Hitler's "Brown Shirts" Parade to Show Disapproval of Bruening

Blacks or Browns?

Browns, said President Edwin R. Embree of the Julius Rosenwald fund, should be substituted as the name for the dark tenth of America's population, for the more common one—Negro.

To substantiate his belief he goes back to the bringing of "twenty Negroes" into Anglo-Saxon America in 1619. Showing that no special odium was attached to the begetting of mulatto children in slave days he cites that Thomas Jefferson and other prominent men had contributed materially to the mixture of racial blood.

A fusion of Indian blood is also noted with the white and black, producing a melange of black and white, with a red tinge. United States census counts 20 per cent of Negroes as mulattoes. Some sociological estimates put the percentage as high as 80.

Embree stated that a few more generations of mingling among the Negroes themselves will give a general distribution of inheritance strains, and that every American Negro will have some white blood and most of them Indian ancestry. "They already show traits as uniform as any typical race of mixed ancestry, such for instance as the Anglo-Saxon," said Embree.

His Browns are still mostly peasants on southern farms or laborers in northern factories, but a few have risen to the arts, professions and commerce. In co-operation with states and counties the Rosenwald foundation has established 5000 primary schools for colored children in practically every county of 14 southern states.

Alums Mum.

OSHING, N. Y.—Football has come to Sing Sing, but the teams will probably not make any road trips. The team will be composed of high school and college men who are incarcerated. Two dozen football outfits have been donated. The laws think the game will "teach the men to play according to rules," and he does not anticipate much crabbiness from "alumni" about the way the team is handled.

College Expenses Cut.

WHITMAN COLLEGE, WALLA WALLA.—An interfraternity council committee here has decreed that group formal dance costs be limited to $90 for each dance, and suggested that taxi service be abandoned whenever practical. Corsages and favors were banned. The program is not considered as an indication of the financial unsoundness of the campus social groups, "but as a concentrated effort to relieve Whitman students of superfluous obligations," said a representative of the council.

This action follows closely the announcement by President E. O. Holland of Washington State college of his "ten economic points" for reducing the costs of students at the Pullman institution.

Enough of This.

Why not let Abraham Lincoln be born in the historically famous one-room log cabin on Nolin creek in Harlan county, Ky. Louis A. Warren, Ft. Wayne, Ind., a Lincoln biographer, claims to have discovered the actual birthplace—a 2-story house on Milk creek 20 miles from Nolin creek. This is the 16th reputed place of Lincoln's nativity.

Coupled with the establishing of a new birthplace is the former president's illegitimacy if born anywhere else. This may be cited as a stern attempt to uncover the stark truth. But the fact that he was born and served humanity well is sufficient—where and under what circumstances is of small consequence.

"Brown Shirts" Strut.

BRUNSWICK, Germany.—Clashes which caused one death and a score of injuries were followed by a demonstration of 75,000 of Adolf Hitler's national socialist party "brown shirts." The "nazis" met on the anniversary of the battle of Leipsic to renew their allegiance to the attack on the government of Chancellor Heinrich Brüning. The Hitlerites were keen to show their recently increased ranks, which marched behind "nazi swastika" flags.

Boycott Warring Nations.

NEW YORK.—Economic pressure exerted upon any nation signatory to the Paris peace pact which goes to war in violation of treaty provisions will be the subject for study of a committee, the formation of which was announced by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia University. Dr. Butler was invited to head the committee. He believes it the duty of signatory nations "if all other means fail to prevent hostilities," to refuse shipment to the outlaw country of ammunition, raw materials, and other commodities, "under the guise of neutrality."

"ELMER" IS SIGMA NU LONE CANINE

Ordinance Says All Sigma Nu Dogs Shall be Named "Elmer"

The Sigma Nu's one dog this year is Elmer—of uncertain lineage, but nevertheless most valuable. Elmer was acquired last spring during rough week. Bud Fraley, returning from a little field trip, brought Elmer with him, and he has remained ever since. Elmer is so named because of a special Sigma Nu ordinance reading, "All Sigma Nu dogs shall be named Elmer."

This dog is very well mannered. He shakes hands nicely and speaks, but never out of turn. He is also exceedingly well educated as is fitting for a college man. He can stand on his hind legs, sit up, and do many other unusual stunts. Elmer just loves it at the Sigma Nu house. Perhaps one reason is because he is fed anything he wants whenever he asks for it. Another of Elmer's accomplishments is his ability to recognize a brother anywhere; he is now a full fledged member. He can readily distinguish between Sigma Nu's and other people, and no doubt, between pledges and members.

IDAHO TO COMPETE IN JUDGING CONTEST

Meet to be Held With Pacific International Livestock Show

Idaho's Vandal spirit will be materialized in arenas other than the gridiron this fall. The judging teams of the college of agriculture have begun grooming themselves for the intercollegiate judging contest to be held with the Pacific International Livestock show at Portland the last week in October.

The teams will do judging in dairy cattle, dairy products, animal husbandry, and grain and crop identification.

Working Hard.

A large number of students have been working strenuously for the past week under Professors H. W. Hubert, C. W. Hickman, J. E. Nordby, Dr. R. Theophilus and F. W. Atkeson. The enrollment in the college of agriculture is almost as heavy as last year and is making competition unusually keen. The spirit among the various teams this year is high.

The teams will be in competition with teams representing the University of California, Oregon State college, Washington State college, University of Nevada, University of British Columbia, Utah Agricultural college, and Montana State college.

Prepare for Contest.

Preparation for the contests at Portland is one of the largest activities of the students in the college of agriculture. The contests are held throughout the week, each contest taking an entire day. The eight-hour contest enacts a severe mental strain. After each department has finished its judging, time is spent in viewing the hundreds of animals, discussing their merits with prominent national stockmen, and inspecting cereal plants and cereal shipping ports to the Orient.

BLUE KEY PLANS FOR HOMECOMING

A special meeting of the Blue Key, national honorary service fraternity was held at noon Monday.

President Kenneth O'Leary appointed the following as chairmen of special committees: Paul Jones, chairman of the publicity committee; Warren McDaniel, chairman of homecoming arrangements and football programs; Harry Robb, chairman of the train committee; and Walter Gillespie, chairman of the alumni committee.

