Bing Crosby And Dick Arlen List College Slang Terms

The modern Greeks always have a word for it.

Intent on making "College Humor" as collegiate as possible, Bing Crosby and Dick Arlen, Paramount picture stars, worked out a list of college slang, and discovered that it was possible to carry on a conversation with hardly any recourse to formal language.

If you "take it on the lam" to crack a book, you are leaving hurriedly to go home and study.

If you "made a pass" and got thrown for a loss, you mean that you made friendly overtures to someone who rejected them.

If you attend classes dressed up you are a "capitalist," but if you go in corduroys, and a sweat-shirt or a sweater you are a "peasant."

Recall Long List.

Crosby and Arlen, both college men, remembered a long list of equally effective words and phrases common to most campuses. Here are some of them:

Acce: held in high regard, as "his ace."

Apple-polisher: one who curries favor of grades from an instructor by ingratiating himself in the latter's good graces.

Babe: any girl.

Barb: non-fraternity man; not a "Greek," a barbarian.

Base-hit: successful attainment of any objective.

Constructed: built; said of a girl.

Crack a book: to study.

Cram: to study diligently.

Crate: an automobile.

Dame: any girl.

Dark horse: blind date.

Davenport technique: parlor tricks.

Dilley: very good, as in "it's a dilley."

Dig: a dance.

Don't be a ditzel: don't be silly.

Don't be an eaf: same as "don't be a ditzel."

Ducked out: departed suddenly.

Drag: to take.

Flop: a failure.

Frax: fiancée.

Funk a pledge: to a fraternity.

Forest primeval: nice girl; see Longfellow's "Evangaline."

Goat: pledge to a fraternity.

Gene social: has started taking out one girl regularly.

Gravy train: any sort of a successful graft, usually a manager-ship of some student activity.

Horn: glass of intoxicating liquid.

Hung a pin: became engaged.

Laplander: girl who likes to cuddle.

Make a pass: make overtures, attempt.

No go: impossible, can't be done.

On the lam: hurried departure.

Peasant: opposite of "capitalist."

Pipe: easy, as "the course is a pipe."

Polishing the apple: an apple-polisher at work.

Professional: an athlete who has a campus job.

Right over second: same as "base hit."

Riot: splendid, praiseworthy, as "It's a riot."

Running with: going with.

Rushing: pursuing in a social way.

Slid through: (1) narrow escape; (2) easily.

Struggle: a dance.

Stewed: see "spiffed."

Stiff: see "stewed."

Take it: ability to handle a situation.

Thrown for a loss: defeated when "making a pass."

Took a powder: disappeared from a difficult situation.

Two strikes on him: he didn't have a chance when he started.

Waving his arms: see "stiff."

SELECT MUSICIANS WHO WILL PERFORM IN STABET MATER

"Melody Week" Is May 7 to 14; Cummings Will Direct

Music week at the university, which is given under the auspices of the music department, will be held the week of May 7 to May 14. By proclamation of the president of the United States, this week is the national music week.

Plans for the programs to be given during music week have already been made.

On May 7, the chorus of Stabet Mater under the direction of Carlton Cummings will be given. The soloists in this chorus are: Louise Morley, soprano; Agnes Ramstedt, alto; Elvon Hampton, tenor; and Erwin Tomlinson, baritone.

May 9, under the auspices of the public events committee, Miss Dorothy Fredericksen, contralto; Miss Laura Clark Hoshaw, pianist, will give a program.

"This program," says Mr. Cummings, "is well worth anyone's time. These three women are all splendid musicians."

Miss Newhouse, Miss Fredericksen, and Miss Hoshaw are all well-known former Idaho students.

The orchestral concert under the direction of Carl Claus will be given May 11.

On May 14 the program will be given by the different ensemble groups of the campus, which include the mad quartet, the mixed quartet, Vandaleers, Vandaleers, string quartet, and trios.

All programs are to be held in the auditorium. The Sunday programs will be at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and the week-day programs will be at 8:15 in the evening.

PLAN FIGHT CARD FOR COMING WEEK

Idaho Boxers Will Meet Aggregation from Spokane; Plans Not Definite

Another fight card is being arranged by the university boxing club for next week-end, although no definite plans have yet been formulated.

Billy Wilson, Gonzaga, will be pitted against Clyde Luce, of the Moscow Athletic club, for the main event.

Luce won a decision over George Theodoratos in the last card held here. Both fighters will weigh around 170 pounds when they meet in the ring.

Outside Boxers

Other fisticuffs from Gonzaga as well as some from Lewiston and Pocatello will appear on the card. Only Idaho boys will be matched with the visitors, except for those who represent the Moscow A. C. "Dynamite" Sinclair, who fought on the last card and his brother are among the aggregation from Lewiston. Seven boxers are expected from Spokane and vicinity, while two or three are to be secured from Pocatello.

No definite plans have been made in respect to the date. It may have to be held next week-end, although interfering with the junior week program. The last card was such a success with the fight fans, according to Leo Calland, that this one will be well attended by the sport enthusiasts of the town and campus.

JUNIORS READY FOR GALA PROM

Committees Making Final Plans For Big Affair

Everything is in readiness for the staging of a unique and interesting Junior Prom. Plans have been completed to the smallest detail and final meetings of the various committees during the week will set the date for the action to be taken.

No information has been given out concerning the nature of the decorations, but it is expected that they will be along the lines of the general plan which will be predominant throughout the week. The programs will also undoubtedly carry out the same idea.

"Tickets for the Prom were put on sale last week and according to early reports are finding a brisk demand. As only one hundred tickets were printed, an early rush is expected for those remaining. Each group on the campus was allotted six or seven tickets and those not sold in one house will be transferred to another."

QUERY UNETHICAL

Yale isn't so snooty as coming slantage, according to the Yale News but even so, it has a better standing in this matter than Harvard.

With Wilfred J. Funk, the Lexingtonian furnishing the data, The News learned Yale was far behind the schools of the midwest and southwest in taking to slantage terms. About Harvard, Funk said, he had failed to learn anything.

"When I wrote the editor of The Crimson for a list of Harvard's best slang words," Funk said, "I received a reply saying such a query was too undignified."

CLASS TO MEET

All tennis players and golfers registered in P.E. 34, Sophomore sports, are to report at Memorial Gymnasium, 104, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

WURSTER ELECTED SPUR SECRETARY

Next National Convention Will Be Held at University of Colorado

Marjorie Wurster, president of the local chapter of Spurs was elected national secretary of the organization at the convention held in Corvallis, Oregon April 6, 7, and 8. About 50 delegates representing 12 universities and colleges were present at the convention. Marjorie Wurster and Ethlyn O'Neal were the local delegates.

