

YAGGY AND BOYD ELECTED EDITORS OF BLUE BUCKET

Robert Ailshie and Helen Kerr Are Defeated in Close Race
TO TAKE OFFICE NOW
Special Election Puts End to Uncertainty of Staff Since Fall

Eleanor Yaggy, '29, was elected editor-in-chief of the Idaho Blue Bucket, campus quarterly humor magazine, at a special ASU election Saturday. Paul S. Boyd, '29, was elected associate editor. The contest between Miss Yaggy and Robert Ailshie was very close, Miss Yaggy receiving 143 votes and Mr. Ailshie 133. Paul Boyd won by a somewhat larger margin, receiving 155 votes while Helen Kerr received 109. A total of 276 votes were cast.

Miss Yaggy declined to make any statement concerning the policy of the Blue Bucket before meeting with her staff. Paul Boyd, however, admitted that he was strongly in favor of continuing, with some moderation, the policy adopted for the last issue. Although a senior now, Boyd plans to continue his work here next year.
The Blue Bucket now has a fixed staff for the first time since the beginning of the term. For several weeks the magazine was entirely without an editorial staff because Smith Miller and Pauline Hockaday, who were elected editor and associate editor respectively last spring, failed to return to the university last September. In October Maryvina Goldsmith, who was editor of the publication last year, was appointed acting editor and Robert Ailshie was appointed acting associate editor. When Miss Goldsmith resigned her position in November Mr. Ailshie was promoted to that office and Paul Boyd was appointed temporary associate editor. The November issue of the Blue Bucket was published under their direction.

In spite of the controversy caused by the magazine two weeks ago under the new policy adopted by the temporary staff, the publication was a decided financial success. The 500 copies which were printed were sold by subscription. Members of the editorial and sales force claim, however, that twice that number could have been disposed of after the magazine came from the press.

"CO-ED" PEP BAND ORGANIZED SOON

Thirty Pieces to Be Included; Start Rehearsals in January

Organization of a university women's band and under the auspices of the music department was announced Saturday by C. W. Holsington, instructor in trombone. The first rehearsal, to which all women interested in taking part in such an organization are invited, will be held during the week of January 8 at a place to be announced later.
Thirty pieces will be included in the band when at its maximum size, Mr. Holsington said. Instruments for which positions are open are trumpets, clarinets, saxophones, trombones, baritone horn, bassoons, melliphone, drum and oboe. Several women on the campus have already signified their intention of playing in the band and are anxious to see its organization completed.
Practices are to be held twice a week until the beginning of the second semester when Mr. Holsington expects the band to be able to play well enough to make a public appearance at a student gathering. It is not intended, he says, to form a group that will compete with and rival the university pep band, composed entirely of men, but to give the women an opportunity to have a band of their own which will give them personal experience in band directing later.

Professor Theodore Kratt, head of the music department, has given his sanction to the proposed band with the understanding that it shall not interfere with any other musical organization on the campus.
If the band is successfully organized here it will be the first university women's band of its kind west of the Mississippi river, said Mr. Holsington. In the east the "co-ed" bands have proved very popular on many campuses, he said.
After the membership has been determined uniforms will be purchased and the band will play for fund-raising functions as a pep organization when the pep band is unable to attend or as an addition to the men's band. Credit will be given for the band work by the music department.
Women interested in the band have been asked to see Esther Rae, program secretary.

HOLD MUSIC ASSEMBLY

The Christmas assembly today was entirely devoted to the singing of Christmas songs. The women's glee club, under the direction of Miss Maude Garnett, entertained with the three songs, "The Skaters," by Waldteufel; "Jesuvinno," by Philo-A-Yon and "An Old Coventry Carol." After the program the audience joined in the singing of well-known Christmas carols.

FOOTBALL MEN TO GET AWARDS

List of 16 to 18 Names To Be Presented For Executive Board's Approval Tonight

A list of varsity football players to receive 1928 letters for the past season will be presented for approval of the ASU executive board tonight at their regular weekly meeting, the last for the present year.
Graduate Manager George S. Horton Monday night not finished compiling the list but indicated that it would be ready for the executive board Tuesday. The list of men to receive awards probably will be between 16 and 18 men, 17 having received awards last year.
Two and possibly three men will receive blankets in recognition of three years of competition. Four men will receive their final awards.

COACH ERB IS BACK FROM CALIFORNIA

Denies Report That He Has Resigned; Attended the Conference Meeting

Head Coach Charles F. Erb, Jr., one of Idaho's representatives at the Pacific Coast conference meeting at Los Angeles two weeks ago, returned to the Idaho campus Saturday evening. He had been in California ever since the Idaho-U. S. C. game.

"I have not resigned as head football coach, and the rumors and newspaper articles to that effect are all wrong," he said when interviewed by an Argonaut reporter Monday night. "I can't understand such publicity and I don't know how it originated," he said.
Coach Erb believes that Idaho's position in the conference is as good as that of any college or university in the northwest. He reported that the feeling toward Idaho at the meeting was the very best. The Southern California authorities, he said, gave Idaho preference of two dates for the 1929 game, to be played either in California or in the north. The clean, hard game that the Idaho team played against the Trojans was the reason given by the U. S. C. authorities for their offer.

IDAHO ENGINEER ISSUED TODAY

Copies May Be Received By All Who Have Paid Their Associated Engineers Dues

The Idaho Engineer, semi-annual technical journal published by the Associated Engineers, came off the press last night and will be distributed at the Engineering building. Those who have paid their Associated Engineers dues may receive their copies by calling for them.
The magazine has incorporated brief summaries of all the research work of the technical schools of the university. The front cover, made up of a night view of the tower of the Memorial gymnasium, is, perhaps, one of the most novel features of the journal. A few of the outstanding articles are: "The Structural Design of the Memorial Gymnasium," "Construction Notes," "Pumping From Open Drains on the Mindoka Project," "Factory Training for Mechanicals," "Technical Developments in Idaho Oiling," "A Novel Drawbridge Over Nantmountain Waterways," and "The Golconda Mill."
W. Vaughn Iorns is editor of the journal and the business management is under the direction of Russell L. Tuttle.

