SHERIDAN WILL PLAY FOR ASUI PEP RALLY

Spokane Orchestra To Be Feature Of Special Student Assembly on Wednesday Night

Phil Sheridan and his Montanans will play at the special ASUI pep assembly in the auditorium Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. according to William Ennis, student body president.

Other entertainment, including speeches by alumni, and members of the faculty and coaching staff will be presented.

This pep rally promises to be different than those in the past according to those who will take part. "It's time we got away from this good fellowship stuff and got down to real blood and thunder," said an alumnus. "It's all right to be friends with W. S. C., but right now our big job is to win that game, and we can't do it by patting them on the back. We've got to revive that old 'Hymn of Hate' spirit again."

"Scram" Wilson and his two assistants will be on hand to lead cheers and yells.

Sheridan's orchestra will play in Moscow Wednesday night after the rally for a dance at the Moose hall. Two of the members are former Idaho students, Sid Walden and Cecil Ennis.

Several novelty numbers, suitable for the rally are being worked up by the orchestra.

WASHINGTON STATE PLANS HOMECOMING GAME WITH IDAHO

100 Piece Band Will Be Featured Part of W. S. C.'s Entertainment

P. I. P. A.—Students and faculty at Washington State college are planning one of the largest homecoming celebrations in the history of the school, activities beginning Friday evening and lasting until late Saturday night, November 5. The classic of the week-end will be the game with the University of Idaho on Saturday afternoon.

Friday evening the students will be joined by the alumni in witnessing a huge pyrotechnic display on Rogers field. A program of collegiate entertainment composed of music, skits, yells, pep talks by students and alumni will be given in front of the south stands. The public address system will be installed so the entire program will be audible in all corners of the stands.

Saturday afternoon the Washington State Cougars will take the field against the University of Idaho. The 100-piece band will present novel musical and drill features on the field before the game and between halves. The yell king and his dukes have arranged special stunts for the amusement of the crowd. Former students will be guests at a banquet at the Commons in the evening with more entertainment, followed by a business meeting. The annual homecoming dance is also scheduled for Saturday evening.

Traffic will be directed by members of the R. O. U. C. unit, and parking space is being planned to accommodate the many cars.

FIELD NARROWS IN INTRAMURAL RACE

Close Games Played in Indoor Baseball League Games

In the race for intramural indoor baseball championship, the Phi Gams defeated the Tekes on Monday night by the score of 14 to 13 in what was termed as "Four debating contests and one ball game." Batteries for the Phi's was Woods and Wagner; for the Tekes, Fisher and Setle.

The Sigma Nus also nosed out the Sigma Chis by a 14-10 score. The Sigma Nu team scored 5 runs in the first inning thereby giving them a comfortable lead which they held throughout the game. Naslund and Shawer were the batteries for the Sig Nus and Larson and Storch for the Sig's.

Tuesday's games will be between the Kappa Sig and the Phi's, who are as yet undefeated; and A. T. O. and Ridenbaugh. Delta Tau Delta and Delta Chi tangle in one of Wednesday's games while S. A. E. and Sigma Chi battle in the other. Thursday the Beta and T. K. E. teams fight it out as will also be the Phi Deltas and Sigma Nus.

Hallow'een Still Celebrated With Cats and Witches

Spooks, witches, and goblins walked when the oldest and most universally celebrated custom in the world was again brought into play last night with the 2,201st annual Hallow'een. The world again took her Hallow'een, rich with tradition, in the same old way. The dealers who stocked up with new ideas in decorations found that they were mistaken about the public demand. The people still like the black cats and witches, and the orange ows.

The Hallow'een custom originated 2,200 years ago in a small English village. It soon spread to all parts of Europe and Asia. The first celebrations were put on by the churches. It was thought that on this night all the evil spirits walked and that if the people remained within a circle of fires for the night they would be safe for another year. It has gradually, through the years, come down to the present soaping of windows, hiding the neighbors front gate, and muzzing up someone else's back yard.