With the acceptance of a petition to install a chapter of Spur at Butler university, Indianapolis, Indiana, a movement was started to expand Spur throughout the east. At present there are 14 chapters of the honorary, all of which are best of the Mississippi. Within the next few years the national organization plans to expand through the United States.

Elect Junior.

Among the proposals presented by the local delegates and voted upon at the convention, was that of junior Spur advisors. It was decided to have one junior woman to act as sponsor for each chapter. In this way, the new Spurs will be aided in getting organized at the beginning of each year.

A national treasury system was also adopted. Formerly, each chapter handled its money entirely independent of the national. Now all treasuries will be supervised by the national treasurer.

The idea of joint conventions with intercollegiate Knights was not accepted this year. It was explained that this is hardly possible yet because there are so many more chapters of the women's organization at present. However, both honoraries are in favor of the plan and with the new projects of expansion, it will be possible within the next few years.

"The Oregon State Spurs entertained us royally," said Miss Wurster, "with a horse show, military ball, W. A. A. tea, and a joint intercollegiate Knight and Spur formal banquet. The entire convention was very successful."

The next national meet will be held in 1935 at the University of Colorado at Boulder.

W. S. C. WOMEN WILL ENTERTAIN

W. A. A. Will Be Hostess to Six Schools of the Northwest

The Women's Athletic association in Pullman will be hostess to six schools of the northwest April 15. About 25 women will represent the university. A bus will be chartered to leave here at 9 o'clock Saturday morning and return when the various sports program has been completed.

The program will consist of volleyball, basketball, tennis, swimming, horsehoes, ping pong, and other minor sports. Idaho has been put in charge of all challenges among the different schools.

The women making the trip are: Helen Thornhill, Frances Wheeler, Geraldine Lauer, Ellen Frazier, Marie Park, Rhoda Swanson, Nellie Irwin, Marian Ginder, Edris Coon, Eileen Kennedy, Betty Mix, Betty Hatfield, Irene Ash, Dorothy Lindsey, Ruth Lacy, Ruth Evans, Dorothy Preuss, Dorothy Green, Marian Graham, Marie Roseman, and Betty Trimble.

Mr. Goss, who was graduated in 1932, is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity; Blue Key, service honorary; Pep Band; editor of the Interfraternity council; member of the Gem staff; and Junior Prom chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Goss will make their home in Kellogg, where Mr. Goss is an art instructor in Kellogg high school.

Easter Morning Affair Will Be Held at 6:30

An all-college Easter sunrise service will be given by the Interfraternity council at the university auditorium, 6:30 o'clock Easter morning.

The short service will be conducted by Rev. Hamilton West with other ministers assisting. There will be special musical numbers. The Lutheran choir will lead the singing. Ladies will be used as stage setting.

Tripping Co-Eds Feature Event At W.A.A. Tea Dance

Natural dancing will comprise the second part of the entertainment feature of the W. A. A. tea dance which will be held Saturday afternoon in the women's gymnasium from 2 to 5 o'clock. The entertainment will start at 3 o'clock and will be divided into two parts: a resume of the comic part which will consist of clog dancing appeared in the last Argonaut.

The first group of dance numbers will depict moods of gaiety. They will consist of a solo, "Joy," Jean Ricker; a gay polka duo, Prudence Larsen and Betty Lucas; "Arabesque" Lenore Burnett and Ellen Frazier; "Frolita" Alberta Bergh and Jesse Hutchinson, and Jean Ricker; and a finale, "Plays of Childhood," in which six women, Helen Gentry, Virginia Laird, Prudence Larsen, Alene Riley, Mary Schlueter, and Virginia Zetler, will recall swinging, drop the handkerchief, blind man's bluff, rope jumping, and "ten steps."

With the change of mood comes a study of a Grecian fete. The dancers in this number are Geraldine Anderson, Irene Ash, Lenore Burnett, Ellen Frazier, Latene Richards.

This will be followed by a plastic study to Joyce Kilmer's "Trees," introduced by a vocal solo by Miss Agnes Botine, who is also directing a comedy quartet to accompany one of the clog dances. This study of "Trees" was presented at the Olympics in California last summer. Esther Hunt and Betty Lucas will interpret the song.

The advanced class in natural dancing has arranged a group study in tempos using Michio Ito's rhythmic restures and the program will be completed with two authentic national dances. Rosanna Roark will do a Spanish tango to Albanese popular "Tango in D," and Elizabeth Nail and Eva Oberg will do a fiery Moravian dance.

Reservations for tables for the tables for the dance may be secured from the physical education department in the women's gymnasium or from Rosanna Roark at the Pi Beta Phi house. "We shall be glad to reserve tables for the entertainment feature of the dance which begins at 3 o'clock," said Miss Jeanette Wirt. "It will not be necessary to attend for the first part of the afternoon to get a reserved table."

CONDIE TO SPEAK HERE WEDNESDAY

State Superintendent Will Discuss New School Laws

John W. Condie, new state superintendent of public instruction, will address a meeting of schoolmen in Moscow Wednesday afternoon on phases of the new school laws enacted at the recent session of the legislature, according to announcement today by David Ross, county superintendent.

The meeting will be held at 1:30 o'clock in the city auditorium. School trustees and superintendents from every section of the county are invited to attend.

"The program will follow up the meeting of school trustees we held here a few weeks ago to work out provisions of the new laws," Mr. Ross said. "House bill 157 and senate bill 24 and other measures which put into effect the teacher unit system, consolidations, attendance regulations, will be discussed by Mr. Condie."

The state superintendent is in northern Idaho the week of this week and is scheduled to appear in Lewiston Thursday. Arrangements are being made to invite Mr. Condie to the chamber of commerce meeting here Wednesday noon, said Secretary Harold Cornelison.

EDUCATORS ADVISE PRESIDENTIAL ACTION

Unless something happens to change the situation the rule of Franklin D. Roosevelt as president of the United States is to be one largely by the advice of college professors and other educators.

Among the president's closest advisors many of whose ideas are already incorporated in legislation passed at Roosevelt's behest are Prof. Raymond Moley of Columbia, now in the department of state; Dr. Rexford Gilbert, Harvard law school cum laude graduate; Prof. A. A. Berle, economist; Prof. M. L. Wilson of Montana State college, and Dr. H. Parker Willis, lecturer at Columbia and Washington and Lee and other colleges, who wrote the federal reserve act in 1914.

SCHOOL IN SESSION

Thirty thousand students in grades from the kindergarten through junior college recently resumed their studies interrupted by the earthquake March 10.

Students met in parks adjacent to schools, playgrounds, and vacant lots. A plan which included home work assignments assisted by newspapers and the radio was outlined.

School officials said that not a building in the $12,000,000 plant of the district was considered safe enough to hold sessions in without repairs.

COMMUNITY SCHOOL

An anti-depression college for boys and girls, who have the equivalent of a high school education and who are unemployed, has been started at New Britain, Conn., by the Rev. T. S. Dunn, assistant pastor of the South Congregational church.

