VOLUME XXXII THE IDAHO ARGONAUT, MOSCOW, TUESDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1930 Number 13

BIG PEP RALLY TONIGHT AT 7:00 O'CLOCK

STAGE BEING SET FOR HOMECOMING OF IDAHO ALUMNI

Camps To Be Decorated; Plans For Celebration Get Under Way

PRIZES ARE OFFERED

For Sorority and Fraternity Having Best Display in Annual Contest

Plans for Idaho's homecoming celebration on November 8 are in full swing, according to Dean Arnold, homecoming chairman for Blue Key, national honorary fraternity. Committees have been appointed and are working hard according to John Soden, president. Gerald Grimm is in charge of campus decorations and urges the cooperation of everyone. Campus buildings will be decorated with streamers and lighted at night, showing the campus in an effective manner.

Decorate Houses
The decoration of group houses and the choosing of the most clever and original is being handled by the A.S.U.I. through the executive board. Judges for the occasion will be selected from the faculty and townspeople. They will inspect each fraternity and sorority house decoration during the daytime and at night, making their selection Friday evening. Cups will be awarded between halves of the football game, to the winning sorority and fraternity.

As in former years, the cost of each group's decorations has been limited to $25. That competition will be keen this year is established by the fact that many groups have already decided on a definite scheme of decoration. A committee, headed by Russell Randall, is cooperating with the Moscow chamber of commerce on downtown decorations. A committee from the chamber of commerce has been invited to meet with Blue Key next Monday together with President Neale who has also shown interest in the coming event.

Plan Programs
Programs for the game, bearing the name, number, and record of each player, are in the hands of Kenneth Egbert, chairman. Cuts of prominent players on each team and of coaches have been secured. A cover design has been selected through graduate manager's office, and it is expected

OXFORD DEBATERS CREATE INTEREST

November 7 is Tentative Date; May Be Non-Decision Match

Increasing interest is being shown toward the arrival of the new Oxford debaters. November 6 is the tentative date set for the debate on the novel question. Resolved: That the world has more to fear than to hope from the further development of machines. The Englishmen prefer a non-decision debate but are willing to accept any arrangements named the Idaho team.

From Oxford.
B. J. Crehan and B. Hope Elletson will represent Oxford University on the affirmative of the question. B. J. Crehan is 23 years of age and during his past years has filled offices in various commercial concerns. At 20 he became the local secretary of the Workers Educational association and last year won a scholarship to Liverpool university, where he obtained a diploma in social science and is now reading for a bachelor of arts degree in social science and economics. He has had considerable debating experience and has been active in political work for the Socialist party.

B. Hope Elletson is 21 years of age and has attended both Georgetown and Wellington schools. In the latter he was president of the debating society and school perfect. After a year in business he obtained a scholarship to Oxford where he has been studying law. He is treasurer of the Oxford Union society. He intends to be a barrister.

Only Two Men.
The debates held by Oxford men in the United States is sponsored by the National Student federation, and is carried on in hope to foster better international relationships among college students. In past years three men have been sent to represent Oxford, but this year the federation is sponsoring only two men.

ILL IN INFIRMARY

Paul Jones, managing editor, is ill in the university infirmary with tonsillitis. His condition is not considered serious, and doctors expect to discharge him within a few days.

Men Salute Pride By High-Hatting Annual Co-ed Jig

The Co-ed Prom! What's the joke? It's on the girls. Once every fall Idaho co-eds become exclusive and give a dance for the feminine element. Men are then supposed to succumb to the "blues" or to crash the gate.

This year, they did neither. What did the men do? Their activities covered a lot of territory. Hiding themselves to Pullman they made dates and had a wonderful time at the regular Saturday night dance at the Blue Bucket.

Others were entertained at smokers on the campus. A few were in the near vicinity of the prom. These were mostly misguided underclassmen or Gem photographers. Without exception they were bored, but not half as bored as the co-ed committee for throwing out would be gate crashers.

Better luck next time, girls.

IDAHO YEARBOOK FOR NEXT SPRING IS OUTSTANDING

Says Representative From Engraving Firm After Conference With Printers

PRAISES DESIGNS

Modern Treatment of Color Presents Fitting Scheme For Futuristic Designs

"Idaho's 1931 Gem of the Mountains will be the best Gem ever produced, and also among the outstanding yearbooks planned in the northwest this year," stated Walter Irvine, representative of the Western Engraving and Colortype company of Seattle, engravers for Idaho's Gem in past years.

