We Confess

We are now a senior. In a few months we will be graduated from this institution of higher learning. We have spent four years of our life in preparation for our chosen occupation. We now confess that we are a failure. We find that we know exactly nothing.

In school we have accomplished nothing. We have made friends. We have taken certain prescribed courses. We also have a certain number of grade points. This is supposed to guarantee one a job and a salary large enough to furnish food and lodging. We find, however, that we have been fooled. We have drunk of the magic elixir and have found it to be nothing but water.

Our friends who finished school last year have accomplished nothing either. They are still going to school, living at home with their folks and loafing, or working at the job that pays them only enough money to keep them from starvation. We had higher hopes and kept on with our education, until slowly but surely we have become convinced that a college education is a flop.

People who merely finished high school and went to work have jobs. They are now married and started on a life of happiness. We, the seekers of the light of higher education, are looking forward to a poor job, if one at all, and a long hard grind to catch the people who started out ahead of us with only a high school education.

A college education gives one a background, the optimists say. But what good is a background going to do when we are faced with the prospects of manual labor for a life occupation?—Daily Kansan

WHAT PRICE CONDEMNATION?

Much unfavorable criticism has been made concerning the junior parade. Last week The Argonaut ran an editorial, suggesting that the class of 1933 could in no way be proud of its efforts to see just how bad they could be and get by. Faculty members, townspeople and the students themselves who witnessed the parade have agreed that it was not quite "fittin' and proper."

But what has been the result of all this adverse criticism? The result is that everybody who failed to see the parade is rushing down to Hodgkin's to look at the photographs of it, which are on display there. Students and townspeople, old men and small children, may be seen crowding about the picture rack to see the parade that was not quite as it should be.

Such is the result of censorship. Let a mayor of a town even hint that he is going to stop an improper motion picture, and the theatre will have a full house for many nights to come. Ban a book in England and it will be a best seller in America—and also England.

Condemnation has its good effect, but it has its price, and the price is not gauged by present depression figures, either.

WILL GIVE JOINT GRADUATES RECITAL

Agnes Ramstedt and Lois Thompson to Give Program Wednesday

A variety of numbers by as many composers will feature the joint graduate recital to be given by Lois Thompson, pianist, and Agnes Ramstedt, contralto, Wednesday evening at 8:15 in the auditorium. Lucille Ramstedt will be the accompanist.

Miss Thompson will open the program with Beethoven's Moonlight Sonata Op. 27 No. 2. It contains the three movements Adagio sostenuto, Allegretto, and Presto agitato.

An Italian number, Amarilli by Caccini, and a French number, Connais-tu le Pays Mignon by Thomas will be sung by Miss Ramstedt.

Plays Chopin Selection
Group three includes three piano selections by Chopin played by Miss Thompson. They are Nocturne F sharp Major Op. 15 No. 2; Polonaise C sharp minor, Op. 26 No. 2; and Waltz A Flat Major Op. 34 No. 1.

For group four, Miss Ramstedt will sing four songs A Spirit Flower, Tipton, Courtin' Liza Jane, Howard, Danny Boy, Weatherby; and Mountains, by Rasbach.

Miss Thompson plays the final group which includes Orientale, Amani; The Island Spell, Ireland; La Soiree dans Grenade, Debussy; and Cracovienne Fantastique, by Paderewski.

CLASS PRESENTS McKAYE'S PLAY

Give Part of Famous "Canterbury Pilgrims" in Class.

The Chaucer class under Dr. G. M. Miller met yesterday morning at the "Theater Under the Willow" on the campus and presented a part of Percy McKaye's play, "Canterbury Pilgrims."

The cast included: Prologue, Louella DeGero; Miller, Lionel Campbell; Friar, Leroy Hughes; Wife of Bath, Lucille Moore; Prioress, Ruth West; and Chaucer, Dr. Miller.

