PRESENT AWARDS TO HOOP TEAMS, ARGONAUT STAFF

A. S. U. I. Gives Sweaters and Numerals to Basketball Squads

"GUB" MIX TALKS

Three Women Get Sweaters; Service Pins Given to Newspaper Staff

Varsity and freshman basketball teams were presented their awards at the special A. S. U. I assembly Thursday morning in the university auditorium. Athletic sweaters were also presented to three women and service pins were given to eight members of the Idaho Argonaut staff who have completed three semesters' work on the college paper.

Members of the visiting high school basketball teams were introduced to the Idaho student body at the assembly by Harry Baughman, A. S. U. I. president. President A. H. Upham gave a brief talk upon present, past and future students of Idaho.

Tells of Old Days

G. P. "Gub" Mix, a graduate of the class of '01, gave an interesting talk on athletics at the University in the old days. One of the first athletic events to take place at Idaho was a track meet in the spring of '94, according to Mr. Mix. Contestants were entered for such events as: one mile bicycle race, baseball throw, football kick, standing broad jump, and distance pole vault as well as the field events of the modern day. A comparison was drawn to the modern field meets held between conference teams in college circles.

Coach David MacMillan gave a brief talk on the past basketball season after which he presented athletic awards to members of the varsity and freshman players who had earned the required time. Johnny Miles and Nedros each received their last sweater and an "I" blanket, having played three seasons of varsity ball. Others to receive sweaters were Ralph Erickson, Bess Canine, Art Dawald, George Guss, Glen Jacoby, and Darwin Burgher. The last two mentioned won letters in basketball but did not receive sweaters since they had earned letters in football last fall.

The following frosh were introduced by "Mac" who gave their numerals: E. Thornhill, J. Christians, R. Utz, H. Drummond, R. Drummond, all of Kellogg; Barrett and F. MacMillan of Pocatello; Neiman of Sandpoint; St. Clair, of Idaho Falls and Munden of Clarkston.

Mix Presents Watches

Gale Mix, student athletic manager, presented wrist watches to Coaches Charley Erb and Ray Neidig on behalf of the 1926 football team.

Floyd Lansdon, editor of The Argonaut, presented to members of the staff who had completed three semesters' service an Argonaut pin. Those receiving the badges are: Charles Kincaid, Dorothy Darling, Gertrude Goual, Virginia Grant, Lucile Eaton, Watson Humphrey, Clarence Jenks, and Mr. Lansdon.

Yell King Rewarded

Idaho women receiving their athletic sweaters were: Louise Wilson, Ruth White, and Katherine Nelson. A sweater was presented to John MacMurray, yell king.

THE SILVER CORD IS NEW STAGE SUCCESS

Sarah Truax Albert Will Read Drama Just From New York

"The Silver Cord", which Sarah Truax Albert will read Tuesday evening, March 15, in the auditorium, was opened in New York as late as December 20, so Moscow is to have a current success only two months after its premier showing, while it is still the most talked of play in New York.

Slaney Howard, the author, and the play itself are commented upon by the New York Times, January 2, as follows: "About two weeks ago the adroit Mr. Howard revealed the most vigorous and theatrically effective drama of the year in 'The Silver Cord'—a powerful, mordant play that fairly glows with vitality." Howard is the author of the other recent New York success "They Knew What They Wanted." "The Silver Cord" Howard's drama "The Silver Cord" has no relation to the George Agnew Chamberlain novel of the same name which ran a serial in the Saturday evening Post.

Mrs. Albert will read a miscellaneous program at the regular assembly Wednesday, March 16. The recital Tuesday is open to the public.

AG FRATS HOLD JOINT BANQUET

Alpha Zeta and Elliot Chapters Have Meeting in Pullman

The Elliot national agricultural fraternity, chapter of Alpha Zeta of Washington State college, and the Idaho chapter of Alpha Zeta, held its annual banquet in Pullman, Wednesday evening. About 60 members attended, 15 of them being from Idaho.

Joe Knott, of the Washington State college dairy department, acted as the toast master. Speakers on the program were: Leland Barbee, a student; Dean Edward Johnson, of the school of agriculture, and Professor Ellington, of Washington State college; Dean Idings, of the college of agriculture; Dan Warren, student; and Neil Derrick, president of the Idaho chapter; all from the University of Idaho.

The banquet will be held here next year.