"The theme of this year's Gem is the closest to student interest and Idaho traditions that could possibly have been selected," continued Mr. Irvine. "Borders and art work are modern in treatment and color, and are futuristic in design, but not to the extent that proportions are distorted and illustrations a departure from the realistic. Innovations in this year's Gem are more numerous than ever before, unusual arrangement and unique make-up featuring each page.

Ahead of Schedule.
"At present the work is farther along than in previous years and plans are much more complete. This means that every detail to date is the result of careful consideration, and consequently the final arrangements can be given as much time and thought as is necessary to perfect them."

Mr. Irvine, who came direct from Boise after a conference with Ralph York of the Spms-York Printing company of that city, printers of Idaho's Gem for several years. He found Mr. York very enthusiastic and well satisfied with the plans for this year's annual.

Wayne Blair, editor of the Gem, also announced that many cover companies have written letters expressing enthusiasm concerning the design of the 1931 Gem, and have submitted outstanding copy of sketches which are in harmony with the rest of the book.

FOOD FROM AIR

YELLOW SPRINGS, Ohio.—A group of scientists at Antioch college here will spend the next 10 weeks trying to wrest from the world of plant life the secret of manufacturing food from free air and sunlight.

A $250,000 fund has been set up by C. F. Kettering of Dayton, Ohio, president of the General Motors research corporation. The scientific work will be under direction of Dr. O. L. Tuman, head of the biology department at Antioch.

Blue Bucket Mine Found Latest Glenwood Rumor

"Something hidden. Go and find it. Go and look behind the Ranges—Something lost behind the Ranges—Lost and waiting for you. Go!"

The original blue bucket has been found according to reports which drifted in from the town of Glenwood on the middle fork of the Clearwater river early this morning. The report said the original blue bucket was partially decayed, but the gold nuggets were not disturbed.

A story which was considered to be a legend is that a party of emigrants was scattered in the mountains of Idaho. While they were near the members of the party came across an open mother lode. He collected some of the nuggets in a blue wooden bucket. He left the bucket in the vicinity to

Neale And Calland Will Speak In Auditorium After Students Are Gathered By Pep Band

A huge pep rally is to be staged tonight at seven o'clock in the auditorium, Bus Grimm, yell duke, announced. The Pep Band will make a tour of the campus shortly before the meeting and pick up the students at the various houses. Once in the auditorium there will be some short snappy talks by President M. G. Neale and Coach Leo Calland. Members of the football team will also give talks. Yells will be led by yell leaders and the Pep Band will spread their snap and ginger.

Launch Ticket Sale

Blue Key, service fraternity, acting as representatives of the A.S.U.I. for the student special to Spokane, launched their ticket sales yesterday under the chairmanship of Bus Grimm in the hall of the Administration building.

Tickets were on sale during the day which resulted in the disposal of well over 100. This leaves but 200 tickets to be sold today and Wednesday. Students are urged by Blue Key to purchase their tickets early as the number is limited.

NEALE RETURNS FROM POCATELLO

Idaho President Sees South Idaho as Being in Prosperous Condition

Dr. M. G. Neale, president of the University of Idaho, commenting on his trip to Boise recently, said that he was pleased with the prosperous appearance of the southern section of the state.

Dr. Neale at first intended to drive his car as far as Pendleton, and then board the train, but the fair weather and the fine condition of the north and south highway made him drive through to Boise and on to Pocatello.

At Boise, Dr. Neale was joined by Mr. Vincent of the board of regents, and the two went on to Pocatello for Dr. Neale's monthly visit to the southern branch of the University of Idaho.

On the return trip, Doctor Neale followed the Old Oregon Trail over the Blue mountains into Pendleton.

ALUMNI TO HOLD HOMECOMING DANCE

The Greater Idaho association, an organization of alumni, will have charge of the all-college dance on homecoming night, the executive board decided at its regular meeting last Tuesday evening.

The dance was held under the auspices of the "I" club last year, but due to the fact that the club cannot also sponsor a formal dance, the change was made.