NO ADDITIONAL CHARGE WITH ASUI SEASON PASS

Graduate Manager and Executive Board Decide That Ducats to Annual Football Tilt Will Be Issued Free

Tickets to the W. S. C. game Saturday at Pullman may be secured by ASUI members this week on presentation of student body tickets, according to George "Cap" Horton, graduate manager.

A table will be set up in the administration building this week where students can secure admission to the football game Saturday. It will be necessary to show the regular ASUI ticket to secure a ticket to the Pullman game.

"It will also be necessary," said Mr. Horton, to present the ASUI ticket along with the regular ticket at the gate in Pullman. A special entrance will be marked off for students. No one will be admitted who does not have both tickets.

Student tickets will not be transferable and special means will be employed to insure their not being exchanged or scalped.

This is the first time that students have been able to use student body tickets for admission at a foreign game. The action was taken by the graduate manager and the executive board to insure a large Idaho crowd at the game.

POLITICS IS THEME OF BLUE BUCKET APPEARING FRIDAY

Spurs and Intercollegiate Knights Will Sponsor Magazine Sale

Politics is the theme for the first issue of the Blue Bucket, Idaho humor publication, which will be on sale next Friday noon. The Intercollegiate Knights and the Spurs will have charge of the sale of the magazines in the group houses and halls. The usual price of 10 cents will be charged. The political idea is carried out through the entire magazine, according to James Farris, editor. Many outstanding features of a political nature are contained in the publication.

Cover by Potter. The cover was drawn by James Potter, and is printed in five colors. It depicts an elephant and a donkey, symbols of the leading national political organizations.

The literary feature of the issue will be two articles by the campus leaders in national political thought. The stories extol the policies of their respective parties. Kenneth O'Leary represents the Republican side of the question, while Ralph Oimstead upholds the Democratic issues. The logic and personal references set forth in the articles are said to be highly entertaining.

Three sections written by former Idaho Blue Bucket and Argonaut columnists furnish humorous features. Dan McGrath, now at Washington, D. C., known in his newspaper column as "Two-Star Hennessy"; Ralph Hagen, New York, a former Blue Bucket editor and better known as "I-Tank Larry"; Jack Puhl, who last year inaugurated "On the Spot," are the contributors.

A clever short story by Keith Armstrong, "Order Order," is a take-off on campus politics. Another short story, "Farm Relief," is written by Smith Miller and illustrated by Howard Johns. Other short stories and plays are written by Mary Keating and Forrest Mellinger. They are of a political nature, and satirize campus characters and affairs. John Farquhar and other contributors furnish numerous squibs and jokes.

Many of the illustrations of the issue are done in linoleum blocks by Betty Goodwin, Geraldine McCarty and Jack Brett. Most of the art work definitely illustrates the various articles and stories.

VANDALS PREPARE NEW MUD TACTICS

With only days remaining until the Vandal-Cougar supremacy will be decided for another year, Coach Leo Calland has his boys hard at work polishing up on an effective offense. Yesterday afternoon, the squad was slushing around in the mud, working on fundamentals, and getting used to handling a wet ball.

If the weather next Saturday is anything like that over the last week-end, practice in the puddles will come in handy. Fans recall the mud that graced Rogers field last year, and are hoping for better luck on Saturday.

FOX MAKES FIRST BASKETBALL CALL FOR COMING YEAR

Non-Lettermen Will Give Ten Veterans Run for Their Positions

Ten lettermen will be in the varsity basketball line-up this winter, in addition to seven other experienced players. Fifteen players answered Coach Rich Fox's initial call Tuesday night, and started limbering up after a year's layoff. Cy Geraghty and Dan Aukett will not join the squad until after the Vandal football season.

Four of the lettermen are starting their third season on the Idaho squad. Affon Barrett, Ed Lacy, "Pete" Wicks, and Ed Hurley have won two letters. Howard Grenier, Horton Herman, and Cy Geraghty won their letters for the first time last year. Dan Aukett is a two-year veteran, with one stripe to his credit. To round out the two full minutes of lettermen, Troy Thompson, foot 3 inch center, and Wesley Shurtliff, have rejoined the squad after a two year's absence. Thompson and Shurtliff were regulars on the 1929-30 Vandal team.

