twenty books will be placed on the shelf immediately, Miss Simpson stated, while a supplementary list of new fall fiction has been ordered. Rental is ten cents for each book for three days, with an additional charge for each day thereafter. New titles include "Show Boat", Edna Ferber's popular new story of a floating theatre on the Mississippi, "Sorrel and Son", by Esther Forbes, a novel of Boston life in the days of Longfellow and Lowell, "The Hounds of Spring" by Sylvia Thompson, and "Nigger Heaven", Carl van Vechten's novel of negro life in New York.

FIVE ELECTED TO DRAMATIC GROUP

Honorary Fraternity Selects King, Merrill, Honeywell, Brown, Darling

The Curtains, honorary dramatic fraternity, announces the election to membership of Cameron King, Beardslee Merrill, Alene Honeywell, Beulah Brown and Dorothy Darling. Membership in the Curtains is given for proficiency in acting, play writing, production and stage design. Cameron King, a character actor of unusual ability, did perhaps his best work as Riches in "Everyman" and as Friar Laurence in "Romeo and Juliet". Beardslee Merrill has taken parts in "The Romantic Age", "Captain Applejack", "Romeo and Juliet", "Homespun" and in Little Theatre plays. Alene Honeywell shared the leading roles in "Tea Hawks" last year's Pep Band show, and has also appeared in Little Theatre groups. Beulah Brown took the leading woman's part as the colonial girl in last year's commencement play, "Homespun". Dorothy Darling has begun her second year as property manager for both class and A. S. U. I. dramatic productions.

DISTANCE RUNNERS IN SEATTLE MEET

Six Vandal Cross Country Men to Leave to Enter Contest

Six Vandal cross country runners, accompanied by Coach George Philbrook, left Thursday at 3 o'clock for Seattle to participate in the annual Northwest cross country run. The men making the trip are: Mathews, Cleaver, Aschenbrenner, Chisholm, Klingner, and Gehrk. These men were picked at the tryout held last Friday. The race will be over a four and a half mile course and will end between halves of the Cougar-Husky football game.

There will be six teams competing in the meet. Oregon Agricultural college, University of Oregon, University of Washington, Montana State, Washington State college, and the University of Idaho.

ONE-ACT PLAYS SCORE BIG HIT

Productions Presented to Good Crowd Thursday; Show Again Tonight

Three one-act plays, opening this year's program, were presented at the auditorium last night by the advance and elementary play production classes under the direction of Professor John F. Cushman. The plays scored a big hit with the audience, which crowded the auditorium. These plays are to be given again this evening at 8 o'clock. No admission is charged. Considerable talent was displayed by several of the members of the casts Thursday night, and indicates plenty of material for the bigger productions to be given later this year. Outstanding students in the classes in play production were chosen to make up the casts for the plays.

The first play Thursday night was "Goldilocks", which portrayed the life of a little hunchback girl in the London slums. The cast is Jessie Musser as Annie; Jean Collette as Mrs. Moss; Louise Lamelle as Liza; John Taylor as Jack.

"In the Darkness" was the second play given. The cast includes Lois E. Russell as Lizzie; Mac Hardwick and Max Newhouse as Nathan; Beryl Smith as Bess; Arthur Ensign as Arth.

The story of a Brooklyn shop girl was portrayed in "Happiness", the third play. This cast includes Beardslee Merrill as Phillip Chandos; Burdette Balknap as Fritz Scoweroff; Violet Spurgeon as Mrs. Crystal-Pole; Beulah Brown as Jenny, the shop girl.

CHAPMAN NAMES STAFF FOR ANNUAL

Permanent Appointments to Be Made Early Next Semester

Leland L. Chapman, editor of the Idaho annual, "The Gem of the Mountains", announced today the staff which he has selected to assist him in making up the yearbook.