Other business included the appointment of Albert Pence as sophomore football manager, and Robert Grant as junior manager. A motion was passed allowing the Intercollegiate Knights to sponsor a mixer the night before homecoming. Appropriations were allowed for the stock judging team to go to Portland, and for Ed Whittington, editor of The Argonaut, to attend the P. I. P. A. convention at Los Angeles. Permission was given to Blue Key to take charge of the student special to Spokane, November 1, after the board decided to give the Northern Pacific the contract for the special.

Appointment of an election committee, composed of Peyton Somers, Vera Bryant, Clayton Lodi, Merle Frizzelle, Constance Woods, Elmer Poston, and Harry Bobb, and of a social committee, composed of Harry Daubert, Bus Gray, and Betty Wilson, concluded the business.

Blue Bucket Mine Found Latest Glenwood Rumor

mark the location. Later the emigrant found his way to a small settlement, he told his story of the enormous natural wealth that he had found. For years afterwards residents of the territory of Idaho searched the adjoining ranges. The Blue Bucket story became a legend, until late last week when the original bucket with its load of nuggets was found.

A search is now being carried on for the original lead which the emigrant said he found. Telegrams were sent this morning to authorities of Glenwood requesting that the blue bucket be sent to Moscow for exhibition since this legend is one of the traditions of the university. It is expected that the bucket will arrive some time Monday or a week from today. It will be displayed in the main hall of the Administration building.

VANDALS GET SET FOR NIGHT GAME WITH GONZAGA U.

Squad Aroused as Result of Showing Last Week in Oregon Game

TEAM IS BUOYANT

Expect to Make Bulldogs Earn Their Money Next Weekend in Spokane

Idaho's Vandals arrived home from Eugene Sunday in a happy frame of mind, confident that four days of training will enable them to whip the Gonzaga Bulldogs next Saturday evening in the night game at Spokane.

Plenty of scrimmage is due the Vandals this week with the reserves given the assignment of running the Bulldog plays against the regulars. The sweeping end runs of "Shine," McKenna, and the line plunge and off-tackle slants of Max Krause have been watched all season. Idaho coaches will work up a good defense for these plays this week.

Team is in Shape.

Every man came out of the Oregon battle in tip-top shape and Calland will be able to send his entire first string against the Irish. The sound has improved with every game and will be at top form in the Gonzaga stadium. Coach and the team are confident of victory.

Spokane is gear over the prospect of another thrilling Bulldog-Vandal battle and the fans are buying their seats early to avoid the rush. On the scene of the battle the elevens rate on even terms, though the game is played on Gonzaga territory.

Krause on Bench.
Coach Flaherty sent his squad to California last week and came back with a 47 to 0 beating at the hands of the powerful St. Mary's gridsters. The defeat does not indicate the true strength of the Bulldogs though, as Max Krause, rated as one of the best backs on the coast, sat on the bench throughout the contest and Flaherty jerked many of his varsity men early in the game in order to save them for the Vandal battle.

The Spokane game is the seventh time the Vandals have looked horns with the Bulldog. Idaho has walked off the field on the upper side of the score eight times. Three games were tied. The Vandals have not connected for a win since 1923 when they grabbed a 13 to 0 victory at Spokane.

A campus weekly news reel is a feature of the University of Wisconsin. This includes pictures of campus activities.

and one half after the game. Arrangements are being made to have sufficient street cars to carry the students to the game between the hours of 7 and 8. John Soden has made arrangements at the Davenport and Desert Hotels to accommodate the students for the meal after the game.

Idaho's Pep band, in charge of Harry Walden, will accompany the special and play for a dance to be held enroute in an empty baggage car furnished by the Northern Pacific.

IDAHO'S ALUMNI RALLY ON COAST

Plan to Centralize Their Forces in Seattle to Aid University of Idaho.

Centralization of Idaho alumni activities in western Washington at Seattle has been undertaken by the Idaho Alumni club of Seattle, the group which sponsored the radio rallies before the Idaho-University of Washington game.

Word of the plan came to Moscow in a letter which O. A. Fitzgerald, university editor, received from J. Lael Simmons, '28, secretary-treasurer of the Seattle organization. "It is our plan," he said, "to stir continually the interest of Idahoans in their alma mater by use of the radio and other means of application."

The publicity office here is sending to Mr. Simmons a complete list of Idaho alumni in all cities and towns west of the Cascades and north of the Columbia river.

