Sweldom Strolls. NEW YORK.—Fifth Avenue was the scene of much promenading on Easter Sunday. Overcast clouds did not keep smartly-gowned women and top-hatted and bearded men from strutting down "Style Street" with their new finery.

The three principal downtown gambling establishments were jammed. All games were being operated at full speed, and it was almost impossible for late comers to get a table.

Times Speedy Thing. NEW YORK.—His "last great experiment" is now being performed by Dr. Albert A. Michelson from his sick bed. While a physician vigilantly watches the slowing circulation and the weakened heart of the 79-year-old scientist, the latter is attempting to time the fastest known thing, light.

Egged On by Children. MATTON, Ill.—A theater offered admission to children at one egg each, the eggs to be given to charity. GETS RARE "DODO" AT MANITO LINKS

Mac O'Brien Shoots Hole-in-one And Has Necessary Witnesses

Mac O'Brien, junior in the pre-medical curriculum, had a lifetime dream come true Sunday. He achieved the golden award of golfing, the hopes, aspirations and goal of every golfer—a hole-in-one!

Stepping up to the tee of the 11th hole on the Manito golf course, Spokane, he nonchalantly pulled a niblick from his bag, dealt the death blow, and silently followed the course of the ball as it rolled true and straight toward the cup, took a slight hop and fell in.

Mac, playing with his father, J. Tom O'Brien, and F. J. Clemens, manager of Armour & Company of Spokane, had the necessary witnesses to receive membership in the National Hole-in-one Club. He finished the nine holes with a low score of 36.

O'Brien won the first flight of the Pacific Northwest association golf tournament at the country club of Spokane in 1926. He was junior champion of Spokane in 1927. For the past two years he held the championship of Gonzaga university, where he was enrolled before coming here.

DEAN FRENCH BACK FROM TRIP SOUTH

Enjoys Extended Trip Through Southern Part Of State

Permeal J. French, dean of women, has recently returned from a two weeks' visit to the southern branch of the University of Idaho at Pocatello. Dean French stopped at Boise where she talked to the Catholic Women's league on the "General Contest of Life," which followed a talk previously given by Miss Marian Hepworth. At Pocatello Miss French was enthusiastically received at a reception given by Dean and Mrs. John R. Dyer and Miss Gertrude Bryce, dean of women at the southern branch, at which 300 people were present. Both at this and on other occasions Dean French had an enjoyable time, and was given the opportunity of meeting former Idaho students.

Tuesday noon, Dean French visited the Rotary club. Friday morning she addressed the student body of the university. On Friday afternoon the Dean addressed the senior class of the Pocatello high school. Miss French remarks that there is the keenest interest in the sophomore class of the university in their looking forward to attending the university at Moscow.

Dean French announces that Miss Gertrude Bryce, dean of women, will be a guest of the university this coming week-end. Returning by way of Boise, Dean French responded to an invitation extended by Miss Clara Otness, dean of women of the Boise high school, to speak to the girls of the school. Previous to the address, the officers of the four classes had a delightful luncheon in a private dining room of the Idanha Coffee shop. Beside the 14 young women present, there were also Miss Martin, former dean of women, Miss Josephine Keane, physical education director, and Miss Otness.

Miss French said, "I speak enthusiastically of this particular occasion, where I met in an intimate way those fine young women of the Boise high school." Miss French said a splendid spirit existed and that much enthusiasm was shown for the University of Idaho.

MAY DAY DANCE PLANS ARRANGED

Practice Will Begin on Historic Pageant Scheduled For May 13

Intensive practice on the twenty dances that are to be the main feature of the May day festival on Campus day will start on Monday, April 13, according to Mrs. A. Goff, acting head of the women's physical education department. Campus day has been tentatively set for May 13.

"I will be in my office from 8:30 a. m. until 5 p. m. on the Monday after vacation," said Mrs. Goff, "and I want to see every woman on the campus who is interested. We will need about 150 women. Tryouts will be held all that week, but I would like to see as many as possible on Monday."

Each woman participating in any of the dances will receive 10 points in W. A. A.

Plans for the pageant, the theme of which is to be the history of Idaho, are well under way. Some of the most interesting dances will represent the industries of Idaho. Fruit raising will be depicted by dancers costumed as apples, peaches, cherries, and grapes. Instead of the long-haired backwoodsman usually associated with lumbering in Idaho forests, there will be wood nymphs in leaf green. Shepherding also is to be romanticized and will be shown by dainty shepherdesses in dresses of pastel shades.

OLD MELODRAMA TO BE RE-GIVEN

Original Cast Will Present "Tom Cobb" at Deary On April 14th

"Tom Cobb or Fortune's Toy," the riotous comedy hit presented before Idaho audiences on March 6 and 7 will be given at Deary, Idaho, on Tuesday evening, April 14, by special request.

