

ARTIST COMPLIMENTS IDAHO PEP BAND

Organization is One of the Best Groups on Pacific Coast

The University of Idaho Pep band, one of the only organizations of its kind, will be a dominating feature at the game this afternoon. Under the direction of David Nyvall, Jr., this organization has been developed into one of the smoothest playing bands on the Pacific Coast. And, as such, has received praise from many men high in musical circles.

The band will take a major part in the traditional stunt between Idaho and Washington State college between halves of the game, as well as playing before and during the contest.

Although the Pep band is composed of less than one third as many members as the military band supporting Oregon Agricultural college at Portland Saturday, it held its own in volume and exceeded the Oregon group in quality of music produced, according to reports from the press and from persons who heard it. One of the greatest compliments comes from Jacques Gerszkovitch, world famous conductor of the Portland Junior Symphony orchestra and held by Mr. Nyvall to be one of the greatest living artists. In a letter to the Idaho director, Conductor Gerszkovitch says:

"It was my good fortune to hear your band at the Portland Chamber of Commerce today and to say that I was both surprised and delighted is putting it mildly.

"Your leadership is excellent and the work of your individual members is beautifully balanced.

"I particularly wish to complement you on your choice of band selections.

Frequent practice since its Portland appearance has put the band into top playing form for today's game," said Mr. Nyvall.

VANDAL LINEMAN

"CHUCK" GARTIN, outstanding Idaho tackle who is slated to start today's game. Gartin recently was taken off the crippled list.

SOPHS TO ENFORCE U. OF W. TRADITIONS

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Nov. 5—PIP—The senior council voted unanimously in favor of a sophomore vigilance system. Suggestions were made that members of the vigilance committee should be selected from different colleges of the university for the enforcement of freshman traditions uniformly over all parts of the campus. The freshman committees of the past have not been able to enforce traditions adequately after a few weeks.

FIGHT, IDAHO, FIGHT

Fight, Vandals, fight! For the sake of our state.
Fight on team, to make Idaho great.
Carry the silver and gold to fame,
And make U of I a more glorious name.
Make known your triumph all over the land,
By the way that you fight, you understand.
Don't waver boys, work on to the lead.
Arise after downfalls, defeats do not heed.
Let not disaster stand in your way,
Make honor your motto, but, be unwilling to stay
Where you are in your progress, climb up, get ahead;
Don't think of defeat look to winning instead.
Fight team, and the laurels shall all be for you,
Strive on with spirit unyielding and true.
Win or lose as good sports, for the sake of the game,
And always play true to "Old Idaho" name.
Be honest, be friendly, and play the game fair,
But fight with your might boys, everywhere.
Arthur T. Beaudreau.

Programs Dedicated To Coach Erb; Spurs Have Charge of Sale

Dedicated to Charley Erb, the programs for Idaho's Homecoming game with W. S. C. are ready, Mac Hardwick announced Thursday.
The program, issued by the Intercollegiate Knights, is a 16-page book, containing 29 cuts, four pages of which are devoted to the Idaho players. The front cover is a picture of the team in action. There is a picture of the Pep band and statistics given on both teams.
"The Spurs will sell programs at the game for 15 cents," said Mr. Hardwick. "The Intercollegiate Knights want to thank the Moscow business men who advertised in our book," he stated.

THE VANDAL PEP BAND

This is the University of Idaho's famous Pep Band which has gained popularity throughout the state and along the Pacific coast. Through this organization, the University undoubtedly receives some of its best advertising.

A busy program was outlined this year, including trips to Seattle and Portland when the Vandals met the University of Washington and Oregon Agricultural College. There remains on the program the annual Pep Band Show and a concert tour over the state. This year's show, "Plus Fours," is to be presented Nov. 12 and 13 in conjunction with the department of dramatics.

