Vincent, commissioner of education, indicate that the disagreement between state educational authorities which kept the legislature in a turmoil has now been peaceably settled by a division of duties and appropriations.

Jimmy Speaks for Himself
ALBANY, N. Y.—Mayor James J. Walker, New York, told Governor Roosevelt this week in a 15,000 word statement that charges against him were "unwarranted and false accusations...recklessly made."

The charges of negligence, filed by Rabbi Stephen S. Wise and Dr. John Haynes Holmes, were met in a bitter reply to each count and with a final declaration that the whole thing was a socialist frame-up.

Warships Protecting Foreigners
TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras—The Honduran nation is under martial law as a result of action taken by its congress for the purpose of stopping a political revolution which began last Sunday on the northern coast.

Youths Dodge Politics
TWIN FALLS, Idaho—Robert D. Leeper, Lewiston, past commander of the Idaho department of the American Legion, told a Democratic audience at a Jefferson day banquet that something quite definite should be done to attract young men to politics. He declared that there had been no vigorous forthright issues in the past 10 years and that young men had not become interested in political parties.

Dreams Worth Money
SAN FRANCISCO—Now is the time to cash in on your bad dreams. Mrs. Jean Sheehy and her daughter, Miss Helen Sheehy, have had nightmares almost every night since a street car collision in which they figured in November, 1930.

They thought that $5,500 and $4,900 would calm their spirits, but a superior court jury decided that $350 would do it.

Another Ocean Hop, Maybe
NEW YORK—Rumors of an authentic air hop can be had that Miss Ruth Nichols, holder of women's speed flight records, would make a solo flight to Paris within the month. She would travel the "Lindbergh Route" in an airplane twice as powerful and between 50 and 75 miles an hour faster than the "Spirit of St. Louis."

Scratch Ballots
GLADSTONE, Ill.—Every man for himself and "the devil take the hindmost" was the motto which moved the people at the recent village election. Forty three votes were cast for village offices and 43 different names were written in.

Storms Hit Northwest
SEATTLE—Wind gales and forest fires have lashed the Pacific Northwest furiously the last few days. A half dozen major forest fires in widely separated sections of Washington are raging in the strong winds, while hundreds of men are fighting them.

Communications and travel in Oregon was seriously disrupted by high winds.

Spain Gets Oked Sien
WASHINGTON—The United States yesterday extended recognition to the new republican government of Spain.

The principal nations of Europe and South America had already extended recognition and the acceptance of the new national form by the United States closely followed the recognition extended by the British Empire.

REGISTRAR VISITS EASTERN COLLEGES

Miss Ella Oleson, university registrar, will return from Buffalo, New York, May 3, according to reports coming from the office of the president. Miss Oleson represented the university at a meeting of the Collegiate Registrars of the United States which was held on April 21, 22, and 23. After the convention she will spend some time in visiting other institutions in connection with her work.

She has been the national vice-president of the registrars' association for the past year and has taken an active part in the national affairs of that organization.

MANY REGISTER FOR NEWS TRIP

Journalism Students Will See Chronicle Plant

"Early registrations indicate we'll have a large group on our Spokane trip," says Elmer F. Beth, assistant professor of journalism, who is arranging the "field trip" to inspect the Spokane Chronicle building, April 30.

"Registrations close on Sunday, April 26. The round-trip fee of $4 may be paid to me in 104 Administration, or to the arrangements committee: Miss Ethel Grove, Miss Elsie Lafferty, Wayne Farley, and Jack Puhl."

"Any student interested in journalism is invited to come along. That includes, of course, Argonaut workers."

"We may inspect KHQ broadcasting station and commercial engraving plant, also, if the group wishes."

PEP BAND SHOW FEATURES GOOD MUSIC, DANCING

Two Hour Program Thrilled Audience With Television Radio Idea

A full house greeted the Pep band show Wednesday night for its annual two hour extravaganza of color and rhythm. Seventeen concert pieces and nine acts of vaudeville made the bill. The theme was the "Television Idea."

The show opened with a 43-minute formal concert by a 20-piece band under the supervision of William Ames. "Largo," the second number played, was one of the most difficult attempted. Originally written for at least a 75-piece symphony orchestra, it was well handled by the 20 instruments.

The ten Victor Herbert favorites were well received by the student audience. Each of the popular pieces was played with a verve and skill that spoke well for the talent of the campus musicians, critics said.

"Laurels of Victory," the last on the formal program, was quick in tempo and light in theme structure. It prepared the audience for the last half of the bill.

Harper Stops the Show
Jimmy Harper, tap dancer, delighted the patrons of the "Television Idea," and he was called for an encore after Paul Boyd, announcer, telegraphed the home studios. "The stair step conclusion was the acme of footwork," a dance critic commented. Harper is a former Fancho-Marco hooper.

