

SPECIAL ELECTION PROVIDED TO FILL OFFICE VACANCIES

Executive Board Member and Blue Bucket Editor Will Be Selected

BOARD NOMINATES

Junior Representative Candidates Will Be Named at General Assembly

One vacancy on the A. S. U. I. executive board and another in the editorial department of the Blue Bucket, caused by the failure of student officers to return to school, will be filled at a special student body election to be held soon, according to Frank W. Clegg, A. S. U. I. president. The appointments of business manager and assistant business manager of the Blue Bucket will also be made by the board.

Shirley Miller, associate editor of the Blue Bucket last year who was to become editor-in-chief this fall, has not returned to school. Maryvina Goldsmith, elected associate editor last spring, automatically becomes editor this fall. This leaves the office of associate editor vacant and the position will be filled at a special election.

A board, consisting of the editor of the Blue Bucket, one member from the staff at large, the president of the A. S. U. I. and the president of the English club makes up the nominating committee. Not more than four members are to be named by the board at once to run for the office of associate editor, Mr. Clegg said. The candidates will be named as soon as possible.

Two other vacancies on the business staff occurred when Archie Kennedy, business manager, and Thelma Moore, assistant business manager, failed to return this fall. These offices are filled by appointment, made by the executive board. It will receive applications for these jobs and then make appointments, Mr. Clegg said.

One junior representative, Rod Ross, did not return to school. This office must also be filled at the special student election. Candidates for junior man will probably be named at a nominating assembly of the students to be held soon.

The date for the special election will be fixed by the executive board at its regular meeting tonight in the A. S. U. I. office room. A week's notice must be given before a special election may be held.

4-H CLUB FAIR IS SET FOR OCT. 21-22

Sixth Annual District Show in Moscow Will Have Prize Competitions

The sixth annual district club fair, at which 4-H club boys and girls of north Idaho will compete for prize trips to the International Livestock shows at Portland and Chicago, will be held in Moscow Friday and Saturday, October 21 and 22. It has been announced by W. L. Stephens, district extension agent.

Three statewide contests and two contests open to district competition are on the program this year. The principal prizes listed are the free trip to Chicago offered by Armour and Company to the champion pig club member of the state; the Montgomery Ward prize of a trip to Portland for the champion girls' demonstration team; the Swift and Company trip to Portland offered to the best club member in Idaho; and two district prizes, trips to Portland for the best livestock judging team and the best girls' demonstration team in north Idaho.

Idaho Had Winners
Last year all of the state awards were won by north Idaho boys and girls. George Funke, Cootenwood, won the Armour prize; Fern Spencer and Estaline Geary of Grangeville, won the Montgomery Ward trip to Portland, and Fern Spencer won the Montgomery Ward trip to Chicago not offered this fall. District prizes went to the Gifford livestock judging team and to Virginia and Juanita Herford of Hammond. The Swift and Company trip is a new one this year. Mr. Stephens, who is in charge of arrangements for the fair, is expecting about 60 boys and girls to attend. Outstanding club members are becoming numerous in north Idaho and the competition this year promises to be keener than it has ever been before.

SOUTHERN BRANCH AG DEPT. GROWING

Agricultural students at the Southern Branch of the University of Idaho number a dozen at the present time, says Dean C. W. Hungerford of the college of agriculture, who has returned from a trip of inspection through southern Idaho. These students are given the first two years of agriculture there under the tutelage of D. W. "Bud" Bliss, former Idaho athlete. Bliss in addition to his agricultural classes; also coaches athletic teams at the Pocatello branch. Dean Hungerford conferred with county agricultural agents in the districts near Pocatello and Twin Falls. He reports crops are good throughout the state.

DEBATE TRYOUTS SET THURSDAY

Varsity, Women's and Freshman Teams to Be Selected

Tryouts for the men's varsity, women's varsity, and freshman debate teams will be held in room 208 Administration building from 4:00 to 6:00 o'clock Thursday, October 6. Prof. H. Carter Davidson has announced. The subject is: "Resolved, that the third term or part-term for Presidents of the United States be prohibited by the Constitution". Each candidate will be allowed three minutes to present one side of the case, and will be judged by members of the faculty. A total squad of twenty-five will be chosen, and the list will be announced in the next issue of The Argonaut.

Arrangements are being made for a debate with Cambridge University, England, sometime this semester, at Boise. Arrangements have already been made with Washington State college for men's varsity, women's varsity, and freshman debates. The rest of the schedule is almost completed, giving Idaho the most extensive and brilliant series of debates in her forensic history.

IDAHO DAIRY GRADS GAIN RECOGNITION

Trade Journal Names College Graduates Prominent in Industry

Under the heading "How Dairy Colleges are Generating Executive Power for the Industry," the Ice Cream Trade Journal, national trade publication, recently published a list of college graduates now prominent in the industry. Among the owners and executives listed were 14 graduates of the University of Idaho.

"Out at Moscow, Idaho," says the article, "the department of dairy husbandry, University of Idaho is sending its graduates into the industry yearly." It names the following Idaho men as outstanding personalities: Carl E. Johnson, proprietor of the Sunnyside dairy, Idaho Falls; I. J. Elby, proprietor of Brookings creamery, Brookings, S. D.; Ronald Ellsworth Wood, manager, Boise Valley Cooperative Creamery company, Boise; Roy D. Smith, manager, Jerome Cooperative Creamery company, Jerome; Ira E. Largent, manager Mutual Creamery company, Grand Junction, Colo.; Ralph N. Largent, manager, Mutual plant, at Lewiston; Fred D. Stewart, manager, San Juan creamery, Friday Harbor, Wash.

Les Wholeschek, Idaho Falls; Harold E. Taylor, manager, Coeur d'Alene Creamery company, Coeur d'Alene; Jesse I. Keith, plant manager at Chateau Larose-Pergamon, Saint Laurent, Medoc, France; Lewis H. Helphrey, manager, Pend'Oreille Creamery company, Plains, Mont.; Lester I. Legrid and Glen O. Emert, partners in Land o'Pines dairy, Coeur d'Alene.

