JUNIOR WEEK CHAIRMEN ARE APPOINTED

'Razzing' By Idaho Students Draws Comment From Athletes

To the Student Body:
It has come to the attention of the "T" club that too many of the Idaho students are forgetting the old Idaho spirit. An unsuccessful season in any sport always brings out a lot of unfavorable comment and the present basketball season leaves a bit of dissatisfaction among us. Of course, the season would have been "fine," had we won every game. But we didn't.

been too much talk about "this man didn't do this, and that man shouldn't do that; or the coach should have put this man or taken that man out," etc. There will undoubtedly be comments of all kinds now that the season is over. The Sunday morning quarter-backs and lunch counter coaches will chant "I told you so," as they always do AFTER the shouting is over. Let 'em rave, for they are harmless.

ELDRIDGE SPEAKS MANY LANGUAGES; GOT PH.D. AT YALE

"When I Am in Germany I Dream in German"

Dean Eldridge took his Ph.D. at Yale in German, and although he said he is not one of these sharks who speaks seventeen or so languages, he does know 18, and as a consequence he belongs to many honorary societies and associations. Anybody who has seen his lengthy write-up in Who's Who can tell that.

"When I went to Yale, the entrance requirements were four years of Latin, two years of Greek and one year of either German or French," he explained. "And since I liked German very much I went on with that."

In 1918 the dean went over to France with the Y. M. C. A. "I hadn't landed in France before I was on duty as interpreter," he said. A man aboard the ship spoke German, and among his belongings which they were examining, two letters were found which had the German word for fight in them. That led officers to believe that the man was a spy. So they called me to cross-question the man. I gave him a thorough examination, and I found that he was a Swiss German who had had a fist fight, but he had not interest whatever, in the war.

Often, while in the war, Dean Eldridge said that he dreamed that he would be asked questions in French and he would answer in German, and he would be morning the would be marveled for spy but always before when he had been in France, he dreamed in French, and when he was in German he dreamed in German.

FORESTRY CLASS TO HEAR LECTURE

One-time Idaho Instructor to Address Forestry
Class

"Forest Service Job Analysis" is a subject which J. B. Taylor from the regional office staff of the United States forest service at Missoula, will deal with in his address to forestry students next Tuesday morning.

Important Subject.
"This is a subject in which students are very much interested," said Dr. E. E. Hubert, acting dean "and Mr. Taylor is in a very favorable position to give them the valuable information. He is the man who goes around and analyzes all the different jobs held by members of the forest service."

Mistakes were made, perhaps, but the most obvious mistake of all has been made by the student body in not staying by the ship, sink or swim. Where was the old Idaho fighting spirit that carried us through the last football season? Idaho teams are our teams and our men. There has

"Idaho honor and sportsmanship have been traditions that you should keep and you should not let a couple 'boozers' turn a well-ordered student body into a yelling mob," said members of the Husky basketball squad when interviewed after the game last Monday night when Idaho played against Washington that the "razzing" was es-

compliments team
Harold Lee, forward on the Husky team, said of the Idaho team "The Idaho team plays a fast breaking type of ball and are good shooters. They make a game that is interesting for the spectators to watch."

Westerners More Sensitive.
When asked about the respective business situations in the west and the east, Dr. Foster remarked that westerners revealed a more sensitive and calm attitude toward the depression than did easterners. "The horizon seems to be brightening a little," he added, "and from all indications, the business situation will soon be back to normal."

DR. FOSTER NAMES DEPRESSION CAUSE IN ASSEMBLY TALK

Under Consumption And a
Low Standard of Living
Are Blame

"Why do we have depression? Why does man allow himself to get into this present situation?" asked Dr. William Trufant Foster, director of the Pollack foundation for economic research, Newton, Massachusetts, at a special assembly Wednesday evening.

Our aim, he adds, is to raise the standard of living for all, and this can be done only by increasing the consumption of wealth (not increasing savings). Evidence, he explained, lies in the presence of the necessary breadlines, the shabby clothing, such a majority of people are wearing today, and the unhygienic, crowded homes in which they live.

Blames Under Consumption.
"The real reason for under consumption," he continued, "lies in the lessened purchasing power due to the dwindling stream of wages that is choking the forest service."

