

VANDALS GROOMED IN PASS ATTACKS AGAINST WHITMAN

Air Route Chosen As Ground Gainer For Saturday

RESERVES HOPEFUL

May Get Chance to Show Wares If Missionaries Are Outclassed

Idaho's fighting Vandals are ready and waiting to meet the invasion from Walla Walla of Whitman's light and fast eleven on MacLean field at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Hard work has been the order this week. Despite snow and cold Head Coach Leo Calland allowed his men no rest. Though he is proud of his team for their battle at Seattle last week he is not taking the Missionary squad lightly. They have a habit of springing upsets.

Monday night the entire squad scrimmaged till darkness. Calland and Otto Anderson, assistant coach stood behind the opposing lines and directed play. The regulars were sent to the showers early Tuesday night as the reserves worked on pass defense and line play. The frosh battled the varsity for two hours Wednesday holding their own in power plays. Vandal superiority was shown on aerial work. Davis to Hanford, who snatched them from seemingly impossible positions and ralloped for touchdowns. "Prison" Wilson the star of the Washington game sat on the bench most of this week. He may see action against the Whitman eleven.

Squad Morale Mounts
Encouraged by play last Saturday Vandal spirit has soared higher this week than at any time during the season. A merry fight is taking place for guard positions. Gladhart and Sroatt playing almost good enough to replace Corkery and Lomez.

The passing of Davis and Pederson has improved. Fans will undoubtedly witness some pretty overhead work tomorrow.

If the Vandals find the going easy Calland will get his second chance of the season to watch the reserves in action. It is certain that the regulars will be saved as much as possible for the Oregon and Washington State games.

Whitman, boasting spectacular open field runners in Applegate and Lauderback, is almost certain to score. Calland's big problem is to keep the Vandal offense moving enough to outscore the invaders. This means that Idaho will take the offensive at the start.

Whitman Talent
Little is known of the Whitman strength as Missionary coaches keep their secrets, but the game record showing power predicts no easy afternoon for Calland and his red shirts. The Washington team gave W. S. C. a rough afternoon in an early season practice tilt and last week administered a 14 to 13 trouncing to the college of Puget Sound. The Walla Walla boys have one of the heaviest lines in the history of the school and a number of veterans.

LUNCHEON FOR McHARG

Mr. C. K. McHarg, Coeur d'Alene, was the guest of honor at a luncheon held at the Blue Bucket inn by members of Xi Sigma Pi, national honorary forestry fraternity. Mr. McHarg was formerly supervisor of the Coeur d'Alene National Forest, and is now with the United States Forest Service in the capacity of forest examiner.

DE SMET CLUB TO BREAKFAST

Catholic Students to Meet Sunday Morning in Hotel Moscow; Music and Talks on Program.

The first official meeting this year of the De Smet club, organization of Catholic students, is scheduled for Sunday morning at the Hotel Moscow at 9:30 following a breakfast, for which a program of musical numbers and short, interesting talks has been arranged.

The president urges all Catholic students of the university to attend the breakfast and meeting as several matters of business are to be discussed and activities for the year are to be outlined. Reservations may be made by calling Catherine O'Brien at the Phi Gamma house or Robert Dunn at the Phi Gamma Delta house before noon on Saturday. The cost per plate for the breakfast is 40 cents.

Great enthusiasm is being shown for this first meeting, according to the number of reservations already turned in. Over 150 Catholic students are enrolled in the university and about 100 are expected to attend the meeting Sunday.

Officers of the club for this year are Lillie Gallagher, president; Catherine O'Brien, vice president; James Dunn, secretary; and Robert Dunn, treasurer.

Feminine Students Worry About Men, Costumes, Weight

"Oh, Myrrtull, Myrtle, do come here. Quick! Did you see this article in the Argonaut? A week from tomorrow night, October 25, they're holding a coed prom. What's a coed prom? Do you know? What, no men allowed? Oh, gee whizz! Guess I won't go. Oh there are men in the orchestra, and some slip in anyway? But if they get caught they're put out? Well, it serves them right. Who wants a bunch of men at a party anyway? I always did say it was more fun without them.

What'll we wear, Myrtle? I think I'll wear that fairy costume I had in high school. If only I haven't gained too much to get into it.

Let's you and I be original. I'll be a big, fat waddling goose and you can be a college man out hunting me. Wouldn't that be just too sweet? Oh, Myrtle, it's 15 minutes after 10. I'm late for Contemporary Civ. again. S'long."