The entire original cast will make the trip to Deary where one performance will be given under the direction of Fred C. Blanchard, director of dramatics.

This amusing comedy of 1870 met with real success on the Idaho campus at its earlier performances. Its melodramatic situations and a series of harrowing experiences as the discovery of hidden gold, lost wills, cases of mistaken identity, and so on are truly laugh provoking.

Those making the trip, and all members of the original cast are: Leland Cannon, Mountain Home; Merle Frizzelle, Boise; Harry Robb, Nampa; Catherine Brandt, Nampa; John Hancock, Weiser; Ruth Gardner, Boise; Grace Parsons, Boise; Robert Grant, Spokane; and Raphael Gibbs, Moscow.

FIVE IN INFIRMARY

Although there are several students in the infirmary, probably none will be detained over spring vacation, say infirmary nurses. Those who have been confined to the infirmary for several days because of colds, are Dolores Holmes, Bert Branson, Clark Neely, Elvon Hampton, and Charles Brown. Clinic cases have been few.

PRESENTS CHARGES

Charging "flagrant immorality" in the faculty and "misuse of funds" at the University of Oklahoma, Gov. W. H. Murray laid the findings of a secretly conducted "investigation of crime" before the regents of the university for action.

The bronze plaque presented by the Memorial association is now ready to be put up says George E. Horton, secretary. The Alumni association and the American Legion combined under the name of the Memorial association, built the Memorial gymnasium and afterward presented it to the university. In honor of this association the plaque bears the following inscription:

"This Memorial Armory and gymnasium was erected by the patriotic citizens of Idaho in the year of 1928, acting through the instrumentality of the Idaho association." The officers' names are also on the plaque. They are: Robert D. Leeper, Lewiston, president; T. Ward Arney, Coeur d'Alene, vice president; George E. Horton, Moscow, secretary-treasurer; L. V. Patch, Payette, director; Harry Einhouse, Moscow, director.

WOMEN 'NEWSIES' BESIEGE PRINTER

The women journalists will again besiege the tabloid readers of the campus with their version of what a newspaper should be. This publication will appear April 14, viz. i. e., for example, the week following spring vacation.

It will undoubtedly suffer from the harrowing experiences of the staff during this trying lapse in the scholastic battle. It will, however, contain some undefined news, as the co-eds have been putting forth their best efforts for the past few weeks.

The feminine touch will be present in all departments. Boyd's sport shop will appear as "The Sports Shoppe" and its contents will probably cause the original author to push little children into the gutter.

LOSE ARGUMENTS WITH CALIFORNIA

Idaho Debates U. S. Home Ground' On Friday

An audience of 200 students heard the University of Southern California forensic teams win two decisions from Idaho debaters Friday.

The women's teams, composed of Betty Henninger and Cecily Hill of U.S.C. and Elsie McMillin and Lois Porterfield of Idaho, debated on "Resolved: That all nations should adopt a policy of free trade." The Southern California women were awarded the decision by the audience of 20 students.

Ralph Olmstead and John Farouhar, debating for the University of Idaho, were defeated by Emil Steek, Jr., and Glenn Jones, on the subject "Resolved: That the extension of chain stores is detrimental to the American people."

Steck and Jones, juniors in the college of letters, arts, and sciences, are both in possession of Bowen cups, won in the annual all-University Bowen cup extemporaneous speaking contest.

Miss Henninger, captain of the women's debate team of the University of Southern California, is a senior and has participated in 24 debates since her freshman year, never having been defeated. Miss Hilton also has an enviable record, and is a junior in international relations.

BOXERS ALL SET FOR GO TONIGHT

Five University Men to Don Gloves in Moscow Athletic Club Bouts

The amateur boxing card scheduled for the Elks' temple tonight will feature five of the best fighters enrolled in the university, while the rest of the men all have established a high class reputation along the K. O. route.

The Idaho men who will don the gloves against opponents from other inland Empire towns and schools are Bob Blair, Melvin Sackett, Joe Farber, Herbert Owens and Floyd Sullivan who will battle Roy Dunning of Washington State in the main event.

Some of the other bouts of interest feature Luce of Gonzaga and Pierce of W. S. C. who have both had plenty of experience and carry a long string of knockout victories on their belts. Williams and Assam battle in one of the opening bouts and the result should be disastrous for someone as both men have stopped their opponents in every start they have made.

The main event will see two of the best amateur heavyweights in the district tangle in what should be a fast bout that will probably stop short of the limit with someone on the floor. The battlers will enter the ring at 194 pounds and represent a heavyweight championship of Idaho and Washington State.

Dud Franz, who is promoting the card, has made every reservation for a large crowd and completed all arrangements for the bouts last week. He has obtained Aubrey Walden and Carl Smith to be the third men in the ring and handle the stop watches, while Arthur Percival and Bill Terimah will hand out the decisions.

