

SOCIETY

Although picnics are proving more and more popular, spring informal dances are continuing to hold their own on the social calendar. The Kappa Sigma annual spring formal, held at the chapter house Saturday evening, was the only formal affair scheduled. Informal dances were given by Beta Theta Pi and Kappa Alpha Theta Friday evening and at Ridenbaugh hall Saturday evening. The Freshman Glee which was held at the Blue Bucket inn Friday, was one of the gayest dances of the season. "Hay Fever," an unusually good three-act play presented by the play production class in the auditorium Friday, added variation to the events of the weekend.

Beginning last night with the Glee club concert, this week's social calendar is entirely filled. The Faculty Women's club program will be held this evening. The S. A. I. formal recital is scheduled for Wednesday night, while the Treble Clef club concert and the art exhibit at the U-Hut will be events of Thursday.

Lewiston Team Confers Degrees on Moscow Young Men; "E-dah-ho" is Title Given Newest Chapter.

Immediately following the installation ceremonies, the Lewiston degree team presented the first and second degrees with Robert Tillson, present master councilor of the Boise chapter, officiating. The following major officers installed were: Malcolm Renfrew, Master councilor; Phillip Dufford, Senior councilor; Harold Snow, Junior councilor; Wayne Rowe, secretary; George Wilson, treasurer; Jack Mitchell, chaplain; Roland Hunter, Senior Deacon, Devere Schleuter, Junior deacon; Donald Smith, Senior steward; Stewart Smith, Junior steward; and Richard Stanton, marshal.

At a dinner given in the Masonic temple, 121 Masons and visiting DeMolays pledged their support to the new chapter which will consist largely of university students and town high school men.

The advisory council, consisting of F. Kennard, chairman; R. S. Snyder, advisor; Col. E. R. Chrisman; Frank S. Stanton; Dean J. G. Eldridge; Francis Jenkins; L. R. Scott; Frank Candee; G. R. McDole; J. M. Raeder; and H. E. Heckathorn, will supervise and advise the chapter's activities, the ultimate aim being to have the activities of DeMolay recognized as a student activity.

Foresters Celebrate At Yearly Barbecue

The final event on the Associated Foresters' social calendar, the annual barbecue, was held May 4, at Felton's mill, 12 miles east of Moscow. Shortly after noon about 50 foresters were packed into cars and whisked away to the woods where they shook off the atmosphere of books and studying and proceeded to renew class rivalry in the form of log chopping and bucking contests, relays, sack races, spitting contests, and tugs o' war. True to form, the seniors surpassed their inferiors by taking the events with a score of 34 of a possible 50 points. The freshmen came next with the juniors and sophomores trying for third place. Immediately following the events, a typical lumberman's outdoor supper

ENGLISH CLUB PLANS HISTORICAL PROGRAM

Committee on Old Idaho Material to Have Charge of Entertainment at Last Social Meeting.
The committee on Idaho historical material, headed by Dan McGrath, will have charge of entertainment for the final social meeting of the English club, announced yesterday to be held May 15 at a place to be decided soon. The program will consist of readings, music and talks on subjects pertaining to Idaho history and literature. A number of old ballads are to be sung by two young Moscow boys to the accompaniment of a violin. Another ballad will be presented as a planologue by Ruth Rowell and Mrs. Alene Curtis. Deeds of pioneer fame are to be recounted by Ed Wahl. Laura Clark will discuss the significance and interpretation of peculiar names of localities in Idaho and a Paul Bunyan tale, written by Talbot Jennings, will be told by McGrath. Further arrangements will be announced next week by Margaret Wilson, president of the club.

TEKE AND BETA CHI NINES WIN

Tau Kappa Epsilon sprung a surprise in the closing innings of the first baseball game played this year in the intramural series, and defeated Sigma Nu 8 to 7. The five inning high jump—Alden, Bovill, Tyrell ducted on single elimination basis with a consolation tourney for teams losing their first games.
The first game Saturday afternoon resulted in a 6 to 1 victory for Beta Chi over Alpha Tau Omega. Shurtliff led the losers performance with "twilight swat fests" ar being con- the circuit with one base filled to score two runs for Beta Chi. The second Saturday game was called at the end of the third inning. Lambda Chi and Tau Mem Aleph will finish the game this afternoon at 4 o'clock. Two more games, scheduled for yesterday afternoon, were postponed until today. Phi Delta Theta and Phi Gamma Delta vs Sigma Chi are the remaining games to be played today. The Beta nines will meet Delta Chi at 4 o'clock Wednesday. Ridenbaugh hall and Kappa Sigma will complete the first round at 6:45. Schedule for the remainder of the week will be announced Wednesday for the second round by Elton Plato, intramural baseball manager.

