

VANDAL GRIDDERS PREPARED FOR REVENGE AGAINST W. S. C.

Dope Favors Cougars, But Upset Is Likely After Last Year's 9-8 Clash; Coaches Announce Probable Starting Line

The entire Idaho campus is preparing for a general exodus to Pullman tomorrow to see their Vandal eleven clash with Washington State's Cougar gridgers. Speaking of our neighbors across the line as ancient rivals is about as old as the football history between the schools, yet it is just that element of ancient rivalry that makes advance predictions on such a game about as unreliable as November weather.

Despite the fact that the Cougars will be heavy favorites, there is a feeling on the Idaho campus that the game will be a close one. The team and the students have not forgotten that great scrap the Vandals put up against W. S. C. last year when the pre-game dope was almost as overwhelmingly in favor of the Cougars as it is this year. Idaho led 8 to 6 until the final minute of play, after outplaying and outfighting the Cougars for the entire game, when a placekick from the toe of Johnny Eubank gave the Cougars a 9 to 8 victory. One touchdown, resulting from a 65-yard run by Willis Smith, was called back by officials who ruled he had stepped out of bounds.

Smith on Duty.
The "Little Giant" will be back in the Idaho lineup Saturday after a brief lay-off due to a bruised heel sustained in the Montana game three weeks ago. He will share the quarterbacking duties with George Wilson and Cy Geraghty, both almost as fast, elusive, and dangerous as Smith. Wilson scored the Idaho touchdown last year by starting around end on the 45-yard stripe, reversing his field and eluding half a dozen Cougar tacklers.

Lee Tyrrell will start at fullback, and Mel Sackett at inside half. Both men are seniors, playing their last game before home fans. John Norby will probably start at the other halfback post.

Coach Leo Calland declined to name his starting eleven, but indicated that it will be the men with blood in their eyes Saturday morning who will get the call. A probable lineup will include Laverne Randall and Orville Schmitz, ends; Russ Hall and Bob Moser, both sophomores, at tackles; Dick Nutting, another sophomore, and Mox Eiden, guards; and Bill Schutte, center.

Bergs May Play.
Calland will have on hand the Berg brothers, (Ap) and Paul, who have been giving the regulars a fight for their positions. (Ap) is a 195-pound running guard, while Paul, at outside half, weighs 188.

All of the past week has been spent on a review of fundamentals with emphasis on tackling, blocking and charging. Tuesday night the Vandal coaching staff started building a defense against Cougar plays. Every member of the Idaho squad saw the W. S. C. team in action last week against Montana, so they should know just about what to expect when they line up against the Cougars Saturday.

Wednesday night found the squad engaged in a kicking scrimmage with the frosh. Last night, Calland led his charges indoors onto the gymnasium floor, away from the cold, where the players were schooled in defense work by means of chalk and dummy scrimmage.

Hope for Dry Field.
Idaho supporters are hoping for a dry field for Saturday, which would give the Vandals' pony backs more chances to get into the clear, while a wet field would put the advantage with W. S. C. and the Cougars' power attack. Special mud cleats have been ordered for the game in case the field is soggy.

Coach Calland declines to comment on the game other than to say that if the Idaho team plays its best football W. S. C. will have one of its toughest battles of the season. After seeing the W. S. C.-Montana game last Saturday, members of the Idaho squad promise to give the Cougars a tough afternoon.

Cougar Coach Busy.
On the other side of the line, Coach O. E. (Babe) Hollingberry is working his boys hard for what will be the State college's homecoming game. Hollingberry is just as anxious to preserve his record of no defeats on his home gridiron since he took over the job in 1925 as Leo Calland is to break that record. It will be the fourth time that these two California-raised coaches will bring their charges together. It is no secret that Calland and his entire following have been pointing for this game. No matter what team is slated for the local homecoming, the "big game" that Idaho looks forward to. Last year's 9 to 8 disappointment didn't help the feeling any, and Coach Hollingberry realizes this. "We expect a battle—and we intend to give one," he says.

LIST OF OFFICIALS NAMED FOR GAME

Take a look at the list of officials for tomorrow's game and smile; neither Jesse James nor any of the accomplices are present. George Varnell, sport editor of the Seattle Times, will referee. Varnell is a veteran official of the Northwest, managing games as early as 1906. Capt. K. K. Jones, Fort Lewis will umpire. Jones had the same job in the Oregon game two weeks ago. The head linesman will be Ralph Coleman, of the O. S. C. physical education department. "Shy" Huntington, a University of Oregon graduate will be field judge.

W. S. C. Starters.
The Cougar mentor has been shifting his boys around quite a bit lately, but named the following as probable starters: Gene Stagnara and Charles Klawitter, end; Walter Camp and George Theodoratus, if the field is dry, or Angelo Busato, tackles; Henry Hayduk and Clem Senn, guards; and Ingram, center. In the backfield, Bendele will get the call at fullback, unless the field is wet, in which case, the big Greek Theodoratus will play a full. Sarboe will start at quarter, and Colburn and Sander at the halfback posts.