BORAH TO ATTEND CEREMONIES HERE

Accepts Invitation to Assist in Dedication of Outlawry of War Foundation

William E. Borah, Idaho's veteran in the United States senate, has accepted an invitation to be present at the University of Idaho next fall when the Outlawry of War foundation is dedicated in his honor, reports President M. G. Neale.

"So far as I can see now, I shall be with you and very happy to be with you," he wrote Dr. Neale. Salmon O. Levinson, Chicago attorney who established the $50,000 foundation in the interests of world peace two years ago, has also been invited, but to date no word has been received from him.

The dedicatory exercises will be held September 24 and 25, shortly after the opening of the 1931-32 university year. Dr. Manly O. Hudson of Harvard university, one of the outstanding authorities in the country on international law and relations, has been secured for a series of four lectures, the chief feature on the program.

Governor C. Ben Ross and other state officials, members of the board of regents and prominent Idaho citizens will be invited to the university for the dedication. Details of the program will be worked out by a faculty committee.

N. P. GIVES RATES FOR SHORT STAY

Special Round Trip Fare to Spokane Is Set at $3.

A special train will leave Wednesday at 4:15 p. m. on the Northern Pacific for Spokane. Round-trip rates of $3 can be had if the student goes on the special. The return ticket can be made on any Northern Pacific train within ten days. It is necessary for 125 students to go on the special in order to get the reduced rate.

R. S. Morris, agent, urges all students to get their tickets today and early tomorrow in order to avoid the rush. He also announced last night that the train would make no stops between Moscow and Spokane.

Rates for ten or more students on any other train than the special to any point on the Northern Pacific or its connections will be fare-and-a-third. That would make the rate to Spokane $4.15.

SOCIOLOGY CLASS PLANS FIELD TRIP

Fifteen Students Will Visit Spokane Courts and Social Settlement This Week

Fifteen students will accompany Prof. T. S. Kerr of the political science department, on the annual sociology field trip to Spokane Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of this week.

Permission has been given by the class by Judge Joseph B. Lindsley to visit the juvenile court. They will also attend one session of the Police court, and visit the Hutton social service settlement, located about nine miles out of Spokane.

The Spokane Social Service bureau will be another of the places visited, and social case workers will take girls with them on trips through the city. If this has been feeding unemployed, is still continued, the class will see this. The hotel is located in the old Schade brewery building.

Is Good Trip.
"Students in the past have been well pleased with the trip," said Professor Kerr. "It is an object lesson in sociology. I anticipate that it will be profitable."

GEOLOGY BUILDING BEING REMODELED

Library Being Enlarged; One Class-room Is Added

Alterations which will provide long needed additional space in the Geology building were begun this week by a crew of university carpenters. The improvements include construction of a balcony on two sides of the building, one new classroom, a woman's lavatory and extensive alterations in the school of mines library.

The mines library will occupy a room enlarged to 12 feet square. When completed, it will have 1100 feet of shelf space and a reading table.

Stacks of valuable technical publications which have been piling up for lack of shelf space will be available to students. A shipment of books donated by Arthur Winslow, wealthy Boston mining man, will occupy a separate section. Mr. Winslow's gift was a complete set of the transactions of the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers, comprising about a ton of bound volumes.

For Museum Cases.
The balcony will extend along the east and north sides of the building, next to the roof and skylights, with a flight of stairs leading up from the main corridor. The new space will be used for geological museum cases.

A small wing of the building next to Morrill hall will be partitioned off as a classroom.

SUPPLY AUTOS WITH OWN GAS

University To Install Pump in Front of "U" Hut.

A gasoline pump and a tank for supplying university owned cars have been purchased and are to be installed in front of the "U" hut in the near future, reports R. W. Lind, superintendent of buildings and grounds. The university will not be exempt from paying the regular state tax on gasoline. According to Lind, most colleges maintain their own gasoline supplies for their cars.

The tank and pump will be put up as soon as workmen complete the planting of the hedge around the Memorial gymnasium, from the foot of the hill near the building, to the fence on the Pullman road.

As part of the beautifying campaign, the Alquist property, about two acres, across from the dairy building, has been purchased. The old houses and sheds on the land are being torn down, and the trees will also be cut down.

TRI DELTA HOME TO BE READY FOR FALL OCCUPANCY

$40,000 House Designed by Tacoma Architects; Bond Sale Started Monday

Forty thousand dollars will be spent for building a brick Colonial-Georgian house for the Delta Delta Delta sorority at the corner of Elm and Sixth streets directly opposite the Alpha Phi house.

The sale of bonds was started yesterday by the firm of Lee Gregory and Laurence Huff, Moscow. Present plans call for ground being broken in May. The house will be ready for occupancy at the beginning of the fall semester of 1931-32.

The house as designed by Heath, Gove and Bell, Tacoma architects, will accommodate 35 women. The three story house will have a symmetrical shape on the ground floor which includes a dining room and living room.