"Would You Like to Take a Walk" is being hummed from one end of the campus to the other since Regna Campbell and Glenn Exum presented it in the third act. Light changes during the song helped the duet express the moods of the verse.

Dorothy Lindsey, leg dancer, startled the students with solo splits and kicks during the "Mood in Blue" number. A dozen women coached by Jessie Hutchinson, were in the chorus for a background to the feature dancer.

"What Good Am I Without You" was declared by critics to be one of the heaviest solo numbers in the entire show. Catherine Brandt expressed every interpretation of the song.

During the entire presentation the 14-piece stage band played drags, heavy rhythm numbers, or soft accompaniments. A four piece syncopation band featured Milton Pelum on the saxophone.

"The show didn't make a much money, since it was only a one night stand," William Hawkins, business manager said.

But we were not a drag on the ASUI funds, which is something.

All stage lighting was done without spots, flood lights being used with colored screens for light changes, by Martin Kiebert, head electrician. A tinted gauze curtain, hung before the stage, created the illusion that the television show was being seen by television radio.

Loudspeakers handled announcements and helped to create the year of 1945 illusion.

OVERTIME WORK WINDS UP GEM

Melvin Stewart, associate editor of the 1931 Gem of the Mountains, left Wednesday for Boise with the final material for this year's book. The staff worked until 2 o'clock Wednesday morning mounting pictures and preparing final copy for Stewart to take south.

Wayne Blair, editor, is in a Spokane hospital slowly recovering from a stroke of paralysis. During his absence Stewart has been acting editor. Work has followed the schedule drawn by Blair before his illness. Stewart will consult with the Symms-York Printing company concerning the typography of the annual which will be off the press in a few weeks.

Paul Miller, organization editor, will leave for Boise next week to assist Stewart in the final checking of proofs. Both will return to Moscow early in May.

The year-book is usually distributed about June 1. This year's book will be the same size as last year's, but will have more pages. New views of the campus and unusually fine art work feature this year's Gem, the editors say.

Surprise Freshmen Wednesday Minus Traditional Headgear

Crack! Crack! No, the sounds were not caused by a fresh outbreak of Peeping Tom. The "T" men were doing some paddling.

A large number of freshmen coming to class Wednesday morning minus their green dinks, were surprised to see a reception committee of lettermen, awaiting them in front of the Administration building. It has been so long since the first-year men have been paddled for not wearing their verdant caps that they couldn't have been more astonished if they had been presented with medals for bravery in daring to disregard the tradition.

For several minutes before eight o'clock, the "T" men administered paddings to all freshmen without caps. No more than three first-year men have been paddled wearing their distinctive headgear for the last month, but a few more caps were in evidence since it had been rumored that the lettermen had had a meeting recently.

EXECUTIVE BOARD REJECTS PETITION OF INDEPENDENTS

Names of Nominees Will Not Appear on Election Ballot

Efforts of the new party to get the names of their candidates printed on the ballots were blasted Tuesday night when the Executive Board rejected a petition asking for that right, by a six to four vote. Charles Graybill, student body president, and chairman of the board, pointed out that to approve the petition would be a direct violation of the ASUI constitution.

Names not on Ballot
The names of the independent candidates will not appear on the ballot in the election but it is probable that blanks will be left for writing in names.

Prospects of the independents were given an impetus early in the week when one of the mens' groups withdrew from Alpha party but leaders of the organization were not particularly concerned last night over the withdrawal. All of the other members of the organization have adopted a "stand pat" policy. Indications that both of the women's halls had swung solid to the independent ticket were dispelled last night when several of its leaders in the two groups decided to remain with the party.

The independent faction was given a setback recently when two of the strongest candidates withdrew their names from the ballot. Katherine Mikkelsen, who was nominated for senior woman, and Bob Harris, nominee for junior man, both asked that their names be left off the party ticket.

COLUMNIST TALKS AT LAST ASSEMBLY

Tells Students How to Make Poetry Pay Dividends

Stoddard King, poet and humorist, was again a guest of the university at the regular assembly Wednesday morning. Prof. T. S. Kerr, chairman of the assembly committee, who made a special trip to Spokane to induce King to speak here, introduced the speaker.

King started his speech with the title "How to Make Poetry Pay." The later changed it several times, finally calling it, "The Function of Poetry in the Modern Home." The speech, however, remained the same as it was originally intended. His personality is best expressed in the reading of some of his own poetry.

Poems which he read were, "In the Garden," "The Refrigerator," "The Angeworm," "The Marabout the House," "The Raspberry Tree," and "The Diet."

HASHERS TO DANCE AT ANNUAL DANCE

The third annual Hasher's dance will be held May 12, according to Henry Lacy chairman. Tickets are on sale at Fruecke's Senior hall. To date it is the only event scheduled on the calendar for Campus Day eve.

