

"CAMPUS QUEEN" SELECTION LEADS MEN MERRY CHASE

"I" Club Will Make Plans For a Busy Week Ahead

Big things will happen at the meeting of the "I" club at the Delta Chi house Sunday morning at 11:15. The list of six candidates for the "Campus Queen" will be narrowed down to the winning woman, invitations will be passed out for another party, and final preparations will be made for the dance the following week-end.

There are six university upper-class women in the race for the "Campus Queen" at the present time. The club members will pick the queen and decide where to announce the name of Idaho's most beautiful woman will be made officially. The club has opportunities to announce the queen through the Argonaut, at the style show, or at their dance to be held in the Alpha Tau Omega house on March 25.

The club received inquiries from two nationally read magazines concerning the queen. The magazines have said that they will publish the queen's photo in their publications providing the photo will make a representative likeness in an engraving.

The women that are under consideration for queen by the club are qualified in every way to be the "Representative Idaho Woman." The club will have a hard time deciding Sunday morning who the queen will be.

The queen will become an honorary member of the "I" club, she will be given a seat in the "I" section at all athletic contests, and she will be recognized as the representative Idaho woman.

Qualifications high. The club is basing its selection upon appearance, intelligence, personality and the ability to wear clothes. The latter requirement does not mean that the woman shall have a complete wardrobe, but the clothes she does own must suit her appearance.

The "I" club dance will be held at the Alpha Tau Omega house on March 25, and the dance will be for club members only and the new "Campus Queen." Patrons and patronesses for the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. Leo B. Calland, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Anderson and Mr. Glenn Jacoby.

The club will tighten up on the tradition breakers especially the freshmen who are supposed to don the green lid again today. The club will be more severe with those that do not comply with the ruling after today.

Irish Hold Yearly Convention Today With Flying Colors

And the Irish held their yearly convention today. And the color that they wore bespoke them of their nationality. Begory, the froth tried to do the honors of the day by donning the red and green, but the smiles and the good old Irish names saved the day. The convention opened with the crowd singing "The Wearing of the Green," and the "Irish Wash Woman." Reggie Lyons, president pro tem, spoke of his bonny life in fair Ireland. Discussion was had as to those Irishmen that wear that shade of green called orange. Some of the people who attended the convention were: The O'Neil, O'Brien, Callahan, Bryon, Saughtery, O'Dea, McFadden, O'Connor, Hallahan, Hagan, O'Hara, O'Keefe, McManamin, Halloran, O'Leary, Laferty, O'Donnell, and McKelhan. Stanton and Culp tried to crash the party, but their apparent Yiddish inheritance came up between the lines.

FINALS OF DEBATE WON BY PHI DELTS

Robert Reese and Morris O'Donnell Defeat Kappa Sigma Last Night

Phi Delta Theta won from Kappa Sigma 2 to 1 in the finals of the men's intramural debate Thursday night. The Kappa Sigas held the affirmative and the Phi Deltas the negative on the question, "Resolved: That the Japanese invasion of Manchuria was justified both economically and politically."

Robert Reese and Morris O'Donnell debated for the winners while Murray Estes and Fred Sanger argued for the losers. Interest was high for this final event and a sizeable audience filled the living room of the Kappa Sigma house.

Three Judges. The three judges for the debate were W. C. Banks, professor of English; A. E. Whitehead, instructor in English and varsity debate coach; and Dr. Frederick C. Church, professor of history.

In commenting on the debate the judges said that good arguments were presented on both sides, and that a decision one way or the other was very difficult. "I think that the affirmative, possibly had the best side of the question," said Dr. Church, "but in my estimation the negative made the most of the points in their favor."

TESTS ALCOHOL BY ELECTRICITY

Professor Finds Practical Use For Scientific Machine. Unlooked for uses are sometimes found for implements intended to carry out the purposes of science, but none are more far from the original purpose than the use which may be found under prohibition for Dr. Jaroslav Heyrovsky's electrical machine, the polarograph. Invented to carry out the blameless purpose of accurate analysis of laboratory chemicals, the polarograph also can efficiently determine the impurity content of home made liquor.

FORESTRY GRADUATE RECALLS DEMOCRATIC SPIRIT OF IDAHO

"HELLO" STRANGER Editor, The Idaho Argonaut, Campus Dear Sir: I think your efforts to restore the Idaho "Hello" tradition are very worthy and in this connection I should like to call your attention to a short article on the subject which appeared in the 1932 Idaho Forester entitled "A Reminiscence." The former forestry student who wrote it is from the state of Maine. The author of this account is now an editor of the Lewiston (Maine) Sun-Journal and features forestry articles. His story in the Idaho Forester is as follows: A Reminiscence "When I arrived at the Idaho School of Forestry in 1921, I was reared with hospitality I can never forget. I was a youngster fresh from high school up in Maine, didn't know anyone west of New York—had never been away from home before. While I really didn't expect to be scalped by an Indian or plucked by a cow-puncher I did expect to be a stranger among strange folk at least. Being of a shy nature rather than a go-getter, I imagined I would either be entirely ignored or possibly lazzed within an inch of my life. I was wrong. From the moment I landed in Moscow until I reluctantly boarded a train for home at the conclusion of my course, I realized that this talk about western hospitality and good-fellowship is not bunk. I can never forgive the State of California for persistently 'keeping her sunny side up' when I recall the happy days spent at the University of Idaho and thereabouts. "I hope the students continue the practice of greeting one another with

This we saw and heard that—Phyllis Peterson, campus play-boy and athlete, lumbering up for the coming season with Baseball Brown. Max Eiden planning on signing up for the "old home" for former varsity football players. Eileen Blemond, from Hawaii in case you didn't know) daily increasing her list of fluttering male admirers. ANNUAL MILITARY BALL SCHEDULED SATURDAY NIGHT

Militaristic Ideas Will Feature Decorations; Dance Begins at 8:30

Approximately one hundred couples will dance underneath soft downy lights at the Military Ball Saturday night in the Elks' temple. Morris O'Donnell's orchestra, dressed as cookies will furnish the music for the dance.

