State Reports on Campus Elections Surprise To Idaho Students

Butler to Take Hand In Organizing State Police For Oregon

Two Million Dollars Given Out to World War Vets Through Bonus

Who Says So?

MOSCOW, Idaho—reports coming to this university town through daily papers over the state indicate that excitement over student politics is approaching a state of high fever.

Students and citizens had known that the usual spring political campaign was going on, but were surprised to hear of the intense excitement and fever.

Seven Up

BOSTON—A seven point legislative program designed to ease the nation's economic strain was advanced last week by Senator Robert LaFollette in a speech before the progressive groups in congress.

Among the seven points were demands for shorter days, unemployment insurance, higher inheritance taxes.

Marie's Land

SALEM, Ore.—Maj.-Gen. Smedley D. Butler, famous fighting marine, is to organize within the next month a new law enforcement department for Oregon at the invitation of Governor Julius L. Meier. This force will concentrate on one half of the law enforcing machinery of the state.

Pay Off Declared

BOISE—More than two million dollars have been distributed to Idaho World War veterans on their adjusted service certificates, commonly called bonuses, by the veterans' administration at Boise, it was announced Friday. These claims were said to be those of current nature.

Where Ya Work?

SAN FRANCISCO—Substantial improvement in the employment situation took place in the eleven far western states in the eleven months ending in April, the monthly review by the federal labor department showed.

Although every state still has a surplus of those ready to work, more improvement is expected in the next month.

Who's a Liar

WASHINGTON—Once again Maj. Gen. Smedley Butler comes up involved in a diplomatic mix-up. This time Minister Bellegarde of Haiti remarked that the fort which the fighting marines captured and for which he was given a congressional medal does not exist. "Naturally," says Butler, "I resent the remark." The state department is in a quandary.

Alaska Wants Booze

JUNEAU, Alaska—The Alaska territorial senate passed a bill repealing the bone dry law by a vote of 7 to 0 last Saturday. The house had previously passed the law but now it must get the governor and then must receive approval from the United States senate.

CALGARY, Alta.—By injecting a little serum into eggs on the 19th day of incubation it is possible to have hatched later almost any color of chickens that can be desired. In the recent experiment some of the chickens were green, some all purple. It is figured that blue chickens will be the next development.

Await the Pay Off

LONDON—Amidst tenseness and melodrama the English people await the "opening of the budget" next week. Pale and even more frail than usual, but still the game chancellor of the exchequer, Philip Snowden, will arise from a sick bed to present the labor party's most important bill.

Pair and Pie

CHESTER, Pa.—Word is being passed along by hitch-hikers that it isn't safe to accept automobile rides any more. A couple of the boys were picked up by a man here the other day and almost drowned. Instead of waiting for the ferry boat, the demented autoist said, "I can't wait, we'll go on across." He got off the pier all right but not across the river.

ARRANGE PLANS FOR MAY FETE

Plans for the May day dance festival on Campus day are rapidly being completed as practically all the dancers are chosen at this time according to Mrs. Abe Goff, head of the physical education department for women.

One of the dances, all of which depict Idaho industries, represents that product for which the state is so well-known—potatoes. Helen Kurdy, Reuben, and Edna Richards, Rachel, country people, come to town with their potatoes, Evelyn Pardue, Grace Nichols, Evelyn Thornhill, Vivian Edminster, Jean Edminster, and Eva Skinner.

PLAN FIELD TRIP FOR JOURNALISTS

Beth to Take Reporters to Inspect Chronicle Plant.

More than 20 Idaho journalists will take the newspaper "field trip" to Spokane on Thursday, announces Elmer F. Beth, assistant professor of Journalism. The group will leave in a chartered motor coach from the Blue Bucket inn at 8 o'clock a. m.

"Besides inspecting the plant of the Spokane Chronicle," said Beth, "we shall visit the broadcasting studios of KHQ and the Parent Art and Engraving Service plants. The Parent company has a method of electric engraving which is the latest technique in making 'cuts'."

The group will return to Moscow Thursday evening.

SONG AND STUNT FEST SCHEDULED WEEK FROM NOW

Edward Coon Appointed General Chairman By Graybill

The ASUI song and stunt fest will be held May 8 and 9 in the university auditorium. Edward Coon was appointed general chairman by Charles Graybill, ASUI president.

The fest originated in 1915, and has been established as an annual event, taking place on the night of the inter-scholastic high school track meet. Since the meet isn't to be here this year, the fest will take place after the northern Idaho district track meet. Last year's freshman class won the prize for both song and stunt.

Each class presents an original stunt and song, not to exceed 25 minutes in production. The class having the best production will be awarded a prize of $15.00 for both stunt and song, donated by the ASUI.

Will Choose Judges

Judges are chosen each year by the general chairman, but have not been chosen for this year's fest as yet, said Coon. Harry Robb, student manager of dramatics, will assist him in making suitable arrangements for the production, including a prologue and epilogue.

All manuscripts for songs and stunts have been turned in to Coon. The expense of producing its own stunt and song will be borne by each class. The ASUI will bear the general expense.

Class Chairmen Chosen

Merle Frizzelle is chairman of the senior stunt committee, and William Shamberger is song chairman.

Junior stunt chairman is Paris Martin. Sidney Walden is chairman of the song committee.

Bartram Wood is sophomore stunt chairman, and Morris O'Donnell is song chairman.

Fresh stunt chairman is Raphael Gibbs, and song chairman, Glenn Ekum.

Coon announces a rehearsal to be held the evening of Tuesday, May 5. More definite plans for time and place will be announced later.

PLAN TO OBSERVE MUSIC WEEK HERE

Music week, May 3 to 10, on the University of Idaho campus will be ushered in by the premier presentation of Rossini's famous oratorio, "Stabat Mater" at the auditorium next Sunday, at 4:00 p. m.

Fifty voices compose the chorus in this beautiful oratorio. Solos will be sung by Kenneth Hensley, tenor; John Jenny, baritone; Erwin Tomlinson, bass; Ruth Johnson, soprano; and Dorothy Fredrickson, contralto. A quartet composed of Agnes Ramstedt, contralto; Louise Morley, soprano; Ronald Smith, tenor; and William Shamberger, bass, will be featured. There will also be a duet sung by Elizabeth Gilmore, soprano, and Pauline Patkerka, contralto. Lois Hints is the accompanist.

