

BASEBALL PRACTICE WILL START SOON; PROSPECTS BRIGHT

Initial Workout Will Begin Next Week if Weather Permits

WEALTH OF MATERIAL

Nine Veterans and Others Are Expected to Report

Baseball practice will start next week if weather permits, according to David MacMillan and Charlie Erb, coaches. Idaho will start the season with nine letter men and a wealth of new material contesting every position. All of which gives promise to a championship team.

"Lof" Erickson, veteran Vandal south paw will probably have his regular place on the mound. Eugene Stockdale letter man of last year, will be hurling the ball over the plate much of the time. Two new pitchers, coming up from last year's frosh team, are "Whitey" Lawrence, and "Lefty" Grabner, who promises to bid fair for permanent places on the varsity crew this year.

"Pat" Howerton and "Red" Sullivan, who have earned letters behind the bat, will be wearing the mask again this season. Ficke, star catcher of last year's rock squad, will make a strong bid for a berth with the varsity this season because he is rated as a good hitter as well as a catcher.

"Polly" Lehrbas, with two years' experience as short stop on "Mac's" team, will be out again for that position. "Shorty" Cheyne, with fresh experience, and a record made playing on the Coeur d'Alene team, will be out for either short stop or second base.

John Baird, letterman, will likely be playing in the outfield and on second. Carl Murray has a good chance to again hold down his old place at third base, while Jacoby, utility infielder of last year, will likely find a berth on the team, as will Simmons, letterman outfielder of last year.

Among others coming up from last year's frosh team are Jimmie O'Brien, and Jack Sheehan, who held down the bag at first base, and Marshall who worked well in the outfield. "Sammy" Peterson, former Idaho "Tech" star who is rated high as a hitter and outfielder, will be out to seek his fortune with the Vandals.

PRESIDENT SEES UNITY BY BRANCH

Harmony is Foreseen by Uniting of Two Schools, A. H. Upham Says

Suggestion that Idaho students adopt the slogan "Idaho, the largest university in the world—700 miles between buildings," was made by President Alfred H. Upham before general assembly Wednesday morning.

"Greater unity, utmost harmony and a course of rapid development, is now seen with adoption by the legislature of the Idaho Technical Institution at Pocatello as the southern branch of the University of Idaho. The legislature has but approved the change, all details will have to be worked out by others," the president said.

"Special meeting of the state board of education is scheduled for next month when the board will outline and prepare what plans are necessary; after that details will be worked out as they present themselves," he continued.

The scheme, although new in Idaho, should be as successful as in other parts of the country. New York has her university branches. Northwestern university in Chicago has a down-town division. The University of California maintains a southern branch at a considerable distance from the main institution.

"Idaho herself has practiced this scheme and has not realized that the numerous experiment stations of the agricultural extension service, are only smaller additions to the university. Last summer, for the first time, a branch summer school was established at Boise, and proved successful.

"These things not only have been possible but successful to a high degree and augur for the future of the new southern branch."

SUIT BROUGHT TO REGAIN STANDING

Syracuse Woman Would Force Re-instatement After Expulsion

Syracuse, N. Y.—(IP)—Miss Beatrice Anthony, aged 21, former co-ed at Syracuse University, is suing for reinstatement in that institution, declaring that she was expelled because she "was not the type of girl wanted."

This is the first case on record where a suit has been brought for reinstatement in the university. The university is answering that "attendance at Syracuse is a privilege which may be withdrawn at the discretion of the authorities of that institution."

WOMEN TO ARGUE SCOPE OF ACTIVITY

Should She Work in Home or Out, Debate Subject

Women's work outside the home will be argued by the women's debate teams of Utah university and Idaho, Wednesday, March 2, in the auditorium.

Idaho will argue that gainful occupation outside of the home is not objectionable for women. The women represent Idaho have not yet been chosen from the squad of 12 members.

Dean French will preside at the debate. Music will be furnished by the music department.

ELEVEN FROSH TO RECEIVE NUMERALS

Yearling Quintet This Year Outstanding; Lost Two Games

Eleven members of the freshman basketball squad have been recommended by Coach Gade Mix to receive numeral awards. The awards will be made at a student assembly scheduled for next month during the state basketball tournament.

The following players earned numerals: Harold Stowell, Frank McMillan, and Kenneth Barrett, all of Herculano; Jay Christians, Ralph Ut, Harold Thornhill, Harold Drummond, and Robert Drummond, all of Kellogg; Robert St. Clair, Idaho Falls; Dale Munden, Clarkston, Wn.; and Allison Neiman, Sandpoint.

