

University Physics Head Develops Light Telephone

A telephone that uses a beam of light instead of a copper wire for transmitting the human voice has been developed at the University of Idaho by Dr. Gustaf W. Hammar, head of the physics department, and Lawrence W. Foskett, one of his graduate students.

Originating as a scientific experiment, the discovery opens up an entirely new field of sound communication which may be used by such agencies as the United States forest service and the army signal corps. Dr. Hammar and Dr. Foskett modestly explain that they simply made practical application of scientific principles which have been known.

A sensitive photo-electric cell makes the new light telephone possible. Much like a radio tube in appearance, the cell detects minute changes in the intensity of light to which it is exposed. Dr. Hammar and Mr. Foskett wondered one day why voice vibrations couldn't be made to flicker a light beam. That accomplished, it would be a simple matter to pick up the flicker several thousand feet away with a photo-electric cell and change it back into sound.

They arranged a crude laboratory set-up for their experiment, and it worked. For their light source they used a manometric flame fed by acetylene. The gas passes a thin membrane of diaphragm which is built into the burner. Talking against the diaphragm moves the gas, causing the flame to flicker, much too rapidly to be detected by human eyes. This "flicker" is picked up by the photo-electric cell which releases an electric current that operates a telephone hand set.

The inventors of the light telephone are turning it over to the United States forest service instead of exploiting it commercially through patents. Forest service men could assemble the apparatus into a small unit no larger than a small valve. A lookout on a mountain peak would shine his light on a ranger headquarters, perhaps 10, 25 or 40 miles away. The ranger would place his unit into the beam of light, turn a switch, put on his headset and listen to what the lookout was saying. He in turn could talk to the lookout on a similar beam of light, making two-way conversation possible.

Properly designed reflectors will throw narrow parallel beams of light for long distances, either in the daytime or at night. Each unit might need two stages of radio amplification to strengthen the weak signals. Other apparatus required is an ordinary dry radio "B" battery of 90 volt capacity.

Warfare Possibilities
Another interesting phase of this unusual telephone is its possible application in warfare by the army signal corps. Instead of using ordinary light, infra-red rays could be submitted which are invisible.

Dr. Hammar is a graduate of the University of Idaho, both bachelor's and master's degrees. He received his doctorate degree in physics from the California Institute of Technology where he studied under the famous Dr. Robert A. Millikan and Raman, the Hindu physicist who received the Nobel prize for physics two years ago. He joined the physics department faculty in 1922.

Foskett also is an Idaho graduate, having received his bachelor of science degree in electrical engineering with the class of 1925. Work he is now doing toward a master's degree in physics led to the discovery of the light telephone. His home is in Whitebird, Idaho.

FORMER "T" MEN VISIT SCHOOL

Many Athletes of Past Years Here For Homecoming.

Reminiscent of the "good old days" of bone-crushing, flying wedge football, came many old-time Vandal athletes to visit their alma mater during the homecoming and with some of them, their hard-earned, "dusty" "T" sweaters. Although the game has changed much in the last quarter century, all of the old-timers felt that the Idaho fighting spirit was the same in the Gonzaga game as when they were tearing up the turf on the gridiron years ago.

Among those returning were Harry Axtell of Spokane, a team mate of "Cap" Horton in 1903 and "Gus" Irving, the greatest drop-kicker Idaho ever produced, "Sly" Kleffner, Sammy Perrins, "Phat" Stephens, "Dusty" Kline, Neal Nelson, Jewell, Thornton, Leschel, Darney, Con Dewey, Abe Goff, and others that have gone down in Idaho's gridiron history.

CHURCHES TAKE SLIDE PICTURES

The practice of going to a different church every Sunday may have a rather misleading effect a decade from now when the pictures of the university members of different congregations are shown.

Several of the churches have been taking moving pictures from their groups leaving the church of the First Lutheran and Presbyterian churches have taken pictures. Some four or five supposed Presbyterians were also snapped as Lutherans.

GRADS NAMED TO ENGINEER JOBS

Arthur Werner and J. L. Langford Leave for Denver

Arthur Werner, a graduate in civil engineering last June, and J. L. Langford, a graduate in electrical engineering in last year's class, have received appointments as junior engineers with the Bureau of Reclamation. They have left for Denver, which is the headquarters of that organization. These men received their appointments as the result of a competitive examination in which thousands of graduates of technical schools in the U. S. took part. Werner and Langford will be engaged on the design of some of the features of the Hoover dam.

IDAHO GRADUATE HONORED BY BOY FOR LAST EFFORT

Lieut. William W. Caldwell Killed Last Year Escorting Naval Document

Lieutenant William W. Caldwell, American aviator and graduate of Idaho, who was killed just a year ago while escorting the Japanese instrument of ratification of the London naval treaty across the United States, was honored through the efforts of Shigeyoshi Fukushima, a Japanese school boy, American and Japanese representatives gathered in the San Francisco presidio to unveil a bronze plaque in the form of a wreath for the courageous deed of Lieutenant Caldwell.

Caldwell met his death near Laramie, Wyo., October 15, 1930, when his plane crashed in a snow storm while escorting the Japanese document from the Pacific coast to New York on its way to London. Shigeyoshi Fukushima set aside a part of the money his parents gave him for an educational trip and sent it to a Tokio newspaper with the request that it be used to buy flowers for Caldwell's grave. After another contribution had been made by an unknown student of Japan, the result was the erection of a plaque in memory of Caldwell.

GRADS IN FAVOR OF ANNUAL TEA

Dean French Asks That Reception Be Annual Event

"Can't we have a new tradition for our homecoming?" asked Dean Permele French after the informal tea Saturday evening. The grads themselves suggested to her that the tea be made an annual event, since they enjoyed the gathering before the alumni dance so much. A crowd of people—alumni and faculty, gathered at Hays hall Saturday evening to talk over the old days here on the campus. They lingered long over their tea—even after the dancing hour. Graduates from classes as far back as 1908 were there.