All hashers, in any of the houses or halls are expected to secure tickets for the dance and to assist in selling them.

Programs have been ordered, and if they arrive in time, will be distributed with the tickets, if not, they may be secured later.

PROFESSORS BACK FROM BOISE TRIP

Professor J. H. Johnson of the electrical engineering department arrived in Moscow after a trip to Boise to the annual committee meeting of the Idaho committee on the relation of electricity to agriculture.

Several floats, prepared by students in the various departments, will be in the parade which is to be over half a mile long.

In the evening there will be a miniature parade of young animals and Shetland ponies.

The traditional milking contest will be conducted in an original way. The committee in charge, promises something very much worth while, but would not divulge the nature of the event.

ENGINEERS PLAN MEETING FRIDAY

Institute Chapters to Hold Dinner Here at Blue Bucket

The members of the Spokane chapter of the American Institute of Electrical Engineers and the student chapters of Washington State college and Idaho will hold a meeting Friday night at 8 o'clock at the Blue Bucket inn.

The following papers will be presented: "A Progress Report on a Short Circuit Model of the Washington Water Power Company System," by Clarence L. Holmes of W. S. C.; "Short Circuit Transient on Synchronous Generators," by Robert Pennoyer of Idaho; "Fundamentals of Carrier Telephony," by Loren A. Traub of Spokane.

A dinner is being arranged at the Blue Bucket inn for all those that can come early. A charge of 50 cents will be made.

This meeting is being held in connection with the W. S. C. Engineers' show, which is going on now. All the Spokane men and many of the Idaho engineers plan to attend this show.

FOUR IN INFIRMARY

Four students are reported confined to the infirmary this week. Violet Bohman is receiving medical attention because of an infected finger. Cy Bearson was hurt in football practice Tuesday and is being treated for an injured knee. Dick Storch and Ramona Cusick are ill with colds.

REVOLVE STAGE FOR MAY SHOW

Three Dimension Back Drop Designed for Little Theater

A revoluting stage of three dimensions will be the feature of the whimsical fantasy, "The Death of Tintagles" when it is presented in the Little Theater early in May.

Each turn of the set produces a new angle in the background, critics say. The set is constructed of paper mache and wood. It was designed by Prof. Theodore Prichard, art and architecture head.

The fantasy is being produced for the annual art and architecture exhibit in May. Rehearsals under Coach Fred C. Blanchard have been held for the past week. This will be the first play to be given in the new U-Hut intimate theater.

NATIONAL GUARD INSPECTION WILL BE HELD SUNDAY

Will Cover Equipment And Personnel in Annual Review

A federal inspection of Troop K, 116th cavalry, will be held here next Saturday and Sunday, stated Captain H. A. Brenn, commanding officer of the local unit. Saturday afternoon Colonel R. A. Emsod of Fort Douglas, Salt Lake City, and Captain Joseph E. Rogers, regular army instructor stationed at Boise, will be in Moscow to make a personal federal inspection of Troop K. It is anticipated that they will be accompanied by Colonel M. G. McConnel, adjutant general of Idaho, and Major Frank H. Townley of Welter, and commander of the third battalion which includes the Moscow and Lewiston troops.

Inspect Troop Saturday
Saturday afternoon and evening these officers will inspect the administrative functions of the troop, its records, and the armory and equipment. At 9 a. m. Sunday morning the troop personnel will be inspected in close order drill, both mounted and dismounted, and also the automatic rifle platoon. Immediately after troop inspection the specialists will be questioned on their various duties, which includes the supply sergeant, mess sergeant, cooks, butler, and troop clerk," further stated Captain Brenn.

Public Invited
The inspecting officers will leave Moscow Sunday afternoon to inspect Troop I at Lewiston. Captain Brenn extends a cordial invitation to the public to attend the inspection at Moscow, and anticipates that the troop will leave with difficulty in passing satisfactorily. They now have the record attendance of any regiment, and have fully covered all of the work scheduled.

June 6 to 21 inclusive is the date set for the summer encampment this year at Boise. A special train carrying all necessary equipment for camp will leave Moscow on the morning of June 6 and from here pick up the successive troops on through to Boise.

PRACTICE CLASSES INSTRUCT MANY

University Cadets Spend First Week Observing Methods

Forty seven university students have been attending high school classes this and last week for practicing teaching laboratory work.

During the first week the practice teachers observed the methods used. They have assisted in laboratory periods and have helped correct exercises at the high school, Whitworth, and Russell schools. The cadets have acquainted themselves with the courses taught and the objectives sought. Lesson plans were compiled this past week and the university students took the classes while the teachers watched.