FINISH INTRAMURAL HOOP SEASON SOON

Mix Plans to End Series Within Next Two Weeks

The intramural basketball series will be finished within two weeks, according to plans of Gale Mix, manager. The teams leading in the two leagues when the schedule is finished will play a three game series for the championship.

All teams are urged to play postponed games as soon as possible so that an accurate check of the standings may be taken, Mix said. The reason for ending the series before the full twelve games are played by each team is that it is getting quite late in the year for basketball, and track, spring football, and baseball are claiming the attention of many of the participants.

According to present standings it is predicted that Sigma Chi will contend for the championship with either Beta Theta Pi, or Sigma Alpha Epsilon, leading teams of "B" League. Sigma Chi has not been defeated and is unlikely to drop any of the remaining contests. Her closest rival is Phi Delta Theta, who has been defeated three times. In "B" league the Beta quintet has a lead of one victory over S. A. E. Should the Beta's lose the tilt with Sigma Nu when they meet next week and the Delta Chi's lose to S. A. E. first place will be tied.

All games for this week have been postponed on account of the state high school basketball tournament.

ADVERSE WEATHER SLOWS TRACK MEN

Cinder Squad Confined To Lewis Court For Workouts

Days and weeks of intermittent snowing, raining, and hailing have kept the 30 or so aspirants for membership on Idaho's potential track squad cooped up in Lewis court where they could do a few sprints on the outdoor track where there would be plenty of room for tryouts in sprints, long races, javelin throwing, and other track events.

Coach George Philbrook, track mentor, feels somewhat gloomy about Idaho's chances in her first meet because of the limited indoor facilities for workouts. He says that at least a week of warm weather will be needed to dry up the track for use. The first meet will be held in Spokane on April 2 which is just three weeks distant.

Although no official call has been made, Philbrook asks that all frosh who are interested turn out at once so that general training can be started. As to the possibility of the new material being of varsity caliber, Coach Philbrook is unable to find out for sure because it isn't feasible to time the sprinters in Lewis court, but the field events do not get a chance to show themselves to good advantage.

NINTH CORPS AREA INSPECTION WILL BE HELD APRIL 27

Idaho R. O. T. C. Will Be Reviewed by Major Wadell

HAVE HONOR RATING

No Word Received Regarding War Department Inspection

The annual ninth corps area inspection of the Idaho unit of R. O. T. C. will be held here April 27, according to the report of a parolee from the executive officer of the military department, Major Wadell will inspect the Idaho regiment, he said.

Major Wadell will arrive here, April 27, coming from Pullman, where he will inspect the Washington State college unit April 25 and 26. From here, he will go to Walla Walla, to inspect the junior unit in the Walla Walla High school. Major Wadell held the inspection here last year. The inspection this year will be similar to the one held last year. All of the cadets are busily engaged in preparing for the inspection. All in the unit will be expected to have a thorough knowledge of the nomenclature of the rifles, the use of the rifle, and of all forms of drilling.

Other Inspection

As yet, no word has been received by the military department concerning the inspection by the war department inspector, according to Major Fuller. This may come before or after the ninth corps area inspection. As a result of the inspection last year, Idaho received the "Blue Star," or distinguished rating. The military department hopes that the rating will be secured again this year.

The inspection report is based on a point system. A perfect rating is denoted by 100 points. The parts of the inspection and their numerical equivalent are:

1. Adequacy of the general facilities for administration and instruction 10.
 2. Condition of clothing, arms, and equipment 9.
 3. Support of the R. O. T. C. by the institution and the student 8.
 4. Theoretical instruction; teaching methods and class room tests 30.
 5. Practical instruction; appearance, discipline, courtesy, physical training and condition, command and leadership, organization, ceremonies and other practical tests 43.

TENTATIVE DATE SET FOR PAGEANT

"Light On Mountains" Probably to Be Given Saturday Before Commencement

"The Light on the Mountains," Idaho historical pageant, will be presented probably on Saturday night preceding commencement, it was announced at the postponed meeting of the executive board at its postponed meeting Wednesday night. Lack of constitutional power to do this was cited as the reason for the denial, although the board expressed itself in accord with the fund plan.

With the denial came a recommendation that the matter of the donation, which would come out of student funds, should be placed in the hands of the executive board at its postponed meeting Wednesday night. The required amount of money, the board voted that it would approve such action.