McDaniel will have charge of the campus decorations for homecoming. Robb is investigating the possibilities of chartering a special train for the W. S. C. Idaho game at Pullman, November 7. Gillespie is writing to every Blue Key alumni, inviting them to a banquet which will be held at the Blue Bucket during homecoming.

METHODIST GIRLS TAKE NEW PLEDGES

Kappa Phi announces the pledging of Merle Bateman, Winifred Bateman, Alice Bell, Eva Jane Brown, Lenore Burnette, Doris Emery, Rebecca Fleming, Ellen Frazier, Audrey Garlon, Pearl Hadly, Mary Hartley, Maxine Hoffman, Melba Hoffman, Ruth Johnson, Myra King, Dorothy Menzies, Helen Moore, Vida Nichols-Roy, Bessie Olmstead, Ethelyn O'Neal, Mabel Patchen, Erma Dean Sogard, Violet Songstad, Irene Spencer and Vivian Stone.

Pledging took place in the Methodist church Sunday at 9 o'clock. After receiving pledge ribbons the new women were serenaded by the members, who sang "Kappa Phi Song." Formal pledging will be next Sunday at 4 p. m. in the church auditorium.

YALE BOASTS GENIUS

Yale University boasts a student who spends three and one-half hours each day going to and from school, works eight hours a day, and finds time to attend classes. Moore Lindgren, eminent economic geologist, who died recently, Dean Finch is expected home next Monday.

ART STUDENTS RECEIVE HONOR

Architectural Students Get Invitation to Attend Honor Banquet

The students of the department of architecture will make a trip to Spokane on Saturday, October 24 at the invitation of the Spokane Society of Architects to meet Robert K. Kohn, F. A. I. A. president of the American Institute of Architects. The American Institute of Architects is the national organization of all practicing architects in the United States.

Mr. Kohn wishes to meet all the students in architecture to discuss the duties and possibilities of the architectural profession. The students of Idaho and W. S. C. are holding a banquet at 6:30 p. m. in the Spokane Hotel in honor of Mr. Kohn.

PLAN HOMECOMING FETES FOR ALUMS

"I" Club and Alumni Have Charge of Homecoming Dance

The all college mixer, which usually follows the Homecoming game will be turned into a general mixer for everybody this year, it was decided at a meeting of the Moscow alumni last night. Plans were also made for other entertainments of the visiting alumni.

The need of a general get-together of old friends every year is the reason for this action taken. Alumni, old students, guests of the University, town people, and students are invited. The "I" club will cooperate with the alumni and will have charge of the managing of the dance.

Immediately following the bonfire the alumni will hold a banquet at the Blue Bucket. Guests of the university and town people are invited. The banquet will be informal Saturday morning. It is planned to have the different classes meet and have breakfast together. Dinner parties will follow the game. Visitors are urged to visit the campus and also to see the decorations of the various houses and halls.

DRAMA STUDENTS TO SHOW COMEDY

The hero is one of the "ten million" who reads and believes the "Success" stories in magazines, and the heroine, his wife, succeeds in extracting him from a series of harrowing situations. Just how she does so provides the basis for comedy. Harry Robb and Connelly's Broadway success, "To the Ladies," to be given here early next month by the advanced play production class.

Central figures in this comedy hit are Elsie and Leonard Beebe, Catherine Brandt, Nampa junior is to play the feminine lead. John Thomas has been selected to play opposite.

Harry Robb, Nampa as the paternal piano manufacturer and employer of young Beebe, and Elinor Jacobs, Lewiston, as his wife, will lend able support. On alternate nights Howard Altnow, Spokane, and John Milner, Twin Falls will play the part of a troublesome co-worker of the hero's. Other members of the cast are Rollin Hunter Boise; Casady Taylor, Boise; Franklin Janssen, Coalgate; Winifred Janssen, Coalgate; Walter E. Pratt, Milwaukee, Wis.; and Marthalene Tanner, Twin Falls.

Castings, with the exception of several minor parts, has been completed, and the play is now being intensively rehearsed.

SPOKANE PAPER CHARTERS TRAIN

Chronicle Will Send Army of Newsboys on Special Train.

The Spokane Chronicle will be sponsors of this year's "Bulldog" special, Northern Pacific officials here announced. The possibility of having to use two trains was expressed.

A feature of the special will be a small army of sixty newsboys, who are coming as guests of the Chronicle. The special will also contain Spokane alumni, northwestern alumni, Gonzaga fans, and the student body of the Spokane school.

Bill Mulligan, graduate manager of Gonzaga, states that they will not have the Pep band at the game this year. He corroborated the statement of Northern Pacific officials that there was a strong possibility of two specials.

PLAN TO REPORT FOR GOVERNMENT

Dean J. W. Finch left Saturday for New York city where he will act as a government witness in a case against the Cotter Mines company of Butte, Montana. He will make a technical report on property which was illegally promoted through the mails.

After the trial Dean Finch will meet in the capacity of chairman with the board of authors, who are composing the Lindgren Memorial volume. "This work is being compiled in a memorial to Walter Moore Lindgren, eminent economic geologist, who died recently. Dean Finch is expected home next Monday.

BROSNAN TO SPEAK BEFORE PORTLAND HISTORIC SOCIETY

Idaho Historian to Deliver Annual Address Before Portland Group

Dr. C. J. Brosnan, head of the department of American history of the University of Idaho, has accepted an invitation to deliver the annual address before the Oregon Historical society at Portland, Monday evening, October 26. Dr. Brosnan will speak on "The Mission of Jason Lee."

This invitation comes in recognition of the extensive research studies which Dr. Brosnan has made on Jason Lee, the pioneer missionary who established the first permanent American settlement in the Oregon country, then a vast unpeopled region. The centenary of Jason Lee's work in the Oregon country now is being celebrated.

Dr. Brosnan began his studies on Lee under Professor J. F. Turner at Harvard university in 1920, and is regarded as an authority on the picturesque missionary-colonizer. As a result of his studies he has written a book "Jason Lee; Prophet of the New Oregon," which will issue from the Macmillan press in the early winter.

The lecture originally was scheduled for Saturday afternoon before the society's officers and guests but because of the current interest in the mission, it has been changed to a public meeting Monday evening. Portland newspapers, the Pacific Christian Advocate and Portland Methodist churches are cooperating with the Historical society in this year's program.