"Stabat Mater," sung in Latin, has undergone a long period of preparation under the supervision of Carleton Cummings, director, and is a finished performance of about one hour duration will be offered music lovers at the Sunday presentation.

Next on the program for music week is an orchestra concert scheduled for Wednesday evening, May 7, at the auditorium. Miss Isabel Clark, with the university symphony orchestra will play a concerto. A piano concerto been given here before.

Will Present 'Stabat Mater,' Orchestra Concert And Vesper Services

'T' CLUB PLANNING FOR INITIATION

Members of the "T" club will meet at the Phi Gamma Delta house tonight at 7:30. All members are requested to be present as orders for pins will be taken at this time. The following basketball men are requested to report for initiation: Dan Aukett, Edward Lacy, Jerome Christians, Kenneth Parks, William Hall, Heath Wicks, Alton Barrett, and Olen Smith.

HOLD CONVENTION OF DELTA GAMMA ON IDAHO CAMPUS

National Sorority President Is Honor Guest of Local Chapter

Idaho chapter of Delta Gamma was hostess at the province convention of the sorority on April 24 and 25. Delegates from Province 518, including the chapters of the universities of Washington, Oregon, British Columbia, Montana, and Whitman College, arrived on the Idaho campus on Thursday and sessions were held Friday afternoon and Saturday.

President Attends

Mrs. Joseph Halsted of Evanston, Illinois, national president of Delta Gamma, who was in the west for the installation of a new chapter at the University of Alberta, Edmonton, was an honor guest of the convention.

Miss Pearl McDonnell of Grand Forks, North Dakota, also attended the sessions. Miss McDonnell is chairman of province secretaries.

Spokane alumnae who were in Moscow during the convention included Mrs. Wm. G. Guernsey, Mrs. John Blair, Mrs. Robert Frank, Mrs. Lester Livengood, Mrs. Ferris, and Mrs. Ramage. Mrs. Leonard Penn and Mrs. Stewart were representatives from the Utah alumnae association.

The following girls represented their chapters:

University of Washington: Katherine McCrosky, Jean Coffman, and Phoebe Ann Thompson.

University of British Columbia: Dorothy Myers and Thelma Colledge.

University of Oregon: Louise Marvin and Marjorie Wilhelm.

University of Montana: Marian Wilcox and Donna Fitzpatrick.

Whitman College: Peggy Baker, Edna Lester, Leah Lester, Mildred Hill, Esther Layley, Jessie Appleby, Jean Worthington, Laura Mathleson, and Dorothy Robinson.

Alumnae Entertain

Friday night the hostess chapter and the Delta Gamma alumnae chapter of Moscow entertained the visitors at a formal banquet at the Hotel Moscow, after which a semi-formal convention dance was given at the chapter house. Mrs. Howard David, patroness of local Delta Gamma, entertained the alumnae representatives at a bridge party the same evening.

The last session closed at 4:00 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, and most of the delegates left immediately for their respective campuses.

PEP BAND SHOW MAY BE REVIVED FOR ADVERTISING

Chamber of Commerce May Back Plans Of Group

The entire company of the Pep Band show may give their two-hour extravaganza in Spokane or Lewiston in the near future if present plans can be completed.

William Ames, leader, discussed the situation with a member of the Moscow chamber of commerce yesterday afternoon. Ames was advised that the chamber would back any feasible plan which would favorably advertise the university.

To Present Report.

Ames and William Hawkins, financial manager, will collect and compile facts as to the amount of money needed to move the troupe. The report will be submitted to the board of directors next Friday afternoon. If the plan appears feasible to them, they will recommend to the chamber they would support to the efforts of the musicians.

It is undecided yet where the show may be taken. George "Cap" Horton, graduate manager, said the plan appealed to him, but added that it was beyond his authority to give any "say."

Publicity well timed.

"Favorable publicity in the spring is better than any extra expended in the fall," Ames commented. He elaborated by saying that high school students were more open to suggestions in his estimation as to the university they would choose in May rather than in October.

"They are really thinking of the problem then. Naturally I believe that the Pep Band would create a favorable attitude toward the university," he concluded.

SENIOR ASSEMBLY PLANS ARE LAID

The senior assembly, to be held Wednesday morning, May 6, promises to be the best in years, according to Gerald Grimm, chairman.

A brilliant cast including Merle Frizzelle, Charles Parsons, Ruth Geyer, Grace Herndon, and Hubbell Carpenter will put on a spicy one-act play. The name of the play is being withheld, Grimm said, as a surprise for the audience. It is, however, a campus farce.

Rosie Lane's dance band, including several solo features, has been procured for the assembly. The band has worked out many good numbers which should please the taste of the collegiates and moderns. Novelty features are also promised.

Two singing trios will entertain the audience with a varied assortment of blues songs. One trio consists of Caryl Thompson, Catherine York and Betty Wilson; the other is composed of William Shamberger, Ronald Smith, and Kenneth Hensley.

A feature act, portraying "Barnable Bill, the Sailor" will be given under the direction of Ralph Hagen. The cast has not been announced.

PLAYS ENTERTAIN HIGH SCHOOL BOYS

A program composed of music by the Pep Band, songs by the Vandaleer Chorus, and two one-act plays staged by students registered in play production, was given Friday evening in the university auditorium as a feature of the meeting held here by high school vocational education delegates from all parts of the state.

Following several numbers by the Pep Band including the favorite "Twelfth Street Rag" and vocal selections by the Vandaleers, "The Masterpiece," a farical one-act comedy concerning the vain attempts of a Texas rancher to purchase a tractor in the face of the overwhelming sales talk presented by the insistent salesman, Rollin Hunter, Moscow; Keith Armstrong, Troy; and Mary Brosnan, Moscow, were cast in this play.

