S.A.E. SLUGS OUT SOFT BALL TITLE FROM SIGMA NUS

"A" League Title Holders Take Last Two Games In Easy Fashion

LOSE FIRST 13 TO 10 Winners Run Up 24-8 Score In Second; Final 10-5

Sigma Alpha Epsilon romped over Sigma Nu 10 to 5 last night in the last game of the series, to win the intramural indoor baseball championship. The Sigma Nus won the first game of the series 13 to 10 but the Sig Alpha staged a come back in the second game and outslugged their rivals 24 to 8.

The first game was a contest of errors with the S. A. E. pulling the majority of honors. The Butterfly nine muffed fly after fly in the first two innings to let the Sig Nus run up ten runs. When they finally calmed down it was too late to overcome the huge lead. In the fourth and fifth innings they held the Sigma Nus scoreless and gathered in 8 runs. The Sigma Nus started a rally in the sixth that netted them three more runs to make their tally 13. The Sig Alphas managed to score twice in the last and the game ended with the final score 13 to 10.

Booker and Raldy did battery work for the Sigma Nus while Beglan and Taylor were the shining lights of the Sig Alpha team.

Early Lead Tells Tale

The S. A. E. started to slug the ball all over the lot in the first inning of the second game and didn't quit until the game was over. Three bagger after three bagger was slammed down to the four corners of the gym.

Booker, Sigma Nu chucker, gave up the mind to Raldy in the fifth. Raldy held the Sig. Alphas down for one inning, but the slugging started again. The Sigma Nus made their only threat of the evening during the fourth inning when they ran up four runs. The final tally was 24 to 8 for the Sig Alphas. Every man on the S. A. E. nine did his share while Raldy and Wendal looked good for Sigma Nu.

Four Run Lead

In the deciding game last night the Sig Alpha grabbed a four run lead in the first inning that they held throughout the game. McCoy, S. A. E. pitcher, handed in the best performance of the series. He kept the Sigma Nus down to one hit and no runs during the first four innings, while he accounted for three of the Sig Alpha scores. The S. A. E. aggregation held their opponents down to two runs till the end of the sixth. The score was then 4 to 0. Both teams earned one run in the seventh and the game ended with a tally of ten to 5. The exceptional fielding of Wendal, Sigma Nu, was the feature of the game. Wendal never bunched a fly within distance during the game. McCoy and Taylor did the heavy slugging for the S. A. E. both getting a home run. S. A. E. will receive 25 extra points towards the intramural cup.

The lineups:
Sigma Alpha: Erection, A. Shutta, B. McCoy, S. Brock and Taggart, H. Taylor, B. Trevino, J. Fitch, F. Barrett, G. Decker, J. Jones, Sigma Nu: C. Decker, S. Nelson and Sharver, H. Wicks, S. Hall, F. Fennie, F. Cheney, C. Ficke, I. Wendle.

HOT ASSEMBLY JUNIOR PROMISE

Music and Skits Planned; Main Plots Kept Secret by Committee

Heralding junior week, the junior assembly next week promises novel entertainment, dancing and music of the "four-alarm" type. According to Harold Packer, orchestra chairman, no dearth of talent exists in the musical ranks of the junior class this year. Clarinet and trumpet duets will be featured, not to speak of vocal selections, including the junior song, and novelty dancing by several well-known juniors.

To appease the non-musical lovers, a varied program has been arranged, the exact nature of which is a deep and dark secret until the performers appear on the flitting, mirthful episodes and travesties will be featured, says Ralph Hagan, chairman of the assembly.

It is understood from unofficial sources that "pony chorus" is to be whipped into shape for the assembly. The source of the information did not divulge whether or not the chorus was to consist of women or men, but it is fairly certain that a chorus will appear.

STATE MEET AT O. S. C. OREGON STATE COLLEGE.

The fourth annual Oregon state interscholastic track and field meet will be run off here May 10 according to announcement by Carl A. Lodge, Oregan graduate manager. Coach Paul J. Schlessler will be director of the meet again this year. Last year more than 400 high school athletes from all parts of the state were entered. Franklin high of Portland won team honors. Grant took second and Washington third.

FINAL "GEM" SALE STARTS MONDAY

Next Week Will be Last Opportu- nity For Students to Order Yearbooks

Beginning Monday the Gem of the Mountains will be offered for sale in the main hall of the Administration building and continue all of next week. Since the receipt books have been withdrawn from the Inter Collegiate Knights and Spurs there to where many inquiries as to where the annual could be purchased. Manager Smuin has arranged this sale as a last opportunity for those students who have not gotten their yearbook, to do so. There are only a limited number of the books ordered to cover this final sale so the students are urged to get their annuals at this time.

DANCE RECITAL RIOT OF VARIETY

Five Part W.A.A. Program Best Ever Presented Says Audience

"Taps and Terpsichore", fourth annual dance recital presented by the Women's Athletic Association of the University, was given Wednesday evening at the auditorium to a capacity crowd. As indicated by the name, the program was varied and consisted of rhythmic and natural dances interspersed with character and occasional tap dances. Between dances musical selections were given by Miss Almina Palmquist, contralto, Louise Morley, soprano, and York Kildea, violinist.

Cradled from dancing and gymnasium classes was used under the direction of Miss L. Janette Wirt, director of physical education for women, with the cooperation of Miss Verna McDonald, instructor. Lois Porterfield was general chairman.

The program consisted of five parts: "The Gold and Silver Waltz" an interpretation of an Idaho song, was the first. "A Short Cycle of Life" with the stages—Cradle, Song, Playtime, Debutante, and Death was given next. In connection with this Miss Palmquist, vocal instructor in the Department of Music, sang "Death and the Maiden". The third act was entitled "Despair, Supplication, and Hope" and was unique in that it was presented on an eight-step stairway, a form of dancing never before tried at Idaho.

PETITIONS SEEK BY-LAW CHANGES

Three Amendments Proposed at Wednesday Assem- bly; Awards Made

Three amendments to the by-laws of the constitution of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho were proposed and discussed at the assembly Wednesday morning. The amendments will be printed on the ballot of the general election May 1. Athletic awards were also presented during the assembly.