Dr. Miller expressed a desire to have the whole play given sometime, since even the extremely informal manner in which the brief excerpts were given yesterday proved its carrying power.

turn from Boise. The president's automobile, with Russell Smith of Moscow, driver, was struck by a lighter car driven by Hobart Bruce, Waitsburg Wash., when seven miles east of Cottonwood.

Both cars were badly damaged, although none of the four occupants of the two machines were injured. Dr. Neale said Monday that Smith seeing the car approaching and crowding to the middle of the road, pulled his car as close to the edge of the road as possible, but was unable to avoid the impact. The left side of Dr. Neale's car was badly damaged. The other car was a wreck.

The president and Mr. Geddes continued to Moscow in the automobile of the later, summoned from his home at Winchester. The accident happened about 8 p. m. Saturday.

UNIVERSITY TO BE CONVENTION HOST

Will Entertain Intercollegiate Knights Delegates Next Week

A progressive dinner, reception, and dance will be the social entertainment for the delegates to the Intercollegiate Knights' convention to be held April 28, 29, and 30 with the University of Oregon, Oregon State college, Montana State college, Utah State college, University of Washington, Washington State college, and University of Idaho Southern Branch.

Other guests at the convention will be J. R. A. Curry, national advisor, Seattle; Dave Exberg, vice president, W. S. C.; Art Buckley, M. S. C., secretary treasurer, and alternates from the various chapters to accompany the delegates. Stanton G. Hale of this chapter is national president.

Dinner Given

A progressive dinner will be given by the women's groups on the campus under the supervision of the Spurs. The delegates and local officers will be entertained at dancing at each house, with one course of the dinner to be served at each place. On Friday afternoon a reception will be given at Hays hall with the Spurs in charge of arrangements. Friday evening the Knights are entertaining the delegates and their guests at a dance at the Blue Bucket. During the three convention days business meetings will be held at Hays hall. Saturday evening all the delegates will be taken to Pullman where they will be guests at the Junior Prom at W. S. C.

PLAN TO EXHIBIT DRAFTSMEN'S WORK

An excellent exhibit of draftsmen's work from the Pacific coast will be shown for the next week in the architectural department. The exhibit includes professional work and representative student work from the universities and the state colleges of Washington and Oregon, and several schools in California. One of the outstanding pieces of work is a lithograph by Hennessy of Bourges, France, which won the prize. Some of the best known delineators of the Pacific coast, Fox, Bishop and Richards, have sketches in the exhibit. A great variety of work makes this exhibit especially interesting—pen and ink sketches, pencil sketches, water colors, pastels, lithographs, and still life.

This exhibit is sponsored by the Maya fraternity, architectural honorary. It is sent out by the architects of the Pacific coast in order to create an interest in their profession, and to bind students of schools more closely together.

ATTIC CLUB PLANS FOR MAY EXHIBIT

Art and Architecture Students Will Have Show

Members of the Attic club met at a dinner at the Blue Bucket to discuss plans for Art and Architecture Day to be held May 12, 13, and 14. Plans are being made to invite all the architects in the state and from Spokane, and the architectural students from Pullman. Mr. Melzian, head of the architecture department also hopes to have the State Board of Examiners for Architecture as guests at the exhibit.

HOLD VOCATIONAL CONFERENCE HERE FOR HIGHSCHOOLS

The annual conference for vocational high school students from northern Idaho is to be held here April 28, 29, and 30, states Prof. J. M. Raeder, chairman of the committee. The purpose of the convention is to interest the high school men in college work along any line in which they so desire. Each high school invited is asked to send at least three representatives and more as they desire to come to the conference.

For the past five years the same conference plan has been carried out by the university departments. Last year seventy-three vocational students attended, making a very good representation from the northern towns. Nearly every department in the university was represented in the interest shown. This year thirty high schools are receiving invitations including Lewiston, Lapwai, Culesad, Craigmont, Reubens, Ferdinand, Cottonwood, Grangeville, Troy, Kendrick, Juliaette, Orofino, Kooskia, Coeur d'Alene, Genesee, Rathdrum, Kamiah, Sandpoint, Salmon City, Wallace, Burke, Mullan, Nez Perce, Gifford, Potlatch, Clarks Fork, Spirit Lake, Post Falls, Bonners Ferry, and Priest River.