While in Banff, Alberta, in 1909, I climbed Tunnel Mountain. On top of this mountain there is a cairn of stones where tourists leave their cards with remarks about the scenery, etc. Not having a card with me, I left a tin of Edgeworth Sliced, scribbled my name and address on a piece of paper, and said, "Have a fill on me."
I have kept up a haphazard correspondence with one of three who wrote me thanking me for the Pipelet of Edgeworth. What makes me write you is that today from Australia I received two slices of Edgeworth with the words, "Have a fill on me," so you see Edgeworth keeps friends friendly.

Lesson No. 6 of BLASTERS' HANDBOOK

ROAD-MAKING calls for about every kind of blasting, opening ditches, loosening hard ground in grading, blasting for surfacing and ballasting material, opening vertical drains, and blasting rock in grading. There are "through cuts" and "side hill cuts," high sides, ridges and "thank you marms," outfall or discharge ditches, and scores of names and strange technicalities that never saw the light of day in the average engineering text-book.

All these practical points of road-making are explained, fully diagramed and illustrated in the BLASTERS' HANDBOOK. Not a text-book in the ordinary sense, but rather a digest of the experience of du Pont field service men in practically every industry using explosives. Admirably supplements your studies of engineering theories. Supplies the kinks and "how-to-do's" that you usually have to spend several years in the field to learn. Handy pocket-size for quick reference; and arranged for easy study.

COAST TRACKMEN TOO SPEEDY FOR VANDAL RELAYS

Idaho Team Fails to Place in Big Event At Seattle

W. S. C. WINS FIRST

Foster, Cougar Sprint Dem- on, Paves Way to Easy Victory

In one of the fastest set of relays in the history of the annual University of Washington Track carnival, Washington State college romped off with six first places to take the 1929 meet at Seattle Saturday afternoon. Idaho's 10-man team failed to place in the meet, but threatened hopefulness in the mile relay, the final event of the afternoon.

It was Wesley Foster, colored sprinter of the Cougar team, who pulled three relays out of the fire for the Cougars and made it possible for his teammates to capture the meet. It was Foster's exceptional running in the final lap in the 440-yard relay that allowed the Cougar stars to capture this event and tie the carnival record of 42.7 seconds. Foster also ran the first 220-yard stretch of the medley event and won the 100-yard dash, uncontested.

Mile Relay Close

Idaho was ahead in the mile relay at the end of the third lap, but lost this advantage in the final lap to finish a poor fifth. Norman, lead-off man for Idaho, gave the Vandal quartet a five-yard lead at the end of the first lap, despite being "boxed" during the first half of the race. Klingler added nearly five more yards to Idaho's lead as second man, and Hodson kept most of the advantage throughout the third stretch. Jensen, however, as anchor man running against half a dozen crack quarter-milers could not maintain the pace his teammates had set and saw four men go past him before the race was over.

Two Mile Record Set

In the medley relay event, Idaho was on par with the other competing aggregations at the end of the first two stretches, but lost out in the half mile and mile event. The Vandal two-mile relay team was hopelessly out-classed, the event being won by Washington in the record-breaking time of 7:53.5. The winning Washington combination comprised Kiser, Dodds, Genuing and Davis. Three members of the winning quartet ran their 880-yard stretches in well under two minutes flat. Collins was fifth for Idaho in the shot put with a heave of nearly 42 feet, well below his usual average.

Washington State won the 100-yard dash, 440-yard, 880-yard, mile and medley relays, and the pole vault to take six out of 11 possible first places. The Cougar team also rang up several second and third places: Washington got four first places and Oregon the other one. The track at Seattle was fast, but a strong breeze hindered the sprinters from turning in exceptionally fast times.

Summary of the Pacific Coast conference events include:

100-yard dash—Won by Foster, W. S. C.; second, Shelley, Washington; third, Pendleton, Washington. Time, 10.2.

120-yard high hurdles—Won by Anderson, Washington; second, Siegmund, Oregon; third, Cordy, Oregon state. Time, 15.2.

Pole vault—Won by Lainhart, Washington State; second, Smith, O. S. C.; third, Ross, Washington; Herron, Washington State, and Maltby, Oregon, tied. Height, 12 feet 6 inches.

Discus—Won by Moeller, Oregon; second, Jessup, Washington; third, Hein, Washington State. Distance, 150 feet 5 inches.

Four-mile relay—Won by Washington (Ingram, Reed, Sellers, Kiser); second, Washington State; third, Oregon State. Time, 18:10.

440 relay—Won by Washington State (Newman, Kelly, Mooberry, Foster); second, Washington; third, Oregon. Time 42.7 (tied carnival record).

Two-mile relay—Won by Washington (Davis, Dodds, Genuing, Kiser); second, Washington State; third, Oregon. Time 7:53.5. (New carnival record.)

Shot put—Won by Jessup, Washington; second, Ramsted, Washington; third, Boerhave, W. S. C. Distance, 45 feet, 11 1/2 inches.