Members of the congregation have been recruited to assist in teaching. Subjects embraced are English, German, Latin, public speaking and history. Both afternoon and night classes are held.

ACCEPTS INVITATION

Dr. Albert Einstein has accepted an invitation to teach at the Brussels Foundation it was announced recently. Dr. Einstein, who has forewarned his Prussian citizenship in protest against political action against the Jews, recently announced that he would never go back to Germany while present conditions are in control of the government.

COURSES GIVEN IN MANY THINGS

Correspondence Classes Help Students From Many Sections

One hundred fifty-one correspondence courses, varying in subject matter from the business management of a country newspaper to a study of ancient Hebrew, are offered by the University of Iowa, a report by Bruce Mahon, director of the University's extension division, shows.

Students are enrolled in the division from all parts of the world, Mahan said. The courses have been specially beneficial to teachers in public and private schools. Many have improved their technique and standing to such an extent that their state certificates were raised, allowing them increased salaries, Mahan said.

The university pays the postage for mailing the lessons to the student, who in turn bears the expense of mailing his work back.

Among courses offered are: how to know ferns, inorganic chemistry, labor problems, educational psychology, essay writing, short story writing, literary criticism, Greek, German, Spanish, European, United States and Iowa history, news reporting, principles of advertising, magazine writing, differential calculus, introduction to philosophy, criminology, the American race problem, and public speaking.

NEWS REELS USED IN GIVING COURSES

Weekly Movies Will Supplement General Information Classes

A weekly talking news reel, minus bathing beauties, marionette dances, horse races and similar events, but featuring significant happenings in the day-to-day history of the world hereafter will supplement general information courses in the University of Minnesota junior college, it was announced recently.

Beginning a new experiment in education, the "news reel theater" is planned primarily for junior college students in journalism, history and political science, but all students of the university may attend, according to Robert A. Kissack, Jr., head of the department of visual education.

Three 45-minute programs will be presented each Friday throughout the college year according to present plans.

STUDENTS PROTEST AGAINST REDUCTION

The student body of the University of California after a meeting recently adopted a resolution protesting against a proposed $5,000,000 cut in the biennial budget of the institution.

The resolution said a $5,000,000 cut, as recommended by the state ways and means committee, instead of the $3,020,000 reduction suggested by the university regents, would impair the efficiency of the institution, lower the quality of instruction, and might result in the loss of outstanding members of the faculty if the university were unable to compete with other schools on salaries.

KNIGHTS REPORT CONVENTION AT CORVALLIS BIG SUCCESS

Seven Intercollegiate Knights returned from Corvallis Sunday, where they attended the national convention of the organization on the Oregon State campus last weekend.

Rollin Hunter, past duke of the Idaho chapter, was elected first editor of the "Round Table," official publication of the Knights planned for next year. Stanton Hale, 32, was re-elected national advisor. Maudy Schwarz, University of Washington delegate, was chosen national president. Guy De Julio of Seattle, was chosen to fill the office of secretary-treasurer, left vacant by the death of Ira R. Curry, who died last winter. The University of Washington will be place of the next convention.

Report Meet Successful

The returning delegates reported a successful session from both business and social standpoints. Expansion was the prominent topic of the business meetings, along with other important items which included the revision of the ritual, establishment of a permanent office of secretary-treasurer, further development of inter-collegiate relations, and plans for new publications. One of the sessions was held jointly with the Spurs, who were also convening at Corvallis.

Social affairs included a progressive dinner to the sorority houses, attendance in a body at the annual Military tournament, and Horse Show, luncheon for the official delegates and alternates given by prominent college officials, formal joint banquet with the Spur delegates, and the concluding affair, the Military ball, where the delegates were guests of the Oregon State Scabbard and Blade organization.

Give New Trophy

The Rang chapter of the Montana State college received the efficiency award given to the chapter in the national showing the most improvement during the past year. The Idaho chapter won the cup for the past two years. A new award was established in the form of a silver cup, to be known as the L. E. A. Curry memorial trophy, which will replace the old cup. The name of the Idaho Ball and Chain chapter will be inscribed on the new cup twice to signify the efficiency honor won by the local chapter for two consecutive years.

The delegates who made the trip to Corvallis, by automobile, are: Rollin Hunter, past honorable duke; Victor Warner, present duke; Chester Rodner and Hugh Eldridge, past treasurer and recorder, and newly elected junior men; and Frank Bevington and John Lukens, newly elected scribe and recorder.

JUNIOR SERENADE PLANS COMPLETED

Violin Trio and Blue Bucket Band Are Music Features

Beginning at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday, April 19, the various group houses of the campus will be serenaded by the Juniors as the beginning of the Junior Week entertainment.

According to Warren Brown, chairman of the serenade committee, the selection of talent for the serenade has been completed. The Blue Bucket band will play the 1933 junior song and other numbers. A violin trio, composed of Wendell Olson, Bill Ames, and Dick Edwards will play several selections. Norval Ostroff and Elvon Hampton are to be featured in vocal solos. A male chorus may also sing.

"I advise no one to fall asleep before 12:30 a. m. Wednesday," warned Brown. "I believe that we have selected the best talent on the campus for the serenade, and it's going to be plenty good."

TURN TRACK MEN LOOSE ON CINDER PATH FOR WORKOUT

All Previous Practices Were Held in Lewis Court

Now that spring is here Coach Otto Anderson is turning his squad loose on the cinder path for the first time this season. Up to vacation all the practices were held in Lewis court.

"We still don't know how fast the boys can run," Anderson said. "The track is still too damp to make it possible for the fellows to turn in good time. The weather has certainly held us back this year, because in previous seasons the team could take to the track the last of March."

Many Laid Up

"Many of the men have been temporarily laid up on account of their inoculations that the men who are going to military camp are required to take. This has also slowed down our practices," continued Anderson, "but now that spring vacation is over, we'll start work in earnest. I think that the vacation did the fellows a lot of good. They've been working hard, and that indoor work is awfully tiresome."

Anderson is preparing his boys for the first meet of the season which will be with the Cheney Normal aggregation at Cheney, April 22. He plans to take most of the aspirants in order to give the new material some competitive experience. So far no hope has been received which would indicate the strength of the two squads. Much depends on the showing the fellows make this week.

Plan Handicap Meet

A special handicap meet is being prepared by Coach Anderson for this coming Saturday. This will be between the members of the team. Anderson plans to run every man he has in the races, giving the poorer men advantages over the better. In some instances plans to start them from scratch, as will be the case in the 100 yard with Felton and Kalbus. This will give the men a chance to experience competitive racing. In the jumps and weights handicaps will also be made. Norby will be allowed about a foot in order to offer a close battle for Paul Berg in the shot put. Berg boasts the iron pill regularly to the 43 foot marker, while Norby manages about 42 feet.