RAIL OFFICIALS CALL ON DR. KELLY

Vice President of Union Pacific Discusses One-way Rate For Special Train Next Year

William M. Jeffers, vice president in charge of operations of the Union Pacific system, stopped in Moscow for a short time about noon yesterday to call on Dr. Frederick J. Kelly, president of the university. With Mr. Jeffers on his train were J. P. O'Brien, general manager of the O. W. R. & N. unit of the U. P. system, F. W. Finds, general superintendent and M. C. Williams, divisional superintendent.
Doctor Kelly brought up the question of reduced fares for university students on the southern Idaho student special train. Blue Key fraternity asked for a one-way round trip fare for university students on the annual southern Idaho student special train, and the company granted a round trip rate of a fare and one third. Efforts will be made to get the one-way fare for next year.
The railway officials stated that they would take the matter under consideration.

PARTY TO BE GIVEN HOME EC STUDENTS

Annual Christmas Affair Will Be Held At Gamma Phi House This Evening

The annual Christmas party of the Home Economics club, which was to be held at the Alpha Phi house at 7:30 this evening, will be held instead at the Gamma Phi house at the same time, officers of the club said Monday.
All women who are majoring in home economics; or who are taking any home economics courses are invited. Each guest is requested to bring a gift to be exchanged with some other member.

CHORAL SOCIETY IS FORMED IN MOSCOW

Oratoria Will Be Presented Here in May; Kratt Is Director

The Moscow community choral society was organized Thursday evening by representatives of more than 20 civic organizations at a meeting held at the Presbyterian church. Professor Theodore Kratt, one of the music department, has been chosen as director.
The first rehearsal of the chorus will be held at the auditorium on Tuesday, January 8, immediately after the Christmas holidays. The first public appearance has been scheduled for May 1, when the oratorio, "Eljah," will be presented. This will be part of the observance of National Music week.

A membership of from 200 to 300 is expected as a nucleus of 120 university students is already assured. "Anybody who can carry a tune" is the slogan that has been adopted by the choral society. An invitation has been extended by Professor Kratt to all members of the faculty and student body to join the chorus.
Plans of the choral society have been formulated for several months since the chamber of commerce appointed a committee under the head of C. W. Hungerford to attempt organization.
The board of directors for the society include L. A. Boas, director of publicity; C. W. Walton, representing the business men; Mrs. H. D. Martin, representing the town women; Miss Maude Garnett, music department of the university; the Rev. Roger P. Oliver, ministerial association; and Irving W. Jones, University of Idaho. From their members a treasurer, secretary and librarian to handle details will be appointed.

DEANS PLAN NEW FROSH ASSEMBLIES

Deans of Education and Engineering Divisions Exchange Frosh for One Hour Lectures

Freshman lectures for the semester are ended, according to Prof. C. W. Chenoweth, who has had charge of them. Professor Chenoweth said that these assemblies have been very successful, and that the freshmen class had cooperated in making them so, especially in the matter of attendance, which has not been compulsory. The deans of the various assemblies for the freshmen in their schools are now arranging special divisions. Following this plan of the education and engineering schools have exchanged freshmen during the past two weeks for a one-hour lecture.
SET MILITARY BALL DATE
The Military ball, annual formal, will be held at the Elks temple, February 21. Committees and orchestra will be selected immediately after the Christmas vacation by the Cadet Colonel of the R. O. T. C., William Gallagher.

NO ARGONAUT FRIDAY

THE ARGONAUT will not be published Friday, due to the fact that many students will be leaving the campus Friday afternoon and Saturday morning. Publication will be resumed Tuesday, January 8.

Traditional Carols to Be Sung Thursday

Christmas carols will be sung at 7 o'clock Thursday evening under the lighted trees on the campus. The Treble Clef club and Men's Glee club under the direction of Miss Maude Garnett of the department of music will assist in the singing.
The tradition of singing carols outdoors around a decorated tree was begun on the Idaho campus in 1922 by Permeal J. French, dean of women. The custom has gained in popularity each year since then. An especially large crowd is expected to take part in the singing this year because of the mildness of the weather, said Miss Garnett. In former years students and faculty members have often failed to come out on account of deep snow.
Much interest has been shown in the tradition this winter. The Christmas carols were practiced this morning in the general assembly, and members of the groups on the campus have been singing them during the past two weeks.

ALENE HONEYWELL TO WED THURSDAY

Formal Ceremony to Be Held at Kappa House; Many Are Invited

Alene Honeywell, assistant in the department of dramatics, will be married to A. B. Curtis, Orofino, at a formal wedding Thursday evening at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house. Invitations have been sent to about 100 friends.
The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. H. H. Mitchell of St. Mark's Episcopal church. Ethnor Jackson and Margaret Belmont, Spokane, will be bridesmaids, and Mrs. Harry J. Brenn will be matron of honor.
Miss Honeywell's brother, Jess M. Honeywell, will be the best man.

The bride-to-be will wear her mother's wedding dress of white silk and lace. Christmas decorations of red and green will be used. Josephine Harland will play and Helen Ames and Ethel Lafferty will sing. After the ceremony the couple will leave for California on a short honeymoon over the holidays.

Miss Honeywell was graduated from the university last June. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma national sorority, Mortar Board, national honor society for senior women and Curtian local dramatics honor fraternity. She is considered one of the best amateur actresses ever developed by the Idaho dramatics department. She has had leading roles in a number of big plays, and was prominent in her four-year activities throughout Professor Theodore Kratt, one of the music department, has been chosen as director.

The first rehearsal of the chorus will be held at the auditorium on Tuesday, January 8, immediately after the Christmas holidays. The first public appearance has been scheduled for May 1, when the oratorio, "Eljah," will be presented. This will be part of the observance of National Music week.