This year's frosh aggregation is considered the most promising group of material to enter the university in years, and the loss of four regulars from the varsity five will not come as such a severe loss as it usually would. The freshmen, playing the best teams in the inland empire, lost only two games. Among their victims are the Washington State college yearlings, the Potlatch Athletic club, Cheney normal, Spokane college, Spokane university, the Palouse Athletic club, and Lewiston normal.

McMillan is high point man of the squad, with 90 tallies to his credit. Thornhill is second with 67 points, Christians third with 48, and Neiman fourth with 40.

JUNIORS TAKE FIRST ROUND OF TOURNAY

Freshmen A Team Defeats B; Games Set for Monday

The first round of the girls basketball tournament ended with the Junior First winning over the Senior First by a score of 38 to 18. In the closely contested game between the Freshman A and the Freshman B, the Freshman A team won by a score of 15 to 12.

The next two games of the tournament will be played Monday, and will be between First Freshman and First Senior and Second Sophomore and Second Junior.

VANDAL HOOPSTERS RECOMMENDED FOR LETTER AWARDS

Eight Men Will Receive Monogram Sweaters for Basketball

Seven of the eight men have received previous awards for basketball. Darwin Burgher, former Rupert high school all-around athlete, who played center in most of the late season games, was the newcomer into the ranks of basketball lettermen. He was a contributor from the 1925-26 freshman team, as a member of which he won his numeral.

The veterans receiving letters were John Miles, Culesac; Glenn Jacoby, Bonners Ferry; Herbert Canine, Burley; George Greene, Culesac; Edwin Nedros, Moscow; Ralph Erickson, Pocatello; Arthur Dawald, Lewiston.

Four men, Miles, Nedros, Erickson, and Greene, play their last intercollegiate basketball this season. The passing of Miles, who has won an outstanding position in coast circles for all around performance, will leave one of the broadest gaps and the one most difficult to fill next season.

Jacoby, Canine and Dawald will all get their second varsity letters this season. George Greene, who did not attend school last season, played year before last to win his sweater. The award recommendations, based on a constitutionally required number of games, will be presented to the executive board of the A.S.U. at its next regular meeting. The sweater awards will be presented at a general assembly called for March 10.

VANDAL QUINTET TO MEET BULLDOGS

Idaho Team Plays Last Game of the Season Tonight

Tonight Idaho enters her last basketball game of the season against Gonzaga at Spokane. When the Bulldogs invaded Moscow earlier in the season, the Vandals trimmed them 23 to 20 in a hard-fought battle, but on Gonzaga's home-floor the Idaho men are up against greater odds than before.

Gonzaga has not led a very consistent basketball season, showing first-class collegiate form against stronger teams and then being defeated by smaller schools such as Whitman college.

The lineup MacMillan will use will probably be about the same as the five that defeated Gonzaga previously. Miles and Jacoby seem to be winning combination as forwards against the man-to-man defense as is used by the Bulldogs. Burgher will probably start at the pivot position with Canine and Greene, guards.

NATIONAL S. A. E. SECRETARY DIES

Billy Levere Passes at Evanston, Ill., Local Chapter Notified

Members of the Idaho chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, received word from Evanston, Illinois, S.A.E. headquarters, Wednesday of the death of Billy Levere, national secretary for the fraternity. He is also remembered by the national executives of other Greek letter fraternities, as a great organizer and a popular figure in the fraternal world.

Billy Levere was well known by some of the older faculty members of the University of Idaho, and was beloved by all the members of the Idaho chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, most of whom were personally acquainted with the leader. He made his last appearance at Idaho last spring, while he was touring the western United States.

CHENOWETH TALKS AT Y. M. C. A. MEETING

Problem of College Man Is to Acknowledge Religion, Says Prof.

The problem of the college man is not that of believing in religion, but that of acknowledging it, declared Prof. C. W. Chenoweth, head of the department of philosophy, at the Y. M. C. A. meeting in the U-hut last Wednesday evening.

In his talk, "The College Man's Religion," Mr. Chenoweth said that Christianity offers the only solution to the fact of our existence.

The squad has 12 members: Myrna Adams, Lola Gamble, Pauline Brown, Ina McMurray, Helen Milliken, Marjorie Smith, Thelma Smith, Flo Mathewson, Maurita Miller, Marjorie Albertson, Effie Hanson, and Dorothy Keinholtz.