Nothing Definite For Students Seeking Work
In Mine

"Nothing definite is known yet regarding summer work for students seeking employment in blister rust work of the forest service," reported Dr. E. E. Hubert, acting dean of the forestry school, after a consultation with blister rust men from the Spokane office yesterday.

Watch Blister Rust.

Under the general direction of Prof. Fred C. Blanchard of the university dramatics division the play boasts an all star cast headed by Lionel Campbell, Boise, in the role of Death. Treated in the continental manner, Death is personified as a friendly, human sort of person who assumes mortal form in order to experience life as it really is and to find out why he is so feared.

By Fern Paulsen
On March 17, the Lawyers will again appear in straw hats, and perhaps will carry pitchforks. According to tradition, each year the Lawyers challenge the A's to a basket ball game. They have done this now for eight or ten years. Until last year, the penalty for losing was a feed in honor of the winning side, given by the losing side, but the custom is now changed.

If There Are Any Spoils

In the last two issues of the Argonaut there have been editorials from various sources suggesting that the United States should pull out of the present squabble which is going on in China. It is quite fitting, too, that both sides of such a controversy should be presented, but there comes a time when enough is enough. This is that time. In nearly every student newspaper and religious publication one runs into the plea that the United States should pull up stakes and tend to knitting strictly on its own camp grounds. And just now these suggestions are going too far. One begins to wonder what has happened to the red blood that used to compose at least part of every normal American.

Of course, these pacifist friends are perfectly honest in their contentions and they are perfectly earnest in their demands, but they are not particularly logical in assuming the position which they take. Here they are crying for world peace. That in itself is like barking at the night, but granting that it could be possible to have some form of world peace, they then go ahead and take a position directly counter to their own desires. They say, "Get out of China." And then what? Well, Japan takes a bite or two out of China or vice versa and then they decide to negotiate for peace. In those negotiations it turns out, as it did after the Boxer rebellion, that France and England and Italy and a few others aren't too proud to accept and retain an offering of one kind or another. In fact, if that offering isn't forth coming, things aren't going to sit so well. The offering is forthcoming. That puts these world powers in a strong position on the Pacific. Not, of course, that they have any particular interests on the Pacific, but it just looks like a good place to have a foothold. And here Uncle Sam is on the other side of the Pacific. He has "backed out and let all of the settling in the hands of "those who are directly interested." The result is that when the thing is over the United States is holding the gunny and our Pacifist friends are screaming hail Columbia and shouting about the moral victory we have just accomplished.

Well, thanks, anyway. If the suggestion may be made, they ought to be looking for big guns. They have been putting the other powers in the world in a perfect position to desire dominance over our position in the Pacific and instead of helping the cause of world peace they have put another chip on the world's shoulder.

Instead of backing out of China, we had better stay in and when the time comes it seems that it might be a good idea not to be too proud to grab a little of the booty.

PRESS WORK STARTS THIS WEEK ON GEM

Press work on the Gem of the Mountains started this week in Boise when the Syms-York Printing company started running page borders for the entire book. Copy for three sections of the book has already been sent to Boise and the next few weeks will find Gem proof readers busy.

The Gem cover has just been selected and from all indications it will be something entirely new for the book.

Only 800 copies of the Gem were ordered this year and so in spite of the depression there is likely to be a shortage on them next spring. Anyone wishing to make a deposit on a Gem now can do so by seeing a Spur or a Knight at the group house or by going to "Cap" Horton's office.

Jessie Macdonald, class editor, requests that all those who have not returned their proofs to the studios do so immediately.

ARCHITECTS ARE PULLMAN GUESTS

George Harrington will speak on Economics and Administration in Construction. A regular meeting of the Institute of Architects will be held in Spokane Saturday.

Well, after the little struggle yesterday afternoon, there isn't much doubt left as to who believes in blowing their own horns. But there isn't a great deal of hope on the other side either, because if reports of observers are correct, the chief difficulty was overproduction of ags. The farm board suggested that things would pick up a bit if every third row of cotton were plowed under, and the farmers countered that it would be better to plow every third member of the farm board under. Now come the lawyers suggesting that it would be more to the point to plow every third member of the ag school under. It's a 90-10 bet, though, that even then the lawyers would have had to had a step ladder and a funnel to get the little ball through the little hoop. That was a swell tackle on third base, though.