Four dormitory sections will be a feature of the new house. Two sections each will be on the second and third floors. A study and library will be on the second floor.

Terrace Is Feature.
On the rear of the house at the second floor will be a canopied terrace. During warm weather it will be used for an outdoor study and lounging room.

The house will have two living rooms. One on the ground floor facing Elm street, and the other will be on the second floor, also facing the front. The first will be used for the entertainment of guests, and the up-stairs room will be exclusively for the members of the sorority.

"The entire idea of the new Tri Delta house is comfort. It will be more than a place merely to live," commented a member of the university faculty who had seen the plans.

First "Small" Job.
Heath, Gove and Bell, architects, were secured by friends of the local group acquainted with Mr. Gove. The proposed Tri Delta house is the first piece of structure designed under $100,000 that the Tacoma firm has ever handled. The Tacoma firm has designed many public administration buildings for Coast cities and for the federal government. They are given an outstanding rating by the Society of American Architects.

Five thousand dollars is being loaned by the national organization of Delta Delta Delta. Theta Tau chapter here. The national building supervisor, Amy O. Parmelee, will be consulted on the furnishings of the new sorority home.

The property was bought outright from William Bolander two years ago. The First Trust and Savings bank of Moscow is trustee for the project.

Oversmith Is Advisor.
A. H. Oversmith, Moscow attorney, is financial advisor and legal counsel for the sorority. Dean R. H. Farmer, business school, is faculty advisor for the group. Gregory and Huff, who are handling the bond sale, are both Idaho graduates. Laurence Gregory was graduated in 1921, and Lee Gregory in 1922.

The local chapter of Delta Delta Delta was founded as Omega Alpha in 1925. The original founders were Mrs. Dorothy Fox, Jean Collett, Viola Welker, Viola McDowell White, Herma Albertson, Glendolen Smith, Florence Oberg Anderson, Pearl Cordray, Madge Lough, and Allegra Eckles. The first president was Pearl Cordray.

Granted National in 1929.
Omega Alpha was granted its charter by Delta Delta Delta in May, 1929, as the Theta Tau chapter. The present officers of the group are Virginia Peck, president; Margaret Grohowsky, vice president; Katherine Mikkelsen, treasurer, and Dorothy Torgerson, secretary. Geneva Handy is chairman of the building committee of which Katherine Mikkelsen, Virginia Peck, Mary Lou Griffith and Norma Longseteg are the other members.

The Tri Deltas at present live in a cottage at the corner of Deacon street and University avenue. This house will be turned back to R. S. Butterfield, owner, from whom the group has rented it.

MINERS PLAN TWO GEOLOGICAL TOURS

Annual Boat Trip up Snake River To be Renewed

The geology department of the university is planning two field trips to take place during the next month. The first of these trips is sponsored by Sigma Gamma Epsilon, national honorary mining fraternity.

This tour will take place during spring vacation. The men will leave at five o'clock Thursday morning for Riggins, Idaho, and will return sometime Sunday.

The other trip planned for the week following spring vacation is up the Snake river. The party will leave here in cars and proceed to Lewiston where they will take a boat up the Snake river for about 100 miles. The trip will take 3 days.

This tour affords the student an excellent view of the broad expanse of geology exposed there as any other place in the United States. Dr. Laney said.

This trip has long been an annual event in the school of mines, last year being the first in some time that the trip was not made.

Platonic Love, Precocious, Nit

A COLLEGE education must be valuable when collegians attend motion picture presentations to sit attentively on the edge of their seats to every word of the dialogue in order to acquire some polished word or phrase. The insertion of a "hon mot" in anyone's conversation is not an evil to be condemned—but the dictionary should be consulted.

"Platonic love" is an example. One co-ed heard Norma Shearer, winner of last year's award of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences for the outstanding performance, use the phrase. For the next week everything revolved around "Platonic love." It was a good phrase, but the co-ed had the meaning turning in reverse. She thought that she knew what she meant—but she didn't.

The co-eds are not the only victims of the "sophisticated" habit. A college man was heard saying a certain woman of his acquaintance was "pre-cash-us." He was trying to say "pre-ko-shush." Incidentally, he was attempting to convey to his auditors that said woman was "one plug nickel in an empty slot machine."

Another catch piece of the moment—God only knows how it came into the vocabulary of the moment—is the word "nit." Refer to a dictionary before entering that word in the next conversational fray. Perhaps one should say "nix" instead of "nit."

The talking motion pictures will no doubt standardize us on a national enunciation—but enterprising theatre owners might supply dictionaries with the dialogue.—C.C.G.

SLEEPER SAM

O-HELL-O... My My what trying times this is for the deans of the university. For the past week they have listened to so many sob stories that their offices are flooded. It seems that the poor worn out students simply must leave early for spring vacation. The latest reports on excuses used this year show 500 very ill or dying parents, 872 students who must have their tonsils removed, 90 cases of appendicitis and innumerable bad eyes. The little devils... you can't let them out of your sight a minute.