The manner in which the program is to be conducted has not been decided upon as yet. However, as soon as the men reach the university they will register, naming the school or particular line in which they have the greatest interest. From this their programs will be concluded. Following this a general open meeting will be held as a general get-together. It is believed that still more students will attend this year than in previous years.

The CINEMANIAC

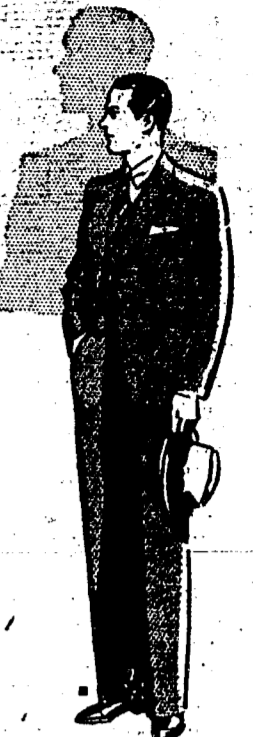

THE MAN WHO PLAYED GOD, now showing at the Kenworthy theatre features the famous comedian and character actor—George Arliss. The picture tells the story of Royale, an embittered musician, who, finding that happiness cannot be bought, tries to live his life the best he knows how. Arliss wrote most of his own part. "The Man Who Played God" presents Arliss in his most outstanding portrayal. He gives a strikingly original and daring characterization. It is a picture no one should miss.

PAGLIACCI, the famous screen debut of grand opera, will be shown Thursday afternoon and night at the Kenworthy theatre. It is the first complete Grand Opera in sound film. The San Carlos Opera company with a group of 150 comprises the cast, assisted by a Symphony orchestra of 75. Mario Valle, the famous baritone, is featured. The film, which is a pioneering attempt is very commendable, giving a very fair and sufficiently comprehensive knowledge of one of the best known works of the standard opera.

FREAKS, starring Olga Baclanova, Lella Hyams, and Wallace Ford, will be shown Friday and Saturday at the Kenworthy theatre. The picture, based on the story "Spurs," centers on the crafty scheme of a trapeze performer to poison his husband, a midget whom she married solely for his money. She overlooks, however, the strange bond that unites the freaks, and when the plot is discovered, she and her accomplice become the victims of a horrible revenge. The cinema is noted for its unusual plot and background.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT PRESENTS RECITAL

All Classes Participate in Seven Part Program Sunday

A program in seven parts including pupils of five instructors and members of freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes, was presented by the music department Sunday afternoon.

The program opened with a piano selection, Sonata Op. 14 No. 1, Allegro, Allegretto and Rondo by Beethoven and was played by Elsa Eisinger. Miss Eisinger is a pupil of Miss Isabelle Clark.

Miss Lorraine Stewart, mezzo-soprano, who is a pupil of Miss Agnes Bothne, sang Handel's Lascio Chi'io Pianga in Italian.

The third part of the program was two vocal solos by Alice ell, contralto—Homing by del Riego and Morning Wind by Branscomb. Miss Bell is a pupil of Miss Dorothy Frederickson.

An instrumental trio featured part four of the program which included two selections—by the Brook, Boisdreffre and Romance, Debussy. The trio was made up of Patricia Kennard, piano; Kathryn Kennard, cello; and Martha Jean Rehberg, piano; and was coached by Miss Miriam Little.

Joe Cox, tenor, Moscow high school pupil of Miss Dorothy Frederickson sang The Little Road to Kerry by Cadman and Morning by Speaks.

Mendelssohn's Prelude in E minor was played by Annie Snow, who is also a pupil of Miss Clark.