Frosh Thinks U. Needs New Library

Dear Winnie: They sure need a new library at this institution. Three different times I've asked for books that are supposed to be in stock but they could give them to me because they were piled up in the corner or in the basement or even in the attic just because they haven't enough space. And the legislature thinks it is more important to keep us warm and healthy than to have reference books handy.

They have the funniest rule over there Winnie, something about if you keep a book an hour too long you have to pay 25 cents for the first hour you keep it over and 5 cents every hour until a total of $2 is reached. No one knows when the first hour begins so evidently they don't enforce it. They've got a lot of new books such as economy, they advise all students to study and practice it, and psychology and the like, too deep for you, Winnie. The freshman reading list rates some new fiction, but what good does it do the freshmen, when it's in the attic.

TACKE PRESIDENT RIDENBAUGH HALL

Students Organize at Meeting Held Monday; Executive Board Named

Raymond Tacke was elected president of Ridenbaugh hall last Monday evening at the organization meeting. Other officers elected were Edward Small, vice president and Nathan Zablou, secretary-treasurer. James Griffith and Dick Richardson were elected to the executive board, which is made up of the regular officers.

At the meeting plans for dances will be discussed.

VINCENT REPORTS GOOD CROPS

Excellent crop conditions throughout the state have been responsible for extraordinarily fine exhibits at the various state fairs, reports Prof. C. C. Vincent of the college of agriculture, who has just returned from a fruit and vegetable judging trip at the Bonners Ferry and Sandpoint fairs.

VESPER SERVICES BEGIN OCT. 16

Vesper services, which will be held every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the university auditorium, will begin Sunday, October 16, according to Prof. Theodore Kratt, head of the music department. Piano pupils of Miss Isabel Clark will give the first recital.

IDAHO VANDALS HAND MONTANA 19 TO 12 BEATING

Jacoby Scores Last Touchdown After Final Gun Is Shot

BOBCATS THREATEN

Vandals Use Straight Football to Win Initial Game

A smashing offensive rally staged late in the last quarter, climaxed by a wide end run by "Red" Jacoby, in motion as the final gun barked and resulting in a touchdown, gave the Vandal eleven a 19 to 12 victory over the close threatening Montana Bobcats on MacLean field Saturday afternoon.

Idaho punched across two touchdowns in the first half, the first coming within six minutes after the kick-off on straight line bucks and the second was rammed over early in the second quarter by the same route. One kick for an additional point cleared the bar, but one was blocked and the other missing by inches.

After the Vandals had counted their second touchdown Montana uncocked a brilliant attack that garnered the Bobcats their first score. In the final quarter the visitors again let loose a passing offense that ended in their second and last touchdown. Both tries for points were blocked.

With the score standing 13 to 12 in Idaho's favor Idaho took the ball and started a march down the field from their 35-yard line and had started the last play, an end run from the Bobcat 20 yard line, when the gun sounded. Jacoby was well on his way to the goal and a final spurt put him over safely.

Kerschlinick Scores
Kerschlinick, Idaho fullback, appeared for the first time in varsity competition, plugged the line constantly for yardage and carried over two of the Vandal scores.

The outstanding feature of the Montana attack, aside from the effective

SLEDGE CRUSHES ENGINEER'S FOOT

S. C. Bates, university engineer, crushed his own foot with a glancing blow of a sledge hammer Wednesday afternoon at the new heating plant. The culmination of heart trouble and this injury has confined Mr. Bates to his room and it is expected that he will be forced to remain indoors the greater part of this week.

Interviewed by a reporter, Mr. Bates commented on the new low pressure system which will be completed in about two months. "The steam, en route to the university buildings, must pass through a 900 foot bare pipe" he said. "This will cause the steam to be partially condensed, and pressure will consequently be lowered. Students must be patient until operations are completed at the new plant and try to overlook the discomforts of a possible cold snap."

BUSINESS STAFF OF GEM NOW COMPLETE

Weeks, Names Three New Assistants to Manage Year Book

Gilbert Kelly, advertising manager, Floyd Taylor, organization manager, Paul Gowen, circulation manager, are the new Gem of the Mountains business staff assistants which have been appointed by Leon Weeks, business manager.

With these appointments the business staff is now complete. Don Warner was named assistant manager by the executive board last spring. Students who failed to make appointments for photographs should do so as soon as possible, said Mr. Weeks.

MISS ELLIS RETURNS FROM TRIP

Miss Dorothy G. Ellis of the home-economics department, who has been visiting high schools throughout the state, has returned to resume her regular class work.

CULINARY LAB PAR EXCELLENCE MAKES ANYONE GOOD CHEF

"Why Cooks Say 'Leave Home'" is illustrated by Hays Hall Kitchen. It is equipped with the most modern apparatus obtainable to assist those skilled in the gentle art of cooking.

Dishwashing ceases to be distasteful when one merely places the china in an electric machine which knows its duty and does it. The dishes emerge eventually, dry and shining. Other electrical equipment includes a fine range, an oven, a toaster and a grinder. The latter is possibly the most versatile. It boasts the following accomplishments: grinding to the various degrees of fineness, shredding, mixing cookies, biscuits and bread, slicing potatoes, shredding cabbage and lettuce, mixing custard and whipping cream—a paradoxical case of a grinder reducing the grind.

With completion of the new heating system, steam will be used more than electricity in the preparation of meals at Hays. A steam oven and a steam kettle provide quick and modern ways of preparing vegetables and roasts. A steam table continues to make it hot for prepared food.

Standard equipment includes cupboards, tables, stools, a cold storage refrigerator, sinks and a steam coffee urn. While roomy enough to be convenient, the kitchen is sufficiently compact to assure a minimum of steps. It is well lighted with windows on three sides. A splendid feature is the unusually high ceiling.

During the opening weeks of school, nearly 200 students obtained nutrition at Hays Hall. This has been reduced now to about 130. Thirty students are employed in the kitchen and dining room.

SENIORS ELECT OFFICERS THURS.