Plenty of Height. There will be plenty of height on any combination Coach Fox may put on the court this year. Nearly all of the veterans stretch well up around the 6 foot mark. Idaho boasts one of the rangiest centers on the coast in the person of big 6 foot 5 Howard Grenier. Wicks and Geraghty are the only small men in the outfit, and both make up in speed and fight what they lack in size.

Non-lettermen talent will be giving the veterans a real run for their positions. Three stars from last year's frosh squad Vic Warner, Ray Hildebrand, and Junior Jones are out to re-earn Nelson and Carl Williams are two veteran reserves from previous squads, and Charles Justis, a member of the frosh team two year's ago, and a star in last year's intramural league, and "Bus" Larson, a transfer from Riel's college complete the squad.

Conditioning Works

The first two weeks will be devoted solely to conditioning work and sharpening of basketballing eyes. No regular drills or scrimmages will be on the program for some time.

Practice started two weeks earlier last year, when Coach Fox was in charge of the yearlings' football squad. The Oregon schools and W. S. C. have had squads out for several weeks. No definite pre-conference schedule has been lined out as yet. The first barnstorming games will come shortly before the Christmas holidays.

CIVIL ENGINEERS PUBLISH PAMPHLET

Associated Civil Engineers are publishing a pamphlet called "The Rock Crusher." The purpose of this paper is to arouse interest in the student chapter of Associated Civil Engineers.

There will not be any permanent staff. The president with the assistance of the executive committee will be called on for articles. The executive committee consists of Art Davidson, Howard Langley, Sidney Harris and Walter Gillespie.

Arrangements have been made for the showing of two movies, November 17 and the other December 15, for the benefit of the engineers. The pictures will show the details of one of the large water power projects recently constructed, and educational. An invitation is extended to all students as well as those studying engineering, to attend.

HOLLINGBERRY

BABE HOLLINGBERRY

COACH "BABE" HOLLINGBERRY'S record still stands with no defeats on his home field since he took over the Cougars in 1928. No team has ever come closer to breaking that record than the Idaho teams of 1927 and 1931. A fumbled punt gave W. S. C. an undeserved 7 to 7 tie in 1927, and the memory of last year's fight is too present in the minds of every fan to need further mention. The Vandals are out to give that record another severe test next Saturday.

Reporter Interviews Some Dumb Doras On Football Terms

And there was silly Sadie who was so dumb she thought that when a football team had an unbalanced line it meant that the linemen were all crazy.

A new angle on the popular game of football was discovered today when a number of Idaho women students were asked their interpretations of various football terms.

The prize answer was given by a girl who thought that the act of clipping was hitting an opponent on the head.

Among the other enlightening definitions were the following: A triple threat man is one who tries three times to score a touchdown on his opponents.

A 7-3-1 defense is a signal called by the defending quarterback. An off-tackle play is when a player tackles the wrong man.

A safety and a touchback are the same thing.

One particularly outstanding answer was that of the girl who thought that a lateral pass was one made to a man in the line.

Off side means that too many players of one team are on the field. The defensive team is the team which is losing the game. All of which is meaningless and proves nothing, except that when the more intelligent football crowds see games at Idaho the women students had better brush up on their rules. Otherwise some person might slip over a soccer game on one of these days, and they probably would not know the difference.

ELDRIDGE TO SPEAK

The Cosmopolitan club will hear Dean J. G. Eldridge at a meeting to be held next Saturday at the Presbyterian church at 7:30 p. m. An invitation is extended to all students who wish to attend.

DR. JAHN RETURNS FROM COAST TRIP

Dr. E. C. Jahn returned to the campus Monday after a trip to Seattle where he attended the fall meeting of the Pacific section of the Technical Association of the Pulp and Paper Industry. At the meeting Dr. Jahn presented a paper on the "Action of Ammonium Sulphite on Wood." This paper was written with W. S. Hephner as co-author. The greater part of the experimental work was carried out by Mr. Hephner as a problem for the master's degree which he received last June.