The ball room will be decorated with a military motif. Machine guns, a small cannon, and rifles will make up the decorations. A color guard made up of underclassmen will be at the ball. Two more rookie underclassmen will preside at the punch bowl during the evening.

Soft Lights. The decorations committee under Arthur Davidson has developed a new idea for lighting at the ball. The committee is not making known the scheme and will see it as one of the surprises of the ball. All that the committee would say was, "The lights are going to be soft and dreamy."

Programs for the ball were given out Thursday morning at a meeting of the advanced students in the armory. Students wishing to go to the ball may get their programs from George Matson at the Sigma Chi house, or they may get them at the ball.

Chrisman Leads March. The grand march, led by General E. R. Chrisman will start at 8:30 p. m. and dancing will start immediately afterwards. Patrons and patronesses for the ball will include President and Mrs. M. E. R. Tomlinson, Captain and Mrs. H. L. Henke, Captain and Mrs. H. A. Hale, Lieutenant and Mrs. John W. Sheehy, and Sergeant and Mrs. T. B. Barnum.

Invitations were sent to the R. O. T. C. unit at Washington State college, but they are having their annual ball on the same night as the Idaho unit and will be unable to attend.

The committee in charge of the ball suggests that the students planning on taking taxis to the ball make their arrangements early so that the ball may start on time.

ELECT OFFICERS OF HELL DIVERS

Mr. Ralph Carlson, field representative of the National Red Cross, took charge of the remainder of the meeting in giving special instruction in Red Cross work and life saving. He also gave a check examination to the life saving examiners enrolled in the university.

The Hell Diver's picture for the Gem was taken after the meeting.

Blue Key is planning another assembly soon, to be held at night with an admission charge of 10 cents. Talent on the campus will be featured.

Bert Wood and John Thomas are working on a skit, and Chuck McConnell will play the trumpet. Other numbers have not been definitely decided.

The purpose of the assembly is not only to present entertainment for the students and faculty of the university, but to raise funds to send a representative from the student body to tell high school students in the southern part of the state about the University of Idaho.

ARRANGE NUMBERS AS ENTERTAINMENT FOR FASHION SHOW

Mortar Board Will Feature Elaborate Program at Style Display March 24

A lively and miscellaneous group of entertainment numbers will be featured by Mortar Board and the Junior Business and Professional club of Moscow merchants, at the annual spring style show to be held at the Memorial gymnasium the evening of March 24.

John Thomas will be master of ceremonies for the entertainment. While the program is not fully complete at present, a violin trio and a special dance are two numbers that are scheduled for certain. It is also planned to have an orchestra, a piano duet, and a featured model from Washington State college.

W. S. C. Guests. The Mortar Board members from W. S. C. and several of the outstanding women from Washington State will be guests at the fashion display, which is planned to be the largest show ever staged in the inland Empire. A group of fourteen Idaho women will model fashion latest dictates for men, women, and children, with Easter season garments being featured by the ten Moscow firms expected to participate. Those chosen to model are Alberta Bergh, Lilly Louis, Catherine O'Neil, Ione Walters, Florence Simpson, Peggy Newhouse, Elaine Cash, Catherine Brandt, Betty Merriam, Marjorie Crane, Jerry Anderson, Willa St. Clair, Esther Hunt and Helen Winkler.

Expect Large Crowd. A long promenade will be built down the center of the gymnasium floor, with special stage effects at each end, according to Wayne Snook, president of the town organization that is assisting Mortar Board. Rows of chairs will be placed facing the promenade to accommodate the crowd of 2000 people from Moscow and the university in addition to many others from this trade area who are expected to attend the gala display.

Elsa Eisinger, president of Mortar Board, remarked that the event will supplant a spring style tea which traditionally has been sponsored by the women's national honorary. Services of the Junior Business and Professional club were enlisted in order to expand the more intimate tea into an elaborate show.

CHANGE SONG FEST DATE TO MARCH 31

Many Houses Enter Annual Contest; Cups Given to Winners

The song fest scheduled for March 24, has been postponed until March 31, because it interfered with the Mortar Board fashion show. Maybelle Donaldson, head of the song fest, says that a great deal of interest is being shown by the women's houses. Several houses have already turned in the names of the girls who will sing and the songs to be sung.

Only one stage setting is to be used. The type has not been definitely decided. Agnes Ramstedt will have charge of the stage setting. Lloyd Riutcel will be stage manager and will take care of getting groups on and off the stage.

Fraternity Songs. Each group house presents songs of their own fraternity. Five minutes is the time allowed and not less than ten women may sing. A piano is to be the only accompaniment used. Cups will be given to both men and women houses that win.

Definite seating arrangements will be assigned each group house. Paul Rust will have charge of the tickets on the night of the contest. Tickets will be sold by the chairman in each house. Admission is to be the only accompaniment used. Cups will be given to both men and women houses that win.

Mr. Nyesmith and Mr. and Mrs. Kimball of Washington state college will judge the contest. Judging is on presentation and appearance.

The Rev. Canon S. H. Middleton, principal of the St. Paul's Residential school at Cardston, Alberta, Canada, will deliver the baccalaureate address to the 1933 graduating class at that university, Sunday, June 11, announced President M. G. Neale of the university.

The Rev. Mr. Middleton has been head of St. Paul's school since 1909 and has lectured extensively throughout the Dominion of Canada. Last year he gave a series of addresses before the Montana State Teachers' association, where he proved very popular.

Selection of the baccalaureate speaker marks the first step in 1933 commencement-week arrangements. Commencement proper will be held Monday, June 12, with the speaker yet to be selected. Final examinations are scheduled for the week of June 3 to 10. The 1933 session opens June 13 for six weeks.

