GRID CLASSIC ENDS IN 7 TO 7 TIE

UNIVERSITY ENTERTAINS MANY ALUMNI ON CAMPUS FOR ANNUAL HOMECOMING

Attend Bonfire at Fairgrounds; Alumni Program at Bucket

Main Feature on Program Was Grid Classic With Cougars; Campus Deserted During Game at Pullman

The informal dance the evening before the homecoming football game and the dinner the evening following the game are becoming permanent Idaho traditions. It was indicated by the success of the two events this year. Attendance at the dance was large and the spirit indicated that all Idaho grads and former students who are able to break away from their duties long enough to return to the campus have not forgotten how to dispense the Old Idaho spirit. An even greater attendance is expected at the dinner at Hays hall tonight.

By automobile and train the homecoming crowd dribbled in Thursday. The first part of the evening was spent at the pep rally and bonfire and on a visit about the campus to observe how the various group houses had decorated in honor of the "old timers."

The percentage of old Idaho football men was particularly great this year. Some of the men played on Idaho teams that won against the Cougar, others played during the days when the Cougar thought Idaho easy meat. At any rate, those who played on losing teams came back with the hope that the 1927 Vandals would avenge for them while those who played on losing teams hoped that the latest generation would carry on the praiseworthy task of downing Washington State.

Following the dinner this evening the alumni plan to attend some of the various dances about the campus and other entertainments planned by the groups in their honor. The old grads like to "wander around" during a portion of their homecoming period and see old familiar sights again and renew acquaintances with those in college during their time.

TWO GROUPS OUT OF DEBATE RACE

Kappa Sig and Lambda Chis Eliminated from Forensic Contest

Seven groups, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Nu, Tau Men Alpha, Forney hall, Beta Theta Pi, Phi Gamma Delta and Delta Chi, remain in the race for the intramural debate cup.

Kappa Sigma, represented by Max Sheridan and Harold Wayland, was defeated by Henrietta Paroz and Georgia Hall of Forney hall, and Neal Wendle and Carl Christenson of Sigma Nu eliminated Lambda Chi Alpha, represented by Henry Martin Tuesday evening. Due to the illness of the other member of Lambda Chi team, Martin chose to defend his group alone, rather than to postpone the debate. Prof. Edward Mason, Alvin Reading and Maurice Nelson were judges.

The third round will be debated next Tuesday evening when Phi Delta Theta, affirmative, will meet Tau Men Alpha on the question, "Resolved: That Associated Student Government of the University is a Failure." Forney hall, affirmative, will debate "That All Final Exams of the University Be Abolished" and Beta Theta Pi, affirmative, will clash with Phi Gamma Delta on the question: "Resolved: That the Oxford System of Education Be Adopted in American Universities." Delta Chi drew a bye in the matchings for the third round.

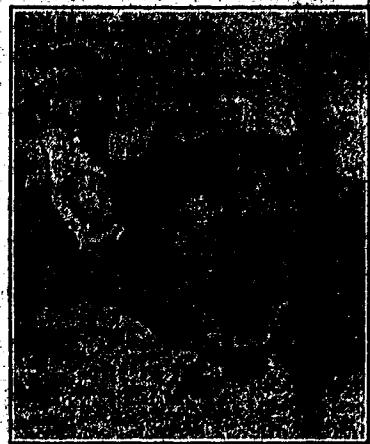

Increased interest in intramural debate this year, believed to be due to the student interest of campus questions, is noticeable in that there have been no defaults thus far. Maurice Nelson, manager, said, "The rest of the debaters promise to be especially interesting and spirited, he added."

MORTAR BOARD TO ENTERTAIN ALUMNI

Dancing, Bridge and Stunts at Blue Bucket Tomorrow Afternoon

Motor Board is sponsoring a mixer to be held Saturday afternoon from 2:00 o'clock to 5:00 o'clock at the Blue Bucket Inn. Its purpose is to help complete this homecoming program and to aid in the entertainment of alumni. There will be stunts and songs presented by junior and freshman girls and tables will be provided for those who wish to play bridge. Clair Gale's orchestra will furnish music for dancing.

LED VANDALS

QUEN "RED" JACOBY, led the Vandals as quarterback this afternoon in the annual grid classic against the Washington State Cougars at Rogers field at Pullman. "Red" added more laurels to his name record with his performance today.

SIGMA CHI, THETA RHO WIN DISPLAY CUPS

Beta Theta Pi and Pi Sigma Rho Second in House Decoration Contest

Sigma Chi national fraternity and Kappa Alpha Theta national sorority were declared winners of the annual homecoming house decoration contest by the judges at noon today. Second place for the men's groups was awarded to Beta Theta Pi. Pi Sigma Rho local sorority won second honors in the women's contest.

The Sigma Chi display represented an old English tavern. Long pennants streaming from the eaves of the house added to the tavern sign and the other features of the decorative scheme. The Thetas had the best night display, according to the judges, and the Betas the best slogan.

The winners were selected on the basis of 25 points for each of the following: Originality, appropriateness of slogan, workmanship and effectiveness of the welcome idea. The effect of the displays at night was considered by the judges.

The judges were J. F. Stewart, Mrs. Thomas Wright, Mc P. Bailey, Mrs. Virgil, Kirkham and Charles Carter.