The Seattle club plans to hold another party just before Christmas, and will invite President M. G. Neale and other university people from Moscow as guests. S. Leigh Savides, '10, is president of the group.

ASSEMBLY SPEAKER FAMOUS LECTURER

Dr. Blomquist Arrives Wednesday Morning to Talk on "Pigskin or Sheepskin"

"Pigskin or Sheepskin" is the title of the talk to be given Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock in the university auditorium by Dr. E. C. Blomquist, world famous lecturer.

Dr. Blomquist will arrive in Moscow Wednesday morning by airplane. He is being brought here from Rockford, Illinois, by the two Lutheran churches of Moscow, to conduct a week's conference.

Before Dr. Blomquist's talk Wednesday Rev. E. M. Hegge will sing "Little Mother of Mine" by Burleigh, and "Vale" by Russell. He will be accompanied by Miss Dorothy Fredrickson, of the university music staff.

SCABBARD-BLADE TO MEET

Seaboard and Blade will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 at the A. T. O. house. Charles L. Walker, first sergeant, requests that all members be present.

The Rooters' club numbers 8283 at California.

Ancient Feud Reviewed; Frosh Should Take Care

"And now children we will have a lesson in ancient history. Many years ago, historians are unable to fix the date, but they estimate it to be about '22 or '23, the Cougars swapped our two cannons from the mail.

"Between the halves, the game was played at Pullman, the W. S. Cities fired the guns. And the Vandals even then were unable to find them.

"General Chrisman, then colonel, came to our aid. The cannons were U. S. government property; they must be returned.

Piper Will Pipe At "The Show Off" In Auditorium

Aubrey Piper, $25-a-week Philadelphia railroad clerk, will soon be a well-known name around the campus. He is the leading man in "The Show Off," all-college play to amuse university playgoers here on November 14 and 15.

Young Piper is a "human dynamo" who has everything he eats, drinks, and wears charged. Piper's motto is "sign on the dotted line."

He wears a white carnation in his buttonhole and sports a walking cane. It is as "legal" advisor to his brother-in-law and as family press agent and human megaphone that Piper does his best work. He saves the day, financially, for his "in-laws."

Merle Frizzelle, Boise senior, will show the smiling audience just how Aubrey Piper manages the role of a big business man on a pop-corn stand income.

Harry Gamage's University of Kentucky eleven is rated an excellent chance to grab head honors in the Southern conference this fall. He has twenty lettermen left from a team that last fall won six, tied one, and lost one game. "Shipwreck" Kelly, the star half is back and is having a fine year. The varsity line averages close to 200 pounds and every back is a veteran.

VANDALS UNCORK HEADS-UP ATTACK IN OREGON GAME

Idaho Surprises Webfoot Squad With Defense and Drive in First Half

INTERCEPT PASS

Norby Snares Kitzmiller's Heave And Runs 55 Yards for Score

Idaho's Vandals fought their way through four periods of hard football at Eugene Saturday, succumbing to the Oregon eleven, by a 20 to 6 score.

Calland's men gave Webfoot supporters their worse scare of the season, took the cockiness out of them, and won a host of new friends by their determined stand in the face of odds.

Both coaches started their regulars and the ball remained around mid-field until the middle of the first period when the Webfooters launched a powerful drive that ended with Donahue, Oregon fullback, smashing over the goal from the 3-yard mark and putting Doc Spear's eleven out in front. Oregon made the try for point.

In the second quarter Davis hurled passes, one of which was intercepted by Erdley for the Green on the Vandal 33-yard stripe. On the next play Kitzmiller dropped back to shoot a pass. Norby grabbed the pigskin, and evading the Oregon tacklers, ran 55 yards for a touchdown, furnishing the most spectacular play of the game. Davis' place-kick went sailing off the side of the goal posts and the score stood 7 to 6 as the half ended.

The Webfooters came back and held the Vandals on even terms until the last five minutes of the quarter when they opened up.

Wilson booted a high one to Kitzmiller on the Oregon 47-yard mark who was downed with no gain. On the first play, the Green received a 15-yard penalty, but a long pass and an 8-yard dash placed the ball on Idaho's 8-yard line. Ed Meador, playing at fullback for Oregon, rushed the ball over and the locals led 13 to 6.