ENTER DEBATERS IN PACIFIC COAST SPEECH CONTEST

Claude Marcus and Carl Hobson Will Represent Idaho at Eugene

The University of Idaho will be represented at the tenth annual Pacific Coast speech contest by Claude Marcus in the oratorical contest, and Carl Hobson in the extemporaneous speaking contest. The conference will be held in Eugene, Oregon, March 24, and will continue for three days.

Extemporaneous speaking, oratorical, impromptu, after dinner speeches and debating will be staged. A new feature of the conference is the debate tournament on "The Cancellation of War Debts." The winners of this tournament are to be the champions of the Pacific coast.

Speak 10 Minutes. The extemporaneous speaking contest is a ten minute speech without notes, to be given one hour after contestants have drawn their subjects. The president of the University of Oregon will submit the subjects, which are unknown to the participants of the contest, in the fields of economics, politics, science or philosophy.

Orations of 15 minutes are to be chosen by the speakers themselves. The speakers in the after dinner speech contest will get their topics five minutes before they are to be given.

Whitehead Will Speak. Schools competing in the contest are: University of Arizona, University of California at Los Angeles, University of Southern California, Leland Stanford, Pomona college, University of Oregon, Oregon State college, Willamette university, University of Washington, Whitman college and the University of Idaho.

Both of the Idaho contestants have had two years experience in debating, but this is their first exposure to extemporaneous speaking. A. E. Whitehead, debate coach, is going to submit his opinion in a speech on the question, "Whether or not debating should be an activity of the public speaking department, or an activity of the ASUT and financed as such."

ELECT PAUL RUST VANDALEERS' HEAD

Bertha Mae Wilburn Elected Secretary of the Organization

Paul Rust was elected president of the Vandaleers, and Bertha Mae Wilburn was elected secretary at the meeting held last Tuesday evening.

BOOSTERS' SMOKER MAKES A BIG HIT WITH FIGHT FANS

Sports Club Plans Similar Boxing and Wrestling Card Soon

Utilizing the newly acquired boxing ring for the first time, the Idaho Booster club sponsored a smoker, presenting the best battlers and grapplers of the campus, as well as two members of the Moscow Athletic club in the Memorial gymnasium last Wednesday night.

Fistuffs and strangled holds, interspersed with a bit of comedy, furnished the spectators with an evening of varied entertainment. "It was certainly a good, clean series of bouts. The contestants displayed a fine spirit," commented Mr. C. D. Emaulser, chairman of the Idaho Athletic commission, who was a guest at the smoker.

Plan Similar Card. This carnival was such a success that plans are now under way to present another similar card in about two weeks, according to George Horton, graduate manager. The next smoker, however, will offer some fighters from the surrounding towns and vicinity. The boys on the boxing team will participate in this card. The card has not as yet been arranged.

The three wrestling bouts were first on the program. Ray Kirkoven and Austin Clayton fought to a draw in the opening contest. The second, with Mike Callahan, winner against W. S. C., and Stan Skiles, former champion at the Southern Branch, also ended in a draw. Willard Durstler, Rocky Mountain champion in 1928 and winner in the W. S. C. meet, won a fall from Earl Latham, freshman, in 4 minutes and 57 seconds.

No Decisions Awarded. Eleven boxing bouts of three rounds each and ranging from the 115-pound class to the 175-pound weight, provided the thrills for the fight fans. No decisions were awarded in these matches.

Louie August and Chuck Carlson at 126 pounds put on an exhibition which included the supposedly accidental punching of the referee. Bernard Peterson and Ed Anderson were paired in the 160-pound division. Jerome Brubaker and Don Parker at 175 pounds, Wendel Dayton and Martin Horton at 180 pounds, and Dan Thompson and Glen Craig at 155 pounds also fought.

An intermission comedy bout which featured the feared "Scrambosky" and the great unknown (both being Scram Wilson), provided a break in the list of matches. "Scrambosky" easily defeated his opponent with the help of referee Lloyd Riutcel.

Jimmy Doak and Robert Mangan fighting at 115 pounds, continued the program. Jerry Staudaker and Wayne Schow at 138 pounds, Arne Dikill and Vern Werner at 150 pounds, and Laverne Randall, varsity end, and Jim Moore, frosh tackle, were those in the bouts leading up to the semi-final and final matches. Louis Denton, winner in the W. S. C. meet, and Russell Tate, Moscow Athletic club, fought in the semi-finals. Les Tyrell, varsity fullback, and Mel Sackett, varsity halfback, featured in the main event.

Annual Engineer's Course Has Drawn Women Students

Engineering "economics" doesn't sound like a course in which women would be interested, but in spite of the name, six women students are enrolled in this course which is being taught by Elmer E. Davison, assistant professor in business administration.

The reason for their taking this course is not because they are particularly interested in the engineering phase, but because students enrolled in home economics who are working for appointments in eastern hospitals are required to have three hours in economics. This is the only three-hour course in economics which is offered this semester. By the end of the semester the students feel they will have some knowledge of economic problems as well as knowing something about engineering.

The women enrolled in this course are Dorothy Chamberlin, Bessie Clark, Julia Hoover, Mary Ellen Kjosness, Etta Purcell, and Veda Tochterman.

I-Tank Larry

The grunts and groans and the hiss and bangs performed for the associated peep and squealers the other night. If I remember correctly some one of the box fighters lost the part of his hair, but found it later when they went into their waltz. The theme song for these gents ought to be, "I can't give you anything but love." Don't miss this old gray hair.

Death To The Traitor Or Hamlet, Prince Of Denmark

Editor's note—This is the first of a series of articles written especially for us by Thomas Lowell, noted explorer, ornithologist and author. For modesty's sake (for he is very unassuming), he calls himself Reynold Devereaux. Read his adventures—O. K. Thomas Lowell—whsssst!!!