WOMEN ELIGIBLE TO FENCERS' CLUB

Tryouts Today Will Decide Membership in Foil And Mask

Foil and Mask, university men's fencing club, has completed plans to include women in the sport, officers of the group announced yesterday.

Tryouts will be Friday, October 17, at 4 o'clock, in the women's gymnasium. Those making the team will be eligible for membership in the new organization. Heretofore the club has been open to men only.

Fencing since its introduction at Idaho last year, has been drawing increased interest. Last season Idaho's squad made a credible showing against the W. S. C. chapter of Foil and Mask. Since that time the number of foil aspirants has increased and prospects this year indicate the club may become the largest sports group on the campus, said Paul Aust, president.

Dr. E. E. Hubert, of the forestry school, will instruct the members.

Fencing is one of the few sports in which women are on an equal basis with men. Often their ability surpasses that of men fencers.

After sufficient practice the club will probably hold tournaments to determine campus champions, as well as contests with fencers of Washington State college.

SCHOOL SHOWS PRIZE STOCK

Prize Herds Will be Displayed to Public Sunday Afternoon

Some of the finest livestock in the northwest, herds owned by the University of Idaho, will be on display Sunday afternoon, October 19, at the ninth annual visitors' day to be held at the university farm here.

Prize winning beef and dairy cattle, horses, sheep and swine which will be shipped a few days later to the Pacific International at Portland will be exhibited in all their livestock-show splendor. Herdsmen and students of the college of agriculture have been busy for weeks preparing the stock for the show, marcelling and polishing in real beauty shop style.

Visitors will be shown through the barns and over the farm from the hours of 2 to 4 o'clock. The first visitors' day was held in 1922. Since then the annual display has grown in popularity until it now attracts people hundreds of miles away.

FORESTRY GROUP PRESENTS AWARDS

Xi Sigma Pi, honorary forestry fraternity, today announced the winners of the 1929-30 scholastic honors. The men are chosen from the four classes on the basis of highest average grades for both semesters. Each year the winners' names are engraved on the Xi Sigma Pi tablet. Last year's winners and averages are: Senior, Arthur Buckingham, 5.154; Junior, George M. Jamison, 6.000; Sophomore, Stanley Clarke, 5.250; Freshman, Charles Wellner, 5.095.

METHODIST PARTY THURSDAY EVENING

The Wesley foundation, Methodist church organization, is having an "at home" tonight. The program will be centered around southern melodies. In charge of the entertainment are Gerald MacVean and Erwin Tomlinson.

The Wesley organization is a society for all university students who are attending the Methodist church. It is also known as the Epworth league. Gerald Ingle is the president. All students interested in the organization are invited to the meeting Friday.

RETURNS TO SCHOOL.
Miss Muriel McFarland of the home economics department has just finished visiting some of the Idaho schools. Of the 21 home economics teachers in that group, 19 are graduates of the university.

ROYAL RUSSIAN CHORUS IS SIGNED FOR U. PROGRAM

World Renowned Group Will Be Feature of Assembly October 24

FREE TO STUDENTS

Entire Expense Being Paid By University; Organization Highly Praised

Princess Margarita A. Slaviansky will present her world famous Royal Russian Chorus of twenty voices before University of Idaho students October 24 in the auditorium. Prof. T. S. Kerr, chairman of the public events committee announced this morning.

The performance, which will last two hours is the second in the series of better assemblies that has been arranged for the associated students by the faculty. Burton L. French's talk this week was the first attraction.

The company of Russian artists includes singers, dancers, and a balalaika orchestra, said Professor Kerr. "This is an attraction extraordinary."

UNIVERSITY STANDS COST

The entire expense of bringing the artists to Moscow is to be born by university funds. The budget of the ASUI will not be taxed. Members of the associated students will see the performance gratis.

Advance notices of the chorus contain praise from twenty newspaper critics throughout the world. The organization has toured over 50 countries.

Princess Margarita was trained by her father, Prince Dmitry, in the Slavic melodies in which the chorus specializes. The father of the present director, who adopted the name of Slaviansky to indicate his work, was born of the highest nobility in Moscow, Russia.

The Royal Russian Chorus is 90 years old. It has entertained most of the crown heads of Europe, and has received over 500 medals and special awards in recognition of its talent.

STUDENTS GET MORE UNIFORMS

Quartermasters Depot Manufactures Extra Supply of Uniforms

Additional military uniforms have been received by the university military department sufficient to complete the outfitting of the entire cadet corp. All men who have not been fitted are requested to see Sargent Lonie Woods at the supply room Friday and Saturday morning between 8 a. m. and 11:45 a. m., and Friday afternoon from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m. to receive their uniforms.

