PLACEKICK AFTER INTERCEPTED PASS DEFEATS VANDALS

Erbmen Outplay Aggies in Every Department of Game Saturday

IDAHO STOCK MOUNTS

Muke Turns Tide in Heart-breaking Contest, With Gem Staters on Top

Outplaying the logical contenders for the 1926 pacific coast championship, Idaho's Vandals bowed to a duke and were defeated, 3 to 0, by Oregon Agricultural college last Saturday at Portland. The game displayed the brilliant coaching of Charley Erb and greatly elevated the prestige of the University of Idaho and its football team in the eyes of Pacific coast football fans.

The lone score came in the fourth quarter when an Idaho pass was intercepted by Maples, Oregon quarterback, who raced through a broken field to the Vandals' 13 yard line, and then, unable to drive the ball further, Wes Schulmerich dropped a place kick between the Idaho goal posts. "Red" Jacoby, who played a brilliant game at quarter, was injured in the final period and was carried from the field in an ambulance. His injuries proved to be not so serious as was first expected, and he made the trip home with the team. On an attempted drive through right tackle, three husky Aggie lineemen hit the lightweight quarter at the same time. He was knocked unconscious and the trainer and the doctor were unable to bring him to.

For three quarters and most of the fourth, the game was played in O. A. C. territory. In the second quarter Idaho smashed through the Aggies to their nine yard line and Owings attempted a place-kick, which was blocked by Balcom of O. A. C. and carried back to the Orange 36-yard line.

Idaho gained 189 yards on passes and scrimmage to Oregon's 120. Idaho drove through the O. A. C. line for 48 yards from scrimmage to 88 for the Aggies. Idaho made seven scrimmage first downs to four for O. A. C. and three more from passes to one for O. A. C. Idaho completed six passes against two for the Aggies. Powers' units averaged 33 yards while O. A. C. kickers averaged 23 1/2 yards.

"Sody" Owings and "Red" Jacoby were the most consistent ground gainers for the Vandals, carrying the ball 3 yards and 42 yards respectively. Darwin Burgher, halfback who has been out with injuries since the Montana game, made 27 yards in scrimmage.

Con Dewey, tackle, Bud Bliss, center, and "Chuck" Diehl and Leonard Peall, ends, were the outstanding players of Idaho's first line of defense. For the Aggies, Maples was the only backfield man who could consistently gain ground.

The Portland Oregonian gives praise to Charley Erb as follows:

"Charley Erb showed O. A. C. a wonderfully coached football machine. It looked at times yesterday like another edition of Andy Smith's old California eleven. It had power and aggression."

ALUMNI TO PLAN HOMECOMING DAY

Three Moscow Men Will Plan for Town's Entertainment of Visitors

A. H. Knudson, D. D. Dussalt and Orville Garrison were appointed by Abe Goff, president of the Moscow Alumni association, as an entertainment committee for annual homecoming day, November 6, when the Idaho Vandals tangle with the W. S. C. Gridlers.

Although no definite plans for the two days have been outlined by the committee, it is possible that several features will be scheduled for the entertainment of visiting alumni. Following the annual bonfire Friday evening a mixer may possibly be held, at a place yet to be determined by the committee.

START BASKETBALL

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Oct. 28—PIP—Coach "Nig" Borleski issued the first call for basketball last week and more than fifteen men responded. However this is not all that plan to turn out this fall for several are out for football at the present time. Six of last year's lettermen are back in school this year and there are several freshmen who look like real varsity material.

ALUMNI MEMBER FOR A.S.U.I. BOARD

Cornelison '25, of Moscow Chosen as Executive Representative

Harold H. Cornelison of Moscow, who graduated from the University of Idaho with the class of 1925, has been named alumni representative on the associated student body executive board, it has been announced by Harry Baumhan, president of the A. S. U. I. The appointment of Mr. Cornelison on the board was made by Homer Huddelson of Boise, president of the Idaho alumni association. During his college career, Mr. Cornelison was active on the campus. He was elected by the student body his last year as vice president of the A. S. U. I., served as member of the executive board and was a class president.

NEWS AGENCY TO AUGMENT SERVICE

Pacific Intercollegiate Press Holds Convention at Reno, Nev.

Improved service, both from editorial and advertising angles, is promised by the Pacific Intercollegiate Press, college news distributing agency, as a result of its convention at Reno, Nevada, last Wednesday and Thursday. Idaho was represented by Floyd W. Lansdon, editor of The Argonaut. Mr. Lansdon returned to Moscow late Monday afternoon.

Representatives from 12 Pacific coast institutions attended the conference. These were University of Idaho, University of Oregon, University of British Columbia, University of California, Washington State college, Oregon Agricultural college, Whitman college, Willamette university, Stamford, University of Southern California, University of California, Southern Branch, The University of Washington, a member of the association, was not represented.

The convention next year will be held at the University of British Columbia, Vancouver. It was voted, following an invitation presented by Ted Morrison, editor of the university newspaper. Bids were tendered from the University of Idaho, and the southern branch of the University of California.

Expedited news service for the editorial end and a close union between advertising managers of the member papers was the keynote of the convention. Agreements were reached between members, which, it is believed, will be of great assistance to the 13 colleges which are members of the organization. The delegates, 26 in number, were taken on a tour of historic Nevada points Thursday afternoon, following the morning business session. Their first call was at the famous Comstock mine at Virginia city. According to more or less official history, silver taken from this mine was greatly responsible for keeping Union coffers supplied during the Civil war. Approximately $200,000,000 in silver has been mined here, according to its owners.

The college newspapermen were taken to Carson City, capital of Nevada, where they inspected the state prison, including the unique lethal gas chamber, where state executions are held. From Carson the men were taken to Minden, where a closing banquet and session were held.

FROSH BONFIRE BURNED EARLY

Delegation, Presumably From W. S. C. Ignites Pile of Rubbish

War has been declared early. A delegation of young men, presumably students of Washington State college, took early measures last night to prevent Idaho freshmen from holding their traditional bonfire rally next Friday night, when they lighted about four truckloads of kindling.