The paper presented in this paper represents one phase of a larger investigation being carried out with regard to new pulping processes by which it is hoped to bring about greater utilization of Idaho timber species.

The program of the Technical Association meeting contained several papers dealing with research and the technical problems of the pulp and paper industry. Dr. H. K. Benson, head of the department of chemistry at the University of Washington, discussed a proposed program of research on the "Utilization of Sulphite Waste Liquids." These waste liquors, which contain a large part of the wood substance which at present is thrown away.

The present economic crisis in relation to the pulp and paper industry also received serious discussion. R. B. Wolf, manager of the pulp division of the Weyerhaeuser Timber company, discussed the general economic outlook for the pulp industry. Discussion on depreciated foreign currencies and their effect on the pulp and paper industry was led by Ralph Shaffer, president of the Shaffer Box company.

The technical meeting in Seattle was well attended in spite of the difficult year for the industry. Technical men realize the value of the exchange of ideas and constructive work brought forth in these meetings. Entertainment and social features were not overlooked. Two banquets and a dinner dance with music and entertainment were a part of the program.

Idaho Students "Put Over" W. S. C. Card Stunts Saturday

When Washington State's card act between halves of the Montana game last Saturday did not quite click the yells thought that perhaps some of their students were color blind. They probably are still of the opinion; but a story leaked out here today that absolves the Pullman student body from blame. The Cougar yell leaders should be notified at once so that they will not labor under the misinterpretation any longer.

As the story goes, five Idaho students, namely Richard Stanton, Jack Mitchell, Harold Boyd, Fred Baldridge and Kermit Woodward gained admission to the game on W. S. C. student body tickets. They were ushered to the Cougar cheering section, where they nonchalantly took seats. All went well until the colored cards were handed out just before the end of the first half.

With nothing else to do but to hold the cards up like the rest of the students, the Idaho boys found themselves in a pretty mess. Try as they would they couldn't keep pace with those about them. The result was that the boys were usually holding up the wrong color.

JOURNALISTS PLAN WASHINGTON TOUR TO VISIT OFFICES

Elmer Beth and Nine Students Will Leave Thursday Morning

Elmer F. Beth, head of the journalism department, is making plans to leave here Thursday morning with nine students on a tour of several newspaper offices in Washington.

According to the arrangements being made the first stop will be made at Palouse where the students will be shown through the offices of the "Palouse Republic" which is published by A. K. Harrington. At Pullman the group will visit the Pullman Herald which is edited by Karl Allen. The tour will end at Colton where the Colton News-Letter, a hand set paper, edited by E. F. Gibbs, will be studied.

Mr. Beth had planned to make the trip through Idaho towns but was unable to make a well balanced itinerary which could be covered in one day.

Those who are planning to make the trip are Keith Armstrong, Mary Axtell, J. P. Brown, Tom Burman, John Cusano, Elsie Lafferty, Norma Longtree, Evelyn McMillan, and Mrs. Bernice Day Maloney.

PLAN JUNIOR MIXER DEFINITE DATE SET

"The Mixer This Year Will Be Entirely Different," Says Lev Craven

Plans have been under way for some time for the Junior mixer, which will be the first mixer of the school year. Leavitt Craven, general chairman, announces that a date has been definitely set for November 8th. The mixer is to be held in the Blue Bucket and the music will be furnished by the Blue Bucket band.

The committees in charge are: Leavitt Craven, general chairman; entertainment, Harold Boyd, chairman; Louise Lyle and Keating, publicity; Judy Hoover.

Craven reports that plans have progressed rapidly and that the mixer will have many unusual and novel features of entertainment. Bert Wood, junior class president, announces that a special meeting of the junior class will be held in the near future to discuss some new plans and ideas that have been worked out by the general committee.

Phi Alpha Delta National Officer Visits Local Chapter.