Due to the number of uniforms necessary to change the regulation requirements in colleges throughout the country, the Philadelphia Quartermasters Depot found it impossible to manufacture uniforms in the right size to fit everyone. As many military students as possible were fitted when the suits first arrived. The uniforms which have just arrived will be distributed to those who did not get fitted in the first allotment.

During the first days of this week rifles were issued to the men and Thursday afternoon the first parade of the year was held with arms. Capt. B. M. Crenshaw said that he thought that the first review went over in good fashion. Students must draw uniforms before Monday at 11 o'clock said the captain.

ROOTERS' CLUB COMES TO LIFE

The Rooters' Club, of 150 men, will have a special section reserved for it at all home games, said Ralph Ormsby, Yell Duke, Thursday.

Captains from each house are: James Milner, Beta Chi; Dick Fairbanks, A. T. O.; Angus McIver, Lindley hall; Pat Deal, S. A. E.; Casady Taylor, Sigma Chi; Melvin Locke, Delta Chi; Meg McMurray, Beta; Harry Boor, Lambda Chi; Dan Morgan, Phi Gamma Sigma; and Charles Brown, Kappa Sigma. Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Nu, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and Ridenbaugh hall are expected to choose captains soon.

The program to be given at the Whitman game this Saturday is being kept secret. A new Idaho yell is being learned.

Students must rent parking space from authorities of U. of Minn. or be pinched for traffic violators.

Consult Mother Nature, Then Make Date With Safety

How can a fellow keep his dates if Ol' Maw Nature won't make it shine when it should? For Saturday you ask Penelope to play you a fast game of tennis, and then it turns 50 below and hails. Say! there's a problem! Because she is old Jo Action herself, and insists upon getting out in the hall and galloping up and down the hills which makes for ye appetite. Such a feed as she takes on! Money out of your pockets men. Friday afternoon you haven't any classes so you suggest the arboretum. If the upperclassmen catch her wasting time she'll have to scrub for a month. She suggests the picture show, but oh, dear, it's late—sure a taxi! More gold! Don't let any skirt kid you into a date until you set your optics on the eastern horizon to see if everything is rosy.

COED PROM PLANS LEAVE STAG LINE ON THE OUTSIDE

Annual Event For Girls Will Be Held a Week From Saturday

MEN ARE BANNED

Prizes Offered For Original Costumes And House Stunts

Men are requested—not ordered, to be conspicuous by their absence at the Co-ed Prom, Saturday, October 25, at the women's gymnasium.

An annual event the Co-ed prom is one of the successful social affairs. It is sponsored by Phi Upsilon, national home economics honorary.

All girls will come in costume. A prize is offered for the most originally-dressed couple attending. The program consists of dancing and stunts. A prize is posted for the house having the best stunt.

The night of the dance is a "no-date" night, except dates for the prom. Underclassmen are required to attend. It has been customary for girls to "date" outside their own houses. A silhouette theme features decoration and program plans.

Invitations have been sent to the faculty women and town girls.

Committees working are: Maxine Thornhill, general chairman; Ardith Meillinger, Kathleen Goodwin and Frances DuSault, publicity; Dorothy Janssen, Hazel Praetzer, and Eunice Hudelson, refreshments; Austa White, tickets; Mary Ellen Heathorne, Dahl Eberwith, Florence Pratt, Frances McConnell, and Betty Bell, decorations; Irene Luke, Marjorie Ellsworth, Eva Jane Brown, and Violet Somstead, invitation; Marjorie Griffith and Jane Newton, prizes and judging; Georgetown Miller and Ruby Poole, entertainment.

R.O.T.C. OFFICIAL PAYS CAMPUS VISIT

Colonel Charles F. Leonard of Boise Speaks Before Officers' Group

Col. Charles F. Leonard who is in charge of the reserve officers' training in the Idaho district with headquarters at Boise, visited the Moscow reserve officers.

Wednesday evening Colonel Leonard spoke to the group at a dinner in the Blue Bucket. His talk on the "Siberian Expedition" provoked a good deal of discussion and the meeting was a great success.

PATHOLOGIST IS CALLED

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE—Dr. H. H. Flor, federal plant pathologist, will return to Washington, D. C. soon to do special research work. Dr. Flor will return to the State college in about five months to resume his experiments with wheat smut.

MILITARY SOCIETY DISCUSSES PLANS

An informal meeting of the members of Scabbard and Blade was held last Wednesday evening in the Phi Delta house. Charles Le Moyne made a report on the national convention of the fraternity which he attended last June.