Fifteen Snowflakes Don't Make a Winter But B-r-r-r, It's Cold

The order of the snowflakes on the Idaho campus. Sunshine, frosh caps and 4 o'clock dates give way to slickers, galoshes and mud; and at last to red noses, fur coats and snow.
"Just one more week 'til vacation," the students said. "But gee, it looks like it's almost time for spring vacation instead of Christmas on the Hawaiian Islands!" And they floundered about with unbuttoned coats, and went for 10-mile hikes because the weather was so mild.
And then came Sunday and a new era was begun. While campus Santa Claus distributed frisbee gifts, and campus smokers created ye good olde Christmas cheer, the weather man woke up to his responsibility. All evening big snowflakes whited the Ad building, the board walk, topped the telephone poles, and made the finishing touch about the brightly-lighted Christmas trees which stands in the middle of the campus.
"Ah," breathed the student with relief Monday morning. "This looks more like it!" as they buttoned coats up to their chins and kicked snowballs all the way to class.

ENGLISH CLUB HAS SOCIAL NIGHT

Cast of Members to Present Play at L. D. S. Institute; Carols to Be Sung

English club members will hold their Christmas social meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the social rooms of the L. D. S. institute. The old English folk play, "St. George and the Dragon," will be presented by a cast selected from the members of the club.
Harold Packer will sing an old Christmas song; and a quartet consisting of Ethel Lafferty, Estelle Pickrel, Helen Ames and Elizabeth Dunn will sing an early Christmas carol.

DRURY ADDRESSES CLUB

The Reverend Clifford Drury spoke briefly on the history and political conditions in China to the Cosmopolitan club last Saturday evening. The lecture by Dr. Henrietta Tromanauer had to be postponed because of her sudden illness. Short talks were given by the different members of the club on Christmas customs in their own countries.

VANDALS WILL OPEN SEASON THURSDAY AGAINST WHITMAN

Missionaries Have Four of Last Year's Lettermen on Squad

BURGHIER WILL PLAY Idaho May Play Lewiston Normal Team Here Before Holidays

With no comparative scores behind either team as a basis of rating so far this season, Idaho opens her 1928-29 basketball season Thursday evening against an ever-dangerous opponent, Whitman college, on the new Memorial gymnasium floor. The game is called for 7:30 o'clock.
With exception of one man, Captain Eddie Buck, Whitman will start the same lineup against Idaho as that which last year defeated Idaho, W. S. C. Washington, Oregon, O. A. C. and Montana—all members of the northern Pacific Coast conference division. The odds favor Whitman to win the game and Coach Rich A. Fox's plan of using as many Idaho men as possible in the game should make Whitman's chances even greater. The Whitman team is due in Moscow Thursday afternoon.

BURGHIER BOOSTS CHANCES.
Idaho's chances were boosted somewhat by the turnout of Darwin Burghier, two-year center, who, after a two-week rest from football, was in full last Friday evening. Burghier may or may not start against Whitman, but at any rate he will play a good portion of the game either at center of guard. Harold Thornhill, center candidate and letterman of last year, probably will start at the pivot.
At forwards, although Harold Stowell and Frank McMillin are sure to start the game, yet four or five other men may get into action at the scoring positions during the game. Idaho has no relief forwards who are lettermen. At guard Robert Drummond is a letterman and at a guard he may be paired with Harold Carlson, freshman center last year.

KNIGHTS INITIATE GROUP OF PLEDGES

Twenty-Three Freshmen Granted Membership in Honorary Sunday

Ball and Chain chapter of Intercollegiate Knights, sophomore men's service organization, initiated 23 pledges into the organization last Sunday. The initiation, held in the new gymnasium, was conducted by Ted Turner, one of the founders of the local chapter. Dan McGrath, Harry Yost, Jack Dodd, and Harold Wheeler assisted Mr. Turner in the ritual work. Denny Hogue had charge of the committee on "ways and means" with the cooperation of the alumni members of the chapter.

The new initiates are: Ambrose Adams, Andrew Little, Basil Miles, Lewis Morgan, Kent Fuller, John McDonald, Carl Nicholson, Stanton Hale, Glenn Smith, Lennart Eklund, Donald Equels, John Matthews, Wallace Pierce, John Crandall, Warren McDaniels, James Mitchell, Charles L. Johnson, William W. Ensign, Edwin Gray, George Allen, Marvin Soderquist, Robert Moore and Jay Kendrick. Due to illness, Gordon Sternke will have to be initiated at a later date.
Kenneth Hensley was elected to succeed Dan McGrath as Honorary Duke. Harry Yost, chancellor of the exchequer, and Jack Dodd, worthy scribe, were succeeded by William Hawkins and Start Kimball.
A banquet was given in honor of the new members at the Blue Bucket immediately following the initiation. Speeches were made by Ted Turner, Ed Bolce, Clayton Loois, and the newly elected officers.

AG MEN'S SMOKER TO BE HELD FRIDAY

Novel Program Planned for Annual Event; Minstrel Show and Songs Featured

A decidedly novel and interesting program will be presented at the annual Ag club smoker which will be held Friday evening at the U-Hut, said Albert Murphy who is in charge. The athletic events will include one-handed boxing contests, wrestling matches and a neck tug of war between Charles Spencer and Floyd Widner. Comic readings will be given by Noland Jacobsen and George Johnson.
The musical part of the program will consist of comic songs by Albert Murphy and Bruce Sifton, mouth harp solos and a quartet. Another feature of the evening will be a minstrel show which will be conducted by Wesley Spencer.

LAKE CITY TO HEAR FACULTY RECITAL

University Music Instructors to Present Program for Coeur d'Alene Music Club Friday Night

Members of the University of Idaho music faculty will present a program for the Coeur d'Alene Music Club Friday evening at the high school auditorium in Coeur d'Alene. The program will be followed by reception at the home of Mrs. T. T. Keri.
Miss Agnes Crawford will play several piano selections from Bach, Hattesson and Chopin. Vocal solos will be sung by Miss Marion Treleven. Walter Mueller will present two piano solos. Prof. Carl Claus will play the violin selection. Concerto in E major by Vieuxtemps, and Prof. Theodore Kratt will address the club on the subject "American Music."