The second comedy, "The Man Upstairs" revolved about the man from the apartment above who entered the wrong apartment and was greeted by the Irish maid, Doris Armstrong, Cascade; Lloyd Whitlock, Newberg, Oregon; David Hunkerford, Idaho Falls; Sara Throckmorton, Moscow; and Catherine Brandt, Nampa, took part in the second play. The plays were given under the supervision of Fred C. Blanchard, dramatics coach.

HONORARY TAKES SEVENTEEN MEN

Scabbard and Blade Holds Initiation Sunday

Scabbard and Blade, national military honorary initiated 17 men Sunday. The initiation began with a parade from the campus to the city hall, where the men were picked up by automobiles and driven to a camp on Moscow mountain, where the ceremonies were held.

Those who were initiated are: Ambrose Adams, Boise; Ernest Bauman, Nampa; Lionel Campbell, Boise; Kenneth Dyer, Walla Walla; June Honford, Lewiston; Ted Hensley, Moscow; Wilfred Janssen, Boise; Edward Jarboe, Pocatello; Samuel Johnson, Hagerman; Sandy Laidlow, Boise; Quentin Mack, Boise; McPherson LeMoine, Boise; Jack Morgan, Lewiston; Thomas Neilson, Los Angeles; Ralph Olmstead, Minidoka, and Parker Wickwire, Spokane.

PLAN CAMPUS DAY TO BE DIFFERENT FROM PAST YEARS

Sommerscamp Says Annual Event Will Be Mostly Pleasure and Play

According to plans made by Peyton Sommerscamp, Campus day will be composed of diversification and play.

Sommerscamp with the assistance of Patrick Walker, work chairman, William Hawkins, chairman of plans for the assembly, and Wilford Young, chairman of the ASUI mixer to be held that night, expects to make this Campus day a success.

The assembly to be held the latter half of the morning will be featured by a noted lecturer, W. J. Hindley of Seattle. A musical program, presenting various musical groups, will furnish music.

Feature Game.

Through special arrangements, the day will feature the first conference baseball game between W. S. C. and Idaho at Idaho.

According to Walker, plans have been made to be different from any in the past Campus days. Instead of extending efforts of the student body toward the campus cleanings, plans have been made for the work to be limited to the various group houses. In this manner, house managers will be afforded a chance to catch up on their delinquent plans and general spring house cleaning. The town groups will work partly on the vacant lot between the Kappa Sigma and Sigma Nu houses and the university bleachers.

Walker has called for a meeting of the following work supervisors to be held Friday at 4 p. m. in room 206A in the Administration building.

Names Desses.

The following men and women will supervise the work at their respective houses.

Men.

Sigma Nu, Sidney Walden and Charles Cheney; Kappa Sigma, Robert Nixon and Louis Smith; Delta Chi, Jay Kendrick and Edward Cross; Phi Gamma Delta, James Dunn; Phi Delta Theta, Arthur Spangy and Robert Brown; Beta Chi, Nathan Scott and James Matthews;

Sigma Chi, Clifton Hargrove and Wilford Young; Beta Theta Pi, Quentin Mack and George Gray; Lambda Chi Alpha, Kenneth Dick and William Shamberger; Tau Kappa Epsilon, Dean Sherley and William Hawkins; Alpha Tau Omega, Edwin Springer and Russell Randall; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Randall Wallis and George Jemison.

Women.

Gamma Phi Beta, Kathryn Hart and Lynn Cowgill; Kappa Kappa Gamma, Elizabeth Bell and Maude Galloway; Delta Gamma, Jane Maxwell and Elizabeth Taylor; Delta Delta Delta, Virginia Peck and Katherine Mikkelson;

Alpha Phi, Violet Hagen and Augusta White; Phi Beta Kappa, Hazel Miller and Hazel Simpson; Kappa Alpha Theta, Gladys Gleason and Janet Gooding.

RELEASE DAVIS FROM HOSPITAL

Varsity Quarterback Still Is Unable to Turn Out.

Emmert Davis, '33, varsity quarterback, was released from the inland hospital today.

Davis has been suffering all spring from leg injuries resulting from a neglected bruise received last fall. He first went to the hospital March 20. His leg was operated on, and drained, and he was released. However, more trouble developed and he was returned to the hospital. The infection is caused by a severe case of athlete's foot, said Dr. C. F. Magee, attending physician.

Davis, a sophomore from Buhl, was an outstanding man on last fall's football squad. He will be unable to be out for spring practice.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAY DAY IS SCHEDULED FOR END OF WEEK

Plan to Organize Teams For Tournament Play

Saturday will be a high school play day planned by the management class in women's physical education as a semester project, in cooperation with W. A. A., announced Miss Mabel Locke, Monday.

Girls from Pocatello, Moscow, Deary, Kendrick, Troy, Juliaetta, Bovill and Lewiston have been invited to take part in this event, about ten girls coming from each school. The entire day from 9 o'clock until 4 p. m. will be devoted to various games and sports under the supervision of the women's management class, Bess Louise Hogg, Pearl Walters, Ruth Ragan, Mildred Axtell, Grace Warren, and Florence Rudder.

This is the first time that a play day has been put on at Idaho. "Most universities have several play days each year," said Miss Locke. "Some have two or three yearly, in the climate permits."

The purpose of the play day is to further interest in games and sports and to have the girls play with, rather than against each other.

Saturday morning the girls will be organized into ten different teams with eight on each team, but not more than two girls from any one town on a team. Each team will wear badges of different colored ribbon.

Divide Time.

The morning is to be divided into several periods for basketball, baseball, clock golf, and organized games. Certain W. A. A. members have been appointed to have charge of each team during the day. Mary Louise Green, Edna Miller, Frances DuSault, Lorna McCain, Dorothy Sage, Helen Peterson, and two others to be selected. The class in playground management will have charge of the various games and events of the day. Benker will be in charge of organized games; Myrtle Thornhill and Geneva Handley, basketball; Ruth Ragan and Florence Rudder, baseball; Martha Lane Tanner and Ruth Kehrer, clock golf; Nellie Oylear, tennis; Mildred Axtell will supervise swimming and diving exhibition; and Eva Skinner will be in charge of horseshoes.

