CLEAVER SMASHES OLD RECORD FOR MILE

Interscholastic Records May Be Broken In Meet Tomorrow

HIGH SCHOOL CINDER PATH STARS TO ENTER FIFTEENTH ANNUAL MEET

Nearly 100 Men From Over State Waiting Contests Saturday; Ticket Sale Is Going Over Big

Several intercollegiate track records, many of which are of long standing, may be broken in the fifteenth annual interscholastic meet to be held tomorrow afternoon on MacLean field. Records made at sectional meets this spring indicate that several spectacular performances are in store for tomorrow.

Ticket sale for the meet, being conducted by the Intercollegiate Knights and the Spurs, is progressing nicely, it was reported, although more tickets must be sold in order to pay expenses of bringing the teams here. With warm weather Saturday, a large crowd is expected to turn out.

Contenders for 1928 records in the fifteenth annual Idaho state interscholastic meet and track meet scheduled for MacLean field Saturday afternoon, are holding sway on the campus today as guests of the University of Idaho at the W. S. C.-Idaho varsity dual meet.

Outstanding athletes representing all sections of the state have been arriving in Moscow since Wednesday afternoon. Several teams took light workouts on the athletic field to iron out the kinks acquired during trips from the south, while other groups from northern communities were satisfied with limbering up exercises. The squad from Boise high school, which won the district meet at Caldwell, was the first team to arrive.

The competing high school men are being entertained at the various group houses during their stay on the campus, each fraternity housing a group drawn by lot Monday night, in accordance with plans made by the Blue Key housing committee. Results of district meets show that several state records are in danger of toppling. At Sandpoint, Barker of Kellogg established a new district record in the pole vault at 11 feet two inches, which is just a few inches short of the record made by Pagosa in 1924. Ward of Salmon cleared 5 feet 10 inches in the high jump at Pocatello according to reports. The personal record of 5 feet 9 1/2 inches was established in 1923 by David Kyle of Kootskia.

Cartwright of Wallace, Alvord of Twin Falls, Smith of Boise and Cossetta of Lewiston, are fast men in the dashes, but are not expected to approach the records of 9.3 for the 100 and 22 feet for the 220 set in 1925 made by Timm of Twin Falls and Doe of Burley, respectively. Four-man relay teams of Kellogg and Twin Falls seem evenly matched. In the recent Sandpoint meet, Kel-

CARNEY WINS MEN'S TENNIS SINGLES

Takes Finals in Hard Match With Callaway; Loses First Set

Hayden Carney, Moscow, won the 1928 University of Idaho men's singles tennis championship Thursday afternoon by defeating William Callaway, Kellogg, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2, 6-3. After a first set, which went to Callaway by a small margin, Carney had the upper hand of the match, playing a fast, clever game and covering the whole court well. He was at his best in the second set when he was more careful with his drives that lost him many points in the first and third sets.

Callaway took the first two games of the third set but Carney came back and won the next six straight games. After a short intermission, Callaway nearly regained his form of the first set to take three games of the closely contested deciding group. Both men played fast tennis, the fast serve and backhand of Callaway and the cross court drive of Carney being features of the match. A 15-dollar racket store on display in David's department store will be awarded to Carney, as campus tennis champion for this spring. Bearisles, Merrill, former ranking player, was not entered in the tourney.

Carney won his right to enter the finals by defeating Robert Allshire, Coeur d'Alene, 8-6, 7-5, and Callaway eliminated Clifford Coons, Sandpoint, 6-1, 6-4, in the same round.

Will Visit at Whitman Mrs. Louise S. Blomquist, assistant dean of women, will leave for Whitman college at Walla Walla to visit with Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Penrose over the week end. She will return Sunday or Monday.

Architects Go to Pullman Tuesday afternoon the architectural department made a trip to Pullman in order to see an exhibit of art and architectural books. The exhibit was brought out by J. H. Jansen of the Jansen Publishing company, in Cleveland, Ohio.

BLUE KEY PLANS INFORMAL DANCE

Service Fraternity To Organize Students to Bring More Freshmen to Campus

An informal dance will be held by Blue Key, honorary upperclassman service fraternity, at the Beta Theta Pi house May 28, it was decided at a special meeting held Thursday evening at the Beta house. The date had been set for May 16, but had to be changed.