MILLER RETURNS FROM N. IDAHO

Dean Attends Chamber of Commerce Meeting at Kellogg

Dean F. G. Miller, head of the school of forestry, recently returned from a meeting of the North Idaho chamber of commerce held at Kellogg Monday and Tuesday, November 7 and 8. In the meeting stress was laid to the reforestation problems of this region and reports showed that distinct progress has been made with the forestry problems.

Dr. E. E. Hubert, professor of forest products, attended a white pine blight conference in Portland last week and E. G. Welschmugel attended the Pacific Logging conference at Tacoma last week.

BALCH NAMED ON FORESTER BOOK

Préntice Balch, Spokane, Friday was named associate editor of the Idaho Forester by J. B. Baker, Nelson, B. C., editor of the forestry school yearbook this year. M. W. (Shy) Mitchell, Wilmington, Del. was named business manager and Jack Hume, Moscow, associate.

Work on the publication will begin soon and an effort will be made to have the publication off the press before the end of the year instead of distributing in July as in past years. The Idaho Forester contains technical material and school activities and is issued annually. It contains placements of graduates and also an alumni directory.

Plans for the Forester's annual dance this month are progressing rapidly, with only a limited number to be given tickets this year. The dance will be held in the university gymnasium.

CHICAGO ALUMNI HOLD BANQUET

Fifty Idaho alumni at Chicago held a banquet this afternoon during the hours the Idaho-W. S. C. game was in progress. Wire reports of the game received direct from the game were read at the dinner.

A letter received this morning by mail from former Idahoans regretted that they were unable to attend the homecoming game and extended good wishes to the team.

GRAIN JUDGERS WILL REPRESENT IDAHO AT SHOW

Executive Board Authorizes Trip to International Exhibit at Chicago

THREE ON SQUAD Made Clean Sweep at Portland Exposition; Gault Made Highest Score

Idaho's grain judging team, which made a clean sweep at the International Livestock exhibition at Portland last week, will represent the University of Idaho at the International Livestock and Hay and Grain show to be held in Chicago this latter part of this month. This trip was authorized by the executive board of the A. S. U. I. at its regular weekly meeting Tuesday night.

Three students and the coach will make the trip to Chicago. The men on this team are Harry Spence, of Moscow, Harry S. Gault, of Buhl and Tucson Thompson, of Great Falls, Mont. W. W. Hubert, professor of agronomy and judging coach, will accompany the trio.

At the Portland show the team won first place with the unusually large margin of 314 points. As individuals Gault took first place with the highest score. Spence, third and Thompson fourth.

At the Chicago show the Idaho team will compete with teams from all over the nation. With this university represented at this show, Idaho will be placed before the country, according to Frank Clink, president of the A. S. U. I.

The grain judging contest is set for the first day of the show, it has been announced, this being Saturday, November 26. The team will leave here November 19 and plans to do some practice judging in Chicago at the University of Illinois prior to the contest. At the present time the team is working on grains that it is not entirely familiar with.

NON-CONFERENCE GAMES FOR TWO COAST LEADERS

Vandals; Tied for First, Meet Cougars in Only League Title

U. S. C. AT COLORADO

Stanford to Entertain Santa Clara; Meets California November 19

(By Frank E. Judy)

Standings of conference teams before the game today revealed a triple tie for first place. Stanford, Southern California and Idaho have come through their schedule thus far undefeated. The three teams are engaged in games this week end, Idaho alone meeting a conference opponent.

Washington meets California at Berkeley in a struggle which brings together two of the strongest teams of the coast, despite the fact that each has tasted the bitter dregs of defeat once this season. This battle will find power-pitted against speed, with the Huskies adopting steam roller tactics. In Carroll and Tesreau, Coach Bagshaw has two of the hardest hitting backs in the conference and any line will be kept busy stopping this pair. "The Blue and Gold" will attempt to overcome this attack, with speed furnished by Elmer Elam and Newman. The Huskies should emerge victorious for they clearly outplayed Stanford last Saturday, only to lose by fumbling, while California was extended to the limit to conquer the lowly Montana team.

O. S. C. Game

In the contest which will determine the champion of Oregon and also send one team lower in conference rating, the University of Oregon meets Oregon State college at Eugene. Despite the fact that the Webfooters will have Bob Robinson, their colored backfield ace, in the lineup for the first time since the opening conference game, the Orange and Black should win by the margin of a touchdown, due to a better balanced team.

U. S. C. is expected to crush Colorado without much effort. The Trojans are superior to the Mountaineers in all departments and it will not prove surprising to see the first eleven rest in preparation for the games with Washington State, Notre Dame and Washington, which follow on successive Saturdays.

Stanford at Santa Clara

Stanford entertains Santa Clara in a contest which should prove light exercise for the Cardinals before meeting California, November 19. The Saints are coached by Adam Walsh, former Notre Dame center who was chosen on Walter Camp's mythical All-American team in 1924.

GRAD TALKS IDAHO SPIRIT AT ASSEMBLY

Days of Rivalry Between W. S. C.-Idaho Recalled by Ted Turner

Past days of gridiron rivalry between Washington State college and Idaho, which goes back nearly 35 years, were recalled at the Wednesday morning assembly by Ted Turner, university graduate in 1924. The assembly period was devoted to a pep rally before the homecoming game.