Although their first efforts to build the "biggest yet" bonfire were burned in the premature blaze last night, members of the rook class expressed a willingness to call out an augmented crew to make up for the lost effort and they promised the largest bonfire in history.

The fairgrounds, in which the wood was being assembled, presented the appearance of the traditional rally last night. Although only the first bits of trash and wood were heaped on the spot the fire will be, flames shot high in the air, showing a gathering of several hundred students.

According to tradition, as expressed by Cougar students, an attempt should be made at setting off the blaze prematurely. Last year a delegation dropped bits of phosphorus from an airplane but were unsuccessful. Guarding freshmen called guns into play and the attacking air forces were driven off before they caused much damage.

Witnesses say last night's fire was started by a group of young men who headed west on the Pullman highway after they had done their work.

Life is like an empty vase; you must put something into it before you can take anything out.

IDAHO STOCKMEN PLACE SECOND AT PORTLAND EVENT

Californians Nose Gem Staters by 24 Points to Win Judging

DERRICK RANKS HIGH

Competition Keen at Pacific International Exposition This Year

(Special to The Argonaut) Portland, Ore., Nov. 1.—The University of Idaho stock judging team won second place, 24 points out of a possible 500 before the University of California, winners of first place, at the Pacific International Livestock exposition at Portland, according to telegraphic advice received here Monday night. The Idaho team, which took first place last year, won 4518 points, while the University of California was given 4542 points.

Neil Derrick, of Idaho, was third individual high scorer of the competitions. William Braun, of California, was individual high scorer with 942 points out of a possible thousand. The other Idaho men placed as follows: Crawford Nibler, fifth place; Ted Warren, eighth place; and Chester Minkland-Wayne Beaver tied for ninth place.

The following are the team averages for the contests: University of California, 4542; University of Idaho, 4518; Washington State college, 4418; Montana Agricultural college, 4184; Oregon Agricultural college, 4104; University of British Columbia, 4103. The teams placed 12 classes of livestock; three classes of horses and three classes of each in beef cattle, sheep and hogs. They gave oral reasons for two classes of horses, for beef cattle, three for sheep, and two for hogs.

MARY LEWIS WILL SING NOVEMBER 15

Former Metropolitan Opera Star to Appear on Artist Course

Mary Lewis, a runaway orphan girl of Little Rock, Arkansas, who once appeared as a bathing beauty in motion pictures, then as a musical comedy actress, and from musical comedy rose in six years to be a metropolitan star, will sing at the university auditorium on Monday evening, November 15 in the second number of the 1926-27 Artist's course.

Miss Lewis began singing in the choir of the Presbyterian church in Little Rock, helping support her widowed mother with her salary of $30 a month. In 1919 she ran away from home to join a road show which stranded in San Francisco. A year later she went to Hollywood and acted for six months in Christie comedies. She came to New York in June, 1920, got a place in the chorus of the Greenwich Village follies and was promoted from chorus girl to prima donna before the show opened.

In 1921, a leading singer with Zeigfeld's Follies, she studied under Thorne, teacher of Rosa Ponselle and Galli-Curci, and in 1923 made her debut in grand opera at Vienna as Marguerite in "Faust". In 1924, Miss Lewis toured England, in 1925 she sang in Paris in the leading role of "The Merry Widow", then signed with the Metropolitan in New York.

In less than three years after hearing grand opera for the first time, Mary Lewis was singing Marguerite. She now has fifteen major parts in her repertoire, including Louise, the Manon of Massenet, Marguerite, Mimi, Gilda in "Rigoletto", Antonia in the "Tales of Hoffman" and Thais. Her greatest triumph in England was Mary in "Hugh the Drover."

Tickets for the Artist's course are available through the public events committee, Professor Bangs, chairman, and at Hodgkin's Drug store.

ENGLISH CLUB TO HAVE FIRST PARTY

Plan "Get Acquainted" Event to Be Held in Gym November 19

The English Club plans a "get acquainted" party to be given November 19 at the gym, according to the social committee. "None of the plans for the party will be made known until that night," said Carol DuBois, chairman of the committee. "We are attempting to get everyone of the 125 members of the club there that night."

All English majors and minors are members of the club. Anyone else who has made semester A's in English may belong. Mary Kelley and Dorothy Darling have requested that all dues be paid before the party.

INSTALL MORTAR BOARD

Whitman College, Walla Walla, Oct. 30—PIP—Mortar Board, women's national activity honorary, was officially installed on the Whitman campus last Saturday by Miss Luella Galliver, assistant dean of women at the University of Wyoming.

COMPLETE PLANS FOR HOMECOMING EVENT SATURDAY

Preparations Made to Care For Larger Crowd Than Ever Before

DECORATING HOUSES

Entertainments to Be Given By Various Groups on Campus

Preparations for Homecoming have been extensively carried on, and plans have been practically completed by the different committees to handle a larger crowd this year than ever before. Ten thousand people are expected to attend the W. S. C. game.

Friday and Saturday night both the sororities and fraternities will entertain. Smokers and firesides will be held which will give the graduates an opportunity to renew old friendships and to engage in reminiscences. Game for Saturday

Saturday the big W. S. C. game will hold the spotlight. The Athletic ball, which is a formal affair, will be the diversion of the evening. During the game, programs of an entirely original type will be sold. They will include pictures of the opposing teams, both coaches, the pep band, besides many other features. Be sure and bring an extra fifteen cents for one.

The executive board of the student body is offering two cups for the best decorated group houses, instead of one, as formerly. One will go to the men's houses and one to the women's. Some clever ideas in the way of decorations are anticipated. The judging will be in front of the houses, so each house will be given a chance to show

FIGHTING IDAHO TEAM IS READY

Vandals Confident and Physically Fit for Homecoming Battle

It will be fighting, confident, and physically fit team that takes the field next Saturday afternoon to face the Washington State Cougars in the annual gridiron classic which this year is the chief attraction of Idaho's Homecoming.

Every man on the Vandal team came through the grueling Oregon Aggie battle in good shape and all turned out for practice Monday evening. "Red" Jacoby, dashing little quarterback, who was taken to a Portland hospital during the game apparently seriously hurt, is again as chipper as ever. The shock sustained when three players tackled him simultaneously rendered him unconscious for some time but his only injury was a slightly bruised back.