C. and social activities on the Idaho campus, the contesting teams postponed the game until a later date.

Several teams in both leagues have not played their round of six games for the first half of the series. Phi Delta Theta trounced the Sigma Pi Rho quintet, 20-13, Wednesday evening, starting the second series. The game was fast and until the last few minutes of play the outcome was in doubt, neither team having a lead that indicated victory. The Phi Delta's staged a rally and caged three field goals to clinch the contest. High

SENIORS PRACTICE HOME MAKING ART

Women Get Early Start While in School; Three Enrolled

The University practice house has been opened for work this semester. Four weeks in this house are required of each home economics senior before graduation. Three girls live there at a time and are responsible for meal planning, marketing, food preparation and serving, as well as all other routine duties of the average home. Weights of all food are scientifically recorded to be used in diet studies, and expense accounts and time budgets are faithfully kept. Each girl has one "solo day" during the month, when she is required to perform all duties by herself. The girls carry on these activities in addition to their regular classes at the university.

The "practice cottage," supervised by Miss Katherine Jensen, is located at Witter's apartments on North Main street.

Seniors now taking this practical test of their abilities are Dorothy Howerton, Bernice Hirschman, and Margaret Duevel.

IDAHO AND W. S. C. COACHES TO BATTLE

Vandal Mentors Will Meet Cougar Staff on Court Monday

Idaho's coaching staff will touch its prowess with that of W.S.C. when it meets the Cougar mentors here in the big basketball class of the year Monday evening, February 28, at 7:30.

All eyes will be turned to the gymnasium Monday to watch Coach MacMillan practice what he teaches, and see Coaches Erb and Neldig as well as the diminutive Mix in basketball trunks. Charlie Erb will likely be calling signals, and Neldig will be bucking the line and watching for any opening, while Kieftner will pass the ball to Mix, who will toss it for a goal. Johnnie Vesser and Joe Thomas will likely be in the fray to show their ability or disability to play the game and play it hard. MacMillan has been working out every afternoon with the college all-stars and will be in true Celtic form for the big game.

On the lineup for the invaders will be "Doc" Bohler, physical director of W.S.C.; Buck Bailey, assistant line coach; Bob Bohn, trainer; Hal Orion, frosh coach and former star of Lewis and Clark high school; and Schlademan, basketball and track coach.

Proceeds of the game will be donated to buy prizes and Idaho inter-scholastic basketball awards. This is an opportunity to see a real live contest played by old heads at the game, as well as an opportunity to support the state hoop tournament which will be held here soon.

Buckley of W.S.C. was high point man with 10 points to his credit. The entire Idaho squad worked well with Christians and Drummond showing to the best advantage. Christians was high for Idaho with eight tallies.

MacMillan F Buckley
Nieman F Tompkins

DEBATERS MEET REED SATURDAY

Idahoans Will Debate With Eight Schools on Coast Trip

Idaho's debate team, J. Lael Simmons and Warren J. Montgomery, will debate with Reed college at Portland tomorrow. The team will leave tonight at 6 o'clock on its coast trip.

In the debate with St. Ignatius, Idaho takes the affirmative of the question. Resolved that a bureau of education should be established with a secretary in the president's cabinet.

The third question to be debated is, resolved that democracy is a failure. Against the University of Nevada and Utah Agricultural college, Idaho argues negatively. Idaho will have the affirmative in the debate with the University of Utah.

The team will return March 15.

RALLY IN SECOND HALF GIVES IDAHO 27 TO 23 VICTORY

Missionaries Lead Throughout Opening Period of Play

With a second-half comeback of furious passing, MacMillan's Vandal quintet added the Idaho Missionaries' list of victims in a 27 to 23 basketball game last night at the gymnasium. On their first trip of the season, the Vandals suffered a close margin defeat on Whitman's home floor.

The Missionaries led, 13 to 12, at the beginning of the second half and Nedros immediately tied the score with a free throw. The score tied again at 17 to 17, but Miles soon stepped out with a field goal giving Idaho the lead which she kept throughout the remainder of the game.

Nedros opened the scoring giving Idaho the first point on a free throw. Holmgram of Whitman tied the score with a free shot by a foul on Miles. The Missionaries then took the lead and bewildered the Idaho men with their deadly accurate long shots. Whitman at one time during the first period gained a six-point lead which was rapidly evened up by two field goals by Greene, and a free throw by Miles.