Fisher Ellsworth Named President For First Semester

Fisher C. Ellsworth, Rigby, was elected president of the senior class for the first semester, at a class meeting held Thursday night. Ellsworth succeeds George Yost, Boise, president of the class of '28 last year. Victor Craig Avery, a Shoshone vice president, Josephine Broadwater, Hays, Mont., secretary, and Clair Killoren, Emmett, treasurer.

An assessment of the class was voted to help defray hospital expenses of Irene Costello, Twin Falls, who was seriously injured in the senior sneak last spring. Miss Costello is still under hospital treatment at Seattle.

CASTS FOR PLAYS ANNOUNCED MON.

Group of Plays to Be Presented Within the Next Four Weeks

Cast for four one-act plays, to be given by the students of the dramatic department, were announced by Prof. John H. Cushman, head of the department, Monday evening. The plays, "The Man Upstairs," "Creatures of Impulse," "The Purple Dream," and "All Gunned Up," will be given the last of October or the first of November.

Miss Marie Johnson and Mrs. Harry Breen, new assistants in the department, are coaching the plays. Rehearsals began Monday, October 3.

Each play will be presented by two casts, one group will play one evening and the second group the following evening. Double roles are necessitated by the large enrollment in the dramatics classes.

The casts for the plays are: cast one for "The Man Upstairs," Bob Paige, Pauline Brown, Ethel Lafferty, Marlon Fleming, and Bee Bangs; cast two is: Alfred Buckingham, Estelle Pickrell, Flo Mathewson, Arthur Chapman, and Gladys Barth.

The first roles in "Creatures of Impulse" are played by: William Guske, Bob Allshie, Ryle Lewis, Thelma Melgard, Lucile Eaton, and Thelma Smith. The second group of players are: Gordon Kershaw, George Justice, Harry Robb, Anne Johnson, and Leona Deirdrickson.

Those who will take part in "The Purple Dream" are: Lillian Woodworth Madeline Yeo, Louise McKinley, Herman Otness, Robert Brown, and Bob Tillotson. Lucile Howe, Marlan Howerton, Grace Parsons, Winston Steele, Jess Honeywell, and Robert Eddy will play the second evening.

The casts for "All Gunned Up" are: Jim McDevitt, Pat Walker, Violet Spurgeon, Bill Renfrew, Germaine Gimble, and Harold Packer, Robert Peterson, Pauline Hockaday, Dan McGrath, and George Anne Brown.

Cross Will Address Wednesday Assembly

Dr. W. M. Cross, lecturer and scientist, will address the Wednesday morning assembly on "The Himalayas and Tibet," according to announcement by the public events committee. The lecture will be illustrated.

Dr. Cross has traveled extensively in Asia and is considered an authority on the famous mountains of Tibet. Wednesday evening he will address the Associated Miners on "The Geology of the Himalayas".

The address at the assembly will be accompanied by lantern slides; the pictures will be shown without darkening the outer auditorium.

DEAN WILL MAKE SOUTHERN TOUR

Miss French Will Address Idaho Clubwomen

Dean Permeal French leaves Monday for a ten-day business trip to South Idaho. While enroute she will visit many towns near Twin Falls.

Miss French's program is being arranged by club women in towns she will visit. She will speak to the district meeting of the Parent-Teacher's association at Rupert.

VANDALS BEAT OREGON TWICE IN 18 YEARS

Broke "Oregon Jinx" in 1924 When Idaho Won 14 to 0

MEET OCTOBER 8

Game This Year Rated As One of Idaho's Hardest Battles

Until the last two years Oregon has been very much in the limelight in Oregon-Idaho football history, so much that a few individuals with a fatalistic turn of mind said that some mysterious power had decreed that an Idaho football team never would win from a University of Oregon eleven. This was called the "Oregon Jinx" and was given new life every fall until the season of 1924 when the Vandals lured Oregon to Moscow and administered a 14 to 0 trouncing. The next year Idaho followed with a 6 to 0 lacing, the second ever given Oregon by a Vandal eleven. It marked the end of the "Oregon Jinx."

Idaho and Oregon did not meet on the gridiron in 1925 so the game at Eugene Saturday, October 8, is the nineteenth meeting of the two schools since the first game in Portland in 1901, when neither side scored. From 1901 to 1924, when Idaho turned the tables, the history of football relationships between the two schools presents an interesting study. No matter how strong Idaho teams might be or how weak Oregon might be the game either ended with a score in Oregon's favor or a tie. Never could Idaho squeeze out a win.

There are many memorable Idaho-Oregon games bearing out this point. One time Idaho led Oregon at the half. An Oregon player had been ruled out of the game and all the stbs had been used and there was no one to send in. During the rest of that game Oregon played with ten men and won. That game and a few more like it won a few converts to the Oregon Jinx idea. Up to Idaho's first

AIRPLANE RACER VISITS MOSCOW

Lieut. A. J. Lyons Is Guest of Sigma Nu and Relatives Here

Lieut. A. J. Lyons, chief metallurgist in the air service at Wright field Dayton, Ohio, and a graduate of the University of Idaho in 1920, was a guest on the campus Thursday evening. Flying an army plane he took the feature of the national air derby races at Spokane last week.

Lieut. Lyons plans to spend Thursday and Friday in Moscow, visiting at the home of his father-in-law, Dr. W. A. Adair, before returning with his family to the east. He was a guest of the Idaho chapter of Sigma Nu Thursday evening.

Lieut. Lyons was particularly interested in seeing all juniors and seniors in the Idaho institution who were considering going into the aviation work, declaring that with the promising future of commercial aviation in the next 20 years, the field presents wonderful opportunities.

RYLE LEWIS HEADS PRE-MEDICS CLUB

Group to Hold Meetings on Alternate Thursdays

Ryle Lewis, junior in the college of letters and sciences, was elected president of the Pre-Med club at a meeting held last Thursday evening at Ridenbaugh hall. James Lyle was elected secretary-treasurer, and Charles Terhune was appointed chairman of the dance committee.

The Pre-Med club will hold regular meetings on the first and third Thursdays of each month. It is planned to have faculty members and outside speakers address the group at one of the meetings. The other meeting each month will be a smoker or some similar social gathering.