Prominent Oregonians who are officers of the society are: Hon. Julius L. Meier, Governor of Oregon; Hon. C. A. Howard, state superintendent of public instruction; Judge Charles C. Gary; Dr. R. C. Clark, head of the department of history, University of Oregon; and Leslie M. Scott, son of the late Harvey W. Scott, editor of the Oregonian.

VETERAN RUNNER IS ON SICK LIST

John Thomas Will be Out of Time Trials Wednesday Afternoon

John Thomas, veteran distance runner and an outstanding prospect on this year's varsity cross-country squad has been ill in the infirmary for the past few days and will probably not be in condition for the time trials to be given tomorrow afternoon. Coach Otto Anderson is giving the trials in order to get a slant on Idaho's prospects for a trip to the A. U. cross-country meet at Salt Lake this Thanksgiving.

The Idaho coach is optimistic about the showing of his squad this far and feels that they will make a strong bid for the high position that the Vandals rated at the meet last year.

MOSCOW-SPOKANE GRIDMEN BATTLE

Moscow High School Will Fight Lewis and Clark Here Saturday

Prospects for the Lewis and Clark-Moscow football game to be played next Saturday afternoon on MacLean field point to the largest gridiron crowd in the history of north Idaho high school competition. Hope is rated about equal between the local and Spokane schools, and with the Idaho Vandals resting over the week-end, an unusually large crowd is expected to witness the tangle.

Moscow has the most imposing record for the season thus far with a 7-0 over the Nez Perce eleven to start the year, and a series of victories over strong Idaho teams, including a 54-0 win from Genesee last Friday. Moscow suffered her only defeat when North Central high school of Spokane nosed her out in the last 10 seconds of play by the score of 13-7.

Lewis and Clark has lost several games this season by unusually tough break, and will be down Saturday to make up for lost scores.

SHOW LIVESTOCK IN NORTH IDAHO

Professor Atkeson To Have Charge of Exhibit.

Professor F. W. Atkeson, head of the dairy husbandry department of the university college of agriculture, will be chairman at the Sandpoint livestock exhibition, October 22, announces W. L. Stephens, northern district extension agent. On that date the special livestock train bearing prize animals from the east and middle west to the Pacific International Livestock exposition at Portland, stops at Sandpoint to give northern Idaho farmers and stockmen a high class, one-day stock show. A program for the day is being provided under the direction of the Sandpoint chamber of commerce and the agricultural extension division.

ELECT OFFICERS AT STUDENT ASAE

Regular Meetings Held the First Wednesday Each Month.

A meeting of the student branch of the A. S. A. E. was held in the Engineering building at 4:30 Wednesday. Donald Dubois, former president presided during the election of new officers for the school term. The new officers elected are: Martin Thorsen, president, Donald Dubois, vice-president, Roger Wade, secretary-treasurer.

At this meeting it was decided to hold regular meetings the first Wednesday of each month at 7 o'clock in the evening. Those who are interested in A. S. A. E. activities are welcome to attend.

After the short business session, a fine lunch was generously provided by Professor and Mrs. Hobart Beresford.

MANY SONG HITS IN POPULAR PLAY

"To the Ladies" Unfolds Comedy of Clever Young Wife

On the evenings of November 13 and 14, the university stage will be set for "To the Ladies," a rollicking three act comedy, in which Catherine Brandt, playing the role of a clever young wife, makes good her determination to make something of her husband, whose part is being acted by John Thomas.

Connelly and Kaufman in this scintillating three act comedy have put across the idea that the man is master in his own house, but that he is ruled by his wife. By skillful manipulation, his wife contrives to make him believe in himself and his own success. She even achieves success for him.

Catherine Brandt, Nampa, junior, has been cast in the role of the clever young wife who is determined to make something of her husband and she does it, even to making an after-dinner speaker of him. John Thomas plays the masculine lead as the aspiring young husband. Harry Robb and Elinor Jacobs, as the wealthy piano manufacturer John Kincaid, and his wife afford an amusing parallel, in that Mrs. Kincaid also rules her husband.

Running a whole season in New York, Helen Hayes created the role to be played by Miss Brandt. Several song hits are to be included in Miss Brandt's part, including one popular several years ago "Happy Days."

LOAN FUND GIVEN BY ENGLISH CLUB

Assets of the emergency student loan fund took another leap Friday when the English club voted to contribute $100 to the purse which already amounts to more than $6000.

The meeting of the English club which was the first held this year was called primarily to discuss the loan question and to elect new officers. The club had on hand money carried over from last year and felt that assisting students in financing their university education this year was the best possible use for the funds.

The $100 is to be contributed for one year only. The loan is subject to withdrawal later, in case the money is needed; but may be extended next year. Though it will probably be used exactly as the $250 now in the general student fund, which the club contributed some years ago, specific conditions will be determined by the executive committee of the group.

New officers for this year, elected at the meeting, include Harry Robb, Nampa, president; Kathryn Hart, Rigby, vice president; Constance Woods, Spokane, secretary; and Velma Andersen, St. Anthony, treasurer. These officers will appoint the general committees for the year immediately.

CHARLES CHENEY PICKS CHAIRMEN

One Publicity Chairman Appointed in Each Group House

Charles Cheney, senior class president, has appointed the following publicity chairman from each house on the campus:

IDAHO GOLFERS START PRACTICE

Lewis, San Francisco, Is Outstanding Among New Players

Although the football game is in full swing and the majority of the campus interest is in that direction, a few of the faithful divot diggers are still swinging their woods and irons.

Last spring much interest was shown in the "Ancient and Royal" game of golf and an unofficial team took the measure of a similar squad from across the line. Washington State has started mobilizing early for next year and large classes are turning out daily for instruction under a professional. However, Idaho should not be far behind, for there will be some good material added to last year's returning players. Outstanding among the low scores for the fall has been William Lewis. Hailing from San Francisco, Lewis has been stroking the ball with precision and has already come close to last year's low scores.

Mac O'Brien played golf much of the summer and was on the team representing Spokane at the National Public Links championship in St. Paul. O'Brien hits a long ball and will be a real threat in case Idaho sends a team to the Northwest Inter-collegiate tournament next spring.