It was moonlight that night in Venice, and over the silvery waters came the soft voice of a gondolier. But we should worry about Venice as this story takes place in an obscure mining town in our own Pacific Northwest.

Reynold Devereaux is seen chopping up clothes pins in a back street of the little town of Koaop-ski. Well, anyway he was chopping there in that little town close to the Arctic circle. A place un-frequented by whites ten months out of the nine. (Way up north three months are lost due to the midnight sun or something—you figure it out I'm just writing this story.) The only reason for mentioning the chopping part of it, anyway, was to show that Reynold was an industrious young fellow.

Beads of perspiration started on Reynold's bronzed face as he in-guined in the furious work, and he brushed them off with an impatient shrug of his shoulders. (You should try that sometime it's quite a trick.) Anyway, there was the perspiration, and that's a good place to stop. The whole reason for bringing in the sweat—perspiration was because, if it hadn't been for it, Reynold would never have met the Boss's daughter. Just what connection the perspiration had to do with this event, I don't know. You see another fellow told me this story and somehow or other I've forgotten just how it worked the sweat part in. Well, anyway, there was Reynold talking to Mary Mary quite—that's another good story, you must read it sometime, her name was Mary. Just then into the clearing step-grate man, he worked in a furnace room.

"I also had a brother but he wasn't so smart."

"Is that so?"

"Yes, one day he went down town to sell the donkey. And what do you suppose happened?"

"I don't know."

"The donkey came back with the money."

"But my boy, that doesn't sound possible said Reynold."

"Oh, don't mind that, I had another brother—"

"Never mind Ben, it'll be all right. You should lie down—the excitement and everything—"

And would you believe it folks right there the little fellow fainted dead away.

SUMMER SCHOOL BECOMES POPULAR

University Has Turned Into Center for Educational Leaders of Idaho

The university summer session has become the center for educational leaders of Idaho. The program for 1933 calls for extension of work along lines where demand seemed great in 1932. A large number of superintendents and principals are working for master's degrees during the summer sessions. Of 536 enrolled in summer session in 1932, 216 were doing graduate work. The summer session will start June 13 and continue through July 21.

A feature of the 1933 session will be a special two weeks' short course for county superintendents. It will provide an opportunity for intensive study of rural school problems under the direction of specialists in school administration and supervision. The program also calls for special offerings in public school music.

Courses Offered.

Courses will be offered in the following fields this year: American history, art, athletic coaching, botany, economics, education, dramatics, English, geology, geography, European history, home economics, mathematics, music, philosophy, political science, sociology, psychology and zoology.

Visiting faculty members for the 1933 session include: J. L. Clifton, professor of school administration, Ohio State university; one of the nation's foremost authorities in the field of guidance and personnel. He will give a course in this subject as well as one in school finance and administration. Howard Goddard, New England conservatory of music, needs no introduction to those who have been in attendance at the past two summer sessions; E. F. Goranson, music department, University of Minnesota, is a new-comer to the summer school faculty, and has a splendid record; J. W. Harris, dean of the School of Education at the College of the Pacific, and on the summer school faculty in 1930 and 1931.

Costs will be lowered for the summer session. Board in the halls will be $4.50 per week, with room rent at $9 for the entire session.

Brown Snow Here! Says Gentleman Jim

Spring greetings and salutations: We have the "Forgotten Man" as well as the "Forgotten Hello tradition" awaiting the "New Deal."

We see by the paper that Buck Bailey will defend his Hog-Calling Championship shortly. Due to the greatly reduced attendance at W. S. C. this year, Buck will have to be satisfied with fewer Cowgars running to answer his soft melodious voice.

One of the years theme songs has been, "Will She Love Me When the Banks are Closed, as She Did When They Were Open."

Running expenses keep one out of breath, but not out of the poorhouse. What shall it profit a student if he loses not and the benefits of the profits of the books he buys.

The New Deal will be satisfactory if it doesn't have too many duplicate cards.

The White Snow is gone, but the annual Brown Snow is still with us.

An Epitaph: Ye Olde Banke—
Founded in 1891. Founded in 1932. Today's Play: "A Woman Commands," starring the bitter half of these steady combines.

Presenting two words that sound alike, one of which may describe the lovely Moscow weather: Spring rainings and Spring rains.

In Memoriam: Dedicated to the passing of W. A. A's "Saps and Varsitychorie." Long may it die.

The annual "First to enter the Ar-horetum Contest" takes place next Tuesday, when Spring arrives (?). It is gratifying to note the interest that has already been displayed in the contest (?).

WILL ENTER IDAHO TEAM IN FORENSIC MEET AT OREGON

Representatives From Eleven Colleges Will Compete In Three-Day Tourney

Idaho will enter the three-day debate tournament which will be held March 24 at Eugene, Oregon. Mr. A. E. Whitehead, debate coach, stated that Idaho would very likely be represented by Claude Marcus and Carl Hobson.

Stanford, University of Southern California, University of California at Los Angeles, Pomona, Willamette, Oregon, Oregon State college, Washington State college, University of Washington and Whitman will enter the debate tournament. Each university will be allowed one team which must be prepared to debate on both sides of the war debt question.

In an oratorical contest, which will be held at the same time, each speaker will talk for 15 minutes on a subject of his own choice. In the extemporaneous speaking contest, each speaker will draw three subjects before time for speaking. He will be allowed one hour in which to prepare a ten-minute talk on any one of these without the use of notes. The president of the University of Oregon will submit the subjects. In addition to these two contests, there will be an after dinner speaking contest. The speakers will get their subjects five minutes before speaking.

This tournament has been held annually. Last year it was held at Pomona and Paris Martin and Ralph Olmstead represented the University of Idaho.