SS

LAMENT.

We want some action taken. On the latest things we've seen, since the lowly frosh has given up the wearin' o' the green. Since the sophomore goes hatless and sports a pair of cords. We'd like to see the I club A' swingin' on the boards.

HAVE A DRY VACATION!!!

Flying Teacher May Land Her Plane On Airport Here Tuesday

The flying school teacher, Miss Evelyn Wenstrom, the only woman in Idaho to have a pilot's license, who is flying her own plane, the Aeronca from Boise to Spokane, is scheduled to land at the Moscow airport sometime Tuesday.

Miss Wenstrom, a Latin instructor at the Boise high school, arrived in Lewiston Monday noon. She will continue her flight Tuesday to Spokane, where she will attend the Inland Empire Teacher's association. She plans to stop a few hours in Moscow to visit friends.

The Aeronca and a companion plane left Boise Saturday morning and were forced to land in La Grande, Ore., Saturday evening because of a high wind. Due to the continuance of adverse weather conditions the planes were unable to leave La Grande until late Sunday, which delayed their arrival in Lewiston about 12 hours.

NEW RULING TRIED

A recent report sent to the National Student Federation of America from Mount Holyoke college tells of a new examination ruling which will begin this semester and will be conducted as an experiment by the faculty of the school.

The innovation will require seniors to take only three finals in place of the normal five, the two omitted being courses in their major departments. For the entire college there will be a reading period of one week preceding examinations.

A college degree has been estimated to be worth $72,000 by Dean Everett Lord of Boston University. He claims that increased earning power resulting from high education is responsible for the high figure.

BLAIR'S CONDITION PROVING SERIOUS

Gem Editor Is Suddenly Taken With Paralysis

Wayne Blair, editor of the 1931 Gem of the Mountains, is seriously ill in St. Luke's hospital. Spokene, with transverse myelitis, a spinal disease. Earlier reports had said rheumatic pains, but a diagnosis by a Spokane physician showed the unusual spinal disease.

"Serious, with danger of complications" was the report of Dr. Austin J. O'Leary, attending physician, yesterday.

Illness is sudden. The illness developed suddenly four days ago. Blair was removed to the Spokane hospital. Blair is a senior from Spokane. His position in the yearbook is being filled temporarily by Melvin Stewart, associate editor.

Members of the double sextette to make the trip were: Lois Hall, Florence Coughlin, Mary Louise Greene, Margaret Moulton, Eleanor Merriman, Florence Simpson, Laura Brigham, Elizabeth Thompson, Edna Scott, Harriet Baken, and Martha Jean Smith. Assisting with the program were Miss Agnes Bothne, soloist; Harriet Baken, pianist; Bernice Smith, contralto; Jessie Elison and Laura Brigham, sopranos.

UNIVERSITY FIRE TRUCK REHOUSED

Should a major fire break out on the campus, the university will in some measure be prepared to help the Moscow fire department. An old time two-wheeled fire cart, with 500 feet of hose is being installed in a garage under the back steps of the U-Hut.

The hose cart has been housed in the old heating plant for several years. Had it ever been needed, it would have been difficult to drag the hose cart up the embankment to the street. R. W. Lind, superintendent of grounds and buildings, hit on the idea of placing the hand drawn piece of apparatus within easy access.

In every college town there is one outstanding smoking tobacco

At Illinois it's

ALONG Green Street, where campus leaders stroll... in the great state-roofed fraternity houses of Champaign... there is one pipe tobacco which always rolls up the biggest vote. At Illinois it's Edgeworth, every time.

A pipe—Edgeworth. That is the smoking combination which has won the college man. Harvard, Cornell, Michigan, Stanford, Dartmouth—all agree with Illinois. Natural merit has made Edgeworth the favorite tobacco in America's leading colleges and universities.

College men everywhere respond to the appeal of pipes packed with cool, slow-burning Edgeworth. Be guided by their verdict. Try Edgeworth yourself. Find it at your nearest tobacco shop—15¢ the tin. Or, for generous free sample, address: Latus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

ARMY CLASSES HEAR TALK BY CRENSHAW

Annual 'Army Day' Is Observed by War Department.

"Army Day" was the occasion of a talk given by Captain B. M. Crenshaw to all the Monday military classes. According to Captain Crenshaw "Army Day" has been celebrated in the east, for a number of years, but this is the first year that the west has observed the day.

April 6 has been set as "Army Day" because on April 6, 1917 war was declared on Germany and the American army met one of the biggest tests in its history. Captain Crenshaw traced the history of the army since the beginning of the service.

He mentioned not only its war time activities, but also stressed the peace time work of the organization. Among the important peace time activities of the army he enumerated the building of the Panama canal, mapping of the country, stamping out yellow fever, river and harbor activities, flood control, and disaster relief.