Johnny Thomas still leads the pack in the 1-4 mile and half-mile, with Bowler his nearest competitor. Livingston also keeps well ahead of the others in the distances.

Livingston and Thomas are both lettermen of last season upon whom Anderson is building his distance and middle distance hopes for the coming season. Two new men, Arnett and Klinger, are showing up well in the quarter mile.

Skinny Nelson has turned in the highest vault beating any of his jumps of last year. He has made several leaps of 12 feet 6 inches, while his other jumps almost equal the mark.

"The fellows have certainly been cramped for room in Lewis court, hindering progress in nearly all events. Now that we are outside, we can try for speed, height, and distance under more ideal conditions," concluded Anderson.

SPECIAL SERVICE ON GOOD FRIDAY

Moscow Ministerial Association Sponsors Program at St. Mark's Episcopal Church

Next Friday from 12 o'clock noon and continuing until 3 o'clock, corresponding to the three hours that Jesus was on the cross, members of the Moscow Ministerial association will sponsor a Good Friday program to be held at the St. Mark's Episcopal church. There will be special music.

A devotional program has been outlined by the ministers, the subject for each speaker being one of the seven last sayings of Jesus from the cross. The speakers in order are: the Rev. A. R. Pike of the Brethren church, the Rev. Hugh R. Jordan of the Nazarene church, Dr. J. Edgar Purdy of the Methodist church, the Rev. Roger P. Oliver of the First Lutheran church, Rev. Hamilton West, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal church, Dr. Clifford M. Drury of the Presbyterian church, Rev. W. Harley Smith of the Baptist church.

PROCESS MAKES LIGHTER METAL

New Kind Will Make Much Stronger Material

A new type of metal which will be stronger and lighter than materials used in buildings and machinery will result from a process being developed at the Utah university, D. W. Forsgren, engineering experiment student, believes.

The process of producing magnesium in sufficient quantities to supply demand of the metal, will eventually be accomplished, Forsgren said. It develops magnesium from a form of limestone by means of heat produced by electricity.

Large lime deposits in Utah would make this production successful and economic, the engineer said. The metal is lighter than either steel or aluminum, and for that reason could be used in construction of large machinery. The strength of the metal would make it particularly useful for propellers of airplanes, ships and drive shafts of heavy engines, Forsgren said.

DEPRESSION GIVES MEN OPPORTUNITY STATES DEAN KERR

Junior College Head Addresses Associated Foresters' Annual Banquet

"Young men of today in America are living in the land of opportunity. For a depression calls for leadership and initiative," said T. S. Kerr, dean of the Junior College, in a talk at the Associated Foresters' annual banquet in the Blue Bucket, Wednesday evening.

James Evenden, entomologist from Coeur d'Alene acted as toastmaster at the banquet and Lawrence Newcomb, president of the Associated Foresters, gave the opening address and introduced the guests.

Mr. Jewett pointed out the effects of taxation of land on forestry practice. Among the many guests who attended the banquet were Ben E. Bush, state forester, and his secretary, Adrain Nelson, Jr., both of Moscow.

Aspiring "He-Men" Unshaven Faces Banned by Co-Eds

Aspiring "he-men," here's some crushing and sorrowful news for you, but it ought to be a helpful tip! The women don't like the grizzly unshaven stubble you revel in wearing! Now what are you going to do about it? Wait a minute, let's hear what they say.

Ellen Jack—"It seems like plain personal negligence to me. Wearing beards need not be done to show masculinity. Men expect women to be neatly groomed and made up; likewise, do we expect them to look freshly shaven."

Marthalene Tanner—"Men's wearing half grown beards is certainly silly. It reminds me of the ray nannies. Men these days don't wear beards."

EIGHT LETTERMEN REPORT TO INITIAL BASEBALL TURNOUT

Coach Rich Fox Will Work on Fundamentals Until Field Dries

The 1933-Vandal baseball season officially opened last Saturday when 30 candidates answered Coach Rich Fox's initial summons for ball players. The first practice was held on the football field since the diamond was still too damp to use.

Batting practice and general ball handling was stressed in the first practice. Coach Fox expressed surprise at the wealth of material that responded to the call. Of the 34 candidates, eight are lettermen from last season's squad.

Working Fundamentals. Rich plans to keep the boys working on the fundamentals until the diamond is in shape to start the finer points of the game. Fox doesn't know how the squad will shape up in the next few weeks since the new material hasn't had a chance to work into the old machine of veterans.

Those who turned out for the first practice are McNeely, Speirs, Kline, Schutte, Sather, Jacobson, Hayden, Geraghty, Larson, Sanger, Rodell, Swan, Thompson, Willis, Kleiner, Snyder, Jump, Maxfield, Alby, Anderson, Brown, Burke, Blatner, Cranston, Compe, Eggers, Hurley, Lacy, Lindsey, Lanford, Mangum, Moser, and Severn.

TROY RALLIES TO GET BANK OPEN

Raise $50,000 in Three Days; Bohman Commends Patrons. The story of how an entire community rallied behind its single bank, which had been closed since the first of the month, was told Saturday with the reopening Friday of the First Bank of Troy by special permission of the state finance department.

Within three days time $50,000 was raised in Troy, either in cash or its equivalent, to permit the bank to reopen its doors for its usual business. The problem was solved without reorganization, said O. Bohman, president.

Stock in the bank was assessed 250 per cent in order to raise the required $50,000. At the same time the bank completely charged off all doubtful and frozen assets, including a $34,000 deposit in the closed American bank of Spokane.

Only One Change. The reopening was accomplished by the directors with the advice of A. B. Wheeler, state bank examiner. There was no change in personal assets that one man working in the bank was eliminated.

The bank is in very liquid condition now, Mr. Bohman declared. "The public can rely upon it. Our patrons were very loyal during this crisis and we are proud of the way they responded."

Idaho To Be Desert In The Midst Of Sea Of Brewing

Further north along the border is Newport, split by the Idaho-Washington borderline. Beer in exchange for water may be a government project for the Idaho side has a legal right to protect its water source but an effort in the last legislature to give the Washington side of the town the right to patrol a stretch of Idaho watershed was unavailing.

The extreme north of Idaho border is the first place on the British Columbia side. The Bitterroot and Beaverhead mountains form a wall between Montana and Idaho along the east border although in summer Missoula is within driving distance.

Along the Wyoming border, just across from Idaho are such towns as Thane, Bedford, Grover, Afton and Smoot while the town of Freedom sits astride the border, as does the town of Border, itself, out from Montpelier. Across the line 15 miles is Cokerville, already a prominent tourist stop on the Old Oregon Trail.