WRITES ON IDAHO'S FOOTBALL HISTORY

Early Rivalry Between Idaho and W. S. C. Covered in Blue Bucket Story

Football days of a quarter of a century ago, which old Idaho students will remember as filled with a bitter rivalry with the neighboring Washington State college team, will be brought back in the first issue of the Blue Bucket, quarterly literary and humorous magazine, which comes off the press November 3rd. G. P. Mix, Moscow, who played four years against the old Cougar eleven, has written an account of early football relations between the two schools. Tom Owings, 1926 team captain of the Vandals, has written an article, as has Coach Charley Erb, a newcomer in northwest football.

4 INTRAMURAL DEBATES THURS.

Alpha Chi, Phi Phi, Beta Chi and Theta Teams Are Victorious

Intramural debates last night gave the girls a lead over the men. Of the four debates three were won by women's groups. The Alpha Chis, affirmative, defeated the Phi Phis, negative, on the question, "Resolved: That it would be advisable for each social fraternity house on the campus to house a house mother." The Phi Phis also won from the Betas on the same question.

ROOTERS TO ATTEND CONTEST WITH BEARS

University of Nevada, Oct. 21—PIP—When the Wolves pour over the Sierras to invade the stadium of the Golden Bear, in the Nevada-California game on November 13, approximately 150 rooters will accompany them by special train.

BABY VANDALS TO PLAY SATURDAY

Have Tough Crew in Spokane College Team; Game Called at 12:30

The Idaho frosh have a tough assignment when they meet Spokane College Saturday at 12:30 o'clock on MacLean field in a preliminary to the Vandal-Coyote game.

"The entire frosh squad with the exception of Frazer, quarterback, and Munden and Price, linemen, is in good condition for the game," said Coach "Syb" Klefner. He predicts a hard struggle, but is optimistic as to the outcome.

The frosh have a record of one game won and one lost. They defeated Lewis and Clark high school in the first game of the season, 34 to 12, and dropped the second to Ellensburg normal, 7 to 0. Coach Klefner has been putting his team up against the varsity daily. With a two weeks lay-off the rookies should be in fighting trim. So far this season the frosh have showed a strong defense, but their offense has not reached the highest point.

There are at present only a few men on the squad who are certain of their positions. Kerahlsnik from all indications will hold down the fullback job. Diehl, Kirkpatrick, and Christians are practically sure of their line berths. The remaining positions are still in the air. After this week's game Coach Klefner will have his team pretty well picked for the rest of the season.

JUDGING TEAMS TO LEAVE TUESDAY

Idaho Will Be Represented at Portland Stock Show

Four stock and grain judging teams from the University of Idaho will leave next Thursday with the football team, to compete in the annual Portland International livestock show held there next weekend. Each team consists of three men and an alternate with the exception of the cattle judging team, which will be composed of five men and an alternate.

Those making the trip will receive a gold medal in recognition of their efforts. Teams winning a first place at Portland will be presented with a silver cup, which will be engraved. There is a chance that if the teams make a good showing this year that the animal husbandry judges of 1928 will be sent to Chicago to represent Idaho in the stock judging contest there in December, according to Royal Irving, manager.

FROSH PLAN BIG ANNUAL BONFIRE

Name Committee for Building Operations; Frosh Excused from Classes

Plans for the annual bonfire preceding the Idaho-W. S. C. football game were outlined at a recent meeting of the frosh committee in charge. November 4 has been selected for the event, and on that day all freshmen, according to President Upham, will be excused from classes to work on the building of the bonfire, providing they register at the fairgrounds for work. The "C" club will have charge of the registering. Joe Thomas, frosh president, asks that all freshmen who have cars and can assist the committee Saturday and Sunday mornings of this week-end report to him.

COUNCIL TO RULE NEVADA FORENSICS

University of Nevada, Oct. 21—PIP—A new debating council was completed Wednesday evening when both Caucus and Clifton debating societies, announced their approval of the plan. The new council is a means of centralizing all university debating activities under one head. The council members chosen meet twice a week, decide upon propositions for debates, make all contracts, and conduct all forensic arrangements of the campus.