INTRAMURAL RACE SET FOR FRIDAY

Kappa Sigs Favored to Win Annual Campus Cross Country Scramble

With the intra-mural cross country run less than three days distant, prospective contestants are working hard to be in condition. Approximately 70 men have been turning out regularly to Coach Charles Heath, although five men's organizations have failed to qualify a single man. The Phi Dels, Sigma Chi, Ridenbaugh hall, S. A. E., and Chi Alpha Pis will each be docked 25 points in the intramural running if they fail to enter the competition.

Several men have failed to check out each practice at 4 o'clock with Coach Heath. Competitors must report for practice at least eight times in addition to taking physical examination which will be given at 3:30 p. m. Friday in the gym.

In the time trials during the past week, the following men have shown up particularly promising: Brown, Delta Chi; Griffith, Lambda Chi; Lash, Beta; Frederick and Ahlskog, Delta Tau Delta; Winegard and Darrington, L. D. S.; and Jarlett, A. T. C. As a team, the Kappa Sigs took the strongest lead at this stage in the game, with excellent prospects for duplicating their first place win of last year. The final meet will start at 4:15 p. m. Friday, on MacLean field, ending in front of the grandstand.

AG SCHOOL WILL ENTER EXHIBIT

A carload each of sheep, fat steers, and hogs will be shown by the university college of agriculture at the Pacific International Livestock exposition at Portland October 24 to 31. The consignments as a whole outclasses anything entered by the university at the Portland show in recent years, declares C. W. Hickman, head of the department of animal husbandry.

Last year in the sheep entries the college of agriculture won the grand champion wether, three first places and three first place pens of three. Hogs shown last fall at the Spokane Interstate fair and the Pacific International won a total of 50 blue ribbons and 13 championships out of 56 classes entered.

The university college of agriculture has exhibited stock at the Portland show ever since its inception 20 years ago, with uniform success in the prize lists.

"Catholicism" was the subject of a talk of Rev. Edmund R. Cody to the DeMet club Sunday morning.

Following Rev. Cody's talk, George Swindaman, president, explained the purposes of the club.

A series of interesting discussions during the social hour were led by Frances McMonigle, chairman of the social committee.

PI LAMBDA THETA IS TO ENTERTAIN

Members of Pi Lambda Theta, women's education honorary, are to be hostesses to all women enrolled in the school of education, at a festive next Thursday evening, according to Venna Andersen, president of the organization.

Freshman women have been given permission to attend the party, which will be held at Hays hall at 8 o'clock.

TAKE MORE WOMEN

Additional names of women selected for the Travel Club are Margaret McComb and Betty Syme.

SOUTHERN BRANCH SENDS BIG GROUP NORTH THIS YEAR

Forty-three Students Will Complete Work at Moscow

Forty-three students who were enrolled last year at the Southern Branch of the University of Idaho transferred to the Moscow campus this fall. Three years ago the number of transfers from the Pocatello campus was 16, and the following year, 38. Last year's total for both semesters was 51.

Practically all of these transfers registered at Moscow with full junior standing. Faculty members report that they are excellent students, and have no difficulty in swinging into their advanced courses. They are also well represented in campus activities.

Southern Branch transfers who registered at Moscow this fall are the following: Evelyn Barnes, Llovd W. Berg, William Dean Howells, Katherine A. Keener, Robert W. Manning, John Massier, Luel Moore, Frank A. Masdorf, Gady May Kilson, Arthur E. Young, Pocatello; Irene May Ash, Hush Redford, Ira Mae Schofield, Rupert; Clayton W. Boyd, James N. Marshall, Idaho Falls; Henry Gustav K. Krave, Dorothy Elizabeth Menzies, Nampa; Dennis W. Keef, Donald Snyder, New Plymouth.

Charles Crawford, Kenneth Crawford, Darlington; Walter Berryman, Azelia Kranz, Blackfoot; Allan W. Bacheller, Fred Paul Maus, Boise; Dave Bollingbroke, Burton Hanson, Molad; Jacob O. Ashcraft, Jr., St. Anthony; Kenneth Beckstead, Whitney; End Cecil Brossard, Rigby; Willis J. Brown, Huston; Ada Bolle Brucech, Almo.

CROWD INSPECTS IDAHO LIVESTOCK

Stock Ready Today for Shipment to Portland International

Livestock herds which have won renown throughout the entire west were on display Sunday afternoon when Idaho's college of agriculture held its annual open house at the experiment station farm.

Sheep, steers, and hogs to be shown at the Pacific International at Portland in two weeks were on display between the visiting hours of 2 to 4 o'clock. This stock was in the peak of condition and is ready for shipment to the Portland classic today. Other stock on display was Holstein and Jersey dairy herds, Dutch Jersey and Poland China hogs, Percheron horses, half a dozen different breeds of sheep and poultry flocks.

Reception Annual Affair
The "open house" reception has been a regular event on the university farm since 1922. Each year it attracts hundreds of visitors, not only from Moscow and vicinity, but several hours distant. Members of the college of agriculture faculty and students were on hand Sunday and guided the visitors to the various displays.

PRESIDENT NEALE BACK FROM TRIP

Makes Two Addresses Before Idaho District Educational Meetings

Back once again from southern Idaho, Mervin Gordon Neale, president of the university, was in his office Monday morning after a hurried three day trip to Idaho Falls and Pocatello where he made two addresses to district meetings of the Idaho educational association.

While on this trip Dr. Neale stopped at the southern branch of the university for a brief visit and incidentally, was there during rally on the evening before their football game with the Butte Miners.

Dr. Neale visited Clency St. Clair, member of the board of regents, while he was in Idaho Falls. Mr. St. Clair had been seriously ill during the summer and is just now recovering from an operation undergone in August. Dr. Neale reports that Mr. St. Clair's recovery has been very satisfactory and that he expects to be out within the next few weeks.

VANDALETES SING

The Vandalettes sang at Pullman last night where the Moscow and Colfax Kiwanians were the guests of the Pullman club.

The selections which the sextet sang were: "I Love You Truly," Bond; "Ma Lindy Lou," Strickland; and "The Kiss Waltz," Arditi. With the soprano obligato sung by Agnes Bothne, director.

The Idaho Argonaut

Official publication of the Associated Students of the University of Idaho, issued every Tuesday and Friday of the college year. Entered as second class matter at the Postoffice at Moscow, Idaho. Member of Pacific Inter-collegiate Press Association.