Sacrifice to Chinese God of Mines Experience of Finch Idaho Dean Quells Trouble

By Cecil Hagen

Offering two chickens as a sacrifice to the Chinese god of mining to conciliate 250 Chinese miners who were on a strike is a story which students of the school of mines are telling about their dean, Dr. John W. Finch.

Ten years ago that happened, when Dean Finch was general manager of the New York Orient Mines company, operating a mining concession in Yunnan province, not far from the Tibet border. The company sent him to China with a staff of American engineers, diamond drillers and geologists to open up a region known to be rich in silver and lead.

Nearly 500 years before Dean Finch and his staff arrived on the scene the Yunnan mines poured an untold wealth of silver into the coffers of the great Ming emperors. It was under the famous Ming dynasty that China rose to its greatest heights in the arts, literature and economic progress, about the time that Columbus discovered America.

The ancient Chinese mines which Dean Finch and his engineers reopened were located on a high plateau, at an elevation of some 8500 feet above sea level. The altitude and heavy precipitation resulted in a climate bitterly cold for the Americans. Silk tents, warmed by tiny charcoal braziers, proved to be little protection from wind and rain.

The hardy Chinese seemed to be comfortable in their flimsy quarters, but not so the Americans. They decided to build a house. Sod was about the only building material suitable, and it didn't take a gang of coolies supervised by Americans long to erect a creditable sod house. Dean Finch and his engineers built the fireplace, using mortar made from lime burned in an improvised kiln.

Came the day when the house was completed, roofed with thatch, windows of oiled paper admitting light, and a door faced with bamboo matting. Warm and cozy it was, with a blaze roaring in the fireplace. Dean Finch, proud of his handiwork, planned interior improvements. For one thing he wanted a davenport in front of the fire, and a mantel above. He sent coolies on a week's trip to the mountains to saw lumber by hand from trees sufficiently large to make boards.

The coolies turned carpenters, and built a light comfortable settee. Above the fireplace they made a wide mantelpiece, with little cubbyholes for their note books and instruments. Later two more shelves were added as storage space for geological specimens found in the mine.

All went well with the Americans. The Chinese population for many miles around held them in highest respect and awe, extending them every courtesy. If they wanted credit, they received it; were able to buy the choicest foodstuffs; or travel anywhere unmolested. But the sod house never ceased to be a thing of wonder to the Chinese. Always about the entrance there was a chattering group of natives,

SEEK BEST COURSE

P.I.P.A.—From 54 answers received out of 690 questionnaires sent out by Dean Eric W. Allen of the school of journalism, to discover the most useful general course in the work of journalism graduate, it was found that economics, history, and English literature were ranked above the others listed as most helpful.

Weekly Influx of Letters Has Gigue For Dr. Miller

Variety is the keynote of the weekly influx of letters received by Dr. G. M. Miller, head of the department of English.

"A large share of the letters," Doctor Miller says, "are written by Idaho high school students. Some desire general information regarding subjects included in our department, but most of them want copies of English entrance examinations of past years."

The letters which amuse the English department head most are those containing applications for teaching positions. "Persons," he declares, "who don't even know how to capitalize write to us for jobs as instructors at the university."

The pictures enclosed by the applicants also appeal to Doctor Miller's sense of humor. He says there is always something strange about them. Generally the would-be teachers have a serious and artificial expression on their faces. "It is hard, however, to judge a person by his photograph," Doctor Miller adds. "The homeliest picture of a man to enter this office was that of H. Carter Davidson of several years ago. We gave him a position as an instructor in public speaking, regardless of this fact, and found him to be a brilliant fellow. Today he is an instructor at the University of Chicago. Articles by him are appearing in leading magazines, one item being featured in the current issue of the American Mercury."

Hardly a week goes by that the English department doesn't receive requests from women's clubs for advice concerning the arranging of programs. Frequently books are loaned out in regard to work of this kind. "No matter what the letters are," states Doctor Miller, "we try to answer them as satisfactorily as possible."

VANDAL BATSMEN DROP SERIES TO WHITMAN HURLERS

Team Shows Decided Improvement Winning Last Game

By Bill Pohlman.

Rich Fox sent his varsity ball nine onto the Whitman diamond four times last week-end with the club showing vast improvement, and finally grabbing the fourth battle in a fast seven inning contest.

The Vandals landed in Walla Walla Friday noon and began the opening game with no practice. The sluggers faced fast chucking for the first time this season. Daubert and Spaugy pitched great ball in the beginning fray while Spaugy carried the load in the night cap, but the Missionary hitters pointed the batside to win 8 to 4 and 11 to 1. Fox tossed his entire second string into the second game and it was the first chance he had to see his players in action. The mentor was well pleased, however, as the men turned in some "heads up" ball that should be as good as it comes in the conference this spring.

Shows Improvement.