The final Oregon score came in the last period when Oregon recovered a punt on Idaho's 7-yard line. Currie went wide around end to the 1-yard line and on the next play Kitzmiller scored. Oregon made the score 20 to 6 on the try for point.

Thank Prof. Kerr

WE THANK you Professor Kerr and members of the public events committee for the presentation of the Russian chorus, Friday morning. In point of student interest and opinion, it was the best assembly that has appeared before the students for many years.

It is realized that little regard is shown for the aesthetic as we go about so, apparently embalmed in the cultural side of life, with the older public classifying us as jazzy collegians and letting it go at that; yet the applause alone from that part of the student body that was present in the packed auditorium should be somewhat of an indicator as to our ability to stop play long enough to be really appreciative of art.

Some say that the time of the day and the free admission were the bases responsible for the goodly representation; yet they cannot account for the continued applause which greeted the classical and semi-classical numbers. Be it as it may, students will continue to support good music and drama that might be brought here under the program of "Bigger and Better Assemblies."

Again we thank those responsible for the splendid program. —P. W. A.

Rally Tonight

"PEP RALLY TONIGHT" says the banner headline. Get out and yell, work up the dormant spirit and show the team what Vandal enthusiasm is. Then talk, borrow, or steal two dollars from somebody and reserve your portion of the special train to Spokane Saturday.

Several remarks have been heard to the effect that Idaho has lost all pep, and teams are only a necessary publicity item. The Argonaut denies the charges, and charges the blame to lack of publicity.

Read the article, then if only five or six show up, we might just as well bow our heads, call in our football teams and let them go where they will be appreciated.

ALL OUT TONIGHT!!

Gertie Guillotine

O-HELL-O—Let's all go to the Gonzaga game and avoid that future shadow—Why, ah, you know why, because one never gets any rest on a trip like that; because we always have to sit up all night thinking of stories to tell the brothers about the trip. If you take our advice this is a good cheap chance for the gents, that think the forward pass is something to be presented at the ticket office, to come out of their shells. We trust that anyone that doesn't show up in Spokane will be out gunning for these vipers that bet against Idaho to show that they read the sport column.

No, Mary, them ain't winter radishes. Them's weinies.

Student Opinion

Dear Editor: Saturday I went to the Kenworthy theatre out of curiosity to see one of the famous open-night features to which the proprietor points with such pride. After one of the most abominable short features which ever graced the screen, a fifth-grade "melterdrammer" took the center, and steadily declined until the hero triumphed in the last scene. It was most miserable entertainment.

Mr. Kenworthy evidently fails to remember that fine feathers do not make fine birds. He spent all his picture money on a red sidewalk, and is going to regret it long before the public gets it paid for.

Student trade will not stand for the continued repetition of such programs as he has been forcing upon it.

Dear Editor: My congratulations to Two Star. Guess who I saw on the train going to Portland Friday? Nobody else but "Kenworthy" himself! I'm optimistic. Maybe we get better shows after he has seen the Portland distributors.....mebbe.

As for Two Star using antiquated Bowery slang....."The Big House" was supposed to be an up-to-date squeaky; but it used for the most part this "Bowery lingo of 1900". Terrible, Kenworthy, terrible.

Another prominent Moscow business man has grown red in the face and exploded because someone dared to insinuate that he makes university patronage pay dividends—a sophomore gesture indeed. Mr. Kenworthy should be grateful. He hasn't had so much free advertising since he was elected mayor of Moscow. It appears to a good many students, including myself, that the best shows come in the middle of the week. But what of it? Had Mr. Kenworthy shrugged his shoulders and replied "Business is business" we would have sympathized with his viewpoint and thought he was doing as any reasonable man would. And the verdict—tut-tut—a tempest in a teapot.

The students will continue to plunk down their four-bits in the middle of the week to see the shows, or stay at home and save the said four-bits. Cheerio, and the best of good wishes. Mr. Kenworthy. And remember, high blood pressure is dangerous.

GRID SPORTLIGHT

By Bill Pohlman

Idaho played a whale of a ball game Saturday against Oregon and the boys should have won. It was a case of bad breaks which turned into lucky ones for the Webfooters. Dos Spears has a strong array of talent on his squad, but against the Vandals there was a one-man team. Without the services of Kitzmiller the big Green eleven would have tasted defeat. Anwyay Eugene won't forget Leo Calland and his fighting Vandals for a good many days.