EDITORS FORM SUB-DISTRICTS

North Idaho Publishers Hold Meeting in Moscow

Two divisional units or sub districts were formed by an aggregation of more than half of all the editors or publishers of northern Idaho newspapers when they gathered in Moscow Saturday. A southern district includes Camas Prairie up to and including Latah county, while everything north of it belongs to the northern section. Leaders were chosen to direct and organize each section.

The editors and their wives enjoyed a luncheon at the Moscow hotel which was attended by 35, after which they adjourned to see the game in which the Vandals defeated the Gonzaga Bulldogs.

VANDALEERS ARE TO GIVE CONCERT

Vandaleers Will Provide Free Entertainment For Fresh Students

The Vandaleers will give a concert in the auditorium Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock for the freshmen and for all people who did not hear their program last year, according to Prof. Carleton Cummings, head of the music department. "No admission will be charged," says Professor Cummings.

The Vandaleers are:
Soprano—Louise Morley, Elizabeth Gilmore, Lois Thompson, Virginia Steward, Florence Simpson, and Hazel Hayner.
Alto—Pauline Paterka, Helen Parrott, Joan Harris, and Agnes Ramsdell.
Tenors—Martin Rosell, Kenneth Hensley, Elton Hampton, Donald Corliss, and Clifford Mullikin.
Basses—Erwin Tomlinson, Norval Ostroff, John Jenny, and Jack Nunemaker.
Lois Hints of the music school is the accompanist. Kenneth Hensley, senior, is president of the group.

A. T. O. AND HAYS HALL ARE AWARDED HOMECOMING CUPS

Sky-rocket and Toonerville Trolley are Declared Winning Decorations

By virtue of the A. T. O.'s sky-rocket and Hays' hall Toonerville Trolley decorations, these groups were awarded the titular cups for the prize winning house decorations at the homecoming festivities. The cups were awarded by Lionel Campbell, ASU president, to Marvin Soderquist, A. T. O. representative, and Bess Louise Hogg of Hays hall, during the hall at last Saturday's game.

SEVERAL HUNDRED ARE ENROLLED IN SPECIAL COURSES

Non-resident Courses Attract 500; Only 32 Hours are Accredited

Nearly 500 students in non-resident courses are taking advantage of this special service offered by the university this year. "The University of Idaho, however," says Miss Bernice McCoy, who is in charge of this work, "is very conservative in its correspondence and extension study. Only 32 hours of such work are accredited."

Although, nominally, all of the non-resident instruction is given through correspondence, about 100 of the total enrollment are actually taking extension work in which the instructor is present with the group from time to time.

VANDALEERS WILL SING IN POTLATCH

Will Present a Concert Program at Community Church

The Vandaleers are going to Potlatch Wednesday evening where they will present their concert program at the Community church at 8 o'clock. The program will be as follows: Group 1—"Song of the Vikings," Fannings; "Unfold, Ye Portals," Gounod; "Thissagon and Sanctus," Howley; "Babylon's Wave," Gounod; Pilgrims' chorus from "Tannhauser," Wagner; Hallelujah chorus from "The Messiah," Handel, by the chorus.

DEAN CRAWFORD RECEIVES HONOR

Is Asked to Present Paper Before Engineering Association

Dean Ivan C. Crawford has been invited by the Association of Land-Grant Colleges and Universities, to present a paper before the Engineering section of the association, which will meet in Chicago on Nov. 16 to 18. "The Development of Engineering Construction Programs to Alleviate the Unemployment Situation" is the subject that has been assigned to Dean Crawford.

KNIGHTS ARE HOSTS AT ANNUAL DANCE

The Intercollegiate Knights sponsored the All-College mixer held Friday night in the Memorial gym. The crowd, comprised of students and guests here for Homecoming, was unusually large and crowded. Deand and Mrs. J. A. K. Galek, Dean and Mrs. Ivan C. Crawford and Dr. F. C. Church were patrons and patronesses for the evening. Music was furnished by Ross Layne and his seven piece band.

HOUSING PLAN IS SUCCESSFUL

Homecoming Alums and Guests Stay in Group Houses

The plans for housing the various alumni and other guests over Homecoming worked nicely and everything went as smoothly as could be expected, according to Ralph Olmstead, who was in charge of the housing problem. Finding room for so many extra people on the campus is a very difficult task, but this year the greatest part of the guests were taken care of in the various group houses. Each person stayed at the house of which he was a member or in which he had friends. Although many of the houses were crowded, a place was found for everyone.

ENGLISH MAJOR WILL HAVE LOAN

To loan to an English major the $100 placed in the general emergency fund by the English club, as the decision of the officers of the group at a meeting Wednesday. A special committee to determine a student worthy of the loan has been appointed. This committee consists of Harry Robb, president; Kathryn Hart, vice president; and Dr. G. M. Miller, faculty advisor.

GROUP BANQUET WELL ATTENDED

Blue Key Banquet Attended by 35 Alumni and Active Members

Blue Key's alumni banquet Saturday noon was attended by about 35 alumni and active members. Dean Ivan Crawford gave the main speech discussing with the group the actual conditions in the Pacific Coast Athletic association. Alumni who gave talks were Gar Wood, Butte, Mont.; "Crab" Taylor, Boise; Earl Elstone, Kellogg; Russell Tuttle, Russell Randall, and John Soden, Spokane; General E. R. Chisman and Jesse Buchanan, faculty members, also spoke to the group.

TICKETS ON SALE FOR W.S.C. GAME

$1.00 Admission for Idaho Students With ASU Tickets

Tickets at $1 each will be on sale tomorrow and Thursday in the administration building for the W. S. C. Idaho game at Pullman next Saturday. These tickets may be obtained at the Ad building between the hours of 1 to 4 p. m. A reserved section will be held for Idaho students. Those wishing to purchase tickets at Pullman may do so for $1 on the presentation of their student body tickets.