Going back to the early contests between the schools and depicting first clashes, Mr. Turner traced the annual classic up to the present day. He was particularly complimentary of the Idaho spirit throughout the whole period.

Stewart "Stew" Beam, assistant Vandal coach, introduced members of the Idaho squad, who appeared on the platform, and gave a brief talk on future football for Idaho. He refused to make any prediction for the contest Friday.

Remainder of the assembly was turned over to the Yell Kings, Sigma and Porter, for well practiced. Frank Clink, student body president, presided at the assembly.

DEAN PREDICTS AIR TRAVEL SOON

Dean Thompson Says Students Will Come to University by Airplane in Few Years

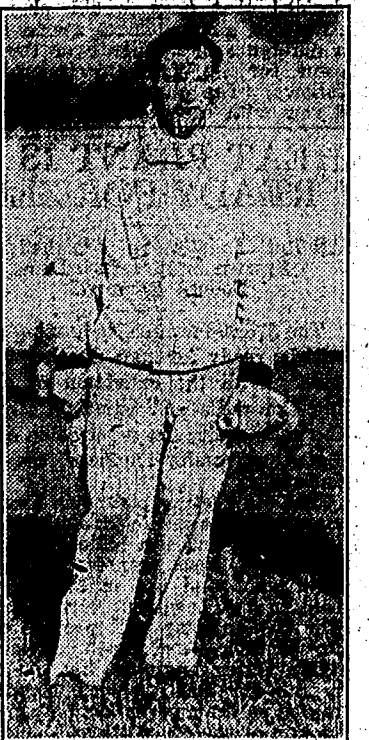

Within the next five years a considerable number of University of Idaho students will come from southern Idaho homes to the university by air, predicts Dr. Francis A. Thomson, dean of the school of mines. He recently made a trip from Spokane to Moscow by the air route.

"Idaho offers an unusually good field for commercial air transportation. With development of a landing field at Moscow and with practically all larger towns of northern Idaho planning establishment of airports, I would not be surprised if air transportation should become a common means of travel between North and South Idaho in even less time than I have predicted."

N. B. (Nick) Mamer told Dean Thomson on his recent trip that with a minimum guarantee of six passengers a day he could make the trip from Moscow to Boise in well under three hours at practically the cost of railroad fare for the same distance, plus Pullman fare.

"A great advance in airplane construction has been made by adoption of closed or cabin jobs. On a recent trip four of us chatted and smoked in the cabin of Mamer's Buhl air sedan, even more comfortably than we could have done in a closed car and in our ordinary street clothing," Dean Thomson said.

VANDAL LEADER

COACH CHARLIE ERB for the second time sent an eleven against the W. S. C. Cougars this afternoon on Rogers field. He has put the Vandals up in the first section of the Pacific Coast conference race.

IDAHO BASKETBALL SQUAD WILL START PRACTICE MONDAY

Vandal Hoop Artists Will Begin Work Under New Coach

LETTERMEN BACK

Sophomores Offer Good Material; Several Veterans Are to Turn Out

Veterans' Help

Varsity basketball will officially begin Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, according to an announcement of Coach Rich Fox, who is taking over the reins of the first string quintet for his first year of college coaching.

Many of last year's men have been turning out each evening giving assistance to the fresh aspirants and getting themselves back in shape for the winter schedule. Several first string men are on the football squad and will not be able to start their basketball workouts until after Thanksgiving but Fox will have a large nucleus of lettermen and one of the best groups of sophomores the university has had with which to start his workouts.

George Green, Art Dawald and Bus Canine have each afternoon for the past two weeks drilled the large turnout of freshmen in the fundamentals of basketball. All three men have won two letters and are playing their last year for Idaho.

This third first sitting of the freshman squad which lost only one game last season has returned to school and will give some of the lettermen a tough fight to hold their positions. "Shorty" Thornhill, center, Harold and Ralph Drummond, Ralph Utt and Jay Christians, guards and Harold Stowell and Frank McMillin, forwards are outstanding among the second yearmen. The work of Stowell and McMillin is particularly brilliant. Their uncanny floor work

VANDAL BABES END SEASON SATURDAY

Frosh Team Will Battle Cheney Normal; Three On Injured List

The Vandal Babes make their last appearance in football suits Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock when they tangle with the fast Cheney Normal eleven on MacLean field.

Injuries will keep a backfielder out with a wrenched knee. Loss of Miller and Pederson last week from the backfield combination struck the Babes hard and their loss was keenly felt during the Cougar Kitten contest last week.

Coach Rich Fox has had trouble to keep up a backfield combination this year, although the line difficulties have been solved. Inability of Fannon to start will throw Martin into his position. The remainder of the line will be hit.

Rutledge probably will start at quarterback in place of Richardson. The plucky Lewiston signal barker sustained a sprained shoulder in the W. S. C. contest and will be on the bench Saturday.

The normal eleven defeated the W. S. C. second team 14 to 0, earlier in the season, but the crippled Idaho team will find the teachers a hard machine to crush, fans predict.

IDAHO ATTRACTS OUTSIDE STUDENTS

Five Foreign Nations Represented on Local Campus

Idaho attracted 285 students from other states and foreign countries, according to information secured from the registration cards filled out at registration time. Two hundred and sixty of these came from different parts of the union, while the other 25 came from other countries.