Now we're all set for Spokane and the Gonzaga Bulldogs. The Irish took a bad beating from St. Mary's last Sunday and will be out to take the measure of the Vandals by way of revenge. It's a long time since 1923 and that's the last time the Vandals tied a knot in the Bulldog's tail. Spokane is expecting to see a weak eleven from Moscow, but they are going to be greatly surprised when the red shirts trot onto the field next Saturday all ready for action. Playing Gonzaga is somewhat different from battling Washington and Oregon.

It seems as if Mr. Warner of Stanford is expressing his various opinions a little too freely this year. He claimed Mr. Jones and his U. S. C. the dumbest combination in major collegiate football. After the little grid tussle at Palo Alto Saturday one can't help but wonder how he classes his own combination now with respect to the said Mr. Jones. All this merely indicates the fact that Stanford lost to Southern California by a 41 to 12 score.

Comparative scores seem to indicate that the Golden Bears are only one or two touchdowns better than the Vandals. They dropped a tough game to the Huskies at Seattle Saturday 13 to 0, and the week before Idaho was beaten by the same eleven 27 to 0. Nevertheless Idaho was strong enough to score on Oregon while Washington failed to turn the trick. The Vandals are forced to play three of the most powerful elevens in the country on their schedule. The fight they have waged against the first two should rate them among the first thirty teams in the nation.

Coach Harry Gamage and his Kentucky gridsters are slated to cop head honors in the Southern conference this fall. He has twenty lettermen back from a team that won six, tied one and lost one game last year. The offense is built around their backfield ace, "Shipwreck" Kelly, who uses a shifty pair of hips to carry him through opposing lines and secondary defenses. Kentucky swamped the University of Virginia by a 47 to 0 score last Saturday.

The nation's two outstanding elevens took easy victories from their opponents last week-end. Notre Dame used the first string to run up 35 points against Pittsburgh and only when Rockne sent in his shock troops did the Panthers score their 19 points. Babe Hollingbery of Pullman used every Cougar on his squad during their battle with Montana. All the teams from the first to the fourth seem to function equally well and the final score 61 to 0 indicates the strength of the Washington Staters.

LILLIE GALLAGHER, Editor.

ANOTHER week-end is added to the history of the Idaho social alendar and it is especially characterized by the number and variety of the events scheduled.

The reception given by the Associated Women students in honor of Mrs. Mervin G. Neale last Friday was an outstanding spot of the week-end. Another reception was given on Sunday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock by Alpha Chi Omega in honor of Mrs. Elizabeth Bryant, housemother of the group.

Four group dances took place on Friday evening. Three of them, the Alpha Chi Omega dance at the Blue Bucket inn, the Alpha Phi and Pi Beta Phi dances at their respective houses, were in honor of pledges of the groups. The other dance on Friday evening was the informal dance given by Hays hall.

On Saturday evening the Co-ed prom, annual masquerade party for women students, was the only function scheduled. The motley and diversified characters presented a colorful picture as they took part in the grand march. Original and entertaining stunts were presented during the evening by the different group houses. The Kappa Alpha Theta stunt was awarded the prize.

Something different in a social event was the dinner-theater party given by Beta Chi on Sunday. The new Beta Chi house was the scene of a dinner after which the party adjourned to the Kenworthy theater.

Tonight is the date set for Miss Agnes Bothne's vocal recital, to be held in the university auditorium at 8 o'clock. Miss Bothne is a dramatic soprano and her program promises much that is inspiring and beautiful.

FROSH GRIDSTERS SHIFTING LINEUPS

Seven Regulars on Bench as Eve of Big Game With Kittens Nears

With seven regulars on the crippled list, the Vandal freshmen will stage intensive practice sessions this week in the serious task of developing a combination with which they hope to upset the heavyweight Cougar Kittens next Saturday in Pullman.

Earl Smith, quarterback; Cy Bearson, full; Cy Geraghty, half; Clayton Hadley, tackle; Bill Brailsford, tackle; Linn Roberts, half; and Howard Webb, tackle, are the regulars who have seen little action in the past week.

The Spokane university game, regular scrimmage and Tuesday night's tussle with the varsity each took toll in the frosh ranks. Coach Glenn Jacoby is taking no chances on more injuries before his proteges go up against the Cougar Kittens in what is considered their big game.