Captain "Sody" Owings, who was also carried from the field unconscious but who later went back into the game, is likewise ready for the Cougars. An O. A. C. player walked on "Sody's" head and gave him an exceedingly black eye, but the injury will not interfere with his playing. Vandal stock has picked up wonderfully since the team's great showing against the highly touted Aggies. That the Vandals did not win is generally attributed to inexperience which led them to pass up several almost sure-fire chances to score. Saturday's game, the first in which all of the first string has worked together, gave the team a confidence it has not heretofore had and stimulated team spirit to a high pitch.

The largest crowd ever to view a football game on McLean field is expected to see the coming struggle between the two ancient rivals.

GIRLS START TO PRACTICE STUNT

Three Hundred and Sixty Girls Required, it is Announced

Practices for the stunt to be given between halves of the Homecoming game will begin soon and all girls are urged to come for them. Further announcements will be made on the bulletin board. The stunt will require three hundred girls and every house should have a hundred percent turn out. The costumes will be white skirts and middles.

CREW WORKS OUT

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Oct. 28—PIP—Coach Rusty Callow is getting his 1927 crew campaign well under way. Seven shell-loads of varsity candidates took the water yesterday afternoon, so that the rowing mentor had a big job on his hands in coaching the boats in the fleet from his launch during the pull along the shores of Lake Washington. One of the big jobs to be filled is the stroking position, left vacant by the graduation of Al Ulrickson last year.

BURTON L. FRENCH TO SPEAK WED.

Idaho Congressman Will Address Students at Assembly

Burton L. French, representative in congress from the first Idaho district, will speak to Idaho students on "Our Navy", at the general assembly Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the auditorium. Mr. French is chairman of the house sub-committee on naval appropriations. Mr. French, who is seeking another term in congress, is one of the best qualified men in the nation to speak on the navy. His work on the sub-committee has kept him in close touch with this line of defense. The speaker is a graduate of the University of Idaho and is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity.

IDAHO AND OREGON ROOKS MAY PLAY

Turkey Day Battle at Portland Talked; Must Be Approved

Idaho's Baby Vandal grid squad may get a chance at the University of Oregon team Thanksgiving day at Portland, according to plans which were aired at Portland over the weekend by Coach Charley Erb and Bill Reinhart, Oregon frosh coach. No action on the possible game has been taken here as yet, it was announced Monday.

Following is the story appearing in the Portland Oregonian Saturday evening: The probability of a football game between the University of Oregon and the University of Idaho freshman teams in the civic stadium Thanksgiving day was aired last night by Bill Reinhart, Oregon frosh coach, who is scouting the O. A. C.-Idaho game today, and Charley Erb, Idaho coach. Both mentors were enthusiastic about the game, which as yet is merely a supposition. The permission of the coast conference and of the two schools would be necessary before negotiations could go through.

A Drawing Card The game would be a drawing card of the first water, think officials of the Multnomah club and the two coaches because of the rapid development of babe levens and the colorful players on the roster of each. The date, Thanksgiving, is the only important one open to the stadium schedule. Unless a bigger game is billed the probability advocated by Reinhart and wholeheartedly seconded by Erb may become a reality.

"I have a fullback on the freshman team who is better than Ernie Nevers, and one of the finest young players I have ever seen," said Coach Erb in speaking of the game. "His name is Kereshnik and he is a wonder." Frosh Are Strong

The Idaho babe team is coached by Syb Klefner, Idaho halfback in 1923, 1924, and 1925, and also a baseball player in those years. The almost phenomenal success of the Idaho freshmen so far this season makes them look strong. They defeated Spokane college 54 to 0, won from Lewis and Clark high school, rated the strongest team in Washington, 33 to 12, and dropped the only game of the season to Ellensburg normal, composed of ex-college players, by the score of 7 to 0, and defeated Cheney normal 19 to 6 Saturday.

The Oregon freshmen swamped Columbia 26 to 0 and won from the Chemawa Indians 32 to 7. The spectacular running and passing of Bobby Robinson was the feature of both games. The Oregon freshmen team is modeled after the varsity and McEwan football with plenty of dash and fire.

ATHLETIC BALL WILL BE COLORFUL AFFAIR

Many Graduates and Other Visitors Will Attend Formal

Plans for the Athletic ball, traditional formal, are going ahead and everything points to one of the most successful affairs in history, according to those in charge. The ball will be held in the gymnasium, as a feature number on the program for Homecoming, next Saturday night. Tickets have been placed on sale and canvassers report excellent response. "Trading" of dances is well under way and many report their programs filled.

In addition to students, many graduates and visitors to Idaho for Homecoming will be in attendance, making this one of the most colorful of all the events on the social calendar this year.

METHODISTS WILL FORM NEW SOCIETY

Formation of a Wesley club, an organization intended to bring Methodist students in closer touch, will be completed at a banquet scheduled for Wednesday evening at 5:45 o'clock at the Methodist church. All students interested in the church, have been invited to attend. The club is sponsored by the Wesley foundation and will unite supporters of the Methodist church, it is planned.

PLAN SPECIAL TO PULLMAN FRIDAY FOR FROSH GAME

Yearling Teams Scheduled To Tangle at 2 o'Clock On Rogers Field

MUST GUARANTEE 300

To Make Canvass of Group Houses to Ascertain Number Going

Plans were launched Monday morning for the running of a special train to Pullman Friday afternoon for the Idaho frosh and W. S. C. freshman game at 2 o'clock. With the spirit on the campus running high, it is believed that a large number of students make the trip. At least 300 must signify that they will make the trip in order to assure the train, it was announced Monday afternoon. Authorization for the running of such a special was given by President A. H. Upham Monday morning, according to Harry Baumhan, president of the A. S. U. I. Classes will not be excused, but students will be required to take their cuts provided they have classes Friday afternoon. Cuts Is Given

According to figures obtained from Robert Morris, Northern Pacific railroad company agent here, it will cost students 38 cents each way for the special. It is planned to have the train leave Moscow shortly before 1 o'clock Friday afternoon and return immediately after the game. The cooperation of the university Pep Band for the trip has been secured, according to Mr. Baumhan, and the band will make the trip if a special is run.