VESPER SERVICE NEXT SUNDAY

Students in Music Department to Give Program in Auditorium

The Music department of the university will give a vesper service Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the auditorium. A program of vocal solos by Miss Jennie F. W. Johnson and Miss Nevada Bergman has been arranged, according to E. Orlo Bangs, head of that department.

- The program follows:
- Fantasia in F major..... Chopin
  - Nevada Bergman
  - Ab, Rendimi (Mitsras)..... Rossini
  - Choral (Matthew Passion)..... Bach
  - Allouelle (Mozart)..... Mozart
  - Jennie F. W. Johnson
  - Homage a Brahms..... Debussy
  - Rhapsody dans L'eau..... Debussy
  - Miss Bergman
  - Morning Hymn..... Henschel
  - A Prayer for a Child..... Nyvall
  - Norwegian Love Song..... C. Leightner
  - Miss Johnson
  - Rhapsody in B Minor..... Brahms
  - Etude D'Etat..... Elms

UPPERCLASSMEN TO CHECK GRADES

Engineering Students Will Help Underclassmen In Difficulties

Engineering students in upperclasses will play the role of Big Brother if plans which were discussed at an informal meeting of a group of engineers Tuesday evening are carried out. The idea now is to keep a check on the grades of all the underclassmen in the engineering school, and if any members experience difficulty and receive low grades in any course, upperclassmen would assist him in overcoming the difficulties. The idea aims at preventing discouragement among freshmen who would probably make out much better in a difficult course if they had someone assisting them. A higher average for the college would also result.

SENIOR FORESTERS RETURN FROM TRIP

Make Two Weeks Camp Near Pierce to Study Timber

The senior foresters have recently returned from a two weeks' field trip into the white pine belt of north Idaho. The trip resulted from the generous invitation extended by the Clearwater Timber company to the School of Forestry to use the company's holdings for a field laboratory. Taking advantage of this opportunity, the class in forest management left Sunday, October 3, for the Clearwater Timber company's camp No. 2, located five miles east of Pierce, Idaho. The latter part of the journey was made through torrents of rain and punctuated by many plunges into bottomless mud holes. However, a safe landing was accomplished by all at camp two, just in time to answer a call irresistible to all hungry foresters.

The first week's work was directed by Dean Miller, Mr. Nettleton, and Mr. Wieschuegel. The first two days were devoted to cruising a section of timber composed mostly of white pine. Stump and stem analyses were made on timber just felled. Several temporary sample plots were laid out in virgin timber. Mr. Wieschuegel took the class over the logging operation explaining the various types of machinery used. This class also made time studies on skidding and decking the logs.

Sample Plot Work
Mr. Nettleton, who had directed the cruising and stem analysis work, reported.

ENGINEERS TO HAVE COMMON STUDY HALL

A reading, study and lounging room in the basement of the engineering building, for the use of engineers, is a plan that will probably become a reality if ideas of the engineers are carried out. The space now available will be equipped, and provisions made for engineering publications and periodicals, and so arranged that engineers may do their studying there if they so desire. An additional advantage pointed out by the promoters is that it will enable the classes to meet each other, and give the upperclassmen a chance to meet the new class that comes each year.

1924 GRADUATE MARRIES
Delbert Roise, Moscow, graduate in the class of 1924 of the University of Idaho, was married to Mildred Sisson of Seattle, last Saturday in Spokane. They will live at Sandpoint where Mr. Roise is employed in the offices of the Humbird Lumber Co.

COYOTES PROMISE TOUGH BATTLE FOR VANDALS SATURDAY

Six Crippled Varsity Regulars to Watch Game From Bench

FROSH GAME FIRST

College of Idaho Has Practically Same Team as Last Year

With six varsity regulars on the bench, Idaho's football eleven will mix with the College of Idaho Coyotes on MacLean field tomorrow at 2:00 o'clock following a preliminary game between the Vandal freshmen and Spokane college varsity squad. The Coyotes are no mean opponents and even with a full-strength lineup, Coach Charley Erb said that he would be glad enough to have the Vandals come out of the game with a victory. Although the hope is that Idaho has a better team than last year, the College of Idaho squad that lost the game last fall by only two points, is practically the same team that will invade northern Idaho tomorrow, and with another year's experience to its credit.