"MOONLIGHT" DANCE BANNED AT AKRON U.

Social Affairs of Campus Regulated By New Rules

Akron, Ohio (IP)—Students of Akron university here may have no more "moonlight" dances, according to a new set of rules governing social affairs in the institution, which greeted the returning undergraduates.

The rules provide: 1. No parties shall be given on the campus on Friday or Saturday evenings, or the evening preceding a holiday.

2. No parties to which both college men and women are invited shall be given at any place off the campus except on Friday and Saturday nights except by consent of a committee.

3. Each college class may have one party annually.

4. Social fraternities and sororities may have only four co-educational functions a year.

5. Costume dances are allowed, but extreme dancing, masquerade, moonlight dancing are forbidden at all dances connected with the university.

GIRL IS INJURED AS HORSE FALLS

Lucille Gindeman Cut and Bruised in Accident Saturday

Thrown to the pavement when the frightened horse she was riding fell at Ninth and Deakin streets Saturday morning, Lucille Gindeman, Coeur d'Alene, sophomore in the college of letters, an accident, received a deep cut on her head and minor cut and bruises.

The accident occurred when Miss Gindeman was starting out for a horseback ride with two friends, Evelyn Shields and Elva Reid. Near Flays hall Miss Gindeman's horse became frightened and bolted. Turning the corner at Ninth and Deakin streets, the horse slipped and fell, throwing Miss Gindeman against the curb.

She was taken to the home of Mrs. L. Harshman, 931 Deakin, where first aid was administered. Later she was taken to the university infirmary where her injuries were dressed by Dr. C. O. Armstrong. Several stitches were required to dress a cut above her ear.

Miss Gindeman was able to attend her classes Monday.

VANDAL ROOKS PLAY SPOKANE U. SAT.

Rich Fox to Select His First String Men During Week

With only a few days of scrimmage remaining before the Vandal rooks tangle with the gridsters of Spokane university, Saturday, October 8, at Spokane, coach Rich Fox is confronted with the problem of selecting his starting lineup.

Peterson, the best punter and one of the best ground gainers on the freshman squad, is out with a hip injury and will not be able to get into the scrimmage again for some time. Redman, another backfield man who has been out with injuries for the past week, is still on the sick list but is expected to be sufficiently recovered to get into Saturday's game.

Richardson and Miller are practically certain of getting backfield positions. Rutledge, Booker, and Shean are the other potential possibilities.

Carlson, of Kellogg, who has been playing in the backfield, has been shifted to center and has been given first choice for that position. Tackles likely to get into the game are Rosenbaum, Fannon, and Hall. Martin is a good bet for guard. Other linemen who have shown up well in the workouts are Graybill, Scatterday, Ditton, Swindeman, Young, Arehart, and Henney.

Coach Fox has indicated that he expects to take a squad of about 25 men on the trip to Spokane but will not announce the definite lineup until later.

Shivers and Shakes! Education Retreats

Shivers and Shakes! Shakes and Shivers! Coming from where? Why, Room 110 Science Hall of course.

When? Yesterday morning. When some hundred zoology students appeared at eight o'clock for their regular Monday morning lecture they found the lecture room some degrees colder than the temperature outside. Soon Dr. Wodessdalek arrived and after sensing the situation dismissed the class, saying it was far too cold for classroom work.

An hour later many more students came into the frost-covered room, this time eager for a greater knowledge of the fundamental facts of accounting. After waiting for some little time in the frigid air they too were dismissed and thus the morning passed. Students, although eager and desirous of drinking from the fountain of knowledge, were not hardy enough to brave the elements.

MORE PAVING TO BE DONE BY CITY DEPT.

New Heating Plant to Be Connected With Other Campus Streets

Four more blocks of paving to connect the new heating plant with other campus streets, will be added by the Moscow street department. Sixth street will be extended from the south side of Elm to the west side of Urquhart. Ash street will be paved from the south side of Sixth to the south side of Seventh. Urquhart will be paved from the south side of Sixth to the south side of Seventh.

KNIGHTS HOLD MEETING

The Idaho chapter of the Intercollegiate Knights held their first meeting of the year last Tuesday evening to discuss plans for the coming year and to make arrangements for the formal pledging which will take place in about two weeks.

There will be another meeting tonight at 7:30 o'clock in room 213, Ad building.

NEW LAW SCHOOL AT YALE
New Haven, Conn. (IP)—A new law school to occupy an entire city block is to be erected at Yale university at a cost of three and one half million dollars. An additional million dollars has been set aside for the maintenance of the school.

SPECIAL TRAIN TO O. A. C. GAME HOPE FOR NOVEMBER 19

Permission of Administration is Necessary; Secured Last Year

BLUE KEY INITIATES

President Ellsworth Names Permanent Committees for 1927-28

Possibility of running a special train to Portland for the Idaho-O. A. C. football game November 19 was discussed at the regular meeting of Blue Key, national honorary upperclassmen's fraternity, Monday noon at the Blue Bucket Inn. Arrangements for the "special" will be made by the fraternity, provided permission is obtained from the administration to run it.

Fisher Ellsworth, president of the fraternity, will investigate the Portland special and report at the next meeting. Last year a special train to Seattle for the Idaho game was sponsored by the fraternity.

Three pledges to the fraternity, George W. Greene, Burton L. Moore and Elmer O. Berglund, were formally initiated at the meeting Monday. Permanent committees for the school year were announced by President Ellsworth. These committees are as follows:

Publicity committee: Burton L. Moore, chairman, Floyd W. Lundson, Elmer Berglund and George Young. President of the committee: Frank W. Clegg, chairman, George Yost, Beardslee Merrill and Charles Connaughton.

Athletic committee: Phil Cox, chairman, George Greene, George Paulson and Leon Weeks. Alumni committee: Jess Buchanan, chairman. Gus Bjork, Albert Stellman, Hugh Feltis and George Horton. Luncheon committee: LeRoy Long, chairman.

Work on the revision of the Student Handbook for next year, which will be put out by the fraternity, will be started at once. Murtha Gling was named chairman of the committee to work on the handbook and the other members of this committee are Beardslee Merrill and George Popson. The handbook was printed this year under the direction of the fraternity.