The trip to Pullman for the frosh game will start the ball rolling for Idaho's annual Homecoming day gridiron festival the following day. At 2 o'clock Saturday the Vandals and Washington State Cougars will tangle on MacLean field in the annual gridiron classic of the Inland Empire. Powerful Frosh Team

The Baby Vandals have been going great this fall, being probably at their best so far this season last Saturday when they trounced the Cheney normal eleven 35 to 0. The preceding weekend the yearlings had little trouble with the Spokane college team. So far this season the frosh have entered but one defeat, that at the hands of Ellensburg normal by a score of 7 to 0.

The Washington yearlings have also been showing some real stuff this year. They were, however, defeated a short time ago by the Cheney normal team 13 to 12. Dope seems to favor a victory for the Idaho frosh.

To Canvass Houses Persons in each of the group houses on the campus and dormitories will be named by Mr. Baumhan today to get the signatures of all students who plan to make the trip to Pullman Friday. A blank sheet will be placed on the bulletin board in the Administration building for the town students, he said. In order to assure the train, it will be necessary to get the full cooperation of the student body during the next few days.

Possibility for getting the special is increased in that the Washington State students have already ordered a special train to bring them to Moscow Saturday for the Homecoming event. Running a special Friday will merely necessitate bringing the train in a day earlier, Mr. Morris stated.

PEP BAND SHOW DATES CHANGED

To Give Production November 18 and 19, It is Announced

The Pep band show, which was originally set for November 12 and 13, has been postponed to November 18 and 19. More time will be spent in working up the skits, songs, and dances. This will make the success of the production assured, and will mean the beginning of a brilliant theatrical season for the students and townspeople of Moscow.

The cast for the production has been chosen and is working diligently under the direction of John H. Cushman, head of the department of dramatics. Mr. Nyvall of the music department has been assisting the chorus with the music of the songs and dances.

The organization under the direction of those experienced in play presentation, is molding itself into a perfect working unit, and by November 18 will be in a position to give one of the best productions of its kind ever seen at Idaho.

INAUGURATE LITTLE THEATRE MOVEMENT

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA, Oct. 22—PIP—Remarkable interest is being shown in the Little Theatre movement at Southern California. Dean Mary S. Crawford, in a statement concerning the inauguration of this movement, stated that sponsoring the creative ability is the highest aim of a University.

Beat the Cougars

Spirit on the Idaho campus is probably at the highest peak in several years. Everyone is literally eating, drinking and sleeping football and following every move of the grid squads on the campus—not only the varsity but also the powerful frosh team. With the decidedly "moral" victory last Saturday over the Oregon Agricultural college team, which had been blown up to be the real contender for the Pacific Coast conference title, the spirit on the campus seemed to go to the top.

Next Saturday is Idaho's outstanding, and probably hardest game of the season, against Washington State, and every Idaho student will be in the bleachers helping the Vandals beat the Cougars. It will be a great day for Idaho if we can come off the field with the Cougar's pelt and nail it up with the other three we have taken the last three years. All of Idaho will be represented at this game and will enter into the contest as much as we do.

It is entirely possible that a special train will be run to Pullman Friday afternoon for the frosh game. When the freshman team goes onto the field for Idaho next Friday we should give it our entire support, and so far, the team has received this support.

While the spirit of the students seems to be at the best, the rooting at the games will stand much improvement. Students tend to scatter out over the bleachers instead of grouping in one big bunch so that the best possible organized yelling may be had. For Saturday's game a number of sections have been reserved for the students, and every student will give all he has to help win that game. Let's all go home from the game hoarse—but happy—feeling that we helped win the game.

A So-called Tradition

Once again Homecoming and the annual Idaho-W. S. C. football game is here. This game, in the minds of students and graduates of both institutions, is the most important event of the year. It means something to us to come out with a victory. But, there are certain events leading up to this game which must be considered—and not all of these events are ones that we want marked down on the records.

Every year the freshmen are given the small job of guarding the entire campus and half the town against a possible invasion of the Washington State college students. It seems that this was started years ago when it was the policy of the students to go to Pullman and paint "I's" over the campus there while Pullman students were in Moscow daubing paint around on the campus. This so called tradition should be done away with. It is merely a small town trick and should not be tolerated by either of the schools.

Each year agreements are said to be made between the two schools that such parties will not be carried on. But, the morning before the big game usually finds the freshmen of both campuses busy trying to remove paint from the sidewalks and sides of buildings. Why not forget this stuff this year and prevail upon the Washington students to do the same.

Student Opinion

Idaho is still a comparatively small university, and in competing with institutions of larger enrollments, there is a greater need for organized rooting than ever before.

In an article published in "Student Opinion" in the last edition of The Argonaut, a person bearing the initials of F. W. C. tried vainly to point out that Idaho was outgrowing some of the traditions now enforced on the campus, and at the same time inferred that the "I" club was at fault for enforcing a tradition that has grown with the institution. A person offering destructive or constructive criticism should meditate a bit before involving himself with traditions that were in vogue before he was sure that his initials were F. W. C., and probably will be in vogue after the same initials are forgotten. Moreover, the writer should take pains when offering such a contribution that there should be no contradictory statements and that the thought should have sufficient sequence and should be amply concise to let his readers know just what it is that he wants to put across. Is it an Idaho tradition, or is it Idaho's "I" club that he wishes to do away with?

The writer said, "Idaho has long since outgrown the custom in practice here of requiring men students to refrain from taking dates to athletic contests. In many preparatory schools over the country this is practiced, and with success"

Speaking of small schools, F. W. C. should look into the similar traditions enforced by W. S. C., the University of Washington, Oregon Agricultural college and other institutions which have a much larger enrollment than Idaho. Here, also, the enforcement is left to the discretion of the letter men of the institutions.

Anyone who would stay away from a game because of the fear that they might be seated next to a co-ed, thus, as the writer stated, being put into danger of personal contact with the "big stick", is certainly made up of milkop material, and should save his dimes to read the account of the games the following day in the newspapers.