The loan fund is maintained by the faculty women's group to aid needy students who have been patients in the infirmary and who need money to pay nurse, doctor and other bills. The money is loaned for a short period only, because of the limited amount available.

WOMEN'S SPRING SPORTS PLANNED

Baseball and Tennis Teams to Be Organized Soon, Is Announced

Plans are being made for both baseball and tennis by the women's sports managers. A call for indoor baseball will be made week after week. Practices will be held at 4 o'clock with each class reporting two days a week. When weather permits practices will be held on the field in front of the gymnasium.

Announcements will soon be made of classes in tennis. Only a limited number of class lessons will be given and these will be followed by supervised practice hours for those who want assistance and criticism on their playing, according to Miss Winslow. The women's tennis tournament this spring will be an inter-class event. Members of the class teams to be chosen from the best players.

expects to return to his home the latter part of the week. Ralph Erickson is in the infirmary suffering from an injured leg. Sam and Gilbert Cheney are in the infirmary.

BOARD DISPLEASED WITH EXPENSES ON ATHLETES' TOURS

Officers Rebuke Department for Needless Expenditures This Fall

HELD TO BE LAVISH

Items Must Be Cut If Idaho Is to Remain in Conference

Unless expenditures by the athletic department are brought within reason, the University of Idaho cannot long remain a member of the Pacific Coast conference, declared the executive board of the A. S. U. I. at its adjourned meeting Wednesday night. This rebuke followed the introduction of reports on expenditures made during the fall and winter athletic season.

The board's ire was aroused by the report submitted for the expenses of one man sent to Chicago to "scout" a game in which Creighton university played. The expense account called for an expenditure of $18 for meals on the dinner between Chicago and Moscow, a trip which requires approximately two days and a half. This was compared to $7 per man, spent by the members of the football team returning from Omaha to Moscow.

Itemized Report

In itemizing the expense report, the board found figures which it claimed were out of reason and should not have been made. These covered hotel and similar bills on the trip of the football team to Los Angeles and to Omaha and return.

"The board cannot continue accepting such reports," Harry Baughman, chairman of the board, told a group of football men who appeared as visitors. "There are items contained in these reports we have just gone over which were wholly unnecessary. If someone doesn't step in and take the initiative we shall have to get out."

Dean Ivan C. Crawford, faculty member of the board, reiterated Mr. Baughman's remarks, declaring that the administration felt the same way over the affair.

The board approved a proposed trip of the cast of "Twelfth Night," Shakespeare's play, which will be given here in the spring, to Lewiston to play in the auditorium of the Normal school.

BAIRD SELECTED ON DEBATE TEAM

Named by Coach Davidson on Varsity Following Tryouts

Orville Baird has been selected as the new member of the varsity debate squad, according to an announcement by Prof. H. Carter Davidson, coach. The selection was made on the basis of competitive tryouts held Tuesday.

The Oregon system of questions and answers will be used in the University of Oregon-Idaho-Washington State college triangular debate which will be held March 31, Coach Davidson said.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, (IP)—Criticism of the Men's Student Council of Ohio State University recently caused an uproar in a meeting of that body. The Council objected to a series of humorous editorials in the Ohio State Eastern proposing that the members of the council "don black shirts and wreak vengeance in a true Fascist manner."

U. S. WANTS MEN TO FIGHT RUST

Official Addresses Forestry Students on Control Work

In interest of getting about 100 men to lead the United States department of forestry in its attack on White Pine blight rust next summer C. C. Strong, Spokane, in charge of the eradication work in this district was the principal speaker at a meeting of the forestry department Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Strong outlined the plan of the government in its attempt to keep the disease from getting a hold in Idaho and said that although the disease was not in the state at the present time, that it was abundant in British Columbia and spreading rapidly. Many men probably will go from the University of Idaho for the work.

H. M. Putman, in charge of the reconnaissance work, also was in Moscow and addressed the meeting. About 40 were present.

ENTERTAIN HIGH SCHOOL VISITORS

Blue Key Host to Basketball Teams at Breakfast Thursday

Seventy-five visiting high school coaches, teams and attendants were guests of Blue Key fraternity at breakfast at the Blue Bucket Inn Thursday morning at 8 o'clock.