Howard Webb is the only man seriously injured. Jacoby expects all of his men to be in shape for the Washington State freshmen next Saturday. The Babes have one of the strongest freshman teams in the history of Idaho and hope points to an Idaho victory this year.

FIFTY WOMEN SIGN FOR FENCING

New Sport Proves Popular With Co-eds; Horseshoe Winners Announced

Fifty women signed up Friday for the first meeting of their new W. A. A. sport, fencing. The activity will probably count on half a credit in P. E. for all girls above the freshman class. Dr. E. E. Hubert, of the school of forestry, is in charge of the class and said that all of the women have ordered equipment which will be here soon. The class will meet at 4 p. m. every Friday.

Volleyball for women began last week. All girls who attend 75 per cent of the classes will receive 10 points for W. A. A., even if they do not make the team.

The second round of the tennis tournament has been delayed by weather and the time limit has been extended indefinitely.

The regular girls horseshoe tournament has been completed and the groups of contestants were divided into thirds according to the score made. The upper third won 25 points towards the W. A. A. middle, 15 points and the lower ones 10 points. Plans are now being made for an intra-mural women's horseshoe match. A cup will be given to the winning house. At present the Delta Gamma's hold the cup for last year.

The girls that received points in the horseshoe tournament that was just finished are: 25 points—Mary Louise Green, Grace Eldridge, Alice Ernk, Mildred Axtell, Florence Ruder, Mildred Budrow, Ruth Kehner, Grace Warren, Marjorie Budrow, Florence McBratney, and Lois Thompson.

BUCKET DOLLARS ROLL IN FREELY

Business Manager Has All Ads Sold; One Thousand Copies at 10 Cents Each

"The Blue Bucket magazine looks as if it will be a financial success this year," said Ralph Hagen, editor, yesterday. "Jimmy Mitchell, business manager, has worked hard and has all the advertising we can handle. With the new price at a dime, we expect to sell more issues than ever, and have bigger gate receipts than in the past."

Last year the "Bucket" was a financial liability to the A.S.U.I. for several hundred dollars. Twenty students seemed to be more than the students wished to pay for an issue, authorities on circulation say.

This year with the reduced price it is thought that over 700 copies will be sold on the Moscow campus and about 200 at Pocatello. The remainder of the issue will be sold to alumni at homecoming.

Hagen has scheduled the "Bucket" to be off the press, Thursday, November 6.

NEW ADVERTISING SCHEME COMING

Free Note-book Dividers Is Merchants Innovation

A new type of advertising is to be introduced to the Idaho students this week by free loose-leaf note book indexes, consisting of six regular dividers of two sizes. The sets are used for advertising by Moscow and Spokane merchants.

A space for the student's name, address and telephone number is reserved on the front page. The second page carries a complete university calendar for the first semester. On other pages are the phone numbers of each fraternity and sorority house and the men's and women's halls. The football schedule and part of the basketball and a schedule of final examinations are additions. A list of A.S.U.I. officers, names of class officers and Women's Athletic association officers complete the line-up. The rates for long-distance telephone calls to neighboring towns are also included.

The larger of the indexes will be distributed to the various group houses about next Wednesday. About 1900 copies are to be printed.

CAVALRYMEN PLAN NEW RIDING CLASS

An Equestrian Club for Women Will Hold Its First Meeting on Wednesday Afternoon. Riding classes for co-eds will be organized Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the cavalry armory under Capt. Harry Brenn, commanding officer of troop.

There will not be more than 20 to a class. As many classes as necessary will be organized. "Riding habits will not be needed at the organization meeting," added Captain Brenn.

TRI DELT PLANS MADE PUBLIC SOON

Several plans for a new Tri Delt house across from the Alpha Phi house are being seriously considered at the present time, according to Virginia Peck, house president. Building is to begin early in March so that the house will be ready for occupancy at the opening of the fall term next year. The new house will provide for 30 girls. No decision as to the exact plan for the building has been reached, however. Further development will be made public soon.

LOST
A small dark blue purse at the A. W. S. tea last Friday afternoon. A card in it had the name Mrs. Nathan Hadley Clark on it. Will the finder please return the purse to Mrs. Clark, housemother of Forney hall?