880-yard relay—Won by Washington State (Ouillette, Kelly, Mooberry, Foster); second, Oregon; third, Montana. Time, 1:29.

Medley relay—Won by W. S. C. (Foster, Ouillette, Shear, Taylor); second, Montana; third, Oregon State. Time 7:45.

Mile relay—Won by Washington State (Kelley, Newman, Mooberry, Ouillette); second, Washington; third, Oregon State. Time 3:27.2.

O. S. C. TRACK TEAM DOPED TO WIN DUAL MEET HERE

Seattle Relays Saturday, while Pearson of Idaho has not hit past 12 feet so far this year. McCallip of Oregon State is slated to take the broad jump, with Norman Idaho's best bet in this event. In the high jump, James O'Brien of Idaho is given an edge over Logan Carter of Oregon State. O'Brien has cleared more than 6 feet so far this year.

What enters the Southern Branch holds for the Moscow meet is uncertain, although several freshmen members of the team are reported to be of varsity calibre. The Southern Branch team is reported to be strong in the hurdles, sprints, relay and possibly one or two field and weight events. The team is coached by Felix Plastino, former Vandal football ace, and coach of the Twin Falls high school team that won the state interscholastic track title last year.

the 440-yard dash in 54 seconds flat by Robinson of Deary.

In south Idaho, Boise had an easy time winning the southwestern district meet, amassing 67 points. Willis Smith, Boise sprinter, was the individual star of the day. Boise competes in an inter-district meet Saturday before sending her track talent to Pocatello.

Paddles Out Again For More Violations

The "P" club sent out invitations again last night. The latest receiving line will include twelve recipients. The function will be held at the usual place in front of the Administration building at 12:45 o'clock Friday May 8.

The following men are expected to be present: Robert Zarek, Robert Mitchell, Harry Yost, Peyton Sommercamp, Elliot Redmond, Murray Estes, Douglas Brydshaw, Russell Potter, Frank Smith, John McDonald, and Joe Pearson. This is the second call for Murray Estes, say the "P" club men.

FOUL BALLS

By Paul Boyd

Well, it's a good thing that Idaho isn't playing the 16 game schedule on the road or they would end up with a 1,000 average—all losses. Losing two to Oregon and, so far, one to Oregon State, drops Idaho from the leadership of the Conference to fourth place.

The Idaho fans might call our club the Hitless wonders or some similar name. A total of 8 blows have been registered in three games. That is 3 of a blow per man or 1 run every 12 games. Pretty rotten hitting. Maybe Idaho used up all the blows out of those bats when they played the Cougars, if so, then let's get another carload of clubs.

Bill Essick, Yank scout, cast his eye over the local athletes and decided that none of them were ripe for fast company, but did say that a couple of the boys looked like they knew that a plate wasn't to eat off. That's about as close as some of them come to scoring on this road trip.

We just found out what the trouble is. Oregon and Washington are running on Uncle Sol time. Their hurlers are throwing that ball in there according to their time, and our hitters are taking their cut at it by V-P Jones time, one hour later.

Judy hurled nice ball, but was removed for Lindsay in the second Oregon game. Judy had held them to five hits, but Coach Fox took him out for a pinch hitter. He was consistent with the rest of the Idaho team.

Cheyne has yet to miss a game in which he hasn't nalled the apple for at least one blow. Consistent hitting like this is what warms the cockles of all coaches' hearts.

Nightingale, Oregon pitcher, sang a sweet song for the home fans when he held Idaho to a measly blow that went for one base. He must have had something more than the cover on the ball to do that little trick.

With all these games in the lost column maybe Fox will shake-up the batting order in an effort to develop some hitters.

We shudder to think what W. S. C. will do to us if our team isn't hitting by then. The Cougars have started with a bang and divided the series with the Huskies. In Jerry Calhoun, the Huskies have one of the best pitchers in the conference. In every game that he has pitched, he has held the opponents to a short number of blows.

The Idaho team returns home Saturday for a rest before the home games the following Friday and Saturday.

Beautiful but dumb

We are reliably informed that the above familiar phrase is applied mainly to certain poor dears in whom all the pituitary runs to pulchritude. A gargoyle is "int'restin'", at least. Better pick 'em freckled and friendly than lovely but lacking.

And getting our minds back on business . . . innocuous, unmitigated mildness rather palls in a cigarette, too.

Chesterfields are mild, certainly—but "aren't they all"? The point is that Chesterfields are also "int'restin'". They satisfy—and right there is why they gather in the gang.

Taste—the taste and richness of quality tobacco—that's what matters. And the blend can't be copied; you know you are smoking a Chesterfield, nothing else, at every puff.

CHESTERFIELD

MILD enough for anybody..and yet..THEY SATISFY