Erickson went in for Burgher at the beginning of the second period tossing the counter that tied the score 15 to 15. Canine went in for Nedros and Jacoby changed from guard to forward. This new combination put forth a lively exhibition of passing and quick floor work. When the time drew near for the final gun, the Vandals stalled with a four point lead, playing percentage basketball and they secured several more counters by long passes when the Whitman men left their basket open to run down the ball.

Two technical fouls were called on the Idaho team during the second half. Referee Bob Morris fouled the team for Miles' talking to MacMillan during the play, and he fouled Burgher for not reporting when he was substituted for Erickson.

Although last night's game had no bearing on Idaho's conference standing the contest was just as hard-fought.

IDAHOANS AVENGE EARLIER DEFEAT

Trounce Washington State Cougars, 21 to 15 at Pullman, Tuesday

Idaho started the scoring and had soon earned the lead of 11 points to 4 for W. S. C. The Vandals then began playing a waiting game, merely holding the ball from the Cougars, and exerting little effort toward a further offensive game. The crowd became frantic and impatient after Idaho had stalled for five minutes or longer.

Washington State college rallied early in the second period to take the lead of a 13 to 12 score, but Idaho soon came back, giving up its waiting game and staging a furious attack which gave them a 21 to 15 victory when the gun went off.

Miles played a brilliant game for the Vandals, and Nedros missed only one shot at the basket. Burgher of Idaho tied with Clay and Averill for high point honors with six points each.

Idaho has now completed its conference season with a record of seven victories and three defeats, but in the case of each defeat it has been victorious in the return game. If Oregon defeats Washington, as all hope now indicates, Idaho and Washington will be tied for second place honors in the conference.

Lineup and Scoring
Idaho (21) W. S. C. (15)
Miles (3) R.F. Clay (6)
Nedros (5) L.F. Henry (2)

Substitutions—Idaho, Canine for Nedros, W. S. C. Gilleland for Brumblay; Brumblay for Gilleland; McDowell for Henry; Passi for McDowell.

WOMEN ATHLETES

THE PENDULUM has started on the backward swing. Not so many years ago a violent crusade was started in favor of women's participation in athletics. With the promise of the emancipation which came with discarded corsets, low heeled shoes and increased chest expansion came a widespread rally in the number of athletes. Many schools, like Idaho, made such participation more attractive by offering awards of a type previously held the sacred property of men. Women's departments of physical education were established at universities and saw patronage of a quantity undreamed of before. In other words there was a general trend toward athletics.

As the pendulum starts backward it reveals several startling facts about the former, and now institution of women's athletics. And these disclosures are being received with something akin to alarm by women athletically inclined.

In the first place the "gingling-vine" type of woman, the starchy-eyed, dreamy baby all seductive curves is attracting male attention, says one noted authority, who claims to have covered considerable territory by way of a survey. And this one angle alone is sufficient to cause alarm.

The once "boyish" figure, so prized by women has given away, among the confirmed athletes, to a distinctly manly figure. And this, hearkening to woman's perennial attempt to outshine male, is not pleasing to the observing sex. It is not easy to break away from the results of centuries of effort of women, to bring about the appearance of weakness and dependence generally characteristic of the female of the species. Despite the propaganda to the contrary, man likes his woman feminine; and the wide (and often flat) chested athlete, in whose arms sinews of steel and in whose body is a terrible capacity for athletic punishment, fails to excite in man the tender emotions which are called love. He sees rivalry there.

Then, too, physicians are asserting that too much physical activity is dangerous—injurious to her health. Thousands of years, perhaps, of comparative physical inactivity has built up a framework of a type not suited for heavy athletic activity. It will take another thousand years, at least, before woman can throw off the body built by the activity of the last. Perhaps the posterity of this generation will be so constructed that the females of the species can take their place alongside the man as regards physical activity.

Whether the authorities who have made these deductions are correct, it is certain that their findings will meet with a flame of protest from those women who are "going in heavily" for athletics and who have become ardent preachers of the new religion.