INTRAMURAL RUN PLANS COMPLETED

Fraternity candidates for the annual intra-mural cross-country run will assemble Thursday at 4 o'clock on MacLean field. This year runners will be in condition due to a rule by Coach Leo Calland forbidding any man to run who has not tried out at least six times.

From the group of 20 winners the high men will probably be asked to run for the varsity.

All the houses have not turned in a complete list of their three entries in the event. These entries must be in the hands of Charles Heath, manager, by noon Wednesday. Those houses who do not enter will forfeit 25 points towards the intra-mural cup.

There will be 20 places in the run with points ranging from 20 for the first man to 1 for the twentieth. Of the 25 men who have turned out for varsity cross-country all except one are eligible. Any man is eligible who has not won his varsity letter or frosh numeral in track.

HANDBOOKS OUT THIS THURSDAY

Directory Will be Issued to Students from Registrars Office

Idaho's 1930-31 student directory will be ready for distribution Thursday morning, reports the university publication department.

Directories will be distributed from the registrar's office, and not from tables in the main hall. Students may obtain a copy only upon presentation of A. S. U. I. books.

In previous years a 10 cent deduction has been made from the general deposit to assist in defraying expenses but this year the directory will be given to all students free of charge.

ENGINEERS HOLD ANNUAL SMOKER

Over 125 members of the Associated Engineers attended the annual engineer's smoker held in the basement of the memorial gymnasium Saturday night.

Entertainment included boxing bouts between Dick Storch and Steve Pople, Vernon Elixon and William Baird, and a "mystery boxing match" between Lawrence "Sluggo" Smith and Clarence "Kid" Conway.

Willard Wilmath succeeded in winning in a wrestling match, two successive falls over Joe Peckanac.

Music was added to the entertainment by Kenneth Henstley, Ronald Smith, and Martin Rosell, who sang popular songs between bouts.

MRS. LATTIG RETURNS
Mrs. Vaughn Prater Lattig, Spanish instructor, will return to Moscow today from Boise where she was called 10 days ago because of the illness of her mother.

JUNIOR TO MIX WEDNESDAY NIGHT

First Mingle of the Year Scheduled for This Week At Blue Bucket

Informality will be the keynote of the first junior class mixer this year, which is to be held at the Blue Bucket from 8 to 10:30 Wednesday evening.

Admission will be fifty cents. No dates are allowed. All girls will be expected to wear sport attire, while men will be resplendent in the official upperclassman's cords. So far, no prize has been announced for the most unclean who during the intermission period.

Dean Fermeal French and Dean and Mrs. Masterson will officiate in the capacity of patron and patronesses. The committee in charge of the mixer consists of Paul Jones, chairman, Austa White and William Ennis.

OREGON HOODOO PURSUES VANDALS

The Vandals led by Sather opened an aerial drive in the closing minutes which carried the ball deep in Webfoot territory and several times threatened to score. Once Sackett crossed the goal on the receiving end of a beautiful toss from Sather, but the score was not allowed. Sather also passed 20 yards to Hanford who trotted 34 yards before being stopped and only a dogged stand by the Oregon forward had prevented a tally.

The Oregonians gathered 273 yards from scrimmage while the Vandals were chalking up 168. Their large advantage was due chiefly to the efforts of Kitzmiller pair, but special new and different team's total. Idaho held a distinct margin on passes, completing eight. The Webfoot made good seven tosses. Oregon amassed 15 first downs to the Vandals 5.

U. of California has a tradition of starting classes off with a school song for one week.

HOMECOMING PLANS ARE BEING MADE

that the programs will be printed by November 1. They will be sold at the game by the Spurs.

Captain Crenshaw has volunteered the services of the military department in handling traffic and guarding fences. Intercollegiate Knights will handle the ushering, while the manager's club has charge of ticket sales.

hotel are full for both Friday and Saturday nights. Many people throughout the town are offering their help in taking care of the excessive crowd that is expected. Dances are being held at the Memorial gymnasium on both nights. Friday night, following the bonfire rally, the Intercollegiate Knights are sponsoring a "rough house" mixer, and Saturday night an alumni dance is being given.

Saturday noon, Blue Key is holding its annual alumni dinner at the Blue Bucket. William Galigher is in charge of the dinner, and invitations have been sent out to alumni of the organization.