The first amendment, proposed by the Managers' club reads as follows: "That Section 1, Article 2 of the by-laws be amended to read as follows: 'Each student manager, immediately following his appointment to senior manager, upon recommendation of the executive board, shall receive one coat-sweater with a white "T", 5 1/2 inches in height, 3 inches across the top of the width, with all bars 1 1/2 inches in width with a capital I, 1 inch in height, and 1 inch in width woven into lower bar of the insignia; color of letter M to be (1) red for football, (2) green for basketball, (3) slate for track, (4) blue for baseball. Each sophomore manager, immediately following his appointment as junior manager, upon recommendation of the executive board, shall receive the following award: One coat-sweater with the words "Athletic Manager" of his respective managerial branch stenciled on the back."

Argonaut Seeks Changes.

Two amendments were proposed by the Argonaut board. The first reads as follows: "That provisions be inserted in Section I, Article 2, of said by-laws to read as follows: (a) That a night editor be appointed each fall by the editor subject to the approval of the executive board. (b) The duties of the night editor shall be supervision of copy editing of rights preceding publication, specific duties to be stipulated each year by the Argonaut board. The night editor shall be paid a salary of $1.50 per issue of the Argonaut, during his term of office."

The second amendment proposed by the Argonaut board is as follows: "That provision 10 of Section I, Article 2, of said by-laws be amended to manager shall receive The business manager shall receive $1 per issue, during his term of office, and in addition he shall receive twenty per cent of all moneys collected for advertising during the year over and above $1,000."

Basketball Awards.

Eight members of the varsity basketball squad received "T" letters. Two of them, Frank McMillin and Harold Stowell, forwards, received B's. Eight members of the freshman hoop team were awarded numeral sweaters.

IDAHO BATSMEN TO SEEK VENGEANCE ON WHITMAN NINE

Vandals Meet Missionaries Monday and Tuesday in Return Contests

INITIAL HOME GAME

Dates of Tilts Set Ahead to Conform to Visitors' Schedule

Undaunted by dropping two tilts out of three to Whitman last week, Coach Rich Fox's nine is eagerly awaiting vengeance against the Missionaries in a pair of contests booked here Monday and Tuesday of next week. The games have been advanced from May 27 and 28 in order to fit in with the Whitman itinerary, which lists games this week with W. S. C., thus enabling the Missionaries to meet the Cougars and Vandals on the same road trip.

Coach Fox and 18 of his "horsehide" tossers will journey to Spokane tomorrow, where Idaho is to engage the touted Boosters' club, member of the Spokane City League. The Boosters are acclaimed as one of the strongest and fastest diamond aggregations in the Inland Empire and their roster lists several ex-stars.

The appearance of the Vandals on MacLean field, Monday, marks the initial bow of Coach Fox's contingent before Idaho supporters this season. Starting time of Monday's and Tuesday's clashes with Whitman have been set for 4 o'clock each.

Fox Sets Hurlers.

Fox declared that he probably would keep in reserve his best twirlers for the Missionary series and depend upon his second-rate flingers to perform against the Booster outfit, tomorrow.

Among the leading players on the Boosters' nine are Art Murphy, who played regularly at the putout bag for the Oakland club in the Pacific Coast loop last season and Marshall, former "big leaguer," a catcher, Denny Walsh and Hydrorn are other players of note on the Booster nine. Sullivan is slated to hurl for the Spokane club with Kuehl behind the plate.

Hitting Still Weak.

The Vandals exhibited real class in fielding yesterday afternoon in their regular practice but clearly demonstrated their weakness in hitting and lack of experience as regards the "finer points" of the game. Against Whitman at Walla Walla last week Fox's outfit dropped verdicts of 4-to-3 and 7-to-6, but came back and shut out the Missionaries in the third game, 8-to-0.

Idaho's starting lineup against the Boosters will probably find Frank McMillin, veteran, stationed at the initial sack; "Monk" Halliday at the keystone post; Merritt Greeling at short-stop; and either Wesley Shurtliff or Carl Kyselka at third; Walt Price behind the bat; and Hugh Duffy, Elmer Johnson and either John Corkery or Frank Wenzler in the outfield. Pitchers who may be called upon for duty are Clive Lindsay, Harold Smith, Otto Licht, Murlin McCall, Harold Jacobs, Ed Hurely and Art Spaugy. George Beardmore will be called upon for utility purposes behind the bat.

SPOKANE ENGINEER ADDRESSES STUDENTS

Edward Scofield, industrial engineer for the Washington Water Power company, addressed juniors and seniors in electrical engineering this morning on the new "A. C. Feeder System" now being installed in Spokane.

As a striking detail concerning the cost of the installation it was developed that even the poles should be absolutely free at the power plant, the cost of power to the consumer could only be reduced an eighth, due to the high cost of distribution.

Caleb the columnist sez: The Independents a week ago might well have adopted the slogan "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party." Why bring that up now?

Red Sox Sock Tong Robber In Jail; Didn't Know The Greek On Stolen Pin

Convicted of second degree burglary, Ed Chester alias William Pritchard, awaits sentence of from one to 15 years in the Colfax jail, and the "Beta Burglar" farce has reached serious final proportions.

With the aid of three students from Idaho who talked with Chester on the night after he robbed fraternity houses at Pullman, and the assistance of 25 students from W. S. C. who identified clothing and fraternity jewelry stolen by the prisoner. He was convicted after the jury had been out 40 minutes last Monday. Houses rifled on the state college campus included Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Beta Theta Pi. News of the theft was telephoned to Idaho immediately and fraternities kept watch the following night. At 2 o'clock the morning of January 28 Chester came to the charge in Fresno, California, five days later, Chester was found to be wearing a Sigma Alpha Epsilon badge. Questioned by Detective Daiv, who investigated the case, Chester failed to give the correct name of the fraternity whose emblem he was wearing. Authorities grew more suspicious when it was Beta house on the Idaho campus and, finding a reception committee awaiting him, engaged the group of robber catchers in conversation to clear their minds of suspicion. Asking the direction of the Phi Delta Theta house, where he claimed to have friends, he was escorted to the door of the Beta house and shown his way. Immediately after his exit the Beta party is said to have felt suspicious of the character and notified the Phi Delta house guard.