Idaho showed its great strength on Saturday when, with two games under their belts, the squad held Whitman even for 13 innings, finally losing out when the Missionaries shoved across a tally in the fourteenth to win 3 to 2. Lindsay and Jacobs did the hurling for the Vandals and their stunts were tying the Walla Walla men up inning after inning until the one run was sneaked across to sew up the battle.

Idaho Wins Last Game.

The Idahoans came back in the final game and worked their way through seven innings to eke out a narrow 4 to 3 win when Lindsay, after chucking twelve frames the morning game, worked on the mound the first two and lured over the job to Jacobs who held the Missionary batters in check while his mates garnered enough counters to take the game.

The four battles were the opening outdoor practices for the Vandal club this season as the few workouts they took last week were in the form of warming up sessions. The entire squad of twenty men saw action and Fox, not only got a line on his players, but discovered that he has the makings of a real ball club.

Outfielders Chosen.

Duffy, Hayden, Johnson and Jacobson are the four outfielders who saw the most action and will probably bear the brunt of work in the outer pastures against the conference nines this spring. These men are all good sluggers and should win some ball games before the last ball is thrown this year.

Duffy was the best hitter on the varsity last season while Johnson made up for his weak stick work by getting plenty of bases on balls and doing some excellent fielding.

Recruits Show Promise.

Hayden and Jacobson are newcomers this year, but they have shown plenty of stuff and will be fighting it out for the third outfield job. Both men can pound the ball and both have had lots of experience.

Schutte did most of the receiving and turned in some good performances, while Drysdale looked good enough for the company when he donned the big mitt.

The regular infield seems to be settled with Raidy, Lee, Sather and Kyselka stationed at the four posts and Wicks, McCrory and Yanik on the list of reserve men. The inner works should be the strongest part of the nine when they have had time to work together and they should experience no trouble from this source during the coming season.

ABOLISH CONTESTS BETWEEN DISTRICTS

TWIN FALLS—District and inter-district contests previously determined Idaho's high school football championships but were recently abolished by representatives from 11 southern high schools.

Members of the league will schedule their major games against other teams included in the circuit, and will abide by a set of conference rulings promulgated at a meeting held here recently.

Schools in the conference are: Twin Falls, Boise, Rupert, Pocatello, American Falls, Burley, Filer, Blackfoot, Nampa, Idaho Falls, and Blackfoot.

Twin Falls' tentative schedule for the 1931 season will include the following contests: October 2, American Falls; October 9, Rupert; October 16, Boise; October 23, Burley; October 30, Pocatello; November 6, Filer; November 20, Idaho Falls.

The Sport Shop
By Paul Boyd

The meet last week at Pullman revealed one thing, and that is: Idaho is going to have a crackerjack track team. If the weather ever gets so that Anderson can get the men outside, he will increase the strength that is so lacking at the present time. These informal meets have been the need of a great amount of work. These informal meets have been the only times that any Idaho man has been able to throw the platter. If spring gets here and the men can get outside, they should round into shape.

The sprints, shorter than regulation distances, was one of the interesting races of the meet. Swift won both events in fast time, but some comfort can be gleaned from the running of Jossis who finished at the heels of the Cougar. Another interesting race was the half-mile, which was won by Johnny Thomas. Thomas just shaded two minutes to win decisively. He could have cut several seconds from this time if he had been running against mile. "Chuck" was the only Idaho competitor to capture a double win, any competition. Thomas came back to run a close second to Heath in the winning the mile and coasting around to tag a first in the two mile. The Idaho captain is all set for one of the biggest years he has had.

The weight events were not altogether a dead loss so far as point getting was concerned. Williams tossed the shot 41 feet 7 inches for the longest Vandal fling, and yet these men have consistently been above this mark at home.

Alvord and Lemp won their hurdles races in impressive style, although they were pressed to win, they had enough to pull through. McCoy, after clearing the bar by a couple of feet, took a breath and knocked the bar off, getting a tie for first. The height was 12 feet. McCoy, taking three additional leaps, cleared the pole at 12 feet six inches.

Saturday was the first official meet of the year and the winners of the various events are holders of the W.S.C. FIELD HOUSE RECORD in that particular event. It would have been one more for Idaho if McCoy had made the leap sooner. It's almost like shooting the basketball after the whistle blows. Pretty to look at, but no pay-off.

The baseball trip went as was expected. The crew was able to win one of the four games. Two of them were well played, but the other brace were terrible. Twelve or fourteen errors and seven hits per game made it impossible for the club to cop either game of the first doubleheader. The third contest went fourteen innings before Idaho lost. And the fourth game was called at the seventh, giving us our win.

Two pitchers showed that they could hold the opposition when they limited the Missionaries to twelve hits for both games, but you can't win unless you get a run or two yourself. The feeble hitting displayed by the Vandals might be discounted because of lack of practice, but much improvement must be shown before they can compete on even terms with the rest of the conference.