Afterwards a general business meeting was held in which plans were formulated to obtain military speakers to appear before the organization. Plans for a dinner-dance were also discussed.

ANCIENT CLIQUES ARE OPPOSED BY MODERN FACTION

Bucket Party Throws Down Gauntlet; Stands For Many Reforms

FRACAS LOOMS UP

New Political Power Creates Stir; Platform Shocks Campus

"We are the first organized political party on the campus that ever issued a platform with definite planks of constructive ideals. We are neither Democratic, Republican, nor anti-Alpha; we are independent," such was the statement issued from the headquarters of the new blue bucket faction, this morning.

They call upon the associated students to back their policy of "clean, snappy, spicy fun."

"We are not in favor of dirty politics or putrid puns; neither are we Simon Pures. Roundabout methods are frowned upon; we detest graft. . . . so on those conditions we solicit your support," continued the unofficial statement.

DETAILS OF PLATFORM.

The official and formal declaration of the new party is:

The blue bucket faction asks for the support of the student body to enable it to accomplish a constructive program in the interest of the students and the university.

ITS PROGRAM IS AS FOLLOWS:

1. Down with the high cost of living. The "Bucket" will sell for 10 cents an issue.
2. Conservation of the nation's wood pulp resources. The "Bucket" has adopted smaller page size for this year.
3. For women suffrage. "If I Were a Girl" by a prominent boy-about-town campus is a feature of the first issue.
4. Equality for the sexes. "If I Were a Boy" discusses this problem from the women's viewpoint.
5. Companionate marriage. The "Jack-pot," a story, shows that the woman has the last word, thus defeating the aims of Judge Lindsey.

The blue bucket faction makes its bid for student support, not on the basis of hypothetical propositions, but on the strength of what it has actually accomplished and fostered during the past years. (Remember the cover that was censored?)

So, be it resolved, go to the polls on November 1, pay your poll tax of 10 cents, and vote the "Blue Bucket" straight ticket.

FUSSERS' ANNUAL IN TWO WEEKS

Student Directory Will Be Ready For Distribution by Publications' Department

The annual student directory will be ready in about two weeks, according to Oren Fitzgerald of the department of publications.

The twenty-four page book will contain the names, addresses and telephone numbers of registered students; Houses and halls on the campus will be listed with a space reserved for names and phone numbers. Faculty member's home and business addresses will be stated. Plans for distribution are not yet complete.

HI-SPEED MACHINE INVENTION OF PROF

Crusher Center of Interest at Spokane Convention This Week

Dean John W. Finch, Prof. A. W. Fahrenwald, and W. W. Staley of the school of mines attended a meeting of the Associated Engineers of Spokane Wednesday.

Fahrenwald read a report giving some results of recent oil dressing research in the school of mines and had on demonstration a small rock crusher of his own invention.

This machine was the object of much interest to the Spokane Engineers because of its simplicity and novel features. The essential features of this crusher are anti-friction bearings, short stroke and high speed, and a floating oscillating jaw.

Experiments have shown that it is roughly 50 per cent more efficient than existing types of crushers.

The entire campus of the U. of Penn. will be moved from Philadelphia to Valley Forge.

Bed Alternating Ingenuie Reveals Complex Methods

Exposition of bed making tricks are in order. By this time pledges have progressed to a state of familiarity with at least three of the better known. "Short-sheeting" is perhaps the most effective and the one most commonly used. Simply fold the sheet once across the width of the bed so that both ends will be at the top. The owner, climbing hastily into his bed to escape the 40 below atmosphere of a fraternity sleeping porch, finds his progress suddenly halted in mid-bed, as it were.

Wiring the covers is also good. Slip a wire just beneath the top blanket and wrap it around the bed securely. The third trick is to put a folded sheet in the middle of the bed between the sheets. This is the most easily done and very effectively disturbs the would-be sleeper.

Doubtless clever people can think up many more ingenuities along this line, but we can only offer these three.

MANY PRESENT AT RECEPTION

President, Mrs. M. G. Neale Honor Guests at Hays Hall Social Event

President and Mrs. M. G. Neale were guests of honor at a reception given by members of the faculty at Hays hall, Thursday evening, between 8:30 and 11:30 o'clock. Faculty members, their wives and husbands, and many townspeople attended.

Miss Katherine Jensen was chairman of a special committee, which handled the arrangements. Those working with her were Dean Permeal J. French, General E. R. Chrisman, Prof. M. C. Carter, and Prof. Claude Wakeland.

Flower Decorations.
Decorations featured candles and baskets of flowers and leaves. Large orchid and white chrysanthemums predominated in the living room, with gladiol and green foliage as background. The room was lighted by floor lamps.