WOMEN STAGE ANNUAL PARADE

Girls March Thru Fraternity House and Dorms Before Pep Rally

Although condemnatory action was voted against it by the interfraternity council at its last meeting, the traditional parade of woman students through fraternity houses preceding games with Washington State college was carried out this year. The opposition had developed from several quarters. It was decided, however, that the girls would parade Friday night, pending action of the associated woman students Tuesday.

It was brought out that the expense involved in furnishing candles and other favors to the marchers at each of the houses visited was too high and that ordinarily the efforts to put the houses in shape for Homecoming were set at naught by the dirt tracked in by the marchers. Despite the action, however, the women voted to continue the parade.

The action of the council received the sanction of Permeal Jane French, dean of women. It was expressed on the campus following the decision of the council, however, that the practice probably would end with this year's demonstration.

W. S. C. STARTS HOOP PRACTICE

Picked Squad Is Being Coached Two Days A Week

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE, Pullman, Nov. 2.—Varsity basketball practice, which will be opened officially at the close of the conference football season under the new coach, Karl Schladmann, is being supervised two evenings a week by the former Kansas mentor. Since freshman football is also under Schladmann's direction the evening hours are necessary.

A picked squad of 15 men, including four varsity lettermen, are working on Tuesday and Thursday evenings after dinner, drilling on shooting, free-throwing and dribbling. Clay and Henry, forwards, Bromley, center, and Averill, guard, comprise the present group of veterans turning out.

Sweeping changes in team technique under the new middle west mentor have been indicated. candy that he could make no profits. Dr. E. M. Fletcher of New York declared in an address that if the girls would pinch their cheeks fifty times a day they would never need rouge.

MIDGET GUARD

LYLE STARKE, 170-pound Vandal guard who has been playing consistent ball. Starke will probably start the game today.

WE ARE WITH YOU SILVER AND GOLD

We're with you Silver and Gold 1927 No one who saw them can ever forget That gallant Idaho band.

That battled to victory swamped in mud

In a loyal but raining land.

When the ball was wiped of its muddy coat

With a spotless towel or two

And our lads who ever would know that they

Were aught but black and blue.

But ah! it was silver and gold they wore

As they splashed in the puddles deep

And there in the grandstand hushed and still

Was "Idaho" soul at their feet.

The score we lost but in our hearts

We know that our team won,

And now we're out again to show

That the Vandals have just begun;

And when you awake with heart

Beating fast

On the morning of the game

While all about the stir and noise

Sends shivers through your frame.

And down the street the little chaps

With horn and clamor gay

Awake some few of the hard boiled folks

To wrath and dire dismay.

Oh bay 'tis the morning of the game

And all the world's a-thrilling

To the hum and tramp of expectant feet

And voices loud and shrill;

And we'll hear again but we're at home

And follow the gangs all here

As fight, "Idaho Fight" we breathe.

Its almost a praying cheer.

And we are with you silver and gold,

Till the very last whistle blows

And Charley's boys will do or die

That much each one of us knows.

And there where the Autumn has

turnd their yellow fields

To magical silver and gold.

You'll fight each foot till the pligskin

U grim

U nder their goal post rolls,

Helen R. Skillern

BLUE KEY WILL NOT PUBLISH DIRECTORY

Students Must Want Book if It is to be Printed by Fraternity

Blue Key, national honorary service fraternity, will not publish the student directory this year unless a well defined demand for it is voted by the students. It was voted by the organization, following action by President A. H. Upham.

Under the first plans the organization would take over responsibility for publishing the directory, providing the A. S. U. I. would underwrite it for any loss, not to exceed $80 and that the fraternity would turn over to the student body any receipts in excess of expenditures. It was felt by President Upham, however, that unless a definite demand was felt, the directory would not be printed. Blue Key, on the other hand felt that if publishing the book meant first creating a demand for it, then it would not take over the responsibility, as its offer was made merely as a service to the school, according to officers of the fraternity.