Following the meal Dean Ivan C. Crawford, a member of the fraternity; Col. E. R. Chrisman, commandant of the R. O. T. C.; Charles Erb, director of athletics; David MacMillan, director of physical education and Virgil R. D. Kirkham, professor of geology, spoke to the visitors. Jess Buchanan, president of the fraternity, was toastmaster.

The speakers emphasized sportsmanship and the ideals of the university. Colonel Chrisman recalled the 30 years he has been connected with the university, declaring that since athletic activity was started only the highest ideals have been followed by participants from this school.

Following the breakfast the teams and coaches were taken on a short tour of the campus, during which the spots of interest were pointed out to them. At 10 o'clock the visitors attended the special A. S. U. I. assembly in a body. This was the last official entertainment of the day and the players were allowed to seclude themselves to rest for the contests in the afternoon.

MIDWAY FAILS TO WEATHER STORM IN FIRST ROUND

Eliminated by Moscow and Boise Defeats Thursday and Today

PLAY CLEAN GAMES

Pocatello Shows Championship Form in First Two Starts

Midway was eliminated from the state interscholastic championship tournament this morning when she received her second defeat of the tourney at the hands of Boise. The score was Boise 88, Midway 9. Boise showed considerably better form against the southeastern Idaho team than it did against Pocatello yesterday.

Pocatello continued in its championship form by defeating Moscow 29 to 19. This makes Moscow even. The locals won from Midway yesterday afternoon.

Four teams, Moscow, Pocatello, Sandpoint, and Salmon took the honors Thursday in the first day of the state high school basketball tournament. Yesterday afternoon, Moscow high sprung a surprise by overwhelming Midway 24 to 6, and Pocatello won what is said to be the deciding game of the meet by coming out from under an early lead to defeat Boise, 20 to 18. Last night Sandpoint took the tightest game of the day from Buhl 18 to 14, and Salmon surprised the fans by defeating the Lewiston Bengals 23 to 16.

Midway took an early lead in the first game but were soon surpassed by the Moscow quintet. At the end of the half the home town boys had Midway helpless before the Moscow defense. Midway was unable to score any field goals after its first lead early in the game. The uncanny luck of Nelson of Moscow was the feature of the game.

With a larger and faster team, Pocatello came out from behind in the first half with a 7 to 4 lead over Coach Basler's men. The Gate-city boys seemed to have a hard time finding the basket at first but soon were sinking in field goals without much trouble. Eaton of Boise, was the outstanding man of the game. In the second half he stored eight points before he was replaced by Felner. Coach Fox's men showed speed and clever floorwork which makes them the general choice for the probable tourney winners.

In Close Game. The first game of the evening between Sandpoint and Buhl was a series of ties and one-point leads. Sandpoint got away to an early start but at the end of the half its eight points were closely followed by Buhl's seven. At the end of the third quarter neither team had the advantage. The score was tied 13 to 13 with the odds favoring Buhl. Demers of Sandpoint started a seventh inning rally and with one minute to play the game ended 18 to 14 for the North Idaho aggregation.

It seemed to be the general dope that Lewiston would come out on top easily over Salmon City. Bethel also

VARSITY HOOPSTERS DEFEAT OVER FROSH

Idaho Vandals Win From Babes 39 to 36 in Close Game

By gaining a lead of 21-12 in the first half of the game, the varsity basketball squad triumphed over the fast frosh aggregation 39 to 36 in a closely contested tilt immediately following the Idaho-Washington State college coaches game Friday.

The varsity quintet was handicapped by the loss of Johnny Miles, all-coast forward and Ralph Erickson regular pivot man, who were unable to take part. The regular freshmen lineup started the game.

Jacoby started the count for the varsity by caging two field goals and Nedros added two free throws to the total soon after. Goals by McMillin and Stowell and a free throw by Drummond put the frosh five within one point of tying the score. Greene, Canine and Jacoby counted for the varsity and the varsity assumed a commanding lead which it increased until at the half the Varsity had the long end of the 21-12 count.

The frosh caged two baskets in rapid succession soon after the second half started and Stowell hooped one from the foul line a few minutes later. The varsity did not score, and called time out. On resumption of play Nedros sunk a long one, bringing the varsity's margin up to a safer basis.

In the last quarter several substitutions were made by both teams. The frosh staged a rally and all but tied the score several times. The final outcome 39-36 for the varsity gives a fairly good indication as to the relative merits of the teams.