In the dining room, the center piece on the table was of lilies and pink rosebuds. On the mantel above the fireplace were arranged small pink and white chrysanthemums. This same color scheme was carried out in the candles, which were the only lighting for the dining room.

In the receiving line were General and Mrs. E. R. Chrisman, Mrs. Burton L. French, Miss Permeal J. French, Mr. and Mrs. Stanly Easton, Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Neale, and Mrs. J. M. Raeder.

Entertainment during the evening was furnished by a musical trio consisting of Louva Mae Jensen, Polly Parrot and Annie Snow.

VANDAL BABES MEET SPOKANE "U"

Jacoby's Yearling Team to Invade Washington for Second Game of Season; Two Injured.

After their 62 to 0 victory over the Lewiston Normal football team last Saturday, the freshmen have been preparing for the next contest with Spokane university, Saturday, October 18, in Spokane.

Cy Bearson, frosh fullback, received a broken nose in last Saturday's game, and Cy Geraghty, halfback, was hurt in a scrimmage this week. However, both will probably see some action at Spokane.

Thursday afternoon the Babes lost a close game to the varsity, 21-16. The freshmen looked like a real ball team against the Normal and fans who saw the game are expecting a frosh victory at Spokane. However, Spokane university is rated as a strong team this year and no predictions are being made by the yearling coaches.

ALUMNAE INVITED BY MORTAR BOARD

Mortar Board alumnae are to be extended a special invitation to attend homecoming this year, according to Catherine York, president of the senior women's honorary. The group will sell chrysanthemums at the game with W. S. C. on November 8. A meeting has been called for 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

VARSITY SQUAD BOOSTS STOCK

Rafter and Cline, Former Frosh Stars Join 1930 Idaho Vandal Team

Vandal varsity and freshman football teams both received reinforcement this week with the return to school of Jim Rafter, a star on the 1925 freshman team, and the enrollment of Mooney Cline, brother of the famous "Dusky" Cline who made football history at Idaho along about 1922 with "Skippy" Stivers and other famed Vandal riders.

Rafter who looks like one of the best tackle prospects on the squad, hails from Boise. Mooney Cline is following in the steps of his big brother and is going to give the yearling team added strength at center. He comes from Plainsfield, New Jersey, with a remarkable record as a high school athlete.

TEAM WORK NEED OF WORLD NATIONS SAYS LAW MAKER

Burton L. French Addresses University Students On World Problems

CITES COST OF WAR

Petty Political Differences Interfere With Progress of Peace Conferences

The true course of the United States lies in team work between nations, said Congressman Burton L. French, nationally-known statesman, when he addressed a large audience of students and townspeople in an assembly at the university auditorium Wednesday morning on the subject, "Team Work in International Problems."

Opening the assembly, the entire audience sang "America," followed by selections by the university string quartet. Mr. French was introduced by President M. G. Neale as a "nationally-known figure whom you could introduce to me better than I could to you."

Cites War Cost.
Mr. French, in leading up to the theme of his topic, spoke of the great cost of the World war to those nations participating in it, and also on the cost of maintaining a defense since the war. Approximately 175 institutions the size of the University of Idaho could be maintained in the United States for the cost of maintaining the navy alone, estimated Mr. French.

In speaking of the Paris peace pact, Mr. French said that it was approved by 58 nations of the world. Some of these would end war by building great defenses, while others had different methods. "However, if the United States will follow a policy of moderation in regards armament," he said, "other nations will follow in her footsteps and the armament expense in the United States can be reduced to one-third."

Petty Differences Interfere.
The petty differences between political factions and cliques and how their small problems interfere with the work to be done were related by Mr. French, in telling of conferences he has recently attended in Europe. If this can be eliminated and a friendliness maintained, the speaker said he believed governments will run more smoothly.

Congressman French closed his speech by saying that the interchange of ideas of serious problems between nations will remove difficulties that lead to war. The assembly ended with the audience standing and singing "Here We Have Idaho."

"I" MEN BAN HIGH SCHOOL LETTERS

Sweaters May Be Worn With Stripes But Emblems Are Out; to Punish Offenders

The wearing of high school letters on the campus will not be tolerated, according to news released by the "I" club today. It was the general opinion of the club that it will be all right to wear sweaters with stripes on the sleeves, but there shall be no letters adorning their front.

Charles Heath said that it was his opinion that when a man comes to college, he should leave his athletic memories of high school behind him and should strive to win for himself a letter or honors in college.