U. OF W. ANNOUNCES EXPANSION PROGRAM

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Nov. 5—PIP—The board of regents of this university met, completed its check over the 1927-29 budget estimates, and announced a program of expansion. It was announced that a revenue increase of over half a million dollars, resulting from the millage raise, would be used in the new program. Salary increases for faculty members, addition of instructors to the teaching staff, commencement of work on the proposed building program, and maintenance of all existing departments were voted. The selection of a permanent president of the university has not been considered, according to A. H. B. Jordan, president of the board.

FIVE U. OF W. MEN APPLY FOR RHODES

UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON, Nov. 5—PIP—Five Washington men have applied for a Rhodes scholarship. The 1926 selection for scholarships will be held December 11. Only one student from each state is elected of all the college applicants. Rhodes scholarships are tenable for three years, with a stipend of 400 pounds per year.

High School Sports In Idaho

By Les Robinson

"Poor Charley Erb and poor Idaho"—no longer. The wise birds who figured the Vandals would be battling Montana for the cellar position in the coast conference, saw their calculations knocked into a cocked hat last Saturday. And the way that Syb Kleffner's frosh eleven sailed through Cheney normal was a shame. Those Idaho high school stars which our cities sent up to the university comprise the best yearling football team Idaho ever had. They beat Cheney 19 to 0, as much as the College of Idaho did.

The week end of October 29 and 30 in Idaho high school football play was a busy one, with many games in every district. Lewiston, eliminated Coeur d'Alene from the north Idaho title race by a crushing 33 to 0 defeat. In the southwest Nampa stayed in the lead by a slim win of 13 to 7 over Payette. The Bulldogs were trying to take this game in stride and were almost tripped up. In the south central district Jerome was eliminated from the title race by a 16 to 12 defeat at the hands of Filer. Gooding and Twin Falls remained in the race in this district. In the southeast Idaho Falls took the lead by a 7 to 0 victory over Blackfoot. According to information received by the writer from southeastern district officials, Pocatello, is not playing enough games in the district to entitle the Gate City eleven to compete for state honors.

The north Idaho title race is now reduced to a fight between Lewiston and Genesee, and these teams will battle it out November 5 at Genesee. Babe Brown's Lewiston Bengals are slightly favored, although Wick's Genesee Farmers will outweigh the Bengals eight pounds to the man. Lewiston's crushing victory over Coeur d'Alene came as a surprise, and showed that Brown has developed a team of championship calibre from apparently green material. Genesee smashed Plummer 78 to 12 and stayed well up in the title race. Other north Idaho results last week were: St. Maries 18, Moscow 0; Sandpoint 18, Kellogg 0; Bonners Ferry 6, Wallace 6. Games November 5-6 besides the Lewiston-Genesee title battle, are Plummer at St. Maries, Bonners Ferry at Sandpoint, and Moscow at Pullman.

In the southeast Pocatello won a crushing victory over East High of Salt Lake City, 38 to 0. Rich Fox's boys have shown tremendous power and it is a blow to state athletics that his team is not eligible to compete in the title race. Up until Idaho Falls won over Blackfoot, 7 to 0, last week, these two teams and Firth were undefeated in the district. Firth and Idaho Falls tied, 6 to 6, early in the season. It now appears that the Idaho Falls boys have a good chance to cop the title, despite the fact that Pocatello trimmed them, 45 to 0, recently. Pocatello has played only two conference games in the district and the remainder of the schedule is with outside teams. The conference rules require that a team play five conference games to be eligible for the championship.

In the Twin Falls district Filer, Gooding, and Twin Falls remain in the title race. Gooding handed Jim Neal's Buhl eleven a 14 to 0 pasting last week and Twin Falls showed championship form in soaking Rupert 27 to 0. Shoshone trounced Wendell 12 to 6, and Filer put Jerome out of the race, 16 to 12. Gooding and Twin Falls settle matters on Armistice day, while Filer and Twin Falls do not meet until Thanksgiving. Filer meets Gooding on November 19. The title in this district will not be settled until late and it may be a hard question for the board to decide which team will play the other southern winners for the south Idaho championship. Games the week end of November 5-6 in the Twin Falls district include: Pocatello at Twin Falls; Wendell at Filer; Kimberley at Buhl; Gooding at Jerome; Shoshone at Rupert. The result of

THE GAME WAS THE COUGAR'S AND WE'D TAKE TO OUR BEDS.