AD CLUB FORMS NEW COMMITTEES

Spokane Men Show Interest in Progress

While the Ad club has not been officially active recently, constitutional and program committees are being formed and organized by Jay Kendrick, president. Dean R. H. Farmer, of the school of business administration, and Prof. E. F. Beth were in Spokane last week, at the college contact meeting. Spokane business men manifested an interest in the organization and plans were made to send speakers down here once a month. The first will address the meeting on November 17. There will be seven speakers in all, who are members of the Spokane Advertising club.

NAMES COMMITTEES

Lloyd Riuteel, president of the sophomore class, has appointed a committee for the sophomore mixer, the tentative date of which is November 18. The committee consists of Casady Taylor, chairman; assisted by Jean Kingsbury, Bentley Galligan, and George Giles.

Gonzaga Team Outclassed By Crippled Idaho Eleven

As a fitting climax to a successful week end of homecoming celebrations, the Vandals pushed the Gonzaga football all over Mac Lean field for sixty minutes to win the annual game from the old rivals. The score was 7 to 6 but it was no indication of the superiority of Callan's men as they completely subdued the bulldogs who held St. Mary's team last week.

VANDALS PREPARE FOR BATTLE WITH COUGARS SATURDAY

Will be in Good Fighting Form to Meet Washington State

By Richard Stanton
After performing brilliantly and turning back the fighting Irish of Gonzaga in one of the best homecoming games seen at Idaho for a number of years, Leo Callan's classy warriors are forgetting their laurels won on the gridiron Saturday and are pointing for the annual battle with the ancient rivals from across the boundary, the W. S. C. Cougars.

Injuries Slight
The Gonzaga battle was hard fought and several of the men received minor injuries, but as it appears now, no one was injured enough to be kept out of the W. S. C. game this coming Saturday. Tyrell, Sackett, Spaugy, Eiden, and Hanford received bruises from the warfare, but with a little rest will be back in fighting form to meet the charges of Orin "Babe" Hollinberry.

The W. S. C. mentor, despite losing such representatives of his 1930 coast conference champions as Mel Hein, Elmer Schwartz, Lyle Maskell, Porter Lahnart, Oscar Jones, and "Tuffy" Ellingsen, has developed a formidable aggregation out of the remainder of last year's eleven, several juniors, and a few recruits from the fresh club.

W. S. C. Is Strong
W. S. C. opened the season by trouncing the College of Idaho at Pullman 38 to 0, fell before the mighty men of Troy 38 to 6, lost a disheartening game to Bill Ingram's California Bears 13 to 6, eked out a last quarter win over Montana 13 to 0, and won from O. S. C. at Portland last Saturday, 7 to 6.

Although the Oregon State team made 19 first downs to the Cougars' five, and 248 yards from scrimmage to the latter's 68, the W. S. C. passing attack found its mark and pushed a score over on the Orangemen to win 7 to 6.

Four Student Body Officers Will appear in "To The Ladies"

Facts prove that dramatics must have a definite appeal to student body officers. Whether the officials are dramatically inclined, or whether their officialdom renders them dramatic is a matter which is undetermined.

However, the fact remains that four student body officers are to participate in the production of the all college play, "To The Ladies," to be given here on Friday and Saturday evenings, Nov. 3 and 4. While several other student executives are scheduled to appear in future dramatic productions.

Lionel Campbell, Boise senior and student body president, who has been prominent in university dramatics for several years, is scheduled to appear in several all college shows this season. Howard Alnow, junior man on the executive council, and Marthalee Tanner, ASU student, have been assigned roles in the present production "To The Ladies" as has Winnifred Janssen, junior class president. Lloyd Riuteel, sophomore class president has the difficult job of stage manager for the same play.

The question still remains. Does dramatic ability influence executive ability—or vice versa? The question is left open, but facts point that way.

WILL CHALLENGE W. S. C. FENCERS

Hopes to Attend Seattle Minor Spots Carnival

Under the auspices of the Fencing club, a challenge has been sent to W. S. C. to which a reply is expected soon. The team has not yet been organized but will be in shape in time for the combat. At present there are only two members, both veterans of last year, Carl von Ende, and Douglas Cruickshank, manager of the club. Cruickshank stated that they hope to attend the Seattle minor sports carnival. He also wishes to announce that in two or three weeks the monthly luncheons of the club will begin.

GET NITE WORKOUTS

Butlers squad of football candidates is holding night practices in order to escape the heat and to get accustomed to playing under electric lights before it engages the Franklin team.

The conditions for the game were perfect. A warm fall sun shining from a clear sky made the spectators remove their coats. On the west side of the field the temporary bleachers were full and running over with students full of enthusiasm and pep and at intervals the cheers that broke out were fitting tribute to the team which was fighting so hard on the field.

The field was almost dry and early week pessimists had nothing to say. Early in the morning an autogiro and several planes appeared and one or more was hovering over the field throughout the game. The bug in the air was a new sight to most of the spectators and offered a queer sight hanging almost motionless over the field.

As the teams trotted out onto the field the entire rooting section rose to its feet and let loose their pent up feelings. The air was tense with excitement as the teams lined up for the final warming up exercises. The Gonzaga pep band broke several hundred spectators broke into cheers as Captain Shields led the Bulldog team from the Memorial gymnasium and prepared for the opening of the game. The referee called the rival captains together and Spaugy went to midfield to meet Shields. A coin was tossed and Idaho kicked off.

Makes Tackle.
Sullivan kicked off and followed the ball down the field to make the tackle on Gonzaga's 23-yard line. On the first play Spaugy hit the line for 2 yards and then Gonzaga punted. Wilson gave the fans a hint of what was to come when he smashed off tackle for 16 yards on the first play. He dropped the ball as he was tackled but Berg had it up in a flash. Three more line plays netted 9 yards and Berg kicked. He sent a long spiral sailing far down the field to roll over the Gonzaga goal line.

The ball traveled from one end of the field to the other. Gonzaga taking advantage of the only department of the game in which they excelled, was playing a kicking game. The punt time Frazier sent his beautiful punting far down the field but the kicking edge was offset by the brilliant returns by Wilson and Smith.