LAWYERS ABSENT DURING AG BAWL

The annual Ag Bawl Saturday night was without the usual interference and entertainment from the Lawyers. According to Ernest Falmer, president of the Ag Club, it received the largest gate receipts of any year. Ted Hanning won the most original costume contest.

PAINT PROBLEMS GIVEN HOME ECS

Brilliant Tones To Be Worked With for Harmony in Room Decorations

Plans to redecorate the dining room in the home economics department are being completed by the class in interior decorating. Miss Elizabeth Johnson, who is in charge of the class, says that the project will be a practical problem worked out by the class.

The walls of the room are to be re-papered and the paper enclosed in panels. Selection of the wallpaper, the new rug and material for drapes for the windows will be entirely in the hands of students. New furniture for the room may be chosen by them also. The insides of the corner cupboards will be painted in brilliant tones to blend with a color scheme and add brightness to the room.

Early colonial style will be used throughout, with the object of the student's work to make the room quaint, colorful and cheerful.

WOMEN TO SELL 'MUMS

At the regular meeting of the executive board Tuesday evening, a motion was passed permitting Mortar Board to sell chrysanthemums at the Homecoming game, Nov. 8. No other important business was taken up at the meeting.

Apple Still Holds Lure, Modern Eves Reveal

"An apple a day"—but what about a box at a time? If there is a definite shortage in the fall fruit crop in the immediate vicinity of the university it can't be attributed to the worms or what ever is popularly supposed to attack apples.

The weather may become utterly vile, it is always just beautiful at home) school become tearfully homesick, and homesickness grip the youthful heart, but the wholesome and lusty desire for nourishment is not one whit abated.

The favorite means of conveying these juicy tidbits to the rooms, where they may be eaten in solid comfort, is to press one of mother's best embroidered pillow slips into service, fill it to capacity, and then proceed to place of residence. It takes about four people to carry the load.

For some reason, these parties are largely made up of girls. There doesn't seem to be any apparent reason for this, unless it is more customary for the feminine element to go after what it wants.

From the cultural standpoint, let it be said that there is nothing like listening to a bunch of apple eaters to increase one's appreciation of music. The rhythm is perfect and the sound has a lovely resonant quality. The tune goes something like this: scrunch! scrunch! chomp-te-dal scrunch!

Meanwhile the economic situation is acute. With the price of wheat down, and apples disappearing by the bushel, the condition of the local farmer is critical.

UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO LIBRARY

LILLIE GALLAGHER, Editor.

Autumn weather lends an attractiveness to the dances now scheduled by giving opportunity for colorful seasonal decorations to increase the gayety of the settings for the affairs. Padded, and evidence of green, have been paramount as decorations for the dances held by groups in honor of their new pledges.

This week-end, of the seven dances on the calendar, five are to be pledge dances, two of which are the Sigma Nu dance at the chapter house, and the Lambda Chi Alpha dance at the L. D. S. seminary, this evening. Lindley hall has an informal dance planned for this evening also, to be held at the Blue Bucket inn.

Tomorrow evening Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Tau Omega, and Kappa Sigma will entertain with pledge dances at their respective chapter houses, and Tau Men's organization will hold a mixer dance at the L. D. S. seminary.

NEALES HONORED BY FACULTY RECEPTION
Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Neale were honored guests of the university faculty at a reception held at Hays hall last night at 8:30 o'clock. Invitations were extended to four hundred, including faculty members, local residents and prominent people of the state. Miss Permeal J. French, dean of women, was hostess for the affair.

DALETH TETH GIMEL NAMES ITS NEW PLEDGES
Daleth Teth Gimel announces the pledging of the following girls: Ruth Little, Clare Davis, Vida Nichols-Roy, Claudine Wakefield, Ruth Humphrey, Mary Axtell, Mary Louise Bush, Patricia Kennard, Edna Scott, Eloise Emmett, Pauline Sumpter, Hilda Dalley, Doris Emery, Violet Songstad, Raeta Ritman, Pauline Terhaar, Velma Hofmann, Jean Donaldson, Elizabeth Vincent, Frances McConnell, Eleanor Abbott, Grace Reed, Mabel Litch, Lenore Burnett, Leota Hamlett, Carlotta Summerfield, Olga Ewason, Aileen Francis, and Marie DeWinter.

LAFFERTY-SHARP BETHROTHAL ANNOUNCED
Kappa Kappa Gamma announces the engagement of Ethel Stanford Lafferty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Lafferty of Spokane to Andrew Given Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Sharp of Cleveland Heights, Ohio. The bride-to-be, popular in a wide circle of friends is a graduate of the University of Idaho. During her college course Miss Lafferty was prominently identified with dramatics, which interest she has continued through her work with the Little Theatre group in Spokane. She is secretary of the Spokane alumnae chapter.