Washington supplied the majority of the out-of-state registration: 140 comes from the other side of the state line. Next on the list is California, with 18 "native" sons and daughters registered. Oregon furnished 16 and Montana 13. Utah and Wyoming, the other two bordering states, are represented by six and seven respectively.

Of the five foreign countries represented on the campus, the Philippine Islands sent 11 students, which is the largest number from countries out of the United States. Eight are from Canada, four from India, and one each from China and Alaska.

Thirty-one different states are represented in the student body. The students from India hold the title for having traveled farthest in coming to Idaho. One student from Florida holds the distance record for students coming from within the boundaries of the United States.

ALPHA KAPPA PSI MEETS THURSDAY

Paul Rudy Is Elected Master of Rituals

Paul L. Rudy, Buhl, junior in the school of business, was elected master of rituals at a meeting of Alpha Kappa Psi, professional business fraternity, at a meeting Thursday afternoon in the Administration building.

A speaker will be obtained from the Spokane for the next monthly banquet of the organization. It is planned to have him address assembly while he is here.

Alpha Kappa Psi is preparing for a smoker to be held soon.

IDAHO FUMBLES PUNT AND COUGARS RECOVER BEHIND GOAL LINE FOR SCORE

DOES PUNTING

Weather Is Ideal; Crowd of 15,000 Sees Teams Clash

"Butch" Meeker's Performance in Running Back Punts is Constant Threat; Burgher, "Chuck" Diehl and Kershnik Star for Idaho

"Butch" Meeker's brilliant open field running was the constant threat that Idaho had to face in the Idaho-W. S. C. game this afternoon at Rogers field. Meeker's ability to run back punts for long distances was the chief factor that kept Washington State in the running.

The game opened with Idaho receiving the kickoff. On the first play Burgher passed to Hutchinson for 35 yards. After an exchange of punts, Idaho started from midfield and marched steadily down the field for a touchdown. The try for point was converted.

The game was featured by the kicking of Burgher and McDonald. Both men got off kicks that averaged 40 yards. Idaho's line was far superior to that of W. S. C. but with the Meeker performing so brilliantly for the Cougars, was unable to make up the difference.

Fumble Costly

In the third quarter W. S. C. scored after six minutes of play when Barrett, substituting for Jacoby at quarter, fumbled a punt on Idaho's 18-yard line and Jenne, Cougar right guard, fell on the ball over the goal line for a touchdown. Meeker converted the try for point and tied the score.

Idaho opened up a frantic passing attack in the last quarter trying passes on almost every play. The ball was worked up to W. S. C.'s 18-yard line only to be lost on downs. W. S. C. punted on practically every down, and let Idaho bear the brunt of the offensive attack. The game ended with the ball on Washington State's two-yard line.

A place kick formation was called in the fourth quarter and it looked

GEM CONTRACTS ARE ANNOUNCED

Year Book to Be Printed By Syms-York Company of Boise

Contract for the printing of the Gem of the Mountains has been let Syms-York Company of Boise, it is announced by George Young, editor-in-chief and Leon Weeks, business manager. The contract awarded totals approximately $4,000 and calls for 1,000 copies of the book. The final papers will be signed soon by Mr. Young and Mr. Weeks, representatives for the Gem.

Copy for printing will start going in right after Christmas. George Young and Leon Weeks will both go to Boise in time to attend the beginning of the printing.

Covers for the books will be printed by The David J. Malloy company of Chicago which has been doing this work for several years. Engraving will be done by the Western Engraving company of Seattle which has done work for the Gem for the last three years.

Leon Weeks says that organization presidents who desire space in the Gem should see either Floyd Taylor, or himself as soon as possible. Students should have their pictures taken before the Christmas rush. Appointments must be made immediately.

GOVERNOR FAILS TO BE PRESENT

Baldridge Is Unable to Attend Armistice Day Exercises

Governor H. C. Baldridge was not present at the special Armistice Day program held between halves of the Idaho-W. S. C. game this afternoon. Inability to make the northern trip at this time was given as the reason.

His place was taken by Victor C. Shaw, his secretary, who is representing the governor at a number of public events in the northern part of the state this week.

NOTED EDUCATOR TO ADDRESS CLUB

Dr. W. D. Howe, Editor, Will Be Here Tuesday

Dr. Will David Howe, well known educator and editor, will address the first English club meeting of the year at the Blue Bucket Inn, Tuesday evening, November 15 at 8 o'clock.

Dr. Howe is on a lecture tour of western colleges, including the universities of Colorado, Wyoming, Idaho and Washington State colleges.

He is general editor of educational publications in Charles Scribner's Sons' publishing company. Before entering Scribner's he was a member of Harcourt, Brace and Howe publishing company. At one time he was professor of English at the university of Indiana. Doctor Howe received his doctorate from Harvard and holds several other degrees.

Doctor Howe contributes to current magazines, edits a literary history and a Student Library Series.

POSTPONE HAYS HALL OPENING

Hays Hall formal opening was postponed Sunday on account of inclement weather conditions, according to Miss Permeal J. French, dean of women. It is hoped that the opening will be held on Sunday, November 20. Further announcement of the event will be made later.