The regular meeting of the fraternity will be held Monday night at the Blue Bucket Inn. Election of officers for next year will be the principal business to come before the Monday meeting, according to Gus Bjork, president. A report will be heard regarding the organization of the students to bring more students to the campus next year. Frank Click is chairman of the committee named to work on this project.

Names of several men will be voted upon Monday for membership in the fraternity. Pledging, however, will probably not be done until the latter part of the month.

VANDALS TAKE TWO STRAIGHT FROM THE MISSIONARY NINE

Although Outhit, Vandals Take Close Games Through Breaks

Winning both games by a margin of only one run, Vandal diamond artists chucked up two victories against the Whitman college Missionaries in a two-game series played here Wednesday and Thursday afternoon by scores of 6-5 and 11-10. Although outhit in both games, the Idaho squad was able to take advantage at the crucial periods.

A pitching duel between Richardson of Idaho and Webster, Whitman's southpaw ace, that wasn't decided until the ninth inning, was the feature of the first game. In the Thursday game, the Vandals came back in their half of the eighth inning to score the deciding run, after the Walla Walla men had garnered six runs off the Idaho pitchers.

Split With Montana Montana Grizzlies split the series with the Vandals at Missoula last week, Idaho's only defeat, with the exception of a pre-season game at Oregon, so far this season.

In the Wednesday game, Whitman opened with one run and the Vandals came back with three in their half of the first inning. In the third frame, Buck knocked out a homer for the Missionaries, one of the longest drives ever seen on MacLean field. Murray, with three hits out of four times at bat, was the best stick wielder for Idaho, while Gardner was the big gun for his club, with four hits out of five.

NEW ASUI BOARD IS INTRODUCED

Plans For Bringing New Students To The University Discussed At ASUI Assembly Wednesday

Introduction of the newly elected student body officers and presentation of the plans for the campaign to bring new students to the campus made up the business of the general ASUI assembly last Wednesday. Short talks were given by Frank Click, ASUI president, and Alvin Peterson, who was recently elected to the office of president of the student body.

James Allen, student manager of the men's glee club, gave a short report of the recent trip made by that organization. The remainder of the hour was taken up with a discussion of the campaign for new students. It was brought out that many Idaho students were attending other schools outside of the state and special effort should be made to bring them here.

Alice Waldrop, junior woman on the executive board, spoke on what the women students could do to further this movement. Ted Turner, assistant proctor, spoke on the men's side of the question and appealed to the men to assist the committee in charge.

EXHIBITS EXPECTED BACK Two architectural exhibits of the Idaho students, which have been on a tour of the state's high schools, are expected to be back in the near future. They will be placed on exhibition in the Administration building immediately upon their return.

Not content with winning the first distance event, he won the two-mile run in 10:00.2, a remarkable time considering his showing in the first event.

FEWER RULES

COLLEGE students are human and respond about the same as any one else. When they are told definitely that such and such is against the rules and they can't do it, then they will act the same as other Americans and break their necks to do that very thing. One Idahoan advances the theory that fewer rules will result in fewer violations, and there is a lot of truth in that.

When men and women attend an institution of higher learning they have, in most cases, reached an age where they can assume considerable responsibility. A majority of the students on the campus today are undoubtedly old enough to vote, and many have earned their own ways for several years. It hardly seems probable that men and women of the age of average college students will bring dishonor and show disrespect for their alma mater.

In high school we find boys and girls, and these are the young people must be placed under strict regulations. It is at the high school age that youth forms its habits and falls into the channel he will follow through his life. When a boy or girl passes this age without any serious mishap, it is nearly a sure bet that he don't need to be ruled to death the rest of his life in order to make him live properly.

Probably the best way to win youth over is for those who are further advanced in life and its experience to place confidence in youth. Nothing suits the youth better than to show him clearly that he has responsibilities, and when this is done he will do his best to hold up his end. Placing rules over him, governing practically every move, is not the way to express confidence.

It is true that we learn by experience, and experiences of other people are food for this education. Certain regulations are necessary for government, but these are limited, unless that are necessary for control of students should be made and enforced, and when anyone oversteps a rule the violator should be punished to the fullest extent.