PEP BAND MAKES TRIP TO SPOKANE

Broadcast Over KHQ Last Night; Special Numbers Are Arranged

The Pep band made a trip to Spokane yesterday to arouse interest in the Idaho-W. S. C. football game on Saturday. The band left in the afternoon and played at the large hotels during the dinner hour. They went on the air over KHQ at 10:45 p. m. for a half hour program.

Aside from the band entertainment the band sang songs and gave Idaho yells. A violin trio played some numbers. The trio was composed of Bill Ames, Dick Edwards and Ingrid Neilson. A vocal trio composed of Charles McConnell, Ingrid Neilson, and Wendell Olsen sang a few Idaho songs.

The members of the Pep band are:

Bill Ames, leader; trumpets, Elburn Pierce, Charles McConnell, John Cusano and Frank McAtee; clarinets, Clayton Boyd, Glen Eckard, Lyle Fraley, William Hudson, Ingrid Neilson, and Don Wolfe; trombones, Peter Pence, Samuel Stone, Richard Stanton; baritone, Dick Edwards; sousaphone, Marvin O'Leary; bass drum, Kenneth Kenworthy; snare drum, Paris Kall.

CHURCH MEMBERS INVITED TO DINNER

Lutheran Students to Give Supper Friday Evening

All Lutheran church student members on the campus are invited to a covered-dish supper at 6:30 o'clock, Friday evening, at Our Savior's Lutheran church. The local Lutheran students will furnish the supper. The meeting will terminate at 8 p. m.

SLEEPY FRESHMEN ALLOW CAMPUS TO BE PAINTED

Idaho freshmen went to sleep Wednesday and continued to doze through Thursday until a warning from the (I) club sent them scurrying to erase the red (W) that had been smeared about the campus 24 hours before.

Late Thursday night Lewis Ensign was appointed chairman and succeeded in routing a few of the more loyal freshmen from their daze. A guard was set over the campus to prevent further painting.

PRINCIPAL IN TOMORROW'S GAME

APPOINTMENTS FOR NEW GEM PICTURES AVAILABLE MONDAY

Arrange for Sittings by the Various Houses; Alpha Chi and A. T. O. First

Beginning Monday, November 7, students may make appointments to have their Gem of the Mountains pictures taken. This year a new plan of scheduling sittings has been adopted. Each house and hall will have a week set for the photographing of its members. Also, only one sitting will be required of seniors this year in place of the two that were necessary last year—one formal and one informal.

Saving For Seniors.
"One informal picture will be sufficient for the 1933 Gem. This is in keeping with the economy program which has been outlined for the 1933 book," said Clayne Robison, associate editor. These changes have been made in order to save time and expense for both students and the Gem staff. For each house and hall, it will be the duty of the representative to make the necessary arrangements for sittings, and to see that all are taken care of in the period allotted by the staff. Robison also again reminded the students that those wanting their picture to appear both in the class and group house sections to make provision for this detail at the time the pictures are taken.

Groups for Coming Week.
Alpha Chi Omega and Alpha Tau Omega are the first on the list. Ruth Kehrer is the staff representative in the Alpha Chi house, and Hollis Neveux at the A. T. O. house. These groups must have their sittings completed by next Saturday, November 12. The following week Alpha Phi and Beta Theta Pi are scheduled for appointments. Further schedule notices will be given to the representatives. Strict adherence to this schedule is necessary in order to make it possible for the book to be completed in time to take advantage of discounts on the engraving contract.

Miller is anxious to have the studio appointments handled in a more satisfactory manner this year and says that "members of the campus groups can be of great assistance in making the production of the book run more smoothly. Substantial savings on the engraving cost also can be made by getting the copy ready for the engraver in time to take advantage of special time discounts."

AWAKENS CHICKENS
N. S. F. A.—Martha Smith, 19-year-old sophomore in Taylor university, Upland, Indiana, brought 150 chickens with her when she arrived this fall and is making them work overtime to pay her expenses. In order to speed up production, Miss Smith wired electric lights in the hen house to an alarm clock. The clock is set for two hours before daylight, forcing the chickens to start to work early. So far, she says, the system is a success.

GOVERNOR GUEST AT HOMECOMING

State Executive and Board of Regents to Visit W. S. C.

Washington State College.—Governor Roland H. Hartley and the board of regents of the state college have been invited to be honor guests for the 1932 homecoming to Washington State college November 5.

Group houses and dormitories are planning clever signs to greet the home-coming alums. The alumni dinner has been scheduled for Saturday evening. A tentative list of speakers includes Benton Bangs of Wenatchee, Dr. E. O. Holland, state college president, Dr. E. A. Bryan, president emeritus, and O. E. Hollingberry, head football coach. A campus orchestra will have a full hour of music during the dinner hour along with the other entertainment.