Midway in the initial period Smith substituted for Wilson and the fans gave both a big hand—Wilson and Smith for his which was coming. On his first play the "little giant" broke through right tackle for 18 yards all but getting away on the play. Soon after Idaho received its first chance to put across a score. The ball was in Gonzaga's possession on their own line play Gonzaga tumbled and Sullivan broke through to recover for the Vandals. Smith cracked the line for five yards but three more plays fell short of a first down by 6 inches, and the ball went to Gonzaga as the quarter ended.

Berg Gets Through.
Gonzaga chose to work the ball out but on the first play Berg crashed through to toss McKenna for a five yard loss putting the ball on the 17-yard line where Frazier punted to Smith on his own 47-yard marker. Smith gathered in the ball and made a beautiful return to Gonzaga's 37-yard line before being hauled down. From that spot a brilliant offensive put the ball across in five plays. Tyrell failed to gain on the first attempt but a short pass from Smith to Berg was good for

COEDS TO HOLD ANNUAL FROLIC

Each Women's Group Required to Put on Stunt.

The Co-ed prom will be held Saturday, November 14, from 8:30 to 12 midnight, at the Memorial gymnasium. This is exclusively women's night, and is celebrated once each year. All women will appear in costume and each women's group house will put on a stunt. Mrs. M. G. Neale, Mrs. C. C. Vincent, and Mrs. J. A. Kostalek will judge the stunts. First, second, and third prizes will be awarded to the houses staging the best stunt. The gymnasium will be decorated in an autumn motif. The music for the affair will be furnished by Rosie Lane and his orchestra. Refreshments will be served free and all women students and faculty women are urged to attend.

PLANS TO DONATE BOOKS TO LIBRARY

Reverend Cody Will Give History and Philosophy Books

Rev. Raymond Edmund Cody, a graduate student, plans to donate approximately $250 worth of books to the university library through the aid of the Knights of Columbus and the Catholic Women's league. He finds that there is a limited supply of books treating subjects of history and philosophy from the Catholic view point on the university and it is his hope to secure such books in the interest of the Catholic and non-Catholic students.

Some people have queer ideas about what constitutes stealing and what doesn't. The same person who can be trusted with $5000 and a fast airplane, will think nothing of shoving a hotel towel in his suitcase and some restaurant silverware up his sleeve.

An example a little nearer home, however, is found in the disappearance of the journalism displays posted by Mr. Elmer Beth on the English bulletin in the Administration building. Thinking that unusual features of newspaperdom might be of interest to many students, Mr. Beth started placing items on the bulletin board last month. The first week a publication devoted to the cartoonists and special writers of the Universal syndicate disappeared. Somebody evidently found his favorite author and took possession. Then, last week, an issue of the first large tabloid ever to be published, vanished. As the paper is now extinct and copies are valuable, Mr. Beth especially hated to see it make an impromptu departure.

Perhaps the person, or persons, who took the journalism displays placed them in the same category with hotel towels and restaurant hardware. But this does not alter the situation. Taking any of the items mentioned is just one thing—stealing.

Phi Delt Starts Brilliant Career As Stage Hand

Harry Robb, more intimately known as "Bud", is the vice president of the student body of the University of Idaho. But that is not all. He is the president of the English club. And he has risen from stage hand to actor in the course of a few short years. To what he attributes his success, we do not know. He loathes work, and goes through strenuous labor avoiding it; and yet, still he rises.

Mr. Robb has no hobbies. At least he has a few of which he is an ardent devotee, but he would prefer that they not be printed.

He reads good literature—admittedly, he follows the funny papers closely, especially "Tarzan." He is a great follower of the "Argonaut," and he reads "Liberty" and the "Collier's" magazines.

Mr. Robb is not a Phi Beta Kappa, because, to use his own words, "I absolutely must have eight hours sleep each night—if not 8, at least 12."

Unlike his colleague, Mr. Campbell, Mr. Robb does like fried onions, his other favorite items of diet being hamburgers and limburger cheese.

Mr. Robb is studying to teach dramatics, and after the sensational hit he is to make in the campus production, "To the Ladies," his future will be assured.

An interesting sidelight on Harry's career is the exposure of a club to which he belonged when in high school, and to the influence of which many attribute his later precocity. Other prominent members of the "Alley Rat" society were Charles Graybill, last year's student body president; Harry Terwilliger, president of Senior Hall; and Billy Robb, who was too young to aspire to full membership, and was therefore elected junior member.

The club met in the basement of the Robb home and indulged in such riotous pastimes as smoking pipes, chewing tobacco, and carrying on rousing games of pinocle.

More serious pursuits of these young men included theological discussion, and arguments on all other subjects problematic to ambitious and inspired future leaders.

Defendants Are Optimistic And Claim Injustice Done

At an opportune moment a reporter from the Argonaut interviewed the defendants John Peacock, William Ennis, and Kenneth O'Leary in their down-town residence, for they were all in conference with their attorneys. The three were made defendants when O'Leary's car crashed into Jack McQuade's car doing injuries to both his wife and himself. They were not at all alarmed at the outcome of the case; in fact, they were surprised that McQuade would raise such an absurd statement concerning the accident. The defendants feel confident that their attorneys, Smuin, Brown, Smith, Voshell and Heighmeyer will capably handle the case since they are experienced in this particular field of law, having handled many cases with similar facts for many other well known clients.

The defense took a decided boost when it was rumored that the well-known and competent Ennis will be joined as a lawyer for them. The counsel for the defense say that the story has been grossly exaggerated and that the injuries sustained by McQuade and his wife are much less serious than the first report indicated. Also the damage to the McQuade car, which at first was said to have amounted to $175, has been proved to be greatly overestimated.

The defendants feel that they are also being done an injustice when they were reported to have been traveling at a break-neck speed, for O'Leary said that his old broken-down Ford was not only incapable of rendering any speed over 25 miles an hour, but also that at the time of the accident his car was being driven at a much less rate of speed than it is capable of.