During the morning the university freshman basketball team, champion for the season, and six girls chosen from the visitors will form two teams, three high school and three university girls on each team, to play an exhibition game. Lunch, in charge of Dorothy Janssen, and prepared by Phi Upsilon Omicron, will be served at 12:30, followed by a program in charge of Bess Louise Hogg, Helen Kurdy, Grace Nichols, and Jessie Hutchinson will appear in the cast. During the morning the teams will be scored as to ability and the champion team announced later.

ARGONAUT AWARDS READY FOR STAFF

Argonaut pins, the service recognition given staff members who have worked over two and one half semesters on the Argonaut, have arrived, and may be had by those eligible for them, by calling at Cap Horton's office at 201 in the Memorial gymnasium.

Those eligible are:

CAMPUS POLITICS ARE QUIET SAVE IN CAPITAL CITY

Statesman and Chain Paper In Southern Idaho Grind Political Axe

By Con Gillespie

Campus politics went from the sublime to the ridiculous Friday afternoon as the Independents entertained the university district with a poster display demanding a set of reforms, under the caption: WHY. The caption quickly became a campus byword as students refused to take the propaganda seriously.

Apparently angered over the refusal of the Executive board to grant a petition asking that the names of Independent candidates be printed on the regular ballot, leaders in that party, either ignoring or unconsciously overlooking the fact that the Executive Board had offered to submit the question to an arbitration board if a request were offered in writing, made this issue a dominant factor of their posters. Alpha party members were not worried by this appeal to public sympathy, either laughing at the attempts of the OUTS to become TNS, or expressing some indignation over the methods used, saying that as long as the matter could be submitted to a board, that the Independents were overstepping ethics to force the issue on that point.

Odd Reports

State comment, sponsored by correspondents connected with the Independents, indicates that the campus is in a state of revolt, and that President Neale is either unwilling to take part in giving the Independents more than they deserve, or is favoring the Alpha party. The crux of the situation hinges on the fact that the Independents were asleep at the switch when the nominating assembly was called. According to the constitution the only recourse left them is to write in the names of their candidates, a privilege accorded under the Australian ballot. Any other method is contrary to the ASUI constitution, according to Charles Graybill, student body president.

In attempting to recoup their error the Independents have spared no effort, calling on the Boise Capital News, and the Idaho Daily Statesman. It has been pointed out that the Capital News is edited by the father of Dynes Lawson, Phi Gamma Delta, active in the Independent party, and the Statesman has for its managing-editor, Edward Whittington, former editor of the Argonaut and a leader in anti-Alpha politics.

Grind Axes

Copies of the telegrams sent to Boise by their reporters here indicate that the capital city papers are writing in the news with a view to making state politics fodder of campus activities. On the basis of a fifty word telegram sent last week, Whittington was enabled to write a quarter of a column, detailing campus politics with an unfair amount of prejudice.

Fair Minded

The resultant indignation aroused on the campus bids fair to cause more harm to the Independent party than good, as many students, regardless of party, resent the implication that the president is being "put on the spot" by southern Idaho papers. Further comment indicated that unless some measures are taken to stop the flood of publicity, undesirable to the university, that the Alpha party would resort to sources at its command, which it has so far refrained from using. Alpha party leaders were in accord over the week-end, saying that it would probably end with their fighting fire with fire, much as they regretted the move.

The general sentiment among Alpha party leaders was that mud slinging would not be indulged in so long as the Independents refrained. Reports from the Independents indicated that they would not indulge in scandal, though they had plenty of command unless forced to by a turn of events.

A strictly "hands-off" policy is being maintained by the president which has met with the gratitude of the older students who remember the political campaigns of the past two years. On all hands, save at Boise, it was generally the sentiment that the students could solve their own problems.

INSPECT TROOP K NATIONAL GUARD

Local Troop Is First to Have All Personnel Present.

Troop K, Moscow unit of the Idaho national guard cavalry, received annual inspection Saturday and Sunday by regular army officers. Many students, as well as town men, are in the troop.

The Moscow unit was the first troop so far in the inspections to have its full personnel of enlisted men and officers present for the annual inspection, inspecting officers said. Inspection was by Colonel Copley Enos, of Fort Douglas, Utah. Major F. H. Townly, Weiser, and Captain J. C. Rogers, cavalry instructor for Idaho.

Saturday afternoon the army was given a formal inspection covering troop administration, mounts of the troop, and equipment.

Inspection Sunday consisted of close order mounted and dismounted drill, questioning of the officers and men, demonstration of the machine rifle platoon, field stripping of the machine gun, and at last the non-commissioned officers of the troop individually conducted drill.

Reports of the inspection will not be returned to the unit until sometime in June, but the troop was highly commended by Colonel Enos for its thoroughness and ability throughout the inspection.

LAFFERTY INVITED TO MATRIX TABLE

Chosen by Theta Sigma As Outstanding Freshman Woman Journalist

Elsie Lafferty has been chosen by Theta Sigma, journalistic honorary for women as the most outstanding freshman woman in journalism this year, and has invited to be the honored guest of Matrix table, tomorrow evening.

Miss Lafferty is the only woman in her class to receive an invitation to the dinner. She has not only been prominent in work on the Argonaut staff, but has shown unusual interest and ability in her journalism course. Miss Lafferty is also a member of the Phi Gamma Delta, and has been awarded two cups which will be awarded to the editors of the high school papers winning the state-wide contest. Only papers edited by women were entered in this contest. The program will be concluded with the announcing of the pledges for next year.

LIVINGSTON GOES TO SOUTH IDAHO

To Make Water Survey for Reclamation Service.

D. C. Livingston, professor of geology in the school of mines and geology, left for Boise Thursday. This trip is in connection with Mr. Livingston's recent appointment by the bureau of mines and geology to review the water supply for agricultural purposes in the Big Lost River valley, and to aid the local water users and the department of reclamation in increasing the supply.

Two other university professors were appointed on research committee at the time of Mr. Livingston's appointment. April 25. They are Professor A. W. Fahrenwald on the United States bureau of mines co-operation, and Dr. F. B. Laney on the state mineral resources investigation.

Consider The University

THE ARGONAUT is still unable to see a future for the Independent political party in spite of the fact that this up and coming organization has enlisted the services of two southern Idaho newspapers in its effort to clean up campus politics. The Boise Capital News and the Idaho Daily Statesman, unable to do anything in state politics, have cast their lot with the White Ribboners and joined the crusade to clean up campus politics.