John Farquhar and Carl Hobson spoke last week in the extemporaneous speaking contest held here. Mr. Whitehead stated that they have been giving one ten-minute talk each day for practice.

Wearing o' Green Again Celebrates St. Patrick's Day

"The Wearing of the Green" could be played with double significance today, as it is St. Patrick's Day, and it also marks the re-appearance on the campus of the green "dink" worn by all freshmen. The old green lid has had quite a vacation during the long winter, and as tradition goes, now is the time to dig it out. No doubt local forekeepers will have a rush on the verdant dome-pieces as many of those in service last semester now fall under the heading of "Lost, Strayed, or Stolen."

The old lid is not detested by all Freshmen, and it has its good points as is shown by these opinions gained in conversation with a few members of the Freshman class.

Lewis Ensign—"I need a hat and there's nothing made that will fold up so handily as the good old green hat."

Frank Bevington—"In these hard times, I much prefer to wear a green hat rather than a good one."

Louis August—"Spring is here! Let the rest of you guys wear your yellow sweaters and your black and white shoes, but give me the true color of spring in its symbol, the green dink."

Hug Maguire—"It's a pretty good idea, I think, but it'll be a real good one when I'm a sophomore."

James Keel—"The green hats are O. K. They look swell on the other guys."

THE CINEMANIAC

SECRET OF MADAME BLANCHE

Friday and Saturday

The gold old days of the glowing coal fire, clinkers in the grate and the brass scuttle that were part of the home life in the '90's were reproduced when fire was built in the five-place setting of "The Secret of Madame Blanche," a romantic drama which covers a period of 30 years to modern times. Irene Dunne has the starring role, and Philip Holmes plays opposite her. Reproduction of homes, theatres, and other buildings during this period at the dawn of the century were constructed to provide authentic backgrounds for the early sequences of the picture.

FAST WORKERS

Sunday, Monday

Jack Gilbert has the lead in this picture just released, and the surest box office drawing card of the moment.

Mae Clarke plays opposite. The picture was originally titled "Rivets" but was changed to the present title of Fast Workers at the last moment. The play is as the name suggests a story of the life in the ray '90's.

PRIVATE JONES

Friday, Saturday

Lee Tracy, who has gained unusual popularity through his recent fast-talking characterizations which live on the screen, as no other recent actor has been able to make them do plays the title role in the widely discussed play which was especially re-arranged for the screen. The picture is said to provide the dynamic actor with his greatest role since coming from sensational success on Broadway to Hollywood. He is supported by Gloria Stuart, Berton Churchill, Russell Gleason, Frank McHugh, Donald Cook, and Emma Dunn in other leading roles under the expert translation of Director Russell Mack.

PRACTICAL JOKER CAUSES ARGONAUT SERIOUS TROUBLE

Teachers Entered In Bridge Tournament Were Subjects of Jokester

A practical joker in Spirit Lake has caused two instructors in the public schools of that city a great deal of unrest since the opening of The Argonaut Contract Bridge tournament three weeks ago. The Argonaut received a letter from the teacher's legal adviser Thursday and was informed that the two women had been made the brunt of a most embarrassing practical joke.

The letter stated that Spirit Lake had never had a contract bridge tournament and that it was not likely that they would have one. The adviser said that the whole affair was a practical joke for a short time, but when the seriousness of the ordeal had become apparent, the "Jokester" was down on his hands and knees to the teachers.

Committed Crime

Whether the jokester, whose name was not revealed, is aware of the fact that he has committed a forgery is not known. A forgery carries a heavy fine and a prison sentence in this state. The letter received in the first week of the tournament was signed by one of the teachers and the entry blank was authorized by the City of Spirit Lake, which constituted a forgery.

When The Argonaut received the letter and entry blank and letter the validity was rather doubtful, but upon questioning a university student at the university from Spirit Lake it was learned that the women were teachers in the public schools of Spirit Lake.

The legal adviser writes in part: "I am very sorry that this matter has caused The Argonaut any trouble whatever. Had I known that such a thing was taking place, I would have advised against it."

The Argonaut had planned to have the Spirit Lake teachers come to Moscow Saturday and play the winners of the campus tournament. The games were to have been played in the Blue Bucket Inn Saturday afternoon. The women were to have been entertained by The Argonaut, and several sororities had asked to help entertain them during their stay in Moscow.

The San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge will be the longest span of its kind in the world.

STUDENTS REVOLT AGAINST PROFESSOR

Senate at German University Proposes Peace Pact.

The senate of the University of Breslau has settled its difficulties with Professor Cohn of its faculty, who has been the object of anti-semitic disturbances on the part of Nazi students, and has appealed to the students to cease their activities against the professor.

Professor Cohn occupies the chair of law, and has been almost constantly the object of classroom disorder since he joined the faculty. The senate temporarily dropped its protection of the professor when he published a statement welcoming Leon Trotsky to Germany.

A moccasin dance on an ice dancing floor was a recent event held at the University of Toronto. A 12-piece orchestra played for the dancers.

New Spring Styles Give Both Mannish and Feminine Note

The two opposite trends towards extreme masculine styles on one hand, and softly feminine on the other are the main distinguishing features in new spring fashions," said Ida Ingalls, assistant professor of home economics, yesterday.

The two trends are equally important, according to Miss Ingalls. The mannish trend will show itself in tailored suits of men's suit materials. Felt hats and double-breasted jackets with large revers will complete the masculine costume.

The new silhouette for spring feminine modes will turn to the straighter lines. Blouses, rather than the more closely fitted effects will mark the trend.

"Spring styles will follow distinctly vertical lines, except for breadth of shoulders, which will be retained," said Miss Ingalls.

"Necklines will remain high and close about the base of the neck. "We will see no change in the length of skirts this spring. Straightness and simplicity will rule in skirt fashions."