It seems as though the counsel for the plaintiff have approached on several occasions the counsel for the defense in an effort to bring about a settlement out of court. Their offers were scorned by the defense and their attorneys as they feel sure that the plaintiff's claim is unwarranted. Other than this the defendants refuse to make any further statement or advice of counsel.

WOMEN DEBATERS TO HAVE MEETING

Preliminary debates among the women debaters will be held next Monday at a meeting in Administration 206. These debates are held as practices in preparation for the intercollegiate debates in which Idaho is to participate. The topic now under discussion is "Resolved, that college disciplinary measures should be the same for women as for men." A general discussion of the topic will be held Monday in addition to the practice talks.

Gertie Guillotine

Boop-a-doop campsters— Well, now that all the alumni have gone except those who are working for their fathers, you can haul out the valuables that you've had hidden for the last few days. It's mighty unfortunate that a few of us didn't know how the game was coming out Saturday so we could have made a little spending money to write home for.

And let you see how hunger feels. Then they gladly take your bed. And never even a word is said. But all that would be easy to bear. For such trifles I would not care. If everything they start to say. Did not begin with "In my day."

TUBE TESTING COURSE OPENED

Second semester of this year the electrical engineering department will offer a new course in tube testing, which will be, according to Professor R. H. Hull, head of the department, a one credit laboratory course limited to seniors in the school of engineering.

Equipment is now being obtained and installed in the electrical engineering laboratory preparatory to this course, which will include instruments capable of testing the characteristic features of all types of tubes. It will include tests on tubes used in all designs of radio apparatus, neon gas tubes, phototubes, and many other types of gas filled and vacuum tubes.

SCOUTS GOING TO SPOKANE

Moscow Delegation Will Hear James E. West, Chief Executive of U. S.

Several Moscow boy scouts and leaders of scouting plan to attend an all-day program and dinner in Spokane Tuesday to hear James E. West, chief scout executive of the United States.

He will be accompanied by H. W. Hurt, author of the Boys Handbook and other scouting lore, and E. Urner Goodman, chief of the program division of the national council.

The meeting will be held in the Davenport hotel starting at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning and will conclude with a 6 o'clock banquet. Discussion of scout work by the national officers will occupy the program. The entire Inland Empire area council will be represented in Spokane.

Gentleman Jim Finds His Bed

Greetings Folks: Well, the old team clicked just like a meat grinder Saturday, and what material those Bulldogs made. We wonder if the game had any connection with the fact that hot dogs were on the menu Monday.

After the nine weeks' exams some of those graveyard decorations will be in season again.

Believe it or not, but we found an old alum who remembered when Idaho won her other homecoming game.

Oh, yes, and now that the dear old brothers and sisters have departed for another year, you can sleep in your own bed once more.

The cheering at the game improved 100 per cent; but then there wasn't anything to improve on.

Poor Buck Bailey. That frosh game was too much for him when Abe Goff volunteered the information that the "big barn across the road" had that big barn across the road. If there were a few more Buck Bailey's to trample on hats, the hat industry would not have a sign of overproduction.

W. S. C. has a tradition of never having lost a game on their home field. They just don't know how good Idaho is at breaking traditions, and we would just as soon break another one.

If the school would put itself into the spirit of the game as much as Johnnie Thomas did when he was leading our section, school spirit would mean something. And remember, next Saturday is our last chance to really boost the team, and convince them that everyone is back of them.

GENTLEMAN JIM.

W. A. A. EXECUTIVE BOARD PLANS SKIT

Lorna McCain has Charge of Candy Sale at Homecoming Game

Executive board of W. A. A. at their regular meeting held at the Blue Bucket Tuesday night discussed plans for having a personal appearance skit at the next general W. A. A. meeting to be held the third Tuesday of next month. Ideas were presented for a spread at the end of the volley ball season, but definite arrangements have not been made.

Lorna McCain was appointed to have charge of freshmen who are to sell candy at the game for W. A. A. A new system is being planned this year. The grandstand is to be divided into sections and selling will be on a competitive basis. "Beesides candy, candied apples, and hot dogs, we are selling a surprise in the form of cake sandwiches," Bess Louise Hogg, president, announced.

Volley Ball Starts

There are two weeks left of women's volley ball practice. Scoring starts next week. And the tournament starts Nov. 16. From seventy girls who have turned out there will be approximately five freshman teams, three sophomore, one junior, and one senior.

Rifle practice for women will start Monday, Nov. 2. "Freshmen will be especially interested as no previous experience is required," says Marion Fry.

The CINEMANIAC

FIVE STAR FINAL, opening Thursday at the Vandal is a remarkable production, rated as one of the best films of the year. The story, a rousing attack against tabloid journalism, is highly theatrical and has a plot of slight, credibility, but the idea gets over in a way that is a compliment to the direction of the cinema. Edward G. Robinson is superb as the managing editor of the paper and Marian Marsh as the tortured daughter of the murderess is excellent. The cinema is a head-liner in talks that everyone should see.

RIDERS OF THE PURPLE SAGE, Zane Grey's famous western romance starts today at the Kenworthy theater. It is a typical western picture with plenty of action and excitement. George O'Brien handles the role of Lassiter, the hero of the badlands; and Noah Berry, depicts the corrupt judge. Both are ideally cast.

THE PHANTOM OF PARIS, playing at the Kenworthy Friday and Saturday, stars John Gilbert, a talkie favorite. In spite of its age, this old mystery story written by Gaston Leroux, is rather entertaining in their roles, if not brilliant. The story is not full of mystery, but it is a good melodrama and is entertaining.

MY SIN, is a story of the regeneration of two characters who have lived fast and unconventionally, and have finally reached the depths. Tallulah Bankhead and Frederick March carry the leads in the romance, which starts today at the Vandal theater. The story is rather a poor one, making good characterization difficult. Both leads have managed, in spite of this difficulty to keep up their standard of good acting.