THIRTEEN-HOUR TRIP

Administration Approves the Plan; Women May Make the Trip
Expect Five Stages to Leave Here Saturday For South Idaho

SECOND JUNIOR MIXER TONIGHT

Informal Social Meeting Is Final Gathering of Class Before Holidays; Committee Plans New Stunts

Informal dress and vaudeville stunts along a new line will be outstanding features of the junior mixer this evening at the Blue Bucket inn beginning at 8 o'clock. Junior women have been given special permission to stay out until 11:30 in order that they may attend the social meeting of the class, the second of the year.
In addition to the "circle two steps" which broke the monotony of tag dancing at the last mixer, Patric Walker, chairman of the committee, says several new "mixing" plans will be tried tonight. Dorothy Frederickson is in charge of intermission entertainments.

GROUP DEBATES PUT OFF THREE WEEKS

Eight Intramural Teams to Compete on New Question After the Holidays

Intramural debates between the eight men's groups remaining in the tournament will be continued the second week after the holidays it was announced last night by Ralph Peterson, manager. The first round of the series was completed last week with the elimination of seven teams debating the question "Resolved: that the modern woman is not unwomanly." The new subject for the second round will be "Resolved: that the jury system should be abolished." Definite dates for the debates have not been announced but opposing sides have been named as follows: Tau Kappa Epsilon vs. Phi Delta Theta; Delta Chi vs. Beta Theta Xi; Lambda Chi Alpha vs. Phi Gamma Delta. The team named first in each case will uphold the affirmative side of the question and entertain the negative two-man team and the judges at its home on the evening of the debate. The new custom of conduction of the debates was introduced this year by Delta Sigma Rho.

FRATERNITIES TO ACT ON PLEDGING

Final Decision on Deferring; Investigation Will Be Made Tonight; Will Compile Data

Final action will be taken at the meeting of deferred pledging at a meeting to be held this evening at 9:30 o'clock at the L. D. S. institute, according to Allen Janssen, president of the Interfraternity council. An investigation of the matter was started nearly six weeks ago, when questionnaires were sent out to numerous colleges and universities by both the student committee headed by Edward Poulton, and the faculty committee headed by Dean Iwan C. Crawford. Dean Crawford has received replies from some 150 institutions, and is having a summary of the findings mimeographed in order that all the students may become familiar with the facts. These mimeographed sheets probably will be distributed to the fraternities and sororities soon after the holidays.
The student committee, which is working independently of the faculty committee, will submit a brief of its results to the council at the meeting this evening.

INSPECTORS PLAN INVESTIGATION SOON

No Previous Notice Will Be Given When Committee Starts on Group House Tour

Inspection of halls and group houses for the purpose of investigating sanitary conditions will take place very soon, according to Prof. G. L. A. Ruehle, chairman of the faculty health and housing committee. The inspection tour was to have taken place before this time but was delayed because of the influenza epidemic and twelve weeks examinations. No previous notice will be given of the visit of the committee, said Prof. Ruehle.
The committee will concern itself mainly with such matters as the preparation and storage of food, disposal of garbage, and condition of plumbing, although other conditions of hygiene will probably be looked into also.
Members of the committee are Prof. G. L. A. Ruehle, Dean Permeal J. French, Dr. Howard B. Stough, Miss Lillian J. Wirt and Dr. J. W. Barton.

LAKE CITY TO HEAR FACULTY RECITAL

University Music Instructors to Present Program for Coeur d'Alene Music Club Friday Night

Members of the University of Idaho music faculty will present a program for the Coeur d'Alene Music Club Friday evening at the high school auditorium in Coeur d'Alene. The program will be followed by reception at the home of Mrs. T. T. Keri.
Miss Agnes Crawford will play several piano selections from Bach, Hattesson and Chopin. Vocal solos will be sung by Miss Marion Treleven. Walter Mueller will present two piano solos. ## AUTO BUSES WILL COMPETE AGAINST STUDENT SPECIAL

THIRTEEN-HOUR TRIP Administration Approves the Plan; Women May Make the Trip

About five motor busses will be used this weekend to carry southern Idaho students to their homes. Tickets for the round trip are on sale now. Two of the busses will leave Moscow at 7 o'clock Saturday morning with about three more to leave shortly before noon.
The busses will be operated by the Hawley Transit company of Spokane. Modern and well equipped busses will be used on the trip, said J. H. Hawley, manager of the company when called on long distance Monday night. The machines will be heated and comfortable, he said.
Three To Boise
It is planned to operate between three and four busses from Moscow to Boise and vicinity. One other machine, provided 25 students are secured to make up a load, will go from Boise to Pocatello. Tickets and other arrangements are being handled on the campus by Frank Carnell and Burton Moore.

The busses leaving at 7 o'clock Saturday morning will accommodate those students who do not have Saturday morning classes. The busses leaving shortly before noon will take care of the other students having classes in the morning. The trip will be made in about 13 hours, Mr. Hawley estimated, which means that the busses leaving the campus at 7 o'clock in the morning should reach Boise by 8 o'clock Saturday evening. Stops will be made for the passengers to eat at least two meals.
Leave Boise January 6
On the return trip the busses will leave Boise at 8 o'clock on Sunday morning, January 6, and arrive at Moscow late that evening. The Pocatello bus will be required to leave somewhat earlier. The ticket sale will determine the exact number of busses to make the trip.

Permission of Miss Fermeal J. French, dean of women, for the city women to make the trip in the busses was secured. Mr. Moore announced. No objection to the running of the busses was made by the administration.
PLANES SEEK PAIR IN GRAND CANYON
War department airplanes from the ninth corps area at San Francisco were searching along the Colorado river for Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Hyde, Hanover, Idaho, adventurers navigating the stream in a flatboat, are ten days overdue on their trip. Hyde, a former student of the University of Idaho, is accompanying his wife on the first attempt of a woman to journey down the treacherous river in a scow.
Search by war department planes was begun after appeal had been made Monday by the Idaho chapter of Sigma Nu to Representative Burton L. French at Washington. Order for the San Francisco planes followed. Hyde was a member of Sigma Nu while a student here. He withdrew in 1923. Communication received from Mrs. Jennie Hyde, Twin Falls, mother of Hyde, caused the fraternity to take action.
The adventurers began their journey down the Colorado in Utah late in November and intended to terminate the cruise unaided at Needles, Calif. Somewhere between White Angel trail and Needles, Mr. and Mrs. Hyde have met disaster or trouble, their friends believe, because they have not been heard from for nearly two weeks.
Besides being the initial effort of a woman to navigate the stream, the cruise down the river in the open scow also marks the first trial at traversing the steep canyon without "lining" the boat over the more difficult and rapid parts of the foaming river. By "lining," several persons hold the boat with ropes, aiding its passage and keeping it upright from the banks, while a crew aboard the boat pilots it.
Mr. and Mrs. Hyde started the dangerous expedition as a vacation from the journey about December 8. The lower portions of the stream are less rough than the upper reaches, where rugged cliffs break their into the stream, while huge boulders dot the rapidly-traveling turbulent waters to form seething whirlpools and white-capped rapids.
While a student at the university, Hyde was interested in dramatics, taking part in play production and public speaking. He also was a writer on the staff of the Idaho Blue Bucket.