While The Argonaut can readily perceive that the News and the Statesman both have more than a casual interest in the university, due, no doubt, to the PATERNAL and FRATERNAL bonds which link them to certain members of the Independent party, it cannot see what the party hopes to accomplish by airing its grievances in the press of the state and the nation. The present political campaign is a campus problem and if the students and the administration cannot settle their own affairs, there is little chance of their being settled in the columns of a southern Idaho newspaper which modestly assumes the title of "The Community's Most Useful Institution."

The Independents whose platform, according to the esteemed Capital News, is to "clean up politics at the University of Idaho," are making their little cleanup at the expense of an institution which means more to some of us than all the cheap glory reflected in half a dozen political offices. Loyalty to a two-bit political organization is one thing; loyalty to the university is another. The Independents, champions of all that is noble and upright, have chosen to be loyal to their party.

The news stories published during the past week in Boise have hurt the university and they haven't changed the outlook for the coming elections one bit. Nearly every one knows now who will win, the "university campus isn't seething with turbulent student politics" and there is little need for the Independents to cry outside of Moscow. If the political "white wings" would confine their publicity campaign to statements which approximated truth they would do the university less harm but, in their fanatical efforts to "clean up politics," the Independents have adopted an attitude of "the university doesn't matter; think of the party."

Unless the Independents can realize the harm they are doing the university with their southern Idaho propaganda, The Argonaut suggests stopping the stream at its source which doesn't require an exceptional amount of sleuthing talent to trace.

AMONG other mis-statements in last Thursday's issue of the Idaho Statesman was one to the effect that the student opinion column of The Argonaut had been closed. It was never closed and never will be under the present Argonaut administration. However, the editor is the sole judge of the value of all articles submitted for publication and he reserves the right to reject any which are unsolicited. No letters which are not signed in full by the author, will be printed in the forum column.

No comment will be withheld on account of the political views of the writer.

TALK BY GRADUATE

E. C. Rettig, graduate of the Idaho school of forestry, 1919, now land agent for the Clearwater Timber company, Lewiston, visited the campus Friday, April 24, at which time he gave a lecture to the forestry students. He was entertained at a luncheon at the Blue Bucket Inn by Xi Sigma Pi, honorary forestry fraternity on the campus.

SLEEPER SAM

O-Hell-O—Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party. Anyone doubting this statement, see Jim Dunn. Don't feel backward about it; just walk up and ask him "Why." Have you had your "WHY" today? If you are a free thinker you must have your "WHY." If not, who does your thinking? Be INDEPENDENT! Take our short course in free thinking. Six weeks ago they had never had a thought and now they do all their own thinking. I can see them there yet, the dear souls, sitting with downcast eyes and bared heads, chanting, "WHY? WHY? WHY? GOTTA KNOW WHY? WHY? WHY? WHY? WHY?"

FAMOUS CAMPUS SONGS
Independent Song:
"Ten Thousand Years Frow Now"
(In answer to the Independents, "WHY?")
"WHY, You Have No Idea."

And then there was the Independent co-ed in gym class, who, when told to lift a dumb-bell, chinned herself.

Politics is rotten as gore. Reports the Independent score. Oust the Alpha party mean. Put in politics that is clean. And in other words more clear Give us Independents a cheer And battle the Alpha clan Now and forever with our man. Dig and delve in archives deep And run the Boise papers cheap.

college men choose this one outstanding SMOKING TOBACCO

THE men who go to the universities of Virginia and Kentucky know tobacco . . . they see how it grows and what makes it good.

So when Virginia students, and the men who stroll down old South Limestone Street in Lexington, pack their pipes with Edgeworth, their choice tells volumes about the cool, slow-burning quality of this favorite smoking tobacco.

It's the same story everywhere—North, South, East and West. In 42 out of 54 leading colleges and universities, college men prefer the smooth, fragrant burley blend of Edgeworth. Try Edgeworth yourself. You'll find more pleasure in a pipe than you ever knew before. Every tobacco store has Edgeworth, 15¢ the tin. Or, for generous free sample, write to Larus & Bro. It seems to be Spring. There is no one in classes. Arm and arm they stroll about the little lads and lasses. Moscow mountain's crowded with picnics every day. Golf and tennis take the stage why, every one's at play. Everything seems peaceful. But underneath it all . . . A lot of politicians are pitching heavy ball. We're waiting for election. UNCLE JAKE'S ADVISORY LEAGUE

Dear Uncle: Why did the Independents ask "WHY." Love, Tessie.

Answer: Dear Tessie: I can sincerely say that they would like to know themselves, but at the same time I might say it is probably the question you would have asked had you not known. Sincerely yours, Uncle Jake.

Question: Dear Uncle: Why did the Boise Capital News, and Idaho Daily Statesman print stories quite against the Alpha Party? Love, Virgil.

Answer: Dear Virgil: For the former, because an Independent paper is editor of the paper; for the latter, because a certain man on the staff ran out of oil before he left the campus. Sincerely yours, Uncle Jake.

Once upon a time there was an Independent bull who had never been thrown. The world's greatest bull-tusslers came for miles around to cast their luck against this mighty beast, but alas! 'twas all in vain. After it was almost forgotten the great Furity League champion strode into the arena. The greatest bull throwing contest of all time was, and still is, on—(See next week's column for results.)

Spring dances were appropriate as sources of entertainment during the past, typically spring week-end. Delta Gamma was hostess to the district Delta Gamma convention on Friday and Saturday. Delegates were entertained with a formal banquet at the Hotel Moscow Friday night, and a semi-formal dance the same night at the chapter house.

Hat Boxes Are Decorations.

Alpha Chi Omega gave their spring formal dance at the Blue Bucket Inn Friday night. Unique decorations of hat, trimmed with large colored bows, were hung from the ceiling. Lamp shades were also hat boxes. Spring flowers were used as additional decorations.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon formal dance was also held at the Blue Bucket Inn on Saturday night. Large baskets of lilacs and snapdragons carried out the spring motif. Colored lights were also used in decorating.