Information from the Phi Delta house reveals that Chester started to climb the stairs to the second floor but changed his mind suddenly and ran out to his car and made his getaway.

Picked up on a traffic violation discovered that the car he was

Clock Registers Same Queer Hour Nearly Three Days

"And the clock stopped, never to go again, when the old man died." This quotation from an old lyric writer's pen seems to fit adequately the situation in which students found the Ad building clock on returning to the campus after spring vacation. Students hurrying to 8 o'clock classes were surprised to see that the memorable old timepiece registered 8:20. Students hurrying to 1 o'clock classes were still more surprised to notice that "Big Ben" still said 8:20. A rumor immediately spread to the effect that the clock had stopped. The rumor was well founded, for at 6 o'clock the Ad building time was still 8:20.

One observing student discovered that all clocks, and watches in advertisements were stopped at approximately 8:20, the time of the day that Lincoln died. But as Lincoln never attended Idaho, it is doubtful whether the clock's stopping at that time can be attributed to him.

The clock was repaired yesterday and classes may again be attended on schedule. Reason for the pause was not determined other than that the clock was not wound.

IDAHO VIOLINIST GETS SCHOLARSHIP TO NOTED SCHOOL

Miss Ruth Newhouse Wins National Recognition in Music Field

WIRE TELLS AWARD

New England Conservatory Selects Idahoan as One of Country's Leaders

Miss Ruth Newhouse, senior in the school of music, has been awarded a scholarship in the New England Conservatory of Music at Boston Mass., according to word received yesterday by Carleton Cummings, head of the Idaho school.

The appointment of Miss Newhouse was one of six or seven made throughout the nation, and coming as it does from the most famous conservatory in the United States, speaks highly of Idaho's rating. Miss Newhouse, whose home is in Kuna, Idaho, has taken a prominent part in music all during her college career, her talent winning recognition wherever she performed.

Gives Credit to Faculty

Much of the credit for her most recent success Miss Newhouse says can be credited to her Idaho instructors, and particularly to Professor Carl Claus.

A faculty of internationally famous artists will assist Miss Newhouse in continuing her study of violin and conducting. She plans to go east next fall.

Her appointment for the scholarship is the climax of four years work here. During this time she has been recognized as the most outstanding violinist on the campus and has been heard in many student recitals. Last fall she played before Zimbalist, who spoke very highly of her musical ability and training. She is a member of the String Quartet and the University orchestra, as well as Treble Clef Club and Sigma Alpha Iota. She has also been a leader in many campus activities and is a member of Mortar Board and Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

ANCESTORS KNEW STUFF

Washington State College. — "Even our remote ancestors, ignorant as they were of the principles of heredity and genetics, recognized that there was a mysterious transfer of characteristics, physical and mental, from one generation to the next. Today we are in possession of the technical, scientific explanation of that mystery," declares Dr. Leon J. Cole of the University of Wisconsin, who recently installed a chair of the Sigma Xi national science-honorary, at the State College.

TALENTED SINGER TO APPEAR BEFORE IDAHO AUDIENCE

Miss Rosilinda Morini, Noted Coloratura Soprano Here April 27

IS AMERICAN GIRL

Both European And Ameri- can Critics High in Praise of Artist's Talent

In an attempt to rejuvenate student interest in entertainments similar to the artists' courses sponsored by the university in the past, announcement was made yesterday at the graduate manager's office of the appearance here of Miss Rosilinda Morini, coloratura soprano on April 27. Miss Morini declared by critics both in America and Europe to be one of the most talented singers in the world today, is an American girl, born at Freehold, N. J. She began her present tour shortly after returning from Europe where she accumulated a string of most unusual successes.

The entire foreign press commented on Morini's voice "as one of extra-ordinary quality which brought back memories of Jenny Lind and Adelina Patti at their best."

Paid High Tribute

Certainly not since the time of Louisa Tetrazini has a voice of equal power, purity and beauty appeared anywhere on any stage. One always thought that the greatest artists had to come from Europe and go to America, but with the coming of Morini from America the tables have been turned.

Accounts of her early life reveal that at the time she began her university career at Pennsylvania, Miss Morini was studying medicine, not because she liked this field better, but because it was the wish of her father, who was a prominent physician. Miss Morini continued her medical studies for two years, using all opportunities in the meantime to satisfy her greatest desire, music.

Began Serious Study at 18

Finally when her health appeared to be falling under the ungenial atmosphere of the medical school, her parents consented to her changing her course, and it was then, at the age of 18 that Miss Morini began a serious study of voice.

Already she had created a reputation in the university where she sang frequently. Her voice, which as a child had been a high alto, had become a lyric soprano with promise of coloratura possibilities. One day she sang for the late Enrico Caruso, who immediately wrote to his teacher in Naples, explaining what wonderful possibilities the girl possessed. Shortly afterward Miss Morini went to Naples to continue her studies at 20 she made her initial debut in the concert world.

Since then she has appeared in all parts of Europe and has been acclaimed as one of the greatest singers ever heard on the continent.

Tickets for her Idaho performance will be placed on sale within a few days.

ENGINEERS GIVEN VALUABLE BOOKS

Walter Hovey Hill, prominent consulting mining and civil engineer of Boise, Idaho, recently presented the College of Engineering a number of valuable technical books. Included in these books is a set of the transactions of the American Society of Civil Engineers covering a period of 30 years, and a set of the transactions of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers covering a period of ten years. This latter set will become property of the School of Mines.

The Yale glee club will leave April 3 for a week's tour of Bermuda. During their stay on the island they will give several entertainments, one of which it is expected that Governor of Bermuda and members of the House of Assembly will attend.

GOLF FANS MUST KEEP OFF CAMPUS

A.S.U.I. President Warns Students to Practice Golf Elsewhere.

Aldon Tall, president of A.S.U.I., during Wednesday assembly announced that students were forbidden to play golf on the campus. He pointed out that it was for the common good, since flying golf balls are a menace on a crowded campus.

Tall also explained that the problem of patrolling the campus against wandering golf balls was taken up by the Student council rather than by the administration, since it was felt that better co-operation could be obtained from suggestion than from an arbitrary order.