PLANES SEEK PAIR IN GRAND CANYON

War department airplanes from the ninth corps area at San Francisco were searching along the Colorado river for Mr. and Mrs. Glenn R. Hyde, Hanover, Idaho, adventurers navigating the stream in a flatboat, are ten days overdue on their trip. Hyde, a former student of the University of Idaho, is accompanying his wife on the first attempt of a woman to journey down the treacherous river in a scow.
Search by war department planes was begun after appeal had been made Monday by the Idaho chapter of Sigma Nu to Representative Burton L. French at Washington. Order for the San Francisco planes followed. Hyde was a member of Sigma Nu while a student here. He withdrew in 1923. Communication received from Mrs. Jennie Hyde, Twin Falls, mother of Hyde, caused the fraternity to take action.
The adventurers began their journey down the Colorado in Utah late in November and intended to terminate the cruise unaided at Needles, Calif. Somewhere between White Angel trail and Needles, Mr. and Mrs. Hyde have met disaster or trouble, their friends believe, because they have not been heard from for nearly two weeks.
Besides being the initial effort of a woman to navigate the stream, the cruise down the river in the open scow also marks the first trial at traversing the steep canyon without "lining" the boat over the more difficult and rapid parts of the foaming river. By "lining," several persons hold the boat with ropes, aiding its passage and keeping it upright from the banks, while a crew aboard the boat pilots it.
Mr. and Mrs. Hyde started the dangerous expedition as a vacation from the journey about December 8. The lower portions of the stream are less rough than the upper reaches, where rugged cliffs break their into the stream, while huge boulders dot the rapidly-traveling turbulent waters to form seething whirlpools and white-capped rapids.
While a student at the university, Hyde was interested in dramatics, taking part in play production and public speaking. He also was a writer on the staff of the Idaho Blue Bucket.

COLLEGIATE—AND HOW!

"TO ERR IS HUMAN"—to forgive vainglorious boasting almost impossible. Every year it has happened, and it will happen again. Students will go home for the holidays, and in order to impress their acquaintances, will misrepresent facts about themselves and their dealing with the university.

Many a mild mannered freshman has gone home and painted himself as a wild young college blood. More than once girls who only a few months before left their mothers for the first time, came home sophisticated and world wise—in words only. Older students are guilty of the same thing, the desire to appear as collegiate as the characters portrayed in college humor magazines.

At home, a date at the library grows to the proportions of a wild party. One successful case of bluffing an instructor is quoted as proof that one can get by at college without studying. Fraternity pledges recount their experiences in terms that would more fittingly describe the Spanish Inquisition. Good times? That is all they have. Studies? Yes, they do interfere with going to college, but who wants to study anyway? Such stories are in most cases based on little more than imagination, or a small degree of fact treated with a large degree of exaggeration. College students know better, and they laugh at some of the prize stories that are told, and forget that there many people who believe and accept them as actual facts.

The majority of students live in southern Idaho, a distance of from 500 to 700 miles from the university. People in the southern part of the state cannot help but be unfamiliar with the conditions here. Their opinions and impressions of the university are formed for the most part on their contact with university students. The braggers and the self appointed Paul Bunyan apostles are pointed out as examples of the effect of college training, and the others are barely noticed.

Idaho students, especially the freshmen, should beware of misrepresenting the facts. After all, they come here with the primary purpose of getting an education. Scholastic standards have been raised and will be raised yet further. The slacker and the shirk cannot get by without working; altogether too large a proportion barely manage to keep their names off of the probation lists. Good times there are in plenty, but they are the minor part, the background of college life.

More actual facts about the university, what it is doing, and what it can do, and less stories of the collegiate youth type will help the university instead of damaging it.

FRATERNITY HOME READY IN JANUARY

Delta Chi Will Occupy Chapter House Soon After Holidays

Delta Chi fraternity's newly completed home at Elm and University avenues will be ready for complete occupation soon after the Christmas holidays, it is announced today by members of the group. Part of the furnishings for the interior will be moved into the building during the vacation and the German letter organization will be permanently located by January 15, they said.

Except for the finishing of one sandstone gable on the exterior, the entire building is practically completed. Second and third floors, where study rooms and dormitories located, are now ready for occupation, are while on the first floor, only a few minor details remain unfinished. These will be done by the end of the Yuletide season.

At present the group is living in the old Delta Chi house, which was moved last summer from the site of the new one to a lot south of Hays hall. Members of the fraternity who plan to remain on the campus during the holidays will move most of the furniture and fixtures to the new residence. No announcement of disposal of the old house has been made.

Burglar Enters D. G. House; Interference Causes Rapid Flight

A real honest-to-goodness burglar was thought to have entered the Delta Gamma house last Tuesday evening during the dinner hour. At least there were mysterious noises, opening of doors, footprints in the snow, everything to lead to such a conclusion.

At the time of the night-have-been theft only two girls, who were getting ready to attend a banquet, were in the upper portions of the house. One of them heard a noise on the sleeping porch and called to find who it was. There was no response. She went out in the hall in time to see the door to the sleeping porch close quickly and hear a bed being pushed against it.

Not wishing to frighten the other girls these two went to the kitchen for help. The "hashers" laughed and said it was a "pretty good joke". Their fears thus allayed, they went back upstairs, but as they left for the banquet they saw a man descend the ladder from the sleeping porch in the rear of the house and retreat into the darkness of the night.