Last semester only 25 university students were enrolled for practicing teaching. With the assistance of the course this semester some difficulty was found in designating one class to each university student. Whitworth school took 14; Russell, 13; and the high school had 20.

"The practice work is an added responsibility," said Fulton Gale, superintendent, speaking for the Moscow schools, "but it adds to the esprit de corps of the present teachers when they are helping Idaho's future teachers."

TO REPEAT PLAY SUNDAY NIGHT

"The Rock" to be Offered at Methodist Church Next Sunday;

To accommodate the 200 or more who were turned away last Sunday night and others who were unable to attend, the Wesley Foundation players will repeat the play, "The Rock" next Sunday evening at the Methodist church at 7 o'clock.

Those who witnessed the performance Sunday night were enthusiastic. The stage setting and lighting effects were unique and the young people interpreted the difficult roles with effectiveness.

SENIORS DELAYING ACTION ON PLANS FOR CLASS PICNIC

Walker Handicapped As Class Members Fail to Turn in Assignments

Senior speak plans remain indefinite due to the failure of class members to cooperate with Patrick Walker, chairman, in turning in their assignments to Frank Stanton, university bursar. At 4 o'clock this afternoon, with only 18 assignments on their general deposit funds turned in, enough money was available for a short trip to Feltons Mill.

A senior in each group house has been appointed to collect the assignments and turn them in to the bursar's office. Those not having their assignment turned in by that time will forfeit their right to attend the picnic.

New Ruling
In former years seniors were not barred from turning over their general deposits to the class picnic fund as they are this year due to a ruling passed by the board of regents. It has always been possible until this year for the class to borrow money in advance on their general deposit fund which allowed the chairman to plan definitely for the picnic. Due to the new ruling, no plans can be made until the assignments are in the hands of the bursar.

May Get Refund
If the class goes to a place other than Canada and the funds are not entirely used, a refund will be pro-rated among the seniors.

Those appointed to collect the assignments are:

The above are urged by Walker to see that all seniors turn in assignments and to see that the assignments are turned in to the bursar on time.

The Executive Board Is Right

THE EXECUTIVE Board did right in refusing to grant the petition presented at the last meeting by a group of students asking leave to have the names of their candidates printed on the ballots of the forthcoming A.S.U.I. election. If the board had granted the petition it would have been exceeding its own power, for the A.S.U.I. constitution is quite definite about the manner in which candidates for student body offices may get their names on the ballot. A constitutional amendment is necessary before these names can be printed on the ballot and it is obviously too late to get such an amendment through before the general election. Article VII, section 2 of the constitution says:

Candidates for office may be placed on the ballot for primary election at a nominating assembly to be held not less than one week or more than two weeks prior to the date of such election. Other nominations may be made at any time within forty-eight hours previous to the opening of the polls for the primary election by presenting to the Secretary of the Association a nominating petition bearing the names of at least twenty-five members of the A.S.U.I.

The interpretation of this rule is obvious. The petitioners contend that, since no primary has been held, they should have the right to nominate by petition any time before the general election. They are wrong. A primary election is necessary only when there happens to be three or more candidates for a single office. Since no office was contested at the time of the nominating assembly and no petitions were presented within forty-eight hours previous to the opening of the polls for the primary, no such election was held, but the time for one is past (April 16, according to Article VII, section 1 of the constitution) and it is now too late to make nominations from the floor of an assembly or by petitions.

No question of interpretation enters into the matter at all. It is a matter, rather, of the board abiding by the constitution or approving irregularities and fortunately the Executive Board did not choose to overstep its authority in granting the petition. The Executive Board is even making a concession to the petitioners by appointing a board of arbitration, as provided for in Article VIII, section 3 of the constitution, to decide whether or not the election rule was interpreted correctly. If the arbitrators decide that the board was right, as they should, the best thing the petitioners can do is to chalk what they have learned this spring up to experience and wait until next year before they take over the reins of the student body.

In the mean time they can be thinking over a constitutional amendment or they can plan on having all of their cards on the table forty-eight hours before the third Thursday in April, 1932.

And Now The Purity League

THE ARGONAUT really regrets that at this time it cannot predict a prosperous future for the latest political machine owned and operated by a well known organizer who has been trying to knife the party in power for the last six or seven years with varying degrees of success. It is even more regrettable when the aims and purposes of the organization are revealed to the students. This, we'll have you know, is no ordinary political party. "Grapes" and "reciprocity" are words not to be found in the vocabulary of any member of the Purity League. Politics on the up and up is the principal aim of the White Ribboners and for this reason The Argonaut repeats, it is unfortunate that the wheels of so noble a machine started turning nearly two weeks too late to bring about the proposed reform.