F. W. C. in a later paragraph admits that organized rooting is a good thing, thus contradicting his opening sentence. The "I" club has nothing to do with the seating arrangement of the students. It is agreed that there should be a seating section for the co-eds and one for the men, but this is work that belongs to the Inter-collegiate Knights. And as long as prevailing conditions exist, and there is a need of enforcement, the "I" club will continue to function, and the statement contributed by F. W. C. will act as a reminder.

Ralph Erickson.

High School Sports In Idaho

By Les Robinson

Two south Idaho high school football teams now seem certain of the titles in their respective districts. They are Nampa in the southwest, and Pocatello in the southeast. The titular clash comes this week in the north when Lewiston and Coeur d'Alene meet at Lewiston, but in the south central district several games will have to be played before the race is over, although Twin Falls still looks to be the leading contender. A guess this early in the season would place the district titlists as Pocatello, Twin Falls, Nampa and Lewiston, with the state championship lying between Lewiston and the winner in the south.

Lewiston was pretty certain of the title a year ago and was tripped up at the last by Moscow, but Babe Brown's Bengals seem to be made of better stuff this year, despite the fact that there are only four veterans on the team. If Lewiston gets by Coeur d'Alene this week, Genesee, Bonners Ferry and Moscow should fall before the Bengals, although the Genesee Farmers are highly rated. Results last week in the north were: Moscow, 35, Kellogg 6; St. Maries 54, Wallace 0; Coeur d'Alene 41, Sandpoint 13; Genesee 6, Lewiston Normal 0. Lewiston and Bonners Ferry did not play the week end of October 22 and 23.

Games scheduled the week end of October 29 and 30 in the north are: St. Maries at Moscow; Plummer at Genesee; Kellogg at Sandpoint; Bonners Ferry at Wallace, and Coeur d'Alene at Lewiston. St. Maries should beat Moscow, Plummer will be easy meat for the Genesee Farmers and Kellogg and Sandpoint, the weak sisters of the conference, are a standoff. Bonners Ferry should win handily at Wallace. Although by comparative scores the dope favors Lewiston in the Lewiston-Coeur d'Alene game, north Idaho fans are expecting a hot contest.

The heavy and powerful Nampa Bulldogs eleven shattered Boise's championship hopes Saturday with a 14 to 0 victory, a little contrary to the advance dope. The story lies in Nampa's line, which seems to be the most powerful in the state. By virtue of that win and others against Gooding and Filer, Nampa looks to be the best bet to win the south Idaho championship. Parma beat Payette 10 to 0 in the only other important conference game in the southwest.

There are games galore in the Twin Falls district last week, with the Rupert eleven being definitely eliminated from the race by a 24 to 134 defeat at the hands of Filer. Buhl upset the dope in defeating Burley 26 to 0, six points more than Twin Falls did the previous week. Twin Falls showed to be on a par with Pocatello in holding West High at Salt Lake to a 7 to 7 tie. The Bruins had it on West High 7 to 0 until the last few minutes when a Salt Lake player recovered a fumble and raced the length of the field for a touchdown.

Other results in the south central district last week include: Shoshone 26, Richfield 6; Albion 39; Kimberly 0; Oakley 33, Delco 0; Gooding 20, Wendell 7. There are a number of important games coming up in the district this week, including Rupert at Twin Falls; Jerome at Filer, and Buhl at Gooding. Twin Falls should trim Rupert and Filer should stay in the race by defeating Jerome. Buhl may upset and eliminate the Gooding eleven, but it will be a close battle.

Pocatello rested in the southeast. Other results reported as follows: Malad 6, Preston 6; Blackfoot 36, Shelley 0.

BUSINESS RUSHING IN VARSITY P. O.

Two-thirds of the Students Receive Mail on Campus

The University Post office is becoming more and more popular with the students, according to Mr. Jones who is in charge there. The volume of business has, to all purposes doubled in the last month. This is because of the convenient location and better service.

Of the students attending school practically two-thirds of them send and receive their mail through the university office. Twenty of the twenty-two organized houses have boxes at the Post office as well as some 160 individuals who have taken advantage of the 5 o'clock mail delivery which only the boxes receive.

That not all money is received from home is proved by the fact that over 300 money orders were sent by students last month.

CHAMBER FETES CLUB MEMBERS

Three Hundred Boys and Girls Attend Annual Banquet

(Special to The Argonaut)
Portland, Ore., Nov. 1.—More than 300 boys and girls from Idaho, Oregon, Washington, Montana, Nevada, and California, representing boys and girls clubs of those states participating in the Pacific International Livestock exposition, were guests of the agricultural committee of the Portland Chamber of Commerce last night. This is an annual event sponsored by the committee.

E. E. Faville, chairman of the committee, presided and speakers were W. D. Dodson, manager of the Portland chamber; C. M. Plummer, general manager of the Pacific International and R. L. Sabin, manager of the agricultural committee.

The speakers stressed the importance of youthful participation in the agricultural affairs of the land and congratulated the members representing their states at this year's fair on their remarkable showing.

An innovation was the style show sponsored by the girl members. Articles of clothing designed by themselves were displayed by club girl models.

OREGON COLLEGES AGAINST ROWDYISM

Recent Depredations at University and O.A.C. Not in Defiance of Agreement

That the student body sentiment is against the so-called college spirit rowdyism on the campuses of Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Oregon has been expressed by the presidents of the respective student bodies, Bert Fehren and Hugh Biggs in a story in the Portland Oregonian.

Misguided freshmen were responsible for recent depredations on both campuses, it was disclosed. By an exchange of letters both presidents agreed that the inter-campus agreement of three years ago which advocated friendly relationship will not be considered violated and that the recent incidents will be considered the work of irresponsible parties and not representative of the sentiment of either student bodies.

At Forty

"At Forty" the housewife in some sections of Europe wears a black bonnet to signify the end of her youth. A quaint custom—you say—but it usually signifies a fact. Heavy tasks, indoors and out, have made her old—at forty.