Tri Deltas Have Unique Dance.

An unusual affair was the sunrise dance given by Delta Delta Delta Saturday morning at the chapter house. Decorations consisted of a large sun, alarm clocks, and suitable mottoes. Dancing was enjoyed from 6 until 8, when breakfast was served at the Blue Bucket Inn.

Delta Gamma and Gamma Phi Beta freshmen danced at the Gamma Phi house Friday night. Decorations were Japanese, forming a Japanese garden effect.

Phi Gamma Delta gave a spring informal dance at the chapter house Saturday night. Spring flowers and cedar boughs were used in decorating. Phi Delta Theta joined with the Washington State college chapter at an informal dance at the Green Lantern in Pullman on Saturday night.

Many things are being planned for next week besides house dances. Tuesday night the Sigma Alpha Iota formal recital will be presented. Wednesday night the Theta Sigma banquet and Scabbard and Blade dinner dance will be given.

ALPHA CHI OMEGA GIVES FORMAL DANCE

Alpha Chi Omega held its formal dance at the Blue Bucket Inn Friday evening. The decorations carried out the idea of the old fashioned hat box and a profusion of spring blossoms and lighted tapers formed cozy corners. Entrance was gained through a zigzag opening in a huge hat box lid. Floral designs in hat boxes with large bows in pastel shades, agogged the lights and lamps, and shed a mellow glow over the dancers.

Patrons and patronesses were: Mrs. Elizabeth Bryant, Dean Permeal J. French, Dean and Mrs. Ivan C. Crawford, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Kostalek, Professor and Mrs. Carleton Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Hagan, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Driscoll, and Mr. and Mrs. Fulton G. Gale.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Russell Potter, Dorothy Littlemore, Maxine Wilcox, Owen Carpenter, Myrtle Ruth Kehrer, Dorothy Fredrickson, Myrtle Rach, Dorothy Shears, Elizabeth Driscoll, Ellen Refelson, M. Morris, G. Gustafson, William Hall, Robert Harris, William Shamberger, Chris Harman, Frank Tatum, Clarence Green, Clyde Raidy, William Anderson, Howard Langlev, Glenn Bellinger, Donald Corless, Carl Kyselka, Warren Thompson, Ambrose Adams, Thomas Chestnut, William Ames, Robert Newhouse, Frank McKinley, Albert Schmitz, Owen Carpenter, Lloyd Young, Fred Reiger, Luther Carl, Adrian Nelson, Howard Baliff, Ellis Shawver, Heath Wicks, Hugh Duffy, Arthur Spaugy, Frank Davison and David Sweeney.

DELTA GAMMA HONORS CONVENTION DELEGATE

Delta Gamma held a dance in honor of the Convention delegates at the chapter house on Friday night. The house was decorated with large baskets of spring flowers. Patronesses were: Mrs. Joseph Halstead, national president of Delta Gamma, Mrs. E. C. Given, and Miss Pearl McDonnell.

BREAKFAST MEETING PLANNED

The DeSmet club will hold its last meeting at a breakfast on Sunday morning, May 3. The committee in charge of entertainment and decorations is: George Swindaman chairman, Janet McCoy, Harriet Eaton, and Catherine O'Neil.

Week-end guests of Sigma Alpha Epsilon were Mr. Harlow Campbell, Thomas Felton, and Bob Felton.

Connaughton, Charlotte Ginn, Betty Knudson, Louise Neal, Marjorie Weber, Beatrice Gibbs, Fern Paulsen, Julia Hoover, Jean Houston, Regina Campbell, Camille Harris, Cecelia Mudge, Louise Mulliney, McPherson, Betty Wilson, Arlene Tendall, Julia Hunter, Janet Morgan, Mildred Hill, Ruth Garver, Mr. McGowan, Mr. Stockburger, Ray Bullock, Robert Grant, Merle Frizzelle, Mooney Kline, and Cecil Sanders.

PHI DELTA THETA HOLDS JOINT DANCE

Washington Gamma at W.S.C. and Idaho Alpha of Phi Delta Theta entertained at a joint informal dance at the Green Lantern in Pullman Saturday evening. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Buchanan, and Mr. and Mrs. D. D. DuSault.

PHI GAMMA DELTA GIVES SPRING INFORMAL

Phi Gamma Delta gave its annual spring informal dance Saturday night. The decorations and programs carried out the spring atmosphere. Patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox, Lieut. and Mrs. John Sheehy, and Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Mosher. Guests were: Marjorie Tanner, Kathryn Collins, Lois Fredrickson, Ellen Jack, Claudia Jones, Frances Hays, Grace Nichols, Margaret Hulser, Cynthia Daly, Frances Wernecke, Geraldine Morse, Peggy Baker, Isabelle Renshaw, Evelyn James, Margaret Moulton, Violet Adams, Mary Price, Florence Rohrer, Ila Hoffgarten, Ione Walters, Maude Galloway, Mary McManamin, Jeanne Wickwire, Frances Larsen, Linn Cowgill, Marian Lewis, Lorna Moore, Margaret Kellogg, Flora Francone, Jean Kingsbury, Dorothy Craven, Doris Norrell, Florence Laing, and Mrs. Felita Brennan.

WILSON-EIMERS ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Kappa Alpha Theta announces the engagement of Miss Dorothy Wilson to Mr. Paul Eimers. Both are University of Idaho students. Mr. Eimers graduates this spring and the young couple will be married soon afterwards.

VOCATIONAL MEET IS WELL ATTENDED

Twenty Schools are Represented in the Meet

Seventy-three students from twenty schools attended the Vocational Conference held in Moscow April 25, 26, 27. "The event was a serious-minded one, productive of much good," said Dean Iddings, "and I think each student enjoyed his stay". Five teams entered the Smith-Hughes judging contest which was held in connection with the conference: Moscow, Culdesac, Lapwal, Cottonwood and Winchester. The winner, Winchester, will attend the Pacific International Stock Show held in Portland this fall.