Former University Athlete Is Assistant Coach At Boise

Employed as assistant coach and physical education instructor, Morris "Dusty" Kline, former university star, is enjoying a successful season at Boise high school. Dusty is concentrating his coaching upon the work of the line men.

Well liked by the students, Mr. Kline has done much in building up school spirit as well as the football team, according to reports from Boise.

Besides receiving three varsity letters in football, being named on the all-Pacific coast team for two years, and receiving honorable mention on the all-American team, Kline made his letters in baseball and basketball. He graduated in 1925. During 1929 and 1930 he was director of physical education at Rupert high school.

Patricia Kennard Tops Last Year's Frosh Class With 5.935

Eleven members of last year's freshman class at the University of Idaho made scholastic averages above a 5.533, reports Miss Ella Olsen, registrar. Grades are calculated on a basis of 6.000 for straight "A."

Patricia Ann Kennard, of Moscow topped the freshman class in scholarship last year with an average of 5.935. Doris C. Emery of Kendrick was second with 5.813, and Carolyn Ruth Cook from St. Margaret's academy at Boise third with an average of 5.781.

Other high ranking freshmen were Thomas Carl Jones, Boise, 5.771; Evelyn Mae Cross, Gooding, 5.677; Eloise Emmett, Genesee, 5.594; Lorraine Stewart, Boise, 5.594; Raphael Gibbs, Moscow, 5.576; Ruth Kehrer, Boise, 5.577; Ruth Humphreys, Moscow, 5.615; and Alberta Louise Volkman, Wallace, 5.533.

WOMEN GUNNERS START PRACTICE

Squad of Thirty Members to be Selected in December

All last year's women's rifle team members must report at the gallery range in the gymnasium, for practice this week, according to Lieut. J. W. Sheehy, team coach. Other information regarding this year's team is as follows:

W. A. A. points for rifle practice: (a) For highest average in Intercollegiate matches, 125 points; (b) next 9 high average in Intercollegiate matches, 100 points; (c) next 5 high average in Intercollegiate matches 75 points; (d) all who are regular members of squad for over one half of season, 50 points.

Twenty five points are added to a, b, c, d, above for the second year on squad, 50 points for the third year and 75 points for the fourth year. Practice periods will be from 2 to 5 p. m. Monday, Nov. 2 to Friday, Nov. 6 inclusive, except Wednesday when there will be no practice.

Report at gallery range in the basement of the Memorial gym at 2, 3, or 4 p. m. on either Monday or Tuesday and at the same hours on either Thursday or Friday.

After Nov. 6, practice days will be Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday from 2 to 5 p. m., all girls reporting on at least two of three practice days.

All last year's squad members planning to turn out this year must report for practice the first week, Nov. 2 to 8.

A squad of thirty members will be selected on or about December 5. Selections will be based on size of shot groups fired and improvement made during the month practice.

Intercollegiate matches will start the second week in January and will continue until the second week in March. One or more matches will be fired each week. It is very probable that the Women's Rifle team will be entered this year in the National Intercollegiate Women's Team match conducted by the National Rifle association. This match consists of 60 shots fired in the prone position by each member of a team of ten members. Twenty shots only are fired in one day.

Homescoming Is Great Success Say Alumni and Students

Homescoming was indeed a big success socially as well as in every other way. By Friday evening each house and dormitory was entertaining visiting students and alumni. The signs before their doors proclaimed that the visitors were welcome.

The pep rally started the first evening of homescoming with a burst of enthusiasm. The Intercollegiate Knights mixer started immediately after the bon-fire and rally with a capacity crowd. The dances were tag dances which proved just the right way to make everyone acquainted. Ross Lane's Orchestra played many peppy dance numbers and also supplied the evening's entertainment doing specialty numbers.

Dances Popular. Saturday the game was, of course, the big feature. After Idaho's victory the students felt in the proper mood for frivolity. The Alumni dance at the Memorial gymnasium was attended by many. The dance at the Blue Bucket inn proved exceptionally popular.

Sunday morning at the Blue Bucket inn the alumni of Mortar Board were honored with a breakfast.

Coming Events. Many interesting events are scheduled for the coming week-end. The Sigma Chi Barn Dance and the Daleth Teth Gimel Pledge dance are to be given Friday evening. Saturday night Kappa Alpha Theta sorority will give an informal dance. The Associated Foresters' dance is scheduled for the same night.

PHI GAMMA DELTA ENTERTAINS MANY GUESTS

Phi Gamma Delta had a large number of guests at their chapter house during Homescoming. Boise guests included Mrs. H. C. Levanter, Agnes Eiden, Marion Hearne, Erin Thurber, Howard Johns, Ira Rohrer, Robert Dunn, Edward Whittington, Peter Cohn, Newton Corter, Roger Brogan, Ward Rollie and James Dunn. From Lewiston were Sadie Lefevre, Helen House, Dorothy Helm, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Quilliam, John Cromer, Irving Cook, S. McGee, Albert Richardson and Elmer Wargner.

Visiting from Spokane were Golda Marshall, Naomi Marshall, Bryan Kolster, Daniel Morgan, Jr., Edward Bowker, Don Price, Marshall Blair, Mr. and Mrs. O. Peterson, Dr. W. E. Newman, and Alman Teddie.

Other guests were Ross Leighty, Caldwell; Edward Babcock and Vaughn Price Twin Falls; Dr. C. O. Robbins, and Blake Sargeant of St. Maries; Frank Warner, Council; Norman Rush White of Monno Cocho, Peru; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Roark, Margaret Brindell, La Dorise Thamer, Jean McGillivrey, William Mosier, Jack Roberts, Spokane; Helen Young, Coeur d'Alene; Frances Harmon, Lewiston, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Grabner, Orofino.

KNIGHTS SPONSOR COLLEGE MIXER

An all-college mixer sponsored by the Intercollegiate Knights was held Friday night at the gymnasium. The mixer, which was held for the purpose of obtaining money for the national convention of the Intercollegiate Knights to be held in May, was very successful. Rosie Layne's orchestra furnished the music for the dance.