Of all the uses of electricity in America, the most important are those which release the woman from physical drudgery. Electricity carries water, washes clothes, cleans carpets, cooks the family's food—better and quicker than could be done by hand.

A trip to town or an hour's rest in the afternoon pays a woman dividends in good health "at forty years." And what is youth but that?

Men and women who have had the benefit of college training and college life have learned to place the proper value upon rest and recreation. They appreciate the relief afforded by electricity.

Upon great generators which send out current to light the homes and carry the burdens of millions, you will find the G-E monogram. Upon industrial motors, on electric railway trains—wherever quality and un-failing performance are first essentials—the G-E monogram will be found.

A series of G-E advertisements showing what electricity is doing in many fields will be sent on request. Ask for booklet GEK-1.

SOCIETY

Homecoming next weekend will make one of the high points in the school year. There is something scheduled for every possible minute during the time, and elaborate plans for the entertainment of guests have been made. There is to be a luncheon for last year's alumni, and the Athletic ball following the game will be one of the outstanding events of the social year. More guests than in any previous years have signified their intentions of coming, and the recent near victory over O. A. C. will make the game Saturday one of the most interesting to the country at large.

A pledge dance was given by Alpha Chi Omega Friday evening at the Blue Bucket. Miss Gertrude Maloney and Edward Orr were out of town guests from Missoula, Montana.

The patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Ida Eberly, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hagan, Dean and Mrs. Ivan C. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Gale.

Gamma Phi Beta gave its annual pledge dance Saturday evening. The chapter house was decorated in Halloween colors, and pumpkins and orange shaded lights helped to carry out the scheme successfully. The patrons and patronesses were: Miss Catherine Jensen, Judge and Mrs. W. Truitt, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Griffith, Mrs. Little, and Judge and Mrs. J. H. Forney.

Guests who attended the dance were: John McMurray, Sylvester Kieffner, Ted Sparkman, Keith Benedict, Jack Sheehan, Hugh Carroll, Lawrence Newcomb, Joe Thomas, Henry Walker, Robert Page, Kenneth Edwards, Lee Johnson, Everett Lawrence, Hosen Evans, Rex Wescott, Arthur Peavy, Paul Dumvill, The Burroughs, Leon Weeks, Melvin Steel, Francis Grosse, Floyd Packer, Jessie Gray, Paul Rudy, Wallace Hull, Harry Baughman, Stanley Crom, Jack Metzgar, George Haddock, Clarence Hanzel, Adrian Nelson, Aubert Fahm, John Lelser, Walter Robbins, Matt Christenson, Fisher Ellsworth, Russell Tuttle, Bill Harris, Keith Shoemaker, Glen Smith, Abe Goff, and Arnold Riley.

Miss Lillian Selgler, of Spokane, was the week-end guest of Omega Alpha.

Omega Alpha dinner guests Friday were: Miss Lewis, Professor and Mrs. Taylor.

Omega Alpha dinner guest Saturday was Doctor George M. Miller.

The Delta Gammas entertained their brothers at dinner Wednesday evening. Those present were: D. Shamberger, W. Shamberger, K. Tipton, F. Leute, G. Kelly, J. Taggart, P. Gowan, F. Eldridge, and K. Jones.

Weekend guests of Delta Gamma were: Alice Rowan, Spokane, Mary Willis, Wallace, and Josephine Johnson, Lewiston.

Sunday dinner guests of Delta Gamma were: Ellen Braxton and Leona Diederksen.

Sunday dinner guests at Kappa Alpha Theta house were: Mrs. H. Bamber and Mrs. Rawlings from Spokane, and Mr. and Mrs. Haller and Helene Haller from St. Maries.

A visitor of the Kappa Alpha Theta house is Mrs. H. Meeker from Seattle.

Sigma Pi Rho announces the pledging of Don Carscallen of Coeur d'Alene, and Walter Kirkland of Seattle, Washington.

Raymond Nims spent the weekend in Spokane visiting friends.

Sunday dinner guests of Pi Sigma Rho were: Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Morris, Mrs. J. Smith, and Ruth Morris.

Pledges of Delta Gamma were entertained Friday evening at a dance given at the chapter house. The house was effectively decorated with Halloween symbols. Patrons and patronesses for the party were: Mrs. Elizabeth Given, Mr. and Mrs. Howard David, and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Davidson.

Guests attending were: C. Huggins, V. Farris, E. Millner, B. Knox, Otness, H. Gray, W. Pierce, Dwight Disney, T. Estes, W. Shamberger, Arnold Lyons, Leon Weeks, B. Coon, W. Carpenter, C. Platt, N. Nelson, Allen Dailey, Robert Brown, O. Chaney, Jack Metzgar, R. Ross, J. Erhardt, Harry Jones, David Cook, Gibbs Kelly, Kenneth Tipton, Dick King, and Burt Moore.

Dinner guests of Beta Chi for Wednesday evening were: Mrs. Ida Eberly, Edith Larson, Ethel Larson, Norma Geddes, Margarite Ames, Helen Wann, Charlotte Tolleth, and Maizie MacArthur.

Sunday dinner guests of Sigma Chi were: Dr. and Mrs. Barton, Editha Barton, Dr. and Mrs. Hubert, Mr. and Mrs. Donald DuSault, and Louis Boas.

Glenn Miller, St. Maries, was a dinner guest of Sigma Chi Saturday.

Neal Nelson, Neal Holm, and Marvin Holm were weekend guests of Sigma Chi.

Kappa Sigma dinner guests Wednesday evening were: Mrs. Randall, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hyde, Adamae Dorman, Marion McGonigle, Bee McDonald, Rose Regan, Marjorie Robbins, Tess Burke, Ellen Reterson, Virginia House, and Nell Turner.

Sunday dinner guests of Alpha Chi Omega were: Vernon Taylor and Edward Orr.

Miss Gertrude Maloney was the week end guest at the Alpha Chi Omega house.

Ridenbaugh hall dinner guests for Sunday were: Bessie Clare, Katharine Steele, and Eleanor Ford.