The Cinemaniac

"LONELY WIVES" is the title of the pleasant comedy which comes to the Kenworthy tonight and

Wednesday. The most brilliant men are apt to be subject to temporary mental lapses and in this story of one of them. In order to avoid complications, the hero slips away from home at night after hiring an extremely brilliant impersonator to remain in the house as the lord and master. Why he lost his mind is a mystery although it could easily have been due to too much mother-in-law. Edward Everett Horton, Laura La Plante, Patsy Ruth Miller and Esther Ralston are featured.

MARLENE DETTRICH in "Dis-honored" appears at the Kenworthy on Thursday and Friday. The story is really a footnote tacked on to the Mati Hari theme. It is distinguished especially by the fact that Marlene Dettrich is the star and Josef von Sternberg, the director. As the rule, the activities of spies are interesting and this is no exception. The picture is highly entertaining and contains some fine scenes. One example is the courtroom scene where Miss Dietmarial.

EDDIE CANTOR, star of "Whoop-pee," now showing at the Vandal, has a theory that an actor can usually count on giving a better performance in front of the microphone for a talking picture than he can on the stage. This was his first full-length talking picture to test the theory. He points out the fact that the final performance of a musical comedy is often no as fine as some of the rehearsals and in motion pictures they are able to pick out the best performance for the finished product. He states, however, that talkies are harder work than anything on the stage. He found it necessary to have several months vacation after this picture was finished yet could pursue the regular stage routine without any additional effort.

"ILICIT," with Barbara Stanwyck in the role of Anne Vincent, will be the attraction at the Vandal theater next Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. This film is the story of two young people who are very much in love before their marriage, but find many difficulties

"THE THINKER"

... a telephone version

The name Electrical Thinker might be applied to one unit of telephone apparatus. Technically it is known as a Sender and is brought into action each time a call is made in a panel dial central office. By means of electrical mechanism, it records or "remembers" the dialed number and routes the call to the proper line.

The steady expansion of the Bell System

— in volume of calls, number of telephones and miles of wire — cannot be taken care of merely by an enlarged use of existing types of apparatus.

To serve the continually growing telephone needs of the nation, it will always be the task of Bell System men to devise, refine, perfect and manufacture new kinds of equipment such as The Thinker.

BASEBALL SQUAD LEAVES ON TRIP TO COAST TOWNS

Will Play a Six Game Schedule on Seven Day Tour

By Bill Pohlman
Coach "Rich" Fox put 16 of his best diamond artists aboard a bus at 8:30 o'clock this morning and headed for the coast where the Vandals will open the conference season in two battles against the Webfeet tomorrow and Thursday.

The Vandals are brimming over with confidence and left Moscow this morning with the intentions of ending their invasion with, at least, an even break. The results of the battles will depend on how the men are hitting; as the defensive work is good enough to stave off any college batting attack while the pitchers can hold their own in conference company.

The conference schedule has been changed from the original since the return of Washington to coast competition and now stands as follows:
April 29-30, Oregon at Eugene.
May 1-2, Oregon State at Corvallis.
May 4-5, Washington at Seattle.
May 11-12, Washington State at Pullman and Moscow.
May 15-16, Oregon State at Moscow.
May 18-19, Oregon at Moscow.
May 23-25, Washington State at Pullman and Moscow.
May 27-28, Washington at Moscow.

WHITMAN BEATEN ON WALLA WALLA TRACK 70 TO 61

Idaho's powerful track squad invaded Walla Walla last Saturday and copped the opening dual meet of the season when the Vandals grabbed ten firsts and a total of 70 points while Whitman amassed but 61 counters.

The Vandals, improving every week and turning in excellent times in the trials last week, were expected to roll up a huge score against the Missionaries, but could not connect with enough seconds and thirds while the locals took five firsts. McCoy, Vandal star, raked in 16 points for high honors when he took firsts in the pole vault and javelin, and seconds in both hurdles. Lindman, of Whitman, broke his own northwest record mark in the shot put when he tossed the ball 43 feet, 6 1/4 inches. Jossis won the most thrilling event of the day when he passed Serter on the last turn of the 440 and held his lead by a narrow margin during the final spurt. Thomas ran the 880 in the fast time of 2:0.2 while Heath copped the two mile event from Mackenzie in 9:59.3.

BASEBALL SQUAD LEAVES ON TRIP TO COAST TOWNS

By Bill Pohlman
Coach "Rich" Fox put 16 of his best diamond artists aboard a bus at 8:30 o'clock this morning and headed for the coast where the Vandals will open the conference season in two battles against the Webfeet tomorrow and Thursday. The Foxmen land in Corvallis Friday for two Oregon state games and invade Seattle the first of the week to cross bats with the powerful Washington nine which will wind up a hard schedule of six battles in seven days. The Idahoans have had a thorough pre-season training period the last two weeks, with plenty of stress on fundamentals and hitting practice. When they worked in six games with Whitman and the Booster club of Spokane while Fox used all his men in the attempt to get a line on the most effective combination. The frosh club, bolstered by second string varsity players have been working against the regulars each night. The yearling hurlers are good enough to give the men all the batting practice they need. The real strength of the coast teams is unknown except that Oregon State whipped Oregon twice last week in conference games and Fox figures his inexperienced ball players have a better chance to take the Eugene team into camp than they will against the other clubs.

The Vandals are brimming over with confidence and left Moscow this morning with the intentions of ending their invasion with, at least, an even break. The results of the battles will depend on how the men are hitting as the defensive work is good enough to stave off any college batting attack while the pitchers can hold their own in conference company.

This will be the only public appearance of the Idaho swimming team this year.

YEARLING TOSSERS DRILL FOR GAMES

Babes Will Meet W.S.C. Frosh Friday And Saturday

More than forty freshman baseball candidates reported for the opening practice held Saturday revealing a wealth of material from which Coach "Red" Jacoby will be able to pick a strong nine. For the first time in several years there seemed to be an unusual interest being shown in developing a yearling baseball team. Saturday afternoon the freshman squad and the varsity squad staged an interesting 9-inning practice game. Although some of the varsity reserves were playing with the first year men, the Babes showed a lot of baseball ability and played their older brothers on even terms until the last inning when the varsity showed its superiority and showed several runs across the plate.