No clue to the identity of the intruder has yet been found, but the students of the university may take this as a warning to guard their personal belongings more closely against possible invaders or "thieves in the night".

Theodore Turner, proctor at Lindley hall, has urged all who are going away for the Christmas holidays not to leave any valuables in their university residences. Halls will be watched during the meal hours, but otherwise the students will be responsible for their own property," he said.

SUBSCRIPTION DRIVE IS HELD FOR THE GEM

Business Staff of Annual to Campaign For Advertising During Holidays

A brief but effective campaign has been completed by the Intercollegiate Knights and Spurs, who sold about 90 subscriptions for the Gem of the Mountains, Idaho's yearbook. Another drive is scheduled for after Christmas, lasting till the end of the semester. The last chance to procure a Gem will be at the second semester registration, according to Kenneth O'Leary, circulation manager. He intends to cover parts of southern Idaho, mainly around Boise, during the holidays to solicit alumni subscriptions.

WOMEN REPORTERS VISIT W.S.C. CHAPTER

Theta Sigma Entertained by National Journalistic Fraternity at State College

Members of Theta Sigma, women's local honorary journalistic fraternity, were entertained at luncheon at Pullman Saturday, by the Washington State college chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, women's national journalistic fraternity. In the evening several members of Theta Sigma, the national secretary of Theta Sigma Phi, Miss Edith Abbott of Spokane, discussed plans with her for establishing a national chapter at Idaho.

At the luncheon, two alumnae, Miss McCroskey and Mrs. McGladdo, of the Washington group, were present and gave some interesting accounts of journalistic experiences. A short meeting was held after the luncheon. In the afternoon the Idaho women were taken to the office of the Evergreen, the Washington State paper, and methods of publishing The Argonaut and the Evergreen were discussed.

Several of the members of the Idaho group had dinner with Miss Abbott in the evening. The history of the Idaho local society was discussed and plans were made for petitioning the national group. Miss Abbott approved of the contest which the Idaho group has started this year among the high school papers of Idaho.

The contest is for editions of high school papers published entirely by women. Many high schools have entered the contest.

Sophisticated "Aggies" Start New Derby Fad

Since the "Aggies" came back from the sophisticated east, Oregon State hasn't been the only place school in the northwest conference.

Sunday afternoon a well known fraternity man was seen strolling along University avenue with three other sane and sound fraternity brothers. They swayed neither to right nor left. They did not lean against one telephone pole nor one light post. They did not indulge in the song, "Sweet Adeline" or even "And Here We Have Idaho." They did not stop to argue with Dean Eldridge's lilac bush, nor did they stop at the store for life savers, chewing gum or anything else of incriminating nature. Safely and sanely this same man and his cohorts proceeded up the steps into the tong house.

And, sweet shades of the worldly "Aggies"! He wore upon his brow one hard black derby—And as he entered the door not a soul laughed!

CO-EDS DEFEATED IN W.S.C. DEBATE

Affirmative Team Drops Argument to Congratiate "Co-eds" Yesterday After No Decision With Whitman.

An Idaho women's debate team, upholding the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved: That Mussolini Has Been a Benefit to Italy," lost a decision to Washington State college here yesterday afternoon in the second round of the triangular debates with Whitman and W. S. C. Idaho was represented by Julia Hunter and Marguerite Wilson, who also composed the team that debated a no-decision contest with Whitman here last week. The victorious W. S. C. team included Miss A. Nobash and Miss Lila Attle. An affirmative team will travel from Moscow to Whitman for a return debate with the college during the second week in January, and a negative team will debate at Pullman on the same question soon.

May Your Christmas be as MERRY as you have made OLD GOLD'S

A year ago OLD GOLD'S holiday message to its many friends was entitled . . . "OLD GOLD'S first Christmas." OLD GOLD was then just the infant prodigy among cigarettes. But, thanks to its three million new friends, and its countless old ones, OLD GOLD has grown four hundred per cent. The infant has become a strapping young giant. OLD GOLD is America's fastest growing cigarette. You have given OLD GOLD a wonderful Christmas by your kind patronage and cordial good-will. And in deepest appreciation we say to all our friends . . . "May your Christmas be as merry as you have made OLD GOLD'S."

We thank you.

SOCIETY

The Phi Gamma Delta "graveyard" dance was one of the most unusual and attractive dances given on the campus this year, while the Phi Delta Theta upperclassmen's formal dinner dance and the Alpha Chi Omega dinner dance were also distinctive affairs.

The remaining few days before the Christmas special leaves, are crowded full of social events with the second Junior mixer and English club social scheduled for tonight, the Ag club smoker Wednesday, and carol singing around a lighted Christmas tree on the campus Thursday.

Three feature dances—the S. A. E. Forty-niner dance, the T. K. E. Apache dance and the Beta Theta Pi kid party will lend variety to Friday's entertainment. Kappa Sigma, Sigma Chi and Beta Chi will entertain with Christmas dances.

FUN DANCE IS OUTSTANDING

One of the most unusual dances of the year was given by the fraternity of Phi Gamma Delta at the chapter house Saturday evening. The house was decorated to represent the lower regions made famous in Dante's Inferno. A skeleton in a coffin was in the entrance hall while another skeleton was found in the guest room.

What appeared to be an open grave with the tombstone already in place, was the entrance to the basement which was transformed into a gruesome place of death. A dismembered "woman" lying beside a bloody axe was labeled "She ditched a date." A skeleton guarding the furnace furnished the guests a few thrills.

In the dining and living rooms, painted windows lighted from the outside gave the effect of leaping flames. Tiers of orange paper around the walls furthered the effect. Programs were miniature, wooden tombstones properly inscribed. Music was furnished by McInty's orchestra.

Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Rich Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Erb, and Mrs. and Mrs. Max Griffith.