Fewer rules will show confidence is placed in the student and real cooperation will result. If men and women in college are not able to assume responsibility, they never will be able to.

THE DECENT YOUTH

IF jokes and cartoons printed in magazines of the country, that are supposed to represent to some extent anyway the American college students, were taken literally we could figure that college men and women decadent. Gin and sex jokes seem to be necessary in humor today.

It is lucky that most Americans are liberal minded enough to look at such representations and laugh, but there are some who believe these jokes and comic strips to be indicative of modern youth. It is from these people that we learn that youth is on the downward path.

Gin and sex, however, are not absolutely necessary in making a joke good. There are plenty of jokes written that carry no vulgar meaning, and the same is true of cartoons. Picturing college life in this sense, then, is painting a picture in false colors and it can be avoided.

A move has been started by the Western Association of College Comics to put a stop to such representations. This association has voted to break the contracts which the various editors and managers had made with "College Humor" magazine. For several years this magazine has had the sole reprint rights of the majority of college magazines.

"The reason for breaking the contract," says the president of the association, "is that we feel that 'College Humor' is painting a picture of flaming youth which is not real, and which gives to the average reader a false impression of college life. The magazine takes all the gin and sex jokes and plays them as representative college humor, with no mention of any other type. College magazines bury the gin and sex jokes with a greater proportion of clean humor just as representative of college life."

PEACE WITHOUT WAR

SINCE the middle ages most peace treaties have been written at the conclusion of a war, the victor usually dictating and the vanquished usually accepting the terms. Nowadays the essential difference lies in the fact that the majority of those nations advocating the much discussed world-wide peace, would have it avert, rather than follow, wars and international strife.

Looking back over more recent facts in history, we find that our own forefathers did not gain peaceable possession of this country until they had successfully quelled the Indian rebellions and forced the Indians to accept peace terms; English history shows that the so-called "Great Peace" was negotiated in 1360 only at the conclusion of war between England and France. It is highly significant, therefore, that in this day and age the United States government believes that the execution between France, Great Britain, Germany, Italy, Japan, and the United States, of a treaty solemnly denouncing war in favor of pacific settlement of international controversies, would have a tremendous moral effect and ultimately lead to the adherence of all other governments of the world.

The days when treaties resulting in peace without war, the greatest possible and the most lasting peace, cannot be too soon in coming about. Only then when the work of war as a means of settling disputes is assumed by another agency, "there will be no more war."—Michigan Daily.

FINAL PLAY GROUP STAGED NEXT WEEK

Thursday and Friday Set for Appearance of Student Actors

The final group of one-act plays which will be presented next Thursday and Friday evenings, May 18 and 19, will include "Judge Lynch", "Gas, Air and Earl", "Twins Ever Thus" and "The Eldest". The plays are directed by Mrs. Harry Brann and Miss Marie Johnson. "Music will be furnished by Helen Rae, violinist, and Blanche Brossard, pianist."

Serious drama is found in two of the plays, "Judge Lynch" and "The Eldest". "Gas, Air and Earl" is designated as "a frivolous comedy", and "Twins Ever Thus" is admittedly a farce.

The following are acts for "Judge Lynch": Lois Russell, Mrs. J. Joplin, Arthur Ensign, Ed Joplin, Germaine Gimble, his wife; Warren Gochenour, a stranger. The play is by J. W. Rogers, Jr.

"Gas, Air, and Earl" is by Bertman Bloch and will be played by Louise Lamielle as Mrs. Plummer, Violeta Spurgeon as Eleanor Plummer, Germaine Gimble as Kitty Carson, Mrs. Plummer's friend; Dean Newhouse as Boggs; Mrs. Carson's chauffeur, and Winton Steele as an English lawyer.

"The Eldest" by Ferber
Edna Ferber wrote "The Eldest", a drama of middle class life. The cast follows: Rose, Gladys Barth; Floss, her younger sister, Anne Johnson; Al, her brother, Robert St. Clair; Pa, her father, Marion Fleming; Henry Selz, Max Hardwick; a neighbor, Lillian Woodworth.