"Josh" Lowell Back
"Josh" Lowell, the outstanding player of the Coyotes, is a man to be feared. This year he has been running wild against most of the smaller colleges of this section, and garnering touchdowns almost at will. Last Saturday the College of Idaho defeated Cheney normal 27 to 7 and could have run up a larger score. The probable lineup which will face the Vandals Saturday is J. Albertson and P. Albertson, ends; Palmer and Swin, tackles; Dicus and Keating, guards; Gilliam, center; Burnett, quarterback; Strickland and Lowell, halfbacks; and Crookham, fullback.

Probable Idaho Squad

MANAGING EDITORS SELECTED TUESDAY

Burton Moore and George Young Named at Special Election

Editors for the 1927 volumes of The Argonaut and Gem of the Mountains were elected Tuesday afternoon, at a special student body election. Burton L. Moore, '29, of Boise, was named managing editor of The Argonaut and George Young, '28, Pocatello, was selected as associate editor of the Gem of the Mountains.

Mr. Moore, selected as managing editor of The Argonaut, has served this semester as acting managing editor. He has had one year's experience on the student paper, together with reportorial experience on the Idaho Daily Statesman at Boise and the Star-Mirror at Moscow.

VARITY WOMEN DEBATERS NAMED

Seven Girls Selected Following Tryouts for Idaho Team

Members of the varsity women's debate teams were announced Thursday by Prof. H. Carter Davidson, debate coach. The team was selected following the tryouts held last Tuesday night. A meeting for those on the team has been called for Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock in room 204. Ad building, according to Mr. Davidson.

Those picked to make up the squad are Myrna Adams, Pauline Brown, Lois Gamble, Dorothy Klenhols, Ina McMurray, and Flo Mathewson.

RECEIVES CHALLENGES
UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, October 21 (PIP)—As a result of winning the national championship for two consecutive seasons, Washington's varsity rifle team has received more challenges from schools eager to topple it from its pedestal than it can possibly accept. "Our list of challengers reads like an inventory of the leading colleges and universities of the country," declared the manager. One hundred and ten candidates signed up while 40 were turned away, on account of limited facilities.

The Orphan

It has been kicked from pillar to post. It has been gouged from this side and threatened from that. It has been cursed loudly all over the campus and its praises have come in whispers. It is an orphan, struggling for existence, with only begrudged help from any side. Departments fight over it, for its services are valuable. But when it comes to credit for its achievement, it gets left out in the cold. It has struggled through a half dozen years of existence and although it has been made to climb veritable mountains of opposition, it has come out thus far the best known organization on the campus. It is known as widely throughout the state and the northwest as the university itself and the Vandals who represent the school. It is one of the greatest advertising mediums there is in the school organization. It is the Pep band.

It seems strange that this band, which shared equal honors with the football squad in putting Idaho securely on the South Idaho map, should be made to fight, tooth and nail, for its existence. It started as the only organization of its kind and put out pep music that put every organization with which it competed, into the background. It is deserving of support.

The A. S. U. I. has shown a tendency to recognize the Pep band. But little help has been forthcoming. The band is without a means of support, other than its annual show. Now it seems there is a definite move to take this away from it. True, this feeling has not been expressed, but it seems that it will be. And the show has been the means of sending the band on its trips. And, largely financing itself, the band has carried Idaho into remote corners of the state; and it has made friends thereby.

The band has cheerfully given its services for any enterprise it has been asked. With 10 minutes advance notice, the entire organization has responded, cheerfully, and given all it could toward making the affair a success. But yet these things seem to have been forgotten in the squabbles which must be termed selfish.