NEW HOUSE MOTHER APPOINTED AT HAYS

Lena Shoup, Daughter of Idaho's First Governor, In Charge

Miss Lena Shoup, daughter of the late George L. Shoup, last territorial and first state governor of Idaho, has been named housemother of the newly completed Gertrude L. Hays hall, women's dormitory, it has been announced. Miss Shoup, who is truly one of the "first women" of Idaho, is a member of one of the most prominent pioneer families of the state.

Governor Shoup, who was identified closely with the pioneer official and political life of territorial and early state life of Idaho, was elected to the national Hall of Fame 20 years ago. The national congress adjourned during the program at the acceptance of the state.

Born in Salmon
Miss Shoup was born in Salmon City, where she spent several years of her life. The Shoup family lived in Washington, D. C., during the period Mr. Shoup was senator from Idaho, from 1891 to 1895. The family again resided in Salmon after their return from Washington. Last June Miss Shoup moved to Boise, where she has since resided.

Commenting upon her appointment, Permeal J. French, dean of women, and her self, a pioneer of Idaho, said: "Miss Shoup brings to us the contacts of the finest people, the experiences of travel and many classifications that will endear her to the young people of Idaho. To the many friends of Senator Shoup of Idaho, as well as friends and acquaintances throughout the country, it will be a source of joy to know that Miss Shoup is to be at the University of Idaho. She will take immediate charge of the dormitory."

RHODES SCHOLAR SAILS SATURDAY

Wallace C. Brown, graduate of the University of Idaho with the class of 1926, was elected last fall as Rhodes scholar from Idaho for 1927, sailed Saturday from New York for Oxford, England, where he will start his three-year study course at that institution under the grant of the scholarship.

No Rhodes scholar will be elected from Idaho this year under the terms of the scholarship award. Oxford study is given, in cycles, and certain years are skipped. During his years here, Brown was editor of both the Argonaut and Gem of the Mountains, and was elected to Phi Beta Kappa his last year, when the Idaho chapter was granted. He was made permanent president of the senior class of 1926.

A STEEP FORWARD

MORE intramural sports is the program to be adopted this year by the A. S. U. I executive board. At least that is the plan which comes up before the board tonight. In the past intramural sports were handled by the university athletic department and the proposal of the board to take this program over and enlarging upon the events will tend to increase student interest.

Idaho is far behind most of the other schools of the west in intramural sports. In fact this branch of athletics has been gaining in popularity in other schools for several years. Students who are not quite good enough for varsity competition are given a chance in intramural events to show their stuff.

In some schools intramural games draw good crowds, while during the last few years basketball games on the Idaho campus have been about the only events that draw crowds or even interest the students. It is the plan of the executive board to stimulate the interest of the students, and to do this, more events are to be added and special trophies offered the winning groups.

When the new gymnasium is finished a more complete program of athletic events, including swimming, wrestling, handball, volley ball and others, can be put on easily. At the present time women are being almost entirely left out of intramural sports. But, this is due to the lack of proper equipment and buildings. With the new gymnasium the women will be included in the enlarged program.

COMMENDABLE ACTION

COACH Charles Erb expressed a belief recently, when addressing a Moscow organization, which is rarely found among athletic mentors. He indicated that he stands for scholarship and is willing to follow implicitly academic rules.

Last week the eligibility of two Vandal grid players, who have since been declared eligible by the academic council and who played most of the game Saturday, was in doubt. Erb naturally wanted to see the council pass favorably on these men, but declared himself in favor of holding strictly to the scholastic rules of the university.

"Whatever the council does will be right", Coach Erb said. When Erb made this statement, the possibility of these two men being in uniform on Saturday was very much in doubt. Erb wanted them in the game, but he would make no complaint if the council ruled otherwise. There would be no argument between the football coach and the men hired to maintain scholastic standards.

Few coaches are found who will express themselves as Erb has done. And this is not the only time he has made himself plain in regard to scholarship. To promote scholastic achievement among athletes Erb offered a trophy last year to the man making the highest average for the year. Everett Lawrence won the cup for last year. This cup is being offered again this season. Charlie should be commended for his action.

KNIGHTS WILL MEET GRID TEAM TODAY

Twenty-three Montana State grid stars will arrive from Bozeman this afternoon, and will be escorted by the Intercollegiate Knights to the Hotel Moscow, where they will stay while they are here.

No special entertainment has been planned for the Bobcats, since it will be necessary for them to leave Moscow in the evening following the game.

Sunday evening mysterious phone calls were received by several well known athletes on the campus. The conversation ran something like this: Athlete: Hello. Other end: Hello, you can't guess who this is. Athlete: (Beaming at the sound of the feminine voice)—Ah-h-h— Other end: Well, I'm the girl you met on your trip to Hollywood a year ago. Come on down to the Moscow hotel lobby. Can you?

A half hour passes, time to bathe, shave, and manicure. Then our heroes appear in the lobby looking like Hart, Shaffner and Marx ads.

TO A FLOCK OF GEESE

Oh, timely reminder of winter, Winging your peaceful way, High in the heavens above us, Following fading day, Make haste to your homeland, Oh, vague fleeing shapes in the gloom. For high piling on the horizon, Winters dark storm clouds loom. Then here's to your raucous calling, By which I identified you From the flock of ducks that lately passed. One hour before I spied you; Here's to the strength of your splendid wings, Which carry you loyally on; And here's to the spell of the Northland, That lingers with you and is gone. Calahoun

THINGS THAT WERE

Daddy thinks of Fortunes grant—

Of wealth, perhaps, or fame; Mother thinks of daily tasks Too numerous to name; And Robert, home from college, Sings a lot and thinks of Her; But Grandpa sits before the fire, And thinks of things that were. Dad has daily dreams, too, although He says that he has none; Mother dreams of lots of things, And don't tell any one And Robert, looking lonely, steals away to dreams of Her; But Grandpa sits before the fire, and dreams of things that were. Calahoun