But, sh-sssssh-sh-sh, listen to this, ain't it funny what we're going to do to 'em this time!

WE'RE GOING TO YELL "VANDALS" TILL THEY'LL WANT TO GO BACK.

WE'LL PILE UP THE YARDAGE, TILL THEY THINK THE GAME'S TRACK!

WE'LL JUMP IN THEIR WOOL, AND TEAR THEM APART.

WE'LL SCARE THEM TO DEATH, AND MAKE 'EM LOSE HEART.

WE'LL TAKE THE STUNT PRIZE, AND MAKE THEM ALL GRIEVE.

WE'LL GET ALL THE ENCORES, AND HOW THEY WILL MOAN.

FOR FIFTEEN YEARS.

WE WERE HEARTLESSLY BEAT, COME OUT FOR THE GAME, FOLKS, REVENGE IS SO SWEET.

THERE ARE TWO KINDS OF PEOPLE IN THE WORLD:

1. Those who put two "I's" on the end of "Yes Idaho".

2. And those who ring out with a third.

PHI DELTA DIRTY DEAL: "Won't you give me a kiss?"

PIE SIGMA ROW: "No, I'm saving my kisses."

SAME: "Let me add to your collection."

He stood looking in her eyes. They were so blue; sky blue, like the skies on the Sunday afternoons you have dates. He looked at her longingly and leaned over to whisper something in her Shell Gasoline ear. He finished whispering and she looked at him with her soul in her eyes; his heart pounded through his Hart, Schaffner and Marx vest and he turned away for fear she would notice his confusion . . . . . but he could no more keep his eyes off of her than he could keep his eyes off of his neighbor's paper in Econ. 250. He looked back—slowly lifting his head, to find her gone! Had she fainted and fallen on the floor? No, she was not there. Was she behind the lilac bush near the porch? No, not there. Had someone kidnapped her while he stood dreaming of his next date? He sat down to weep and think.

Student Opinion

Traditions at Idaho go hand in hand with the growth of the school. Both are in the making. A tradition can not be classed with a law or organization that must be oriented to meet new conditions with each change of the moon. The tradition of forcing students to refrain from taking dates to athletic contests is one of the better things for school spirit in Idaho. The other system of allowing dates at games has failed. The present one has shown its merits and has lived thru the years.

The time will never come when dates are permitted at athletic events if school spirit is to be maintained. Too much human nature always predominates.

Idaho is known for its spirit. It can't be that someone is passing bouquets, it must be merited. Although some students complain that rooting has been lax in the past, it must be remembered that the University has previously been represented by a complete staff of yell leaders. But this year with organized rooting, improvement must be the result. The far cry for organized rooting seems to have been answered. In the remote past the time between halves surely must have been a "dead affair". Presumably the pep band played the dear old Alma Mater, everyone looked at everyone else, some smoked, some grumbled and all endured it. Today we have all of the good points existing from the past; the activities of the "I" club, and the antics of yell dukes. At any rate, the one who errs, by talking to a member of the feminine sex definitely knows he is playing "pass the buck" with the "I" club with himself on the receiving end, and accepts it as a sporting chance. He is forewarned (as we all are) and is making the responsibility a personal affair for them. They have put out unlimited effort for personal interests, recollections or what ever it may be termed. At any rate they have benefited the school by putting Idaho on the map, not in a meteoric way but with steady advancement, and that is what counts. For this reason alone, it seems as though the "I" men should be entitled to a little leeway and now that they are taking it . . . someone is kicking. Can that be called true Idaho spirit, a love for the school or a square deal? Also many students consider paddling as an indispensable part of college life and are in favor of its continuance.