The concluding numbers were Dio Fossente Fast, Good and I Love Life, Manna-Zucca, sung by John Jenny, baritone, pupil of Prof. Carleton Cummings. Miss Lois Hints accompanist.

This recital was pronounced by many music lovers as one of the most diversified programs of the year.

Ruth Gipson Plowhead Caldwell, Has Review in New York Times

"Lucrctia Ann on the Oregon Trail," a children's book written by Ruth Gipson Plowhead Caldwell and illustrated by Agnes Kay Randall of Moscow received a review in the New York Times book review section for April 10.

Miss Randall is a graduate of the university and was an instructor in the university art department last year. She formerly attended art school in Chicago.

Is Idaho Student

Mrs. Plowhead is a former student of the University of Idaho. She has contributed stories for some time to 'Child Life' and 'Junior Home,' national children's magazines.

The book is a pioneer story for children, the scene being laid in Idaho. The New York Times in its review comments on its sincerity of presentation. The illustrations, both in color and in black and white, are charmingly done.

Is On Reading List

"Lucrctia Ann on the Oregon Trail" was published last fall by the Caxton Printers of Caldwell. It appeared on the Idaho school reading lists for this year and will be on the Oregon reading list for next year.

The book may be purchased at Sherfy's in Moscow.

Before receiving the distinction of a review in the New York Times, "Lucrctia Ann on the Oregon Trail" was reviewed by a number of prominent newspapers throughout the country.

This Week-End W. A. A. Will Present "American Rhapsody"

The annual Taps and Terpichore dance recital, "American Rhapsody", will be staged on Friday and Saturday of this week-end. This recital promises to far surpass all such previous undertakings. All features of the contest are original. The name, itself, was chosen only after much deliberation on all the titles suggested for the recital in a contest held for that purpose.

Much time and effort is being expended by the various chairmen and members of W. A. A. The properties, costumes, and stage settings have required an unusual amount of work.

Sophomore Mixer. Many different types of dances will be featured. The Philippine head hunters will be an awe inspiring dance. Spears, headaxes, and shields carried by the dancers will add much to the effectiveness of the dance. The imps will probably be doing a great deal of mischief. The stately minuet is to have a prominent place on the program. In contrast to this type of dance you will see the authentic "Hula Hula." You will also get a glimpse of the war spirit in the dance entitled "Over There." Of course there are many other interesting features. However, you'll want a surprise so come and see for yourselves. University women are urged to wear formals.

The Sophomore mixer will be tonight at the Blue Bucket Inn. Clayne Robison, chairman of the dance, announced that gifts are to be raffled to those holding the lucky numbers. Patrons and patronesses will be Dr. and Mrs. George M. Miller, Mr. William Banks, and Mr. and Mrs. Geoffrey JOUPE.

JUNIOR PROM GIVEN AT ELKS' TEMPLE FRIDAY

The annual junior prom given Friday night at the Elks' temple was one of the crowning events of a junior week. The aspect presented by the decorations transported the dancers to the far away country of Japan—into gardens you dream about, but seldom see. Masses of spring blossoms in white and pink scented the air. Lilies gave an added note of color to the breath taking loveliness. Japanese lanterns in oriental hues gave a dim and enchanting light to the hall. Friezes of dragons belching smoke and fire decorated the sidewalls. A small Japanese garden perfect in all details was on a raised platform at one end some songs which fit in with the general idea. Several piano selections were featured by Morris O'Donnell. Patrons and patronesses were: Gov. and Mrs. C. Ben Ross, Pres. and Mrs. M. G. Neale, Dean Permeal J. French, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Masterson, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Kerr, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Janssen, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chamberlin. As usual the Junior Cabaret was the most hilarious dance of the year's social season. With an orchestra on both floors of the Blue

CALLAND FINDS NEW QUARTERBACK

Genio Plastino Proves Great "Find" in Spring Grid Practice

Leo Calland, University of Idaho football coach, noted as a producer of light, fast pony backfields, has uncovered the lightest pony of them all; a 135-pounder who he expects will give his regular quarterbacks quite a tussle next fall. Genio Plastino, Camas, is Calland's latest find on the gridiron. When "Plasty" tucks a football under his arm and starts for the goal line he can keep up with the fastest of them. He has been showing up extremely well in spring practice.