Jacoby should not have to worry a great deal about freshman chuckers so long as Claude Blair, Hack Albee, and Red Soeurs continue to pitch the kind of ball they have been throwing in practice. Mooney Kilne and Owen Seatz are being worked at the backstop position and it is too early to predict which one of these will hold down the job permanently. "Soulr" Tanner, San Pedro, California, showed all the characteristics of a first class ball player in the game Saturday.

The Babes will be put through several stiff workouts the rest of this week as they meet the W. S. C. Kittens this Friday and Saturday in their opening games.

Homer Hein, brother of Mel, of all-American football fame, added more glory to the house of Hein when he tossed the javelin 199 feet nine inches, to take a first from a powerful field of throwers representing every section of the country. Weldon, of Iowa, took second place when his javelin sailed 192 feet, and Ripper, of Iowa State, got third on his throw of 180 feet.

THREE ARE ENTERED IN DRAWING CONTEST

The architecture department has entered three contestants, James Potter, Joseph Coffey, and Ralph Decker, against Washington State college in a contest in architectural drawing. The project contested is a gate lodge for a large country estate.

The requirements for the project are that the drawing be completed in three weeks. It consisted of a plan of two floors, a section, and a rendered elevation. Idaho won all three places in the contest last year.

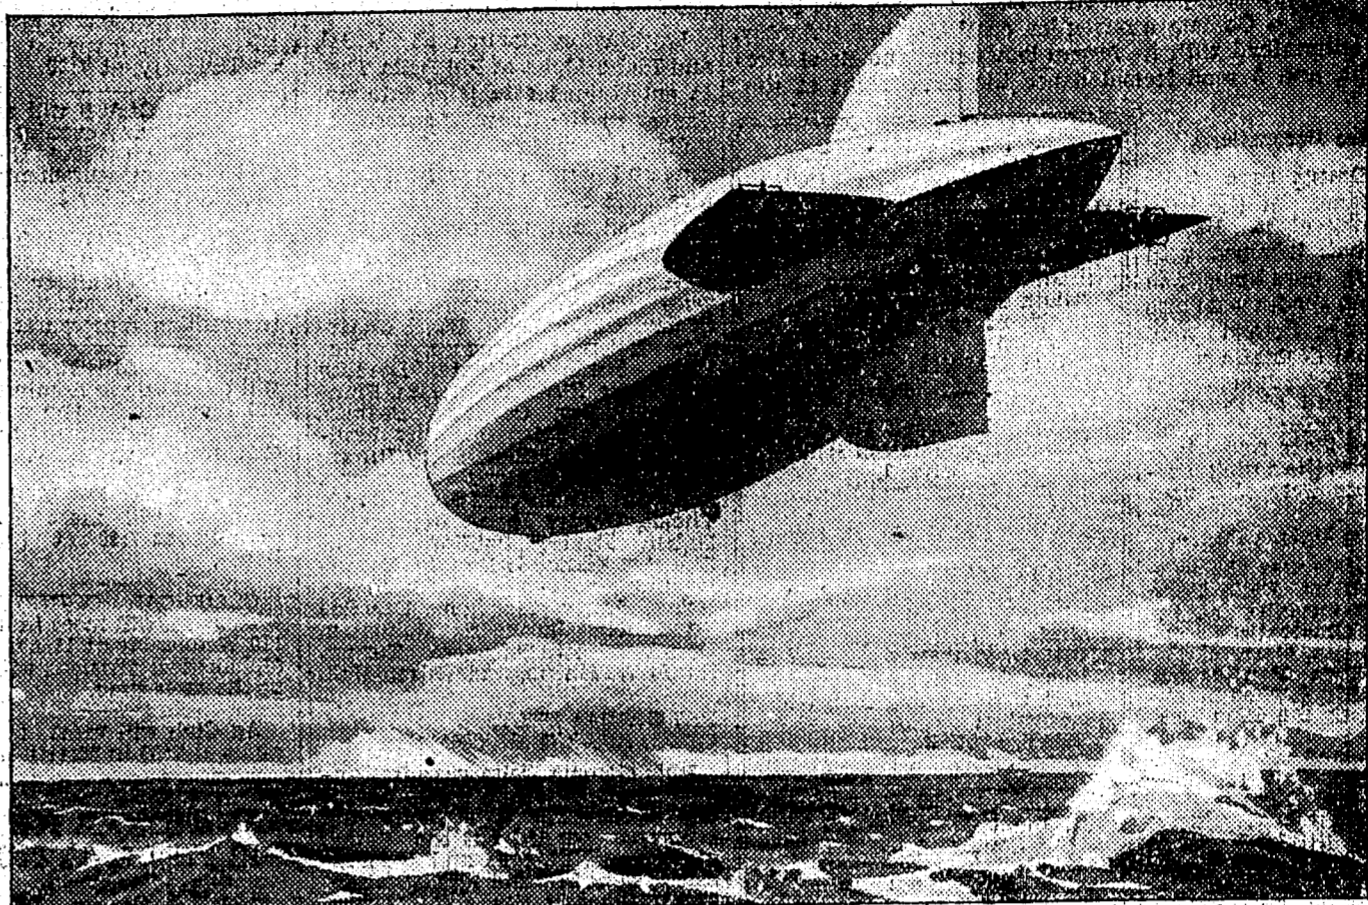

TENNIS CONTEST ON

Tennis ladder challenging will continue until Friday evening, according to Helen Lucas, tennis manager. The tennis ladder is in the women's gymnasium. On Saturday the inter-class tournament will begin, with the three highest on the ladder competing for singles and doubles championship.

Yet you meet me in the city's crowded canyons"

Along the invisible lanes of the air, or among jostling thousands in the city's streets... it's all the same to Chesterfield. For here's a cigarette that goes everywhere, and that tastes right anywhere. Milder and better tobaccos—nothing else—that's what you taste in Chesterfield. And, thanks to the "cross-blend," all of that mild, good taste and aroma is retained!

They Satisfy —that's Why!

FOR NINETEEN years, our Research Department has kept intimate touch with every new development of Science that could be applied to the manufacture of cigarettes. During this period there has been no development of tested value or importance to the smoker which we have not incorporated into the making of Chesterfield cigarettes. Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.