Maybe The Bear Is Hibernating

THE DAILY Californian is raising a big fuss on the Berkeley campus due to the frequency with which the Golden Bear has been tasting defeat of late. "Wake up, Californians," is the way the Daily appeals to the supporters of the Bear to revive the athletic spark which, in the not too distant past, burned brightly at the top of the Pacific coast heap.

California's tobogganing started last fall when the Bears took it on the chin from Stanford and Southern California (among others) on the gridiron. Basketball found the Bears on top again until the play-off in Seattle and then came crew, track and baseball. About a week ago California lost three crew races, a track meet and a baseball game all in the space of two short hours. That was the last straw. The Californian, however, finds a bit of consolation in the fact that California is called a good loser.

The Argonaut gently suggests that The Californian be not discouraged. The first four or five years in the second division are far the toughest and, after all, there is a certain amount of prestige in being known as "one of the better losers."

LIBRARY DISPLAY BEGINS SUNDAY

Many Rare and Unique Books Will Be Shown To Public

Curious and rare old volumes and the newest in fiction, drama, and biography will be on display for students, faculty members, and townspeople at the university library Sunday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock.

This exhibit is an attempt to show to the public some of the rare, unique, and new books belonging to the university library, Belle Sweet, librarian, said. A Greek and Latin Testament published in Zurich in 1463 is a rare memento of the past. Books of etiquette, social mentors of our grandmother's day, offer amusing comparisons to Emily Post. The famous "London News", a periodical of unusual historical value, whose early numbers contain some of the first color printing in existence, will also be on display.

Publish War Paper
A copy of "The Stars and Stripes", daily newspaper published by American soldiers in France during the World War recalls the more recent past, while of local historical value is a file of one of the first Idaho newspapers, "The Pierce City Miner."

In addition to these treasures, the modern works in the novel, drama, technical books, and biographies, as Galsworthy's last work "On Forsyte Change", G. B. Stern's "Mosaic" and William McFee's "Sailors of Fortune", will be displayed here for the first time. A similar exhibition was held in 1916.

DEDICATED TO THE PURITY LEAGUE

It would be great to live in history And known from coast to coast To have your name on every tongue And sung in every toast

And thus it seems will be the fate Of those noble lads right here Who rose right up to the front To save their people dear.

It broke their hearts to see the great For the down-trodden they shed a tear So they forgot themselves and past And said, "Brothers, we are here."

Always ready to lend a hand In what is noble and good Three cheers for justice's sake They did the best they could.

STODDARD KING SPEAKS TO CLUB ABOUT COLUMNS

"Facetious Fragments" Editor Instructs Collegians On Feature Writing

Speaking on "Columns and Columnists", Stoddard King, noted writer and lecturer, gave an entertaining address to members of the English club and their friends at a meeting in the L.D.S. hall. King's talk was rich in the same good humor and conversational tone which makes his daily column, "Facetious Fragments", in the Spokesman-Review, one of the most popular features of that paper.

Tough Grind
"The first question students with journalistic inclinations ask me," Mr. King said, "has reference to how they can become a columnist—preferably the day following graduation." He then pointed out the numerous qualifications for a columnist, adding that it wasn't so glamorous an occupation as it might appear. He also gave a brief resume of the growth of columns and discussed a number of columnists of former years.

The examinations were given at Vancouver, Wash., last week by the air corps examining board. The two Idaho students were among seven of the class of 35 to be accepted. The tests, starting Tuesday and continuing until Friday, included both physical and mental examinations.

Society

WITH only six weeks more in which to participate in campus social activities, scheduled events are rapidly multiplying. Spring months with lively weather prove an ideal time for entertaining. With the advent of Junior week, there has been something important listed for almost every day in the week. This past week has been one of unusual activity. Miss Permeal J. French honored senior women at a formal dinner held at Hays hall Wednesday evening. Mr. Stoddard King entertained members of the English club and their guests at the L. D. S. institute Tuesday night when he read his own selections and gave an interesting address. The Sophomore mixer, the second of the year, was well attended Tuesday night.

Pep Band Show Is Successful

The annual Pep Band show which was presented Wednesday night was a decided success, judging from the capacity crowd which attended and the applause which the numbers received. Mortar Board gave its annual Narthex Table last night. The nineteen women invited were most delightfully entertained.

Invitations have been issued by President and Mrs. M. G. Neale to seniors to attend a formal dinner dance at Hays hall on May 5. The music department presented a most diverting student recital last evening.

Dances this week-end will be many and varied. Phi Delta Theta will hold a joint dance with their chapter at W. S. C. at the Green Lantern in Pullman on Saturday night. Delta Delta Delta is giving something new which is to be a sunrise dance beginning at 6:30 Saturday morning. Alpha Chi Omega will give a formal dance Friday evening. That same night the Managers' club informal dance will be given at the Beta Theta Pi house. Sigma Alpha Epsilon formal dance is to be held at the Blue Bucket inn Saturday night and Phi Gamma Delta will have an informal dance at their chapter house. Delta Gamma to Have Convention.