Editorial and business office, room 202 Memorial gymnasium, phone 2207. Monday and Thursday nights, after 7 o'clock, Daily Star-Mirror office, phone 2222.

BUSINESS STAFF

WALT GILLESPIE Business Manager JOHN TORREY Circulation Manager

Look Around

It's all right to be pessimistic some of the time, but every now and then Idaho students should take time out to look around and see just what a really nice place they leave during vacations. Some of them would no doubt be surprised at what they saw.

The university didn't get a new library last year, but it is fortunate in having two fine buildings of recent construction, the Memorial gym and Science hall, neither would look out of place at Harvard which counts its voluntary donations in eight figures. Idaho has a football stadium that will seat all its own fans and any Gonzaga cares to send down at the homecoming game. It has, too, acres of room for building expansion, the good will of 5000 town people, the moral and financial support of the business men, a real college atmosphere, a campus apart from the business district of Moscow, and twenty splendid fraternity and sorority houses, with another well on its way. Look around.

A Dollar or A Day

From certain sources and general indications, news stories, personal accounts and so forth, one would almost be led to believe that the Moscow police force has been slightly discriminatory in making its arrests since school began. Of course, that can't be so, but things just look that way.

During the summer months traffic regulations were almost non-existent and fines were few and far between. Depression was playing its part. Awnings, supposedly seven feet above the sidewalk, dropped to five feet five and there they hang today. But one has to be lax during hard times, of course. Then school opened and in the first month the police force polished the nickle-plated stars and has come to life. Arrests of students have been numerous and fines frequent. Evidently the officers of the law have found a gold mine.

Now, let it be understood that justifiable arrests are commended rather than condemned. The police department certainly should not be criticized for attempting to curb infraction of the law, and probably every student arrested has been guilty of the crime. But is it unreasonable to wonder at such an about face of policy since summer. If that policy were also made to apply to speeding citizens, there would be little objection, but so far it has been the student who has taken it in the neck. So, just for appearances sake, Mr. Cop, how's to make your laws apply to everyone?

The Loan Fund

The $100 contribution to the emergency student loan fund by the English club should be an example to other organizations on the campus. The English club no doubt enjoys a unique situation inasmuch as it had such a large sum in its treasury, but surely all the other groups at Idaho aren't commencing the year completely "broke."

Under university organizations in the Idaho bulletin, 60 different clubs, besides social fraternities and sororities, are listed. If each one of these contributed $10, they would add to the loan fund the staggering sum of $600. If each fraternity and sorority gave the same amount, another $200 would be added.

When the English club can contribute $100, one-tenth that sum shouldn't be so hard to raise. This might be a little too much for organizations with only a few members, but the larger groups ought to make up for the deficit.

Several weeks ago, the business men of Moscow were appealed to for funds to bring more students to the university, and in less than an hour they pledged $2,000. When presented to the faculty, the project drew $2,100 in one day. That the students themselves be equally responsive wherever possible and help out less fortunate persons who would like to enter school next semester, only seems right. As the old colored preacher told his dusky congregation, "Let dem what has give unto dem what hasn't — and Ah hasn't."

Looking for a Job?

Figures can be made to prove anything, not because figures lie, but because liars figure. The other day some figures appeared when tended to indicate that all college students are morose. That is not new, of course, but these figures were. They showed that most students graduating from universities become tramps, street cleaners or service station operators. Well, that's all right. In this case the figures probably weren't compiled by liars. They just proved something, leaving as the only thing to do about it, the question of deciding which occupation one wants to take up.

Consider street cleaning. Now there's a topic that would interest any man. What joys there would be in cogitating the theory of state while making Main street spick and span! What fun there would be in reciting Caesar's famous line, "Veni, vici, vixi," as the last shovelful was hoisted into the wagon. Or, think of the life of a college tramp. There could be nothing finer, more entertaining, more uplifting than discussing with fellow bums the relative merits of the classical theory of economics as opposed to the Austrian theory. Long waits in the freight yards would become shorter as one tried to remember why the Milesian philosophers were significant. Then, there is the life work of making automobiles happy. Psychology applied to windshield washing, art applied to smearing grease, physics to discover why wheels go around and chemistry to know why gasoline and water don't mix. All of these things are but indications of the joys awaiting the college graduate.

But the hopeful thing about these figures was that along with them went a statement explaining that the greatest number of college graduate failures was due to a lack of foresight and vision in planning a college course to suit individual aptitudes. Here's hoping and praying that every student here knows where he's going and what he wants to take to get there. But, again, if one doesn't know, he need not worry. College is a great place. Everybody is supposed to come out alike. The holder of one degree is practically assured a job on the end of a broom, and with two degrees a strangle hold on a grease gun is a cinch.

The CINEMANIAC

NIGHT NURSE, coming to the Kenworthy Theatre Friday and Saturday, achieves a higher plane in the cinema than it did as a novel. Barbara Stanwyck shows an understanding portrayal of the girl, who sick of ethics takes up life as a nurse, and then black lists herself in her chosen profession for humanity's sake. Clark Gable also deserves credit in the characterization of the rough chauffeur. SIDEWALKS OF NEW YORK, opening today at the Kenworthy Theatre, stars Buster Keaton and Anita Page. The film promises to be a good comedy with Keaton funnier than ever. He plays the part of a millionaire's son seeking to reform the children of the tenement houses. Many amusing incidents follow, in which Buster Keaton is manhandled by the gas house gang. Anita Page, as the heroine, also handles her part cleverly.

CAUGHT, is a film of the Western outlawry, starring Louise Dressler and Richard Arlen. The film is based on the life and adventures of Calamity Jane, a notorious woman of the west. The film is cleverly handled and both leads are to be commended. Some of the situations of the plot are weak but they do not affect the cinema too much.

Junior Class Will Revel At Jolly Mixer Tomorrow

Tomorrow night, the first Junior mixer of the year will be held at the Blue Bucket inn. As is the usual procedure, the dance will be extremely informal. A good orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music, and the entertainment committee promises an unusual program. A class meeting will be held sometime during the evening. The class plans to have several of these mixers during the year. A few hours of fun and gaiety on a week-night are thoroughly enjoyed by the upperclassmen.

Dances Given.