A rollicking little farce is "Twins Ever Thus" in which Louise McKinney will appear as Agnes, Arthur Peavey as Frederick, her fiance, Helen Douglas as Louise, her sister, and Pat Walker and Herman Otness alternating in the role of Richard, her brother-in-law.

Never Gets "Bite" From This Tobacco

Jasper, Tenn.
March 23, 1927

Larus & Bro. Co. Richmond, Va.
I have always wanted to smoke a pipe. After several attempts I gave up "taste" up, for with each trial I had a blistered tongue.
One evening, when looking over a certain outdoor magazine, I read that a certain fisherman could catch more fish when using "Edgeworth," so I decided I would try "his" tobacco—or I am no poor fisherman!
The next day I tried to smoke Edgeworth. The local country storekeeper did not have it, so I sent by friend to the city for my first Edgeworth. Two things have happened: I still smoke Edgeworth, and the local storekeeper always has a supply.
I catch fish and never get "a bite" from Edgeworth!
Yours for keeps,
H. V. Massey

Extra High Grade Smoking Tobacco

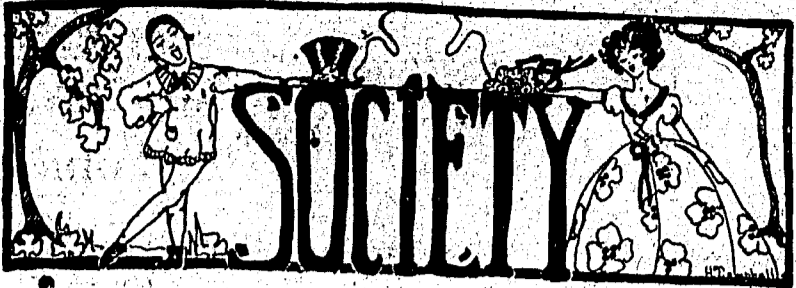

STAY ON THE FAIRWAY; STICK TO CAMELS!

SOMEWHERE between your collar-button and the bottom of your plus-fours there's a smoke-spot—seeking "fill-fulment." The vast majority of jobbies who feel that in'ard hankerin' have discovered what to do about it. They pull a cool cloud of joy away down into it—and slowly exhale fragrant Camel smoke.

Tobacco science has produced in Camel a superb blend of the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos. Just revel once in the delicious, quivering aroma of a cloud of Camel smoke. We'll bet a caddie to a left-handed niblick you'll never get off that fairway!

WORK STARTS ON NEW A.T.O. HOUSE

City Connects Water Mains To Property; Begin Excavating Immediately, Will Rush Building

Actual work on the new Alpha Tau Omega house started this week when the city ran water mains and sewer connections to the property located on the corner of University and Idaho avenues, adjoining the Blue Buckle Inn.

M. C. Conley, contractor, who also has the contract for the memorial gymnasium will begin work of excavating for the basement this week. Basement floor and wall forms will be placed in soon, and concrete that has been mixed in the big mixer at the gymnasium will be hauled by large trucks and dumped into the forms.

Building materials shipped here with material for the new gym, and facilities such as the big mixer will speed work of construction tremendously. The house will be completed by the opening of school next fall.

CAMPUS DAY WORK LIST OUT TUESDAY

Assignments for Every Man On Campus in Next Issue

Work assignments for Campus day next Wednesday will be printed in the Tuesday issue of The Argonaut, according to George Yost, general chairman. Students will be divided up into teams under the direction of the department of women's physical education and Heutenants. Each team will be assigned to a separate clean-up project. The "I" club will be on hand to punish slackers, Mr. Yost said.

Clean-up is General The projects for the day include cleaning up the sorority lawns, a general clean-up at the harvester plants where the laboratory classes in mechanical engineering meet, setting up the bleachers for a commotion of spectators at the May fete, clearing grass away from the athletic bleachers, picking up paper and rubbish on the campus and terracing the roadway from the Engineering building annex to the south side of the Administration building.

During the afternoon will be the annual May fete under the direction of the department of women's physical education. During the day, both Mortar Board and Silver Lance, senior women's and men's honorary organizations, will have formal pledging of students not yet named.