FINAL FOOTBALL GAME APRIL 26

Picked Teams to Play Regu- lation Contest for Ban- quet Benefit

Leo Calland's Vandal gridmen are taking a brief vacation as a result of an injury line which has been following the squad for the last few days.

While none of the injuries are serious the whole team has been affected by many minor bruises which cut the turnout last night to about half of the normal number. At the conclusion of last night's practice Calland told the players that they could rest until Monday. A scrimmage is on the schedule for Tuesday and the spring training season will be topped off Saturday, April 26, with a regular game between two picked teams.

The Red eleven which will be captained by Bill Bessler, tackle, will meet the Gray aggregation which will be led by Horsey Carlsson, end, in an official game on MacLean field. The two captains had not chosen their teams last night.

A small admission will be charged spectators at the game and the proceeds will be used to give the winners a banquet at the conclusion of the season. Calland has been pleased with the spirit his men have shown during the spring turnout and he expects next Saturday's contest to be a real football game. The candidates for the 1930 team have been working hard and Calland expressed the hope last night that there would be a good turnout for the game.

JUNIORS ON TOES FOR BIG SPLURGE

"Week" Starts With Wed- nesday Assembly; Caps On Sale Monday

"Down with drudgery!" is the spirit which will prevail April 23 to 26, Junior Week, according to the plans announced by the chairmen of the different committees at the Junior mixer last night.

Junior caps are to be put on sale Monday morning in the Administration building. Junior Week will start until all the caps are sold and worn. As there is a limited supply Johnny Soden, general chairman, has advised all Juniors to buy them early. The exact style of the caps has not been disclosed but they will have "Junior Week 1930" printed across the front.

The assembly program, which is to be presented Wednesday at 10 o'clock, will officially open Junior Week.

The entertainment is not based on a defined plot but will be in the form of a number of vaudeville acts. An orchestra directed by Harold Packer will be one of the main features. It has been rumored that a pony chorus will also appear on the program but it is not certain whether it will be made up of women or men. In order to conform with mellowed tradition, the first few rows of seats in the front of the assembly will be reserved for the Seniors.

The parade will begin at 6:30 Thursday evening and will be followed immediately by the party at the Blue Bucket Inn, announced the respective chairmen, Peyton Sommercamp and Grace Parsons. All the houses have turned in plans for the parade stunts and it is assured that no two events will be the same. The party is to be a no date affair with an admission fifty cents per student.

A ten piece orchestra and a cool hall has been promised by Dale Goss, chairman for the program which will start at the Eiks Temple at 8:30 Friday evening. Tickets have been allotted to men's halls and group houses and were put on sale this morning.

Bill Cadigan is cabaret chairman, is certain he hasn't enough tickets for the climatic event of Junior week Saturday evening. There will be plenty of confetti and horns to throw and blow however. The tickets went on sale immediately after the mixer.

Plans for the serenades have been completed but the date will not be announced as the chairman Harold Packer, wishes to keep it as a surprise for the rest of the campus.

A trio consisting of Norman McGinty, Harold Coffin, and Gene Ware sang a number of songs following the business meeting.

SCRATCHED TICKET MARS ALPHA PARTY LANDSLIDE ATROUS

Robert A. Zarek A.S.U.I. Candidate Against

TOTAL VOTE IS LIGHT

Only 259 Cast Ballots at Primary; Minority Can- didates Eligible

Robert Anthony Zarek, dapper second-year law student, polled two votes for the presidency of the Associated Students against Charles Graybill, the Alpha party candidate, in the annual primary election held yesterday, according to the official count announced by the election committee. Graybill's total vote was 258, the count shows, out of a possible 1870 students now registered in the university.

William "Big Bill" Kershnik and Stanton Hale each received one vote for the office of May Queen, against 247 for Ruth Newhouse, the official candidate. Lack of competition on the ticket made the vote the lightest it has been in years, less than 16 per cent of the student body participating.

Following are the official election returns:

President	258
Charles Graybill	258
Robert A. Zarek	2
Vice President	259
Peyton Sommercamp	259
Katherine Mickelson	257
Senior Men	350
Harry Daubert	243
Vining Thompson	243
Walter Slaughter	1
Junior Men	258
Lionel Campbell	243
George Gray	243
Senior Women	255
Elsie McMullin	248
Vera Bryan	248
Kathryn West	241
Junior Woman	258
Jolene Johnson	258
Sophomore Man	256
Harold Steele	256
May Queen	247
Ruth Newhouse	247
William Kershnik	1
Stanton Hale	1
Mail of Honor	257
Georgetta Miller	257
Page	259
Lois Thompson	259
Yell King	248
Ralph Ormsby	248
Gerald Grimm	248

The minority candidates were all written in, and with the exception of the illegal May Queen nominations, the names in all probability will appear on the general election ballots. Aldon Tall said last night. Final decision rests with the executive board.

No constitutional provision is made for nominations by petition after the primary election, but other candidates still may have a chance under the provision of "writing in" names. Such candidates would need to poll a majority to win an office, however.

One nominee for the managing editorship of The Argonaut, Gene of the Sunrings, and the Blue Bucket will be chosen by the nominating boards of the three publications, but their names will not be known until the last executive board meeting preceding the general election, May 1.

Patrick Walker was chairman of the election committee. Other members were Jessie Little, Dorothy Fredrickson, Merle Frizzelle, Harry Robb and Margaret Bloom.

DAWN SERVICE EASTER SUNDAY

Old English Liturgical Service to Feature Student Worship in Auditorium

University Easter Sunday dawn services will be held in the auditorium at 8 A. M., according to Thelma Melgard, program director. Musical numbers and a demonstration of the Easter Story taken from the Old English Liturgical service will be substituted for the customary sermons. In addition to the playlet, the program includes a violin duet by Vivian and Jean Edmiston, a vocal solo by Louise Morley and Easter songs by the women's sextet and the men's quartet.

Blair Ellsworth and Ellen May Jack will be student speakers at a special evening service to be held in the L. D. S. Institute at 7 p. m. The selection of the L. D. S. Institute in preference to many other churches in which to hold university services was due to its proximity to the campus. Music for the occasion will be under the direction of Maurice Gammel, of the music department. Students and the general public are invited to both occasions.