It seems strange that any person or group of persons who have the interest of the whole university at heart cannot give unselfishly that the Pep band can function as the leaders have meant that it should function.

Wonderful Filthy Lucre

Boxes for an opera which Queen Marie of Roumania will attend in New York are selling for $1000 and up, depending upon the closeness of the seat to the royal box.

My, oh my! What couldn't we do with $1000? Why, that's a fortune, measured in terms of us, who must scrape to beat Old Nick to meet the monthly demands of the house manager and wash woman, not to mention the girl and the clerk who sells us our cigarettes.

Let's imagine we had just one opera box to sell for a thousand iron men—and we sold it. Here's what we'd do:

First off we'd pay our two-months-old board bill and get on speaking terms with the house manager again.

We'd go to Portland—in a stateroom—to see the Vandals play the Aggies. And we'd bet on Idaho, because we'd be rolling in lucre.

We'd pay our dues to those societies which have been crying ever since school started.

We'd buy us a second hand Ford and join the aristocrats on the campus. And, too, we'd take the little girl out for a ride occasionally, because we could buy a new tire and lots of gas.

We'd be able to step our little girl out in the open; because even if the house manager did see us, he couldn't kick. Because he's already been paid.

We'd buy a jeweled fraternity pin.

We'd lay off the breakfasts at the house for the whole year and eat at the Nest; for what is two bits a day to a man who has a thousand pieces of silver?

We'd take up those five bum checks the bank has paid, although the account was flat.

We'd pay off the note we signed to stay in school last year.

Oh, Lord! Let's don't think of it! My nickle feels awfully lone-some; and my "I. O. U.'s" cry out loud!

SUZZALLO FORMALLY FIRED BY REGENTS

BOARD MEETS IN SECRET SESSION FOR EXECUTIVE ACTION

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Oct. 21—Following action taken in secret session, the board of regents Saturday announced the discharge of Dr. Henry Suzzallo as president of the University of Washington. The discharge is to become effective November 30, and terminates Doctor Suzzallo's "indefinite leave of absence" which the regents granted him when he was ousted as president two weeks ago. Simultaneously with the discharge announcement, the regents instructed the comptroller that Doctor Suzzallo's salary would terminate the day the discharge became effective. Pres. A. H. B. Jordan of the board of regents explained that while the board has legally dismissed Doctor Suzzallo and stop his pay in spite of the contract made last June and expiring June 30, 1927, "the attorney-general, our legal advisor, will be asked to rule upon the question."

ADVICE TO THOSE GOING TO PORTLAND

- 1. The train will stop at the depot and all those wishing to attend the game will get off to do so. 2. Just because Portland is the City of Roses is no reason why anyone need take anything to keep the stem damp. 3. In case any Idaho student gets lost in the city, a compass would be of use. 4. Remember that Portland is Los Angeles' "Only Rival" in climate, so everybody take their slickers.

A WORD TO NEWCOMERS AT IDAHO IT IS NOT NECESSARY TO BE SKILLED IN THE USE OF A TROWEL IN ORDER TO ATTEND THE MORTAR BOARD DANCE.

GIRLS DIE

"Well," he said, "I guess I will have to be going now. This is chapter meeting night and I'll have to get to the house on time."

"Yes, you see we are having election of officers tonight and I have to conduct the meeting."

"So's your old man," she replied.

"I could strike a woman who continually uses 'so's your old man,' he cried coldly.

"So's your old man!" she added again.

Pale, but calm, he stood over her dead body, smoking revolver in hand. Looking at her for a second, he heard her last words come from between her crimson lips. "So's your old man."

He walked quietly down the street, and was soon at the Oriole's Nest eating a butter horn.

Student Opinion

If only some End-to-End statistician would give a few hours of his time to find out just how far the rubbish found on either side walk leading from the Campus steps to the Administration building would reach, if laid end to end, the answer, I believe, would surprise us. At least it should surprise us. The modern college student, it seems, is so satisfied with his meager knowledge that to him there is nothing new or strange under the sun.