More than 1000 alums are expected to attend the festivities which begin Friday evening and last until late Saturday night.

COUGAR THREAT

There are about 30 Vandals on Leo Calland's squad who are itching for a chance to put a crimp in this W. S. C. star's hopes for all-American honors. Cougar supporter's claim among the repertoire of Sander the art of punting, passing, running, blocking, and try-for-point kicking. A pretty big order to fill, George, and the Vandals will be "laying" for you.

CLEAN UP POLITICS

Formation of a non-partisan organization to select best-qualified candidates for student offices this week was being completed at Northwest university. The organization, to be known as the "University movement" will present and support candidates at elections "entirely on the basis of their qualifications," leaders of the movement announced. No consideration will be given to fraternal or factional alliances, they stated.

LAST YEAR'S GAME TOUGHEST IN 39 YEARS OF FIGHTING

Old Fights and Disputes Characterizing Early Games of "Gay Nineties" Still Remain; Score is Proof

It has been 39 years since Idaho played her first game with the Cow College across the line, but the old fight and disputes that characterized those early games in the "Gay Nineties" still remain. Many followers were convinced that last year's 9 to 8 row was the most bitterly fought of any game ever played between the schools, but a glance into the history of those early encounters reveals where that old slogan, "Idaho Fights," originated.

The first official game with W. S. C., as it was called then, was in 1894, but to make grid history complete, one must go back to the year before. It was suggested that some sort of athletic relations between the infant schools would be fitting. The flattest hill in Pullman was selected for the game, but when the two teams lined up for the kick-off, it was discovered that the Pullmanites had learned the English rugby style, while the Idaho players had learned the American style.

Impromptu School Called.
Rather than cancel the contest, an impromptu school was called, and the Idaho players undertook to teach their opponents the modern game. Play was resumed, but before the game was half over, disputes arose, and the row that followed halted the contest. Each side claimed the victory.

Contradictory reports exist concerning the outcomes of games for the next few years. According to "Gub" Mix, generally accepted as the official historian for Idaho's football job, asserts that the 1894 game, generally credited to W. S. C., was won by Idaho by a score of 10 to 0. In the '95 season, however, Idaho remained "the undisputed champions of the field," according to the 1904 "Gem of the Mountains," for no other teams organized within a radius of 400 miles.

Dispute Score.
Some reports concede the second game in 1896 to W. S. C. by a score of 10 to 0, others 10 to 4, and still another, 10 to 6 in favor of the Pullmanites. No agreement could be reached for a game in 1897, but in 1898 when many of Idaho's huskies were away killing Spaniards, a challenge was sent and accepted. When the Pullman bunch saw the Idaho team, however, they refused to play. The 1899 game resulted in a 11 to 0 victory for the Washington Aggies.

From 1909 to 1914, the schools took turns winning, each being victorious three times. Idaho failed to score in the next three games. The S. A. T. C. training camp teams tangled in 1918, and that was Idaho's last victory until 1923, when the Vandals won 14 to 0.

Idaho won the next year, too, by a score of 19 to 3, when Little Harry Reget ran wild in the last 10 minutes of the game to score three touchdowns. Idaho won again the next year, when "Nellie" Nelson scooped up a fumbled ball and scampered 65 yards for a score, and the same Harry Reget converted the try for point, which made the Idaho score just one more than (Butch) Meeker's two dropkicks had given W. S. C.

That was Idaho's last victory, although the teams battled to a 7 to 7 deadlock in 1927. Although the 1908 and 1927 games resulted in ties, no game has ever been played between the two without a score.

EIGHT MEN MAKE LAST W. S. C. HUNT

Idaho Veterans Have Last Chance at Cougars Tomorrow Afternoon

When the Vandals go after Cougar pelts tomorrow afternoon, it will be the last hunting expedition of the kind for eight Idaho veterans, and their last performance on a gridiron before home fans. The game will mark their third attempt at breaking the Cougars' record. Claw marks from past defeats have healed, but are not forgotten, and these eight will join with others on Coach Leo Calland's crew for another assault on the W. S. C. eleven.

Three of the eight play in the backfield, George Wilson, quarterback and Lee Tyrrell, fullback, former Moscow High school gridgers, and Mel Sackett, halfback of Twin Falls, will play their last game against Washington State. June Hanford of Los Angeles, plays end or halfback and will be missed in either place. W. S. C. men remember Hanford as one of the three conference players to cross their Pacific Coast championship goal-line in 1930.

In the line there is Bill Schutte from San Diego, whom the all-American Mel Hein rated as the toughest man he played against during his big year at Washington State. Max Eiden, Boise, Paul Taylor, Twin Falls, and Russ Hall, Piler, are the other first string linemen who show their stuff before Idaho students for the last time.