Aside from the play, the only other affair scheduled for Friday evening is the Delta Chi informal dance which will be held at the chapter house ballroom.

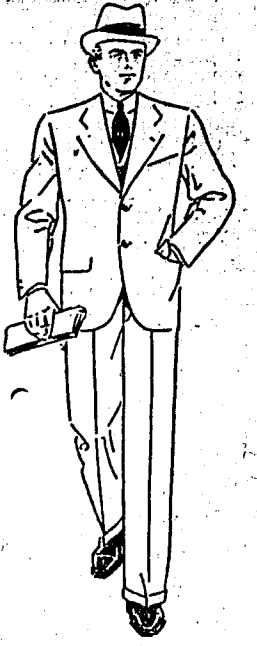

Concert. The military band will give a concert in the university auditorium for students and townspeople. This concert will be a diversion for Sunday afternoon.

Coming Events. One of the most outstanding affairs since the Senior ball given in December, will be the R. O. T. C. Military ball to be given at the Elks' temple on Saturday evening, March 5. Plans are well under way at the present time for a successful dance. As is the usual custom, the ball will be formal.

On the afternoon of March 5, Mortar Board is sponsoring a fashion tea which will be held at Hays hall. One woman from each house will be selected to model cloided on the motifs they will use. Each of these dances will be given at their respective chapter houses. Delta Chi fraternity during the past week has entertained the following as house guests: Mr. Frank S. Spald of Shoshone, and Mr. Harry Cross of Ritzville, Wash.

Margaret Watson, former Idaho student, is visiting this week at the Kappa Alpha Theta house.

VANDALS DOWNED IN SEASON FINAL BY CLOSE COUNT

Huskies Win Second Game After Hard Battle 44 to 39

By Richard Stanton
A determined and fighting Idaho team bowed down to the Washington Huskies in the second game Tuesday night, 44 to 39, after staging two brilliant rallies which nearly spelled defeat for the Seattle team and would have taken with it their hopes for the conference pennant. By taking both Idaho games the Huskies enter the final round of the series at Seattle tonight and tomorrow night with Washington State to determine to whom the divisional honors will go.

One Game Behind

The two victories over the Vandals, which were pulled out of the fire only in the last minutes of play, sends the Washington team into the playoff only a game behind the title bound Cougars. Two wins from the Pullman team will give the Huskies the honors while a single loss will clinch things up for the Staters.

After the ragged game played on the Idaho court Monday night, fans were expecting nothing short of another free-for-all, but were treated to something entirely different. Both teams steadied their play and showed some consistent ball playing most of the game. Things looked bad for the Vandals when Washington jumped into a four-point lead after the opening whistle sounded. Jack Hanover, sensational sophomore forward, scored first on a shot from the side of the floor and was followed by a basket by Cairney on a quick break.

Lacy Counts First

Lacy counted first for Idaho and was followed by Wick's free throw which brought Idaho within a point of the Huskies. In the first minutes of play Idaho was working the ball in fast, but missed several chances to score. Nelson stretched his team lead to six before Barrett tallied. Idaho took the lead then after Grenier counted a 7-6, but Fuller evened it on a "gift" shot. Idaho only led once more at 10 to 7 before the Huskie "hot shots" started looping them to tie the score at 13, all then pull into a 21 to 14 lead at the half.

Take Commanding Lead

Fuller, Nelson, and Hanover had things their own way at the start of the final period and rung the loop enough times to find themselves comfortably in the lead, 33 to 19. The Vandals opened up a charge then that looked for a while like it might terminate in a Huskie rout, but ended after Idaho had scored eight points, with Wicks, Barrett, and Grenier responsible.

The Idaho team staged another rally in the last minutes of play with "Skinny" Nelson putting some spark in the team to narrow the score down to 39 to 37, but the Huskies tightened again and counted a couple times to lead 44 to 39 as the final gun sounded and sent them into the play-off at Seattle tonight only a game behind Washington State.

The dope bucket was kicked all over during the intramural games of the past week, and as a result positions in the percentage column have been shifted. The first upset came last Wednesday night, when Delta Chi five, previously swamped by the Coaches, 50 to 4, defeated the so far undefeated Teke quintet. The biggest upset came in the second game last night when the S. A. E. team nosed out the last year's championship Sigma Nu five.