THE FLAW

You are wholly admirable— (So says the world). My friends extol your virtues without rest. Pointing your pretensions for ungrateful me, Praising your cleanness and your strength, All of which I see, unaided. I know that I could have you for a word— A single look would claim you for my own. Yet there is something that prevents: Your hair—you part it on the side—I'd like it pompadour! Calahoun

SONG OF VAGABOND

Hark to a song of the Gypsy blood. From a heart that is new and keen, Whose red blood leaps to the open trail And the land it has never seen! A horse and a pack and the open road, With naught but the trail ahead, Which grips the soul like an iron band, 'Til the flame within goes dead! Do I cry aloud to the Gypsy God For a home with the one I love? The blood that leaps in my veins Forces my face from above To that ribbon of road that stretches away, With only the stars at the end, Where Adventure waits with open jaws, Just there where the highways bend! And the curse of the Gypsy God will drive 'Til the last long night descend— 'Til Time has reaped my sheaf of years— And all the highways end. ELINOR FRANKLIN. (Edwards)

Making Primers

Lesson No. 2 of BLASTERS' HANDBOOK

PRIMING a dynamite cartridge seems like a very simple job when you watch a professional blaster—a thrust into the cartridge, a blasting cap crimped onto the fuse and inserted into the hole, and the fuse tied to the cartridge with a piece of twine.

But each of these apparently simple steps requires experienced handling for the sake of efficiency and safety. Upon proper priming depends complete detonation, avoiding the pulling out of detonator, guarding against moisture, easy and safer loading of bore holes. There are two methods of detonating a charge—safety fuse and blasting cap or electric blasting caps.

Each step of the several methods of priming a cartridge is fully explained in classroom terms and clearly illustrated in Chapter Two of the Blasters' Handbook.

The entire Handbook, in fact, is one of the practical reference and study works found in the classrooms of leading technical schools, colleges and universities. Written out of the experience of du Pont field service men over a great many years and taken from all fields. Meaty, well arranged, and condensed into handy pocket size.

Interesting to note in connection with this is the fact that Stuart Walker was a student under G. M. Miller when he was professor of English at the University of Cincinnati. Dr. Miller says that Stuart's success is not a matter of surprise to him for he was always enthusiastic and loved his work. He discovered in early life where his interests lay and this start, with his talent and perseverance, has made him an earnest and original force in the American theater of today.

Vain, indeed, the attempt to describe these utterly bewitching afternoon frocks! For who can put into words the intangible loveliness of flaring satin, the jaunty twitter of new pleats, the perkiness of bows, and the triumphs that are their necklines?

Who can describe the autumnal gold of chestnut brown, the delight of marron, the warmth of pampic? Full appreciation can only come upon seeing this exquisite collection, and the low prices at which they are being offered.

Undiscovered country in industry

THE globe's surface no longer holds much undiscovered country, but the pioneer-minded man can still find plenty of it in industry—particularly in the telephone industry. In the Bell telephone companies throughout the entire country, men are now exploring the 1930's and 40's and 50's, charting the probable trend of population and the requirements for service. In research and development, and in telephone manufacture as well, the Bell System takes seriously its responsibility to give adequate service now and to gird itself for a long future.

"OUR PIONEERING WORK HAS JUST BEGUN"

Society last week-end was decidedly brilliant as compared with the social activities of the foregoing weeks.

Saturday night was especially gay with house dances given by Sigma Chi, Beta Theta Pi, and Sigma Nu.

Perhaps we can blame "bad weather" for the fact that the social calendar does not indicate a very lively coming week-end.

- Oct. 7 Alpha Tau Omega pledge dance. Oct. 11 Faculty Women's dinner party. Oct. 14 Delta Chi dance. Oct. 15 Omega Alpha pledge dance.

Friday evening, Phi Delta Theta entertained its freshmen at a pledge dance.

The following guests were present: Mary Thomas, Josephine Broadwater, Josephine Brossard, Betty Eastman, Katherine Hahn, Vivienne Mosher, Lucille Haddock, Helen McConnell, Helen Wheeler, Estelle Jones, Mattie McMaster, Ethel Lafferty, Martha Adams, Vesta Long, Josephine Thompson, Jean Rawlins, Caroline Parker, Peggy Hagan, Alice Rutland, Clarice Anderson, Janet Hawkins, Clara Kall, Mary King, Dorothy Hall, Elizabeth Smith, Gussie Maher, Mary Ellen Adams, Madeline Yeo, Evelyn Emahiser, Jane Maxwell, George Ann Brown, Louise Dunlap, Eleanor Jackson, Lulu Payne, Elizabeth Dunn, Rose Regan, Josephine Standahl, Betty Wilson, Peggy Roche, Mary Murphy, Thelma McGinnis, Ruth Lawrence. Other guests were the Messrs. Anderson, and Brigham.

Sigma Chi entertained in honor of its pledges at an informal dance Saturday evening, October 1, at the chapter house.

COMMENCEMENT MOVIE IS HERE

University of Idaho graduation pictures taken in June, 1927, will be shown at the Vandal theatre Wednesday and Thursday, according to an announcement made by Milburn Kenworthy, owner of the theatre.

Pictures were taken last year and this showing is the first in Moscow. The pictures were recorded by two rews-reel companies. The famous movie of the Salmon River in Idaho entitled "Down the River of No Return", will be shown at the same time in the "all-Idaho" program for the two days.

SPECIAL MUSIC AT A. S. U. I. ASSEMBLIES

Music Faculty to present First Program Wednesday

Special musical numbers will be a part of the regular A. S. U. I. assemblies every Wednesday, beginning Wednesday, October 5, Prof Theodore Kratt, head of the music department announced today.

Members of the faculty will give the first program. The Glee clubs, Pep band, and advanced music students will furnish other programs throughout the year.

Practical field work will be taken up by the senior class of the forestry school, beginning October 3, when the class will take a two-weeks' trip to the holdings of the Clearwater Timber company, near Pierce, Idaho. Several members of the school of forestry faculty will accompany the class.