A JUSTIFIED REBUKE

THE University of Idaho cannot long remain a member of the Pacific Coast conference unless men who have charge of funds or athletic trips use a little more judgment in making expenditures.

This, in substance, is the rebuke handed the athletic department by the executive board of the A. S. U. I. at its regular meeting Wednesday night, when reports of expenditures for football and basketball were handed it for approval.

Undoubtedly the board will be criticized for saying this and there will be those who will argue that the athletic department is being tyrannized; that if we are to have winning athletic teams big expenditures must be made.

This editorial is in defense of the action of the board. It is admitted that expenditures for athletic trips are large, larger, perhaps, than ordinarily are expected. That is justifiable just so long as there seems to be reason for the expenditures. But the board is not being miserly. It is acquainted with the financial condition of the student body, its possibilities in this line and the limits beyond which it cannot go. It can not willingly stand by, passively, while student body funds, entrusted to its care, are spent lavishly and without reason on athletics. There must be a balance some place.

There were items in those reports handed it that were not justified; and at least a rebuke should have been forthcoming. Because of expenditures this fall the athletic budget is now approximately $4000 short, meaning that activities the second semester must be cut accordingly. This over-expenditure was caused, in part at least, by items such as one which called for an expense account of $18 for meals on the diner for one man from Chicago to Moscow. This is a trip of two days and a half. Such expenditures are entirely out of proportion. Another item called for an expense of more than $4 per night per man for hotel rooms. These are out of reason. And it can be seen clearly that if they continue Idaho cannot foot the bill.

As the board pointed out, every student wants to see Idaho have winners in athletics. They are willing to pay to see this. But there are limits beyond which they positively cannot go. And these limits must be recognized if Idaho is to continue in major intercollegiate activity.

GOOD WILL

ALMOST every day seems to bring some act or expression from or by colleges and universities in this country for the furtherance of international good will and understanding.

At Earlham college in Richmond, Ind., a Quaker institution, student groups have pooled their finances to send a junior student to Japan for one year. He will go, not as a missionary, but as a student in a Japanese university and an interpreter will translate the lectures for him. When he returns to Earlham he will try to interpret Oriental life to his fellow students.

Out on the coast last week, the University of Washington sponsored a Pan-Pacific student conference on the campus. Representatives of China, Japan, Korea, India, the Philippines, and several other countries gathered and discussed sociological and economical problems of foreign development. The existence of such a conference on the coast where the feeling of the white race toward the Orientals is akin to that of Southerners to the Negro, is very hopeful.

Meetings of foreign students and native American students are common in almost every college and university in the land.

These good will gatherings fostered by the educational institutions lead hope that some day international good will and mutual understanding between nations actually will exist.

Student Opinion

What are we to believe? At one moment the gentleman spectators at the university women's basketball games deride their manner of playing, and guarding rules by which officials decision are called as lacking in the aggressiveness typical of their own games. At the next moment an editorial appears in The Argonaut denouncing women athletes for attempting to "ape things male" and for the development of a mannish physique. Both of these attitudes are wrong, not due to wilful misunderstanding, but to lack of knowledge of the ideals and purposes of women's athletics.

The fact that at the national conference of college coaches for women held at Wellesley college last year, the slogan of "Fun For All" was adopted, indicates that women's athletics are developing along altogether different lines than the strenuous intensive, interscholastic program followed by the men. As a matter of fact many leading men coaches throughout the country have openly expressed alarm at the trend which men's athletics have taken and are congratulating those in charge of women's athletics for steps which have been taken to prevent women's activities from taking a similar trend.

The most outstanding steps in this regard have been taken by the Women's Division of the National Amateur Athletic federation, instituted by Mrs. Herbert Hoover. That a woman of Mrs. Hoover's social prominence should put her stamp of approval on properly conducted athletics for women, points out that she does not believe that these activities detract from a girl's social graces. To quote from the pamphlet issued by the N. A. A. F. it stands as follows:

"The Women's Division, therefore, urges for girls the type of athletics which are developed from the point of view of their requirements as girls, not those which copy for girls standards and programs developed for boys to meet entirely different physical or other conditions. It realizes that the less skilled or unskilled members, are after all, the ones most in need of the benefits which physical exercise and athletics can give, and works towards making it an opportunity for physical recreation in interesting and suitable form possible for every girl and woman, not only for a privileged or superior few as heretofore. It emphasizes the necessity for adequate physical examinations, follow-up examinations and health safe guards. It stresses the play spirit in athletics rather than the highly competitive attitude which makes championships and records its goal. It seeks to protect girls' and women's athletics and physical recreation, and works toward making more and better women leaders available."