ANNUAL BANQUET HELD BY FACULTY

Highlights of Program Was Burlesque of Sextette from Lucia

The Women's Faculty club held their annual fall banquet at the Blue Bucket, November 1 at 6:30 p. m. Mrs. Jesse Buchanan had charge of the program given by faculty members and their families. The highlight of the evening's entertainment was a burlesque of the "Sextette from Lucia," the chorus sang the "Bull Song" from Carmen as an en core. Jesse Buchanan, Mrs. Melian, Captain Hinkle, Dr. Einhouse, Miss Jensen, Mrs. Herrick, Mr. Melian and Mrs. Hinkle were the principals. Faculty Children Perform. Some of the faculty children: Muriel Axtell, Jane Howard, Roger Hungerford, David Johnson and Thomas Cady gave a short negro skit. Miss Jessie Hutchinson gave an Arabian dance. The discovery of America was satirized by Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Cummings and Mrs. Buchanan. Mr. Cummings directed the whole group while they sang college songs. Modernistic witches were strung about the room in unusual fashion. Apples were used as holders for the black candles on the table.

DEBATE PROGRAM FOR YEAR PLANNED

Women's Team to Participate Against Whitman and W. S. C.

An extensive program has been planned in women's debate for this year. A triangular tournament debate is scheduled at Pullman, with Whitman and Washington State on December 3. The question is "Resolved: That the University of Chicago plan of education is superior to the present American system." There will be twelve debates, starting at nine in the morning and continuing through until 10 at night. Each school will be represented by two teams, and both will debate the affirmative and negative twice. There are six on the university squad. Plans are being made to send a women's team to Oregon and Washington sometime in February to debate those schools. This team will also participate in a debate tournament at Linfield college in Oregon. Outstanding women in debate this year are: Jewell Leighton, Mary Axtell, Mildred Peterson, Ethelwyn O'Neal, Virginia Merrick and Helen Latimore. These make up the squad for the first debate. The first women's practice debate will be next Monday at 4 o'clock in Ad 206. Miss Leighton and Miss Peterson will take the affirmative against Miss Axtell and Miss O'Neil.

Ridenbaugh hall had Delta Delta guests Wednesday evening. Geraldine McCarty, Marjorie Redfield, Lillian Sorenson, Ruth Evans, Eva Oberg, Lodia McGrath, Gladys Wilson, Beulah Barker, Evelyn McMillan, Esther Hunt, Nettie Snow and Ruth Cook were invited to dinner and for dancing afterwards in the large Ridenbaugh reception room.

GENTLEMAN JIM

Greetings and catcalls: On Saturday, the Vandals will demonstrate the difference between a catcall and a "called" cat.

"I" Tank that someone should remind W. S. C. that we've run into the "red" enough already without having to daub some of their noses on our campus. In fact, those "W's" made a lot of boys see "red."

What someone should do is to catch the offenders and give them a black "I". The fruits of prosperity seem to have gone sour, along with the ideas in Hollingberry's head. 52 points. Tsk, tsk.

We're willing to bet that the "Babe's" Caow Collich Athletes will take the "count," tho they may refuse to count the score.

If these "W" painters must express themselves, we wish that they would express themselves via the first boat to Singapore.

As usual, a large part of student body will be back of the team Saturday—ten miles back to be exact. Angus says that he is going to send his "braw laddle" to Idaho because the students never give a yell. Maybe so, but he should also remember that "we don't give a damn for the whole state of Washington."

Here's hoping that W. S. C. gets all of the "brakes" for once. It's o. k. to call a spade a spade, and there is a useful way in which to apply that spade to none other than a Cougar or three.

W. S. C. has a tradition of never having lost a game on their home field under ye "Babe." Well, Babe, and Elly Bluek Blalley" too, take a look at what has happened to our green cap, cords, helo, and other traditions. Did we break them, or did we break them. The answer will be given on Staurday.

GENTLEMAN JIM.

AT THE KENWORTHY—MADISON SQUARE GARDEN FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Thousands of events have been crowded into the first Madison Square Garden, constructed in 1892, and the new, more magnificent structure opened in 1925. World championships in every field of sport have been won and lost here, but it is not only through sports that the Garden has won its name. It has been the scene of political, social, musical, and civic functions from the time of its refection. Like "Grand Hotel" and other pictures of a one-location type, "Madison Square Garden" deals with a group of persons from entirely different backgrounds who glide briefly into the action, and then out again, their lives changed by the events in which they have participated. Jack Oakie, Thomas Meighan, Marian Nixon, William Boyd and Zasu Pitts head the cast which enacts the story.

Ode to Omar:
I know a fellow I'd like to choose
And I don't mean in a nice kind way
I'd fill him up on a lot of booze
And in the gutter I'd let him lay

But it won't.

Obituary:

Omar died in October, 1932. He spilled too much dirt which he got from being on the up and up. We ask you—did Omar really know his stuff like the fellows in "Blessed Event" and "O. K. America"? Too bad he had to be killed because he was a darn good columnist it was a darn good column. And then again, it wasn't so good! Everybody liked Omar even though he was a villain and people were frightened of him. May he rest on his laurels!