The type of student who would stay home from a football game or any other kind of athletic contest because of the activity of "I" men is not the kind enthused with school spirit and pep anyway. Perhaps his absence would not be felt.

H. R. S.

He bumps into you when you least expect him. He slows down the traffic every few minutes. He causes his classmates, hard-pressed for time at best, to cut across the campus in their efforts to make up for the time they have lost in jams. He is the reason why some of us come into the classroom late, an occurrence that wins for us the disapproval of the class as well as the instructor.

By "he" I mean the bird who doesn't know left from right; the bozo who continually takes the wrong flight of stairs whether ascending or descending. (And by "he" I also mean not just a single person but that small group of students who persist in conducting themselves in this erratic fashion.) Watch him carefully as he pushes through the crowd; notice particularly the self-complacent smile on his features as he presses himself against the stream of traffic.

The question is: Does he know that he is breaking a traffic law when he ascends and descends the wrong flight of stairs? I believe he does. Mention has been made with regard to this ruling in The Argonaut, and the fact that more than three-fourths of the student body keep to the right should prove to him the error of his ways. Just what prompts him to continue going against the crowd will no doubt remain a mystery.

What will we do about this? Will a Society-for-the-Guidance-of-Erring-Steps have to be added to the numerous organizations already on the campus? I wonder.

THETA'S NEW HOME READY; COST $37,000

Formal Opening and Dance Will Be Held in Two Weeks

Kappa Alpha Theta sorority will take possession of its new $37,000 home at the corner of Deakin and University avenues next week, according to Mildred Perry, president. The house, which was started late this spring, has been completed for some time and work of interior decorating, finishing of floors and painting has taken up the last two weeks.

Furniture Delayed

It is planned that the sorority move into its new home the early part of the week, Miss Perry said. New furniture is being moved in and work of hanging drapes was started Thursday. New rugs, which were ordered some time ago, have not yet arrived.

Has Now Mother

Mrs. R. E. Kale of Tacoma, Wash., will be house mother for the remainder of the year, it was announced. She will arrive here the later part of next week.

The home is of the Italian renaissance type of architecture, different from any other group house on the campus. It will house approximately thirty-five girls.

Since the opening of school, the girls have been living at the home of E. J. Armbruster in the northeast part of Moscow.

FAIR SATURDAY? ASKS ANXIOUS MOSCOW FANS

Is it going to rain?

That was the burning question in Moscow Friday morning when grey clouds hung over the city and when the thermometer registered temperatures considerably above normal, indicative, many times, of low pressure areas and coming precipitation.

But the weather man came to the rescue and predicted, through The Associated Press, that Saturday was going to be fair, with nice moderate temperatures for football fans.

Moscow had its weather eye on the sky. When, about 10 o'clock Friday morning, the sun beamed through the haze, and the optimist said they could feel a little breeze, faces beamed and "It's going to be fair tomorrow" was the favorite greeting along Main street.

Then it began to cloud up again and someone mentioned that he had seen a barometer early that morning, and that the barometer was "low" and that that meant rain. And then about noon it got clearer, and about that same time the weather forecast came in, and The Star-Mirror answered anxious phone calls that there was "fair weather ahead." And everybody was satisfied, except the obstinate pessimist, who insisted that the weatherman was always wrong and that it always rained the day of the Idaho-W. S. C. game.

Just how warm and nice it is is gleaned from today's weather report. It shows that Thursday was 5 degrees above normal, in Moscow. That compared to figures showing that a year ago temperatures were several degrees below normal and that it had been below normal for a considerable period of time in early November.

NAME ASSISTANT DEBATE MANAGER

Joe Molloy Selected to Handle Freshman Debate Affairs

Joe Molloy, Orofino, has been appointed as assistant to Edmund Edmund Becher debate manager, and will look after the details of the freshman debate teams this semester. Molloy is also a member of the freshman debate squad.