The Athletic Conference of American College women of which the Idaho chapter of Women's Athletics Association is a member, has gone on record in support of the above platform. It is true that some of the unenlightened high schools in the "sticks" have not yet seen fit to organize their program of girls' athletics in accord with this program, but it is hoped they, as well as the men on our campus will become enlightened as soon as they have an opportunity to learn of the proper standards.

Contrary to the statement that women athletically inclined are receiving disclosures regarding their activities with alarm they are on the whole greatly flattered by allusions to their type, for the real men on the college campus as well as in many other walks of life, are choosing the "women athletes" for their dates. Lists of guests for fraternity parties include 30 per cent of women athletes. In view of the fact that approximately 10 per cent of the girls registered in the university turn out for athletics, this would indicate either that our women athletes are "starry-eyed, dreamy babies" all ineffective curls, or that this off-beat type of woman has not as popular as the recent editorial asserts it.

In regard to the assumption that athletes develop a mannish figure, we could quote many scientists who say that exercise among women merely stimulates the proper development of a well rounded feminine contour. Much "nutrice" it is "easy" that even if we agreed with the writer in the effect that athletics might have on our figures we tearfully submit the fact that we do not have the use of the gymnasium or the playing field enough periods to effect us one way or another.—C. C. P. D.

The Misses C. C. and P. D. are perfectly right in their assertions. But they missed the point. The editorial referred to quoted authorities who were considering over-participation in athletics by "confirmed athletes". And it seems still they are right. But the answer really is a good outline of the ideals of women in athletics—The editor.

Me and the joy-friend... Prince Albert

WHEN my father was in college, "Put that in your pipe and smoke it!" was considered snappy conversation. I'm ready to take this old line literally when the talk centers around Prince Albert. Because P. A. makes two of what I like in a pipe.

All wise-cracking aside, P. A. is the money when it comes to deep-down satisfaction in a smoke. It's got everything! Cool as the trail of the ice-man across the kitchen. Sweet as vacation. Fragrant as a pine forest.

Think up your own similes. You'll write them all in the column headed "Superlative Degree" when you learn the joys of a jimmy-pipe and Prince Albert. If you don't know this grand old smoke, come around to my room and I'll give you a load.

3. Something queer in the chair next to you (Lawrence Edelblute in sleeping pose).

THINGS YOU WON'T SEE AT AN EIGHT O'CLOCK!

1. Dick Whitaker.
2. The point.
3. John McMurray.

Dear Katie: At last I've found out what's wrong with me. I can't dance. Couldn't you give me a few useful hints so I could be popular with the ladies and do a wicked stroke like Harry Baughman and Orville Chaney?

Yours,

Dear Willie: You are not the first young man who has written to me for dancing instructions. Like all other timid young men, you imagine the art of dancing is too difficult. It is, in truth, very simple. Below are complete directions:

REPRESENTATION ON BOARD ASKED

Committee Recommends Giving Argonaut Editor, A. W. U. I. Prexy Seat

The editor-in-chief of The Argonaut and the president of the A. W. U. I. should be given seats on the executive board of the A. S. U. I. without a vote, it was recommended by the constitutional committee following its appearance before the two members of the women's organization. The committee was asked to make the position of the organization for membership on the board, frowned upon by that body at a recent meeting.

The women modified their request from that presented before the board. They conceded that insofar as the president of the A. S. U. I. is not elected by the student body as a whole, she should not be a member of the board which governs it. On the other hand, they admitted, if she were allowed a seat on the board without a vote she would be present at meetings with right of discussion.

The recommendation will be incorporated into the new constitution that will be presented to the board of regents of the university and to the general student body for acceptance or rejection in the spring election in May.

The editor-in-chief of The Argonaut should be a member of the board so far as discussion is concerned, the committee decided. The head of the student body and in a better position to be in touch with student wants than most other officers. He should not have a vote for the same reason that the president of the women's organization should not be allowed one. That the quorum requirements will be disturbed and the chairman of the board would be robbed of the deciding vote in case of a tie, the committee argued.