WILLAMETTE CHOOSES QUEEN

Willamette University (W.P.P.) Miss Katherine Everett, 30, was chosen by the Willamette student body last week to rule over the May Day festivities this year. Miss Everett is a prominent member of the senior class, having been very active in music circles during her course in college. She has selected William Mumford, president of the Associated Student Body, as king of the royal court.

The University of Kansas is putting on one of Octavus Roy Cohen's plays with a complete negro cast.

Proposed Amendments Justified

TWO proposed amendments to the by-laws of the A.S.U. read in assembly last Wednesday morning merit the serious thought of the entire campus. They were drawn up in the hope that the university is progressing—they are progressive moves.

Realizing that nine-tenths of the students paid no attention to the reading of the amendments and few of the remaining tenth cared what the reading was about, a word of explanation is necessary.

The first amendment would grant to senior athletic managers a sweater and "M" similar to that now worn with the exception that the manager insignia be in the form of a small "M" on the bottom cross-bar of the "I". Managers now have a large "AM" crossing the upright bar of the "I". Other details of the amendment are of minor importance, having to do with the sweaters for junior and sophomore managers.

For some time the question of allowing the small "M" was argued with the athletic club. Wearers of the regular "I" sweater objected to the new manager sweater on the grounds that it was too similar to the regulation award. It has been recently decided that confusion will be negligible as there will be no stripes on the sleeves of managers sweaters and the "M" in color of sport managed will be conspicuous enough to warrant the adoption of the new sweater.

In adopting the new sweater, as Idaho will do if the amendment is passed, the Vandal managers will be kept in harmony with other universities, not only of the coast but the entire country. If the athletic club did not sanction the change it would be a different story. As this group does favor the amendment the students should vote for it.

The second amendment would cut down the expense of publishing The Argonaut and increase the efficiency of the editorial staff. The creation of a night editorship with a small salary attached will benefit the student paper in several ways. In the first place a share of the routine copy editing and head writing can be taken from the shoulders of the editor and managing editor and allow them more time to improve the content and appearance of the paper. The night editorship would mean that more upperclassmen and women would continue as members of the staff. As it is now most of the juniors and seniors drop out unless they are elected to the managing editorship. The night editor would be a responsible member of the staff on whom the editorial board and the students in general might depend for regular, accurate work. If work was not of a satisfactory nature the person in office could be removed and another appointed.

That a small salary be paid the night editor is necessary in order that the student in office do his work faithfully, in cooperation with the editors. The honor of any position on a publication soon wanes. A student of more than average ability in journalism requires something more than seeing his name in print twice a week to keep him up to his best work from issue to issue.

The salary of the business manager would be reduced by the second part of the amendment. The amount of money that managers earn each year has long been a bone of contention for executive boards. The business manager of The Argonaut undoubtedly receives more financial return for his service to the university than any other student official. Averages for the past years show that he receives more than $700 for his nine months term of office. The twenty per cent on all advertising money collected above $1,000 accounts for most of his earnings.

The business managers are not at fault. The amendment is not aimed at the present business manager or at the incoming business manager. The present manager cooperates in every way possible to make The Argonaut a success. The editorial staff is well satisfied with his efficient work. The business manager is not at fault; it is the constitution of the A.S.U. that is wrong in allowing one man such a large pay check in comparison with other positions.

With the salary cut down to $1 per issue, or even eliminated entirely, the business manager would still make approximately $500 each year.

The amendment cannot go into effect until the fall of 1931, so the present circulation manager would not be affected.

Read the amendments, printed elsewhere in this issue and be prepared to vote for or against them when they appear on the general election ballot May 1.

Intramural Injustice

FOR obvious reasons this editorial is bound to be misunderstood. Readers will believe that personal selfish motives and fraternity spirit have caused it to be written. Perhaps they did. "Grippers", get ready. Here it is:

Awards for intramural sports are not on a fair basis. It is not logical to allow as many points toward the lone cup for winning the horseshoe championship as are given for winning the track meet or basketball series. The various sports do not require the same amount of athletic ability, time, or student interest. No two can be classed as equally important. It may be true that men are stimulated to more interest in all sports than they would be if cups were offered for only one or two events. On the other hand, groups who win titles in important sports find it galling to be beaten out for the cup by another group which may get the most points by winning intramural, "barnyard golf" and volleyball, two decidedly minor sports as group sports run. If a cup would be awarded for each of the three important events—basketball, swimming, and track—and another cup for the other sports combined there would be more satisfaction among groups competing.

The cup received by the winner of the most athletic points last year was not large enough to inspire the proper competition. If intramural sports are to assume the place that the modern higher education system demands they should receive more attention. Points should be awarded on a comparative scale.

Now that golfing has been stopped on the campus it will be safe to make the pilgrimage to afternoon classes. The time is ripe for enthusiasts to start an archery club with the line of flight across the main walk.

A questionnaire sent out at Minnetoga showed that men prefer blondes and all-talking pictures. And after they're married they find they got a combination of both for a wife.—Oregon Emerald.

Secrecy is the order of the day. The seniors started things going with their resolve to keep mum on picnic plans. Now the juniors are keeping tight lips over the assembly, parade and serenade details. And they wonder why The Argonaut doesn't get all the news.

New Easter clothing may be all the rage among the "four hundred". Eggs for breakfast and a new pair of socks completes the day's special program for the modern western student.

Howdy folks, Purdue may have her "Hello Walk", upon which students speak to each other. Which means nothing at all. We know lots of co-eds who have that hello walk, and whate-notte.

Columbia university paid one dollar an hour to students who drank coffee continuously for four hours, to ascertain the effect of the drink. Well, well, can you beat that for a dollar ninety-eight? Bet it wouldn't effect certain Idaho "Nest Warmers" in the least.

A dozen pre-meds at the University of Utah each swallowed two feet of red rubber hose during an experiment. It goes without saying that one end was tied outside. After two hours a stomach pump was used for some reason or other. Might be a good idea to do something like that after the Junior cabaret.

From what we have heard of the Military band already, we have come to the conclusion that they have tuberculosis.

A woman's straw vote conducted by the Daily Northwestern at Northwestern university showed that out of 400 ballots cast, only 51 women were opposed to the establishment of smoking rooms in women's residences. What ho! The much-oppressed woman breaks out in a rash. Anyhow, if anything is done about it it will save the women the trouble of going behind their houses or in their alleys, not to mention the campus beany.