The cub Vandal debaters will have an opportunity to exhibit their speaking ability when they meet the state Normal at Lewiston this semester. Other debates will be arranged.

"The position of freshman debate manager is not yet an official one under the A. S. U. constitution," said Mr. Becher, "but in a few weeks an amendment will be proposed which will establish the office."

"Idaho is much in need of such a position in order to bring her up to the standard of other state supported institutions of the northwest and the Pacific coast", he continued. "A few years ago the post of assistant manager of debate was added to the constitution. Maurita Miller holds this office. When the freshman squad and manager have been made official, Idaho will be on a par with other colleges as far as debate organization is concerned."

IDAHO YEARLINGS DEFEATED 9 to 7

opening the game and Munden booted the ball back to the Washington 40 yard marker. Two tries at the Idaho line gave Washington first down but the team was penalized twice a few minutes later for being offside. Washington's punt rolled out of bounds on the Idaho 20-yard line. On a wide end run Munden made ten yards and five more were added on the next play. Munden punted to the Cougars 20-yard line. A line buck netted the Washington yearlings two yards and on the next play they were called for holding and penalized 15 yards. A line play lost two yards putting the ball on Washington's six yard line.

Vandals Score

Washington punted to Frazier on the 55-yard line and Munden, on the next play, made four yards. Kerschnick made it first and ten and on the next play Washington, was penalized five yards for being offside. Kerschnick tore off ten yards, on an off tackle play to the Cougar's 31 yard marker. A pass, Frazier to Munden, put the ball on Washington's 24-yard line and on the next play the W. S. C. frosh were penalized 15 yards for holding. Kerschnick added two more on the next play. Kerschnick carried the ball over on the next play and Frazier converted the try for point.

Washington kicked off to Munden on his own 20-yard line and he returned it to the 42-yard marker. Kerschnick, on the next play, fumbled and Washington recovered. Washington was penalized 15 yards on the next play for holding and the quarter ended with W. S. C. in possession of the ball on their own 53-yard line, and the score 7 to 0 for Idaho.

Opening the second period the Cougars punted out of bounds on the 43 yard line. Kerschnick made five yards. Neiman went in for Munden at the half and on the first play he punted to Washington's 25-yard line. After failing to gain through Idaho's line the Cougars punted out of bounds on their own 44-yard marker. Idaho passed for a two yard gain and on the next play was offside. Ward intercepted an Idaho pass on his own 41-yard line.

After three tries at the Baby Vandal line Washington punted to Frazier who was downed on his own five yard line. A bad punt by Neiman gave Washington the ball on Idaho's 18-yard line. Diehl, Vandal tackle, smeared the next play six yards behind the line of scrimmage but, on the next play, a pass was completed for eight yards. An attempted place from the 14-yard marker was low. Neiman then punted to his own 40 yard line and Washington completed a 25-yard pass on the next play giving them the ball on the 18-yard line. Three more passes and a line buck failed and Idaho got the ball on the 20-yard line. Washington was given two points on a safety when a bad pass from Christians at center went over Neiman's head and into the end zone. Idaho kicked off and the half ended with the score 7 to 2 for the Idaho yearlings.

Munden Kicks 60 yards

Opening the second half the Cougars kicked to Idaho's 14-yard line. Idaho suffered a five-yard penalty for being offside putting the ball on the ten-yard line. Munden, standing on the goal line, got off a pretty 60 yard kick and Ward recharged four yards. On several exchanges of punts Washington gained yardage on the Vandals. The Cougars were unable to gain through the Idaho line and their main attack was through the air. Munden was called upon several times to punt the team out of danger while Washington was playing in Idaho's territory most of the time.

The fourth quarter the Baby Vandals came back stronger, out before the period was half over the Cougars were again pushing on toward the Idaho goal line. Munden punted out of danger several times after the team had held Washington deep in the Idaho territory.