BLUE KEY HONORS ALUMNI

Blue Key gave a luncheon at the Blue Bucket Saturday at 12 o'clock in honor of the Blue Key alumni. The guests were General E. R. Chisman, Dean I. C. Crawford, J. E. Buchanan, Gard Wood, Albert Stone, Floyd Landsdon, Russell Tuttle, John Soden, Russell Randall, Edward Poulton, Earl Taylor, Edward Coon. Short impromptu speeches were given by the members during luncheon.

MORTAR BOARD HONORS ALUMNAE

Mortar Board gave a breakfast Saturday morning at the Blue Bucket inn in honor of its alumnae. The table was decorated with a centerpiece of yellow and white chrysanthemums. The guests were Mrs. Alene Curtis, Mrs. Earl Davis,

Girls vote for PIPES
(for men!)

ASK any girl you know to name her favorite smoke—for men! Ten to one she'll say a pipe!

She's discovered—trust her bright little eyes—that it's the BIG men, on the campus and off, who welcome the mental stimulation and relaxation they get from this real man's smoke.

And if she's very wise in the ways of smokers, she'll go one better than that. She'll tell you the men who know, smoke Edgeworth!

No two ways about it, you do get a doubly satisfying smoke when you fill your pipe with this famous old blend. It's a happy combination of choice burleys—cut long to give you a cool, slow-burning smoke. And its mellow flavor and rich aromahavemade Edgeworth the favorite pipe tobacco on 42 out of 50 campuses.

Help yourself to a pipeful next time someone pulls Edgeworth out of his pocket. Pick up the familiar blue tin yourself at any good tobacco stand. Or for a special free sample packet write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleven process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ packet package to $1.50 pound humid tin.

FROM HERE AND THERE

Football Is Intramural Sport
Football is the leading intramural sport at the University of Hawaii, the season starting Oct. 26. The lack of competitors for varsity competition makes the sport a very interesting intramural feature. The Manoa Kids and the Fumblers are the leading contenders for the title at the present time.

W. S. C. Men Have Turkey Trot
Two hundred men are expected to compete in the annual "Turkey Trot" at Washington State college this year. The three-mile trot will be run off Nov. 21, with each group having 10 men on the starting line. All men are eligible, lettermen included. Prizes for the marathon are as follows: first, a turkey; second, a goose; third, a duck; fourth, a chicken.

27 Frosh Oarsmen Ineligible
The Frosh crew at the University of Washington was cut to 32 men last week when it was discovered that 27 men were ineligible. The ineligibilities occurred through faulty registration on the part of the students. The men will be classed as varsity material when the rowing season rolls around.

Washington Crew Reprimanded
Coach Al Ulbricksen called the members of his crew up on the carpet one day last week and informed them that their spirit was very bad. He also told them that no one had a position cinched in the leading boat. "It isn't fair to the men that come out every night and then you boys come out once and twice a week and think that you have a place on the crew cinched. This has to stop," Ulbricksen told the Husky oarsmen.

California Midgets Start Work
The Tom Thumbs at the University of California have a basketball team of their own. All men who tip the beam at 130 and 145 pounds have a basket ball team. The little boys started practice last week and they are looking forward to a few coast trips this year.

Starts Hockey Practice
The University of Minnesota has started hockey practice at this early date. Seven lettermen and last year's numeral men are the only members on the squad at the present time. Minnesota has prospects of a championship crew of puck chasers.

Water Polo at Oregon
Intramural water polo has started at the University of Oregon with 14 teams taking to the water. The tournament is to last a week and every men's group on the campus is represented.

St. Mary's Invited East
As a part of the Owen D. Young unemployment relief plan the mayor of Philadelphia has invited the St. Mary's football team to play a game in that city. The game, which is to be played in December, will be against one of the strongest teams of the East.

Intramural Golf at Stanford
The men at Stanford are playing golf as an intramural sport. An elimination contest last week resulted in 14 two men teams. Every group is represented in the competition.

VANDAL ATHLETE SIGNS WITH CUBS

Lief Erickson, Former Southpaw Pitcher is Sold To Majors

The Caldwell News-Tribune reports that Lief Erickson, one of Idaho's greatest pitching stars of former years, after several seasons of wandering about in the bush leagues, has been sold to the Chicago Cubs and ordered to report at the Catalina Island training camp next spring.

After a try with the Pittsburgh Pirates the year after he was graduated from the university, Erickson drifted among the minor leagues until last summer, when he pitched exceptional ball for the Dallas club in the Texas league. Included in his winnings were two one-hit and two two-hit games.

The tall left-handed Scandinavian while in the university, was the mainstay of the pitching staff and an excellent football player as well. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

LONE LETTERMAN BACK AT BRANCH

With only one spur winner back in the roster from last year's eleven, Coach Felix Plastino of the southern branch at Pocatello, has whipped a team into shape out of pigskin toters from Pocatello, and other high schools from the southern part of the state.

Russel Garst, the only letterman to return for moleskins this year, holds down an end position, hails from Pocatello where Plastino has chosen the bulk of his new material Dean Parker, guard, is back in the lineup with experience from a year ago.

Jack Barbee, 193 pounder from Jerome, tips the scales as the heaviest performer in Plastino's aggregation this year. Walter Anderson, 172 pounds from Pocatello, Howard March, New Meadows, 176 pounds, and Clay Hadley, Rupert, 165 pounds bolster up the southern branch team in the weight division.

VANDALS DEFEAT GONZAGA ELEVEN

6 yards. On the next play Smith took the ball on a reverse and dashed 14 yards to the 17-yard line. Tyrrell hit center for 6 more yards and then Smith hit center for 6 more yards, cut back to the center and crossed the goal standing up. As he crossed the last line the Idaho fans rose as one and a bedlam of noise broke loose that warmed the hearts of every returned grad. The touchdown was the realization of dreams to the Vandals themselves and they could hardly restrain themselves to merely thumping each other on the back. The ball was put in position for the try and the stands were quiet again as the teams lined up for the kick. Spaugy shot the ball true to the mark and Tyrrell kicked the ball. It sailed straight through the uprights and as Referee Moran raised his hands in a signal that the conversion was good both stands broke loose again and the noise did not stop until the teams were again lined up for the kick-off.