Members of Kent chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, national legal fraternity, gave a luncheon in honor of Mr. Alton T. Gilbert Wednesday noon at the Blue Bucket. Mr. Gilbert, a national officer of the fraternity, is an attorney in Chicago. Harold Coffin, justice of the local chapter, introduced the guest of honor as the principal speaker at the luncheon. Other officers of the Idaho Kent chapter, who were active at the meeting, were: Karl Jeppson, vice president; George Beardsmore, treasurer, and William Ennis, clerk. Student's Means of Transportation Depends on Mood

A hobby of riding a horse is a hang over to his college days for Bernard Peterson, freshman, who mounts his saddle to come to school from his home several miles out of the city. When his feet are "too tired," he rides to the campus and hitchhikes his horse, Trixie, to a telephone pole behind the Engineering building, being careful to select a grassy spot, where the horse can satisfy his appetite while Bernard attends classes.

When only two years old, Bernard's father put him on a horse either after the cows every evening. When he started to school, his family lived in Colfax, and every day until he was in the sixth grade he trotted to school on horseback. His folks then moved to Moscow, and this is the first year since that time he has used a horse to attend school.

Bernard entered the university this fall and is enrolled in the School of Education. He is a member of the military band and goes out for frosh football.

GENTLEMAN JIM

Frost-bitten greetings: Most every co-ed falls into one of two classifications, for they either simply beautiful or beautifully simple.

With the arrival of the colder days, the rushing season is over for the arboretum.

First frosh—Last summer, I worked hard.

A politician is the only fellow who can see both sides of the question, and "take" both sides.

Oh yes, and it won't be long until the 9-weeks grades are put out, along with ourself.

In some cases, it looks like the candidate who is "all wet" will win this year.

Which reminds us, that the man who said, "Bars do not a prison make" was correct. They usually make a speak-easy.

With the arrival of the house dance only two days away, many a dateless pledge comes to find that Culbertson is not the only one to use a forced system of bidding.

Along with the colonial silhouettes used as decorations at the Co-Ed prom, were some unplanned collegiate silhouettes in several of the windows.

Among other things that are just around the corner with prosperity is that "Idaho spirit."

There's a chance that the cheerings and rooting for the Idaho-W.S.C. game will improve 100 percent, since the students won't have anything to improve upon.

It looks like the "hello" tradition had said, "Goodby."

STUDENT IS CALLED BY MOTHER'S DEATH

Mother of Student Dies While Nursing at Edgecliff Sanitarium

Mrs. Josephine Neveux, 53, mother of Hollis Neveux, a sophomore at the university, died Saturday night at Edgecliff sanitarium, Washington, where she had charge of the children's tuberculosis cottage for eight years. Neveux was called to Sookane Wednesday afternoon.

Funeral services were held at St. Thomas Catholic church Coeur d'Alene Thursday morning.

She is survived by two sons, Hollis, and a son in Chicago; a sister in Seattle and five brothers.

Seventy-four Indiana university students carrying 10 hours or more of regular university work made all A grades last semester. Of these, 45 were undergraduates and 29 post graduates. Sophomores lead the undergraduate record with 14 students.

One of the perplexing problems in Big Ten football is that of early season defeats with the ensuing effect being all out of proportion to its importance. Many times its effect on team morale, school spirit and even gate receipts, if you wish to consider them, has been very much unwarranted.

RIFLEMAN GETS USEFUL AWARD

At Last a Trophy Has Been Found That Has a Use.

P. I. P. A.—U. of W.—The Gaboon trophy, awarded each year to the member of the men's rifle team pulling the biggest "boner" of the season, is beautiful, appropriate and useful.

The trophy is set on a hand-carved or sawed-wooden base, painted a brilliant shade of orange. The cup is nothing less than a spittoon—a black spittoon with the name of the winner painted on the side in white.

John Goosman is the present holder. He won the trophy last year in the course of the Hearst national match. In conducting the match, officials send marked targets to the competing teams. Each member of a team is allowed two shots at his target. John forgot himself that day. His trigger finger was a little too tense. He took three shots instead of two and was disqualified.

Social Activities Prepare Approach of Winter Season

With the play, two more pledge dances this week end, the Coed Prom and an informal reception at the Delta Gamma house, there was the usual amount of social activity on the campus.