SCANDAL AGAIN

WITH the name of another college student added to the list of those who have taken their own lives, there will be no end of the number of articles which will appear condemning colleges and the detrimental effect of college life. This was the seventh university student to commit suicide since the start of the new year, and this number will give those who feel that the younger generation is far worse than was their own another chance to break on the front page of the newspaper with words of condemnation against the youth of today. A good deal of this condemnation will be directed towards the religious side of the student life in college. Why are so many ready to defame colleges? This question can be answered by repeating and emphasizing one of the phrases of Dr. Treneyer—"an occasional outbreak of immorality." That is the reason for the warped and overdriven views of many concerning the life of the average college student. This occasional outbreak is forwarded to every city in the country, this occasional outbreak is headed as an added chapter to the mythical book entitled, "Immorality in Colleges," this occasional outbreak is grasped by those who are always ready to criticize a college student, and again the public reads and explains, "What is the coming generation coming to?"

College life does not in any way tend to start the students' moral or religious outlook on life on the decline. The majority of college students come from religious homes, and they will not be drawn away from their early religious instructions if this instruction has been deeply founded. As Dr. Treneyer proved, seniors go to church just as regularly as freshmen, and if the case was investigated further, freshmen attend just as much as the public outside of college. Purdue Exponent.

TRADITIONS AT IDAHO

This is the ninth of a series of articles detailing Idaho traditions. Additional ones will appear in The Argonaut from time to time.—The Editor.

(By George Young)

The first class Song and Stunt fest took place at the University of Idaho in 1918, and the function was promoted by President Melvin A. Brannon, then president of the university. Since then it has been an annual event, and has become traditional with the school.

The purpose of the fest is to invite the individuals composing the classes to produce songs and plays, thus exhibiting the latent talent in the University which often times is hidden from public attention.

When the custom was still in its infancy competition was keener, and the productions were better prepared than they are now, according to Dean Permeal French. The great amount of enthusiasm then shown was probably due to the newness of the function, and to the magnitude of the awards offered to the classes winning them. The award for the class with the best stunt is now $15, and the award for the class with the best song is $10, while one of the awards given to the winning class in the beginning years sometimes reached $50, according to information gathered from faculty members. The quality of some of the fest in that most of the Idaho songs productions given in the past manuscript in use were composed by students competing in the fest.

The Song and Stunt fest is usually held on the night of the inter-scholastic track meet. Last year the entertainment was given twice, and the fest given the first night was a part of the Campus day program. The senior class won the award for having the best stunt, which was a comic play written by Blaine Stubblefield, and the junior class won the award for having the best song, which was written by John Robert Taylor. Usually each class takes advantage of the opportunity to burlesque the faculty, and with rare exceptions it has proven a source of great entertainment without the humorous jabs becoming too sardonic.

Although some of the fest given in years gone by are reputed to have been better prepared entertainments, the purpose of the function still holds. They never fail to furnish an enlightening entertainment that is unsurpassed by any activity of the sort given at the university during the year.

MAN SOLVES GREAT MATH PROBLEM!
Troy Moore, well known "T" man of the University of Idaho, solves the great mathematical puzzle of the year.

The problem is: WHAT WAS THE WINNING OF BARBARA WORTH?

Following are the figures from Mr. Moore's original manuscript, the conclusions from which have started the world in that their results have brought the answer long sought for in mathematical circles:
Picture shows (since we were in the eighth grade) $547.88
Gasoline (for Dodge making 2 miles to gallon) $447.63
Miscellaneous (birthdays, Valentines, etc.) $398.92
TOTAL $1394.33
which is what the winning of Barbara was worth.

Respectfully submitted, TROY MOORE.

DREAMS THAT CAN'T COME TRUE

One time I dreamed I was a flower. A shy blue one. My friends were winds, the bees, the shower. The golden sun. Each morn I decked myself with pearls. Of glistening dew. It's rather sad to dream a dream that Can't come true. One time I dreamed I was a bird Of golden song. I sang songs, sweetest ever heard, The whole day long. My bright cage was the world; its roof Was skies of blue; It's rather sad to dream a dream that Can't come true. Patsy Calhoun.

MILITARY BALL COLORFUL AFFAIR

Unique Decorations Feature at Twenty-third Annual Dance. The twenty-third annual Military Ball, held in the Blue Bucket Inn Saturday, February 19, was one of the most colorful affairs of the season. The decorations were of a military type, consisting of the divisional insignia, flags, arms and other military paraphernalia. A feature of the decorative scheme was an Idaho War Memorial executed by Nels Warner, constructed of paper-mache and so finished as to resemble stone.