ENTHUSIASM HIGH AT ANNUAL PARADE

Program at Big Bonfire Follows Pajama Parade; Girls Participate

Pre-game enthusiasm reached its peak at the all-college pep rally on Thursday night. The rally opened with the girls parading from house to house on the campus followed by the annual pajama parade through the business district. As a climax for the evening the entire student body gathered at the fairgrounds where the huge bonfire was lighted.

The pep band led the parade through the streets of the city and to the fairgrounds. The bonfire, built by the freshmen, was lighted as the crowd approached the fairgrounds. Yells and songs were on the program at the fire.

Several alumni gave talks at the bonfire. The men called upon for speeches by Yell King Horace Porter were "Heck" Edmundson, now track coach at the University of Washington, James "Tony" West of Seattle, Ralph "Bum" Brashers of Boise and Joe Perault of Boise.

Following the bonfire a dance was held at the gymnasium for students while alumni attended an alumni dance and mixer at the Blue Bucket Inn.

Four hundred and fifty girls started from Forney hall about 6 o'clock and wound their way past the fraternities, stopping in front of each to sing Idaho songs. They were met in front of the Delta Gamma house by the fellows, all of whom were adhering to the "pajama" part of the parade—or, at least were in some sort of "evening wear."

COACHES TO CONFERENCE IN SOUTH IDAHO

High School Basketball Conferences Sponsored by Athletic Association

A series of conferences for high school basketball coaches and officials will be held throughout southern Idaho the week opening November 14 by Rich Fox, varsity basketball coach of the University of Idaho.

The series is sponsored by the Idaho Interscholastic Athletic Association for the purpose of obtaining uniform interpretation of recent rule changes and outlining plans for the high school championship schedule.

Coach Fox indicated that these conferences probably would be held at Boise, Twin Falls, Pocatello and Idaho Falls. R. H. Snyder, Idaho Falls, president of the state association has sponsored the meetings.

IDAHO ALBERT

There was once a little boy who went to Podunk high school. Now Podunk didn't have a football team but it did have a dandy, fine swimming tank, and our hero was a darn good swimmer.

What he really wanted to be was a flashy halfback, so when he graduated from high school he went to Idaho university and was one of the SPLASHIEST halfbacks that ever splashed across the lake for DEAH old E-d-a-h-o.

TRAFFIC RULES ARE ENFORCED
Regulations Made by U. of Cincinnati; Severe Penalties for Violations

Other schools than our own have traffic regulations. The University of Cincinnati, through Daniel Laurence, secretary and business manager of the university, announced a short time ago a long list of parking regulations which will be strictly enforced this year.

The proclamation went on to say that "any second infraction of the rules will require the student to appear before the president with a possibility of his being placed on probation or suspension."

At the University of Oregon, regulations have been made more stringent. The chief offenses there are speeding, cutting corners, parking without lights, and playing pranks, such as stealing parking signs. Formerly students brought into the police court usually had no money for paying fines. They expected the city to carry such accounts with the result that the money was rarely collected. This year, according to the chief of police there, it will be different. "We're going to clamp down on them," he says. "Yes, other schools have traffic regulations.—Exchange.

Vandal-Cougar Football History Dates Back Thirty-four Years

Thirty-four years ago the Vandals and the Cougars played their best game of football at Pullman. There seems to be little resemblance between the first clash and what will take place on Armistice day.

The Vandals arrived early for the first game which speaks well for the Idaho spirit in '93. Their uniforms were not quite as elaborate as those worn this season, since they consisted of overalls and what-have-you. The gridiron must have been nothing to mention, and the stadium is described as a sloping hill of bunchgrass.

The old fighting spirit was evidenced before the game, when the opposing teams made the interesting if unwelcome discovery that each had practiced a different type of football, the Vandals having arrived all primed to carry off the Cougars' hides in the American game, while the Cougars were all set to go like wild to the Vandals in rugby football. It was finally decided that they would play the American game. There seems to be a difference of opinion over the outcome, for the W. S. C. version is as follows: The game finally ended in a row with each team claiming vic-

HEAT PLANT IS READY FOR ZERO
All But Details are Finished; Old System is Dissembled and Boilers Removed

The $75,000 university heating plant will be ready for zero weather in ten days. With the exception of cleaning the walls and painting some of the pipes under the supervision of Mr. Bates, university engineer, the work is finished.

The old heating plant has been dismantled. The smoke stacks have been torn down and the boilers removed, two have been transferred to the new plant and the other two were sold to the Lewiston Normal school. The old building will provide space for plumbing and machine works.

Mr. Bates, engineer, has his office in the old plant yet but it will be moved to the new building upon completion of the office there.

We are tempted to wonder why it is that after having done everything to get publicity, the hero is invariably played up in a story of how he hates publicity.—Daily Kansan.

Disease Condition Looks Favorable

The present infantile paralysis situation in Moscow looks very favorable," Dr. C. O. Armstrong, university physician, said today. So far only four cases have been reported in town and two of these are now out of quarantine," he said.

No cases have been reported among students on the campus or college students living down town. It was thought that there is no cause for alarm, since infantile paralysis rarely develops in young people above the age of 15 years. It is urged that students be particularly careful of their health at this time to prevent possible spread for the disease. All illness should be immediately reported to the infirmary. Students are also asked to stay away from downtown gatherings of any sort until further notice, except where the gatherings are composed almost entirely of college students.