The calendar is full until Armistice Day. There are still a few houses who have not yet been able to get a date for their pledge dance, but will be given one soon. The calendar committee has given the night of November 10 to the Spurs for their mixer, and will not allow any other dances to be scheduled on that night.

An informal reception was given by the local chapter of Delta Gamma in honor of their visiting province secretary. The Episcopal club held their monthly breakfast on Sunday morning. Since so many Idaho students went to Pullman to the football game, the Democratic main line dance, scheduled for Saturday, was indefinitely postponed.

The campus was host to a number of Sunday and week-end guests from neighboring towns. Plans are being made by many of the Idaho students to spend the greater part of next week end in Pullman, when they will go over there Saturday to see the W. S. C. Idaho game.

DELTA CHIS HONOR PLEDGES

Delta Chi members gave a dance in honor of their pledges Friday, October 28 in the chapter house. Effective lighting, scarecrows, owls and pumpkins transformed the third floor of the chapter house into a land of witchery. The attractive programs were red, suede, lettered in gold. Patrons and patronesses were: Mr. and Mrs. Pendleton Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Lily Spence, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steffens and Mrs. Theodore Hoffman.

CHI ALPHAS GIVE DANCE

Soft orange lights, huge black cats and stacks of corn stalks provided Hallow'een atmosphere for the novel dance Chi Alpha Pi gave in honor of their pledges last Friday night. The bright green programs with an effective gold figure on the cover carried out the spirit of the decorations. Mrs. Stella Keys, Dr. and Mrs. J. F. Messenger, Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Lemon and Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Russell were the patrons and patronesses. Pledges of the fraternity are:

John W. King, Ray H. Hill, Edward L. Bagley, Victor Baumgartner, Dean M. Sachs, Herman Daugh, William W. Ingie and Dean Davis. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Cruickshank, Paul Rice, Glenn Waisner, Grace Penton, Violet Songstad, Alice Erickson, Muriel Silver, Wilma Mitchell, Bernice Lennon, Maurina Aldecoa, Ruth Johnson, Alice O'Hara, Rhoda Swayne, Ruth Foster, Catherine Jones, Dorothy O'Hara, Gladys Rusko, Alice Ingie, and Alene Riley.

DELTA GAMMA GIVES RECEPTION

In honor of Mrs. Harry Draper, their province secretary, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Blanchard, members of Delta Gamma gave an informal reception in the chapter house Sunday afternoon. The tea table, laid on the sun porch, was decorated with pink rosebuds and candles, while the living room and recreation hall were attractively lighted by soft lights and decorated with huge sprays of autumn foliage.

Faculty Wives Preside. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. J. G. Eldridge, Mrs. C. J. Bronnan, Mrs. Frank Stanton and Mrs. H. S. Simpson. Mrs. E. C. Given, Mrs. Harry Draper, Miss Permal French, Mr. and Mrs. Howard David, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Butterfield, Miss Belle M. Sweet and Catherine O'Neal were in the receiving line.

SPURS PLAN ARMISTICE MIXER

The Idaho chapter of Spurs are planning their first mixer to be held the night before Armistice day, November 10. Plans have not been completed for the dance, but it is to be the only one on the campus that night, and will be held in the gym.

SECRETARY VISITS FOR SATURDAY, SUNDAY

Mrs. Harry Draper of Seattle, is province secretary of the Delta Gamma fraternity. She arrived Saturday noon to visit the local chapter and left yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Draper plans to visit the other chapters in the province before returning the last part of the month to her home in Seattle.

Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jacobs of Lewiston at dinner Sunday. Catherine McCall and Annie Walker were also guests.

COED PROM WORKS HARDSHIP ON MEN

"The Rock Crusher" Will Arouse More Interest in Student Chapter

In favor of the co-ed prom? Well, some of the men on the campus are in favor of it although many seem to think it works a hardship on the men to be deprived of even one date night. Wilson asked his opinion. Willis Smith said, "The girls need a chance like that once in awhile, but I really think the men get as big a relief from it as the girls do."

"It is a grand idea for the co-eds, but the men should at least have a fighting chance to get in on the fun too," declares Clayne Robison.