Delta Gamma will be hostess to the Delta Gamma district convention this week-end. Members are planning a formal banquet and a dance honoring the delegates on Friday night. At the same time Delta Gamma freshmen will hold a dance with the Gamma Phi Beta freshmen at the latter's house.

Saturday afternoon the annual "Ag" Club Little International is scheduled. A library book exhibit has been arranged for Sunday.

DELTA GAMMA TO HOLD CONVENTION

Province VI of Delta Gamma will hold its convention here April 24 and 25. Mrs. Joseph Halstead, national president, and Miss Pearl McDonnell, chairman of province secretaries, will be guests of the chapter during this time.

Chapters represented at the convention will be the University of Washington, University of Oregon, University of Montana, Whitman, University of British Columbia, and alumnae chapters of Salt Lake City, and Spokane.

A formal dinner is to be held Friday at 6:30 o'clock at the Hotel Moscow, at which Miss French, dean of women, will be an honored guest. At 8:30, a semi-formal dance will be held at the chapter house in honor of the active members and delegates. Spring decorations will be used to beautify both functions. Mrs. Howard David is also entertaining the alumnae at a bridge party at her home on Friday night.

PHI CHI THETA HONORS INITIATES

Phi Chi Theta, national honorary business women's fraternity, held its formal initiation ceremony at 5 o'clock Tuesday evening at the Gamma Phi Beta house. The honor of membership was conferred upon the following girls registered in the school of business, and pledged by the organization some six weeks ago: Helen Benson, Helen Carney, Laura Lee Sharp, and Helen Powers.

To be a member of Phi Chi Theta, girls registered in the business school must have a scholastic average of 4.5 or above and must also be outstanding in campus activities. There are at present fourteen members in the Idaho chapter.

Immediately following the initiation the new members were the honored guests at a banquet at the Hotel Moscow. Covers were laid for twenty. Orchid and yellow decorations for the table.

Patronesses present were Mrs. T. S. Kerr, Mrs. E. Davison, Mrs. W. J. Wilde, Mrs. Ralph H. Farmer, and Miss Ellen Reiersen. Lillie Gallagher was toastmistress for the occasion.

PHI UPSILON OMICRON WILL ENTERTAIN PULLMAN GROUP

Phi Upsilon Omicron in entertaining Omicron Nu from Pullman Sunday evening from 8 to 8 o'clock at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house. Both are national home economics honoraries. This is the first time that the two honor societies have held a joint affair.

Supper will be served. There will be a musical program of piano selections by Beth Wood, and violin selections by Louva May Jensen, accompanied by Elizabeth Johnson at the piano. The two presidents of the societies will each give a short talk on their ideals and objectives. Ardith Mellinger is president of the Idaho honorary.

Beta Chi announces the initiation of Robert Corless, Burley; Kern Thurman, Buhl; Jack Morgan, Cabarton; Harry Henriksen, Kallispell, Montana; William Gaffney, Weippe; and Fred Reiger, Boise.

Crawford, Dean and Mrs. Messenger, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Kostalek, Mr. and Mrs. von Ende, Dr. Ella Woods, and Miss Bernice McCoy. Other guests included Bess Louise Hogg, and Miss Lena Shoup.

SOPHOMORES HOLD MIXER

The Sophomore class held its second mixer of the year at the Blue Bucket inn Wednesday. A large crowd attended and a general good time was enjoyed. The Blue Bucket Band furnished music for the occasion. Entertainment during intermission was supplied by Morris O'Donnell at the piano, a tap dance by Jessie Hutchinson, and vocal numbers by Martha Jean Smith with piano and violin accompaniment. Miss Permeal J. French and Dr. and Mrs. Erwin Graue chaperoned the affair.

QUICK MILLIONS, with Spencer Tracy appearing at the Kenworthy on Saturday, contains many thrilling incidents. They have a foundation of fact to support them. This foundation is formed by the actual experience of Courtenay Terrett, author of the story, who was formerly a star reporter for the New York World. One of his books is "Only Saps Work". Marguerite Churchill and Sally Ellers head the feminine cast. It is the story of a truck driver who eases himself into gangland and becomes a prosperous racketeer.

CITY STREETS, co-starring Gary Cooper and Sylvia Sydney, opens Sunday at the Kenworthy. Dashiell Hammett, the author, was for years a mainstay of the famous Pinkerton force of private detectives, which is just as fruitful a source of information on the underworld as a newspaper office. He admits that most of his stories are written from the great fund of experience he had while making investigations.