Essentially, you know, we are all striving for a beautiful campus. And you with that cigarette hanging from your lip, you undo everything when you give it a graceful little flip, universally practiced by your kind, and send it spinning out to land, smoking, on the green. You have no more right to mar the beauty of our campus than I have to carve my initials on the president's desk. It is evident that you cannot be stopped by the faculty's courteous posters. The "I" men apparently find it beneath their station to enforce it. What is to be done?

You recall that the faculty had to erect fences to keep us from stamping out the grass. Will a ruling have to be passed prohibiting smoking on the campus altogether to bring us to time? I wonder. C. J. M.

FORESTERS TO HOLD ANNUAL INFORMAL

The annual foresters' dance will be given at the Blue Bucket Inn Saturday evening, October 30. In the past the foresters have given their party as the first all-college dance of the year, but due to the absence of the seniors who were on a field trip for the last two weeks, it has been delayed this year.

This affair has been traditionally considered one of the most delightful all college dances of the year, and according to the forestry students in charge, this one is planned to be the best. The Inn will be decorated to bring in the atmosphere of the woods.

ANNUAL ART WORK GOES AHEAD EARLY

Seattle Engraver Confers With Editors on Year Book

Fred S. Wiman, manager of the Western Colorotype and Engraving Company, of Seattle, with which firm the engraving contract for the Gem of the Mountains has been let, was in Moscow Tuesday and Wednesday in conference with members of the Gem of the Mountains staff. Many designs were selected and sketched, and the engraving for the book planned so as to keep within the budget. Mr. Wiman stated that the Gem has progressed further this year than any other of the college annuals with which he has a connection, and that from the plans so far complete, Idaho would be assured of a book equal and probably better than any ever before produced on the campus. The early start said Leland Chapman, editor will allow for time to work out many features heretofore made impossible by lack of time in the spring.

STUDENTS REGISTER FROM MANY STATES

University of Nevada, Oct. 21—PIP—Out of 330 students who completed registration at the university this fall, 609 were from Nevada, 203 from California, and 18 from other states and foreign countries including 3 from China, 1 from India, 1 from Hawaii, 1 from Korea, 1 from the Philippines, 1 from South America, and 1 from South Africa. The 203 from California come from forty different counties of California, and the 609 of Nevada include every county of the seventeen in the state.

To Bob or Not to Bob, Is Question

To bob or not to bob: that is the question. Whether it is nobler in the mind to be bobbed. And follow in the dictates of fashion.

Or to take up arms against it and remain unshorn. With all due apologies to Shakespeare we do feel that our question should rate more applause than that of Hamlet.

Now statistics show that one tenth of one per cent of the girls on the campus still have long tresses. Their reasons for retaining their long locks are varied—"I like to be exclusive", gets the biggest vote, with "somebody wants me to leave it long", as a close second. The somebody referred to is, of course, a mother or father who has mid-victorian notions anyway.

PRINCE ALBERT stepped out into the world nearly twenty years ago. Success was immediate . . . and outstanding. Because P. A. measures up to the first and greatest rule for success: It has the goods! The school of experience has produced no finer tobacco than this.

Just buy yourself a tidy red tin of P. A. and tamp a load flush with the muzzle of your old jimmy-pipe. Connect with a match, and let that first wonderful drag tell you that no other tobacco can come within a mile of this for sheer pipe-quality.

Cool as a dormitory radiator. Sweet as an extra cut. Fragrant as a peach-orchard. P. A. can't bite your tongue or parch your throat—another important detail. Get yourself some Prince Albert today. No other tobacco can bring you so much downright smoke-pleasure.

PRINCE ALBERT
—no other tobacco is like it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and punch removed by the Prince Albert process.

DUFF FIRED FROM IDAHO GRID TEAM

Clint Duff, halfback and one of the eight letter men on the Vandal football squad, has turned in his suit and will play no more this season, it became known today. Mental attitude and failure to observe training rules were given by Coach Charles Erb as reason for Duff's removal from the team.