The Boise high-flyers who came here by plane last Monday accomplished several things: they got themselves talked about, which was probably the primary consideration; they made the Spokane Chronicle, and several eastern newspapers through the AP service; and they made several persons kick themselves in the pants for not doing the same thing so that they could get some not unpleasant notoriety.

Junior WEAK begins next Wednesday with the assembly. WEAK is right. The best thing for juniors to do next week is to petition the academic council to declare a four-day holiday. The next best thing is to suffer in silence. And as for prois who give quizzes to juniors during Junior week—Bab, dun't esk!

The co-ed edition of the Argonaut is to be published next week. One advance girls have in being on the staff is that they have permission to stay out all night once each semester to work on the co-ed edition. That's the best and only advantage we can think of right now. It might be a good idea to pass a law to the effect that men have to stay in that night and not bother the budding newspaperwomen.

Other student body officers elected are as follows: Al Pomeroy, Howe, senior representative; William Waltz, junior representative; and Paul Olson, sophomore representative. All four are from Seattle.

Ohio State university freshmen may not be initiated into fraternities until the third quarter.

H. L. Marshall Tells Scabbard and Blade of Recent Communist Trend.

At a meeting of Scabbard and Blade, honorary military fraternity, Wednesday night at the Sigma Chi house, H. L. Marshall, instructor in the business school, gave an interesting talk on the Chinese-Russian situation. Marshall, said Mr. Marshall, is attempting to undermine the strong governments of the world with communism.

The Nanking outrage of 1927 and the recent railroad dispute between Russia and China were discussed and explained by Mr. Marshall in connection with Russia's military policy. It was decided at the meeting to have a formal dinner dance May 1 in honor of Colonel F. G. Waddell, inspecting officer. The place for the dance was not selected.

SOCIETY

Lilla Gallagher, Editor, Phone 2178

Society this weekend is laden with social affairs, formal and informal, as is characteristic of every weekend until late in May.

Midweek functions of interest were "Taps and Terpsichore", W. A. A. dance festival, which displayed artistry and grace in the execution of the different dance steps, costumes and settings. The Junior mixer last night was well attended and showed much enthusiastic anticipation for the functions of Junior week, beginning next Wednesday with the assembly, the parade and party Thursday evening, the promenade on Friday, and, as the final windup, the cabaret on Saturday.

Easter time lends many possibilities for colorful decoration and entertainment at the dances on the calendar this weekend. Lambda Chi Alpha's formal dance at the Blue Bucket tonight promises much in the way of fanciful spring decorations to add to the gaiety of the affair. The Beta Chi underclassmen are entertaining at a novel sports dance at the chapter house, this evening also. The Athletic Managers' club's informal dance on the calendar for tonight, has been indefinitely postponed.

Tomorrow evening the outstanding events are the Sigma Alpha Epsilon formal dance, which will be held at the Blue Bucket; the Delta Chi Easter formal dinner dance, to be held at the chapter house; and the Ridenbaugh hall formal dance. The annual joint dance of the Delta Gamma-Gamma Phi Beta underclassmen, also tomorrow evening, will take place at the Gamma Phi Beta house.

Dinner guests of Beta Theta Pi Thursday evening were Charles Darling, Boise, and Mr. McCray, of the University of Utah.

The fraternity of Phi Gamma Delta entertained the following dinner guests Thursday evening: Helen Rowe McIntyre and Elizabeth Atkinson.

Hazel Stellmon was a dinner guest of Alpha Chi Omega on Thursday evening.

Beta Chi announces the pledging of George Barclay, Caldwell.

Dinner guests of Sigma Alpha Epsilon Thursday evening were Marian McConigle, Josephine Harland, Ruby Poole, Marthelene Tanner, Eleanor Berglund, Virginia Steward, Ruth Garver, Maurine Pierce and Mrs. V. P. Lattig.

The fraternity of Tau Kappa Epsilon entertained Misses Mary Lou Hull, Margaret Fikran, Jean Hawkins, Louise Morley, Cynthia Daley, Austa White, Dorothy Sanford, Geraldine Morse, Ruth West and Mrs. Marian Curtis at a dinner last night.

Tau Kappa Epsilon entertained Dr. C. W. Hungerford at dinner Wednesday night.

STUDENT OPINION

Dear Editor:

And now our dear A. S. U. I prey says we can't play golf on the campus! And Grant Robbins, our beloved chief of police, says we can't play on the streets. Now we ask you, where can we play? The Moscow community golf course members do not seem to enjoy the companionship of college students. The noble steeds of the Mexican army resent the little pills flying by their flowing manes, and the gophers hate to have cans sink in their happy little homes. We call to your attention the fact that our neighbors at Pullman have a nice little nine hole all of their own. Are we going to let our neighboring college go ahead and make progress in this popular intercollegiate sport, while we stand by and make no attempt to develop our myriads of talent? Most certainly something should be done about this. The students of Idaho should either have a course of their own or be allowed to play over the Moscow links for a nominal fee.

Just a Couple of Divot Takers

Bienvenu!

Don't know nothing except what I read in the editorial column last issue. "Students can't go wrong once they are in the balloting booth". An intelligent editor playing with the word "booth". Doesn't he know that we use the "playground" system of balloting instead of the Australian. "Know what thy neighbor does" was the rule for voters at the primaries. But there wasn't anything to know. It was all in the Blue Bucket under "Exchanges". I'll exchange the votes of my house for the votes of yours.

I wonder what the reaction will be to the in-passive actions of the Independents? The "moral right" voters will start wondering if the best man got the offices after all. I guess that's what the Independents want done...some thinking.

"This is a tough age". And here I thought that Hoover was patting the nation on the back for spending money on municipal luxuries. That editor doesn't know his news. Yah! Yah! But I guess the editor meant that his lady fair has given him the air. (That's poetry, "ladyfair" and "air.") All I know is what I saw in the editorial column. Signed: OHADI of Wocsum.

Four Members of Walker Family Prominent Students From Idaho

Remarkable achievement along educational lines is linked with the Walker family of Wallace, reports Miss Bernice McCoy, head of the placement bureau at the University of Idaho. Within a six-year period ending June 9, all five members of the house of Walker will have received their bachelor's degrees from the University of Idaho.