Having taken a brief rest, giving Omar the Lighthouse, Ko-ed now gets the breaks—or brakes.

More people at the assembly Wednesday night than there would have been if Cleopatra had been in town. What clapping of hands and cheering. Maybe if they'd get some of the same spirit Saturday, Pullman would at least get a big surprise.

NURSE REPORTS FEW ILLNESSES

Miss Edna Peterson, infirmiry nurse, states that there have been few cases of illness this year and the students seem to be exceptionally healthy. There has been a large amount of clinic work averaging 23 students a day, while the bed patients average only four a day.

Miss Peterson reports that mumps, the first contagious disease on the campus, was contracted by Wylie Goodsell. He has been quarantined at the infirmiry since Monday. Robert Setters, Herman Brass and Hodge Afshar have been here for minor ailments and Abe Pence, because of a laceration of his hand.

Syracuse university's college of home economics has adopted a plan allowing students unlimited cuts in its courses.

Campus Celebrates Holiday With Spur Mixer Thursday

With the football game scheduled at Pullman this week end will see most of the Idaho students on the Washington State college campus whose students are celebrating their Homecoming. The usual festivities of that season will be in progress, with all the houses decorated, and dances and receptions being held for the returning students and grads.

In spite of the attractions on the Pullman campus, there is much entertainment scheduled here in Moscow. Four sororities and two fraternities are having their pledge dances this week end. Five more informal dances will be given next Friday and Saturday.

The Spur Mixer Thursday night has been planned as suitable for the holiday spirit the night before Armistice day, and promises to be the high light of the whole week as it is the only one planned for that date.

The Cougar Spurs have invited the Vandal Spurs to attend a luncheon in Pullman Saturday noon. The local chapter will assist the Washington State Spurs at the game.

CLEVER MOTIF FOR DELTA DANCE

Delta Tau Delta pledges will be honored guests at an informal dance Saturday night at the chapter house. A large Delta pledge pin, set up in the living room, will be emphasized by effective modernistic lighting, while a large figurative illustration depicting the life of a freshman will complete the decorative scheme.

The Delta pledges are: Frank Bevington, Charles Baker, George Brunzell, Marice Malin, Louie August, Harley Smith, Norman Olson, John Theriault, Jim Hanna, Harold Hansen, Bernard Snow, and Allen Severn.

GIVE DANCE IN L. D. S. INSTITUTE

The Alpha Chi Omega pledge dance will be held Saturday evening in the ballroom of the L. D. S. institute. After 12 dances that are scheduled on the program, the guests will return to the chapter house for refreshments.

Jayne Jones, Betty Goodwin, Helen Blackaby, Frances Herbert, Helen Thornhill, Barbara Geddes, Marjorie L'Harrison, Madeline Williamson, Margeretta Rowe, Phyllis Temby, Geraldine Langer, Inez Equalls, Ora Latzen, Edna Greiser, Betty Jean Humphries, Mona O'Connor and Evelyn Jones are the pledges for whom the dance is being given.

GAMMA PHIS PLANNING DANCE

Effective black programs lettered in gold, and the chapter house decorated in bright autumn colors promise an attractive background for the Gamma Phi Beta Pledge dance tonight. Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Warren Truitt, Mrs. J. W. McKenna and Miss Katharine Jensen.

CLUB HOLDS CHURCH BREAKFAST

The student Episcopal club met at the Guild hall for breakfast after early communion Sunday morning. After breakfast the members sang songs, and the Rev. Hamilton West talked on "Growing Up in Religion." The long table was decorated with autumn foliage and a bouquet of bright yellow marigolds. Besides the members there were a number of invited guests.

Dr. and Mrs. G. M. Miller, Miss M. Belle Sweet, Prof. and Mrs. C. W. Hungerford, Professor and Mrs. C. W. Hickman, and Prof. Frederick C. Church were dinner guests of Hays hall Wednesday.

Mrs. C. J. O'Neill, Coeur d'Alene and Mrs. Margaret Colby and daughter Patsy of Sunnyside, Wash. were dinner guests of Delta Gamma Wednesday.

Members of Alpha Phi will give a dance in honor of their pledges Saturday. Patrons and patronesses will be Dr. and Mrs. F. B. Laney, Dean and Mrs. W. E. Masterson, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Calland.

Kappa Alpha Theta will honor its pledges with an informal dance to be given at the chapter house Saturday night. Dean and Mrs. E. J. Iddings, Prof. and Mrs. Wayne Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sower, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chamberlain are the patrons and patronesses.

Gamma Phi Beta entertained members of the faculty at dinner Thursday. The guests were Dean and Mrs. Ivan C. Crawford, Dean and Mrs. J. A. Kostalek, Dean and Mrs. J. F. Messenger, and Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Brosnan.

Kappa Alpha Theta announces the initiation of June Elmers of Grandeville, and Gertrude Evans, Salem, Oregon.