After exchanging several punts, Washington got a break when Munden lost the ball on an end run when tackled and Washington recovered on Idaho's 18-yard marker. The next play Washington lost four yards. A pass was completed to Mitchell putting the ball on Idaho's 13-yard line. Another pass put the ball on the one-foot line and Exeley, fullback carried it across for the score and the try for point was converted.

Vandals Open Up

With but a few minutes left to play the Vandals opened with passes in an attempt to score. The Baby Vandals passed their way from the 15-yard line to the 35-yard marker but on the next play Washington intercepted a pass. The final gun came with Washington in possession of the ball on Idaho's 21-yard line.

HOUSES LISTED FOR HOMECOMING

Committee Provides Accommodations for Visitors and Alumni

Housing of visitors and alumni here for the annual Homecoming day is being handled through a committee, with Frank Click as chairman. This body working with group houses on the campus and a committee from the Chamber of Commerce. All visitors who have no definite connections on the campus are asked to go to the Moscow hotel, headquarters for housing arrangements, where a room or residence will be assigned to them. Mr. Click said.

Reservations at the various hotels in town were taken up rapidly and it was necessary to call upon the houses and Moscow citizens in order that the large crowd may be handled. People of Moscow and the group houses have co-operated in good style with the committees working on this part of the program, said Mr. Click, and it is believed that enough rooms have been provided to handle the crowd.

Fraternity and sorority houses co-operated in moving freshmen into town member's houses during the weekend. This practice was taken up last fall during Homecoming.

Andrew Foulkes of Tottenham, England, took his dog to jail with him when he was unable to pay a fine for not having his name on the dog's collar.

SEATS ARRANGED FOR GRID CONTEST

Idaho Students Occupy Temporary Bleachers on West New Entrances

Seating arrangements for the game this afternoon were announced Thursday night by George Horton, graduate athletic manager. Approaches to MacLean field have been planned so as to do away with congestion before and after the game. The co-operation of the entire student body and visitors has been requested to make this plan work out in the best way.

Idaho students will occupy the temporary bleachers erected on the west side of the gridiron, according to the seating arrangement. The Idaho students will enter the field by the road along the south side of the Administration building and across the field to the Idaho section. By following this plan, all students will be taken care of easily and congestion at the main entrance will be relieved, it is planned. Students will also leave the field by this route.

Main Bleachers Reserved

About one-third of the north end of the main bleachers has been reserved for the Washington State college students, according to Mr. Horton. Washington State students will enter the field on University avenue by taking the street immediately behind Lewis court.

The remainder of the bleachers has been reserved for visitors and townspeople. One approach to the bleachers for this section, the one next to the Washington student's section, will be by the main entrance, or immediately south of the gymnasium.

New Entrance Made

A new entrance has been made this year. This is along the north side of the tennis courts in rear of the Administration building where a path has been cut through the grove of pine trees. Persons who have reserved seats in the center of the section and the extreme south will enter by this way, Mr. Horton said.

With this new arrangement, four entrances are had to MacLean field. This plan has not been tried before and in the past much trouble has been experienced in handling the crowd.

against the University of Montana, he has completely recovered now and should perform in the brilliant way he promised early in the season and fulfilled when he matched prowess with O. A. C. Capt. "Sody" Owing's, who was carried off the Portland field unconscious, is fighting in true red top form, with his injuries only memories. These men are doped to open the backfield attack.

Line Looks Good

In the line, Beall and Charles Diehl, both running perfectly, will hold down the wing positions. Diehl was on the crisp list early in the season, but is entirely recovered now. Beall has a bum mit, but this won't interfere with his playing, it is believed. Con Dewey, mentioned by several coast authorities as timber for the mythical all-coast team, has taken the adhesive tape from his nose and will go into the game without disguise. A small scab on the outraged proboscis is all that remains of the struggle against Dixon of the Orange eleven. On the other side of the line, Charles Gartin and Carl Hutchinson are at odds for the tackle position, with neither sure of a berth to start. Both probably will play today, however. These men have fallen in line with the rest of the team and are in good condition for the fray. Together they represent about 410 pounds of football beef.