Guests were Grace Parsons, June Howerton, Elizabeth Chapman, Elaine Cash, Alice Nash, Lois Fredrickson, George Ann Brown, Marie Clark, Vera Harding, Jane Kelly, Mary Brown, Eunice Phillips, Ruth Randall, Emily Osgood, Dorothy Nixon, Helen Douglas, Austa White, Gay Carter, Elizabeth Dunn, Peggy Souger, Violet Hagen, Hazel Simonds, Doris Brower, Viola Palmer, Pauline Paturka, Helen Hargus, Bethel Packenhorn, Ruth Roberts, Flora Francone, Edith Bradshaw, Gladys Pence, Alice Stamm, Leola Decker, Doris Squibb, Helen Jacobs, Helen Blackinger, Irene Smith, Fay Tatro, Doris Gilmore, Zella Newcomb, Josephine Harland, Elizabeth Johnson, Bernice Kendall, Katherine Steel, Zola Geddes, Estaline Geary, Ada Jones, Elmer Berglund, Stewart Maxey, Allen Janssen, Wesley Shurtliff, William Harris, Dean Kaylor, Charles Christie, Elbert Stellman, Clinton Bohman, and Irving Cook.

Phi Deltas Give Dinner Dance

Upperclassmen of Phi Delta Theta held their annual formal dinner dance at the chapter house Saturday night. The house was decorated to carry out the Christmas atmosphere, with pine boughs, red and green streamers and a lighted Christmas tree being used.

The center piece for a large dining table, around which were seated the 20 couples, was a big brick fireplace. After the cocktail course, Charlotte Gossett, four-year old daughter of O. R. Gossett, came out of the fireplace and gave white carnations to each of the persons seated at the table. One of the features of the dance was a special Christmas number, during which "Santa Claus" appeared and distributed small gifts to the guests. Cotton snowballs were used in the "snow" fight.

Patrons were Theodore Turner, W. L. "Fat" Stephens and Earl David. Guests were Ada Burke, Mary Williamson, Farrell Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Fitzgerald, Betty Wilson, Elmor Jackson, Mary Thomas, Elizabeth Smith, Vera Chandler, Vivienne Mosher, Helen McConnell, Ruth Morris, Geneva Dyer, Dorothy Hirschman, Maurine Godfrey, Lois Taylor, Betty Eatsman, Dorothy Hall and Marlon McGonigle.

RIDENBAUGH ENTERTAINS AT DANCE

Ridenbaugh hall entertained at an informal dance Saturday evening. Christmas decorations created the holiday atmosphere for the affair. Music was furnished by Harold Packer's orchestra.

Patrons and patronesses were Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Laney, Mrs. W. Watts, Mrs. W. Piercey, Theodore Turner, and William Harris.

Guests were Opal Williams, Dorothy Shears, Inah Harris, Margaret Stewart, Grace Warren, Lamona Lamphere,

ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT BRIDGE

Jean and Vivian Edmiston entertained informally at bridge Saturday afternoon at their home, 812 West Tenth street. Honors were won by Beverly Laughlin and Beatrice Gibbs.

The Misses Edmiston plan to give a series of similar parties during the remainder of the school year. Guests were Beverly Laughlin, Virginia Leigh, Anne Day, Doris Fouch, Pauline Clare, Nina Newman, Alice Stamm, Mary Eilon Heckathorn, Ruth Newhouse, Esther Mitchell, Flora Corkery, Irma Williams, Grace Eldridge, Rhoda Woodward, Grace Reed, Katherine Mikkelson, Ruth Hagan, Beatrice Gibbs, Abigail Wadsworth, Maxine Thornhill, Josephine Morris, Hazel McCannan, Helen McCannan, Caryl Thompson and Lois Thompson.

The members of Delta Gamma cordially entertained their pledges with a very clever and colorful Christmas party Monday evening. After a number of very clever stunts presents were exchanged. Christmas spirit prevailed throughout.

Sigma Chi luncheon guests Monday were Lieutenant Governor W. D. Kinne, State Senators C. A. Hagan, and Rush White and State Representatives Jesse Hoffman, Carl E. Spear.

Hays hall dinner guests Sunday were Dean and Mrs. Ivan C. Crawford, Helen Cray, Helen Young, Elvora Anderson, Lawrence Henkins and Arthur Schwartzbauer.

The fraternity of Phi Gamma Delta entertained the following at Sunday dinner: Eunice Phillips, Jane Kelly, Mary Brown, Spokane; and Zola Geddes.

Lieutenant-Governor elect W. D. Kinney, Orofino; Senator Edwin Nelson, Grangeville, and Senator Sheaffer, Lewiston, were Monday luncheon guests of Alpha Tau Omega.

Sigma Chi dinner guests Sunday were Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Barton, Dean and Mrs. R. H. Farmer, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Mosher, C. M. Nicholson and Glenn W. Sutton.

Mrs. Paul T. Rowell, Nampa; Miss Maurine Godfrey, Miss Jane Kelly and Miss Eunice Phillips, Spokane, were weekend guests of Kappa Alpha Theta.

Herbert Newman, Albert Luft and William Trtola, all of Pullman, and Mac Hardwick were Friday dinner guests of Alpha Tau Omega.

Sunday dinner guests of Kappa Kappa Gamma were Mrs. C. D. Emanuel, Lewiston; Miss Olive Petrashek, Weiser, and Marjorie Jones.

Thursday dinner guests of Kappa

Kappa Gamma were Dean and Mrs. J. G. Eldridge and Dean and Mrs. R. M. Davis.

Sunday dinner guests of Delta Gamma were Bertha Moore, Vesta Cambden and Betty Kummer.

Neal Cairn of Washington State college was a weekend guest of Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Dinner guests of Delta Chi Thursday were Carl Kyselka, David McClusky and Robert McClusky.

Mac Hardwick and Frank Dugan, Pullman, were Saturday dinner guests of Alpha Tau Omega.

Miss Ada Burke and Miss Maude Garnett were Sunday dinner guests of Phi Delta Theta.

Emmert Davis was a dinner guest of Phi Delta Theta Monday evening.

Gertrude Stringer was a Friday dinner guest of Hays hall.

Walter Tate was a Wednesday dinner guest of Alpha Tau Omega.

William Bronson was a Sunday dinner guest of Alpha Tau Omega.

Margaret Kearns was a Wednesday dinner guest of Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Blasting Ice Gorges

Lesson No. 7 of
BLASTERS' HANDBOOK

YOU may never have to break up an ice gorge, but if you should, you'll need to act quickly and correctly. Bridges, dams and other structures, not to mention human lives, are often at stake.