Duff earned his letter last year when he played more or less regularly at halfback. He created a sensation two years ago as a member of the freshman team by his broken field running. He was chosen for the first string this fall, but has not been in the lineup regularly.

Most Student Bills Are Paid—Eventually

Do students pay their bills? Most of them do. When credit is extended to students, approximately fifty per cent of them meet their obligations within thirty days. Of the remaining fifty, twenty five per cent pay their bills within sixty days; and twenty five per cent are irresponsible.

When a student writes home and says: "Dad, I'm broke"; and Dad replies: "So's your old man", then the only thing left for the poor student to do is to ask for credit. He usually gets it too. But in return he is asked to pay his account promptly each month. Whether he does it or not, it is up to him. A man is as good as his word.

There are different types of students who ask for credit. There is the conscientious kind whose allowance of that check he earned last summer is late getting here. You can bet your goshes in rainy weather that he comes through with the money. On the other hand, there are some who don't care. After they've breathed the Idaho air awhile, however, most of these have a change of heart, dig down deep in the old jeans and plunk down the shekels. Most students pay their bills eventually. Why not now?

MATINEE DANCE NOV. 11

University of Washington, Oct. 21—Washington's Frosh lost their opening game, 6 to 0, to the Ellensburg Normal school last Saturday. The lone score came in the last few seconds of play when Robinson, Normal halfback, ran 27 yards around right end for a touchdown. A wet and soggy field slowed up play. Throughout the game, Washington's frosh kept the ball in Normal's territory.

MISSIONARIES MEET WASHINGTON ELEVEN

Huskies Make First Invasion In 19 Years

Walla Walla, Washington, October 21, 1926.—The game between the University of Washington and Whitman College football teams on October 30 in the new community stadium will be the first appearance of a Husky eleven in Walla Walla for 19 years, and it will be the only contest that Washington will play this year east of the mountains.

The Washington managers consented to come to Walla Walla this year only as a special compliment to the community and to the Whitman coach, "Nig" Berleske. For a number of years Berleske, who has always enjoyed most favorable relations with Washington, has tried to inveigle the Huskies into a game on a Walla Walla gridiron. They steadily refused until this year, when the new community stadium is to be dedicated, and then they accepted the invitation of Berleske to play the inaugural game in the new stadium.

Washington has one of the strongest teams on the coast, and spectators at the game October 30 will have an opportunity of seeing in action one of America's great football machines.

HUSKY ATHLETE BACK FROM ORIENT

University of Washington, Oct. 21, (P.I.P.A.)—Elmer Tesreau, Washington's star speedball pitcher and 1925 football captain, returned from the Orient where the U. of W. nine has just completed a series of games with Nippon teams. Tesreau has been troubled with a sore shoulder all season and in Japan was used in the outfield or as a pinch hitter. Although handicapped by the loss of several daily contests, the Purple and Gold nine is said to be hitting its stride and making things hot for all opposition.

FORESTERS RETURN FROM FIELD TRIP

turned to Moscow Sunday, October 20. Professor Watson then went to the field. The second week was devoted mostly to sample plot work in cut-over stands. These stands were also cruised by Dean Miller. A day was spent in piling and burning brush, various methods being tried and compared.

Dr. Hubert joined them the last day and devoted his time to the study of forest pathology. Dean Miller deducted many promising facts from the study of an area cut-over thirteen years previously. The work of the two weeks' trip was very successful to all concerned, a good volume of data having been collected for class work during the year. Evenings found Dr. Miller leading a general discussion of the problems encountered during the day. Many subjects relative to the treatment of the timber types were discussed by both faculty and class members.

But following age old tradition, not all was work, nor a repetition of the classroom. Never since Robin Hood and his brawny foresters took things into their own hands have foresters been wholly serious. Thus, following Dean Miller's evening meetings there were others of a more subtle character. Here the real policy of the class was determined. "Swede" Gustafson, president of the "Terrible Bolsheviks" presiding, with his executive council, Bill Callender and "Soap Box" Heggie, rendering harmonious aid. Contradictory conclusions handed down by this astute body were revered without question. Adjournment usually found the members emerging from a near-by mud hole.