From Southern Branch. Plastino is a cousin of Felix Plastino, former Vandal center and captain. He came to Moscow last fall after two seasons of football at the Southern Branch in Pocatello.

Plastino will have two veterans competing against him for the quarterback post: Willis "Little Giant" Smith, oBlise, and George Wilson, Moscow; both lettermen and outstanding ball carriers.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon won the right to meet Delta Tau Delta for the intramural basketball title tonight by defeating Phi Delta Theta last Saturday. The opening whistle is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. The Delts travelled through seven games undefeated to win the A league championship. Saturdays game between S. A. E. and the Phi Delts was for the B league title, both teams going through their schedules undefeated.

The Delts victory in A league marks their second consecutive year in the top position. S. A. E. has skipped a year since turning out a championship team. They took the university title in 1930. Sigma Nu, last year's champions placed well down in fourth place in B league this year.

Sigma Chi vs. Lindley Hall. Sigma Chi wound up their season by trimming the Lindley hall five, Saturday afternoon, 26 to 13. The winners were leading at the half, 11 to 10. Adams, Sig center, led the scoring with 13 tallies. Corndon was outstanding for the hall boys with 9 points.

S. A. E. vs. Phi Delt. In the final game for the B league title, S. A. E. swamped the Phi Delt five 38 to 16. Both teams were handicapped by loss of players turning out for baseball, but the rangy S. A. E. squad ran up the field goals with apparent ease. The count at the half was 16 to 5. Cravens was high point man with 12 points. Martin led the scoring for the losers with 7.

Finishing touches are being applied to the new $30,000 track and field oval constructed last summer by the Associated Students of Washington State college. The cinder path of the quarter mile track and 220 yard straight away have been rolled during the last week and promises to be as fine a running surface as can be found in the country.

The famous old half mile track of Rogers field which has been the scene of many bitter battles for supremacy between Vandal and Cougars, gives way to the new quarter mile track in keeping with the modern trend of colleges and universities. Concrete curbing around the oval, jumping pits, and a thorough drainage system are features of the construction. The field will be dedicated appropriately by track teams of Idaho and Washington State. This classic is scheduled for May 30.

Friday afternoon the conference baseball season will be initiated with the traditional foes from Washington State College offering the opposition on MacLean field. The squad has rounded into shape equal to the opening of the pennant race and the two games of this week end should produce some first class baseball. The second game of the series will again bring together the two teams at Pullman.

The chief problem confronting Coach Fox will be to get the Vandals to hitting the pill. The team has been showing marked improvement in fielding and handling the ball, but the hitting has been noticeably weak. The addition of Geraghty to the outfield has bolstered that department in fielding and hitting, and added a fast man on the bases.

The Sigma Alpha Epsilon basketball team finally won the intramural championship of B league in the final game of the scheduled season, when they defeated the Phi Delt five Saturday afternoon. The S. A. E. manager refused a request to postpone the game a day.

The finals in the intramural swimming meet will be conducted tomorrow night at 7:30, according to Howard Berg, manager. All men who placed first or second in the league meets last week will compete. In addition to the extra 50 points in the intramural standing given to the university championship team, every group house will receive the individual points won in the final meet. Non-entry of qualified swimmers will deduct 20 points from that groups score.

Men students at the University of Wisconsin refused to go to classes until the president had reclaimed his statement that all coeds were just so many "petters."

"Let the pie settle the question" is the slogan this spring at the University of Missouri. Their will be a pie-throwing contest to settle the grievances that may have accumulated during the year.

Mother's Day-- May 8th

Make your Mother the gift she will appreciate—yes, will treasure through the years, because it is you.