Contrasts will be important this spring, according to Miss Ingalls. Gray in combination with bright colors, also dark with beige or white accessories will be seen frequently. Bright colored belts with neutral shades are good, as are prints with plain material.

Among the important colors this spring are purplish blues, black, beige and gray. Uastel shades will lead in popularity this summer, but white will still be very good.

PICK COMMITTEES FOR HOME EC DAY

Out of Town High School Students and Teachers Will Attend Show

Committees were appointed for "Home Economics Day" to be held April 1 at a meeting of the Home Economics club Wednesday afternoon. Miss Ida Ingalls gave a talk on spring fashions, and Ruth Parker gave a violin solo.

Home Economics Day is a day set aside each year for the home economics department to entertain teachers and students in that department of high schools in nearby towns. Each teacher will bring one or more of her students to Moscow on that day, and they will have the opportunity to see how the home economics department in the university operates. This gives the students who are enrolled in small high schools, where there is only a small department of that kind to see the advantages of the subjects in the university department.

The morning of Home Economics Day will be devoted to conferences for visiting instructors and students. At noon, luncheon will be served in the home economics room in the Administration building; one table being devoted to instructors and one to students. In the afternoon, the guests will go to the various sorority houses on the campus for tea; and a banquet will be given at the Moscow hotel in their honor in the evening.

The chairman of the various committees appointed to attend to details for the day are: general chairman, Fern Spencer; preparation of luncheon, Nita Winn; entertainment in the afternoon, Frances DuSault; table decorations, Alma Aas; place cards for banquet, Marjorie Crane; table decorations, Eileen Thompson; entertainment at the banquet, Ruth Parker; tickets, Helen Wiswall; reception committee, Marjorie Stone; toastmistress for the banquet, Betty Trimble; freshman toast, Marjorie L'Harrison; sophomore toast, Fritzie Smith; junior toast, Madeline Williamson; senior toast, Maude Gallo-way.

THETA DEBATERS WIN INTRAMURAL

Elizabeth Stickney and Carol Campbell Defeat Alpha Chis

Kappa Alpha Theta was awarded a unanimous decision over Alpha Chi Omega in the finals of women's intramural debate held Tuesday night. The Theta's affirmative entertained the Alpha Chi negative debaters and judges. Elizabeth Stickney and Carol Campbell debated for the winning team against Jayne Jones and Marjorie L'Harrison, Alpha Chi debaters.

The question was: "Resolved: that student government should control all student activities." Wilma Hudson acted as chairman of the debate, and Jewell Leighton, Virginia Merrick and Karl Hobson were the judges. Hobson commented on the debate and read the decision.

As a result of the victory, Kappa Alpha Theta will receive the women's intramural debate cup which is awarded each year to the winning team. Any house winning the cup for three consecutive years keeps the trophy permanently. The debates are sponsored by Delta Sigma Rho, national debate honorary.

Lavender and Lush Smoking and Slang Are Gone Forever

What has become of the old fashioned girl? Rumor has it that the modern girl is on the down-and-down. Clearer and slang will be out like Nellie's eye. Dresses will be longer, lingerie will be worn again to lavender and old lace—very old.

The CO-ED MANNEQUIN

Speaking of skirt-lengths, it seems as if women would wear whatever levels prove individually becoming this spring. The high mark, however, is 16 inches off the ground for very active sports. Of course, the longer dresses seem to have the preference in all but sports, but—it may be remarked that the sponsors of short skirts are just as many in number as the sponsor of long one.

Accessories are increasing in size and style importance. Handbags, one foot square, are favored for street wear. Five-inch pendant earrings are notable evening details. Pig skin is advancing in importance, finding uses each day.

What will be the favorite color for spring? From all appearances, the favorite color on this campus seems to be green. But, in spite of the many light tones, black is still holding the record at present. Palest powder-blue is second in place as an evening favorite.

FRANCES DUSAULT PLANS TO ENTER SOCIAL SERVICE

"I have always been interested in social service work, and after completing my four years here, I should like to do some work in this field," stated Frances DuSault, president of Phi Upsilon Omicron, home economics honorary.

In her freshman year, Miss DuSault became a member of W. A. A. and the Home Economics club. She was on the Gem of the Mountain staff and took part in play production. Besides carrying on her work on the Gem, in the Home Economics club, and in W. A. A. as basketball manager, Miss DuSault was elected to Phi Upsilon Omicron, and held the position of secretary of the sophomore class. This year, she is president of Phi Upsilon Omicron, a member of the W. A. S. executive board, secretary of W. A. A., a member of W. A. A. work in the Home Economics club, and works on the Gem staff. In view of her social service executive board, carries on her work, Miss DuSault has been interested in Camp Fire Girls activities. She was assistant guardian of a group of Camp Fire girls in her freshman year. The following summer, she held the position of counselor at the Camp Fire Girl's camp on Coeur d'Alene lake. As increasing demands were made upon her time, she temporarily had to give up her work in Camp Fire.

Miss DuSault says this, in regard to the university of Idaho: "The educational opportunities at Idaho are exceptional, affording interesting work in numerous lines. The training I am receiving here, I feel certain, will prove very valuable in my future endeavors."

A riot which followed the refusal of students at the City College of New York to accept faculty censorship of the Ticker, students publication, resulted in the suspension of 11 students.

ODDS AND ENDS OF CHARM

Everything is done scientifically nowadays, but even yet there are good cooks who, when asked for a certain recipe, will say, "Oh, I just take a little of this and a little of that," but to follow the directions is never easy.

Ask the girl who has charm and she will say the same thing. "A little of this," she will tell you, "and a little of that," but the mixing—the turn of the wrist, the dash of pliancy that makes all the difference—she leaves you. With charm there's no recipe. There are many ingredients and every mixture is different.