The trip will be made in order to enable the men to make logging and other laboratory studies on the scene of actual logging operation. The class will run surveys, scale logs, make logging cause studies, and investigate silvicultural practices.

Social position is relative. It depends on living in a town where people are less important than yourself.

STUDY TO MAKE WOOD LAST LONGER

Research Undertaken Here for Western Pine Growers in Durability

Factors that affect the durability of Ponderosa pine, commonly called western yellow pine, and western white pine, the two principal Idaho trees used for lumber, will be determined in a research project to be undertaken at the Idaho school of forestry this year.

In the research project, Dr. Hubert explains, the toxicity of hot and cold water extracts of wood will be tested to determine if there is in the timber any toxic matter that in solution would kill fungus growth.

A precedent in the kiln drying phase of the study is found in recent experiments with western red cedar. In studies with this wood the school of forestry found that kiln drying was a factor in making the wood more durable.

IDAHO PRUNES ARE PROBLEM SUBJECT

Prof. Lelf Verner Collecting Data to Aid Prune Betterment

Problems of efficient storage of Idaho prunes are confronting Prof. Lelf Verner, new member of the agricultural faculty, who has been sent to points in southern Idaho to collect information and to make observations.

The University of Idaho is seeking to learn the effect of the time of picking the Idaho prune crop, on its keeping qualities, sugar content, size, flavor, and quality.

FINE WORK IS DONE IN SUMMER SCHOOL

Graduate Students Highly Complimented By Yale Professor

Summer school students at the university this summer numbered 227, of whom 62 were graduate students.

That standards of work are high was indicated by Dr. Clyde M. Hill, professor of secondary education in Yale university graduate school, who was a member of the Idaho summer school faculty and who spoke in complimentary terms of the quality of work done by the Idaho students.

Another faculty member from an outside institution was Dr. Frank F. Potter, professor of philosophy at Washington State college. Other courses were offered by Idaho faculty members.

passing game, was the 40 yard dash by Elkren, halfback, after he had broken through the line on the second play the Bobcats attempted in the first quarter.

Montana kicked off to Dewey who returned five yards. Jacoby made five yards through the line. Kershnick added two on a line smash and Jacoby made it first and ten. Hult went around left end for two yards. Big Bill smashed through tackle for five and then passed to Jacoby for the second first and ten. Montana called time out and on the resumption of play Hult gained two yards off left end. Kershnick burred through for nine yards and another first down. Hult gained two yards. A reverse play failed to gain Kershnick made three yards off tackle and Jacoby added six more on an end run and Bill made it first and ten on his next smash. He recled off five more and Jacoby made it first and goal on a fake reverse. With the ball on the seven yard line Montana called time out. Hutchinson bucked the line for five yards, then Idaho fumbled, but recovered on the three yard line. Kershnick went over from there for the first touchdown. Try for point failed.

Dewey Received Montana kicked to Dewey again and on the first two plays Jacoby and Kershnick ripped off ten yards for first down but Idaho was penalized on the next play for off side. A line buck failed to gain; Jacoby made five yards around right end and on the third down Burgher punted 45 yards to Richards who was downed in his tracks. Montana State, using the huddle system, failed to gain on the first play but on the second, Elkren ripped off 40 yards through center on a bewildering formation. Idaho called time out. Montana fumbled and recovered, failed to complete a pass and punted to the 11 yard line where Wrenn downed Jacoby. Jacoby gained a yard and Montana penalized 15 yards for back field being in motion. A bad pass from center cost Montana State 10 yards. With the ball on their own 25 yard line Montana State punted 30 yards to Jacoby who came back five yards. Hutchinson knocked off two yards through the line; Jacoby skirted left end for five and Big Bill had made it first and ten and was tearing off on another four yard gain as the quarter ended. Score, Idaho 6, Montana State 0.

Scores Again On resumption of play Jacoby and Hutchinson gained four yards through the line and Kershnick made it first and ten. Jacoby and Hult hit tackle for nine yards and Kershnick placed the pile-kick on the ten yard line for first and goal. Jacoby failed to gain on a reverse play and Idaho was penalized for backfield in motion. Hutchinson made up eight yards with adding two and Jacoby put the ball on the one yard line on an end run. Kershnick went over for the second time. Sumpter was substituted for Brimhall and kicked the goal for additional point. Score Idaho 13; Montana State 0.

Richards kicked off to Burgher who returned ten yards. Hult made two yards and on the next play a fumble in the backfield recovered by Kershnick caused a loss of three yards. Burgher punted 50 yards to Richards. Elkren made three yards off tackle. Babcock added two more and then Elkren punted 30 yards to Jacoby who came back seven yards to the 30 yard line. Hutchinson and Burgher failed to gain through the line and Burgher punted to Richards' right. Elkren slipped around end for eight yards and then Montana opened up her aerial attack with a pass. Che to Babcock that netted 20 yards. Idaho was penalized for offside and Babcock gained five yards through the line for first and ten. Jensen was substituted for Dewey at left end. Idaho knocked down and recovered with Idaho. Che then received a penalty of 15 yards when Hutchinson interfered with the receiver of another pass, Richards to Che. This placed the ball on the Idaho 25 yard line and after several short line smashes Richards passed to Che who fell over the line as he was tackled, scoring a touchdown. Kick for point failed.

Baker's Job Once Lured J. P. Sousa

Norman Substituted

Norman went in for Kershnick and received the kick off. The half ended with Idaho in possession of the ball on their 30 yard line.

At the beginning of the second half, Dewey went in for Jensen and Robertson for Norman. Sumpter kicked to the goal line but Richards came back 30 yards. Elkren slipped around end for 15 yards but on the next play Babcock fumbled and recovered. Elkren punted out of bounds on Idaho's 15 yard line. On the second play Burgher returned the punt and Babcock got through center for 15 yards. Jensen went in for Dewey again on the first play got Babcock behind the line for a two-yard loss.

A pass, two line bucks and another pass placed the ball on Idaho's three yard line but the Idaho line held and after a penalty for off side Montana then went in for Hult. It was Idaho's ball on the 24 yard line and Big Bill was forced out of bounds as the third quarter ended.