Following the May fete, the annual campus day dinner will be served, beginning about 6 o'clock, according to Marjorie Drager, who is in charge of the dinner. Women students will prepare the food for the party while the men are cleaning up the campus. The dinner will be served by the senior women. A small charge will be made for the dinner.

Repairs to the entrance steps, front porch and roof are now being made by carpenters. Complete redecoration and cleaning of the house will be made during the summer, Mr. Pinson said. He intends to accommodate about 25 roomers and boarders next fall.

Mr. Pinson intends to finish his college work here. He has been a teacher in the public schools since 1913, having taught mostly in Clearwater county at Orofino and Elk River.

Sale of the property was handled by the Veatch Realty company through Dr. J. Harry Elmhurst, president of the Beta building corporation.

Far From Books and Madding Classrooms Seniors Disport Themselves on Picnic

Far from the madding classroom was the senior class Tuesday. In place of the campus was the expanse of wooded country around the Hayden lake, presenting a picture of coolness and comfort. This was the scene of the senior picnic of the class of 1928.

Many out-door sports were participated in by the men and women of the fourth year class, including golf, boating and hiking. Spokane also afforded considerable entertainment for some.

GLEE CLUB MUSICAL STUNT IS BIG HIT

Varied Program Pleases Large Audience in Auditorium Thursday

A musical interpretation of college life "On the Campus After Hours" made a decided hit with a large audience at the home concert of the University Glee club, Thursday evening in the auditorium. The singers, dressed in collegiate clothes, were grouped around an orchestra composed of club members who played several popular numbers as practice for the "Junior Prom."

During the intermission, James Allen, student manager of the club, presented Prof. Theodore Kraft, director, with a wristwatch in behalf of the members of the organization.

The University Quartet composed of Norman Luvaas, Orral Luke, Forest Brigham and William Shamberger appeared several times on the program. In their last number, a group of negro spirituals, they appeared in costume.

Soloists on the program were Norman Luvaas, bass, who sang Huhry's "Invictus"; Orral Luke, tenor, who sang "To the Hill-Tops" by Cox. James Allen gave a humorous reading "Leaving at the Wedding"; George Justice was featured in the skit "On the campus after Hours" written by James Allen. Professor Kraft sang two numbers—"A Boatman's Song", his own composition, and "Top of the Mornin'" by Manna Zucca. He played his own accompaniments.

A trumpet solo, "Lilacs", by Cook was played by Clarence Bell, with Professor Kraft as accompanist. He played as an encore "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise."

"On Old Idaho", sung by the entire Glee club was the finale. During this last number elaborate lighting effects were used. Colored spotlights were blanketed on the Idaho pennants and blankets which decorated the stage, while the boys serpentined around the platform.

WINGED HELMET TO PRINT MAGAZINE

Literary Honorary Will Launch New Publication Here Next Fall

A new publication will make its appearance on the campus next fall, according to plans being made by Winged Helmet, honorary literary society. The members of the organization had a meeting at the Blue Bucket inn Thursday noon, followed by a short business discussion.

Smith-Miller heads the committee for assembling material for the new literary magazine. The outstanding work in the various composition courses this year will form the bulk of the material for the first issue. The committee is anxious to receive contributions. Short stories, verse, essays and sketches being especially desired. They should be submitted to Mr. Miller other members of the committee, Elnor Yaggy and Sylvia Oldman.

Spring election of officers and new members will be held at the next meeting.

INTERSCHOOLASTIC RECORD MAY BE BROKEN TOMORROW

Logg won from the Coeur d'Alene quartet in 1:40.1. The southern relay team is said to have made about the same time, and a close race is expected when the two teams meet along with the representatives from other schools who may show unexpected strength.

Lemp May Be High Man

Lemp of Boise is entered in both hurdles, high jump and broad jump, and from performances at the district meet, he appears to be the leading high point honor contestant. Cartwright of Wallace earned individual high point honors in the Sandpoint meet with 13 points.

Delane of Kellogg and Chilton of Boise are the leading rivals for the mile event, according to district meet dope. Both men have been running the distance in about 5 minutes which leaves Don Cleaver's record of 4:37 in a safe berth.