Go Deer Hunting

Physical exercise, seemingly necessary to the inactive forester's life, consisted of hunting deer, and "Polly" Lehrbas. "Polly" insists he never got lost, but admits the camp didn't seem to be where he left it. Johnnie Baird says he has found a new way to hunt deer. He was collecting the leaves of a skunk cabbage for Dr. Call's living room, when a young deer attacked him. Professor Watson says skunk cabbage is excellent forage. This probably explains the unusual action of the deer. Mr. Watson has been sharing his comprehensive knowledge of plants with the other woods animals, Johnnie says, "the deer would probably have injured me had I not used my head." We have always wondered about his scarcity of hirsute adornment. Pike is still indignant concerning the embarrassing advantage a certain deer took of him.

"Spikie" Gregory and Guy Williams entertained nightly with music, and "Soap Box" Heggie clog danced till it was necessary to remain in one day and rest up.

The return to Moscow was made October 16. Mr. Wieschuegel, followed by the university truck, led the caravan. The truck soon met difficulties and "Don" with his caterpillar tractor was needed to aid navigation. The mud was soft and "plenty deep", so the "Bolsheviks" revelled in their element. Dad says "Wiesie must get through. I didn't see him after he started. Don't remember feeling him."

Those on Trip

Those making the trip were as follows: Dean F. G. Miller, Dr. E. E. Hubert, Prof. C. W. Watson, H. I. Nottleton, E. G. Wieschuegel, J. C. Baird, W. Beals, I. C. Burroughs, Wm. Callender, Robert Davis, Floyd Godden, E. G. Greene, Charles A. Gregory, Carl A. Gustafson, A. B. Hatch, F. L. Heggie, H. C. Hoffman, R. H. Johnston, W. H. Lansdon, Mark Lehrbas, E. V. Phelps, G. W. Pike, C. A. Remington, W. M. Saling, J. W. Space, A. W. Toole, G. V. Williams.

NEVADA UNIVERSITY GETS BRANCH OFFICE

Fraternity and Sorority Halls Will Come to Campus

University of Nevada, Oct. 21—PIP.—An authorized United States post office will be established on the campus, the latter part of this month, through the efforts of Tasker L. Odde, United States Senator.

The postoffice will be a regular station where letters may be registered, stamps sold, money orders issued and a parcel post service established. A United States employee will be at the office during the day to handle all business. Mail for sorority and fraternity houses will be handled through the university station and students will receive their mail much more promptly than in the past.

CREW CALL SOUNDED

University of Washington, Oct. 21, (P.I.P.A.)—Approximately 70 men answered the first crew turnout call issued by Coach Russell Callow last Friday afternoon. Every member of last year's frosh shell reported for the workout. This was the first time at Washington that a yearling crew has reported intact for fall practice. Several of last season's varsity and Jayvee letter winners responded to the first call.

COYOTES PROMISE VANDALS STRUGGLE

today of the Idaho team, Coach Erb intimated that Morris Brimhall, 212 pound guard, who has been out with a bruised hip, might get in the game. "Red" Jacoby, who has been playing regularly at halfback this season, will take Frank Powers' place at quarterback, and Captain "Body" Owings will probably do the punting. Sammy Perrins and either H. H. Hughes or "Boots" Edelblute will start the game at the halfback positions. Troy Moore and James Halliday are slated to hold down the wing positions. The driving forwards of the line will be Kenneth Dean and Con Dewey, tackles; and George Hjort and either Morris Brimhall or Byron Harris, guards. Bud Bliss will hold down his regular center position.

The injured players who will see the game as spectators are Lyle Stark, and John Bauer, guards; "Chaik" Diehl, and Darwin Burgher, halfback; James Garip, tackle; and