Morris' orchestra was concealed within the Memorial behind a painting of the "Maiden Dolorosa" after Brangwyn by Prichard.

Specially entertainment was of a military order. During the evening taps were blown in honor of George Washington. Lee Han of Pullman, entertained with a feature dance.

Patrons and patronesses were: Colonel and Mrs. E. R. Chrisman, Major and Mrs. Fuller, Miss Permezel French, Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Upham, and Dean and Mrs. Iva C. Crawford.

"POP" WARNER HITS FOOTBALL SHIFT

Rockne is Wrong, Says Stanford Coach; Holds Play is Unpopular

Stanford University, Cal.—(IP)—The shift is not needed for spectacular football according to Coach "Pop" Warner of Stanford University, whose opinions were printed in a recent issue of the Stanford Daily. The story, written by Allen Hicks, goes on to say: "His all wrong" are the words used by Coach "Pop" Warner to express his attitude toward Knute Rockne's statement that the recent football ruling to eliminate shift plays would ruin the sport. The Stanford mentor claims that shift plays give too much responsibility to the officials, and that any team can play just as spectacular a game without them.

"To support his assertion that the shift is not essential, Warner says: 'In canvassing the ten leading teams in the country for the past few years, you will find only a small percentage of those teams each year who use the shift. During the present season, Navy, Michigan, Alabama, Stanford, Lafayette, Brown, and Pittsburgh are examples of some of the best teams in the United States which do not use it.'

"In considering the effect that the elimination of the shift would have upon Notre Dame itself, Warner declares: 'Notre Dame had an outstanding record the past few years, but it is my opinion that they would have had just as good a record if they hadn't used the shift, and that they would play just as spectacular a game. The trouble with the shift is that it leads to arguments and places too much responsibility upon the officials. There should not be anything about football which leaves a question in the mind of either the spectators or the officials as to whether or not the game is being carried on properly.'

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa.—(IP)—Chapel speakers at Coe college no longer will be able to turn to one side of the room and crack jokes about the opposite sex on the other side of the building. Under a new seating plan, men and women are intermingled. The faculty have been ousted from their conspicuous seats in the front of the chapel and are now seated inconspicuously against the wall.

COLLEGE STUDENTS HELD ACCOUNTABLE

Future Peace Depends on College Men and Women, Says Libby

"People of university age today are going to be in for a series of thrills—and thrills with an edge on them—in the next twenty-five years," stated Dr. Frederick J. Libby, executive secretary of the National Council for the Prevention of War, in an interview published in the Daily Nebraskan.

"Nations are living closer together; another war comes it will be a war of peoples, not armies," he emphasized. "The fundamental trouble between Mexico and the United States, President Coolidge said, is oil lands. The great outpouring of letters and telegrams to the President in the past few weeks has been enormous.

"It is the duty of university students to generate the steam that will carry the world forward in the direction of peaceful settlement of disputes. When the peoples of the world realize that all disputes can be settled peaceably, the world will be organized on a peace basis, and armaments of all nations will be reduced."

GIRLS OPEN FREE THROW TOURNEY

LaReta Beeson High With 39 Out of Possible 60 Points

LaReta Beeson, with 39 points, was high scorer in the free throw tournament held last Tuesday. The following girls placed next highest and with Miss Beeson constitute the team scores which are sent in to the national free throw committee at Charleston, S. C.: Barbara Rugg 37, Virginia Peck 31, Thelma Smith 30, Mary Green 30. These scores were made out of the 60 shots allowed.

Teams from many of the foreign countries and every state in the union take part in this world tournament. This is the first year that Idaho has taken part in it. Considerable interest has been shown in the event, according to Miss Lillian Wirt of the physical education department.

Plans are being made by the W. A. A. to carry on a state-wide tournament next year among high school girls. This movement will probably be started early next fall and the tournament held in the spring.

Mystery Surrounds Old Fencing Trophy

Discovers if it is Genuine

In the wake of the recent rumors of the organizing of a fencing team at Idaho, this fencing trophy is the discovery of a fencing trophy in the show case in the gymnasium. Tarnished with age, its lettering almost indistinguishable, it proudly reposes in the trophy case, surrounded by an air of mystery.

It is of distinctive design and bears the following inscriptions: "University of Idaho—Fencing Trophy—Presented by H. T. Lewis." There is nothing on it to indicate that it had ever been defended by a Vandal fencing team.