The committee will incorporate into the new document the provision that the proposed book of by-laws may be amended by an "aye and nay" vote of the students in a meeting of the A. S. U. I.

Blackmore Gives Piano Instruction For Music Students

John J. Blackmore, Chicago, noted pianist, met three classes in piano here Monday morning. This following his complimentary concert recital in the auditorium Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Blackmore based his lecture on fundamentals in learning the piano, prefacing his lecture with the statement that "there is considerably more to learning to play the piano than just learning pieces." He went into detail into the physiological apparatus necessary for tone production and volume, declaring that without the student learning this before he took up expressive and artistic work, he would be wasting his time.

Mr. Blackmore is a disciple of the famous Tobias Matthay, London, recognized as the greatest of all piano instructors. Mr. Blackmore recently studied with that master.

Lewiston registered the opening tally and the stands cheered for Lewiston. Herndon and Reed of Salmon took the next two field goals and the tide of public favor came down upon Salmon. VANDAL MENTORS DOWN COUGARS

Idaho Coaches Defeat W. S. C. for Second Time; Score 22 to 20

Another Idaho triumph has been chalked up on the old gym maple wood. The Vandal coaching staff has demonstrated its undoubted supremacy over the Cougar mentors and the air has been cleared of the thunderous cries of "Buck" Bailey, galloping mounts of the W. S. C. defense, and the vociferous and enthusiastic protests of "Dave" MacMillan no longer read the humor laden atmosphere. "The ship has weathered every wreck of the prize we sought is won". The final score showed Idaho to have won the contest 22-20, but the score was a minor detail of the conflict.

Promptly at 8:15 p. m. referee, Parenthesis Chayne, called the combatants to the center of the "cheese box" and explained that there was to be no biting in the clinches, no egg tossing, and a limited amount of slippery elm to be placed on the ball to produce the famous "Mix"ture. It was also announced that no lids should be placed on the baskets in case the ball might happen to be directed that way.

"Dave" MacMillan, Vandal mentor, set the match to the smouldering fire by skirting right end for the Vandales first yardage. "Buck" Bailey, Cougar mentor, was fouled for razzing the referee and Gale Mix, Vandal mentor, looped in the free throw. On the next tossup, "Mac" tallied on a long pass over center. Mac showed himself up to be by far the most outstanding actor of the troupe by his fiery defense and aggressive attack. In the next play, Erb stumbled in front of "Buck" Bailey and Bailey, not to be outdone by a Vandal made a swan dive to the carpet. Erb finally scored. Gale Mix, Vandal mentor, managed to keep in front of Schlademan who chased him out the front door, almost to the steps. The half ended 11 to 8 against the Cougar guards. In the second canto, MacMillan opened up an aerial attack that completely bewildered Coach Bohler and his cohorts. After sinking three long ones, he contented himself with a marvelous exhibition of stationary defense.

Doc Bohler made a riotous comeback in the second period centering his teammates on to doing better and bigger things for Washington State. The rally brought six points for them. MacMillan, each scored 99 out of 100 giving them a two-point lead. Doc Bohler then ordered his five-man defense and tried to stall. But Mix, Idaho mentor, looped the wicket that evored up the score. Two fouls on ing expenditures made on the recent trip through south Idaho, was returned by the board with the request that it be made more in detail and to cover the entire financial situation of the trip. It was brought out that receipts for the trip were approximately $1000 less than the expenses involved. A tour through north Idaho was suggested to the board and approved. This tour will be taken providing members of the Pep band feel they would care to make a second tour.

Student athletic managers, as provided for in the constitution, will be appointed this spring immediately after the general election; it was decided. At present there is no senior student manager. This position is being filled by Gale Mix, who was hired to put the student manager system into operation. At the time he was employed there were no men eligible under the constitution to have the jobs.

Funds of the Women's Athletic league, controlling body for women's athletics here, will be placed in a trust to be administered by the graduate manager. It was voted. All surpluses will be placed in a sinking fund, to be used in the construction of a lodge on Moscow mountain.

For the First Spring Morning

This is a Before-Easter style; the day you get your first real sign of Spring you'll want it.

It's a shoe that makes you feel the way you do when you see your first pussy willow.

It smacks of Spring from tip to toe. It's built for walking.

Fine calfskin with walking heel, and arch moulded to support the weight evenly. A welt which means wear.