"Oh, thank you. I'll see if there is some one."

Homecoming, with the gayety and joy of entertaining guests, the thrills of the "big game," the romance of the college traditions, and the brilliance of banquets and balls, is actually here. Several activities follow each other in a dazzling procession and nothing in the way of entertainments has been omitted.

Events started last night with the pajama parade and the alumni dance, and reached their climax in the home today. The Athletic ball, always a brilliant high light of homecoming, is to be held at the Elks temple tonight, and promises to be one of the most elaborate affairs of the year. Many fraternity smokers and sorority firesides complete the list of entertainments for tonight.

Following is the homecoming program:

- Friday, November 11—Alumni Dinner, Hays Hall, Athletic Ball, Elks Temple. House Entertainments: Sigma Nu and Phi Delta Theta Smoker at Sigma Nu House, Alpha Tau Omega Fathers' Banquet, Phi Gamma Delta Fireside, Lambda Chi Alpha Smoker, Beta Chi Smoker. Saturday, November 12—Blue Key Alumni Luncheon, Blue Bucket, Mortar Board Mixer, Tau Men Alpha Smoker at Hut, Delta Chi Smoker.

Mrs. Lenore Scott, housemother of Beta Theta Pi, returned Monday from Seattle where she has spent several days visiting her son. Dr. Russell Scott, who is recovering from injuries sustained in a recent auto accident. Dinner guests Wednesday of Beta Theta Pi were Misses Ruth Gray, Edith Eklund, Margaret Keegan, Thelma Blavdoh, Marjorie Frey, Betty McBirney and Eloise Davis.

Homecoming guests of Sigma Chi are Mr. Chas. A. Terhune Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Hargrove, Carl Clare, George Burroughs, Max Rawlins, Frank Kelp, Ted Welker, George Donart, Francis Druff, Ramsey Pierce, Max Rawlins, Duff Ebbly, Julius Ramstedt, Francis Murphy and Jude Welker.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McBirney of Boise were Wednesday evening dinner guests of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashur B. Wilson are spending the week in Moscow visiting their daughter, Patricia, having arrived Tuesday evening from Twin Falls. They will remain over the week end. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson were luncheon guests of Kappa Alpha Theta Wednesday.

Dinner guests of Delta Chi Tuesday evening were Col. E. R. Christman, Miss Miller, Mrs. Benjamin M. Crenshaw, Maj. and Mrs. F. R. Fuller and Mrs. Charles H. Hart.

Sigma Nu entertained the following guests at dinner Tuesday: Beatrice Chassy, Margaret Ames, Ethel Larson, Helen Wann, Dorothy Howerton, Ruth Adolph, Miriam Howerton, Eva Litzberger, Alberta Edwards, Norma Geddes, Mary Ellen Adams and Mrs. Short.

Harold Hamilton was a luncheon guest of Sigma Nu Wednesday.

William Ennis of Nampa is a guest at the Sigma Nu house.

Lawrence Newcomb, George Miller, Cliff Sievers, Dick Beam, Bus Lyell and Mark Ware are guests at the Beta Chi House.

Mr. and Mrs. Ashur B. Wilson and daughter Patricia of Twin Falls were dinner guests of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Stromme were dinner guests of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Thursday evening.

Tuesday evening Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Beta Theta Pi exchanged pledges for dinner.

"Dutch" Stultis and Jim Stromme are guests of Sigma Alpha Epsilon this week end.

Sigma Chi dinner guests Wednesday were Ruth Fisher, Dorothy Fredrickson, Mary Fisher, Edith Larson, Ethel Larson, Helen Wann, Beatrice Brown, Karlson Morse and Mrs. Ada Short.

Gamma Phi Beta announces the engagement of Caroline Annette Parker of Boise, to Floyd Wilbur Lansdon, Phi Delta Theta, Boise.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McBirney, of Boise, have been guests this week of Beta Theta Pi.

Dinner guests of Beta Theta Pi Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. George Morey Miller and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Barton.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Trowbridge of Togliak, Alaska were Tuesday dinner guests of Tau Kappa Iota. Both are former students of the University of Idaho.

Wednesday dinner guests of Delta Chi were John DeHart, Chandler

Smith, Lafayette McCrory and Ray Holmquist.

Mrs. W. S. McBriney of Boise was a luncheon guest of Alpha Chi Omega Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Langroise of Boise were dinner guests of Phi Delta Theta Tuesday.

Luncheon guests of Phi Delta Theta Wednesday were Lyman Young and Vernon Sogard.

William Ennis of Nampa was a dinner guest of Phi Delta Theta Wednesday.

AT IDAHO IN 1901 FIRST FRATERNITY

Group Organized 12 Years After University Founded; Solve Housing Problem

(By Conroy Gillespie) Editor's note: This is the third of a series of articles dealing with the American college fraternity system.

The University of Idaho was founded in 1889, and twelve years later the first fraternity was organized on the campus. It was a local fraternity petitioning a national. The second local was founded in 1903.

The first national fraternity came to the Idaho campus in 1905. Soon other houses were founded, accepted into nationals, till there are now ten national and two local fraternities on the campus.

Fraternities were in favor with the university authorities from the start. Cordial relations and close harmony grew and maintained between the houses and the faculty. According to Dean French there has never been for the best interests of the university when the fraternities were frowned upon by the administration.