SEND DELEGATE TO CONVENTION

Mae Belle Donaldson Will Represent S. A. I. at Des Moines.

Mae Belle Donaldson, Sigma Alpha Iota delegate to the province convention, leaves this afternoon at 3:30 for Des Moines, Iowa, where the musical convention of the honorary is to be held November 11 and 12.

The convention is to be in the form of a contest. Miss Donaldson, pianist, who has been chosen by the honorary to act as both business delegate and performing delegate, will play at this contest. The winner at the convention is then named delegate to the national convention which will be held in Denver, Colorado, some time during the year of 1934.

During their stay in Des Moines, Miss Donaldson and the delegates from other states will be entertained at the Iowa State college chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota. Also the delegates will make a visit to the musical observatory in Des Moines. Paul Stove, well-known musician, will be one of the guest artists of the convention.

Self-Supporting Students Are Helped or Handicapped

Are women benefitted or handicapped by the necessity of earning their way through school?

Problems in college are ever arising, but this old one will never be solved. However, several people of our college, who are so placed that they may observe advantageously, have commented upon the question.

Here you have a psychologist's view upon the subject. A handicap to a real student is the above problem, but a benefit to one who might waste time. The ideal student is one who is wholly engaged at his studying with an occasional recreation, yet much is dependent upon the student. One who might get into difficulties does need work; others should not be handicapped by the necessity of working their way.

An employer of many women students says that she finds most of the women are quite in earnest and pay more attention to their work and studies than many who do not find it necessary to work. Their time is divided and in most cases calls for harder work while working. They seem to realize the value of things and have less to do with those which are not of much value.

That women who have worked in college seem to build up their careers more rapidly after leaving, is the employers' assertion. This is because they find it easier to adjust themselves and come to the realization that certain objects and standards must be kept or else they can't hold their job.

The dean of women has concluded that providing there is no slight impairment of health, she approves of women working their way through college. The number of years for graduation should be extended one year or at least one semester. She feels that such a combination is ideal for students and in the end they have a tremendous advantage over students who have no concern over finances and who have missed practical experience.

These are just a few theories of men and women of our association about the question and they shall remain just theories until students' characters and personalities cease to change.

SPURS TO SPONSOR ARMISTICE MIXER IN MEMORIAL GYM

Betty Lucas, Esther Hunt, and Nina Varian Are Committee Heads

The Idaho Spurs will give an Armistice day mixer in the Memorial gymnasium Thursday at 8:30. According to Betty Lucas, general chairman of the dance, all plans will soon be completed.

The mixer will be the only dance that will take place on the campus that night. The admission will be 40 cents for men; women will be admitted free. Whitlock's 8-piece orchestra will furnish the music, and some special surprise features have been planned.

Committees for the dance are as follows: Betty Lucas, general chairman; Esther Hunt, floor arrangement; Nina Varian, publicity.

Will Sell Pennants.

Because the pennant sale proved to be so successful here on the campus, the Spurs are planning on selling pennants at the Thanksgiving game in Boise. A special meeting was called this afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at the Kappa house to discuss plans for sending Spurs to Boise to sell the pennants. Plans for the mixer were also discussed.

The Idaho Spurs will be the guests of the Washington State Spurs at a luncheon to be given in Pullman Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. This luncheon is an annual affair given by the chapter of the school at which the Idaho-W. S. C. game is played. Last year the W. S. C. chapter entertained, and as the game is to be in Pullman again, the Spurs there will give the luncheon this year.

GIRLS PLEDGED TO THETA SIGMA

Fern Paulsen, Lucille Moore, Frances Hanley Are Honored

Theta Sigma, women's honorary announces the pledging of Fern Paulsen, Lucille Moore, and Frances Hanley. All three of the pledges are underclassmen, and are either majoring or minoring in journalism. They were pledged at a luncheon held by Theta Sigma Tuesday, at the Blue Bucket. They will be initiated soon.

The guests at the luncheon were Elizabeth Taylor Dick, Elsie Warm Pittman, and Edith Abbot Coleman. Mrs. Coleman is former national secretary of Theta Sigma Phi, and was active in the Spokane chapter.

Eight members of Theta Sigma volunteered to help Mr. Louis Boas editor of the Daily Star Mirror on election night. A breakfast to be given by Theta Sigma for the girls working on the Argonaut was planned. This breakfast will be given in the near future.

Members of Theta Sigma that were present were: Norma Longteig, Eileen Hale, Mary Astell, Elsie Lafferty, and Evelyn McMillan.

HOME ECONOMICS AGENT WILL SPEAK TO CLUB TONIGHT

Miss Jane S. Hinkley Is One of Five Federal Smith-Hughes Inspectors

Miss Jane S. Hinkley, federal agent of home economics from Washington, D. C. will be guest of the Home Economics club tonight at 4 o'clock at the Women's gymnasium. She will speak on vocational home economics.