"City Streets" is his first story to be made into a moving picture. Duped by the easy living enjoyed by her friends, Sylvia Sydney, the girl, tries to persuade her sweetheart, Gary Cooper, to join the "racket." He refuses, until the girl is caught by the police for a crime she did not commit. He then joins the racketeers to solicit their aid in freeing her.

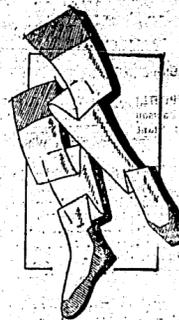

EDDIE CANTOR in "Whoopee" is the attraction at the Vandal the first part of next week. This is his first full-length talking picture although he has done several features. The picture was produced by Samuel Goldwyn and Florenz Ziegfeld, and contains many lavish scenes and beautiful girls. It is the story of a chronic invalid who goes to the desert to spend his last days, but his life becomes so interesting that he decides to prolong it.

FOXMEN IMPROVE; OREGON HOODOO TO GET BIG SURPRISE

Pitchers Resting For Next Week's Conference Ball Games

By Bill Polman
Varsity ball players are beginning to form from the Oregon conference. A big surprise will be the Oregon team which will be the conference battle next Wednesday at Eugene.

Coach "Rich" Fox had an opportunity to correct the faults of his men during the pre-season battles. He is commenting now on baseball fundamentals for an hour each afternoon before active practice starts.

Wicks Shows Improvement

Experience is the chief worry in the ball game this year. But the ball players are there, and the result of coaching and early games is showing. Wicks, shortstop, is hitting the ball harder every day and his work in the field is improving. Fox had him working in the regular infield last night. Wicks will press Sather hard for the job all season.

The remainder of the inner works remains the same, showing better results in the hitting case. The choppers are taking things easy since the Whitman game by tossing a few to the front hitters who are on hand every night to receive the varsity with short scrimmages.

Schutte, Drysdale are starting

Schutte and Drysdale are starting a hot race for the catching job with Schutte holding the edge due to his checking attempted steals on the bases. When the second sack combination is working with Schutte on these plays Idaho looks good, and few conference base runners will make headway down the paths.

The squad will take things easy over the week-end, travel through a hard workout Monday, and leave for the coast Tuesday.

BASKETBALL MEN RECEIVE AWARDS

Drummond And Hale Are Only Veterans To Get Sweaters

The varsity and frosh basketball men received their sweater awards last Tuesday when the emblems arrived and were given out to the men at the gymnasium by "Cap" Horton, graduate manager.

Ten varsity men and nine yearlings were presented with the sweaters informally. Bob Drummond received his third basketball award, and Stan Hale his second. Drummond will receive a blanket for three years' work. The other eight were first year sweaters.

The following men received the ASUI awards:

FROSH HURLERS BEGIN PRACTICE

First Call is Set for Saturday Afternoon

With spring football, track, and varsity football taking the coaches time, freshman baseball turnout has been delayed. The spring sports are well under way with the weather more favorable for outside workouts. Coach Glenn "Red" Jacoby is turning his attention to the yearling baseball aspirants.

The first official call for freshman baseball has been set for Saturday on MacLean field not later than 1:00 o'clock.

Several freshmen have been reporting regularly against the varsity. They are Claude Blair, "Hack" Albee, and Dick Spears. They have been tossing the ball around and getting their arms loosened up.

These three men will probably carry the brunt of the pitching forces for the Babes unless some unknowns report tomorrow. "Mooney" Kilne and Owen Seatz have also been working out and will probably hold down the receiving end of the batteries.

VARSITY TENNIS MATCHES BEGIN

Contests to Pick Team to Play W. S. C. Saturday

The opening tennis elimination contests of the spring were run off yesterday afternoon on the campus courts when six hard fought matches were played. The winners are scheduled for matches this afternoon in preparation for the meet with the strong Washington State team at 2 o'clock Saturday.

A ladder tournament will be run off during the next few weeks in order to pick the regular team for the big meets in May. Dr. H. L. Axtell will coach the squad through the tournament and direct the men when they battle the Cougars on May 2 and Whitman at Walla Walla on May 23.

The contests yesterday resulted as follows:

Winner	Score	Loser
Mitchell	6-2 6-2	Ballif
Moshier	6-3 6-2	Jockheck
Carpenter	6-2 6-0	Coffey
Campbell	6-1 4-6 6-4	Alnow
Marlin	Forfeit	Young
Angney	Forfeit	Barton

The Sport Shop

By Paul Boyd

Idaho's track team journeys to the land of the Missionaries tomorrow to do battle with the track men of Whitman college.

It appears a foregone conclusion that the Vandals will win by an overwhelming margin. In the triangular meet held in Pullman a short time ago, the Whitman track men were pressed to get 18 or 20 points. Most of the points that they did win were taken away from Idaho competitors and not from the Cougars. Since the track squad has been outside for the last week, performances have been turned in that give indication that Whitman will have its hands full in every event.