Mr. Sharp, a graduate of Cornell university, received his master's degree in forestry from the University of Idaho. He is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho, and is at present with the Kimberly-Clark Paper company, at Kapuskasing, Ontario. The wedding will take place November 6, at Temmins, Ontario.

Phi Gamma Delta entertained a group of sisters at dinner on Tuesday evening. Those present were Beatrice Friedman, Bernice Friedman, Georgia Thomas, Constance Mitchell, Florence Rohrer, Pauline Paterka, Violet Bohman, Flora Corkery, Mary Bodle, Elsie McMillin, Ada Mary Little, and Marion Fry. Dancing was enjoyed until 7:30.

The fraternity of Tau Kappa Epsilon entertained Merton Collins, Clark Emery, Yakima: Allen Wiseman and Roy Davis, Spokane; John McManamin and George Cunningham, Coeur d'Alene; and Henry Reckman, Kamloops, B. C., at a dinner Saturday evening at the chapter house.

Rev. and Mrs. F. Peterson, Moscow, and Howard Granier were dinner guests Thursday evening of the fraternity of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Beta Theta Pi entertained the Beta sisters at the chapter house Wednesday evening, October 15. After dinner the house orchestra played for a short dance. The guests were: Margaret Hulser, Katherine Hart, Ardith Mellinger, Harriet Eaton, Dorothy Simpson, Norma Werry, Margaret Oull, Catherine York, LaVernon Thomas, Florence Simpson, Grace Eldridge, Elizabeth Simpson, Frances Larson, Peggy Newhouse, Grace Parsons, and Mary Gillespie.

Wednesday evening dinner guests of Ridenbaugh hall were Mildred Patterson, Julia Vallar, Elsie Warm, Flora Corkery, Frances McMonigle, Lois Porterfield, Bernice Wernette, Roberta Roberts, Jacqueline Johnson, Harrietta Lundgren, Blanche Currie, Velma Mannings, and Mary Bodle.

The SINGER ART STORE

Ideal for late evening

WHEN old man hunger drives you to the campus restaurant late at night, why not eat one of the most delicious treats you ever tasted . . . and one which is so easy to digest it lets you sleep like a baby.

Here it is: A bowl of crunchy-crisp Kellogg's Corn Flakes with cool milk or cream. Now sweeten it with honey or add a bit of preserved fruit. Then watch your spoon get busy!

The most popular cereals served in the dining-rooms of American colleges, eating clubs and fraternities are made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. They include ALL-BRAN, Pep Bran Flakes, Rice Krispies, Wheat Krumbles, and Kellogg's Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit. Also Kaffee Hag Coffee—the coffee that lets you sleep.

BRANCH TO MEET HASKELL BRAVES

Is Second Night Game For Pocatello Team; Indians Strong

SOUTHERN BRANCH, UNIVERSITY OF IDAHO.—Captain Lewis Weller, famous Haskell back, will lead his charging Redskins against the Southern Branch Tigers November 15. This game will feature the second night lighted football game at the Pocatello school.

The Haskell Indians come here from Lawrence, Kansas, with a great record of past football and a heavy schedule to make another record. The feature of this game will be a colorful attendance from Fort Hall, which according to F. E. Gross is reservation wise. Last year Haskell went through its season with eight victories and two defeats, both defeats being made under severe handicaps and in the final few minutes of play.

The scalps dangling from their belt are North Dakota university, Butler, Clayton, St. Xavier, and Tulsa. The Pocatello game will come in the middle of the Haskell schedule. The game will be played on their return from Spokane, where they tangle with Gonzaga on Armistice day.

Other inter-sectional games of considerable note are Oklahoma Aggies, Washburn college, University of Kansas, Clayton, Butler and Tulsa on the Indian schedule.

According to a report by F. E. Gross, reservation superintendent at Fort Hall, five local Indians are in attendance at the Haskell school this year. None, however, are reported on the grid squad.

The Fort Hall Indians, under a special committee, have undertaken to fete the Haskell tribe on November 13. Aside from Fort Hall Indians, Haskell Indians, and the reservation superintendency, a few whites will attend the celebration.

THETA SIGMA BREAKFAST

A large number of invitations were sent out by Theta Sigma, women's honorary journalism group, to new women on the campus, who have shown their interest for journalistic work, and to all women members of the Argonaut staff, inviting them to a breakfast Sunday morning at the Blue Bucket. The purpose of Theta Sigma will be outlined by Elizabeth Taylor and Mary Murphy and a snappy entertainment will be afforded.