Solves Question Fraternities here elsewhere have solved the housing problem as there are approximately 475 men students living in group houses at the present time.

The growth of fraternities kept pace with the growth of the university; houses were built as the groups became financially able. Most of the houses were financed by means of bond issues. It is to the credit of the business management of the fraternities that most of these bonds so issued are now selling at a premium.

The total saving to the commonwealth reaches a staggering total when it is realized that these funds were handled solely by students, most of them underclassmen. A fair estimate of the property and furnishings owned by fraternities at Idaho totals $676,000. Had it not been for the fraternities this sum or its equivalent would have to be spent by the state.

Large Houses Houses are large, built for comfort, but there has been little evidence of extravagance in their construction. Furnishings are chosen for beauty and serviceability. The cost of living in a fraternity though somewhat higher by reason of the necessary dues, never goes beyond the realms of reason.

An added advantage of the group owning its own house is that the group can provide its self with entertainment at a reasonable cost. All group social affairs are passed on by a faculty committee. This tends to curb any outbreaking of unwarranted expenditure by the group.

The policy of the nationals at Idaho is consistent with their policies elsewhere. Representatives from headquarters repeatedly call up on the deans of the various colleges, the dean of women, and the president of the university.

All the fraternities are within a half mile radius of the campus with one exception. This tends to bring them into closer contact with each other and also with the university.

Some criticism has arisen in that fraternity men are accused of not being good students. Figures compiled from the records kept by the registrar's office disprove this. In no instance has the average been far below the university average, and in comparison with non-fraternity men the averages are almost the same.

Compare Averages In 1923 the university average was 4.578. The fraternity average 4.355, and the non-fraternity men 4.422. In 1924 university average was 4.459, fraternity 4.307, and non-fraternity 4.219. In 1925 the university average was 4.330; the fraternity 4.166; and the non-fraternity, 4.176. Last year the totals were however around the same level, the university average being 4.371; fraternity, 4.218; and the non-fraternity, 4.208.

While the grades are much the same there is a vast difference in the amount of outside hours carried by fraternity men. The greater number of school activities are filled by fraternity men. A survey of the men who attended the university last year and in 1925 shows that over 75 of the men in activities are fraternity men. Almost 95 of the fraternity men are active while less than 45 per cent of non-fraternity men are in activities. The average time expended on extra-curricular activities average two hours daily. In addition to this fraternity activities take a great deal of time. It is estimated that an hour a day is used to fulfill fraternity requirements. This extra time proves that the so called "wild fraternity man" is pretty busy attending to definite duties, with less time for play than the non-fraternity men.

CURIO COLLECTION FOR IDAHO LOST

Carl Trowbridge's Alaskan Gift for University Is Sunk In Storm

One of the most complete Eskimo collections in the world, which was to have been presented to the University of Idaho, was lost when Carl R. Trowbridge, ex'25, was bringing it to the United States this spring. Mr. Trowbridge had been in Alaska as the superintendent of education and the reindeer station at Togiak for two years and had spent part of his time in making the collection.

The curios, valued at $5000, were of such scientific value that the Smithsonian institute and the Alaska museum had sent photographs to Togiak to have pictures taken of the collection for their museums. The collection had been placed on a barge to be transported to the United States, when a storm came up sinking the barge, taking with it some of the rarest of Eskimo curios. During the two years that Mr. Trowbridge was in Togiak, he had a standing offer for any curios that the natives might bring in.

Possibly the most valuable of the collection was a set of needles made of ivory. The needles were about the size of steel needles. The set ranged in size from those needed for the most delicate work to the largest ones used.

In addition to the needles the collection included a set of arrow heads. There was an arrow head for each animal that the natives kill. This was a complete set, having heads of both ivory and flint. Flint was used for many years before ivory.

Mr. and Mrs. Trowbridge left Idaho in April 1925 and went direct to Togiak. Mr. Trowbridge has been serving as superintendent of education and of the reindeer station and as supreme judge. Mrs. Trowbridge, who was formerly Thelma Farnsworth, has been doing some research work in dietetics. She received her degree in home economics in 1925 and is now compiling a book for use in Alaska. Mr. and Mrs. Trowbridge are the first Idaho students to take work in Alaska.

The work at the Togiak school consists of teaching the natives sanitation, home economics, arithmetic, spelling, history, manual arts, language and writing. One of the hardest things to teach a native is sanitation, according to Mr. Trowbridge, a "Palouse pig" wouldn't be driven into any of them. One of the natives had been influenced to build a frame house but he built a mud hut in front in which to live.

In the position of judge, Mr. Trowbridge has to settle many petty disputes that arise among the natives. Soon after his arrival in Togiak, one of the natives died. One of the medicine man's relatives dreamed of the "medicine man" who was according to belief, the cause of the death. The natives asked Mr. Trowbridge to allow them to take the medicine man's life to avenge the relative's death. The severest punishment that the court could impose was to deny personal assistance which entailed the revoking of permission to use the school's shops, tools and whatever medicine.

Mr. and Mrs. Trowbridge are visiting friends in Moscow and expect to return to Alaska early next year. Mr. Trowbridge is a member of Tau Kappa Iota fraternity.