Ridenbaugh hall entertained the following at a Halloween dinner dance Friday evening. Kenneth Best, Ralph Simons, Henry Gelnfelder, Bud Davis, Charles Connaughton, Herman Ness, Frank Foss, E. McMonigle, of Lindley hall, and Vernon Otter and Harold Anderson of Beta Chi.

Beulah Parish, Edith Miller, Nancy Griffith, and Gussie Maher spent the weekend in Lewiston. Louise Brahm spent the weekend in Spokane.

Guests of Gamma Phi Beta Thursday evening were: Dean French, Dean and Mrs. Dale, Dean and Mrs. Miller, Dr. and Mrs. Wodsdalek, Dr. and Mrs. von Ende, and Dr. and Mrs. Russell.

Weekend guests of Gamma Phi Beta were Miss Marjorie Bloom, of Spokane, and Miss Gweneth McKinley, of Lewiston.

Hazel Parrish and Vera Chandler were dinner guests of Gamma Phi Beta Sunday.

Lila Duncan, Edna Menden, and Ella Duncan were Friday dinner guests of Gamma Phi Beta.

About one hundred and fifty couples attended the Forester's ball at the Blue Bucket Inn Saturday evening.

The hall was appropriately decorated to suit the tastes of the foresters. The decoration consisted of leaves and boughs arranged in rustic fashion. The beauty of the orchestra stand deserves special comment because of its resemblance to the back woods.

Merrill's orchestra furnished the music and the entire crowd seemed to enjoy the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Potter of Twin Falls were dinner guests of Alpha Tau Omega Saturday night.

Edward Douglas, William Conolle, George Gregory, and J. Sargent of St. Maries, were guests of Alpha Tau Omega Saturday night.

The pledges of Pi Beta Phi entertained at an informal dance Friday evening. The guests were: Victor Craig, Elbert Stellmon, Bryce Morgan, George Sherrill, Matt Christenson, Frank Leute, Herman Walker, James Burnett, Jack Lavender, The Marshall, Chris Morley, and Lawrence Newcomb.

Marlys Shirk gave a Halloween party Sunday night for the upperclassmen of Pi Phi. Helen Young and Fern Hampton helped serve. SEEK COLLEGIATE MAN AND WOMAN

Oregon Agricultural college, Oct. 30 P.I.P.—The question of who is the most collegiate man and woman on the O. A. C. campus has bothered campus humorists for some time so they have promoted a contest to determine by popular vote. Celebrities of the campus will be interviewed and their ideas published. Their views being expected to be of great assistance in the forming of public sentiment which will be expressed when the issue goes to public ballot. The contest is being promoted by Hamer and Coffin, national humorist fraternity, and is really a serious affair, according to the committee now at work on the plans.

Committees Working

Various committees have been appointed to take care of the comfort and convenience as well as the entertainment of the visitors. George Freese, chairman of the information committee, has made plans for booths to be set up down town, where general information for the benefit of the guests will be given out. Fisher Ellsworth, who is in charge of the housing committee, has made arrangements with the townspeople to accommodate the overflow from the sorority and fraternity houses. John Taylor, who heads the entertainment committee, has provided for the amusement of the guests. Other committees are also working to make Homecoming pleasant for the visitors.

Hurled 25 Stories to Cement—Picked Up Unbroken!

Chicago, Ill. June 16, 1926.
The Parker Pen Company, Janesville, Wisconsin.
Gentlemen:
Steel work on the new Stevens Hotel was stopped this afternoon while I went to the top-most girder, 25 stories above Eighth St. and Michigan Ave., and dropped two Parker Duofold pens to the street, 250 feet below.
One pen—a Parker Over-size Duofold—slighted on the cement sidewalk. The other—a Parker Duofold Jr.—slighted on the pavement.
Both pens were immediately picked up by my associates and on examination were found to be unharmed. I have signed this letter with one of these identical pens and it works to perfection. Yours very truly,
Frank Ketcheson

Where the Pens Dropped

Traffic stopped to watch this test of the Parker Duofold Non-Breakable Barrel

Point Guaranteed 25 years for mechanical perfection and wear

TRAFFIC stopped as big Frank Ketcheson, Supt. of Steel Construction for the George A. Fuller Co., hurled two Parker Duofold Pens from his perilous foothold on a slender steel girder atop of the new Stevens Hotel, Chicago.

One pen struck on asphalt, the other on cement—away they bounded into the air, then landed in the street—unbroken!

We wanted to give the public proof more convincing than any guarantee. So we have shown by a series of heroic tests that the new Parker Duofold Pen with Permanite barrel does not break. Be sure no fall on corridor or classroom floor can harm it.

Get this sturdy black-tipped lacquer-red beauty at any good pen counter.

POWERFUL FROSH ELEVEN DEFEATS CHENEY NORMAL

Baby Vandals Display Bewildering Attack in Beating Teachers

PASSES ARE FEATURED Washington Team Unable To Get in Scoring Distance

Saturday on MacLean field the 1926 frosh squad showed the most bewildering attack so far this year. Mixed with forward passes and persistent line backs the frosh subdued Cheney normal with a 19-0 score. The outstanding performers in the frosh backfield were Munden, Hult, and Kershnik. The yearlings lived up to Coach "Syb" Kieffner's expectations by clearly outplaying their rivals. They opened huge gaps in Cheney's forward wall, through which the frosh backs made consistent gains.

Diehl kicked off and Cheney put the ball in play on their own twenty yard line. A dash around right end gave Cheney first down. A penalty gave the teachers another first down on their own forty yard line. In the next play "Big Bill" broke through to throw the Cheney runner for an eight yard loss. Hult smeared a pass and the normal punted out of bounds on the fifty yard line.

Frosh Complete Pass
The frosh took the ball, and on the fourth down, Munden's pass to Judovine was completed, making it first down on Cheney's 30-yard line. This was a bewildering twenty-yard pass which completely crossed the Cheney secondary defense. Kershnik made six yards through center, Hult three and a half of tackle, and Munden made five, Hult two. Here Cheney was penalized, giving the frosh a first down. Hult went over on the next play. Munden failed to kick goal. Score 6 to 0 for the frosh.

The teachers immediately completed a forward pass for a first down on the 25-yard line just as the quarter ended.