Many unsuccessful attempts to dynamite a gorge are due to not knowing the proper amount of explosive to use, how to place and fire it. You may need only a few pounds, or you may need 1500 pounds.

Out of their experience in helping break up ice gorges, du Pont field service men have written a compact chapter on "Blasting Ice Gorges" in the BLASTERS' HANDBOOK. It is typical of the practical sort of information contained in this handy, pocket-size reference work. Experience lessons from every field in which explosives are used—lessons that ONLY experience could write. A valuable adjunct to your engineering studies. Used as such by leading technical institutions.

OREGON OR U. OF W. WILL GRAB HONORS IN NORTH, SAYS FOX

Available Material and Past Showing Is Basis of His Prediction

HAVE MANY VETERAN U. of W. Lost Conference Title to U. S. C. by Narrow Margin in 1927

Although Coach Rich A. Fox is unwilling to rank the six northern division conference basketball teams as to their chances in winning this year, he nevertheless expects to see Oregon and Washington scrap it out for first and second place again this season.

Many lettermen back. This prediction is based on the relative showing of these two teams last year, and the number of experienced lettermen returning for action. Washington has six lettermen led by Captain Monte Sneider, while Oregon has seven veterans as a nucleus for a squad.

As to the other teams—Idaho, O. S. C., Montana and W. S. C.—Fox is silent. Idaho and the Beavers, finished in a tie for third place last year, Montana followed, and the Cougars had little competition for the cellar job.

Idaho this season starts off her conference schedule almost in reverse to the 1928 lineup. Montana comes first at Missoula, and then Idaho plays O. S. C., Oregon, W. S. C. and Washington in that order at Moscow.

This schedule for the most part favors Idaho, for it means the benefit of playing hard conference games on the home floor during the first part of the season, before Idaho has reached playing peak.

EX VANDAL PLAYS ON SHRINER TEAM

"Chuck" Diehl Will be Only Idaho Man in East-West Game at San Francisco

The western grid team for the Shriners annual East-West game to be held in San Francisco, December 29, is practically intact and Charley "Chuck" Diehl is the only man on the team who has ever played for the University of Idaho.

Washington State's representatives are Dan Moran and Meg Dressel, who have played brilliant football during the past season. Moran was awarded the Bohler cup, which is presented annually to the player who has been the greatest inspiration to his team, and Dressel was selected to serve on several all-American teams, as well as receiving honorable mention from many sports writers who saw him in action.

Orin Hollingberry who is in charge of the western team, has assembled a formidable array of talent and the list includes several All-Americans of various selectors, notably Morley Drury, U. S. C.; Post, Stanford; Dressell, W. S. C.; Hoffman, Stanford, and Maple, Oregon State.

VOLLEY BALL TILT RESULTS SEE SAW

Results of Women's Games Thursday and Friday Reversed Monday; Senior Teams Win.

Much speculation and intense interest are extant among the W. A. A. women as the volley ball tournament continues to wax warm.

Last Thursday three games were played. In the first game the junior second team won from the freshman second team A with scores of 15-6 and 15-9. In the second game, the sophomore first team wrested a hard won victory from the freshman first by a score of 15-7, and 15-5. In the last game the sophomore second team A won from the sophomore second team B with scores of 15-3, 6-15 and 15-14.

On Friday the lower classmen beat their upperclass opponents in all three games. The second team A of the freshman class walked off with a victory from the sophomore second team B, the scores being 15-13 and 15-1. The sophomore first team won from the junior first team with scores of 15-13 and 15-6. The sophomore second team A won from the junior second team by 15-8, 17-19, and 15-7.

GROUP ATHLETES TO RESUME BATTLE

Intergroup Competition Delayed by Inability to Use New Gym

Intramural athletic competition, delayed by inability to use the new Memorial gymnasium this month, will be resumed in earnest immediately following the Christmas holidays.

Wrestling and indoor baseball will start also and all intramural swimmers will start workouts as soon as the new gymnasium pool is ready after the holidays. According to Acting Director of Athletics Rich A. Fox, preliminaries in all these sports will be run off and all the finals will be held during a two-day sports carnival.

Two events of a nine-sport program—cross-country and volley ball—have been run off to date.

Considering what most people are willing to do for money it's a wonder there are not more millionaires.

NO SMOKING AT U. S. C.

Smoking in the new Memorial Union building here has aroused discussion among students, faculty and alumni. Although smoking is not permitted anywhere on the campus or in buildings, it is the students' belief that the ideal and individuality of the memorial distinguishes it as a place where full freedom of privilege and activity should be allowed.

year, to start the game. Starting calls mean little or nothing and the combination Fox sends into the second half may be materially different from that which begins the game. May Play Saturday.

Although Fox was not definitely sure of the date, he intimated that Idaho will play Lewiston Normal school here before the Christmas holidays, possibly next Saturday on the Memorial gymnasium floor. Fox will retain practically all of his working squad in Moscow during the holidays.

Most Idaho basketball followers will miss a chance to see Idaho in action January 4 and 5 against Montana State college, because of the extended vacation period. Idaho plays the Levitch Sparklers, all-stars, at Spokane, December 23 and 29.

A GIFT FROM DAVIDS' MEANS MORE
Be at ease when the special pulls out. The contented one is the person who has his suit case filled with presents from here.
Perhaps you too have chewed many pencils making out a Christmas list.
No need for that!
Just write the names for whom you want a gift, come here . . . you'll be as busy as Paul Revere. We've been planning for months to make this a painless December.

He united the country with nails
BEN FRANKLIN made the horseshoe nail a symbol of the importance of little things. "The kingdom was lost and all for the want of a horseshoe nail"; goes one of his wise sayings. So when he became Postmaster General, he knew full well the need for proper horseshoeing as one step in punctual mail schedules.
The care given to details can still make or break a great plan. In the telephone industry, for example, the development of compact paper insulation helped to make possible the small diameter cable and therefore the vast underground plant necessary to serve large cities.
A multiplicity of details, from the testing of long fibre cotton to the "voice with the smile", offer a continual challenge to the Bell System men who unite the nation with telephones.