Enterprising beer distributors have taken up the idea of building a resort at the Idaho-Wyoming border near Montpelier. The Utah-Idaho border stretches halfway from east to west to a beer at all entrances. Gardner, on the north, is in Montana, and enough of that state extends southward along the west border of the park to include West Yellowstone so that beer may be had 25 miles from Old Faithful.

Boise, the capital, lies 75 miles "inland" from the foamy shores of Oregon but Ontario, Nyssa and Vale prepared to handle the patronage from this city and adjacent places. Northern Lewisville has only to cross the Snake river to find Clarkston, Uniontown or Asotin in Washington.

MOSCOW STUDENTS RANK HIGH AT U.

Grading at the university is based as follows: A grade counts 4 points; B, 3; C, 2; D, 1; and F, 0. Three hundred four members of the freshman class are from Idaho; the balance of the class is made up of students from 20 states and foreign countries. Forty-four members of the 1932 graduating class from Moscow high school entered the university in September, 1932. Ten of the students are classed second high with a grade average of 4.614 which is .484 higher than the average of this division. Seven are in the third division of the class and 11 are in the lowest quarter.

The scholastic average of the 44 students is 4.279 which is .104 higher than the average student in the class. Grading has been started on the location of the new gasoline storage tanks to be constructed across the street from the Union Oil company's service station on Eighth street. A car of gravel is being leveled over the ground as a foundation for the yard. The storage tanks will be used by the Union Oil company, while the old tanks in back of the service station will be used for the Moscow grange organization.

Bing Crosby And Dick Arlen List College Slang Terms

The modern Greeks always have a word for it.
Intent on making "College Humor" as collegiate as possible, Bing Crosby and Richard Arlen, Paramount picture stars, worked out a list of college slang, and discovered that it was possible to carry on a conversation with hardly any recourse to formal language.

If you "take it on the lam to crack a book," you are leaving hurriedly to go home and study.
If you "made a pass" and got thrown for a loss, you mean that you made friendly overtures to someone who rejected them.
If you attend classes dressed up you are a "capitalist," but if you go in corduroys, and a sweat-shirt or a sweater you are a "peasant."

Recall Long List.
Crosby and Arlen, both college men, remembered a long list of equally effective words and phrases common to most campuses. Here are some of them:
Acce: held in high regard, as "his ace."
Apple-polisher: one who curries favor or grades from an instructor by ingratiating himself in the latter's good graces.
Babe: any girl.
Barb: non-fraternity man; not a "greek," a barbarian.
Base-hit: successful attainment of any objective.
Bender: state of intoxication.
Binge: see "bender."
Blew: departed.
Boiled: see "binge."
Brawl: (1) a dance; (2) wild party; (3) see "boiled."
Canned: (1) expelled; (2) see "brawl."
Capitalist: one who wears good clothes to classes.
Cockeyed: see "canned."
Cocky: unmerited feeling of superiority.
Constructed: built; said of a girl.
Crack a book: to study.
Cram: to study diligently.
Crate: an automobile.
Dame: any girl.
Dark horse: blind date.
Davenport technique: parlor tricks.
Dilly: very good, as in "it's a dilly."
Dig: a dance.
Don't be a ditzel: don't be silly.
Don't be an eaf: same as "don't be a ditzel."
Ducked out: departed suddenly.
Drag: to take.
Flap: a failure.
Frunk: fiancée.
Frunk: a pledge to a fraternity.
Forest primeval: nice girl; see Longfellow's "Evangaline."
Goat: pledge to a fraternity.
Gone social: has started taking out one girl regularly.
Gravy train: any sort of a successful graft, usually a manager-ship of some student activity.
Grind: one who attends college for the purpose of getting an education.
Heap: automobile.
Heavy: big, important, as in "heavy date."
Horn: pleasing, beautiful, successful, etc.
Horn: glass of intoxicating liquid.
Hung a pin: became engaged.
Laplender: girl who likes to cuddle.
Make a pass: make overtures, attempt.
No go: impossible, can't be done.
Oiled: see "cockeyed."
On the lam: hurried departure.
Peasants: opposite of "capitalists."
Pipe: easy, as "the course is a pipe."
Polishing the apple: an apple-polisher at work.
Professional: an athlete who has a campus job.
Right over second: same as "base hit."
Riot: splendid, praiseworthy, as "it's a riot."
Running with: going with.
Rushing: pursuing in a social way.
Slid through: (1) narrow escape; (2) easily.
Smoothie: modern version of a "sleeker."
Snooty: supercilious.
Snazzy: degree of perfection.
Anything can be "snazzy."
Squirrelley: slightly demented.
Softly: one who is unable to "take it."
Spiffed: see "oiled."
Stay up and get a draw: don't let adversity get the better of you.
Struggle: a dance.
Stewed: see "spiffed."
Stiff: see "stewed."
Take it: ability to handle a situation.
Thrown for a loss: defeated when "making a pass."
Took a powder: disappeared from a difficult situation.
Two strikes on him: he didn't have a chance when he started.
Waving his arms: see "stiff."
Went down swinging: tried hard, but missed.
What's the score?: what is going on?

SELECT MUSICIANS WHO WILL PERFORM IN STABET MATER

"Melody Week" Is May 7 to 14; Cummings Will Direct

Music week at the university, which is given under the auspices of the music department, will be held the week of May 7 to May 14. By proclamation of the president of the United States, this week is the national music week.

Plans for the programs to be given during music week have already been made.
On May 7, the chorus of Stabet Mater under the direction of Carleton Cummings will be given. The soloists in this chorus are: Louise Morley, soprano; Agnes Ramstedt, alto; Elvon Hampton, tenor; and Erwin Tomlinson, baritone.

On May 9, under the auspices of the public events committee, Miss Dorothy Fredericksen, contralto; Miss Laura Clark Hoshaw, pianist, will give a program.
"This program," says Mr. Cummings, "is well worth anyone's time. These three women are all splendid musicians."
Miss Newhouse, Miss Fredericksen, and Miss Hoshaw are all well-known former Idaho students.

The orchestral concert under the direction of Carl Claus will be given May 11.
On May 14 the program will be given by the different ensemble groups of the campus, which include the male quartet, the mixed quartet, Vandaliers, Vandalists, string quartet, and trios.
All programs are to be held in the auditorium. The Sunday programs will be at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and the week-day programs will be at 8:15 in the evening.

PLAN FIGHT CARD FOR COMING WEEK

Idaho Boxers Will Meet Aggregation from Spokane; Plans Not Definite

Another fight card is being arranged by the university boxing club for next week-end, although no definite plans have yet been formulated.
Billy Wilson, Gonzaga, will be pitted against Clyde Luce, of the Moscow Athletic club, for the main event.
Luce won a decision over George Theodorson in the last card held here. Both fighters will weigh around 170 pounds when they meet in the ring.