Jacobson and Sather were the only men who were able to deliver any blows that could start a scoring rally. Sadie gathered a double in the second game and Jacobson poled a long triple in the last game.

The Idaho coach took 20 men with him and used them all but two. Since the boys were not hitting any better than they were, it seems logical that substitution should be made to give everybody a chance. That is what these practice games are for. You cannot tell what a man has if he doesn't get an opportunity to display his ware.

Mac O'Brien, the Gaelic boy from Spokane, had the luck of the Irish the other day when he topped his drive into the cup at the 11th green. A shot like that is the dream of every golfer. There is only one dodo in a lifetime, but the thrill is long enough to last.

SIGMA NUS TAKE INTRAMURAL RACE

Defeat Beta Chis in Last Night's Game By 31 To 21 Score

Presenting a smooth working offense and a close checking defense the Sigma Nus won the 1931 intra-mural basketball championship and annexed 100 points toward the intra-mural cup by virtue of a 31 to 21 victory over the Beta Chis in the Memorial gymnasium last night.

The game started fast with both teams checking close but in the second quarter the Sigma Nus opened their bag of tricks to take a 16 to 9 lead and after that the result was never in doubt, although the Beta Chis had numerous chances to cut down the lead. In the first half both teams resorted to spectacular shots to score as it was next to impossible to work the ball under the baskets to get a shot. Time after time the ball found the basket from hard angles and long shots as the eagle eyes got the range.

From the start of the second half the Sigma Nus used a fast breaking offense to garner baskets with Barker and Duffy taking the lead as the score gradually mounted. Jensen, Beta Chi center, kept his team in the running as he broke loose to sink several nice shots, but the team was tiring. In the closing minutes of the game Rust, Beta Chi substitute, came into the game to start a rally that threatened to close the gap, but the final whistle checked the rush.

Barker, Sigma Nu guard, was the high scorer of the game with 4 field goals and 3 free throws for a total of 11 points closely followed by Jensen who accounted for 10 of his teams 21 points.

Williams and Pickes handled the whistles.

He displayed unusual ability, high professional attainments, and valuable services in the operations of his division in the offensives of the Aisne, Marne, Oise-Aisne, Meuse-Argonne, and during the march to the Rhine, said Capt. B. M. Crenshaw. During the World War he held the rank of Colonel of Cavalry. This is Colonel Pillow's first visit to the Idaho campus in his new capacity of R.O.T.C. officer of the ninth corps area, where he relieved Lieut. Col. Edmund C. Waddill last fall.

IDAHO TRACKMEN PLACE SECOND IN TRIANGULAR MEET

Heath, Lemp, Thomas, Alvord, McCoy Place First In Their Events

Idaho's varsity track squad traveled to Pullman last Saturday and engaged in the first regular meet of the season, by fighting their way to a close second in a triangular meet with Washington State and Whitman in which the scores stood Washington State 87 1-6 to Idaho 57 5-6 to Whitman 13.

The Vandals have been handicapped all spring by poor weather, the cramped condition of the inside court and Saturday, three of Anderson's best point getters were off form allowing a Cougar to slip into a first place that ordinarily belongs to an Idahoan.

The squad should have good weather from now on and the Whitman meet on April 25, and the Seattle Relays on May 2 will put the team on edge for the dual meet with Washington State the following week.

Heath, Lemp, Thomas, Alvord and McCoy eased into first places with Heath taking two events, while Jossis and Jensen took some points with two second places each.

It is very evident that we all think that it is best that they wear the cap, but decline the job of enforcing it.
Through the executive board of the ASUI an appeal was made to the "I" club to become the policeman. After some lengthy discussion they have decided to give their support to uphold worthy traditions on the Idaho campus. Members of the student body, regardless of personal feeling, must realize that in doing this the "I" club has done more than any other body to perpetuate traditions as long as they are considered as such. Realizing this, every sophomore, junior and senior should give his undivided support to this project.

The deadline for bare-headed "frosch" has been set for Monday, April 13, and from that time on the lettermen will bear down. Remembering that this job is not of their choosing and is only a service extended to the student, let's give them a little help and a vote of thanks.

MILLER'S WORKS PROVE POPULAR

A circular has just reached the university from the office of Charles Scribner's Sons which states that the English Literature Anthology series, of which Dr. Miller's text in Victorian Literature is the last in number, is now being used in over one hundred fifty universities and colleges representing practically every state in the union. A very hearty commendation of the series is given in the circular from a large number of well-known college professors. In the list of institutions using the series there are 27 state universities and colleges, 14 teachers colleges, and such well-known private institutions as Stanford, Northwestern, Amherst, Dartmouth, Knox, Lehigh, Cincinnati, Pittsburgh, Swarthmore, and Syracuse. Dr. Miller expressed himself as very much gratified at the success of the series of which his book is a part.