Josephine Walker Coyne, the first of the group, graduated in 1924, after she had taught Spanish for six months in Mexico. Since then she has earned a Ph.D. degree at Columbia university, New York, and is continuing her studies there in another field.

She is writing for Dr. Harold Rugg of Columbia, author of probably the best known social series in existence. Recently she finished "Changes in World Civilization", and is now working on another publication dealing with social changes in the United States in the last 20 years. She and her husband, an artist of considerable renown, spent last summer in Spain.

Florence and Dorothy received their B. A. degrees at Idaho in 1926. Florence is soon to receive her doctor's degree, studying personnel management under Dr. A. T. Pfenberger at Columbia, a noted psychologist. She is studying English under John Erskine, popular author of "The Private Life of Helen of Troy".

Dorothy, the third sister, plans to start work on her master's degree this summer at the University of Washington. George T. Walker, the older brother in the family, passed the state bar examination before he finished the requirements for his law degree at Idaho in 1926. He is practicing in Wallace.

Patrick Henry, last representative of the Walkers at the university, is a candidate for a B.A. degree in June, and for his LL.B. the following June when he completes his third year in the college of law.

BOB WELLS INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Suffers Five Broken Ribs When Car Goes Over Lewiston Grade

Robert Wells, Colville, Wn., suffered five broken ribs when his car went off the Lewiston grade last week end. The accident was due to defective headlights. Wells is resting easily in the infirmary. A companion escaped uninjured, according to reports.

Six students are confined to the infirmary in addition to Wells. Ted Mason had a tonsil operation yesterday, and he will be released in a few days.

Influenza has kept John McDonald in bed for the past week. Dan Lopez is being treated for nasal infection. Elizabeth Fleming, Lucille Mott and Georgetta Miller are in the infirmary with minor cases of illness according to Edna Peterson, resident nurse. As Brigham Young said: Give us this day our daily bride! —McGill Dally.

VANDAL TRACKMEN INVADE WHITMAN CAMP TOMORROW

Coach Anderson Takes 20 Men to Walla Walla This Afternoon

FIRST MEET OF YEAR

Idahoans Favored to Win Over Missionaries

Coach Otto K. Anderson and a band of 20 of his Vandal cinderpath artists departed for Walla Walla at 1 o'clock this afternoon, leaving by bus, where Idaho is to open her 930 track and field campaign, engaging the track contingent of Whitman college in a dual meet on Saturday.

The Vandals wound up training preparations for the Whitman trackfest when Coach Anderson paced his charged through a light workout on MacLean field Thursday afternoon. The Missionaries unexpectedly vanquished Idaho last year but the Vandals are determined to atone for the defeat by romping home with a verdict this week.

Already talk is current that Coach Anderson has assembled one of Idaho's most imposing arrays of cinderpath talent in recent years and that the Vandals should encounter little difficulty in subduing their Whitman foes, Saturday.

There were but two Vandal performers sly on the roster when Coach Anderson's crew embarked for the "apple center" today. They were Dan Lopez, weight tosser, who is in the hospital list and James Hawkins, half-mile, who is recovering from a leg injury. Both men were previously figured on to tally for Idaho against the Missionaries.

Coach Anderson expressed himself as confident of taking the measure of Whitman before "entering" for the Missionary camp today and asserted that Idaho would launch its greatest strength in the hurdles, sprints, distance and middle-distance runs. Whitman should enjoy an advantage of points in the jumps, and weights, the Vandal mentor said.

An interesting dual is looked forward to in the 100-yard dash between Fetters, Missionary ace and Sig Jossis and June Hanford, crack Vandal dash man. Fetters has negotiated the century in 10 flat while Jossis has been credited with a 9.9 performance and Hanford in 10 flat.

Dave Wiks and Charles Heath, veteran distance runners, are both counted upon for first places in Saturday's meet. Wiks is entered in the mile and half-mile grinds and Heath in the mile and two-mile events. Wiks has covered the mile in 4 minutes-28 seconds, compared to a mark of 4 minutes 41 seconds, registered by Whitman's supposedly crack miler, in trial performances this spring.

Men accompanying Coach Anderson on the trip today and the events they are listed in are as follows: 100-yard dash—Jossis, Hanford and Alvord. 220-yard dash—Jossis and Hanford. 440-yard dash—George Hjort and Gregory Belsher. Half-mile—Wiks and Stowell. Mile—Wiks, Heath and Manning. Two mile—Heath, Chisholm and Roberts. 120-high hurdles—Lemp and Lowell Mason. 220-low hurdles—Paul Jones, Norman Alvord and Elmo Thomas. High jump—Jones and Harold Stowell. Broad jump—Alvord, Jossis and Hjort. Pole vault—Vernon Eaton. Shot put—Kershnik and Herman Jensen. Discus—Kershnik, Jensen and Clark Javelin—Mason and Robertson. Relay—Hjort, Stowell, Belsher and Hanford or Jossis.

Sophs Seek Ballroom; Frosh Lack Glee Date

The Sophomore class is looking for a ballroom, hard wood floors preferred. The Sophs have been granted a date for May 9 by the calendar committee but they can't find a dance hall to hold their annual Frolic. Peter Pence, chairman states that their only salvation is to have a Mardi Gras. T. M. A. has rented a hall for that evening but they cannot get their petition accepted. Conflict—Sophomores vs. T. M. A. Who is to hold a dance that evening? Lionel Campbell, Soph president, with the aid of pre-legal students went on a rampage last night but no settlement could be reached.

The Sophs hate to postpone their dance because it will then conflict with the freshman Glee. The frosh have tentatively scheduled their dance for every week-end from now until school is out. They do not seem to be very sure of when it will be, in fact, they do not know just what it it all about. Moscow either will have to build more dance halls or Julius Caesar will have to be called on to rearrange the calendar.

TENNIS FINALS DUE NEXT WEEK

Both "A" and "B" League Singles Winners Will be Determined Soon

Intramural tennis finals between winning teams of A and B leagues will be played some time next week, it was announced last night by Stan Hale, manager. Two games remain on the B league schedule with a semifinal match between Carl Lethe, Sigma Nu, and Howard Altnow, A. T. O. Paris Martin, Phi Delt, will meet the winner in the finals.