Outside Boxers
Other fisticufflers from Gonzaga as well as some from Lewiston and Pocatello will appear on the card. Only Idaho boys will be matched with the visitors, except for those who represent the Moscow A. C. "Dynamite" Sinclair, who fought on the last card and his brother are among the aggregation from Lewiston. Seven boxers are expected from Spokane and vicinity, while two or three are to be secured from Pocatello.
No definite plans have been made in respect to the date. It may have to be held next week-end, although interlocking with the other week program. The last card was such a success with the fight fans, according to Leo Calland, that this one will be well attended by the sport enthusiasts of the town and campus.

JUNIORS READY FOR GALA PROM

Committees Making Final Plans For Big Affair

Everything is in readiness for the staging of a unique and interesting Junior Prom. Plans have been completed to the smallest detail and final meetings of the various committees during the week will set the date for the action to begin.
No information has been given out concerning the nature of the decorations, but it is expected that they will be along the lines of the general plan which will be predominant throughout the week. The programs will also undoubtedly carry out the same idea.

Tickets for the Prom were put on sale last week and according to early reports are finding a brisk demand. As only one hundred tickets were printed, an early rush is expected for those remaining. Each group on the campus was allotted six or seven tickets and those not sold in one house will be transferred to another.

QUERY UNETHICAL

Yale isn't so snooty as coloring slantage, according to the Yale News but even so, it has a better standing in this matter than Harvard.
With Wilfred J. Funk, the lexicographer furnishing the data, the News learned Yale was far behind the schools of the midwest and southwest in tabling slantage terms. About Harvard, Funk said, he had failed to learn anything.
"When I wrote the editor of the Crimson for a list of Harvard's best slang words," Funk said, "I received a reply saying such a query was too unphilosophical."

CLASS TO MEET

All tennis players and golfers registered in P.E. 34, Sophomore sports, are to report at Memorial Gymnasium, 104, Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

WURSTER ELECTED SPUR SECRETARY

Next National Convention Will Be Held at University of Colorado

Marjorie Wurster, president of the local chapter of Spurs, was elected national secretary of the organization at the convention held in Corvallis, Oregon April 6, 7, and 8. About 50 delegates representing 12 universities and colleges were present at the convention. Marjorie Wurster and Ethlyn O'Neal were the local delegates.

With the acceptance of a petition to install a chapter of Spur at Butler university, Indianapolis, Indiana, a movement was started to expand Spur throughout the east. At present there are 14 chapters of the honor, all of which are west of the Mississippi. Within the next few years the national organization plans to expand through the United States.

Among the projects presented by the local delegates and voted upon at the convention, was that of junior Spur advisors. It was decided to have one junior woman to act as sponsor for each chapter. In this way the new Spurs will be aided in getting organized at the beginning of each year.

A national treasury system was also adopted. Formerly, each chapter handled its money entirely independent of the national. Now all treasuries will be supervised by the national treasurer.

The idea of joint conventions with intercollegiate knights was not accepted this year. It was explained that this is hardly possible yet because there are so many more chapters of the women's organization at present. However, both honoraries are in favor of the plan and with the new projects of expansion, it will be made possible within the next few years.

"The Oregon State Spurs entertained us royally," said Miss Wurster, "with a horse show, military ball, W. A. A. tea, and a joint intercollegiate Knight and Spur formal banquet. The entire convention was very successful."
The next national meet will be held in 1935 at the University of Colorado at Boulder.

The program will consist of volleyball, basketball, tennis, swimming, horseshows, ping pong, and other minor sports. Idaho has been put in charge of all challenges among the different schools.

The short service will be conducted by Rev. Hamilton West with other ministers assisting. There will be special musical numbers. The Lutheran choir will lead the singing. Lilies will be used as stage setting.

Tripping Co-Eds Feature Event At W.A.A. Tea Dance

Natural dancing will comprise the second part of the entertainment feature of the W. A. A. tea dance which will be held Saturday afternoon in the women's gymnasium from 2 to 5 o'clock. The entertainment will be divided into two parts: a resume of the comic part which will consist of clog dancing appeared in the last Argonaut.

The first group of dance numbers will depict moods of gaiety. They will consist of a solo, "Joy," Jean Ricker; a gay polka duet, Prudence Larsen and Betty Lucas; "Arabesque" Lenore Burnett and Ellen Frazier; "Frolia," Alberta Bergh and Jesse Hutchinson, and Jean Ricker; and a finale, "Plays of Childhood," in which six women, Helen Greaser, Virginia Laird, Prudence Larsen, Jean Ricker, Mary Schlueter, and Virginia Zeiler, will recall swinging, drop the handkerchief, blind man's bluff, rope jumping, and "ten steps."

With the change of mood comes a study of a Grecian fete. The dancers in this number are Geraldine Anderson, Irene Ash, Lenore Burnett, Ellen Frazier, Latene Richards.
This will be followed by a plastic study to Joyce Kilmer's "Trees," introduced by a vocal solo by Miss Agnes Botine, who is also directing a comedy quartet to accompany one of the clog dances. This study of "Trees" was presented at the Olympics in California last summer. Further Hunt and Betty Lucas will interpret the song.

The advanced class in natural dancing has arranged a group study in tempos using Michio Ito's rhythmic gestures and the program will be completed with two authentic national dances. Rosanne Horn will do a Spanish Tango to Alban's popular "Tango in D," and Elizabeth Nail and Eva Oberg will do a fiery Moravian dance.

Reservations for tables for the tables for the dance may be secured from the physical education department in the women's gymnasium or from Rosanne Horn at the Phi Delta Phi house. "We shall be glad to reserve tables for the entertainment feature of the dance which begins at 3 o'clock," said Miss Jeanette Wirt. "It will not be necessary to attend for the first part of the afternoon to get a reserved table."

The state superintendent is in northern Idaho the first of this month and is scheduled to appear in Lewiston Thursday. Arrangements are being made to invite Mr. Condie to the chamber of commerce meeting here Wednesday noon, said Secretary Harold Cornelison.

EDUCATORS ADVISE PRESIDENTIAL ACTS

Unless something happens to change the situation the rule of Franklin D. Roosevelt as president of the United States is to be one largely by the advice of college professors and other educators.
Among the president's closest advisors many of whose ideas are already incorporated in legislation passed at Roosevelt's behest are Prof. Raymond Moley of Columbia, now in the department of state; Dr. Rexford Gilbert, Harvard law school cum laude graduate; Prof. A. A. Berle, economist; Prof. M. L. Wilson of Montana State college, and Dr. H. Parker Willis, lecturer at Columbia and Washington and Lee and other colleges, who wrote the federal reserve act in 1914.

DUELING PERMITTED

The ban on student dueling in German universities has recently been removed, giving students another opportunity to give and accept challenges in the traditional manner. Blunted weapons are required, and beginners must wear steel masks. The decisions are made according to the hearing of the contestants, rather than their skill in attack or defense.