GRID SPORTLIGHT

By Bill Pohlman

With the colleges of the Pacific Coast conference sending their mighty grid elevens onto the field every Saturday, we are inclined to forget that the colleges of the Northwest conference are fighting just as hard for recognition in their own group. Willamette, Pacific College of Idaho, College of Puget Sound and Whitman all turn out fighting teams that year after year give larger opponents a fierce battle.

Whitman and Willamette are doped to fight it out for the pennant this year with the Missionaries slated the best chance to cop the title. The Walla Walla boys warmed up for the Idaho game by trouncing College of the Pacific, 14 to 13, last Saturday.

Gonzaga is optimistic regarding their coming game with the powerful Cougars this week. The Bulldog rooters had better do all their yelling during the first few minutes as things won't look so good to them later. If Hollingbery decides to use his sophomore team most of the time the Spokane aggregation may hold the score down to normal size, but the regulars will probably get their taste of Bulldog meat before the battle is over.

The weekly results of the national scoring race are beginning to come in now and the finals of this test will have much to do with the selection of all-American teams in December. At the present time J. Murphy of the champion Fordham eleven is leading the country's scorers. He has contributed 9 touchdowns or 54 points to his team's total. Johnny Kitzmiller, Oregon's "Flying Dutchman" is in second place by virtue of 43 points scored from scrimmage. The records to date show that only two field goals have been scored east of the Mississippi to date.

The frosh have a real team on the field and bid fair to do big things before this gridiron season is over. The Babes displayed a powerful offensive against Lewiston the other day, but didn't have a chance to try the defense. Idaho had the ball so much and kept the play in the Normal's territory so effectively that no stone wall was required. Against Spokane university this week they will tangle with an enemy who should give them no trouble.

Willis Smith was easily the outstanding star of the yearlings with Bearson a close second. Geraghty and Norby also packed the oval and ran interference like veterans. Schmitz, Russell and Bowker were through the line on plenty of occasions to smash the opposing offensive. All these boys will be helping win games for the Vandals next fall.

IDAHO SPURS TO SELL PROGRAMS

Will Work at Homecoming Game; Announce Annual Mixer for Armistice Day

Idaho Spurs met at five o'clock last night to discuss activities for this year. On Armistice Day they plan to have the annual Spur Mixer, a custom started last year. This will probably be in the Memorial gymnasium. All the old Spurs on the campus will be entertained at a formal dinner Thursday, October 23.

Immediately before the Idaho-W.S.C. game, a luncheon at the Blue Bucket will be given in honor of the Spurs from Pullman. A new form of service at the Homecoming day game was also considered, but was not definitely decided upon. As customary the Spurs will probably sell programs at this game.

ORANGEMEN FACE STANFORD BEARS

Oregon State Gridsters Make Final Preparations for California Game Saturday Afternoon

Coach Paul J. Schissler's Oregon State gridsters are making final preparations for the game against Stanford university at Palo Alto Saturday afternoon. The Orangemen have only light workouts scheduled with the exception of one scrimmage practice.

The Staters are fresh from a 20 to 0 win over the California Aggies here Friday night. In the first half of the game the Beavers showed how a good college team should not play football but in the last half they found themselves and ripped off long yardage gains at will.

Coach Schissler was far from being pleased with the showing made by the Orangemen against the California Aggies and is spending a good part of practice time smoothing the working order of the

MUSICIANS PLAN LEWISTON TRIP

Idaho Pep Band Will Play for Miniature Live Stock Show at Lewiston.

The Idaho Pep band yesterday was extended an invitation to play in Lewiston, Thursday afternoon, October 23, when a special train bearing 25 carloads of blooded cattle will stop there for a few hours on its journey from the National Dairy show in St. Louis to the Pacific International Live Stock show in Portland.

The Lewiston show is being sponsored by the same group who had charge of the Cherry Blossom festival last year. Included on the train are two carloads from the championship herds of Harvey Firestone.

The band, according to Ray Kelley, manager, will leave about noon on Thursday under the auspices of the Moscow Chamber of Commerce, and will return Thursday night. About twenty members will make the trip.

Pep band plans for the year have not yet been fully outlined. However, today and tomorrow practices will be held in preparation for the Whitman game Saturday. October 25 will see the beginning of hard work and practice for the homecoming celebration.

The band this year will play at regular Wednesday assemblies, taking the place of the university orchestra. They will play while the students are gathering and again during the recessional.