In the beginning of the second quarter Juno replaced Berg at left guard. On the first play of the quarter the frosh took the ball on their own 20-yard line, after an incomplete pass over the goal line. Kershnik in two tries made the necessary yardage for a first down. The frosh were held and Munden punted. Cheney was off side and the kick went over. On the next try Cheney blocked Munden's kick and recovered on the frosh 25-yard line. The frosh forward wall withstood four battering smashes by the Cheney backfield, and the frosh took the ball on their 20-yard line. The teams see-sawed back and forth for the remainder of the half, which ended with the frosh on the long end of a 6 to 0 score.

Frosh Kick Off
The frosh kicked off to start the second half. Cheney kicked back to the frosh 42-yard line. Bill Kershnik, the terror of the opposing line-men, made eight yards through tackle. Munden passed 25 yards to Karney for a first down on Cheney's 25-yard line. Kershnik made five yards through center. At this point the invader's coach sent new life in the fray but all to no avail for Hult went over on the next play. Munden kicked goal making the score 13-0 in favor of the frosh. After the kickoff Cheney punted to the frosh 35-yard line. Hult and Kershnik worked the ball to the Cheney 40-yard line from which point Munden tossed to Hult for a 15 yard gain. This gave the frosh first down on Cheney's 25-yard line. Bill made 13 yards in two tries and Hult went over from the eight yard line. Munden tried for point but it struck the post and bounced back on the field.

Made Substitutions
At the start of the fourth quarter, Coach Kieffner substituted Frahm for Christians, and Baird for Judovine. The frosh kicked off and Cheney punted back. The frosh were penalized 25 yards for clipping. Munden punted to the Cheney 35-yard line. Kershnik intercepted a pass on the 35-yard line and ran seven yards before being downed. Jensen replaced Hult, Nelson for Munden. Kershnik made seven yards off tackle. Orlan-dini replaced Berg. Jensen got away a lucky kick, the ball rolling sixty yards down the field to Cheney's 30-yard line. Laiser substituted for Kirkpatrick. The frosh worked the ball to Cheney's 25-yard line, where they lost it on downs. The teachers opened up to complete two forward passes, one for 30 yards and the other for 25. But Forester, substituting for Kershnik, took all the joy out of the next play by intercepting the pass and running 45 yards as the final gun went off.

If W. S. C. scouts were present at last Saturday's game, they witnessed, probably the cleverest exhibition of forward passes seen on MacLean field this year. The frosh backfield completed six out of the nine passes thrown, for a total of approximately one hundred and five yards. The frosh made fourteen first downs against seven for Cheney Normal. The teachers completed four out of thirteen passes attempted.

The lineup follows:
Cheney: Wynn... LE... Judovine
Ramburg... LT... Diehl
Johnson... LG... Burg
Flashback... C... Christians
Perry... RG... Kenney
Nee... RT... Kirkpatrick
Davis... RE... Christianson
Morgan... QB... Munden
Walker... RH... Nieman

The officials were: Referee, Bill Hatch; Gonaga; Umpire, Fulton Gale; Whitman; Head linesman, Captain Cranshaw; Timers, Nedros, Gibson, of Colfax.

HOME EC GROUP INITIATES FIVE

Phi Upsilon Omicron Stages Ceremony at Blue Bucket

Five students were initiated into membership of Phi Upsilon Omicron, national honorary home economics fraternity, according to an announcement today by Bernice Suppiger. Following the initiation a banquet was given at the Blue Bucket in honor of the new members. Bernice Suppiger, representing the old members, gave the initial talk welcoming the initiates into the society. Katherine Jensen acted as toastmistress and each of the new members were called upon to give a toast.

A large bowl of yellow and white chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece of the banquet table, and that color scheme was carried out in a similar fashion over the room. Membership in Phi Upsilon Omicron is limited to seniors, juniors, and second semester sophomores. Students are chosen primarily on bases of high scholastic standing and professional ability.

The following students were initiated: Sarah Simons, Chester, Utah; Dorothy Howerton, Jerome, Idaho; Helen Hunter, Alice Melgard, and Cleo Miller, Moscow.

Dr. Tromanhauser will address the Cosmopolitan club at its next regular meeting Saturday, October 30, at the University hut. She will give a stereoscopic lecture on "Places and Pictures in Italy." Carl Remington will render a group of vocal solos. After the program there will be a social hour and refreshments will be served.

WASHINGTON ALUMNI MUST CONTRIBUTE

Asked to "Kick Through" on Return to Campus on Homecoming

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Oct. 30—PIP—Alumni will have to "kick through" on their return to the campus for Homecoming weekend, Nov. 5 and 6.

The grads will be ushered into the fraternity district where a gridiron decoration will be carried out. Behind the posts will be an immense score-board on which a touchdown will be registered and a bell rung for every alumnus who passes the line. Suspended at intervals in each block will be imitation footballs with the year and score of every past California game. An attempt is being made to secure a live bear to be paired with Washington's husky mascot at a distance—near the scoreboard. Two hundred purple and gold signs will be posted in the campus district.

"I" CLUB UKASE CALLS FOR CAPS

All Students Should Wear the Official Hooping Insignia, Body Rules

The tradition which calls for all Idaho students to wear the official rooster's cap at all athletic contests will be strictly enforced in the future, according to the latest ukase of the "I" club.

"The word 'all' includes freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors," said Ralph Erickson, president of the club. "Those who haven't purchased the official caps to date should be equipped with them before the Vandal-Cougar game Saturday," he continued.

Truth, to many people, is what they like to believe.

REDUCE HEATING COSTS AT CORVALLIS

Oregon Agricultural college, Oct. 30 PIP—The use of hogged fuel instead of oil has reduced the cost of heating the college buildings by almost half. The heating cost was $50,000 in comparison with $33,000 spent in 1924-25. Of the earlier cost, $54,000 was spent for oil, while in 1924-25 the plant consumed only $20,000 worth of hogged fuel. Oil is never used now except in an emergency. The furnaces require approximately 300 cars of hogged fuel a year, ordinarily two cars a day.