Three fraternities and two sororities honored their pledges with dances this week-end. On Friday evening, Sigma Nu and Kappa Kappa Gamma did the honors. Tau Kappa Epsilon and Lambda Chi Alpha and Gamma Phi Beta gave gay affairs on Saturday night. Lindley hall and Forney hall also held informal dances on Friday evening.

Homecoming.

Homecoming plans are now being made by practically every organization and group house on the campus. Each sorority and fraternity anticipates the arrival of many Idaho graduates and will entertain them in a royal manner. Decorations for each house is the all-important aspect of the week-end at the present time. As usual, there will undoubtedly be a wide variety of ideas for the welcome signs. The intercollegiate knights and the "I" club are working on the all-college mixer to be held Friday, the 30th, and the annual Homecoming dance, to be held on Saturday, the 31st, is being sponsored by the alumni association. The frosh men are already preparing for the bonfire and rally and a big week-end is expected.

LAMBDA CHI ENTERTAIN

The pledges of the Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity were royally entertained at a pledge dance given in their honor by the members. The dance was held in the chapter house, Saturday, October 17. Autumn colors were used in cleverly decorating the rooms in fall raiment, and a cheery fall spirit predominated. Patrons and patronesses of the dance were Mr. and Mrs. Barnum, Mr. and Mrs. Luke, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA GIVES PLEDGE DANCE

Kappa Kappa Gamma honored its sixteen pledges with a dance Friday night. The decorations consisted of asters, chrysanthemums and autumn leaves. White candles furnished the only light in the house. The patrons and patronesses were: Mrs. Elizabeth Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hickman, Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Earl David were guests of the chapter.

Weekend guests of Gamma Phi Beta last week were Mrs. F. D. Druding and daughter, Eleanor Wallace, and Mrs. F. H. Rehbreg, Kamiah.

"AG BOWL" IS SUCCESS

The annual "Ag Bowl" given Saturday evening was a success. The Women's gym was decorated with straw and hay with many pumpkins scattered around the floor. Prizes were awarded during the evening for the best costumes. Music was furnished by Rosie Lane's orchestra. The patrons and patronesses were: Dean and Mrs. E. S. Idings, Professor and Mrs. E. S. Synder, Dean and Mrs. C. W. Hungerford, Dean and Mrs. J. A. Kostelak, Dr. and Mrs. Halverson, Dr. and Mrs. Vincent, Professor and Mrs. C. W. Hickman, Professor and Mrs. W. H. Hulbert, and Professor and Mrs. Claude Wakefield.

Mr. Farrell Elmore, Rupert was a luncheon guest of Beta Theta Pi Wednesday. Phi Chi Theta held a luncheon and short business meeting at the Blue Bucket inn Thursday noon.

Delta Delta Delta entertained their brothers and sons at a dinner on Wednesday. Those present were: Donald Griffith, Leo Kraemer, Charles Neeley, Clark Neeley, Warren Brown, Lawrence Peck, Wallace McPhillamey, Philip Hartley, Albert Anderson, Everett Anderson, and William Merrick.

FORNEY GIVES INFORMAL DANCE

Forney Hall entertained at an informal dance Friday evening. The Halloween motif was carried out in the decorations. Patrons and patronesses were Mrs. Evan Clark, Miss Dorothy Shears, Miss Alice Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Jones, and Dr. and Mrs. Schubert.

T. K. E. DANCES

Tau Kappa Epsilon entertained their pledges at a dance held Saturday night given in their chapter house. Decorations consisted of a large green frosh hat in one corner, and a large maddle with Tau Kappa Epsilon pledge button on it. Sophomore edicts decorated the walls. Patrons and patronesses included: Professor and Mrs. W. C. Livingston, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mathews.

GAMMA PHI BETA HOLDS INFORMAL

Gamma Phi Beta entertained their pledges at a dance held last Saturday night at their chapter house. The house was decorated very attractively with fall flowers and bright colored leaves. Patrons and patronesses included: Mrs. Wam Truitt, Lieutenant and Mrs. John Sheehy, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cowgill, and Mrs. William McKenna.

Miss Rita Yost of Bovill, was a week-end guest at the Pi Beta Phi house.

SIGMA NU HONORS PLEDGES

Sigma Nu entertained at an informal dance in honor of their pledges Friday at the L. D. S. seminary. A reproduction of their pin was featured in the decorations. Whitlock's orchestra furnished the music. Patrons and patronesses were Dean and Mrs. William E. Masterson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Cornelson, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Packer, and Mr. and Mrs. Bert Latig.

Mrs. William Blake, Dorothy Taylor, McCall; Barbara Felton, Kathryn Lane, Lewiston; Helen Blake, Spokane; Mrs. Ira Robson, Kellogg; Mrs. Andrew Bloom and Mrs. Carl Jockheck, Elk River were weekend guests of Delta Gamma. Mrs. Houston, Caldwell, Mrs. W. S. McBirey, the mother of three Idaho Betas, and Mrs. L. W. Thrailkill, Boise, were weekend guests of Beta Theta Pi.

Kappa Alpha Theta dinner guest on Saturday was Marian Fry. Breakfast guests on Sunday morning were: Ed Tobin, Harry Dewey, Milton Haines, and Mrs. Bergeron. Sunday dinner guests was Grace Rapheal.

The Delta Delta Delta formal reception which was scheduled for Sunday evening, has been indefinitely postponed.

Rev. and Mrs. Roger P. Oliver and Mr. and Mrs. Victor N. Ramsdell were dinner guests of Chi Alpha Pi Sunday.

Sigma Alpha Iota held an informal recital Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at Isabel Clark's studio. Hazel Hayner, sophomore, is the only pledge for this semester.

CAR, TRAIN HIT; STUDENT'S HURT

Ernest Palmer, senior, received a cut on the forehead and Jack Williams, sophomore, suffered minor injuries when an Overland coach driven by Palmer crashed into a northbound freight train at the Sixth street crossing of the Northern Pacific railroad last night at 10 o'clock. The car, owned by Palmer, was badly damaged. According to witnesses Palmer was driving slowly but failed to stop.

CHURCH TO GREET BISHOP WEDNESDAY

Meetings of special interest are scheduled for Wednesday afternoon and evening when Bishop Titus Lowe, Portland, of the Methodist Episcopal church, comes to Moscow on an official visit. Accompanying will be three other leading figures of the church.