Tennis in A league will wind up this week when Fredrick Jockheck, representing the Lambda Chi will play the winner of the match to be played off today between the Beta's represented by Darwin Burgher, and William McCoy of the S. A. E.'s. The semi-finals was partially played off yesterday. The first game was in the A league won by Jockheck of the Lambda Chi from Floyd Albertson of the Beta Chi's, 6-1, 6-2. The Phi Delt's represented by Paris Martin won from Leo Mohr of the Phi's, 6-4, 6-1. Carl Lethe, Sigma Nu, won his game from William Gaffney, Ridenbaugh hall, 6-0, 6-0.

Results of Opening Games. During the early part of the week in A league the Lambda Chi's won from the T. M. A.'s, Beta Chi's from T. K. E., Beta's from Senior hall, S. A. E.'s from the Sigma Chi's. The Phi's won the first game in B league when they played the Kappa Sig's. The Phi Delt's won from the Delta Chi's, A. T. O.'s from L. D. S. Sigma Nu's from Lindley hall, and Ridenbaugh drew a draw.

Interest was keen in the net meets, a full gallery being present most of the time. Altnow, A. T. O.; Martin, Phi Delt; Burgher, Beta; McCoy, S. A. E.; Jockheck, Lambda Chi; and Lethe, Sigma Nu, are still left in the running. As yet the players in the doubles have not been handed in to Stanton Hale, manager, and no schedule has been made. House athletic managers will be notified as soon as possible. The double meets will probably take place next Tuesday.

Men accompanying Coach Anderson on the trip today and the events they are listed in are as follows: 100-yard dash—Jossis, Hanford and Alvord. 220-yard dash—Jossis and Hanford. 440-yard dash—George Hjort and Gregory Belsher. Half-mile—Wiks and Stowell. Mile—Wiks, Heath and Manning. Two mile—Heath, Chisholm and Roberts. 120-high hurdles—Lemp and Lowell Mason. 220-low hurdles—Paul Jones, Norman Alvord and Elmo Thomas. High jump—Jones and Harold Stowell. Broad jump—Alvord, Jossis and Hjort. Pole vault—Vernon Eaton. Shot put—Kershnik and Herman Jensen. Discus—Kershnik, Jensen and Clark Javelin—Mason and Robertson. Relay—Hjort, Stowell, Belsher and Hanford or Jossis.

COED JOURNALISTS COMPLETE PROGRAM FOR MATRIX TABLE

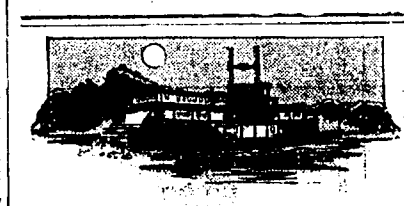

Hannah Hinsdale, Speaker of Occasion, Announces Topic

Affair to be April 23 University Women Sponsoring Second Annual Theta Sigma Banquet

"Confessions of an Interviewer" will be the topic of Hannah Hinsdale, well-known newspaper woman of the northwest, in her talk at the second annual Matrix table of Theta Sigma, local women's journalism honorary, to be given at the Blue Bucket, Wednesday, April 23rd.

Miss Hinsdale, Mrs. Harry Hawkins in private life in Yakima, Washington, has had a series of articles on women and prohibitions syndicated. A feature story on women's reticence about giving census-takers their real ages, and one on America's mania for crime novels appeared in the April 6 and April 10 issues of the Spokesman-Review. She has sold two motion pictures and two short stories. Her work has been studied by University of Washington journalists, and some of her features were used in a summer school course at the University of California.

While working for the Spokesman she says the composers and linotypists frequently threatened her life because "under the influence of caramels" she could turn out quicker and messier copy than anyone else on the staff. One Frosh Invited.

Belle Porterfield, St. Maries, was the one freshman girl on the campus to receive an invitation to the Matrix table when Theta Sigma delivered invitations to the outstanding girls at each house and hall during the dinner hour Wednesday. Miss Porterfield's intention to major in Journalism and this year's work on The Argonaut gained her this recognition. She was the 1929 editor of the girls' edition of the St. Maries high school paper, winner of the Theta Sigma trophy for the best paper of its size submitted in the annual high school contest of papers put out entirely by girls.

DANCE RECITAL RIOT OF COLOR

Continued from Page 1. The last half of the program was given over to the fifth part, the setting for which was an English country fair. Louise Morley sang a solo of invitation, "Come to the Fair". The stage was decorated with gay pennants, balloons, boths, a gypsy wagon, a stile, etc. and was crowded with people dressed to represent English country folk enjoying themselves at a festival. Vendors, jesters, clowns, beggars, jockeys, Scotch dancers, knights, and demure maidens were all a part of the kaleidoscope of color and movement. Other interesting characters were the dejected squire, the crooked man, and Simple Simon accompanying the proverbial plemman. A feature of the fair was the entrance and dance of a mock "gray mare" which cut capers about the stage quite as though accustomed to appearing in public—much to the delight of the audience. The Country Fair closed with a general revelry of all the characters represented. Students appearing in the dances, were Helen Benson, Joan Harris, Helen Hutchison, Lilly Louis, Helen Mains, Velma Myers, Alice Nash, Beth Wood, Bess Louise Hogg, Bertha Moore, Beryl Davis, Susan Malcolm, Mildred Richardson, Zelma Waller, Ilah Harris, Lillian Wesler, Verona Wolf, Florence Rudger, Cynthia Daly, Elizabeth Gilmore, Charlotte Lefever, Retta McCauley, Helen Mout, Margaret Scott, Lucie Womack, Kathryn Collins, Kathryn Hart, Louise Mulliner, Jean Edmiston, Helen Kurdy, Vivian Edmiston, Clarice Anderson, Mary Gillespie, Edna Gord, Maxine Thornhill, Mildred King, Carl Thompson, Lois Thompson, Ruth Miller, Frances Pohlman, Erma Williams, Hazel McCannon, Helen McCannon, Katherine Mikkelsen, Georgia Thomas, and Dorothy Torgerson.