A search through the files of The Argonaut, and the Gem of the Mountains, failed to reveal any record of such a team, or presentation of the cup. And a protracted inquiry among the old timers on the faculty also failed to revive any memories concerning the existence of a team of duellists.

The only light shed on the subject was about the donor. It was learned that Howard T. Lewis was formerly connected with the department of economics here, is now on the economics department staff at the University of Washington. An effort has been made to get in touch with him and learn the story of the cup.

A humorous element was introduced when some one suggested that the Argonauts had won it in a post hole digging contest. The lawyers, however, doubt this.

STUDENT EDITORS
FIGHT WITH LIBEL
FOR SCANDAL SHEET

Five Resign From Manitoba
University Following
Burdlesque Issue

SUITS THREATENED

Editor in Chief Refuses To Abide by Decision of Student Council

Winnipeg, Manitoba.—(IP)—Threatened libel suits and the resignation of five editors of the Manitoba, were the result of the publication on the campus of Red Herring, a burlesque been dropped with the resignation of scandal sheet.

The Red Herring carried reports involving in scandal almost every outstanding student in the university.
All available copies were immediately confiscated by the university authorities, and many of those mentioned in the paper threatened to bring libel suits against the editors if explanations were not made. All action has been dropped with the resignation of
the sheet.

The trouble started when Leonard
L. Knott was dismissed by the student council from his position as editor-in-chief of the Manitoba. Knott had refused to abide by requirements of the student council and when the council objected, he criticized that body in the editorial columns for not allowing him freedom of the press.

The council called upon him to resign which he refused to do until the matter had been brought before the entire student body. The council, however, forced him from his office
and appointed a new editor pro-tem.

Several of Knott's assistant editors resigned and together they began the publication of the Manitoba Student.
The editors of the Manitoba Student at this juncture the success of this venture by getting the advertisers to refrain from using the columns of the new publication. The Manitoba Student appeared on the campus, however, and took well among the students.

As it was later discovered, five editors of the Manitoba then published the Red Herring, which contained against the Manitoba Student and contained a personal attack on Knott.
When the names of the editors were brought to light, the five men resigned their positions on the staff of the Manitoba.

FORMER IDAHOAN
WITH PLAY TROUPE

E. W. Poe With Walker's Portmanteau Company in West Virginia.

Ernest W. Poe, formerly of Moscow, who was graduated from the University of Idaho in 1920, and who was ranked to be one of the best knower and most versatile actors during his time on the Idaho campus, has recently joined one of Stewart Walker's reputable companies, located at Huntington, West Virginia, according to George Morey Miller, head of the English department.

Mr. Poe made his last appearance in dramatic work here in 1920, when he took the part of Sir Toby Belch in Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night," which was given as the commencement play.
Since his graduation, the dramatist
has been in the road building business with his brothers, in Montana,
Idaho, and Washington.

The lure of the foot lights was too strong and with the aid of a recommendation from Doctor Miller, Mr.
Poe was taken into the Walker repertory company. Stewart Walker, who was also a student of George Morey Miller at the University of Cincinnati, is nationally known as an actor and a writer of drama. One of his companies appeared at Idaho a few years ago in "The Gods of the Mountains,"
and "Job," famous biblical play.

Evening Hours See
"Hello Girls" Here
On Rush Period

Bustiest hours of Moscow's telephone office are from 4 o'clock in the afternoon until 10 o'clock in the evening, and during the period it is necessary to have from four to five operators on, Miss Helen Kershner, chief operator.

"In most towns the size of Moscow, rush hours come at delivery
time, but Moscow is a university town, and wires are nearly turned to pieces on the western side of the block during the evening. Arrangements are made to have the full crew of operators on then, and also at the time when Moscow housewives are placing their morning and afternoon orders for household supplies," the chief operator continued.
"Dearest" hours usually are in the morning, between 4 and 6 o'clock, during most of the months of the year, although a busy period during harvest time. Three operators are required up to 12 o'clock some nights, although after that time one operator can usually handle the load,
Miss Kershner explained.

FROSH TAKE 40-21
VICTORY FROM H. S.

Vandal Babes Defeat Moscow Quintet in One-
sided Contest

The Idaho frosh quintet trounced
the Moscow high school team 40-21
in a practice game Thursday afternoon. The less experienced high school team kept nick and tuck with the Frosh during the first half and threatened to tie them several times in the second. A two-point lead was held by the high school during a large part of the first quarter but at half time the Frosh aggregation had 14 points and were six points in the lead.