Sterner's Studio

The year 1932 with the Olympic games and various other activities threatens to set a record in the field of old time athletes on the comeback trail. Jack Dempsey and Fidel La Barbara in boxing, Clarence Lamar and many other track stars, and innumerable baseball players are still in the big time spotlight and will make the many younger candidates hustle to win the spotlight. The career of Lamar in the marathon will be interesting to watch as the star distance runner was winning races when most of the college students were not born.

To the tune of howling winds, under gloowering skies, the first outdoor time trials were held here last Saturday. The extreme cold and heavy wind made good times impossible, but several splendid performances were turned in notwithstanding and Coach Anderson expressed himself as being well satisfied. Two heats were run in the 800 yard race, Bowler winning the first in 21 minutes 4.9 seconds. Joannis Thomas brilliant middle distance star, clipped off a splendid mark of 2 minutes, 1 second, with Livingston not far behind. In the sprints Felton, a frosh, turned in a nice 10 flat race for 100 yards, closely followed by Kalbus and Hanford in that order. The tables were turned in the furlong however, Kalbus winning in 22.3 seconds. A blanket would have covered all three men at the tape. A decided upset was registered in the high hurdles, Bill Squance star hurdler from last year's freshman team winning handsily from Bard Lemp, stellar varsity veteran, in 15.5 seconds, splendid time considering the softness of the track. Lemp however came back a little later to nose out Squance in 15.8 seconds. Both of these men should garner plenty of points for Idaho this year. In the remaining events Jones took the low hurdles in 26.7 seconds, while epte Jensen heaved the shot 46 feet 3 inches, a splendid throw. Berg, a freshman, took second with a throw of 41 feet 9 inches. The varsity's first test will be against Whitman on the 23rd at Walla Walla.

THIEF MAKES $152

P. I. P. A.—Stanford University. —Alpha Phi, Alpha Delta Phi, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon houses were robbed of a total of $152 between Friday night and Saturday morning. Fred Frehe, campus rifeard, announced yesterday. The Alpha Phi's lost $85, the Alpha Delts $45, and the S. A. E.'s $22.

Frehe stated that the thefts were due directly to the carelessness of the house mmbms, since in no case did the thief break into the building, but entered through unlocked doors. The money taken was in loose bills, removed from wallets and purses, which were carefully replaced to avoid detection.

She prefers A PIPE (For you)

HER name is Ruth. She's a popular co-ed on a famous campus. Yes, she'll have a cigarette, thank you (and smoke it very prettily). But for you she likes a pipe.

That's one smoke that's still a man's smoke. (And that's why she likes to see YOU smoke a pipe.)

There's something companionable about pipe. Friendly, cool, mellow... it clears your mind, puts a keen edge on your thinking.

And you sound the depths of true smoking satisfaction when you fill up it.

There, man, is a REAL smoke. Choice mellow burleys, cut especially for pipes—blended for the man who knows his fine tobacco. It's cool, dry, satisfying—and you'll find it first in sales, first choice of smokers, in 42 out of 51 leading colleges.

We'd like nothing better than to drop in tonight and toss our own private tin across your study table. But since that can't be, just remember that you can get Edgeworth at your dealer's—or send for free sample if you wish. Address Larus & Bro. Co., 105 S. 22d St., Richmond, Va.

EDGEWORTH SMOKING TOBACCO

Edgeworth is a blend of fine old burleys, with its natural savor enhanced by Edgeworth's distinctive and exclusive cleveant process. Buy Edgeworth anywhere in two forms—Edgeworth Ready-Rubbed and Edgeworth Plug-Slice. All sizes, 1 1/2 pound package to $1.50 pound humidior tin.

It's a no-date affair—that mixer but we won't expect the little girls to go home alone.

The biggest meeting of the Sophomore class will be tomorrow night at their mixer.

The University of California, received gifts totalling $19,000 during the month of February.