Miss Hinkley is one of five federal Smith-Hughes inspectors. Her territory is in the western states, and she inspects the schools in her district each year. The Smith-Hughes bill comes under the agriculture department of the government and provides a fund to further instruction of home economics and agriculture in high schools and universities of the state.

Visits Schools.

During the past week Miss Hinkley has had headquarters in Moscow and has been visiting Smith-Hughes schools of home economics in adjoining towns. She investigates the problems of the department and supervises teaching and curriculum content.

Last Tuesday Miss Hinkley gave a talk before the Moscow high school girls. The subject of her talk was: "Girls, their problems, and their object in life." After the assembly, a tea was given in LADIES AND GENTLEMEN; introducing in this corner, Orin E. "Babe" Hollingsbery, the Pullman terror, at 175 pounds. In this corner, Leo E. Calland, the Moscow flash, at 215 pounds. This will be a rematch grudge battle of four 15 minute rounds for the heavyweight championship of the Palouse hills. In three previous meetings the little boy from Pullman has outpointed Calland but in their last bout the field judge's decision was so unpopular with the crowd that we have given the Moscow boy another chance at the title. Ready time-keepers? Let'er go, boys.

IN HIS SEVENTH season as head coach at Washington State college, "Babe" Hollingsbery is piloting the Cougars through the most successful football era the Pullman team has known since intercollegiate competition began there in 1893. His record as a winning coach has been impressive during all seven seasons.

A product of the best region California, Hollingsbery learned all his football while in high school and later as a member of the famous Olympic club team of San Francisco. He did not attend college.

No team of the Babe's has ever been defeated on Roger's field, the home camp of the Cougars. Idaho had some of the boys worried over the possibility of that great record last fall but a place kick just before the final gun saved the day for W. S. C. While his record on foreign grids has not been quite so impressive, the Cougars are respected and feared the length of the coast. He brought W. S. C. one Pacific coast conference in 1930, the year the Cougars won that memorable 7 to 6 triumph from Howard Jones' Southern California eleven on Roger's field. Hollingsbery luck? He wins pretty consistently for that.

LEO CALLAND, the head man in Vandaville, is also a product of California. Coming up from U. S. C. in 1929 where at one time or another a varsity assistant or freshman coach in nearly every branch of sport and head coach in basketball, he went to work and in spite of a shortage of material, started turning out football teams that have been a credit to Idaho. He had his greatest team last season when the Vandals defeated one traditional rival in Gonzaga, the favored team before the game, and came within inches of upsetting his foe from over the line. Last year's struggle with the Cougars was probably the classic of all W. S. C.-Idaho meetings on the gridiron. One Idaho touchdown that was called back and a place kick that wiped out Idaho's 8 to 6 lead just before the end of the game tells the story of the contest.

Idaho fans probably never hated to lose a football game more than that W. S. C. game last year and there are a great many who will swear to their dying day that the Vandals didn't lose it but it goes down in history as a W. S. C. victory so it is up to the team to show them that what happened a year ago was not a fluke.

George Theodoratus, the sophomore who takes away the avodupois honors for both squads, is slated to start at fullback and, if the field is wet, as is probably will be, his 240 pounds will be mighty hard to stop when he comes through the line. Theodoratus is well built for all his 240 pounds and he can handle himself in the backfield or line. It looks like John Norby has a tough assignment for tomorrow.

Eight Idaho seniors will be playing their last game against W. S. C. tomorrow and they have never played on a team that has beaten the Cougars. The boys who'll be out there tomorrow fighting their heads out to make it "just once" will be Lee Tyrrell, Mel Sackett, George Wilson, and Jme Hanford, in the backfield, and Paul Taylor, Russ Hall, Max Eiden and Bill Schutte in the line.

Babe Hollingsbery tells me someone was kidding me about his predicting anything like a 50 point margin for his boys. I got the dops from what I considered a reliable source and printed it in good faith. Sorry, Babe.

Guesses—The quarter came down heads. I'll take Idaho. Stanford, smarting from two straight defeats at the hands of U. S. C. and U. C. L. A., should beat Washington; U. S. C. should win from California in a close game; Oregon will take Oregon State on a dry field—otherwise call it a toss up.

Do You Know—Auburn has a 303 pound griddler? George Wilson, Idaho quarterback, made the longest run from scrimmage (105 yards against Whitman) on any American gridiron in 1930? Lightning struck among the members of the Woodmere Academy team during practice killing one and injuring 18? Loyola footballers wear red satin grid pants? St. Mary's refused to be outdone and appeared in red-white and blue? There is a clause in the contract for the Notre Dame-Kansas U game this season prohibiting either team from using the forward pass? That sons of Erin are as scarce on Notre Dame's "Fighting Irish" as Swedes are at Minnesota? There are only three of that extraction on the "Terrible Swede's" eleven? That Earl Campbell, graduate manager of the University of Washington was quoted last week as saying that Phelan was O. K. and that he was to get a new contract? That recently he denied the contract part? That U. S. C. plays three conference teams using the Notre Dame shift—California, Washington, and Oregon—before they meet Notre Dame?