Bishop Lowe will appear at the chamber of commerce meeting at noon, and will appear at meetings in the afternoon and evening at the Methodist church. A banquet for all church members will be held at 6:30 o'clock.

With Bishop Lowe will be Principal H. K. Moudol, one of the leading educators of India; Dr. Bert E. Smith of Chicago, and Dr. Paul H. Ashby of Walla Walla.

Bishop Lowe has traveled extensively, having lived for eight years in India and has worked in Africa and South America. He is widely conversant with the political and social, economic and religious situation throughout the world.

Principal Moudol is a graduate of Oxford and has studied and traveled in America. He is heralded as a brilliant speaker.

Woods Makes Strong Stand Against Vectorities Attack

It was recently discovered that Joe Woods has acute attacks of accelerated vectorities. This is the very worst stage of the dread disease, vectorities, which is running rampant on the campus. "Just like writers' cramp, and those who eat too much get the gout, so is accelerated vectorities just one of those things a person will get," said Woods.

Vectorities starts with just shivery spells and other symptoms, but by the time it becomes accelerated one has shooting pains in the wrists and back of the neck; one sees spots and triangles before the eyes, and in all otherwise is exceedingly uncomfortable.

Only One. As has been said, the acute attacks of which Joe Woods has the distinction of being, at present, the only sufferer, is the worst stage to which the disease advances. Soon, however, many more will undoubtedly be suffering from acute attacks.

Mr. Woods feels much better now as he has completed the Chapter just a few days ago. He may have a relapse along about quiz time. There are about thirty people on the campus who are victims of vectorities, all of whom are struggling madly to finish the Chapter as soon as possible.

Perhaps the person suffering

most now—Woods having slightly recovered—are James Potter, Robert Greene and Linn Cowgill. They have not as yet finished the Chapter, and it is expected their stage will soon advance to the accelerated.

Caution should be taken by all not to go into this matter in detail as it is contagious. The best thing to do is to stay away from Joe Woods and the thirty others who are suffering from accelerated vectorities until Doc G. L. Luke has worked his cure.

HUSKIES DEFEAT IDAHO WITH LONG RUNS AND PASSES

Vandals Rally and Show Fighting Spirit in Final Half of Game

The University of Washington unleashed a powerful running and passing attack in Seattle Saturday to score six times and defeat the Vandals 38 to 7. Long end runs and tricky passes paved the way for the Husky scores.

In the first quarter, the Huskies surprised the spectators by a display of championship ball pushing the fighting Vandals aside for 31 points; but as quickly as it started the rally ended with the beginning of the second half. After the rest period Calland's men came out determined to halt the scoring and gave the Huskies a real battle to match their score for score.

Hufford Scores

Soon after the start of the game and an exchange of punts opened the hostilities, Washington getting possession of the ball in mid-field and starting their first drive. With their attack built around the fast stepping halfback, Merle Hufford, the Huskies steadily marched to their touchdown with Hufford scoring from the eight yard line. He converted and the score was 7 to 0 with the quarter nearly half gone. Shortly after the next kickoff, Wilson fumbled a Washington punt and Nisbit recovered for the Huskies on the Idaho 31 yard line. Buse crashed the line for four yards and on the next play Hufford tossed a bullet pass to Bill Smith who caught it in full stride and continued on his way over the last ten yards unmolested. Smith substituted for Wilson.

With Hufford again the key to the Husky offense, Washington started another drive which netted their third score. Three passes were good for 17, 9, and 15 yards each, and mixed with line plays placed the oval on Idaho's 2 yard stripe where Cherberg plunged over for the score. The try for point failed and the score stood 19 to 0. The next score came in equally quick order. After the kickoff, two long runs by Bledsoe and Cherberg left but four steps to go and Cherberg circled the end for the try. Again the kick failed.

Smith Returns Kickoff

On the next play Willis Smith made the most spectacular run of the game. Taking the kickoff on his own 11 yard line, the miniature speedster dashed 71 yards through the Husky team to Washington's 18 yard line where he was overtaken from the side. There Washington held for downs. A few minutes later an intercepted pass gave the Vandals the ball on their own 40 yard stripe. A smashing offensive brought three successive first downs and put the pigskin on Washington's 22 yard mark. Then gambling on a pass in an unprotected zone proved disastrous when Bledsoe intercepted it and sprinted

80 yards to the Idaho goal line. The half ended with the score 31 to 0.

From the start of the third period the tide of battle changed. Smith pounded Washington back to its own territory but was injured in the drive and was relieved by Wilson. An exchange of punts gave Washington the ball inside of their own 20 yard line where Buse attempted to punt. Sullivan broke through the Husky line, blocked the kick and then chased the ball over the goal line to register Idaho's score. Wilson converted.

Pederson led the Huskies in their last touchdown drive starting from his own 43 yard line. A series of passes and line plays again put the ball on the 2 yard line. Two line plays failed but on the third play Marlowe carried the ball across and converted, ending the scoring.

Vandals "Come Back"

Although it was Washington's day, the Vandals showed their fighting spirit in the final half when they played a fresh team of Huskies to a standstill. Probably the most outstanding man on the field was Merle Hufford but his exhibition was closely matched by the smart playing of Spaugy, Smith, and Wilson. Spaugy continued his consistent ball and roved over the field to be in at the end of every play. Smith and Wilson shared honors in the ball lunging and both made a big hit with the Seattle fans with their flashy broken field running and fighting spirit.

NORMAL GRIDDERS OUTBATTLE FROSH

The Ellensburg Bobcats outscored the Vandal Babes 25 to 0 in an interesting game despite the score. The Vandal frosh were handicapped by several injuries and by the ineligibility of Reid, the frosh quarterback.

A series of bad breaks was in a large measure responsible for the win by Ellensburg normal over the Idaho frosh. Reid, outstanding frosh quarterback was declared ineligible for having played on a Junior college team. This loss made a sudden change in the lineup necessary, which was altogether out of keeping with the plans of the coach. A number of injuries also ruined the frosh game.

Ellensburg played a consistent and hard game. They tried several passes but failed to complete them, most of the Babes play being on the ground. Blocked kicks and fumbles were the important breaks which led to the Babes' defeat. Coach Rich Fox stated that he was pleased with the spirit of the Babe squad as they fought up till the final gun, despite the discouraging score.