In the first few minutes of play in the second half the Vandal Babes
continued to pile up comfortable margin. Nelson and Cameron, of the high school, retaliated, occasionally
with a field goal and kept their team in the running. Christians slipped in three field goals for the first year men at the beginning of the last period. The high school team was unable to find the basket for more than two goals, while the freshman total swelled with accurate shots of Thornhill, Christians, and Munden.

Lineup:
Frosh (40) Moscow High (21)
MacMillan F. Nelson
Neiman F. Cameron
Thornhill C. Randall
Drummond G. Woody
Christians G. Smith

STUDENT SUICIDE
TOLL IS GROWING

Twelfth Case Reported at Elmira College; Girl
Takes Poison

Elmira, N. Y.—(IP)—The twelfth case of suicide occurred here when Edith M. Stewart, 23, a senior at Elmira college, took poison and died within an hour. The reason given by her classmates for her action was that she feared punishment for in-fracture of the rules of the college.
She recently had asked for week-end
leave to visit the home of a friend and instead went to Ithaca, N. Y., where Cornell University is situated.

On her return she was informed by several of her girl friends that she probably would be suspended for the rest of the year, and is said to have declared that she never could face her mother if this happened.

Miss Stewart was the first girl to take her own life in the student suicide "wave" which has swept the country during the past two months.

AGS WIN ANNUAL HOOP
BATTLE FROM LAWYERS

The lawyers and the ags had their annual mix in the gym last Wednesday afternoon, with the ags emerging victorious with a score of 20-17.
Both teams were evenly matched.
The fleet-footedness of the ags, gained by chasing the elusive cow around the lot, was closely matched by the long-windedness of the lawyers. Whenever an ag would call a lawyer a species of garden truck, the lawyer would retaliate with an epithet or a pseudonym.

The lawyers will entertain the ags
at a smoker soon.

Study Is Cause
New York.—(IP)—Too much study
and consequent mental overexertion
is the reason attributed by Dr.
William J. O'Shea, superintendent of schools here, to the wave of student suicides. Dr. O'Shea declares that each instructor over-emphasizes his own subject, and the net result is that the students have more to do than is humanly possible.

To Have Honor System

OBERLIN, Ohio.—(IP)—The Student Council of Oberlin college has appointed a committee to make investigations and recommendations relative to saving the honor system from becoming a failure. The faculty recently expressed their belief that the system was falling of its purpose here.

DOG TEAM BRINGS VISITOR 800
MILES OVER ARCTIC ICE AND SNOW

Driving an eight-dog sled team alone for 28 days, over 800 miles of frozen land and water, is just in the ordinary routine of Senator Thomas D. Jensen, brother of Miss Katherine Jensen, head of the University of Idaho home economics department
whom he is visiting here this week.

Mr. Jensen made such a trip recently in "getting out" of Nome to Juneau to attend a meeting of the Alaska game commission, of which he is a member, and then to visit the "states." He is now on his way back to the territory after visiting other relatives in North Dakota. He must be back at Juneau by March 15 for the 60-day session of the territorial legislature, of which he is one of eight members in the upper house after serving last term in the lower chamber, numbering 16.

In driving out of Nome, Senator Jensen had only the advantage of three hours of daylight in every 24, contended with temperatures as low as 60 degrees below zero, crossed Berling in the weight of dogs and sled, and covered the 800 miles in 28
days without a companion.

MINING MEN ARE GUESTS ON CAMPUS

H. J. Maguire, 19, assistant superintendent of smelting, and Prof. W.
K. Dyer, superintendent of schools of Anaconda, Montana, were guests of the Associated Miners Tuesday evening at the Blue Bucket Inn.

After dinner Mr. Maguire discussed reverbatory smelting. He took the subject in its very beginning and traced the developments of this type of smelting equipment down to the present day. He discussed the result of the Carson-Anaconda case on reverbatory smelting.

Judge Bourquin of the federal court in Butte handed down a decision in favor of the Anaconda company. This case will have a far-reaching effect in the copper smelting industry since the Carson patents, has filed suit against all of the important copper companies in the west, Mr. Maguire stated. It has a closer interest in Idaho due to the fact that Bayard S.
Morrow, Enoch A. Bernard, Hugh J.
Maguire, William Casto, Hollis Mc-Crea, graduates of the Idaho School of Mines are employed by the Anaconda Copper Mining company at Anaconda.