You have been told often that every girl must be her own type; that neatness and good grooming are more important than the color of the hair; that good looks, as we know them nowadays, are mostly a question of wanting and working. But that isn't quite enough I hear you say. What we want is charm—"little odds and ends of charm." How would like to give to each special one of you, your own special recipe, but it can't be done.

One thing I can tell you, though I've told you before. The most successful women I know are those who capitalized their own charming selves according to their own charming patterns. And—while I know you are tired of the trite old phrase about beauty coming from within, we can't discount the truth just because it happens to have a stupid frock and there's truth in the time-worn phrase. There's charm in poise, in an eager interested face, a ready smile, a pleasant voice, in kindness and simplicity—spiritual qualities, yes. But they are part of the "this and that" qualities of charm that may be yours.

Have you physical qualities that look like that? Look them straight in the eye with a wide open mind for in almost every case it is something you can befriend by the dressing of your hair, the colors you wear or the cosmetics you use.

Is your skin dull and sallow? Spend more time on the campus, take more advantage of opportunities for exercise, outdoors and in. Every morning after a few minutes of setting-up exercises, apply a skin-clearing cream to the face and neck and leave on while you bathe and dress. Pat on a toning lotion to close the pores.

VANDAL ATHLETES WILL MEET W.S.C.

Swimming and Wrestling Teams Travel to Pullman for Contest, Saturday

Swimming and wrestling teams from the university will compete against W. S. C. teams in Pullman Saturday if the roads are in such condition that the trip can be made. If necessary the meet will be postponed until next week.

The Idaho swimmers have been working out regularly and are in good shape for the meet, according to Max Eiden, who is in charge of the university team. The Vandal entries will be: 50 yards—Spence, Kliner; 100 yards—Robison and Herman; relay—Blair, Spence, Herman, and Kliner; breast stroke—Sweeney, Giles; backstroke—Blair, Watkins, or Lindros; medley—Sweeney, Blair, Spence or Kliner; dives—Robison, Callahan and Ford.

Enter Wrestlers.
The wrestlers will probably be entered as follows: 126 pounds—Charles Carlson; 135 pounds—Mike Callahan; 145 pounds—Stan Skiles; 155 pounds—Pat Callahan; 165 pounds—Austin Clayton; 175 pounds—Willard Dursteller. This line-up may be changed by Coach Ralph Hutchinson, who has been training the team.

Last week the Cougar teams won both the meets by fairly high scores. The swimming was lost by Idaho, 44 to 27 as they did not get a first although many races were closely contested. In wrestling the W. S. C. team managed to make 13 points to 8 for Idaho, one fall and one decision making up the total of Idaho's points. However, both swimming and wrestling coaches feel that a better showing will be made in Pullman.

MEN'S RIFLE TEAM WINS FROM WOMEN TUESDAY EVENING

Idaho Will Compete in the National Corp Area Match

The men's rifle team defeated the women's rifle team Tuesday evening by a margin of 17 points in the annual match between the two. By winning this match, winners are to be the guests of the losers at a banquet. In the past it has been the custom of one of the teams to challenge the other. This year the men challenged the women, and the women accepted provided they be given a handicap. Excellent shooting. Both teams have done excellent shooting this season, showing a marked improvement over last year's results, according to Capt. W. A. Hale, head of the rifle squad. The men's team especially has made marked improvement. Until last year Idaho rifle teams were practically unknown, while so far this year the men's rifle team has been undefeated in inter-collegiate competition and will compete in the national corps area match.

ENGINEERS HONOR ARTHUR DAVIDSON

Outstanding Student Named St. Pat at Technocratic Dance

Arthur Davidson, senior in the school of civil engineering, was given the outstanding award conferred in the engineering school when he was named St. Pat by the engineers at their annual dance last Friday at the Blue Bucket.

St. Pat is chosen by a committee of engineering students and professors to represent the ideal Idaho engineer. Initiative, appearance, practicability, and personality are the four factors taken into consideration when choosing the engineer. Senior standing is the only other requirement.

The announcement of the selection of Davidson was made by Dean Ivan C. Crawford in an appropriate speech during the intermission. Dean Crawford, in his talk, shattered the superstition that the original St. Patrick was an Irishman and concluded that it was therefore not inappropriate that the St. Pat about to be named was also a Son of Erin.

Davidson was then called from the crowd, and kneeling before Dean Crawford, was knighted with a slide rule. Don McClain, president of the Associated Engineers, then presented Davidson with a cane as a symbol of his title.

Davidson is a member of Sigma Tau, Scabbard and Blade, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon. Last semester he was president of the Associated Civil Engineers.

The University of Southern California is one of the two schools in the United States which awards a degree for consular and foreign service to qualified students. The other school is in Washington, in the District of Columbia.

IDAHO FIGHTERS TO APPEAR SOON

Tumbling Team and Boxers Are on Fight Card

Three Idaho boxers and Coach Hutchinson's tumbling team are to appear on a fight card which will be held at Genesee, March 24.

Louie August, 1931 Pacific Coast champion, will fight "Dynamite" Sinclair of Lewiston in the 129 pound class. Chuck Carlson will meet Charles Hughes of Moscow in the same weight which will start at 7:45.

154 pound class will tangle with an opponent from Genesee. Ardie Driskill and Russell Tate, both of the Moscow Athletic club, are also on the card.

Hutch's tumbling team, which appeared several times at Genesee last year, is popular with the fans of that vicinity. The tumblers begin the card which will start at 7:45.

EDUCATOR GIVES SPORTS REPORT

Subsidizing Still Exists Because of Graduates

In an interview broadcast recently over an N. B. C. network of stations, Dr. Howard J. Savage, secretary of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching and author of its report on college football, declared that recruiting and subsidizing of athletes still exists in American colleges, and laid much of the blame on the graduates who never grow up, and who think only of victory at any cost.