Brimhall was substituted for Sumpter. Burgher punted to Richards who was downed by Robertson after a short gain and on the first play Elkren lost seven yards when C. Diehl broke through and smeared the play behind the line. Elkren was injured and Cashmore sent in in his place.

Beall replaced Price for Idaho. Chez punted 25 yards and Idaho was penalized 15, for holding. A pass, Richards to Cashmore added five yards and then Montana State was penalized for taking too much time over the huddle. Babcock slipped a pass to Chez that gained 15 yards. An incomplete pass, two futile line bucks and a short end run that failed to gain the ground gave Idaho the ball on downs and Robertson and Jacoby had hammered the line for nine yards when Chez intercepted Kershnick's pass to Jacoby and the Bobcats resumed their passing march beginning with a seven yard toss from Babcock to Chez and continuing until on the five yard line was thrown for a loss and the backfield then penalized for being in motion. Then with the threat seemingly having passed over, Babcock heaved a beautiful 25 yard pass to Chez over the line. Twilide went in to kick goal but the attempt was blocked. Hurd substituted for Lewis and Grady for Richards. Soon after the kickoff Perrins went in for Paul. Hutchinson and made a vicious tackle that threw Babcock back several yards after he had received Chez short pass. Another pass from Chez's arm was intercepted in midfield by Chuck Diehl and the last Idaho drive began. Perrins made two yards around right end and Jacoby added six through the line. Kershnick made it first and ten and Jacoby raced from the 20 yard line for the final score as the game ended.

"OUR PROSPECTOR" TO AID ERB; PERHAPS A VANDAL GRANGE

"Socrates! Puto!" were cries piercing the crisp autumn air. Not philosophical epithets, but football signals. Frenzied crowds surging onto the field, tumultuous cheering, thrilling, flashing exhibitions of football.

Clad in moleskins of his own design, an anonymous all-American contender exhibited his prowess in pursuing the elusive pigskin. Gainful line bucking, deceptive punting, clever passing and shifty open field running was the menu offered appreciative patrons of this football event.

Our clever embryo "Red Grange", keenly intent upon exhibiting his skill upon visionary opponents, endeavoring to administer a loss to Silverthorn's tin charger. This novel subject of hero worship was repulsed, however, to the extent of a few minor injuries. Dr. Killoran, called from the crowd, offered his expert medical attention and soon had the shifty gridiron aspirant back into the game refreshed and invigorated.

"Idaho's football stock" quoth sagacious sportsters of the campus, is due to take a decided upward trend. Joe Coach has announced his candidacy for triple threat backfield contention."

S. M. "Larry" Doyle, formerly national commander of the Forty and Eight of the American Legion and an alumnus of Drake university, accompanied by his wife, stopped at Moscow Saturday morning to see the Idaho-Montana football game and to visit with friends on the campus.

While attending Drake university, Mr. Doyle starred in football and served as president for fourteen different organizations. Two weeks before his graduation he got into a political scrape which ended in his expulsion from the university.

Mr. Doyle is a well known lawyer having won several cases of national attention. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

TALLEST FOOTBALL MAN IS AT U. OF W.

Husky Manager Boasts of Jessup, Over Six Feet Seven

University of Washington, Sept. 29 Omar Walker, football manager of the University of Washington Huskies, boasts of having the tallest man in intercollegiate football for the coming season.

Paul Jessup of Bellingham, center on the 1928 yearling outfit coached by Wayne Sutton, now varsity end coach, stands six feet seven and one quarter inch in his stocking feet and weighs 220 pounds when in shape. This year Coach Bagshaw is using Jessup regularly in nightly scrimmages at a tackle berth, as he makes good use of his long arms and legs in stopping plays.

Jessup is also weight heaver and discus thrower, and is expected to make a good showing in the coming track season.

FROSH DISCARD CRUSHERS

U. C. L. A., Los Angeles, Sept. 30 (PIP)—Freshmen are wearing a new hat this semester. In the place of the old style felt "crusher", the Traditions committee has selected a new "dinky". This new hat is solid blue with a gold button. Due to the abolition of hazing, the sophomores will not be able to enforce the tradition of wearing the frosh hat. According to the present outlook it will not be necessary to inflict a penalty for violation as a majority are following the custom.

SOVIETS START MILITARY TRAINING IN UNIVERSITIES

Moscow, Russia—(IP)—Seventy-five thousand young "reds", students of soviet colleges and universities throughout Russia, are receiving military training along with their education, following a command of the soviet government. Approximately 180 school hours a year are spent by the students in training to become reserve officers.

"HURRY UP" YOST QUILTS COACHING

Michigan Coach Turns Grid Squad Over to Subordinates

Ann Arbor, Mich. (IP)—After coaching at Michigan for over 25 years, during which time he has turned out some of the best gridiron teams in history, Fielding H. Yost has announced that he will no longer coach the gridlers. He explains that he is going to give his time to several new athletic developments about the university, leaving the coaching to his subalternates. He began coaching here in 1901.

DAVIS PLANS TO REDECORATE "GRILL"

Plans for extensive alterations in the Grill, popular downtown restaurant, has been announced by its new owner, R. B. Davis, of Seattle, who took charge a month ago.

A new barcar, new counter, chairs and new windows and a complete job of redecorating are planned according to Mr. Davis.

The cafe will close early for a week or two to permit a night crew to finish preliminary work. The Grill was started here more than a year ago by A. M. Merry, formerly Lindley Hall chef.

Flappers Wash Cambridge Men

Cambridge, Mass.—(IP)—This at least is the opinion of the Cambridge police force, which has started a drive to put an end to flappers driving sport cars picking up college men in this city. In the past few weeks three women have been arrested for accosting strangers while only one man has suffered from this mistake.

A Senior Hall of Fame Next time you visit Elsea's, ask to look at the "Senior Table", or, if you are a senior, ask to sit there. Then carve your initials, your fraternity crest or what you please on its soft larch face. With other years that come, when you return to your Alma Mater, the top of the '28 Senior Table, varnished, will hang on Elsea's wall with those that follow, and bring back pleasing memories of dear college days.