"Ran Wallis, what do you think about the Co-ed prom Saturday night?"

"Well, they are very lovely and entertaining. They give one a real chance to get acquainted with the girls—at least I thought so at the last one I went to."

Another steady speaks and none other than Bert Wood, the ? "Surely it is a break to have no date that night. Gives a guy a much needed rest," and after taking a long thoughtful puff at his cigarette he adds, "All the boys on the campus were studying that night." Be willing to bet on it, Bert?

"I don't think the men appreciate the idea of even one 'dateless' night," Baf Harris said that. Guess he must have dug up a rich uncle. "One of Idaho's ancient traditions (heard that phrase before?) but," says Jack Mitchell, "I think that it is losing its popularity." This opinion he forms after listening to a number of underclassmen. Judging from the way each house representation dissolved after their house had stunted wouldn't doubt but what you were right, Jack.

Tommy Chestnut was not bothered by one of "Idaho's ancient traditions," not a bit. Tommy didn't miss his weekly date. Many are the girls in Pullman who are eager to date our campus play boy.

Mel Stewart now speaks. "I am cautious about what I release to my public," this over the telephone—(wonder what he means by "my public?") Would you mind if I gave you a signed statement of my opinion? Not at all, Mel, but it's a little too wet to be running around after signed statements. Besides, it isn't exactly kind to doubt a lady's identity.

MUSIC STUDENTS HOLD INITIATION

Initiation will be held by Sigma Alpha Iota, national music honorary, Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Miss Isabel Clark's studio in Center cottage. Martha Jean Rehberg, pianist, and Kathryn Kennard, cellist, are to be initiated.

COED PROM USES PATRIOTIC MOTIF SATURDAY EVENING

Mrs. Keyes and Rhoda Swayne Win Prizes on Costumes

The Co-ed prom, which was sponsored by the home economics department, was given Saturday night in the women's gym. The colonial motif was used. On each wall two eighteen inch silhouettes of George and Martha Washington were draped with red, white, and blue crepe paper streamers. Baskets of fall foliage were placed in corners of the room. At one side of the room was a refreshment booth which was decorated with patriotic colors, and lighted by an old Paul Revere lamp. Popcorn balls and doughnuts were sold throughout the evening.

Lead March. Miss Katherine Jensen and Mrs. Abe Goff led the grand march, at which time the judges decided on the best costumes. Judges were Mrs. Lenore Scott, Mrs. Abe Goff, and Miss Katherine Jensen.

Prizes were awarded to Mrs. S. Keyes and Rhoda Swayne for the most outstanding costumes. They impersonated President Hoover, and Franklin D. Roosevelt. The house prize was given to Gamma Phi Beta sorority for the largest percentage of its members there.

Lloyd Whitlock's orchestra played. The members were all cleverly attired in women's apparel.

The committee chairmen were: general chairman, Evelyn Barnes;

WOMEN ENROLL IN LAW SCHOOL

Frances Wernette and Mary Smith Invade Legal Profession.

The two women, Frances Wernette, a second year student, from Coeur d'Alene and Mary Smith of Rexburg, who are enrolled in the Idaho law school this year stand out as sufficient proof that women are invading every occupation and profession formerly open only to men.

The interest in politics and legal matters has greatly increased during the last few years. Women lawyers, however, are unusual and this is the first time that two women have been enrolled for this course at the university. Miss Wernette was the first woman ever to enter the law school.

Proof of the success of women lawyers is shown by the fact that women are practicing law in various cities of the country and in several states they occupy a position on the supreme court bench.

"Nature in the Raw" is seldom MILD

No raw tobaccos in Luckies—that's why they're so mild

WE buy the finest, the very finest tobaccos in all the world—but that does not explain why folks everywhere regard Lucky Strike as the mildest cigarette. The fact is, we never overlook the truth that "Nature in the Raw is Seldom Mild"—so these fine tobaccos, after proper aging and mellowing, are then given the benefit of that Lucky Strike purifying process, described by the words—"It's toasted". That's why folks in every city, town and hamlet say that Luckies are such mild cigarettes.