"They are the gentlemen who impair the moral fibre of young men by recruiting them, weakening their initiative, making them self-seeking and self-centered, causing them to barter their birthright as American boys for a mess of athletic subsidies," Dr. Savage said. "I have opposed, and I hope I shall be able to continue to oppose, the doings of these men."

"To say that any particular team or member of a team is subsidized," he said, "requires proof. Whether or not college editors have that proof is impossible to say without going into the matter at great length."

KAPPA SIGS LEAD INTRAMURAL RACE WITH 353 TALLIES

Lindley Hall Second With 233; Figs Third With 205 Points

Kappa Sigma, with 353 points, is out in front by over 100 points in the race for intramural athletic honors according to the standings released today. Lindley hall with 233 tallies and Phi Gamma Delta with 205 points rank second and third respectively.

Kappa Sigma garnered its points by chalking up 150 in indoor baseball, 100 in cross-country, 100 in basketball and three points in swimming. Lindley hall, in second place, tallied 25 points in cross-country, 200 in basketball and eight digits in swimming.

Track, horseshoes, tennis, golf and volleyball have not been played yet. Volleyball started this week and the first round of play is almost completed. The finals are scheduled for the latter part of this month. Of the sports to be played, track is the only major event.

Title Undecided.

Any of the first seven group houses in the standings has a good chance to carry off the title yet if they are able to take a good share of the points in the remaining events. Following Kappa Sigma, Lindley hall and Phi Gamma Delta in the standings are Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 181; Tau Mem Aleph, 177; Sigma Nu, 175; Phi Delta Theta, 163; Beta Theta Pi, 86; Alpha Tau Omega, 78; Lambda Chi Alpha, 75; L. D. S. Institute, 60; Delta Tau Delta, 1; Tau Kappa Epsilon, 0; Delta Chi, minus 15; Sigma Chi, minus 20; Chi Alpha Pi, minus 75; Ridenbaugh hall, minus 75.

Several of the groups are in the red in the scoring department as the result of having failed to enter men in either cross-country or swimming.

Last year Phi Delta Theta won the intramural title.

A great deal of Northwestern's curtailment of athletics is reported to have been caused by payments having to be met on the stadium.

STATE TOURNEY WELL UNDER WAY

Moreland, Moscow, Pocatello, and Wallace Win First Games

Four games have been played in the Idaho state basketball tournament which is being held at Pocatello, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week.

Moreland defeated Caldwell in the first game 45 to 44. Caldwell held a 12 to 1 lead at one period in the game, but the Moreland aggregation unleashed an attack that netted it the game. Wallace won from Salmon in the second contest, 60 to 30.

Moscow Wins

Moscow, staging a second half rally, won from Twin Falls in the third game by the score of 49 to 27. The score at the half stood 17 to 15 for Moscow. Hall led the scoring for the day's play with a total of 27 points for his first game. Pocatello took Rexburg 42 to 31 in the last game Wednesday.

The four defeated teams are eliminated since the tournament is being played on a single elimination basis. They will compete in the consolation play-off, which is played in conjunction with the championship games.

VOLLEYBALL GAMES ELIMINATES TEAMS

Delta Tau and S. A. E. Drop Second Contests Yesterday

After a week's play Sigma Nu and Sigma Alpha Epsilon have the distinct record of being the only team to be forced to play three games in the intramural volleyball tournament to decide the winner. Sigma Nu and won 17-15, 14-16, 15-9.

Delta Tau Delta and Sigma Alpha Epsilon both suffered their second defeats yesterday and were automatically eliminated from the play. S. A. E. failed to put in an appearance for their match yesterday afternoon, so a forfeit was given Lindley hall. Delta Tau Delta dropped their second match to Kappa Sigma last night 15-1, 15-9.

Have Clean Slate

Alpha Tau Omega kept its slate clean by defeating Ridenbaugh hall, 15-13, and 15-3, Tuesday night. Beta Theta Pi is undefeated and has a 15-4 15-3, victory over Tau Mem Aleph to its credit. Tau Kappa Epsilon holds a 15-5, 15-9 victory over Delta Chi. L. D. S. Institute defeated Sigma Chi 17-15 and 15-13, in two hotly contested games last night.

Tau Mem Aleph and Delta Chi will meet this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. Both teams have one defeat chalked against them so the loser will be eliminated from the tourney. Saturday afternoon Alpha Tau Omega will meet Chi Alpha Pi at 2 o'clock, and at 3 o'clock Sigma Nu will tangle with Phi Delta Theta.

SAWING A WOMAN IN HALF

ILLUSION:
A large packing case is exhibited on a raised platform. A young woman climbs into the box. Head, hands and feet protrude, and are held by spectators while the magician takes a crosscut saw and, with the help of an assistant, saws through the center of the box and apparently through the woman.

EXPLANATION:
There are many explanations for this illusion. One method of performing this illusion requires the presence of two girls in the box. One girl curls up in the left half of the box with her head and hands protruding, giving the effect you see illustrated above. The other girl is doubled up in the right half of the box, with only her feet showing. Nobody is sawed in half.

It's fun to be fooled — ...it's more fun to KNOW

Cigarette advertising, too, has its tricks. Consider the illusion that "Flavor" can be achieved by some kind of magical hocus-pocus in manufacturing.

EXPLANATION: Just three factors control the flavor of a cigarette. The addition of artificial flavoring. The blending of various tobaccos. And the quality of the tobaccos themselves. Quality is by far the most important. Domestic cigarette tobaccos vary in price from 5¢ a pound up to 40¢ a pound. Imported tobaccos vary from 50¢ a pound to $1.15.

No wonder, then, that cigarettes differ in taste—since distinctive, pleasing flavor depends so largely upon the blending of the costlier tobaccos.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Try Camels. Give your taste a chance to sense the subtle difference that lies in costlier tobaccos... a difference that means all the world in smoking pleasure... in pure, unalloyed satisfaction.