ACCEPTS INVITATION

Dr. Albert Einstein has accepted an invitation to teach at the Brussels University. It was announced recently by Dr. Einstein, who has forewarned against political action against the Jews, recently announced that he would never go back to Germany while present forces are in control of the government.

NEWS REELS USED IN GIVING COURSES

Weekly Movies Will Supplant General Information Classes

A weekly talking news reel, minus bathing beauties, marathon dances, horse races and similar events, but featuring significant happenings in the day-to-day history of the world hereafter will supplement general information courses in the University of Minnesota junior college, it was announced recently.

Beginning a new experiment in education, the "news reel theater" is planned primarily for junior college students in journalism, history and political science, but all students of the university may attend, according to Robert A. Kilsack, Jr. head of the department of visual education.

The 45-minute programs will be presented each Friday throughout the college year according to present plans.

SCHOOL IN SESSION

Thirty thousand students in grades from the kindergarten through junior college recently resumed their studies interrupted by the earthquake March 10.
Students met in parks adjacent to schools, playgrounds, and vacant lots. A plan which includes home work assignments, assisted by newspapers and the radio was outlined.

COMMUNITY SCHOOL

An anti-depression college for boys and girls, who have the equivalent of a high school education and who are unemployed, has been started at New Britain, Conn., by the Rev. T. S. Foundation. It was announced recently by Dr. Einstein, who has forewarned against political action against the Jews, recently announced that he would never go back to Germany while present forces are in control of the government.

Knights Report Convention At Corvallis Big Success

Seven Intercollegiate Knights returned from Corvallis Sunday, where they attended the national convention of the organization on the Oregon State campus last weekend.

Rollin Hunter, past duke of the Idaho chapter, was elected first editor of the "Round Table," official publication of the Knights planned for next year. Stanton Hale, '32, was re-elected national advisor. Maury Schwartz, University of Washington delegate, was chosen national president. Guy De Julio of Seattle, was chosen to fill the office of secretary-treasurer, left vacant by the death of Ira E. Curry, who died last winter. The University of Washington will be place of the next convention.

Report Meet Successful

The returning delegates reported a successful session from both business and social standpoints. Expansion was the prominent topic of the business meetings, along with other important items which included the revision of the ritual, establishment of a permanent office of secretary-treasurer, further development of inter-collegiate relations, and plans for new publications. The social sessions were held jointly with the Spurs, who were also convening at Corvallis.

Social affairs included a progressive dinner to the sorority houses, attendance in a body at the annual Military tournament and Horse Show luncheon for the official delegates, and alternates given by prominent college officials, formal joint banquet with the Spurs, delegates, and the concluding affair, the Military ball, where the delegates were guests of the Oregon State Scabbard and Blade organization.

Give New Trophy.
The Fang chapter of the Montana State college received the efficiency award given to the chapter in the national showing the most improvement during the past year. The Idaho chapter won the cup for the past two years. A new award was established in the form of a silver cup, to be known as the L. R. A. Curry memorial trophy, which will replace the old cup. The name of the Idaho Ball and Chain chapter will be inscribed on the new cup twice to signify the efficiency honor won by the local chapter for two consecutive years.

The delegates who made the trip to Corvallis by automobile are: Jack Mitchell, and Roy Victor-Werner, present duke; Chester Rodell and Hugh Eldridge, past treasurer and recorder, and newly elected junior men; and Frank Bevington and John Lukens, newly elected scribe and recorder.

JUNIOR SERENADE PLANS COMPLETED

Violin Trio and Blue Bucket Band Are Music Features

Beginning at 12:30 a. m. Wednesday, April 19, the various group houses of the campus will be serenaded by the Juniors as the beginning of the Junior Week entertainment.

According to Warren Brown, chairman of the serenade committee, the selection of talent for the serenade has been completed. The Blue Bucket band will play the 1933 junior song and other numbers. A violin trio, composed of Wendell Olson, Bill Ames, and Dick Edwards will play several selections. Norval Ostroot and Elvon Hampton are to be featured vocal soloists. A male chorus may also sing.

"I advise no one to fall asleep before 12:30 a. m. Wednesday," warned Brown. "I believe that we have selected the best talent on the campus for the serenade, and it's going to be plenty good."

PROCESS MAKES LIGHTER METAL

New Kind Will Make Much Stronger Material

A new type of metal which will be stronger and lighter than materials used in buildings and machinery, will result from a process being developed at the Utah university, D. W. Forsgren, engineering experiment student, believes.

The process of producing magnesium in sufficient quantities to supply demand of the metal, will eventually be accomplished, Forsgren said. It develops magnesium from a form of limestone by means of heat produced by electricity.

Large lime deposits in Utah would make this production successful and economic, the engineer said. The metal is lighter than either steel or aluminum, and for that reason could be used in construction of large machinery. The strength of the metal would make it particularly useful for propellers of airplanes, ships and drive shafts of heavy engines, Forsgren said.

STUDENTS PROTEST AGAINST REDUCTION

The student body of the University of California after a meeting recently adopted a resolution protesting against a proposed $5,000,000 cut in the biennial budget of the institution.
The resolution said a $5,000,000 cut, as recommended by the state ways and means committee, instead of the $3,000,000 reduction suggested by the university regents, would impair the efficiency of the institution, lower the quality of instruction, and might result in the loss of outstanding members of the faculty if the university were unable to compete with other schools on salaries.

It's Spring Mocracy Says Gentleman Jim

Stuffed yawns and other appropriate forms of greetings: Beer may come, and beer may go; but the thirsty Idaho students go on, forever thirsty.

Radicalism like a skunk needs more control and less offensive concentration.

We hear that the Junior Week Parade committee acquired several new and different ideas for the event by visiting the Spokane "Burlesque" shows. Apparently they plan to outstrip last year's performance.

The depression has brought many things out into the open, including the Insull Fertilities, beer, and women's pants.

We hear that as a result of Teachers Convention one lucky fellow will have a job next year—if he'll pay the school district $60 a month.

A certain person who had a brother (?) get him a blind date in the big city has selected for his epitaph, "Columbus never took a chance."

at the Kenworthy . . . DESTINATION UNKNOWN

"Destination Unknown" is an experiment in idealism—the novelty of the month. A crippled rum cruiser, minus its captain and with a crew demented by tormenting thirst, drifts helplessly until the stowaway appears, heals the sick, calms the warring crew, and guides the ship safely to harbor, where he disappears. It has, in spots, a bit of the eerie fascination of "Outward Bound"—and you're allowed to suspect that the stowaway is a modern conception of Christ. Ralph Bellamy gives a restrained, electric performance as the stowaway. Others in the excellent cast are Pat O'Brien, Alan Hale, Tom Brown, and Betty Compson.