Delta Chi vs. T. K. E.
After trailing 7 to 8 at the half, Delta Chi staged a rally to defeat the Tekes 18 to 15 last Wednesday night. Seatz led the winners in scoring with 5 points. Markus was outstanding for the Tekes with 4 points. The game puts both teams in the .500 division.

Sigma Chi vs. A. T. O.

In the second game Wednesday, Sigma Chi retained her lead in the percentage column with a win over A. T. O., 12 to 8. Both teams were strong defensively, the losers weakening in the last quarter to allow the necessary baskets. The count at the half stood 4 to 3 in favor of Sigma Chi.

Delts vs. Phi Gams

Delta Tau Delta continued her winning pace set last year when she annexed the "A" league title by defeating the Fijis Thursday night, 23 to 14. The Delts grabbed the lead at the start and had little difficulty in retaining it to the end. They led at the half 10 to 5. Ward, Fiji forward, was high-point man for the game with 8 counters to his credit. Justice led the winners in scoring with 7 points.

Displaying a varsity brand of ball the S. A. E. five nosed out a 26 to 20 victory over the last year championship Sigma Nu five in the second game. The winners grabbed a substantial lead at the start, and the game was entirely theirs during the first half, which ended 19 to 10. The Sigma Nus came back strong in the second half, holding their opponents to a long free throw until two minutes before the game ended. The S. A. E. sharpshooters then went into action and scored three baskets in quick succession to put the game on ice. Taylor, S. A. E. guard used his height to advantage in rolling up 11 counters to take scoring honors for the evening. Barker, Sigma Nu forward, was outstanding as usual, and led his team in scoring with 7 points.

In a tough scrimmage under his opponents basket, "Chud" Wendell Sigma Nu center, fell on his arm dislocating his shoulder. Ralph Hutchinson, Vandal trainer, was called to put the limb in place. The injury will not be at all permanent or serious.

Phi Delta Theta and Ridenbaugh

hall are the only groups who have not yet played. The hall boys forfeited their game to the Phi Delts which was scheduled for last week. Lack of funds to pay the entrance fee necessitated the temporary cancellation of all Ridenbaugh hall games.

One game is scheduled for tomorrow afternoon between Chi Alpha Pi and the Coaches. Monday night's games include Kappa Sigma vs. Lambda Chi Alpha at 7:30 and L. D. S. vs. Ridenbaugh hall at 8:30.

SEVEN LETTERMEN COMPOSE NUCLEUS FOR FOXMEN NINE

Infield And Outfield Positions to Have Keen Competition

Seven lettermen, and as many more promising candidates from last year's reserves, will serve as the nucleus for Coach Rich Fox's 1932 varsity baseball team. Most of these men are working out daily in the gymnasium, loosening up stiff arms and sore muscles. It is of course impossible to predict with any degree of certainty what the showing of the team will be until outdoor sessions begin.

The returning infield lettermen are: Bill Schutte, Jack Lee, and Norman Sather, while the outfield will be taken care of by Jack Haden and Harold Jacobs. Plenty of competition for these jobs is expected from McNelly, Earl Williams, Spike Sternki, Cyril Geragaty, Harry Wilson, ePte Wicks and others.

A survey of the pitching staff finds Ed Lacy and Harold Jacobs back from last year, and Laverne Randall as well as Neil Spears, new men to bolster up this department. Coach Fox stated that a short-stop, a second baseman, an outfielder and three pitchers are needed to carry the team through the entire season. There will be a meeting of all varsity candidates at two o'clock Saturday in room 104 of the Memorial gym.

Here, MEN, smoke a man's smoke

A PIPEFUL of good tobacco is distinctly a man's smoke. The women (long may they wave!) have taken over most of our masculine privileges. But pipesmoking still belongs to us.

In every walk of life you'll find that the men at the top are pipe smokers. And most college men agree that the pipe offers the rarest pleasures a man could ask of his smoking.

When you smoke a pipe, be sure you choose the tobacco that will give you the greatest enjoyment. In 42 out of 54 colleges Edgeworth is the favorite. You can buy Edgeworth wherever good tobacco is sold. Or for a special sample packet, write to Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va. Sample is free.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive eleven process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms — Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug Slice. All sizes, 15¢ per packet, 1.50 per pound humidor tin.