The lineup for Idaho was: Swan and Every, ends; Williamson and McInerney, tackles; A. Berg and Nutting, guards; Beatty, center; Barker, quarter; P. Berg and Evans halfbacks; and Welschko, fullback. Substitutions — Malmoe, Powers, Wagner, Rich, Hartle, Greco, Moser, Tanghe, Thomas, and Callahan.

SPORT SHOP

By CHARLES SCHUMACHER

Idaho stock took another tumble as a result of the Seattle game last Saturday. The Vandals now rest along with W. S. C. far down the column, having one win and two defeats. Hollingbery's boys lost a hard-fought battle to California at Portland, 13 to 7. Other conference games found U. S. C. turning back Oregon's title aspirations 53 to 0 and Stanford defeating Oregon State 25 to 7. These games put U. S. C. at the peak with 3 straight wins. Stanford follows with one victory and no defeats.

Calland's injury riddled squad seemed to be no match for Phelan's Huskies. Despite this fact Idaho put up a tough battle all the way. Smith and Wilson, Idaho quarters, played great ball. Smith made the most brilliant play of the game when he returned a Washington kick-off 70 yards. Wilson also made several long runs and intercepted a pass, a few moments before the game ended, near the goal line. Tyrrell, fullback, turned in a great game. Sackett and Norby did some good blocking and defensive work.

Washington combined a series of long runs and passes to count their touchdowns. Hufford was outstanding with his excellent running and accurate passing. Sohn, playing quarter in place of Marsh, turned in a great game. Buse made several hard plunges at fullback. Sullivan blocked Buse's punt for Idaho's only score.

The Idaho line, weakened greatly by injuries, fought gamely against the heavier Washington forwards. It is hard for a member of a losing team to be outstanding, but the Vandals were in there fighting hard all the time. The honors for the day go to Lloyd Sullivan, reserve tackle. Late in the third quarter he broke through the Husky line to block Buse's attempted punt and counted Idaho's lone tally. Wilson kicked the extra point. Elden, Martin, and Spaugy looked very good on defense.

Fox's Babes lost to Ellensburg 25 to 0 last Saturday in the Normal city. The teachers used their famous "sneaker" play for two touchdowns. Another resulted from a blocked kick. Evans, Idaho halfback, furnished the thrill of the day when he ran 50 yards with McQuarie's fumble. The frosh seemed to lack the offensive punch to put the oval over when in scoring distance. Ellensburg has a strong ball team this year, being rated only slightly under varsity strength. Several frosh men were injured during the fray.

Fall sports other than football are on the upgrade this year. Seventy men are turning out for cross-country under Coach Otto Anderson for intramural competition besides 25 varsity aspirants. Anderson has some good men from which to pick his team for the A. A. U. meet in Salt Lake next month. Siple, Heath, Livingston and Thompson are showing up very well in early season trials. Coach Noel Franklin also has a fine turnout for wrestling. About 20 men have reported to him. The coach believes the prospects are very good for a winning group of matmen this year.

Everyone makes mistakes and sports writers are not immune. The chap who labeled a picture of the Idaho-Washington game, which appeared in yesterday's Oregonian, made a slight one.

The cut line of the picture says: "Here's what makes the Washington Purple Tornado stir up so much dust." And under the picture is this explanatory paragraph: "Merle Hufford, Washington halfback, scampering for the first touchdown when the University defeated the University of Idaho, 38 to 7, at Seattle Saturday. Hufford is the unhelmeted lad with the ball, and can be seen just after he shot through a big hole in the Vandal line and headed toward the goal."

The unhelmeted lad with the ball happened to be Willis Smith, Idaho quarterback. Art Spaugy, Idaho center, was in front of him clearing a way through the Washington line and both of them are headed in the direction of what we may logically assume is the Husky goal since there are other men in the picture who seem to be wanting to stop Mr. Smith. Aside from these minor errors it might be pointed out that Washington didn't open any big holes in Idaho's line—not this season, Josephine.

FROSH OUTLINE PLANS FOR FIRE

Freshman men will hold a meeting Thursday night to complete plans for the bonfire and the guarding of the campus. Junior Jones, president, requests that every member attend.

Grouping of members for the various activities will be announced. The meeting will be held in the auditorium at 7:30 o'clock p. m.

DRAMATIC CLASSES WILL MEET WEEKLY

Following a plan inaugurated here in the past year, the advanced play production class under the direction of Fred C. Blanchard, is holding a series of weekly meetings at 4 o'clock at the U. H. A varied and entertaining series of programs have been planned for each meeting. Beginning with the dramatic season of 1920-21, at each session the class will discuss the productions of that year, and a particular play—the best of that season will be read.

Reading of "The Dover Road" by A. A. Milne, a stage hit of 1921-22, will be featured at the Wednesday, October 7, meeting of advanced play production students.

Sweet running... this engine in your Lifetime Pen

The ONLY genuine Lifetime guarantee is Sheaffer's; do not be deceived! Other pens may be guaranteed against defect, but Sheaffer's Lifetime is guaranteed against everything excepting loss for your Lifetime. Sheaffer's Lifetime pens from $7; Sheaffer's Lifetime 14-karat solid gold-band Autograph pens suitable for duplicate of your actual signature (serving for identification) from $12.75. Autograph pencils from $9. Other Sheaffer pens from $3.

JUST touch this point to paper—it's like a self-starter for your thoughts, with the smooth, free power to flash them into words. It takes 26 operations for each Lifetime point. And it costs three times as much to apply the specially pure iridium Sheaffer's way—in one solid piece, so that no scratchy gold pockets can possibly form on the writing surface.

Back of the point Sheaffer's streamline Balance chassis conforms itself restfully to your hand—assures relaxed writing ease for your fingers no matter how long the theme. If you like your freedom, you'll choose a Sheaffer and enjoy it always through the White Dot Lifetime guarantee.

A survey made by a disinterested organization shows Sheaffer first in fountain pen sales in 73 of the 119 leading American colleges having a registration of 1700 or more. Documents on this investigation available to anyone.

SAFETY SKRIP. SKRIP FILLED, 50¢ to $10. Carry non-leakable Safety Skrip in your pocket or bag to clean—protects clothes, linen, furniture—keeps fluid fresh, making all pens write better.