HOME EC WORKER VISITS UNIVERSITY

Miss Madge Reese, superintendent of home demonstration work for 11 western states, representing the United States department of agriculture, has been on the campus during the past week, conferring with the home economics demonstration service agents and checking plans for next year. She spoke at a meeting of the Idaho chapter of American Association of University Women on "Educational Problems in Denmark and England." Miss Reese was abroad four months last year studying the home life and the education of women in Denmark, Norway and England.

Some of the most notable men in the fields of science, religion, and literature in the United States spoke at the Semi-centennial celebration commemorating the founding of the University of Colorado from which Dean Ivan C. Dr. Millikan, California Institute of Technology, science; Bishop McConnell, Methodist church, theology; Dr. Shorey, Chicago University, representative of letters; Dean Pound, of Harvard law school, law; Dean Woodbridge, Columbia university, Philosophy; Lorado Taft, famous sculptor of the University of Illinois; art, were the speakers on this occasion.

IDAHO BASKETBALL SQUAD START PRACTICE MONDAY

And sure shooting piled up large scores for the frosh last season. From all indications one of these men is slated to fill the wide gap left in the varsity by the graduation of Johnnie Miles, all-Pacific coast forward and high point man of the Vandals last season.

Lettermen Out Among the football men who also have won letters in basketball are Glen "Red" Jacoby, guard or forward and Darwin Burgher, center. Jacoby is fast and aggressive in the court as well as the gridiron and Burgher always has played a steady, dependable game. Red will be playing his last year while Burgher is on his second.

Barrett, another product of the frosh squad, will be out in the gym as soon as the football logs have been stored away. At present he is alternating with Jacoby at quarter. Barrett, an ex-Pocatello high school star and like Stowell and MacMillan, is well schooled in the style of basketball, which is by the way the same as Coach Dave MacMillan's. MacMillan coached at Idaho for seven years, winning two championships and never finished lower than third place. Rick Fox was captain of one of the championship teams under MacMillan and made a splendid record as a coach since leaving the university. Last year he coached Pocatello high school to the state championship.

Live, the While "Live while you live," the Epicure would say, "and seize upon the pleasures of the present day." Poor old Epicurus has been blamed for much voluptuousness but he didn't really believe in excess. He thought folks would eat good food and enjoy it because of the feeling of health, contentment and happiness it helped to bring. And he wasn't in error, either. Epicureanism today is one of the "fine arts." Too bad, it is, that Epicurus doesn't live in Moscow today, so that on any Sunday evening you might meet him, dining at The Varsity "of course" —SPECIAL MENU FOR HOMECOMING—

GRID CLASSIC ENDS IN 7 TO 7 TIE

(Continued from Page 1) Like Sumpter would try from the 26-yard line. A pass that went wild was called instead of a kick and Idaho's chance for a score was lost.

GROUPS TO FETE RETURNING GRADS

Houses Will Hold Smokers, Firesides, In Honor of Alumni

Entertainment for guests during Homecoming will take different forms, ranging all the way from smokers and firesides to open houses and dinners.

Five groups are giving smokers either Friday or Saturday. Smokers of Lambda Chi Alpha, Beta Chi, and the joint smoker of Sigma Nu and Phi Delta Theta at the Sigma Nu House, will be staged Friday evening at midnight.

Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary fraternity, entertained all the new students in the department at a fireside at Forney hall Tuesday night.

CUSHMAN PLEASED WITH COMING PLAY

First Time Idaho Has Given a Large Stage In Fall

Results of Wednesday night's rehearsal of "Good Gracious Annabelle" indicate that this will be the most finished production ever put on the stage by Idaho students according to Prof. John H. Cushman, who is coaching the play.

For the first time in the history of Idaho dramatics it has been possible for the director to stage a long play during the early part of the first semester. An unusually large number of advanced students in play production makes it possible.

The cast has been working every day on the play since the opening of college. It will be given a rest until Sunday night, when two rehearsals will be called to prepare for the opening in Troy Tuesday evening.

Members of the cast for the play are: Alene Honeywell, Jean Collette, Bernice Brown, Louise Lammelle, Beverly Merrill, James Allen, Arthur Ensign, Burdette Belknap, Arthur Peavey, Frank Egbers, Robert St. Clair, Dean Newhouse, Mattland Hubbard and James Dunn.

FIRESTONE TO JUDGE HIGH SCHOOL ESSAYS

Henry Krave, Idaho Falls, Represents Idaho in Finals

An essay on Idaho highways, by Henry Krave of the Idaho Falls high school, will soon be judged in the National H. S. Firestone Four Years University Scholarship, according to works received from the secretary of the Highway Education board.

The best highway essay is chosen every year by the university English department, from among the essays selected from high schools of the state to represent Idaho in a national contest.

A young woman from south Idaho won the national contest a few years ago and is now receiving her education at Northwestern university on a $4,000 scholarship. Judged for this year's essays are: Dr. Hubert Work, Secretary of the Interior, Dr. George W. Rightmire, President of Ohio State university, and Mr. Loring A. Schuler, editor of the Country Gentleman.

Minnesota Football History, a book dealing with football Minnesota from its introduction here back in the eighties up to the present, is being sent to the printer and will be ready for distribution in the near future. One chapter deals with the organization of the Big Ten of Western Conference.