One of the baseball games was rained out in the Whitman series, but the one that was played, showed the fans that the nine has potential strength and will win its share of the games before the season is finished. The Cougars were to be played this week-end, but the games have been transferred until a later date, so the conference season officially opens with the Vandals taking the road to Oregon for a series. Jacobs and Lindsay should be able to turn the Beavers back, if given the same hitting support shown in the Whitman game. Six games are to be played on the road trip and this concludes the Vandals traveling.

Kyselka is leading the club sluggers with the pre-season games out of the way.

In the Boosters games in particular, "Ky" was effective with the club, gathering six hits in the two games. Another dependable diamond artist is Clyde Ralby. This boy is turning in a game at the initial bag that is making the fans forget about Frank McMillin, former custodian of the bag. The defensive strength of the club is increasing with every practice and with continued work should rank with any of the infields in the circuit. Sather's weakness on balls hit sharply to his right is being ironed out with much practice and he should have this mastered by the opening of the season.

A comparison of the times and distances turned in at the informal meets held between Idaho and W. S. C. reveal that either of these teams could go into the Rocky Mountain conference and come out on top. Paul Swift's time of 9.6 for the century is much faster than any turned in by the Colorado or Utah schools. McCoy is leaping higher in the pole vault and Thomas is turning in better time in the half-mile and mile. This is for the benefit of the dissenters who believe that the Idaho track team does not compare favorably with other teams representing much larger schools.

Spring football is settling down to serious scrimmage every afternoon with the squads being divided into two groups and open combat being the order of the afternoon.

One casualty has been listed that is serious. Cy Bearson, frosh full-back, suffered a twisted knee that will keep him out of the rest of spring training. At the present time it does not look so serious that it might keep him out of next year's varsity competition. This afternoon the squads will scrimmage for an hour or so for the benefit of fans and anyone turning out may see for themselves the new Idaho formations.

May 2, will find the Idaho club in Seattle for the annual relays held there by the University of Washington. Last year Idaho sent 10 men. If the time being turned in by the Vandals keeps up, several more than this number will be sent. Idaho has a group of sure-fire point winners, but the weakness of the team lies in its inability to pick up seconds and thirds. The Vandals should make a good showing at the Seattle relays.

HELL DIVERS CLUB WILL ENTER MEET

Idaho Swimmers To Engage in Red Cross Water Carnival.

The American Red Cross life saving water carnival at Moscow, May 7, will be the only meet which the Hell Divers' club will participate in this year. A scheduled meet with the Washington State mermen was cancelled on account of ineligibility of several Vandal swimmers. Men will enter various water stunts, diving contests, and races in the water carnival meet.

Hell Divers, is a swimming club composed of 30 members, with Stanton Hale as president.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME IS TODAY

Scrimmage Battle to Open Series of Spring Football Contests

Coach Leo Calland will lead his squad of spring football candidates out onto MacLean field this afternoon for the first regular battle of the training period with the opening whistle scheduled for 4 o'clock.

The starting line-ups will be almost the same as they were in the warm-up scrimmage last week except for several changes in the frosh lineup. Cy Bearson suffered a knee injury Wednesday night that will hold him on the sidelines the rest of the spring, but all the other griders are in top shape and ready for the big test. Fred Wilkie will probably see most of the action from the fullback post on one side of the line while Bill Felton will back up the other wall.

Many Backfield Men

The coaches have been sending the two teams into hard workouts every night with the ball packers getting plenty of instruction on picking the holes and following their interference. W. Smith, Felton, Bearson and Wilkie look like the pick of the crop, but there are other clever backs on the lot and they may come to the front during the game today.

Schmitz and Taylor are the best pair of ends Calland has had to work with. Although they will be facing each other this afternoon very little yardage will be made across their sides of the wall. Taylor stood out on last fall's varsity and is due to have an even greater season in 1931 while Schmitz, a freshman product, is big, tough, and possesses an uncanny ability to keep his feet and sift through the interference after the ball carrier.

Both Lines Strong

Both squads have big powerful lines that should wage some real fights before the moleskins are hung up for the spring with some of the newcomers and yearling graduates set to press the veterans hard for regular berths on next fall's machine.

RETAIN BURGER AS HEAD COACH

School Board Votes Former Idaho Man an Increase in Pay

Darwin K. Burger, head coach at the Medford Oregon high school was re-elected to the position for another year at the school board meeting held in Medford recently. He received a salary increase.

E. R. Finch and E. N. Kirtley, assistant coaches, also were given renewed contracts. Burger was graduated from the university last year. He was one of the mainstays of the Vandal basketball squad having earned his blanket in three continuous seasons' play. He is a member of Beta Theta Pi.