PRIZE TALE OF WOE

Here's a prize tough luck fishing yarn. Chaire Freeth is the main victim. Recently he hooked a big steelhead but before he landed it, his line tangled in brush and broke, leaving the big fish hooked to the brush. Unable to reach the spot he lost his fish. Next day another fisherman saw the fish struggling to free itself, got a boat, untangled the line, and the fish entered it in a fish contest and won a prize.

ILLUSION: You see knives flash from the magician's hand and plunge into the board, framing the girl so closely that she cannot move.

EXPLANATION: Here is one way the blindfold knife throw is done: The knife thrower lets the knife go over his shoulder into the wings. The knife that you see quivering beside the girl is another knife. The girl standing against the board presses at the right place and a knife is sprung from behind the board into position.

NO TRICKS .. JUST COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN A MATCHLESS BLEND

It's fun to be fooled . . . it's more fun to KNOW

A clever trick employed in cigarette advertising is the illusion that manufacturing processes account for mildness in a cigarette.

EXPLANATION: All popular cigarettes are made in much the same way. Cigarettes vary greatly in mildness because they vary greatly in the quality of tobaccos used. Mildness, as well as character and good taste, depends upon the quality of tobaccos used.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

This is the most important statement ever made in a cigarette advertisement. Weigh its words. Consider what it means. Smoke Camels critically and learn to appreciate what costlier tobaccos can mean to you in mildness, in throat-ease . . . in added pleasure! Other cigarettes, we believe, will taste flat and insipid to you forever after.

TENNIS MATCHES DRAWING TO CLOSE DESPITE WEATHER

Martin Wins Right to Play In Finals By Defeating Sowder

The tennis matches, which started during spring vacation, is gradually drawing to a close in spite of unfavorable weather conditions which have somewhat hampered play. The remaining matches will be played this week.

Paris Martin won the right to play in the finals of the singles tourney by defeating Ray Sowder, 6-2, 6-4, in their match Monday afternoon. His opponent is yet unknown as several of the singles matches are yet to be played.

The winner of the Harold Ensinger-Jack Franklin match will meet Harry McCoy and the winner of that match will play the winner of the Owen Carpenter-Bill Hudson match for the right to meet Martin in the final match.

Reach Finals

Robert Cope and Ray Sowder have reached the finals in the doubles, but will not know their opponents until later as there are still several of these matches to be played.

The winner of the Richard Axtell-Fred Serafin and Richard Schumaker-Bob Lambert match will meet the Paris-Martin-Jack Franklin team. The winners will then play Cope and Sowder in the finals of the doubles.

Some interesting games have been played, with the Carpenter-Cope and the Bob Denton-Joe Peterson matches being especially good. These matches have afforded a good means of getting an idea of the material found this year at Idaho. Results of the preliminaries are:

CADET LIEUTENANT GREETED BY BAND

When a naval captain visits a foreign vessel and is greeted with bands, music, and escorts, that is not news. However, when an R. O. T. C. officer is greeted with such pomp and ceremony, that is news.

A captain in the United States navy recently boarded one of the visiting Japanese cruisers, and was not given a welcome due to one of his rank. The disgusted Japanese captain thoroughly impressed his seamen with the necessity of properly greeting visiting officers.

Soon afterwards when a lieutenant in the University of Washington R. O. T. C. walked up the gangplank of the cruiser, he was pompously greeted by trumpets, side boys and the ship's band.

WHITMAN IS FIRST ON 1933 SCHEDULE OF VANDAL TEAM

Cocher Fox Takes Squad to Walla Walla for 4-Game Series

Cocher Rich Fox takes his varsity baseball squad to Whitman Friday and Saturday to face the Missionaries in a four game baseball series.

Using his eight veterans as a foundation, Coach Fox is gradually building up his nine. As yet he has had little chance to test the new material and to begin to place the new men into the vacant positions.

Diamond Bad

The diamond has been in such a condition that regular infield practice is impossible. The weather has held up the turnout to the extent that two weeks have been lost, considering the time that the squad was able to take to the field last year. The grass outfield has been utilized for practice purposes while waiting for the diamond to dry out.

Fox has not decided who he will take to Walla Walla as he has not been able to see any of the new material in action.

His veteran outfield, composed of Jacobson, Geraghty, and Hayden will undoubtedly make the trip, being supplemented by any one of a number of newer men. Shortstop is well taken care of by Norman Sather, speedy, hard-hitting, midget. Sather is a letterman of two seasons and is noted for his good stick work.

Chuckers Plentiful

Chuckers are plentiful this season, with Lacy, Anderson, Speirs, Swanson, and Sanger ready to fill the mound position. The left-handers and right-handers on the pitching staff just balance, which will leave nearly an entire southpaw staff next year. The catcher position is amply provided for with Bill Schutte, "Mooney" Kline, and McNealy. These boys know the game and will relieve Fox of a lot of worry.

The greatest problem facing Fox is the filling of the vacancies at the sacks. First, second, and third are awaiting new men. It is possible that by shifting the squad around he will be able to work some of his experienced men into these positions. The squad is still too undeveloped to determine who will occupy permanent berths on Fox's 1933 nine.

Seasoned College Men Arise Early For Morning Drill

Tramp, tramp, tramp, tramp: "one, two, three, four; one, two, three, four." To the casual observer, or hearer, no one is up early enough to see at that time of the morning a kindergarten group is just learning to count, but to the seasoned college man, the R. O. T. C. is at its early morning drill, once more.

"Company.... platoon.... halt! One, two; one, two, three." Once again the boys show a remarkable ability to count, except that they should count up to five instead of repeating, but, perhaps they are just trying to learn through repetition.

"At ease" is given and one sees a sleepy looking bunch of soldiers leaning on the muzzles of their rifles. "Company.... Platoon.... Attention." Once again the group takes on the appearance of more or less respectable soldiers. "Forward: March...." Again they proceed on their arduous, sleepy march over the grass, the walks, and the streets.

Eyes anxiously watch the clock on the front of the Administration building; feet clump down together (more or less, at least) and uniforms itch the wearers. Yes, early morning drill is on once again, much to the discomfort of those who must arise early to get their early morning repast as well as to the discomfort of those who arise early to drill.

Why is the Stem removed from the tobaccos used in Chesterfield?

That's a very simple question to answer. The stem in a tobacco leaf, like the stem in most other plants, is "woody". It hasn't any of the flavor or the aroma that you want when you smoke. And it doesn't burn right.

So after tobacco has been properly aged, one of the first things to do is to remove the stems.

But what has this to do with your enjoyment of Chesterfield cigarettes? Just this. It means that we start right when we make Chesterfield—the right kind of leaf with the stem removed, the right manufacture—everything that science knows that can make CHESTERFIELD a milder cigarette, a cigarette that tastes better.

That's why people say "They Satisfy."

Tobacco used to be stemmed by hand—Now this machine stems 14,300 leaves every hour.