FORMER ATHLETES PROTEST OMISSION OF WIN IN 1918

The fact that Idaho hasn't defeated W. S. C. since 1923 still does not justify press reports from there omitting a Vandal victory of 7 to 8 in 1918, according to the old timers. A story appearing last week in the Spokane Chronicle listed the Idaho-W. S. C. games since the first contest. According to the tabulation, no game was played in 1918.

"That's a lot of nonsense said (Fat) Stephens. 'I've got pictures to prove that a game was played that year. Why Gus Irving is running around with a four-stripe sweater on that account. The game wasn't a varsity one, but everyone that played that year got 'Y' sweaters with a small U. S. on the 'Y'. They were to count if the players received the following year. That way some of the players got in four years. The 1918 season did not count as varsity competition."

The probable mistake in the records is caused by the fact that the game was listed as a S. A. T. C. contest by students of the two schools.

"It probably does not mean so much to you people as it does to us," said Stephens. "We hated that outfit then and we hate them now. What makes us mad is that we have been trying for years to correct that 1918 mistake but we haven't been able to do it. There's no doubt that the game was played."

played. Gus Irving, Boyd Brigham, Pat Pyone and myself were on the team. I can't remember the rest (Fat) Blamaster! was coach."

Pyone recovered a fumble to score for Idaho and the goal conversion won the game.

MURAL BASEBALL IS NEARING FINALS AS FIJIS FALTER

Kappa Sigs Are Only Unde-feated Team in A League

The Fijis faltered Tuesday as the Kappa Sigs hammered out a 6 to 3 victory in intramural baseball. This leaves the Kappa Sigs the only undefeated team in the A league as baseball nears finals.

Curly Joe Wood and his crew put up a nice fight but Rutzel, the Kappa Sig pitcher, proved his worth by holding them to 3 runs.

The ATO's staged a comeback when they defeated Ridenbaugh Hall by a 20 to 7 score. Jarlett and Fisher formed the battery for the winners and Thompson and Cranston for Ridenbaugh.

NEW AMENDMENT AROUSES INTEREST

Interest has been aroused among university students upon one of the proposed amendments to the Idaho state constitution. If the amendment is passed it will be necessary for the group houses of the campus to pay a property tax. At the present time the houses are exempt from this tax on the grounds that they are part of the university. This amendment is one of five which are being voted on November 8.

Frank McKinley, as president of the interfraternity council, is anxious that all students concerned to unite in an effort to defeat this bill.

THREE APPLICANTS WILL GO TO BOISE

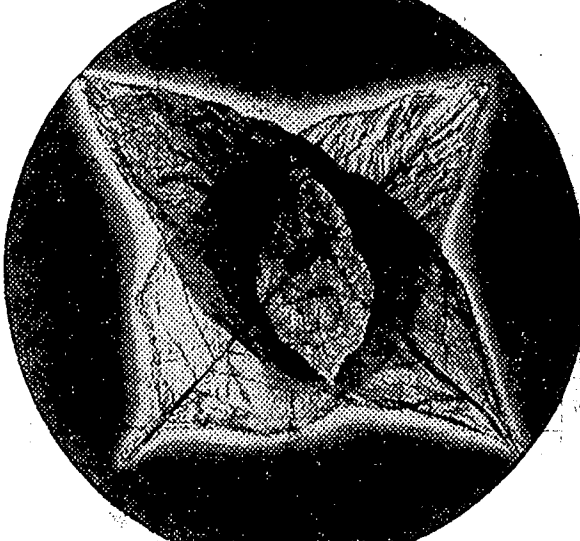

The local Rhodes scholarship committee has recommended three men to represent the university before the state committee in Boise this December. They are: Rex Pontius, Elton Reeves, and Malcolm Renfrew. They are all majors in science. Reeves is majoring in chemistry and Pontius and Renfrew in physics.

Applicants for the Rhodes scholarship are chosen on the basis of scholastic ability, force of character, and physical vigor, besides well-rounded attainments in all fields of study.

Cross-Blending

WHAT IS IT..and how does it improve cigarette taste?

YOU'VE heard how fruit of one variety has been crossed with fruit of another to produce a new and more pleasing flavor. The loganberry, for example, is a cross between the raspberry and the blackberry.

Chesterfield's Cross-Blend gets the same result—better taste—by a different method.

It welds together the different kinds of several varieties of tobacco. Many types of Bright tobacco, a great many types of Burley tobacco, and numerous grades of Turkish tobacco are all merged into one—Chesterfield tobacco.

This welding or Cross-Blending goes beyond ordinary blending or mixing tobaccos together. It actually makes every kind of tobacco in Chesterfield partake of the qualities of every other type.

It's the Cross-Blending of fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos that gives Chesterfields a distinctive, better taste.

They are milder. They have a flavor and aroma which, we believe, you will like.