Outstanding performers from Coeur d'Alene are Justus in the javelin and discus; Haynes in the quarter; and Raider in the 220.

She was only a throat specialist's daughter, but ah-h-h.—University of Washington Daily.

NO MORE 5 O'CLOCK MAIL

Mail from southern Idaho points will hereafter be distributed at the campus post office in the morning, and not at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Changing of the schedule of the O. R. and N. train that arrived at 4 o'clock to 5:45 brings mail to the main office too late for distribution in the afternoon. Southern mail will be sent to the campus station in the morning and will be distributed in the boxes by 9 o'clock.

DELTA CHPS TO BUILD $42,000 HOME 800N

ern kitchen are some of the modern features to be included.

Will Clear Lot Present frame-houses on the property will either be moved away intact or razed, before the middle of June, it was stated. The new building will be built well back on the 120-foot square lot that extends from Blake avenue to the Branch Store. It will face Blake avenue, same as the Kappa Sigma house, but a secondary entrance will face University avenue. The front will be even with the front wall of the Kappa Sigma house and the first floor will be on the level of the sidewalk at the corner. A wide lawn on the north side will be made possible. A flagstone terrace will reach about half way around on the front and side of the house.

Financed by Bond Issue The building has been financed by the sale of 7 per cent first and second mortgage bonds issued on an amortization plan. The bond issue was guaranteed by the building corporation, Kappa Delta, the old local, is composed of Milburn Kenworthy, president; J. D. Davis, vice president, Hawklin Melgard, treasurer; and Paul Rudy, secretary. Al Reading is house president and Paul Rudy, house manager.

Delta Chi was organized on the Idaho campus as a local in 1922 and obtained a national charter in 1924.

In workouts Thursday afternoon Williams of Teton gave promise of a remarkable performance with the shot, discus and javelin. With the spear he is hardly in a class with Jimmie Demeres who holds the state record, but in the discus toss he appears to be the best man entered and may set a new record Saturday. Demeres, the Sandpoint weight star, finished his high school track days last spring.

Jacobs of Sugar City is a likely candidate in the hurdles.

OFFICIAL STRAW HAT DAY --- SATURDAY, MAY 12

STRAW HAT NEWS

Saturday officially inaugurates the Straw Hat Season. Above is a photo (?) of two eminent Moscow gentlemen attending the inauguration ceremonies at the State High School Track Meet. (The photo was sent "The News" by television, hence its early publication). A Straw Hat will be awarded the person who guesses who they are.

Straw hats will be very popular this season with the well-dressed man, according to Fairchild, internationally recognized authority, on men's dress. The days of the bareheaded fellow are gone—smartness and a touch of the formal at all times will be the vogue.

Despite the fact that Doc Magee, Jack Wade and Dr. G. M. Miller were seen wearing straws at various times during the week, Saturday is the OFFICIAL opening in Moscow. Needless to say, those who have appeared in summer headgear were wearing last year's models.

Dame Rumor hath it that George Morey's straw was the same one he wore when he caught that big fish two years ago, and was photographed wearing it (the hat, not the fish) which photograph was later published in the city papers, thus giving the wearer a great deal of publicity.

Straw hats are mainly imported from Switzerland, Italy, Central America and the Hawaiian Islands. Popular models will be Swiss Sailors, Leghorns, Bannocks, Mikados, etc. Read the advertisements on this page for further information.—Adv.

Straw Hat Day Saturday

*Daisies Won't Tell—
But a Good Mirror Will!*

There are some things even your closest friends won't tell you. How does my new hat look? often brings a "Good" when they think "Good Grief." Boyd's mirrors will tell you the gospel truth and when you realize one hat can look better than another you'll know why we invite these mirror comparisons. Step into this store Saturday morning and view the cases of beautiful hats.

OUR SUMMER STRAWS ARE HERE

Positive evidence of the summer season is the observance of straw hat day. We have an excellent assortment of the season's latest numbers. The snap brim model in natural straw and biege colors will probably be the younger men's choice. For the more conservative, the straw sailor with ventilated crown and rayon band in vari-colors or more sombre shades of brown and gray—both equally popular. Before you buy we invite you to see these numbers and compare value and price.