"Bud" Bliss will hold down the keystone position. Although Bliss is a small man, as linemen go, he is in perfect physical condition and offers one of the most dangerous threats in the forward will. Maurice Brimhall, a newcomer from Pocatello and John Bauer both have been on the crisp list, but are completely recovered now.

With the reports of an epidemic among Washington State players, their actual starting strength is to continue the onslaught. Burgher, a plunging 195 pounder, will do much of the ball carrying, it is probable.

IDAHO HOST TO RECORD THINGS

The judging will take place in front of the houses sometime this morning. Awards of trophies for decorations will be made this afternoon between the first and second quarters of the game, according to Harry Baughman, A. S. U. I. president.

Every possible arrangement for entertainment, housing, comfort and convenience of the guests of the nation have been made by Blue Key, the honorary fraternity which has been in charge of plans. At noon today a luncheon will be given at the Blue Bucket Inn for the class of 1926. Several speakers have been scheduled for short talks at the luncheon, according to Wallace C. Brown, president of the class of 1926.

Books, from which general information will be given out to visitors, have been stationed at several places on the campus and in the basement of the houses. The books are in the district of the main entrance to the campus. The books are in the district of the main entrance to the campus. The books are in the district of the main entrance to the campus.

SERPENT PARADE CALLS OUT MANY

Thousand and Half Students Pay Homage to Annual Bonfire Tradition

A thousand and a half Idaho students made their last official demonstration before the gridiron classic this afternoon when they held their annual parade and rally before the bonfire last night.

Shortly after dinner crowds began gathering on the campus and about eight o'clock a long, serpentine line started its chanting march through the business streets of the town. At street intersections the cheering mob spiraled into circular form and gave vent to their emotions through organized cheering.

From the business section the crowd paraded to the fairgrounds, where the huge frosh bonfire already had been lighted and flames were shooting several hundred feet in the air. Here versions of Idaho spirit n years now relegated to history were given present day students by graduates.

Following the rally proper, those students still bubbling with spirit, packed the gymnasium for the annual closing rally dance. Here pajama, chief articles of dress for the parade and rally, were in evidence among the dancers. At midnight the hubbub subsided partially and many of the merrymakers went home to await the big game this afternoon.

Many group houses, both fraternities and sororities, continued the rooting through smokers and firesides, arranged especially for returning alumni members and guests.

Turmoil Hits Ranks of Idahoans Waiting for Gridiron Classic

Turmoil is rife in the ranks of the Idahoans. Little groups of Vandals gather, disperse, and collect again. For with every wind that blows there comes the scent of Cougar meat. In classrooms, in shows, in houses and in halls the spirit of the hunt runs higher and higher as the day of the Game approaches. We are ready for the fight. Every song, every yell, instead of giving vent to the pent up enthusiasm, only tends to increase it. Nearly two thousand people, students and faculty, gripped as they are with the excitement of the times, are turning the west village of Moscow into a giant kettle of seething emotions. Every yell raises the lid, and churns the contents. But not even the big fire raised it completely. It is not until the ball sails into the air over MacLean field this afternoon and the Cougars clash with the Vandal eleven that the lid will be wrenched off. Then the mighty yell goes up from the fighting student body will be herald the beginning of the game.

Scabbard and Blade Plans Military Ball

Committee Secures February 19 as Date for Dance

One of the interesting affairs on the social calendar during the year is the annual military ball. This ball is a function of the entire military department. The Scabbard and Blade committee have secured Saturday, February 19, 1927, as the date. The dance will be formal. The R. O. T. C. officers are going to have a meeting soon to make arrangements for the ball.