DO YOU KNOW—That Skippy Stivers played most of the season of 1924 with two vertebrae out of place, virtually a broken neck? That Bill Schutte, Idaho center, made Mel Hein look like a sand-lotter the year Hein made just about everyone's All-American? That Ralph Hutchinson, Idaho trainer, was one of the first All-American quarterbacks and one time United States record holder on the track? That "Red" Jacoby, assistant coach never played high school football? That "Cap" Horton, graduate manager, played fullback on the Idaho varsity before he was out of high school? That Babe Hollingbery, W. S. C. coach, is the only conference mentor who is not a college man? That Nig Bortleske, Whitman coach, is said to be one of the greatest backs ever produced in the northwest? That Gale Mix, Pacific Coast Conference official and coach of the undefeated Moscow high school team, never played football?

Howard McInerney, who was hurt in that game, is out definitely for the year, but Dan Aukett and Bob Moser, both of whom have been on the casualty list, will be back in shape to play with Russ Hall and Cliff Herbig. Hall and Moser will probably start as the tackles in the W. S. C. game.

UCLA PROVIDED the weekly upset in coast fooball last week by stepping on Stanford 13 to 6. The Old Maestro picked Stanford to be on the end but that's what he gets for choosing the same team Jimmy Phelan does in a game that might be close. By virtue of Saturday's win the Uclans cling to their tie with U. S. C. for the conference leadership. Neither team has been defeated in three conference starts and both have three conference opponents to play.

Beta Theta Pi and Sigma Chi battled to a scoreless tie in a challenge football game on MacLean field Sunday morning. The field was muddy in parts which kept the plays down to straight football, and neither team was able to penetrate the other's line for the necessary gains.

The score gives a fair indication of the relative strength of the two elevens.

HELL DIVERS CLUB TO HOLD TRYOUTS

Tryouts for those interested in Hell Divers will be held Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the university pool.

Those interested in the swimming club are asked to see Clayne Robison at the Phi Gamma Delta house in order that he may make arrangements to give them the senior life saving examination. A limited number of vacancies are open to new swimmers and everyone interested is urged to make the necessary arrangements for a try-out.

What is Cross Blending?

an Artist might explain it this way...

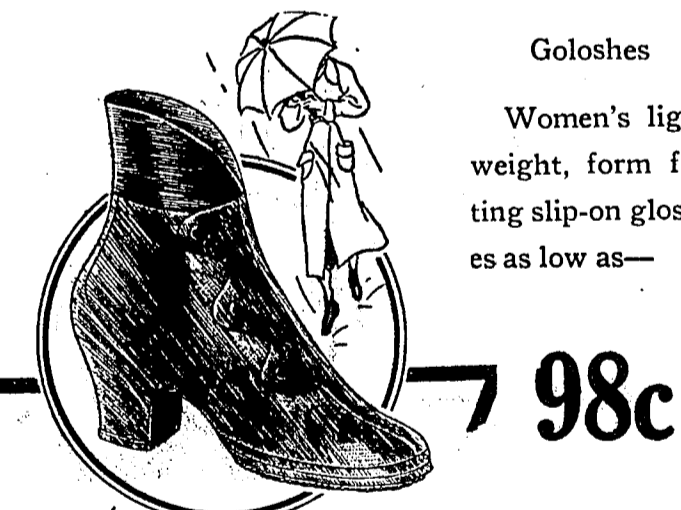

"Let's say you're painting clouds. You've got your primary colors here on the palette. But you haven't the clouds until you blend certain colors into the special tone you want. "This is very much what happens in making a good cigarette. And I gather that what Chesterfield means by Cross-Blending is what an artist does with colors. Their Domestic and Turkish tobaccos—many varieties of each—are the primary colors. They blend and cross-blend these tobaccos until they get the special tone they want—in other words, the Chesterfield flavor. "And just as each color you use acts on the others to change and enrich them, so each Chesterfield tobacco partakes of the fine qualities of every other. "You 'meld' different kinds to get a better kind. That's Cross-Blending!"