Soon after Sullivan had sent the ball sailing end over end down the field an exchange of punts gave Idaho the ball on its own 32-yard line. Smith and Tyrrell alternating at carrying the ball advanced to three successive first downs and drove into the Blue and White territory again. The ball was carried to the 25-yard line when Calland sent Sather and Walker into the Vandal backfield to open an aerial attack. The spurt ended when Sather tossed the ball over the goal on the fourth down. The Bulldogs took the ball on the 20-yard line on the first play Carroll broke loose and was downed by Sullivan after covering 11 yards for Gonzaga's initial first down. On the next play the Vandals were penalized half the distance to the goal for unnecessary roughness. A pass gave the Bulldogs another first down and put the ball on the 14-yard line but the gun ended the half and checked the rally.

Crowd Rests.
During the intermission the spectators were given their first chance to rest since the opening whistle. The Idaho and Gonzaga pep bands gave several selections. Morris O'Donnell bedecked in an oriental dressing gown led a clown band or a band of clowns onto the field and kept the crowd in high spirits until the teams again appeared.

An exchange of punts opened the hostilities. Frazier sent a long kick which rolled to the Idaho 6-yard line where Bernier downed it. On the first play Berg dropped back to kick but the ball rolled off at an angle and was out of bounds on Idaho's 19-yard line. Moore made 2 yards on a reverse and another plunge netted 5 more for Gonzaga but the ball was fumbled. A short argument was held but the referee ruled that Gonzaga had recovered. With only 3 yards to go for a first down, Frazier fumbled and the stands let loose a sigh of relief when the pile uncovered and Martin had recovered for Idaho. Two successive first downs took the ball out of danger and the third period ended with the ball in Gonzaga's possession on Idaho's 42-yard line.

Spaugy Gets Hand.
The teams changed goals and another first down brought the ball to the 32-yard line. Two more plays lost 2 yards when Bessler broke through to throw Carroll for a loss. Frazier dropped back and passed over the line but the ball left Gonzaga's possession as Spaugy gathered the pigskin from the air. However he was hurt as he was hit from behind and had to leave the game. As he limped from the field the stands gave him a rousing tribute as he was leaving his last home game.

After making a first down Berg kicked and Gonzaga worked the ball to Idaho's 37-yard line, but the forward wall tightened and Idaho took the ball. On the first play Smith choose to pass but McKenna intercepted it while in full flight and raced untouched down the sidelines to cross the last line. Frazier kicked the important try for point but it flew wild.

Idaho choose to receive as the time was getting short. The ball changed hands again but Gonzaga could not get the range as they filled the air with passes in the closing minutes.

All Stars.
It would be impossible to name the list of stars for the day, for every man on the Idaho squad who played in the game played spectacular ball. The entire line from end to end smashed and battered the Gonzaga forward walk into submission and when they opened a hole in the opposing line a back was through like a shot for a few precious yards. Although the entire team was outstanding, Berg, Sullivan, Spaugy, and Martin were in almost every play. Berg was all over the field, making tackles and Spaugy had a hand in stopping the famous Bulldog passing attack. However, with the spectacular running of the backs, they would not have gone far but for the path clearing of Norby, Sackett and Tyrrell.

The statistics of the game clearly show the superiority of the Vandal machine. Calland's crew rolled up 201 yards from scrimmage as against 68 for Gonzaga. Eight successful passes out of fifteen attempts netted 64 yards as compared to four out of ten for Gonzaga for 52 yards. The Idaho backs reeled off 12 first downs against 5 for the Bulldogs. The penalties cost the Vandals 110 yards and Gonzaga 40.

Starting Lineups.
GONZAGA: Bernier, LE; Van Sisting, LT; Shields (Capt.), LG; Sprout, RB; Raddau, RG; Elden, RT; Sullivan, RE; Berg, LH; Sackett, SC; Krause, FB; Tyrrell, QB; Wilson, WR.
Scoring: Idaho—Smith, touchdown; Tyrrell, place kick after touchdown. Gonzaga—McKenna, touchdown.

STATISTICS POINT IN IDAHO'S FAVOR

Score-book Shows Vandal's Superiority in Gonzaga Game

That the 1-point margin by which Idaho was victorious over Gonzaga last Saturday is not a full indication of the superiority of the Vandal attack may be clearly seen by a glance at the score book.

While the Bulldogs were eking out 65 yards from scrimmage, the Idaho backs were rolling up a total of 226 yards through and around a Vandal-shredded Gonzaga forward wall.

In individual starrng, Willis Smith, Idaho's midget ball-packer, showed up the highly touted Bulldog quarters with a total of 241 yards gained against the Spokane eleven to his credit.

Even in the tabulation of touchdowns, the figures do not tell the true story, for Idaho's 7 points came after nearly two quarters of steady line-plunging, end runs, and passes, while Gonzagas tally came as the result of a most fortunate "break." Although Frazier's misplaced set-kick was admittedly a "break" for Idaho, every fan left the stands with the feeling that the outfought and out-charged team came out on the short end of the score.

WITH OLD GOLDS

It's not only good manners to avoid offending others with your smoking. It's good sense. The best way to insure your own enjoyment.

For the same reason that OLD GOLDS do not taint the breath, or discolor the teeth... for that very reason OLD GOLDS are a finer smoke... easier on the throat and more delightful in taste.

Pure tobacco... that sums it up. Sun-ripened tobacco... sweetened by nature herself. Tobacco so good it needs no added flavoring.

If you'll take a dare... and try natural-flavored OLD GOLDS for a day... we predict OLD GOLD will win another life-long friend!
